Citizen's Lecture Course.

The success of last year's course of entertainments by the Citizen's committee was such as to give sufficient encouragement to close a deal with the White Entertainment Bureau for another course the coming season. This one is recommended as being even better than the one which was given our people last year and consists of six in the course as has been the custom for years. The committee feel that with the thought and care which they have put into the matter this year, the public will liberally patronize the course and do all in their power to make it the success it should be; a clean and wholesome course of entertainment such as these will be, are sure to prove a good thing for our town, and for this reason—if no other—our people will gladly give their aid.

The course will be opened on Wednesday evening, Nov. 6, and the attraction will be The Honolulu Students. They are the genuine article from the Hawaiian Islands and are among the best vocal and instrumental artists; last year was their first in America, and the committee were indeed fortunate in securing them to open the course.

For the second in the course, Nov. 29, has been secured one of the famous Kempton lectures; this is given by Mr. Kempton—a picture play, "Evangeline"—and in addition to his description of the land of his birth, the author shows some hundred and fifty of the finest views ever made. This will certainly prove to be a fine thing.

The Hawthorne Musical Club of Boston will appear Dec. 18; as this company was here several years ago and was so generally liked and liberally patronized, it seems unnecessary to say anything further at this time in their favor.

One of the most pleasing men on the lecture platform today is Hon. I. C. Chamberlayne of New York city and his reputation as an orator is widely known; his choice subject is The Reign of the People, and this will certainly appeal to our people at this time. He will appear January 15.

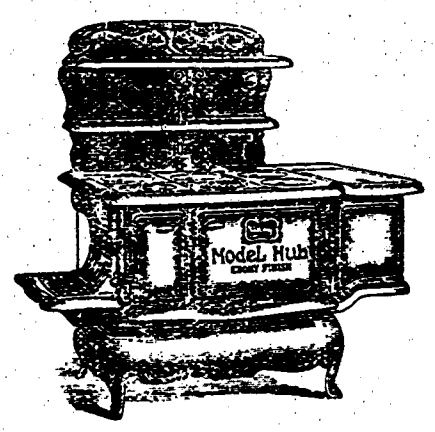
As a novelty and something which seldom comes this way, is a Cartoonist, and for a first class artist in this line J. Franklin Caveny, who will come to Antrim Jan. 29, cannot be surpassed; besides being a "chalk talker," he is a humorist and lecturer.

To close the course in a most pleasing manner and have just as good and perhaps a little better than those preceding it, on Feb. 19, The Scotch Singers will appear. This aggregation of musicians from Glasgow have also a talented reader and are recommended as the best ever; probably none quite as good ever visited Antrim before.

It is doubtful if after reading this list it is possible to recall a season when a more promising course of entertainments was booked for our town, and we bespeak for the management an unusually successful season.

Promised Changes are Made.

As was stated last week, other votes have been added to the credit of the contestents and the two leaders have changed places. There is some busy work being done, and friends are getting interested. The vote stands as below:



Mrs. E. Woodward	2050	Mrs. W. F. Smith	700
Mrs. Lena L. Balch,	1600	Mrs. H. B. Tuttle	250

"The James A. Tuttle Library"

Now has the roof on and the slaters are on the ground ready to place in position the pieces which will do a big lot towards keeping the wind and weather on the outside of the building. Several carpenters are busily engaged on inside work.

Baptist Pastor Accepts Call.

Rev. E. O. Kendall of Plattsburg, N. Y., to whom was extended a call to become pastor of the First Baptist Church of Antrim, has accepted the call. It is not given out when he will enter upon his new labors.

The Coming of the Parcels Post in This Country.

One thing is reasonably certain, and that is that the next Congress will have to deal seriously with the proposal for a parcels post. This is a thing that has been coming for a long time and the present Postmaster General has it firmly fixed in his mind that it will be a good thing For the general public, it unquestionably will and the general public, after all, is what the government is erroneously supposed to cater to. The man in the street can figure that life would be a good deal happier if he could send 4 pounds anywhere through the mail for two cents, as he can in many foreign countries and could increase this amount up to 10 pounds at proportional rates. The opposition first of all will come from express companies. They have never been forced to meet anything like this sort of competition and they will fight the parcels post to its passage as they have always done. But there will be another source of opposition, and the plaint of this class of people will be a good deal better worth listening to than of the rich express corporations. The opposition will come from the small store keepers of the country who will not be able to compete with the immense department stores of the big cities if the country resident can write an order to town and do shopping at an expense of half a cent a pound In the countries where the parcels post is in vogue, the department store is not developed to anything like the extent that it is in all good sized American cities. Yet the city stores in these countries absorb a large proportion of what the country stores consider its legitimate trade. The coming of such cheap transportation means quite a readjustment in the scheme of American life and business, but at the same time it is a development that will have to be seriously considered during the coming winter.

The Czar and his yacht, the Standart, have been ashore in the Gulf of Finland. He has been in deep water with his empire for so long that being aground ought to be a pleasant change for him.

An enterprising contemporary calculates that the coming trip of Secretary Taft around the world will cost $2,500. As freight rates go, this strikes us as quite reasonable.

This suggestion from President Mellen of the New York, New Haven and Hartford about taxing railroad securities would have sounded like rank populism in 1896.

There have been three successful hold-ups west of the Mississippi in the past two weeks. And yet the magnates complain that there is nothing in railroading any more.

It is a foregone conclusion that Gov. Vardaman will take the President's coming bear hunt in the Mississippi cane-brakes as another invasion of state rights.

State Trade Report.

Reports to Bradstreet's show that the continued rainy weather, while of great benefit to crops, and to the ponds and streams, has caused retail trade to be quiet, and many summer visitors have gone home sooner than was expected. Manufactories continue to be well employed and there is a good demand for help in other lines. Crop reports indicate a short crop of apples, a good crop of hay, and other crops are about an average. Wholesale trade is fairly good but collections are slow.

At Nashua the shoe factories and mills are busy and other manufactories working full time.

Milford reports the tannery and furniture concerns busy and granite men fairly so.

The manufacturing concerns at Claremont are all very busy.

Keene reports the wood-working concerns very busy and the woolen mills and other lines well employed.

The strike at Derry is practically at an end and many of the men have returned to work; this has benefited all kinds of business.

At Manchester the shoe factories are busy, mills running full time and labor in general well employed.

Woodsville reports all trade quiet, although labor is well employed; crops in this section are good, with the exception of apples.

One of the mills at Lebanon has been closed a few days for repairs; all other industries are busy. Crops have been very much improved by the rain and warm weather.

Plymouth reports that there are many guests remaining at resorts in that section and August business was as good as ever known.

Newmarket reports manufacturing interests very busy and help scarce.

At Exeter the shoe factories, cotton mill and machine shop are busy.

A Happy Time.

The pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. E D. Putnam was the scene of a happy gathering of little folks Monday afternoon, from 3 to 5 o'clock, assembled to celebrate the fifth birthday of Master Wendell Putnam. Although the rain prevented some from attending, those who were there had very smiling faces and enjoyed games, etc. At half past four, with Miss Hazel Burnham at the organ, they marched to the tastefully decorated dining room where light refreshments were served. Wendell received numerous gifts.

Rally Sunday.

On Sunday next at the Methodist church the Sunday school will observe the day as Rally Sunday. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody to attend, and special preparations have been made. It is expected that Mrs. Alma Ingram, Miss Ethel Ellinwood and Will Stewart will sing solos; also there will be an address by the pastor.

Isn't it Strange?

Lawyers stand up in court houses before jurors, in the presence of large audiences, and denounce men as liars, scoundrels, thieves and perjured villians, and when court adjourns the men appear to harbor no ill will against them. But let a newspaper faintly intimate that a man's character is blemished, and he has to confront a horse pistol, stand a libel suit, or suffer what the people think to be the greatest of all mortifications—lose a subscriber.

ANTRIM'S EARLY HISTORY

From this time on, as we have opportunity, in this column will be given some of our town's early history, being mostly extracts from Dr. Whiton's History, covering a period between the years 1744 and 1844.

Extract Number Twenty-two

About 1831, the Rev. Joseph Davis, of the Baptist denomination, was engaged to preach at the East house, and supplied that desk, some portion of each year, for a period of twelve or more years; frequently preaching for a time in other places. Several families of that denomination in Antrim, Deering, and Society Land, together with some others in the vicinity, attended his ministry. A small Baptist church was organized, of which he was pastor, and in which Benjamin Nichols officiated as deacon. After an existence of about ten years its members thought it expedient to dissolve it, and the greater portion of them united with the Baptist church in Bennington. After Mr. Davis ceased to occupy that desk, other temporary supplies were obtained occasionally, chiefly from ministers of the Baptist and Methodist connections.

From 1832 to the close of 1835 the religious aspect of the town exhibited no noticeable change. In these four years, seventeen were received into the church, and the total number of resident members during this period exceeded two hundred. But the spirit of emigration had begun to make inroads into the number, and, from this time, towns and villages presenting higher encouragements to business and enterprise, drew away many of the more youthful members, and some of the more aged. Near one-third of a Congregational church then existing at Alexandria, N. H., was composed of emigrants from Antrim. Death was rapidly removing the original and earlier members, and the additions, though more than equaling the number of deaths, were not adequate to make up both for that diminution, and also for the continued drain by emigration. In 1835, Samual Fletcher and James Hopkins, Jun., were added to the board of elders, both of whom have deceased. The death-bed scene of Dea. Hopkins presented one of the most striking exhibitions ever witnessed in Antrim, how calmly, and sometimes joyfully, a christian can die. Dea. Fletcher was for years one of the most prominent and valued citizens of the town, being not only an elder of the church, but selectman, town clerk, representative, justice of the peace; a man always to be trusted. The disease which proved fatal to him was malignant erysipelas, contracted, as was supposed, by innoculation, while aiding in preparing for the grave the body of his neighbor and friend, Mr. Joseph S. Atherton.

In 1836, occurred a revival of limited extent, almost confined to Clinton village and its immediate vicinity, resulting in several hopeful conversions. The church received that year an accession of twelve members, most of them young.

In the eight years from 1837 to the close of 1844, the Presbyterian church admitted to its fellowship forty-three individuals, and contained, at the close of this period, one hundred and seventy resident members; possibly a few more. The numbers stated in the preceding narration as added, include the additions both by profession and by letter; far the greater portion by profession. Soon after the organization of a Congregational church at the village, now Bennington, 1839, seven or eight members of the church in Antrim, having nearer and easier access to Bennington, requested and received letters of recommendation to that church. The Congregational church at the East meeting house being much reduced in number by the removal of its members, was dissolved, 1843, when the most of its remaining members united with the Presbyterian church at the Centre.

We have now brought the details of our ecclesiastical history through a period of a century from the first settlement, to 1844. A continuation must be left to some other pen. As an aid, however, to the future annalist of the church, it may be stated (though it is traveling beyond our prescribed limits), that the total of additions to the Presbyterian church from 1845 to 1851, inclusive of both years, was fifty-seven; of whom thirty-five were added in 1851; making the total number for a period of 43¼ years to be four hundred and thirty-three. In the religious interest of 1851 all the denominations in the town shared, but the details fall not within the limits of time proposed for this sketch.

A brief notice of the singing choir in Antrim will be of interest to some readers, and may be not unfitly added to the chapter of ecclesiastical history. The vote of the town, 1782, appointing Daniel Nichols "to read the Psalm," is not easily explained; possibly it was meant to designate him to lead the church music. Dea. Arthur Nesmith came here, 1786, and is believed to have been the leader from that time to 1814; a period of twenty-eight years. From 1794 he was formally designated to the office by successive re-elections in town-meeting. His courteous, amiable manners made him acceptable to the choir and to the congregation. John Taylor officiated as first chorister a few years from 1814, having as associate choristers, William Gregg and Daniel McAuley. Capt. McAuley died, 1817, and Mr. Taylor removed to the west about 1821. After the year last named the choir was led by William Gregg, with Charles Gates as associate chorister. Capt. Gregg died, 1829. The leaders of the choir since that date have been, successively, Charles Gates, Giles Newton, Joel Wilkins, Solomon J. Buckminster, and Frederic S. Little.

The religious denominations existing in town, and holding meetings for worship, in 1852, (the year of the publication of this sketch), are the Presbyterians, Baptists, and Methodists.

GRAVEL CURED

(Philadelphia, Penn., Item.)

A healthier, heartier, happier man than John J. Neill, of 2437 North 8th St., Philadelphia, could not be found in a day's search. The fact that he is still alive is a constant wonder to his friends.

Several years ago he began to suffer indescribable miseries from stone in the bladder. An eminent physician in Philadelphia told him that a surgical operation was necessary. So much did he dread the result, for if unsuccessful it meant death, that he put off the evil day as long as possible. While in this frame of mind, he heard of

DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY

Although disheartened, he bought a bottle of it, and within a month had experienced beneficial results, and before he had finished the third bottle, the gravel was completely dissolved and his sufferings at an end.

Mr. Neill feels that he owes a lasting debt of gratitude to Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made at Rondout, N.Y., and for disorders of the bladder and urinary organs. He says: "it will effect a cure if one is possible."

Favorite Remedy is prescribed with unfailing success for rheumatism, dyspepsia constipation, and nerve troubles in which it has cured many that were considered beyond the aid of medicine. All druggists, $1.

When Banks Are Bitten.

"Speaking of bad checks," said the cashier of a downtown bank, "don't you believe for a moment that most of the expert forgers are behind bars or frightened into inactivity. The distinguished professionals—those accustomed to play for a fortune at a single throw—are pretty well in hand, but there are others.

"As a matter of fact, the public would be surprised to learn how many bogus checks, perfectly executed, get past the bank officials every week in this city."

"Don't see many of 'em in the police court cases," a listener suggested.

"Of course not. Most of the checks are for small amounts and are made good by the bank officers. Why? Well, because it does a bank no especial good to have it known that forged checks can pass through its windows. So the matter is hushed up. Even when a man is caught in the act he is often allowed to go free if he is merely an agent and will tell who his principal is. It's business policy."—New York Globe

FRANCESTOWN.

What might have been a fatal accident occurred at Fred Foote's, when in the absence of Mr. Foote his son, Harold, in caring for the horses went to groom a horse just purchased, when the horse bit him on the head and struck him with his feet, throwing the boy down and otherwise injuring him. The grandfather being near went to his assistance and saved him from further harm; no bones were broken. In the morning Mrs. Foote went to feed them, when the horse struck her knocking her down; she got up and was again knocked down and stepped on, rendering her unconscious. Her son called to his grandfather for help, who says the horse would have killed the woman if he had not been there. The doctor was called, who dressed the wounds, and she is comfortable at present writing.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart or The Kidneys, Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's restorative has made its fame. No other remedy ever claims to keep the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for a sample and free Book. Pure Blood is a Defence, it means safety. A person whose blood is in an impure and improverished condition is in the greatest danger of catching any infections or epidemic disease. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the mildest, safest and surest purifier of the blood, thus striking at the root of Kidney, Liver and Bladder diseases. $1 00 at all druggists.

Nervous Worn-Out

If you are in this condition, your nerve force is weak—the power is giving out, the organs of your body have "slowed up," and do their work imperfectly. This failure to do the work required, clogs the system and brings distress and disease. When the nerves are weak the heart is unable to force the life-giving blood through your veins; the stomach fails to digest food; the kidneys lack power to filter impurities from the blood, and the poisonous waste remains in the system to breed disease. Nerve energy must be restored. Dr. Miles' Nervine will do it, because it strengthens the nerves; it is a nerve medicine and tonic, that rebuilds the entire nervous system.

"Several years ago I was all broken down. I was nervous, worn-out, could not sleep, and was in constant pain. I doctored for months, and finally the doctor said he could do nothing for me. I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine, and used altogether eight bottles, and I became strong and healthy, and now weigh 170 pounds."

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. Letter to J. McIlvain
Antrim, N. H.

Dear Sir: Such experiences as this are occurring all over the country.

Judge I. D. Fairchild owns two houses, exactly alike, in Lufkin, Texas. J. M. Torrence painted both houses. one Devoe, 15½ gallons; the other with another paint sold at same price; 25 gallons. That 25 gallon paint is weak and 15 per cent whiting; that's why it took 9½ gallons more.

You can learn for nothing what he had to pay for.

Yours truly,

Concerning Women.

The Commission appointed to revise the constitution of Holland has issued its report which contains a recommendation in favor of woman suffrage. It is possible, even probable, that the Dutch women may be enfranchised while Wilhelmina is Queen.

The State Legislature of Connecticut, which has just adjourned, has at least one good law to its credit, viz:—the one providing for a woman factory inspector.

The mayor of New Orleans has appointed three women on his new tenement house commission of seven. These appointments have been received with general approval, and are as follows:—Miss Eleanor McMains, head resident of Kingsley House, (a social settlement); Dr. Edith Foeber, daughter of the distinguished physician and surgeon, so prominently identified with New Orleans; and Mrs. Grace Chamberlain, President of that splendid organization known as the Era Club.

Are You a Pie Eater?

If not you are missing half the pleasure of life. It may not yet be too late. Just order from your grocer a few packages of "Our-Pie" and learn how easy it is to make Lemon, Chocolate and Custard pies that are sure to please all who taste them Each 10 cent package contains the proper quantity of the choicest pie ingredients ready for instant use. Has pleased thousands and will surely please you. If your grocer won't supply you, go to one who will.

We wish to state for the benefit of those who live at a distance and ask if we cannot get the REPORTER to them the day after issue, that the REPORTER'S issue every week leaves this office by 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, and if there is any delay after that we should not be held responsible.

La France

SHOE FOR WOMEN

$3. AND 3.50

The reason why the La France is the first choice of the particular woman is because no quality, style or feature that should be a part of the ideal woman's shoe is ever omitted in any La France shoe.

This explains why the makers of this best shoe for women have never ceased their efforts to reach shoe-perfection, till after long and patient experiment they recently solved successfully a problem that has baffled shoemen everywhere —how to secure perfect flexibility without the slightest loss of style, fit or durability.

In the new La France

is embodied the most satisfying combination of shoe-qualities known to shoemaking. It has greater ease than the "turn" — the beautiful appearance and splendid wearing powers of the "welt." It yields to every movement of the foot, yet never ceases to hold the instep with a firm but kindly grasp. Let us demonstrate to you this new Flexible Welt.

The class of 1909, A. H. S., held their class meeting last Tuesday. At this meeting the following officers were chosen: President, H Burr Eldredge; vice president, Miss A Perrett Smith; treasurer, Miss Esther A Sawyer; secretary, Miss Grace E. Burnham

The Freshman class held a class meeting last Friday afternoon. Although every Freshman present that afternoon discussed the meeting after school no business of importance was done; but all agreed in wishing to give a good scolding to the person who posted the class meeting notice on the bulletin board as a joke on their class.

Easy To Mix This.

What will appear very interesting to many people here is the article taken from a New York daily paper, giving a simple prescription, as formulated by a noted authority, who claims he has found a positive remedy to cure almost any case of backache or kidney or bladder derangement, in the following simple prescription, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

A well-known druggist here at home, when asked regarding this prescription, stated that the ingredients are all harmless, and can be obtained at a small cost from any good prescription pharmacy, or the mixture would be put up if asked to do so. He stated that while this prescription is often prescribed in rheumatic afflictions with splendid results, he could see no reason why it would not be a splendid remedy for kidney and urinary troubles and backache, as it has a peculiar action upon the kidney structure, cleansing these most important organs and helping them to sift and filter from the blood the foul acids and waste matter which cause sickness and suffering. Those of our readers who suffer can make no mistake in giving it a trial.

Woman's Home Companion For October.

The Woman's Home Companion for October is primarily a Fashion Number, not that the other regular departments are slighted in the least, nor that the fiction is in any way below the excellent standard the Woman's Home Companion has set for itself. Grace Margaret Gould, the Fashion Editor, has done more then any other one person to make this October issue interesting and helpful, contributing as she does, page after page of attractive and practical designs for Fall and Winter costumes.

Two of the many good articles deserve special mention—Jack London's "Riding the South Sea Surf," and Anna Steese Richardson's "The Influence of Women on Business."

There are good stories. Dr. Edward Everett Hale contributes a delightful talk on "The Division of Time," and the Editor has some pungent things to say about "Your Grocer."

Arthur Sullivan Rebuked.

A contribution to the Lady's Home Magazine contains many anecdotes about actors, among them one the writer had from Miss Eva Moore. It is a good story connected with her association with the Savoy and is well worth repeating. One night Sir Arthur Sullivan was anxious to hear how "The Gondoliers" sounded from the front of the house, so he slipped quietly into the back of the dress circle and made one of the audience. Presently, becoming absorbed in the performance, he began, unconsciously, to hum some of the melodies when an irate gentleman sitting near him struck in fiercely: "Pardon me, sir; I've come here to hear Sir Arthur Sullivan's music- not yours!"

This is the old original roof and iron paint placed on the market by us many years ago. It is the pioneer of roof paints, and we are the parents of the roofing paint industry in this country. Through all these years this paint has sold in greater quantities each season, despite the fact that hundreds of imitations, represented to be "just as good" have flooded the country with advertising similar to ours in an attempt to divert our trade.

For use on Roofs, Iron or Metal Buildings, or any surface where a thoroughly good paint is required, Hydro-Carbonite Paint is unequalled as time and experience and thousands of imitations prove.

Perfect Womanhood

The greatest menace to woman's permanent happiness in life is the suffering that comes from some derangement of the feminine organs.

Many thousands of women have realized this too late to save their health, barely in time to save their lives.

To be a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, should be a woman's constant study.

If a woman finds that her energiesare flagging, that she gets easily tired, dark shadows appear under her eyes, she has backache, headache, bearing-down sensations, nervousness, irregularities or the "blues," she should start at once to build up her system by a tonic with specific powers, such as the great woman's remedy for woman's ills, made only of roots and herbs.

It cures Female Complaints, such as Dragging Sensations, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and all Organic Diseases, and is invaluable in the Change of Life. It dissolves and Expels Tumors at an early stage. Subdues Faintness, Nervous Prostration, Exhaustion, and strengthens and tones the Stomach. Cures Headache, General Debility, Indigestion, and invigorates the whole female sysem. It is an excellent remedy for derangements of the Kidneys in either sex.
