GRANGE MEETING

The regular meeting of Hillsboro Grange was held Wednesday, Feb. 23. Two applications were received and two others received a favorable ballot. Invitations were received for Presiding Master's night at Wyoming Grange of South Weare and Uncanoonuc Grange of Goffstown on March 16.

The third degree was conferred by the Ladies' degree team of Purlingbeck Grange of East Washington and the fourth degree by the regular officers for Deputy Instruction on five candidates. The tableaux for the degrees were in charge of Iona Nelson assisted by Frances Sweet, Louise Mills and Armande Kern.

Deputy George Gilbert, the Lady Assistant Steward of State Grange, Marjorie Emory and the masters of Purlingbeck, Lovell, Wolf Hill, Sutton and Somerville, Mass. Grangers were seated at the right of the master.

The short program consisted of songs by George Gilbert, an original poem by "uncle Cy" Dennison read by Gertrude Morrill and a piano solo by Mae Hadlock.

There was some discussion of the poem as it was about a trip to Washington on which a certain man gave the wrong directions and the car landed at Half Moon Pond instead of Hillsboro.

A lunch consisting of salmon wiggle on crackers, pickles, cake and coffee was served by Ilene Parker and helpers.

The next meeting will be held March 9 at which time a discussion of the school Warrant will be presented.

District Nursing Association

If you were asked to name the organization in Hillsboro most necessary to the welfare of its Citizens, what would you say? Without hesitation I know I would name the Hillsboro District Nursing Association. No one knows better than I the worth of the District Nurse, for I have been under her ministrations for nearly 30 years. Of course hundreds of others have received the same benefits for shorter periods.

The association fortunately is not connected with the Red Cross or other organizations, so that it makes its own rules and regulations.

Some people know little about this association and its management. It has a president, vice-president, secretary and a treasurer, a Board of Directors and an Advisory Board. It should have a large membership of townspeople who would help support the organization by paying a fee of $1.00 each year. But as usual there are only a few who attend the annual meeting and accept any responsibility. Heretofore the Association has been able to meet its expenses from collection from patients, for examinations of the school children, the annual appropriation from the town of $750.00, and an occasional gift like that of the Hillsboro Centre Benevolent Society, which has given $25 more than once, and also given an audiometer used by

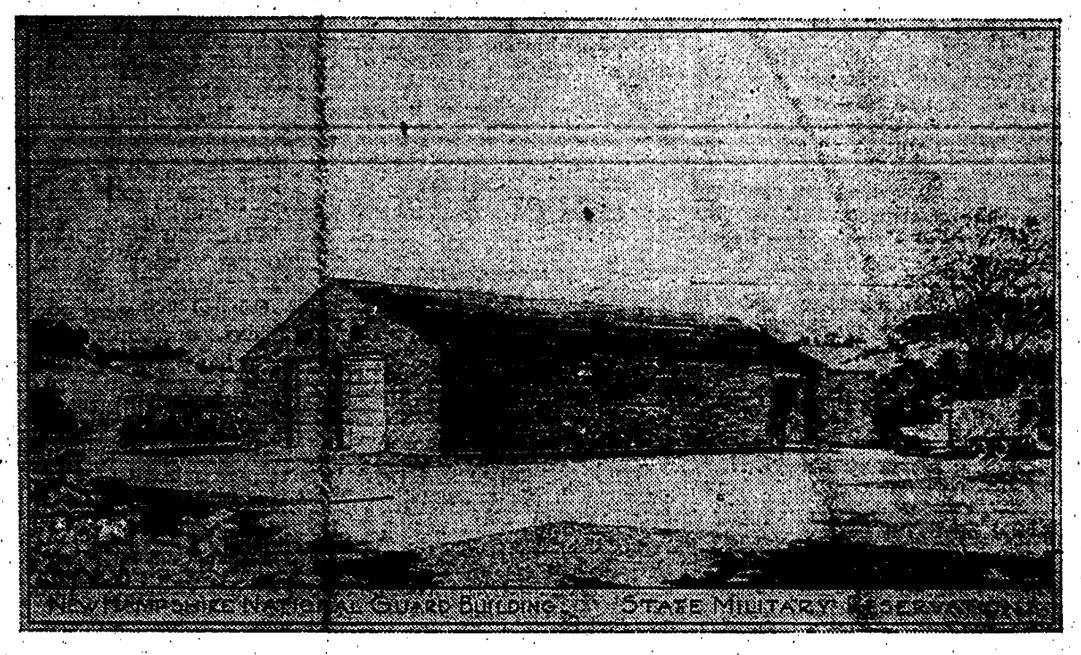
Artists Picture of First Armory Unit



This is what the first armory building in Hillsboro will look like as shown in an architect's perspective from actual blue prints. The building to be constructed near the Veino side of the Military Reservation is known technically as a motor vehicle storage building and is the first of a series planned. In an interview with the Messenger Adj: Gen'l Charles F. Bowen said the cost of the building to be paid for from federal funds would be in the neighborhood of $50,000 with state costs for added features making the probable value $60,000. He said the title for the land had all ready been accepted by the state and the request for final federal approval would soon be forthcoming. Following federal approval of the project the construction would be let out to bid. The General said that he hoped some local person would get the bid, but that federal regulations prevail and out-of-state bidders could do the work if they were low bidders. They should employ some local labor, he thought.

The Adj: General was high in praise for the efforts of Dr. Harrison Baldwin and the citizens committee whose interest brought the plan to realization. It augers well for the future of the State Armory in Hillsboro, he said.

Long range plans call for several other buildings to complete the physical plant necessary for a military reservation.

TOWN MEETING DINNER

A town meeting dinner will be sponsored by the Senior Class on March 8. It will be held at the Presbyterian Church at twelve o'clock.

The menu will consist of: Meat loaf, mashed potatoes, peas and carrots, green salad, rolls, pie and coffee.

The price of the dinner will be $.75.

HOME ECONOMICS

The Molly Aiken Chapter D. A. R. offered prizes in a home-making contest to the members of the Home Economics classes. There were three contests to choose from. They were: Menu Making, Scrap Book and Dressmaking.

The first prize of $3.00 went to Barbara Shea, grade 9. The second prize of $2.00 went to Priscilla Cook, grade 12.

The purposes of the contests were: To foster the ideals of a home, to instruct in the duties, privileges and responsibilities of home life, to interpret the function of a home as an important bulwark for God and country.

Judging was done by a committee from the Chapter.

SOPHOMORE DANCE

The Sophomore Class is planning a dance which they call the "Snow Ball". It is to be held on March 11th, with music by Gordon Emerson and his orchestra of Keene, with Elaine Stewart, vocalist.

Committees are as follows: Decoration committee: Beatrice Cook chairman; Mary Ellen Thornton and Richard Hartwell. Publicity committees: Jack Munhall chairman; Bruce Cuddihy and Joe White.

Refreshment committee: Anna Edwards, chairman; Janice Hills and Donald Wallace. Cleanup committee: Mary Ellen Thornton, chairman; Christine Brown, Bruce Cuddihy, Joe White, Merle Aborn, Richard Hartwell and Jack Munhall.

The Sophomore class has been working hard on plans for this dance, and hope that it will be a great success.

FOURTH GRADE

On the fourteenth of February, we had a Valentine party.

We invited Mr. Johnson to it. Mrs. Chamberlain and Mrs. Ellinwood made up some pretty cupcakes. Mrs. Miner made up some lovely sandwiches.

We also had ice cream. The table was very pretty. We had bonbons, balloons and lots of cards. Christies Ellinwood and Judy Whittemore passed out the cards.

This week is safety week and we are going to draw posters for it.

In art we have been drawing more designs. We painted flowers and vegetables, making color designs.

We read a story about three little Indians. We learned from it that it doesn't pay to be lazy. Two of the Indians were lazy. The youngest worked hard, but soon the lazy ones learned that we must work.

The teacher drew us a picture of March winds. Today March came in like a lion.

We are going to learn a poem. "My Shadow", by Robert Louis Stevenson, which we like very much.

by Kenneth Miner

SIXTH GRADE
Feb. 14-Feb. 18

The sixth grade is glad to welcome the two members of the class who have been out of school sick. (Charles Wood and Aden Ring)

We now have a school lending library in our room. Our teacher brings books from the Antrim Public Library and we check them out in school. It is very nice for the children who live in North Branch and Clinton, since they do not have a chance to go to the Library.

We all had a good time Thursday. Feb. 17, 1949 when we went to Bennington for a recital. We sang songs and did choral speaking. We had cocoa, sandwiches and ice cream for supper. We had movies and then a square dance before coming home.

Town to Fete Basketball Teams Next Thursday

HILLSBORO, March 3—Kindled by the enthusiasm of the Durham tournament in which the Hillsboro boys reached out for top glory, local basketball fans are completing arrangements this week for a town wide testimonial banquet.

This red letter day in sports interest will be Thursday, March 10. The dinner at the High School will commence at 6:30 p. m.

The committee, headed by Donald Matthews, has gone all out to make this a top rate evening and have spared no effort in arranging for food and speakers.

Until the recent Durham tournament, Hillsboro was just another ball club from a town in the Contoocook Valley, but what a team it turned out to be. Knocking off two of the toughest squads in the prelims, Towle of Newport, and St. Johns of Concord, the boys lost to Pinkerton Academy in the finals, due in part to their terrific schedule.

Speakers at the dinner to which a genial invitation is extended will be William Mokray, director of basketball for the Boston Gardens, and genial Tom Hines of Brookline, Mass., and Hillsboro, who will be master of ceremonies. Honored guests will be the boys varsity squad and the girls varsity, who also are champs, having won their league championship, their managers and coaches.

Because about 250 are expected to attend, the dinner will be at the High School Gym. No tickets will be sold after Tuesday, March 8th, so that the committee will be able to notify the caterer, of the number attending.

The dinner will cost $2.00 per plate with a free dance following. Tickets can be purchased at Boardman's, Tasker's, the P. X., Baker's Pharmacy, at the Hillsboro Laundry, Square Market and at Matthews Barber Shop.

Antrim Center

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gordon have been entertaining Mr. Gordon's two nephews.

Miss Dorothy Gordon had a former school mate from Billerica, Mass., as house guest last week.

A good crowd attended the Grange-Legion dance Friday evening at Grange Hall. The lucky raffle ticket was drawn by a Hudson man who was not present.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Ewing Wilson were in Concord Wednesday where Mr. Wilson attended a meeting of the N. H. Citizens' Council. Mr. Wilson is a member of the Recreation committee.

Mrs. Irene Flanders
CORRESPONDENT

Chicken time is here again. Charlie McLean and his wife are going to be very busy now: 2000 baby chicks came this week, and they will get 2000 more at different times until they reach their capacity, about 7000. Any one who has had baby chicks wlil realize just how busy they are.

Mildred London is also very busy. She was papering the first of the week at Mrs. McLean's home and next week.

Blanche Gunn kept her yearly rendevous in Concord yesterday, when she spent the day with Mrs. Melinda Crowell, who was 97 years old last week. Blanche met Mrs. Crowell when "Bernard was courtin' Blanche", and has kept up the friendship with the Crowell family, and looks forward to this yearly get-together.

Mr. and Mrs. Stubbe went to Lynnfield, Mass., recently to attend the wedding of Mrs. Stubbe's niece, Jane Carter. Miss Carter became the bride of Clarkson Aldridge at a very large home wedding.

The Military Whist Party held by the Friendship Club at Oddfellows Hall, on George Washington's birthday, was a huge success; so much so, that they have had a great many requests to have others. There were 10 tables playing. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Still, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard McManus won top scores. At the consolation table were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Downing and Ruby Patenaude and Ada Fuller. Barbara Osborne and Marian Russell were on the program committee, and in charge of the flags; the refreshment committee were Rosie Colburn, Muriel Fuller, Beatrice Bockus, Elizabeth Legge and Evelyn Rice. Part of the enthusiasm could have been because of the refreshments which were apple pie, ice cream, cheese and coffee.

Another party the night of the 22nd was a brush demonstration at the home of Mrs. Helen Drewry. There were 14 present; games were played and prizes given as usual. Barbara Brown won at "Animal Imitations" with a perfect imitation of a bantam rooster crowing. The Punctuality prize was given to Mrs. Rena Reade, and the door prize went to Mrs. Brown. Following the demonstration, Mrs. Drewry served a bountiful lunch, of salads, fancy cakes, and coffee. Esther Hollis received the steak knives; also her cameo pin and ear rings.

The P.T.A. which was to have been Monday ,Feb. 28, has been postponed until Monday night, Mar. 7. This will be a Founder's Day meeting, which should be very interesting, as a group of the members, with Mrs. Nellie Perigo, the president, went to Manchester to attend the Founder's Day meeting.

Mrs. Wilbur Kamp has returned from the George School where her daughter, Priscilla, is studying. While there Mrs. Kamp attended the regular classes and saw the students at work, which she found very interesting. She went to be there on Parents' Day.

Jack Fuller, who hurt his left hand quite badly on a saw, we are glad to say, is very much improved. He cut two fingers, but the prompt attention he was given helped his hand to improve quicker.

Dr. John Stubbe, Associate Professor of Mathematics at the University of New Hampshire, Mrs. Stubbe, and two children, Joan and John, Jr., enjoyed a turkey dinner last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stubbe, in honor of Dr. John's birthday. Sveneteen of the family were present, and they had three birthday cakes to go with the ice cream, making it a real "turkey with all the fixin's."

Mrs. Susie Chase spent Friday in Clinton Grove, visiting with the Flanders family, and Mrs. Nellie Wilson, who is staying with her brothers family for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Flint and son, Robert, spent the week-end through the 22nd at their home, High Meadow, in Clinton Grove. Mr and Mrs. Morse, next door, at Mid Hill, were also in town for the week.

Mrs. Della Clement has been hostess, during the past vacation week, to the younger children, during the children's program, on the television in the late afternoon.

At the weekly card party of Weare Grange, there were eight tables in play. High score went to Elton Matthews of Hillsboro. Doris Eaton won first prize for women; Scott Eastman for men. Consolation prizes went to Maude Jameson of Concord, and Arthur Peaslee. Mrs. Grace French drew the door prize. Sandwiches and coffee were served by the lunch committee, Edith Turner and Clarence George.

Betty Gayle, 9 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rhodenizer, has been very sick with a bacterial ear infection, but we are happy to say that she is now beginning to get better.

Mildred London, Esther Hollis and Rose Marie Hollis went to Boston to see the Ice Follies last week. Several others tried to get seats, but were too late. Mildred was very much impressed, and said it was very beautiful; really hard to describe.

Donald Gregg, P.F.C., of the Air Corps, has just had a 10-day furlough which he spent with his aunt Mrs. Bertha Gregg. Donald was stationed at San Antonio, Texas, but is going to Cheyenne, Wyoming, where he will go to clerk-typist school for a twelve weeks course. He may possibly go over seas from Cheyenne, as out of his 3 years training, he has to have 18 months over seas.

The North Weare primary class of the Sunday school will have in place of their regular classes next Sunday morning, a "Radio Program." The children call their station, NWUSS, (North Weare Union Sunday School) and there will be a question box, conducted by Mrs. Kamp, like a real radio program, and the subjects they have been studying recently. Both children and teachers are full of enthusiasm, and are impatiently waiting for Sunday.

About 20 friends met at Leon Reade's for the Sunday night sing. Mrs. Kamp and Irene Flanders took turns playing the hymns. A novel way of choosing hymns was suggested. Each person in turn instead of finding a song used their age for the song number. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Flanders, of Manchester, were present and Mr. Flanders was one of the soloists of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Clement spent the last week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Carlson, at their home at Lake Sunapee.

News of interest to Weare folks is the announcement of Mr. and Mrs. Jeffer Mahmet, of Washington, D. C., of a son, Jeffer Mortiza, born on Feb. 15th. Also the announcement of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Smart of a son, Carl, on Jan. 20th. Mrs. Smart was Nancy Mahmet, Jeffer's sister and both young people are graduates of Weare High. The babies are fourth generation children; their grandmother, Mrs. Helen Ericson, living in Concord, and great grandmother, Mrs. Effie Hurd, of Derry, both formerly Weare residents.

March certainly came in like a "lion". We hope it will hold true to the traditional wording and go out like a "lamb".

Have a few items of interest, Mrs. Perley Crane sent up to me, and thanks for sending them.

Robert and Mildred Crane were in Durham from Wednesday through Saturday attending the basketball tournament. While there, they were guests of Richard and Barbara Crane, students at the University.

Donald Crane attended the tournament at Durham on Wednesday.

Virgil Houghton, Jr. spent his vacation from school with his grandmother, Mrs. Perley Crane.

Perley Crane has completed filling the icehouses at Island Pond. He reported 14 ins. of ice this season.

Cards were recently received from Mr. A. W. Hartt who has been in Hawaii this winter. Mr. John Bell tells us his daughter, Harriet, met Mr. Hartt on the street in Honolulu. It was a surprise to both the Island Pond neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fowler and family of Manchester, N. H. called on Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hayford Sunday.

Albert LaValley of Leominster, Mass., spent the week-end at the Hayford home.

There were several people at Millen Pond during the week-end, including Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Hall and son Richard and a friend of Auburn, Mass., Alanson Crandall from Rhode Island, Al Crandall, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Guy Copeland, Swampscot, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Woods of Peterborough were here on Sunday.

School reopened on Monday following a weeks vacation. Pupils were somewhat surprised when they found the blackboards had become green during their absence. They were painted green during the vacation. As I understand it, the green is softer and easier on the eyes and does away with the glare of the black. Seems as though it would take a little concentration to remember to call it the "greenboard" after being black for so long!

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hannah and daughter Betty of Natick, Mass. spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur T. Tucker.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cross of Hillsboro called on the Tuckers Sunday. They thought "Bill" was sick abed. But he fooled them, met them at the door feeling quite well. However, Mr. Tucker had had an attack of asthma earlier in the week and wasn't so well then.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. D. Otterson, Sr., were in Keene, N. H. Sunday and attended the Christening of their great granddaughter Caleen Gaouete, St. James Episcopal church. There were five generations represented at the ceremony including Mrs. Jennie Otterson of Keene, great, great grandmother, Mr. Wm. Otterson, Sr., great grandfather, Mrs. Ralph Treadwell, grandmother, Mrs. Calvin Gaouette, mother and baby, Caleen. If you were to ask "Dad" Otterson how he likes this being a great grandparent, I think he would humbly reply: "Ah, I really must be getting along in years."

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Farnsworth are parents of a daughter, Virginia Ann, born at the Memorial hospital in Concord, N. H., Feb. 22nd. Mother and baby returned home Sunday and are doing nicely.

Mrs. Preston Rolfe and two children and Mrs. Stanley Drew spent the week-end in Penacook, N. H.

There will be a Whist party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Newman Friday night at 8 o'clock.

Voters please remember the school meeting is Saturday night at the Town Hall at 8:00 P. M.

There were nine present at the Knitting Club meeting last Thursday night which met with Mrs. Myra Hayford.

Mr. and Mrs. Peters of Wilton called on Harry Trow and Frank Hartwell Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Babb, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Newman and Abner Barker attended the Grange meeting in Hillsboro last Wednesday night.

There were 38 present at the meeting of Lovell Grange No. 5 last Friday night. Following the meeting there was a discussion of the Town and school warrants. A boxed lunch and coffee was served after the discussion.

Mr. John Safford is visiting his relatives here, Mrs. Ruth Twiss and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cilly and family.

MRS. MYRTIE EASTMAN

The funeral of Mrs. Myrtie Eastman was held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the South Weare church, with Reverend Wilbur Kamp officiating. Mr. Brainard Newton of Goffstown, and life long friend of Mr. and Mrs. Eastman, sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere", and "In the Garden". Bearers were Preston Draper of Goffstown, John Pierson, John Eastman, and Wallace Wood.

Among the out of town people present were Miss Marian Garland, R.N., a cousin, from Laconia, N. H. Mr. and Mrs. Preston Draper, Miss Bertha Martin, Miss Alvira Gregg, Mrs. Nellie Taylor and Mrs. Langdell of Goffstown, Mr. and Mrs. Clement Lyons and Frank Gay of Hillsboro, Dr. Merritt Garland of Haverhill, Mass., and Miss Agnes Garland of Barre, Vermont were unable to attend.

Mrs. Eastman came to Weare, from New Boston, when she was married in 1893, and has lived here ever since. She was very active in the Grange as long as she was able to be, and was a member of North Weare Federated church, in which she took a great interest.

Surviving are a son, Thomas J. Eastman, of South Weare; three grandchildren, John E. Eastman, Mrs. Wilma Pierson and Mrs. Jean Wood all of South Weare; six great grandchildren; three sisters, the Misses Annie and Florence Atwood of New Boston and Mrs. Ruby Tingley, in Illinois; a brother, Howard Atwood, of St. Petersburg, Florida, and several nieces and nephews. Her body was placed in the tomb at Hillside cemetery in South Weare, to await burial in the spring.

Clarence Still recently had the misfortune to lose a valuable cow.

Hardy Legge has been entertaining his grandson during his vacation from school at Raymond.

Harry Gilman went to the Elliott Hospital Tuesday for an examination of his arm, which was recently operated on.

Mrs. William Stokes has returned from visiting her daughter at Belmont, Mass.

EDITORIAL Comment

TOWN MEETING

Selectman Harold E. Harvey has announced that action on the articles contained in the Town Warrant will be taken up at 2 p. m. The meeting as per custom will be in Opera Hall.

Every person who can possibly attend should make it his or her business to be there. Despite some conversations to the contrary, the meeting should be interesting but lacking in temper.

It is expected that the armory committee having presented the town a fait accompli will be reimbursed by the town, that the election system will be changed to a non-partisan system, and that the grant to the Concord hospital will be approved.

A note of warning should be made against any attempt at false economy. As a community we need the many services asked for in the warrant and should provide for their continuances. It will then be the business of the Selectmen to administer and spend wisely.

To The Editor:

I note that you have in your Town Warrant an article to see if the Town will adopt the non-partisan ballot in the election of town officers.

We here in Hopkinton were among the very first towns to adopt this system following the enabling act by the legislature, and we have never regretted it. Under no circumstances would we go back to the old caucus system.

The writer has long been in favor of this forward looking piece of legislation, and was instrumental in having the proper article inserted in the warrant, and at our annual town meeting two years ago argued for it in open meeting and had the satisfaction of seeing it adopted without a single dissenting voice.

This method gives everyone, who aspires to public office to have his or her name appear on the ballot, by paying the prescribed fee, without asking or seeking the advice or consent of any person or group of persons. It gives the voters a greater range of selection, and thereby offers a better opportunity to select the best person for the office.

Under the old system a caucus was rather slimly attended, and the selection of candidates made therein, did not represent but a small proportion of the electorate. Under the new system the whole town is a caucus as you might say, and as town meetings are usually well attended, a great many more citizens are able to express their preference in the selection of town officials.

As a former resident of Hillsboro for many years, and still interested in its affairs, I shall await with interest you raction on this piece of legislation. If adopted I feel sure you will like it.

Arthur M. Burnham,
Hopkinton, N. H.

To The Editor:

In looking over the papers of my great-great grandfather, the Rev. John Pierpont, I found that he had spoken in many cities and towns in New England. John Pierpont was one of the organziers of the American Unitarian Association. He was vitally interested in education and had served on the Boston School Committee. His monument at Mt. Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge, has this inscription: "Poet, Patriot, Preacher, Philosopher, Philanthropist, Pierpont." This describes the man in part. He was a strong advocate of Temperance and a foe of Slavery.

I found that on February 26, 1845, he gave two lectures in the town of Weare. One was on temperance and the other aganst slavery. This same year he gave lectures at Bradford on February 28th and March 2nd; at Sutton on March 1, 2, 3; at New London March 4th; at Goffstown on March 6th and 7th. One lecture at Bradford was on Capital Punishment. Other places he gave these lectures include, Manchester, Great Falls, Rindge, Fitzwillia, Jaffrey, Keene, Nashua, Concord, Rochester, Exeter, Portsmouth, Durham, Greenland, Charlestown, Walpole, Hanover, Claremont and New Market. He gave these lectures and others a few years later in some of these same towns and several other towns in New Hampshire.

Among other papers, I found that my great grandfather, Rev. Jaaziniah Crosby, minister at Charlestown, New Hampshire, for fifty-four years had written a pamphlet called the Annals of Charlestown. This was first printed in 1833 and reprinted in 1905. I first found several copies of the reprint and then the original manuscript.

Several Halestown Grangers attended Wyoming Grange meeting Wednesday evening. A discussion of the Town Warrant was made, after the meeting the sisters furnished a supper, as a penalty of allowing the brothers to beat them on the program. The writer thinks the Wyoming sisters did a good job.

Ralph Townes who has been badly used up with the prevaling epidemic which is so common at present, is reported to be some better, but has suffered with terrible pain in the face, which earlier seemed almost paralized and all the time he has had all the barn chores to do, as both his sons are on a Naval cruise for a month.

Due to sickness, the Ash Wednesday service at the Episcopal church had to be postponed.

Mrs. Elsa Muzzey entertained her nephew, John Muzzey and family of Warner recently.

Mrs. Sadie Eaton visited her daughter Blanche at Warner one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hodgman took in the Ice Follies at Boston last Saturday.

Carrie Chandler and daughter June, have returned from Bath Maine where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Sweeney. Mr. Sweeney brought them home Sunday.

At the citizens caucus last Monday evening J. Hardy Legge and Douglas Parsons are the candidates for Selectman in the East Division.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hamel visited friends in Mass., over the week-end.

Mrs. Elizabeth Fottler has returned to the Dunbarton school after the weeks vacation.

It is expected that the Water Resources Board will soon introduce the flood control bill, which if goes through as entered, will flood East Weare. We naturally are opposed to it as we would lose several valuable families, which would be a serious loss to the town.

Mrs. Emma Bancker who underwent a surgical operation at Margaret Pillsbury Hospital at Concord, last Saturday, is reported as gaining, and has already been allowed to stand up for a short time.

Well, after all the backbone of winter must be broken, as a crow has arrived back from the sunny south, we like them better now than we will, after we get our corn planted.

With 31 articles in the town warrant and the majority asking for money, there is sure going to be fireworks here March 8.

The Winchendon, Mass., Fish and Game club held their annual banquet and gift night at the city hall in that city last week. As usual, there was a full house. I asked the large gathering about the black panther and two persons in the hall said that they had seen it. My wife, son Sam, and daughter Miss Nancy sure enjoyed this nice party. In all the years I have been attending this annual affair we always strike a bad night. Once we had to detour over by way of Dublin on account of a flood. This year we came home in a blizzard. But why care we, as long as we had a good time.

I was sorry to miss the annual at Nashua the other night of the Nashua Fish and Game association. They always put on a swell party and have a record membership.

Here is a man in Derry who wants to find a good home for two four months old puppies. Write to G. H. Spofford, R. F. D. 2.

Several letters the past week asking about an open season on beaver this year. We hope not, as in this neck of the woods they are down to about the zero mark. Landowners don't have to give a land permit unless they want to. One trapper tried to work a game on a landowner, telling him there was a new law compelling him to give a trapper a permit as the Department wants to clean them all out of southern New Hampshire. The landowner wrote to me about it and I wised him up.

Manchester is to have a dog show March 19 at the armory. Entries close March 7.

James Lorette of Lyndeboro, the well known racoon and cat hunter, brings in a huge male bobcat for the bounty. This makes about five he has brought in this season.

Bobcats are killing raccoons. Gilbert Russell of Perham Corner reports that he found two coons badly torn up and George Colburn of Wilton Center reports finding one that was badly torn up and eaten. Rabbits and hares must be getting scarce, to have the big cats start on coons.

The open season on hares and rabbits closed February 15. There are bills in the hopper to extend the season but in our opinion that's all wrong. In March the rabbits and hares are carrying young and if you shoot the old one you are taking a whole family with one shot. Most of the rabbit hunters say "Let well enough alone."

Well, basketball is about over for this year. Several tournaments around the country, but the locals are about cleaned up.

Many dead deer are being found in brooks. Some were badly eaten by foxes or dogs or big cats.

Did you notice that bill introduced into the legislature? You must pay your dog license fee before you can get a license to fish or hunt or to drive your car. Wow!

With all the fuss and feathers over the state bird, I would suggest the favorite wild bird of the forests, the ruffed grouse or to you the partridge. Here is a bird that trims them all in the wild state. You can't hunt or eat the chickadee, but what sport to hunt and eat the grouse. Think that one over you Representatives and Senators.

A permit or license is required to keep any wild bird or animal whether protected by law or not. If a pet, no fee is required, but if for breeding you must get a breeder's permit which costs you two dollars a year. If you don't have one it costs much more.

Last week we had a surprise in two quart cans of turtle soup put up last summer. This from Perley Cheever, the well known turtle man. His wife knows how to cook this to make it a wonderful feed. Next season we will have a waiting list. As many a party has been converted to this tasty food.

Down in Attleboro, Mass., a club had a turtle contest in 1948. Two teams of 14 men each caught from July 1 to September 6, 3337 pounds of turtles, largest one 40½ pounds. These were all taken in a Robert G. Smith turtle trap. How about your favorite pond for 1949? Turtles destroy millions of fish young as well as old ducks, and besides they are good to eat. We mean the turtles.

Post card from Harold (Elephant) and Mrs. Reed from Mill Valley, Calif. They are having a swell time touring the USA.

Here is a large property owner that has all his land posted, but if you can show him a membership card in a nearby club and your hunting license he will give you a special permit to fish and hunt on his property. Fair enough.

The only Boxer dog in this section is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown of Perham Corner. They have a nice litter of puppies a few weeks old.

Mrs. C. W. Carter of Hillsboro sends down three deer tails for the fly tiers. Thanks.

Watch your dog now that the rivers and ponds are showing signs of rotten ice. Many dogs are being reported as missing.

The town meeting dinner will be served in the Knights of Pythias Hall by the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church.

Mrs. John Clyburn spent recent week-end in Boston visiting relatives and attending the Ice Follies.

Crescent Lodge, I.O.O.F. met Wednesday evening and conferred the first degree on five candidates: William Wood from Antrim, George Spies, Jr., Arthur Kendrick, Jr., Carl Carlson and Donald Alger. An oyster stew supper was served by Leon Cooper, Kenneth French, Howard Gammell and Albert Rowe.

On Saturday evening 18 members of the lodge went to Worcester, Mass., where the second degree was conferred on the candidates.

Henocon Chapter, O.E.S. met Tuesday evening with the matron, Mrs. Edith Purrington presiding. After a short business meeting a patriotic party was enjoyed in charge of Mrs. Lillian Ayer. Refreshments were served in charge of Mrs. Hattie Edmunds.

Miss Phyllis Stewart visited in Sunapee last week.

Miss Dorothy Ryan visited relatives in Lowell, Mass., during the vacation.

Miss Grace Philibert visited her sisters in Manchester several days last week.

Mrs. Harold Clement was in Manchester for several days to be with her mother who was ill.

Mrs. Rufus Morrison visited Mr. and Mrs. Dean Morrison of Manchester several days recently.

Miss Mary Powers who is completing her year in high school at Littleton, Mass., spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Neagle.

Mrs. J. Albert Norton spent Wednesday of last week with her aunt, Mrs. Clarence Yeaton of Concord.

Mrs. George Bowers of Hillsboro is teaching Home Economics during the absence of Mrs. Ruth Lievens.

Silas A. Rowe, chairman of the Henniker Branch of the American Red Cross calls to our attention that the month of March each year is the every member drive for funds. This year funds are needed to carry on this work in times of disaster, care of Veterans, safety lessons taught by able teachers and instructors etc. The following solicitors will assist in carrying out this drive and putting it over: Charles J. Burnham, Duncan P. Noyes, Mrs. Thomas Hope, Mrs. Wayne Holmes, Leon O. Cooper, G. M. Chase, Norman Parmenter, and Mrs. Joseph Fisher. Everyone is asked to help so that Henniker may go over the top.

The annual series of maple sugar meetings were held throughout the state during the week of February 21 to 25. The Hillsboro meeting was held on February 22 with 50 or 60 people in attendance. Equipment manufacturers displayed their wares and much interest was shown. Mr. Hubbell of Jefferson, New York, was the guest speaker. He described his complete sugaring operation from tapping the tree to the sale of the finished product. Through the years he has increased his number of buckets from 600 to 2,800. Many time-saving devices have been added, such as a pump to take sap from his truck tank to his storage tank, a flat filter instead of a bucket or cone-shaped one, firing by oil instead of wood, an electric bucket cleaner, and many other small but efficient devices. Mr. Hubbell particularly stressed cleanliness and good packaging which had customer eye-appeal. A good sugar operation, he said, was worthy of much attention as other farm operations.

Clem Lyons, secretary of the Maple Producers' Association, spoke on the need of good grading, aides in marketing and several prizes which are available to maple producers throughout the state.

Robert "Les" Knox of East Weare has started some cutting in his woodlot in order to get lumber for use on his farm. With the help of County Forester, Bob Breck, older trees of inferior quality have been picked out for cutting. By cutting these trees himself, Les is gaining in several ways. He is using trees that have a low sale value but which will produce lumber for use on the farm, he is making space in which more and better trees will grow, and he is giving more room to trees which were being suppressed. By removing the poor quality trees now, a much better crop of trees will result in the future; the quality of the stand will increase if the poorest trees are removed to give more room to the better ones. Les is also planning to thin and weed some of his areas of young white pine. By removing gray birch and other inferior hardwoods, he is giving the pine a chance to grow and thus prevent damage or stunting from the overtopping weed trees.

The annual meeting of the Soil Conservation Sub-District for Hillsborough County was held at the Grange Hall in Milford on Monday evening, February 21. Supervisors elected for three years were Walter Melendy of Bedford, Warren Towne of Hollis, and Jeffrey Smith of Hollis. James Colby of Litchfield and William Mason of New Boston will fill out unexpired terms. County Agent, E. W. Pierce, in accordance with state law will continue as secretary for the District.

The last meeting of the Woman's Club offered a very nice entertainment with a showing of old fashioned gowns and shawls. To cap it all little Joanne Lindsay and young little Joanne Lindsay and young Calvin Pope as bride and groom. The bride wore Mrs. Joseph Diemond's wedding dress and Calvin wore a little Lord Fauntleroy suit that had been worn by the Lindsay boys years ago. They sure were a cute pair and were'nt a bit bashful about showing off either. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lindsay are the parents of Joanne and Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Pope are the parents of Calvin. Mrs. Donald Powers gave some wonderful piano selections, she is a true artist. Mrs. Isabelle McLain of Antrim sang selections from Carmen and acted as well. It wsa well done. It was an entertaining interlude for all concerned.

Earl Scott, Mrs. Harry Favor and daughter, Olwen, Mr. and Mrs. Mario Satorelli and daughter, Diane of Concord, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Pope on Sunday.

Harry Ross is still confined to his bed through illness.

We are glad to see Roscoe Wilbur out again today (Monday).

Mrs. Bridget Powers condition is not as good at this writing.

Mrs. Josephine Wallace and Mrs. Hazel Wilson were among those who attended the Ice Follies this past week-end.

all the schools of the town under the supervision of the District Nurse.

The extra money asked from the town this year is because a new car is an absolute necessity before another winter, and the sinking fund can provide only part of the price of the new car. This means that only the extra $250.00 can be applied toward the car. It is a waste of good money to keep on paying for the upkeep of this old car.

Perhaps it is not generally understood that the District Nurse has a fixed salary. The town appropriation and money she collects are turned over to the treasurer of the association and used for its general expenses.

The annual meeting comes in April and it is hoped that a large number of townspeople will be interested enough to be present and join and learn how the association is managed.

Mrs. John Tasker attended the Legislative Hearing on House Bill No. 365—an act to equalize educational opportunity for New Hampshire children and youth. Mrs. Tasker appeared in behalf of the League of Women Voters of New Hampshire to support the bill.

The Warren C. Grimes family, of Athol, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. John Grimes and Joyce Ann of Portland, Maine, Harvey Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Reece of Melrose, Mass., were dinner guests of Mrs. John Grimes on Sunday.

Mrs. Mildred Porter spent her vacation in Boston.

Mr. Edward Comiskey spent his vacation with his parents in Dover, Mass.

Miss Rae O'Neil of Lynn, Mass., and Mary Canning of Providence, R. I., were guests several days last week of Mrs. Frank Casey.

Janet Tasker, Priscilla Nissen, and Mildred Crane were guests several days last week of Miss Barbara Ann Crane at the University of New Hampshire.

Miss Patricia Phelps spent part of her vacation with Deveda McClintock daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger McClintock of Rochester.

Kendall Blake's babys mother is June Lacey so Mr. and Mrs. Lacey of School Street are it's grandparents too.

March is full of birthdays like every month. I start out the month with Alberta Ann Farrar of Henniker, Ruth Perry Reece of Melrose, Bob Crosby of Biloxi, Mississippi, Mrs. Mary Lougee.

Others having birthdays among my neighbors are Edward Tasker, DeWitt Woods, Harrison Baldwin, Fay Baldwin, Elgin Colby, and Judy Fogg.

Edwin Crane recently sent me a bunch of cards from Daytona, Beach and surroundings. He is formerly of Washington and is very happy in his home in Florida where he has lived for several years but he still takes the Messenger and is interested in the people of Hillsboro and Washington.

Last week Dorothy Merrill brought me a fine bunch of pussy willows but they were not the first I have had. On December 15 Miss Lora Craig and Mrs. Marcy walked to the Craig farm in Antrim and brought me back a bunch of small pussy willows.

Robert Crosby of Candia visited brother Warren on Sunday.

Among my birthday cards was one from Mrs. F. Withington of Duneden, Florida. Her son Richard and family are with her and a cousin, Harry Nelson of Boston is staying near by. They are all enjoying a busy happy time but will be glad to see Hillsboro Center in April.

The Young Farmers 4-H club met at the home of Jack Tasker on Monday. After the business meeting a speaker, Dr. Tenney, was supposed to speak, but, because travelling conditions were poor, he was unable to come. Instead, the boys judged the dairy cow pictures for the National Hoard's Dairyman contest. Refreshments were served by Jack Tasker.

Ten Hillsboro people, including Rev. and Mrs. Russell Perry helped Mrs. Juiaelette Whitaker of Deering celebrate her 96th birthday on Sunday. Mr. Perry conducted a communion service after which a very pleasant social time was enjoyed. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, etc. were served.

Miss Mary Miller of H. H. S. spent her vacation in Amesbury, Mass.

About one hundred students from New England College attended the morning session of the House in the New Hampshire Legislature on Tuesday morning.

What a difference two extra feet of space 3|4 the length of the Cellar Studio made last Wednesday evening. It gave us more room for easels and for moving about.

The judges for the Town Meeting Poster Contest, run by the Hillsborough League of Women Voters for the 6th and 7th grade public school pupils, gathered at 7:30 the same night to pick the winners. The League gave $5.00 in cash to the first prize winner, David Wood, $3.00 to the second prize winner, Jane Crane and at the suggestion of Mr. Stuart Bruce, the Art Club gave $2.00 to the 3rd prize winner Gayle Bennett. Dr. Mildred Chamberlin, Mr. John Van Hazinga, and Mr. Stuart Bruce made the selections. This is a good spot to say that any of the students in either the grades or in high school are always welcome to come down and visit the class while at work from 8 to 10 on Wednesday evenings.

At the Sharon Arts Center sculpture in ceramics by Viggo Brandt-Erickson of Jaffery, N. H., is being shown. He is the sculptor who helped the New England College students in Henniker with their snow statues at their first Annual Winter Carnival. At the Currier Gallery of Art in Manchester, through March 5, you may see "Three Centuries of Print making in America," and through the 6th "Italian Religious Paintings" lent by M. Knoedler and Co. of N. Y.

Mrs. Melita Robinson (and her beautiful police dog "Faust") was our evening's model last week. The drawings on the whole were fairly good but of us all Cy Phelps caught the likeness. He is developing a certain quite delightful technique that is most artistic. Next on the list is Harry McClintock's charcoal portrait. It was fun having him in class again and sorry that he has to leave so soon again.

Remember the Time: Every Wednesday evening from 8 to 10 P. M.

Remember the Place: The Cellar Studio at the Valley Hotel.

Remember the Facts: You are welcome as a worker or a visitor and that Stuart Bruce, of Washington, N. H. is our instructor.

Citizens Caucus

At the Citizens Caucus, held last Monday night at Weare Town Hall, there were 162 votes cast. As Charles Eastman was unable to be there, Scott Eastman was elected Moderator; Alfred Osborne, Clerk and Paul Dumm, Ballot clerk. At the opening of the meeting, Mr. Osborne read the minutes of last year's caucus. Town officers to be voted on at the town election on March 8, are as follows: Town Clerk, Minnie T. Peaslee: Town Treasurer, Henry T. Osborne: Selectman: (only one) J. Hardy Legge, and Douglas Parsons; Road Agent, Gordon W. Porter and Bryan W. Sargent: Overseer of the Poor, J. Hardy Legge: Auidtors, Theodore W. Flanders, Charles F. Eastman and Harold W. Felch. Mrs. Peaslee, who replaced her husband, Frank, who recently passed away, had a completely unanimous vote. There were several candidates for different offices, but it is one of the laws, originated by Ned Barrows, that where there are several candidates, the two highest shall be chosen to vote on, at the regular town meeting following. There were about 200 present, and it was a good and lively caucus.

Henniker Boys Do Well at Tournament

HENNIKER, March 3—The Henniker High School basketball team played two excellent games at the tournament in Hanover last week, winning the first game from Andover 43-28 and losing the second game to Vilas of Alstead 40-37.

In the first game Henniker High, displaying excellent teamwork, earned the right to advance to the second round of Class C competition. Henniker went into an immediate lead, and setting up a tight 3-2 zone defense, held Andover scoreless for six and a half minutes of the opening quarter. The winners used a fast break and, spotting Dick Smith under the basket and Bob French outside the bucket, pulled away and had a commanding 25-11 half time lead.

The third and fourth quarters saw Andover starting a scoring surge, but it was a case of too little too late.

For the winners, Smith in 10 field goals for a total of 20 points, followed by French who chalked up 13 counters. For the losers, Henry Powers and Dennis Fenton tossed in nine markers apiece.

In the second game on Thursday, a fighting Henniker High five forced coach Danny Metcalf's Vilas High qintet into the first overtime contest of the tourney, only to lose 40-37.

Henniker, after trailing in the opening period by eight markers, set up a scoring surge, led by Bob French and Dick Smith. Fast plays, breaking inside the Vilas' zone brought Henniker up to within two points of Vilas at the end of the half.

Traveling at a racehorse pace, Henniker grabbed a slight three point lead at the three-quarter mark, and although stunned momentarily by the loss of French, who went out on five fouls, Henniker fought back and led the Vilas quintet until the four minute mark of the final canto.

With the clock showing only 25 seconds left to play in the regulation game, Vilas led 35-33. Frank Connor, Henniker center, took a one hand shot from outside the foul line to tie the game and force it into overtime.

Both teams showed the strain of the game as a number of the players were almost on the point of exhaustion.

In the overtime session, Vilas showing past tourney experience, took command of the ball and emerged the victor by three points on a basket by Erwin Ward, Elwin Ward's two foul shots and Johnny Monty's foul shot, all in the first minute and a half of overtime play. Henniker tallied a two pointer after the two minute mark on a long arching shot by Dick Smith.

Players to go to the tournament were Robert French who was chosen on the all state team as utility player; Richard Smith, Frank Connor, Bernard Maillette, Richard Davis, Joe Patenaude, Bobby Maillette, Richard Bishopric, Francis Leaf and David Powers.

They were accompanied by Coach Gordon French and Headmaster Roberts Edwards. The boys were the best dressed players at the tournament as they had nearly new suits, and brand new warm up pants and jackets which were given to the team by Merle Patenaude. The pants and jackets were green.

The cheer leaders were present for both games. The first day they wore old fashioned costumes and their regular suits the second game.
