A black snake, measuring five and one-half feet in length, was on exhibition at Tenney's stable last Sunday. It was killed by Daniel McClure and John M. Atwood in Geo. E. Colby's pasture, a short distance beyond the depot.

Chas. W. Kelsea is closing up his apple parer business at the old Kelsea mill, and moving the machinery, etc., to Rochester, N. Y., where he will continue the manufacture of apple-parers. June 1st the mill property passes into the hands of the Goodell Company.

Ephraim Weston Post of the G. A. R., and Frank W. Butler Camp, S. of V., attended the Congregational church in Bennington, last Sunday, and listened to an excellent memorial sermon by the pastor, Rev. G. W. Lawrence.

Owing to the press of labor of Rev. Mr. Whiteside in closing his course of study and preparing for examination in the Boston University, the official board have seen fit to grant him a short vacation at the present time. Consequently there will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sunday, but the Sabbath-school and prayer-meeting will be held as usual.

A delegation from Laurel lodge, No. 78, I.O.O.F., of Wilton, made a fraternal visit to Waverley lodge of this town, at their meeting last Saturday evening. The party numbered twenty-two, and arrived on the six o'clock train, and took their departure for home on the milk train Sunday morning. They made their headquarters at the Antrim house while in town.

C. L. Clark, the accommodating driver of F. B. Kimball's Peterboro' baker cart through this village for two years past, is now driving for W. S. Goodnow of Peterboro', and continues his weekly visits among our people. His line of bread and pastry, which is from the Kimball bakery, is first-class in every particular and excelled by none, as many of our citizens can amply testify.

The mixed train from Concord last Monday forenoon was a couple of hours late in reaching this station, the delay being occasioned by a car getting off the track at Hillsborough Bridge. The Peterborough train, Conductor Long, in waiting at Hancock Junction, was sent to the bridge, and the delayed passengers and mails were taken to their destinations, and connection made with the Keene train at Hancock Junction. The Boston mail and papers due here at noon, were about an hour late.

From an exchange we learn that about a fortnight since while a couple of men were crossing the Methodist camp-ground at Claremont Junction, in search of stray cattle, their attention was attracted to a shining object protruding from a heap of leaves in the ravine, and an investigation revealed the presence of a lot of table cutlery, crockery, lamps, etc. Among them was a lot of knives, forks and spoons wrapped up in a copy of the Portland Transcript of July 23, 1890, and bearing the name of Frank J. Muzzey. Since the last camp-meeting the boarding house and several of the cottages have been forcibly entered, and articles taken, and it is supposed that the kitchen of the Antrim society has been given a similar visit.

Memorial Day.

Saturday next, May 30th, occurs Memorial Day, when the appropriate services of the G. A. R. are observed in honor of their dead comrades in arms, who sacrificed their lives in defense of the nation's flag, and for the fostering of liberty throughout the union of states. It is pleasing to know that this sacred and hallowed observance is not allowed to diminish as the years roll on, but that its perpetuity is the more strengthened. 'Tis true the ranks of the survivors of that immense army of men who followed the Stars and Stripes in the trying days of '61 to '65 are steadily decreasing, and the answers to roll calls are becoming less as the years go by, and the little mounds in the "silent cities of the dead" all over the land, tell the story that other comrades have fought their last fight. How beautifully loving then is the testimonial offered by their surviving comrades, their sons and friends, and how sacred is the offering of flowers, mementos of affection, placed upon their graves. They gave their lives that our country might live, and to their memory is due all honor from a liberty-loving people.

In Antrim the observances of the day will be fully carried out by Ephraim Weston Post, No. 87, G. A. R., and Frank W. Butler Camp, No. 35, S. of V., as follows: The Antrim brass band and Post will leave G. A. R. hall in carriages for North Branch at 6 o'clock a.m. The column will form near the chapel and start for North Branch cemetery at 7 o'clock. After decorating the graves of soldiers in that cemetery, and holding such other services as may be arranged for, the procession will proceed in carriages to Antrim Centre, where the column will form at 8.15, and march to that cemetery, where the usual ceremonies will be carried out. Thence to South Village, arriving at 9.15. Memorial services in the Baptist church at 9.30 a.m., as follows: Music by the band; reading of Gen. Orders from G. A. R. Headquarters by Adj. L. Emery; remarks by the President of the Day, A. H. Ingram; oration by Major R. B. Prescott of Nashua, Medical Director Dept. N. H., G. A. R., subject, "The Fall of Richmond," which will be illustrated by maps; singing, male quartette. After the services in the church the column will form with the right resting in front of the school-house, in the following order: Antrim Brass Band, M. E. Nay, leader; escort, Frank W. Butler Camp, No. 35, S. of V., G. F. Foote, captain; Ephraim Weston Post 87, G. A. R., A. A. Gassett, commander; schools; citizens on foot; carriages in the rear, and march to Maplewood cemetery, where the following services will be held: prayer; decoration of soldiers' graves; dirge by the band. As soon as the services are completed, the column will re-form in the same order as before and march to G. A. R. hall, where the parade will be dismissed.

The Post, Camp and Band will then take carriages for Hancock, where Memorial services will be held; returning to Bennington, where services commence at 4 p. m.

The schools and citizens are cordially invited to be present at the services and join in the marches.

E. C. Paige will be marshal of the day.

Contributions of flowers, evergreen, etc., are desired to place upon the graves of the honored dead, and it is requested by the Post committee that the ladies arrange the wreaths and bouquets at their homes, marking those designed for especial graves, and hand them to the following comrades of the Post: For North Branch cemetery, with A. B. Crombie; Centre and Meeting-house hill, J. A. Beyer and E. C. Paige; East, G. G. Whitney, and for Maplewood cemetery at the Baptist church, by eight o'clock Saturday morning.

Mrs. Rebecca K. Hill of this village, reached her 85th birthday last Thursday, 21st inst., on which occasion she entertained friends at her home, the residence of her son, Luke W. Hill, on High street. Mrs. Hill is in the enjoyment of remarkably good health for one so far advanced in years, and bids fair to round out many years yet of useful and happy life. Her sister, Mrs. C. M. Robinson of Charlestown, Mass., who is 83 years of age, was present at the anniversary.

Passed from the scenes of earth to the eternal shores, last Sunday evening, at his residence in Antrim Centre, Mr. Samuel Gove, of the infirmities of old age and a gripple. Mr. Gove was a native of Hemenick, where he was born July 24, 1813, and at the time of his decease was 77 years, 9 months and 11 days of age. December 15, 1842, he married Harriet N. Newman of Washington afterward residing in that town and Deering. He moved to Antrim in 1876, on to the old Aiken or McKean place on Main street, South Antrim village, which property two years later he sold to George E. Whittem, in whose hands it still remains. Mr. Gove then moved on to the E. L. Vose farm at the Centre, which he purchased, east of the Town house, and where he passed the declining years of his life with his children. The deceased was an upright and conscientious Christian man, and a member of the Presbyterian church at the Centre. The funeral services were held at his late residence at ten o'clock this forenoon, Rev. W. R. Cochrane, D. D., officiating, and the interment was in Maplewood cemetery. Besides a widow, the deceased leaves two sons, both of whom reside at the Centre village.

Some of the Grand Army boys may be interested in the following from Alex. B. Pope, A. D. C., Commander, Dep't. Tenn. and Ga. He says: "We have had an epidemic of whooping cough here, (Stewart, Tenn.) and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been the only medicine that has done any good." There is no danger from whooping cough, when this remedy is given. It completely controls the disease. 50 cent bottles for sale by Putney & Little.

Putney & Little, the druggists, desire us to publish the following testimony as they handle the remedy and believe it to be reliable. I bought a 50 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and applied it to my limbs, which have been afflicted with rheumatism at intervals for one year. At the time I bought the Pain Balm I was unable to walk. I can truthfully say that Pain Balm cured me. R. H. FARR, Hollywood, Kan. Mr. A. B. Cox, the leading druggist at Hollywood, vouches for the truth of the above statement.

Kentucky Almont,

The Handsomest Horse in New Hampshire,

Son of the Great Almont,

WILL MAKE THE SEASON OF 1891

At the Stable of

WM. H. DARRAH,

"HILLSIDE FARM,"

BENNINGTON, N. H.

Foaled May 12, 1882. Bred by Gen. Wm. T. Withers, at Fairview Stock Farm, Lexington, Ky. Sired by old Almont, the great sire of trotters. Kentucky Almont's first dam, Lady Richelieu, is choicest mare, 13½ hands high. The following is what her owner says of her: She is by far the handsomest and most blood-like of my brood mares, and is the greatest long-distance roadster in the great horse state of Kentucky. Kentucky Almont is a horse of magnificent proportions, standing fully 16 hands high, weighs 1100 pounds; is a rich golden bay, with black points, nice mane and tail, splendid head and neck, deep oblique shoulders, short, powerful back, round barrel, long smoothly turned hips, clean hooks, and the very best of feet and legs. His disposition is perfection; his gait is long, level and far-reaching, with that quick, easy motion and splendid stride action so notable in the Almont family, that will some day carry him a mile in 2:20 or better. He was started up a few times the past winter, and could, in the estimate of good judges, show a 30 gait to sligh. He is one of the finest and gamiest roadsters a man ever rode behind. Breeders are now looking for size, style, solid colors, speed and road qualities combined, all of which Kentucky Almont possesses. Terms, $25.00 for the Season.
