Vol. IX of the Reporter has started out under auspices most favorable, its circulation now reaching nearly nine hundred families.

In assuming control of this business, then, we naturally feel the responsibility which rests upon us in maintaining the excellent standard which the Reporter has gained, and in giving to this and surrounding towns a paper in which they shall feel a just pride, and for which an encouraging word will always be ready.

As our predecessor has gained the good will and esteem of his fellow citizens in past years, so does the publisher, in becoming a citizen of Antrim, hope to merit the confidence and respect of her people in the future; realizing at the same time that this can only be done by giving our most earnest endeavors to do the right, both in our business transactions and otherwise.

We shall endeavor to keep the paper up to its present standard, and shall make improvements in the working material and conveniences of this office as opportunity will allow.

We pledge the columns of the Reporter to the service of this town and her people. Our interests are now in common and our assistance should be mutual.

For the cordial greeting given us by the good people of Antrim, we tender our sincere thanks, and trust that these numerous best wishes may not be unworthy bestowed.

Saturday was quite a "soft" day, and the sleighing suffering considerably, bare spots being quite numerous in the streets.

The officers of Ephraim Weston Post, No. 87, G. A. R., for the current year, are as follows: P. C., E. C. Paige; S. V. C., J. A. Bryer; J. V. C., G. D. Dresser; Q. M., Squires Forsyth; Adj., Leander Emery; O. D., S. R. Robinson; O. G., E. Z. Hastings; Chap., J. C. Richardson; Surg., Wm. B. Dodge; Q. M. S. A. A. Miller; S. M., G. W. Whitney.

Tuesday was a blustering day, a strong breeze blowing from the northwest, and during the afternoon mercury had a downward tendency, thermometers indicating from three to ten degrees below zero at seven o'clock. The wind continued to blow hard through the night, but the temperature moderated somewhat by daylight, from two to five degrees below zero, being the showing of the thermometers.

The roll call at the Baptist church Tuesday afternoon and evening, in connection with the annual business meeting, was well attended for so cold and windy a day. Forty-two responded to their names in person, and twenty-five by letter.

Very pleasant letters were received from three former pastors of the church, Rev. H. M. Shaw, Rockland, Me. H. F. Brown, Athol, Mass., and G. W. Rigler, Woonsocket, R. I. The resident membership of the church has not been invaded by death during the year past. Five have been received by baptism. The treasurer's report shows receipts from all sources, $1,482.62. The occasion was rendered more enjoyable by the printed lists of members, and Treasurer's and Trustees' reports freely distributed. At 5.30 o'clock a collation was served in the vestry. All present seemed to enjoy this reunion, and it will no doubt come to be the custom of the church to hold such a meeting annually. The oldest resident member of the church is Mrs. Abner G. Brown, who united with this church in April, 1856.

Obituary. MRS. MARGARET D. BRACKETT. Death has again invaded our village circle and removed therefrom to a fairer world on high, the spirit of another of our aged residents, and one to whom had been granted a lease of life far beyond the allotted span of "three score years and ten."

Mrs. Brackett was a native of Unity, N. H., her maiden name being Margaret Dodge Balch, and was born May 13, 1815. In that town she spent the earlier years of her life and obtained her education. While yet in her teens her parents removed to Northfield, Vt., and while there Miss Balch taught school. Later the family took up their residence in Nashua, where the deceased was employed in the Jackson cotton mills, and it was there that she met Mr. Brackett, who at that time was overseer in the mills, and to whom she was married Sept. 12, 1837.

In 1859 they removed to North Brauch, and in 1872 they took up their residence in this village. Sept. 12, 1889 the golden anniversary of their wedding was celebrated by a surprise party at the Antrim house parlors. Nine days later, Sept. 21st, Mr. Brackett died very suddenly at his residence from a stroke of apoplexy.

The union was blessed with three children, two sons and a daughter, all of whom survive their parents: Dr. Clarence A., residing at Chelsea, Mass., Charles P., who lived with his mother, and Mrs. Fred L. Nay of this village. The deceased also leaves three sisters, residing in Watertown, N. Y., Jackson, Mich., and Northfield, Vt.

The funeral services were held in Methodist church at two o'clock last Sunday afternoon, following prayers at the house, and were very largely attended. Rev. Mr. Whiteside, the pastor, officiated, speaking words of condolence to the stricken family and friends from the 41st verse of the 21st chap. of Mat. "Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of Man cometh."

The floral tributes were very pretty, and included a sheaf of wheat with sickle, bearing the tender and endearing word "Mother," a beautiful bouquet from Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Richardson, and some very handsome cut flowers. The singing was by a quartette—D. F. Emery, tenor; Mrs. C. O. Kimball, soprano; Miss Minnie Sessler, alto; C. O. Kimball, bass; Miss Nellie M. Jackson, organist. The bearers were Geo. E. Colby, J. M. Duncan, E. T. Adams and A. A. Miller. The interment was in Maplewood cemetery.

MRS. ALMIRA SHATTUCK, widow of the late Dea. Francis M. Shattuck, died at the residence of her son-in-law, Levi M. Curtis, in the east part of the town, last Saturday afternoon, of infirmities incidental to old age.

The deceased was a native of Greenfield, N. H., born Nov. 28th, 1815, and was at her decease, 76 years, 1 month and 55 days old. She was married in 1840, and in 1856 came to Antrim, her husband having purchased the Dea. Steele farm, moving therefrom six years later to the Warren Christie place, which he bought. Her husband died in 1876, and since then she has made her home with Mr. Curtis. She united with the Presbyterian church many years ago, and was an earnest, conscientious christian in all the walks of life. Two daughters, Mrs. Mary E. Barker of this town, and Mrs. Frank O. Clement of Manchester; also one brother, Mr. Joseph Blanchard of Greenfield, and one sister, Mrs. Henry Newton of Bennington.

The funeral services were held at her late home Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock, Rev. W. R. Cochrane, p. d., officiating. The singing was by Misses Belle Forsyth and Mary C. Rogers, soprano, Miss Grace E. Rogers, alto, and Geo. P. Little, bass. The interment was in Maplewood cemetery.

Mrs. Mary D. Kellogg, mother of A. A. Ramsay, Esq., of Wilton, and aunt to Mrs. N. C. Jameson and Miss Mary Butler of this village, died in Sidney, Nebraska, Jan. 11th, after an illness of two days with la grippe. Twenty-five years ago and more, she was well known in this vicinity as the wife of Rev. Amzi Jones, who was several years pastor of the Antrim Baptist church when it was located in Bennington; and also as the sister of John Butler, Esq., of Bennington. Although Mrs. Kellogg, was nearly eighty-five years old, she enjoyed health and vigor up to the time of her last sickness. She was thrice married, and leaves six sons. Since the death of her last husband, she has for several years lived with her youngest son, Mr. B. A. Jones, of Sidney. She was an excellent christian woman.

The fifth entertainment in the lecture course will take place in the Baptist church next Wednesday evening, Feb. 8d, when a concert will be given by the Appleton Female Quartet.

Correspondents Take Notice. All correspondents and writers for the Reporter in the several adjoining towns, are requested to mail all communications, so that they will reach us by Tuesday night sure. This request is imperative in its fullest sense, as we shall go to press at 1 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, in order that our subscribers in the nearby towns may receive their papers on the day of publication. Please bear this in mind, as it is very important to all who have an interest in the Reporter, and do not mail news items Wednesday morning.

Personal. Mrs. Henry Waite is on the sick-list. Geo. C. Rogers is at home from Maine for a few days. We learn that Mr. Veranus Keyes is recovering from his recent serious illness. Hon. N. C. Jameson was at home from New York City a few days the past week. S. G. Wallace has been confined to his residence the past week with an attack of pleurisy. Dr. Clarence A. Brackett of Chelsea, Mass., is visiting his brother and sister in this village. J. B. Farrington started this afternoon for a trip through New York and Pennsylvania in the interest of the Goodell Company. Chas. W. Foster returned last week from Maine, where he has had a very successful venture giving exhibitions with the phonograph.

Mrs. Achsah Chapman of Providence, R. I., has been the guest of her brother, Mr. Henry Simonds and family, the past few days. Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Nay and Mr. Chas. P. Brackett, who have been wrestling with the grippe for a fortnight or more past, are now convalescent. The many friends of Capt. Samuel R. Robinson will be pleased to learn that he is fast recovering from his recent sickness, and was able to be out a little last week.

Harry Chamberlain was in town a portion of last week, the guest of his friend, Chas. W. Foster. Harry is in the phonograph business in the Pine Tree State, for which place he started on Monday. Mrs. A. W. Cutler of Chicago, Ill., arrived here last Saturday, to visit her mother, Mrs. Nancy Jameson, but was obliged to return to her home on Monday, in response to a telegram announcing sickness in her family.

Resolutions of Respect. Resolutions passed by the M. E. Sunday School, Jan. 25th, '92, upon the death of Luke W. Hill, which occurred Jan. 16, 1892: WHEREAS, it has pleased God in His mysterious providence to remove from our midst, our most prominent and beloved brother, therefore be it Resolved, That we, the members of the M. E. Sunday School do hereby express our deep sorrow in the loss of one whose life and character have been so full and beautiful an expression of the spirit and teaching of the word of God.

That as a teacher, he has been eminently successful and his words of instruction and exhortation will make a lasting impression on those who have so often listened to them and will be incentive to a better and higher life. That while we believe that "precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints," yet a vacancy is left that will be hard to fill, and a loss is sustained that will be long felt in the church. That while we mourn and humbly submit to the Divine will, yet we sincerely mourn our loss and tenderly proffer our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved friends and loved ones in this their hour of great affliction. That these resolutions be entered upon the records of the Sunday School, a copy of them sent the bereaved family and that they be published in the ANTRIM REPORTER.

Lines contributed to the memory of the late Luke W. Hill by a friend. Once more by death our ranks are broken, Another christian soldier falls, And without fear lays down the armor And answers when the Master calls. Gone to that home where pain and sorrow No more disturb his peaceful rest, Gone to that land where joy and gladness Surround the mansion of the blest. This death has taken for its victim, (While grief o'erclouds his land a part.) A brother kind, a husband loving, A friend beloved by one and all. We all shall miss his hearty, hand clasp, His pleasant smile, and words of cheer. We'll miss one voice each Sabbath morning, A voice we always loved to hear. And yet methinks that up in heaven, Beside God's throne where angels throng, He with a voice now stronger, sweeter, Will ever sing the glad new song. His life is passed, He's crossed the river, Forever freed from care and pain. One thought should make our eyes grow lighter, We know with him, to die was gain.

A Card. We hereby extend our most hearty thanks and grateful appreciation to the friends and neighbors for their kindly assistance during the sickness and funeral of our dearly beloved mother; also the singers and bearers. May God's choicest blessings rest upon you all. CLARENCE A. BRACKETT, CHARLES P. BRACKETT, MR. AND MRS. F. L. NAY.

SOUND, SOLID AND SUCCESSFUL. The New Hampshire Fire Insurance Company. The 44th semi-annual statement of this popular company presents a handsome array of assets amounting to $1,889,961.20 invested in undoubted securities, of which $700,000.00 was paid in by stockholders; $789,079.86 is reserved to pay expected losses, and $409,881.84 is held as surplus.

This financial success and national reputation have been reached by painstaking devotion, prudence, experience, talent and superior financial ability for twenty-two successful years, and won the confidence and patronage of over 100,000 policy holders. As it is the mission or function of an insurance company to pay losses, no company has met its obligations more honorably, paid its losses more promptly or rendered its policies more useful and beneficial.

During the last year 1,565 fire losses were paid, amounting to $429,214.21, and during the past twenty-two years the company has paid losses amounting to the fabulous sum of $4,313,310.62. The adherence to the motto, "Small risks well scattered," has carried this company through the numerous conflagrations without a hitch to the progressive record. Few companies, comparatively, have been able to continue the hazardous, perilous and unprofitable business of fire insurance during that length of time, and none with more creditable results. Actual losses and actual results are the evidences upon which the business world renders its verdict, and judged by the evidence of this kind which the New Hampshire Fire Insurance Company of Manchester can show, it has achieved a most decided success. The officers have displayed rare business ability in every more, and have given to the New Hampshire a stability like unto that of the "Old Man of the Mountain," whose picture they have scattered abroad. The company solicits risks on all productive non-hazardous property at reasonable rates through local agents. The same well known officers and directors manage the affairs of the corporation. Ex-Gov. J. A. Weston, President; Geo. H. Chittenden, Treasurer; JOHN C. FRENCH, Secretary; W. H. BERRY, Ass't Secretary.

Littleton, N. H., Jan. 21, 1892. Mr. Editor.—Through your columns, I hope to reach every town and home in Hillsborough County, with an invitation for their best and utmost quota of work to be represented in gold medal winner, or winners in a grand gold class. Mr. Demorest informs your Supt., that he will personally present the medal whenever such class is ready, and as his 70th birthday occurs June 10th, we are arranging in view of that date.

Boys, girls, young men and maidens look well to the laurels of Hillsboro' County, to be represented in the state honors, which now is able to respond to an invitation to be represented in a New England class, to speak at Mass. Chautauque Assembly, July next. We expect an invitation and expect to be able, (shall we not?) to let New Hampshire represent New England in the National Diamond Class, to speak at Denver, Colorado, next Nov. As any person can arrange and conduct a class, and any one between the ages of 12 and 21 join a class, irrespective of color, sex, or nation, any one is cordially invited to write, and any information and supplies, from your State Supt., will be kindly given. No charges except for Nos. 1, 2, and 3 recitation books with as many hand read recitations provided at 10c each. Postage is kindly accepted. New Hampshire has patriots as well as patrioters, for God and Home and Native Soil.

Go forward! Press onward! O, live not in vain; You've honor and wisdom and glory to gain. The path is before you, you've only to choose; You win if you're active, if slothful you lose; Yours in the work. MRS. JOSEPHINE AUSTIN, State Supt. Democrat Medical-Contest Work.

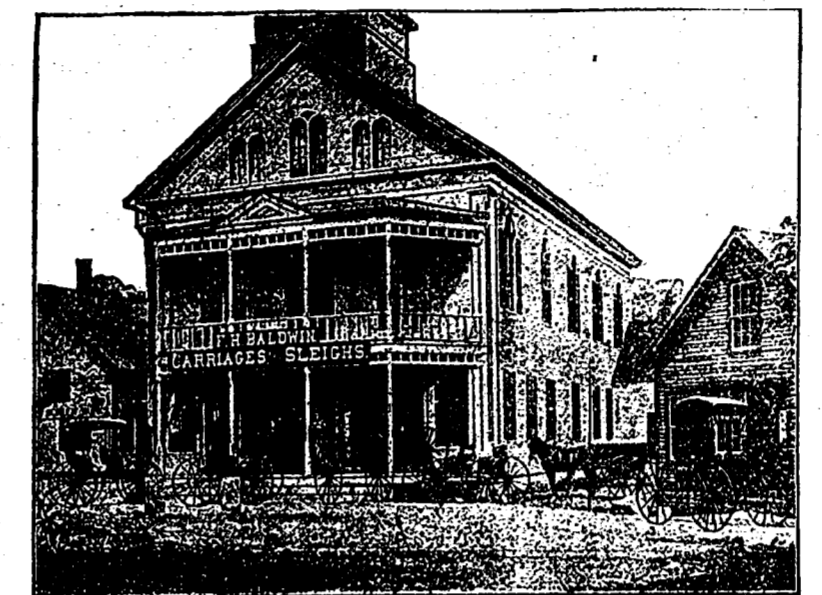

Hancock. Miss Annie Keyes and Sadie Duacklee, took a trip to Keene last Saturday. W. Perley Newell and family, who have been living at Peterborough for a few months, have moved back to town. Addison C. Ware and Den. O. Eaton, loaded a car with apples to ship to England, at Ware's side track last Tuesday. Mrs. Moses Eaton died in Dublin at her daughter's last Saturday, and was buried in Pigeon Ridge cemetery here last Monday; her age was 93 years. Her husband was buried here some five years ago.

There are a great many sick people in town at the present time with the prevailing epidemic and some of them seriously so. We hope the last part of the winter will be more steady weather for it would doubtless be far more healthy. Quite a serious accident happened at the high school last Friday. Two of the large boys were trying their strength and skill a little by wrestling at recess, when Charles Hayward, James S. Hayward's oldest son had his ankle broken. Dr. Wason was called, who dressed the limb and he was taken home by his brother.

On Wednesday evening the 27th, the fifth entertainment in our lecture course will be given, at which time we shall have the pleasure of listening to Eli Perkins. It is expected that Prof. Churchill, who was unable on account of sickness to be with us on Jan. 1st, will come about Feb. 17.

Perkins Coolidge died at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Julia Ann Martin, Hillsboro', Jan. 3d, 1892, at 2 a. m. Mr. Coolidge was born in Hillsboro', July 13, 1800, consequently he was 91 years, 5 months and 20 days old, as we are informed. Mr. Coolidge died of old age, as there was not any disease about him; he never was known to have been sick, or to have taken any medicine in his life; he was a man of very remarkable mental faculties, his memory always serving him, he was often consulted on matters of importance, where other men's memory failed, and the records were defective, as it is known that he was referred to several times by the historian in compiling the history of their town, always giving the day and date in each case. Mr. Coolidge never had the advantage of schools, only attending two half days in his life, yet he could tell what had happened, if he ever knew. One of the many little incidents that happened in his life, is called to mind just now; it was when Rev. Mr. Brickett, now deceased, was installed as pastor of the Congregational church at Hillsboro', when one of his parishioners happened to see him in conversation with Mr. Coolidge; he was taken in hand for being seen so long in company with a man not a member of the church, when Mr. Brickett replied that he did not see the harm as he found him the most sensible man in town. Mr. Coolidge was the fourth child of a family of thirteen, many of whom made their mark in life. Nathaniel, the eldest was constable for a great many years in Boston; he was also jailor in the old Leverett street jail many years; was also on the detective force with a Mr. Hatratt at the head; his brother Isaac was constable as long as he lived, as was his brother George, who was at the United States court house in Boston for a great many years, all starting out in their turn to Boston on foot, each with a pack on his back.

Mr. Coolidge had lived in Hillsboro' the most of his days, working in Mass., a part of the time when he was a young man, moving to the town of Deering in 1868, and living there until the last few years, when he made his home with his sister, Mrs. Martin in Hillsboro'. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Lucy D. Sawyer, of Grafton, Mass., and Mrs. Julia Ann Martin of Hillsboro'; one cousin, Hon. Cornelius Coolidge of Hillsboro'; two nephews, H. R. and Frank P. Martin, of Hillsboro', and two nieces, Mrs. Julia Ann Stocken, East Saugus, Mass., and Mrs. Almira Sargent of Ayer, Mass., besides several distant relatives. The funeral took place at the house of S. K. Martin, his brother-in-law, at one o'clock, on Jan. 5th, the services being conducted by the Rev. D. W. Goodale, with P. H. Rumrill as manager. Interment took place in Deering cemetery.

Demorest Contest.

In many towns and cities of our state, as well as other states, there have been held medal contests. The medals are given by Mr. Demorest of New York, and are for the best speaker at any given contest, all the recitations being taken from books supplied by the giver of the medals. The W. C. T. U. are glad to announce that arrangements have been made for the silver medal contest in our town. The speakers are from the schools, representatives from the bridge, the Centre, Lower and Upper Villages being among the contestants. It will take place Feb. 28th in Odd Fellow's Hall. The subjects are all in the line of temperance, and with music, form a very pleasant entertainment. We bespeak a full house for our young people.

That beautiful glossy sheen, so much admired in hair, can be secured by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. There is nothing better than this preparation for strengthening the itching eruptions.

Francetown.

The social circle met on Wednesday with Mrs. E. K. Batchelder.

What little snow there is, is being so well improved that news is at a standstill.

The village primary school, taught by Miss Minnie Tobie, closed a successful term on Friday.

For the past few days, S. D. Downes has been restricted to the house by reason of illness.

Quite a number of our people have been and are suffering from la grippe. Some have so far recovered, as to go out a little.

At the auction sale and supper on Friday evening, some twenty dollars were realized. A leap year sleigh-ride will be the result.

The remains of Mrs. Sarah Whitefield Hall, who passed away at her home in Peterboro', were brought here, Jan. 13th, for interment beside her first husband.

The following are the names of those who were not absent or tardy during the term: Minnie E. Woodbury, Gertrude Henderson, Amy E. Prescott, Frank Gerrish, Emory Labonte, Wilfred Labonte, James Woodbury, Roy Johnson, Joseph St. John. Not absent but one half day, Arthur J. Labonte. Not tardy but two times, Christie Belcher, Ethel Colburn.

Thursday night of last week the officers of Oak Hill Grange were installed by Past Master, Jacob A. Woodward of Pinnacle Grange, Lyndebo', assisted by Miss Annie Morse, about twenty-five persons being present. The granges at Lyndebo', New Boston, and Deering, were represented. The exercises were ably sustained. An oyster supper including pastry etc., was indulged in. A very pleasant and interesting time was the verdict of the initiated order.

M. L. Blair, Alderman, 5th Ward, Scranton, Pa., stated Nov. 9, '83: He had used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for sprains, burns, cuts, bruises and rheumatism. Cured every time.

SORE THROAT

Bronchitis, colds, coughs, asthma, and even consumption, in the early stages, yield to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Singers, actors, auctioneers, public speakers, clergymen, teachers, lecturers, and all who are liable to disorder of the vocal organs, find a sure remedy in this wonderful and well-known preparation. As an emergency medicine, in cases of croup, whooping cough, etc., it should be in every household.

And Bronchitis

It seemed as if I could not survive, all the usual remedies proving of no avail. At last I thought of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and after taking two bottles of this medicine I was restored to health. — Chas. Gambini, Smith's Ranch, Sonoma Co., Cal.

"There is nothing better for coughs than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I use no other preparation." — Annie S. Butler, Providence, R. I.

W. H. Graf & Co., Druggists, Carson, Iowa, certify that all throat and lung troubles are speedily

Cured By Using

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It leads all others. "In January, 1889, I was taken down with measles, and could not breathe. I was so settled on my lungs. I was forced to take to my bed and was so that the doctors despaired of my recovery, supposing me to be in quick consumption. Change of climate was recommended, but I began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and soon found relief. After using several bottles, I was cured, so that I am now as well and rugged as ever." — John Dillender, Crossman's of Steam Shovel, G. S. & S. F. R. R. Co., Justin, Texas.

A Wonder Worker.

Mr. Frank Huffman, a young man of Burlington, Ohio, states that he had been under the care of two prominent physicians, and used their treatment until he was not able to get around. They pronounced his case to be Consumption and incurable. He was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds and at that time was not able to walk across the street without resting. He found, before he had used half of a dollar bottle, that he was much better; he continued to use it and is to-day enjoying good health. If you have any Throat, Lung or Chest Trouble, try it. We guarantee satisfaction. Trial bottle free at Harrington & Kibbey's store.
