Memorial Day, 1907.

With scunter locks and shorter files,
From year to year they come,
More ambulance and fewer miles,
Despite the life and drum.

But, lo, for sire, behold the son,
And he comes not alone,
No man can know what work was done
Until the land be grown.

While stars shine out from heaven's arch
And on Columbia's crest,
Fresh praise shall wait for those who march
And those who lie at rest.

America! World's greatest power!
We owe it all to you,
And grays who come to know their dower,
Thank God He loved the blue!

Ere many season's flowers have sprung,
You shall receive your hire;
For God, who made you strong and young,
Made you with souls of fire!

On June Fifth,

This fellow, as a representative of the LOCAL MINSTRELSY, expects that you will All Smile with him.

The evening's entertainment for this date promises to keep well in advance the reputation of Antrim as a Minstrel town. The committee in charge feel encouraged at the sale of reserved tickets at this early date. There will be something doing every minute. Read posters and secure tickets NOW, as generally all seats in the house are taken and chairs added. Don't be one of the waiters and have to sit in the aisle or away back under the balcony. Good voices; good music. Forget your troubles, and smile just for that night!

Memorial Sunday Sermon.

The annual sermon usually preached before the members of Ephraim Weston Post and kindred societies, was delivered on Sunday last, at Town hall, by Rev. Alba M. Markey, pastor of the Methodist church. Notwithstanding a hard rainstorm, about one hundred and fifty were present to listen to a very interesting and instructive discourse. The speaker took for his text words found in Exodus, 12th chapter and a part of the 26th verse: "What mean ye by this service?" His explanations, descriptions and illustrations were admirably given and well received, being listened to with great interest to the end.

Nothing Definite to Report.

Upon inquiry of the secretary of the building committee of the Tuttle Library, it is learned that at this time there is nothing definite to report.

"Josh Winchester,

Or Between Love and Duty," was presented at Town hall, Antrim, on Wednesday evening last, by local talent, for the benefit of the Woman's Relief corps of this place. This is a four act drama of good volume and it was most admirably presented, each one in the cast doing themselves justice beyond even their own expectations. Nearly five hundred were present and have since been loud in their praises of every number on the program.

CAST OF CHARACTERS.

Josh Winchester,	A. M. Swett
Bob Winchester,	G. G. Whitney, Jr.
Clyde Winchester,	A. T. Balch
Jack Travers,	C. H. Muzzey
Sir Humphrey Lester Revel,	U. T.
Madge Sheldon,	A. J. LaPoint
Trixy Winchester,	Villa Boutelle
Rose Ethel, as	Alice Hatch
	Irene Winchester

The cast is given so that all our readers may know who took the several parts, and had we time and space there is ample opportunity for commenting on individual parts, as everything was carried along so nicely. Mrs. A. J. LaPoint, "Rose Ethel," who previous to her four years residence in Antrim, was a professional actress, assisted in the cast and managed the affair with pronounced success. At the close she gave the "Poison Scene" of Juliet, from Shakespeare's great tragedy "Romeo and Juliet." It was done in a finished manner and received hearty applause.

The vocal solos of C. W. Prentiss and A. T. Balch were very pleasing. Music was furnished by Appleton's orchestra. Owing to the most excellent patronage of this occasion, the W. R. C. will add to their treasury the sum of nearly ninety-five dollars.

A Surprise to the R. F. D. Man, Route No. 2.

Last Tuesday evening, the 21st inst., the patrons of R. F. D. Route No 2, of the eastern division, with their hearts overflowing with true friendship, visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm S. French, R. F. D. Carrier, without an invitation. It was a genuine surprise to our genial friends, but they in true yankee style extended the warm hand of fellowship to all and said we're glad you came.

After the visitors had got through with their how'd you does, and got seated, they were entertained with music from the phonograph; games were played, etc., all were in a seemingly happy, mirthful mood. In due time a bountiful supply of cake and ice cream were served.

"The feast was served, the bowl was crowned;
To the king's pleasure went the mirthful round."

After the dishes had been laid away, Mr. and Mrs. French were ordered to stand up; they obeyed, when Geo. A. Cochran, Esq., in a few remarks, presented them in behalf of the patrons, an elegant double folding couch equipped with mattress, spread, etc., also a sum of U. S. greenbacks; two rich frosted cakes with the initials R. F. D. in the frosting in an artistic manner (tempting to a person with a sweet tooth) they were made respectively by Mrs. Chas. Combs and Mrs. Geo. F. Perry, two ladies who rank high for their abilities in the culinary department. Mr. French in a noticeably feeling manner, replied; he spoke of the cordial relations which has always existed between himself and his patrons, and especially the apparent confidence they seem to have in his honesty as regards financial matters which speaks more eloquently than any testimonial of their appreciation of efforts in their behalf. In behalf of his amiable wife and little son he said, I return our sincere thanks for your kindness in remembering us at this time.

Fifty patrons or more were present. The R. F. D. patrons of Mr. French's route feel very grateful to him and his wife for their faithful and pleasant ways in delivering the daily mail through all kinds of weather, which has always been done with a smiling face.

On his face scowls are never there
His patrons to frighten or to scare.

"Some of you, on pure instinct of nature,
Are led by kind to admire your fellow-creature."

At a seasonable hour the patrons returned to their homes and we have no doubt were ready to exclaim in unison "well done, good and faithful servant."

C. E. Convention.

The forty-third semi-annual convention of the Contoocook Valley Christian Endeavor Union was held on Wednesday last with the Antrim Baptist church, commencing in the morning and continuing through the evening sessions. There was an unusually large attendance at all the sessions, and good representations were present from the several societies in the valley composing the union: Jaffrey, Peterboro, Hancock, Greenfield, East Washington, Frankestown, Bennington, Deering, Antrim, Hillsboro and Henniker. The members of the several committees from the entertaining church rendered most excellent service.

At the roll call the following societies reported: Antrim Baptist, membership of 30 active members 2 honorary, with Junior society of 14 active members; Antrim Congregational society, 27 active and five associate members; Antrim Presbyterian society, 30 active and 9 associate members; Henniker Congregational society, 22 active and 8 associate members, with Junior society of 20; Hillsboro Bridge, 24 active and 14 associate members and a mission study class; Peterboro Congregational society 30 active and 8 honorary members. This society is paying the expenses for the education of a young man at Fiske university; Peterboro Baptist, 14 active 4 associate and 5 honorary members. Each society responded to its name repeating in unison a verse of scripture.

The new officers of the union were elected as follows: President, Walter E. Amlaw, Hillsboro; Vice President, F. A. Tarbell, Peterboro; secretary, Mrs. Carrie A. Hersey, Peterboro; treasurer, Ira P. Hutchinson, Antrim; good citizenship committee, W. E. Amlaw, Hillsboro; Rev. C. R. Hamlin, Hillsboro; the Rev. G. H. Dunlap, Bennington.

One of the features of the Convention was the address of Rev. William Hurlin of Antrim, lacking but a few weeks of his 93d milestone, who spoke to the convention for thirty minutes on "Spiritual Power—How Secured." Although so far advanced in years, the venerable clergyman spoke with vigor and strength that would have done justice to a much younger man.

Very helpful addresses were delivered by Rev. William T. McElveen of Boston afternoon and evening. The keynote of the convention was "Spiritual Power for Christ and His Church," and this thought was given particular prominence in all the services of the day and evening. The convention was a successful one in every way. The fall meeting will be held with T. P. S. C. E. of the Antrim Congregational society at the Centre.

At the Baptist Church.

Rev. J. C. Robbins, missionary to the Philippine Islands, will speak at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening, June 2. In a letter to the Manchester Union of May 20, written while in attendance at the National Baptist Anniversaries at Washington, D. C., Rev. Dr. Lemon of Manchester says: "The best speech I have yet heard has come from a young man in New Hampshire. The subject was: 'The Church and the Flag in the Philippines' and the young man who swayed the great audience with masterly eloquence and tremendous applause was the Rev. J. C. Robbins of Concord, son of Supt. J. H. Robbins of the New Hampshire Anti-Saloon League. It was generally conceded that his address was one of the most informing and eloquent thus far given to this magnificent convention."

ANTRIM'S EARLY HISTORY

From this time on, as we have opportunity, in this column will be given some of our town's early history, being mostly extracts from Dr. Whiton's History, covering a period between the years 1744 and 1844.

Extract Number Sixteen

an amount exceeding $5,000 annually. Isaac C. Tuttle introduced the manufacture of shoe-pegs in large quantities, 1830; has recently sold out. The next year S. W. & J. G. Flint began, and still continue the same manufacture.

To return to chronological order and resume the broken thread of narration: The controversy relative to meeting-houses led to an effort, in 1823, by citizens in certain sections of Antrim, Deering, and Society Land, to procure the incorporation of a new town, to be composed of the eastern part of Antrim, the western part of Deering, and Society Land. The town of Antrim voted to oppose the petition for a division, and chose Isaac Baldwin their agent for this purpose, with authority to employ counsel and take all proper steps to render their opposition effective. At the next session of the Legislature the committee on the incorporation of towns reported adversely to the petitioners for a division, and they had leave to withdraw their petition.

Not discouraged by a single failure, they renewed the effort in 1829, and obtained on petition the appointment by the Legislature of a viewing committee, of three persons, to visit the place, hear the respective parties, and report on the expediency of creating a new town. The committee, of which C. F. Gove, of Nashville, was chairman, came here on this business, May, 1830. Antrim and Society Land, by special agents and Deering by their selectmen, opposed the granting of the petition. After viewing the location, examining witnesses, and hearing counsel, the committee reported in favor of the creation of a new town; but, at the June session, the House of Representatives, by a great majority decided adversely to the report. No effort for a division has been made since this period, and these unpleasant agitations gradually subsided.

That portion of the road from Stoddard to Hancock, passing through the southwest corner of Antrim, a rough, uninhabited tract, on the west side of Bald Mountain, had been for many years kept in tolerable repair by this town, at no small expense, and not without some complainings; as the citizens scarce ever used the road, and had no access to it except by passing through other towns. Gladly would they have rid themselves of that angle of the town, but no neighboring town would accept it. At this period, the FOREST ROAD, passing from Charlestown, N. H., through Stoddard, Hancock, and Greenfield, toward Nashua, attracted public attention—constructed in many places on new ground, and designed as a new avenue to market. Thoroughly to repair the portion of it lying in this uninhabited corner of Antrim, subjected the town to a heavy expenditure, which, however unpalatable, must be submitted to. A line of stages soon ran over this road. About the same time another market road was constructed from Newport to Amherst. These two roads attracted from the old turnpike a large portion of the travel, which had rendered it for many past years a busy and lively thoroughfare.

A Court's committee laid out, 1831, what was called the new KEENE ROAD, from Hillsborough Bridge by the Branch Village to Stoddard line, and thence, by the Box Tavern and North Nelson, to Keene. The town of Antrim made all possible opposition to this road, but were at last compelled to construct the portion of it within their limits, at an expense of not less than $4,000. About the same time another Court's committee laid out a new road, a part of the way on new ground, from Hillsborough Bridge by the South Village to Hancock Factory Village; the cost of which, to the town of Antrim, was not far from $2,000. Both roads were built, 1834.

From 1820 to 1832, the old meeting-house had stood unoccupied, except as a place for town meetings. In accordance with a vote of the town it was taken down the latter year, reduced in its dimensions, and reconstructed into the present town-house. The contractor for the removal and reconstruction was Charles Gates. Its location was fixed by a disinterested committee from abroad, consisting of Solomon McNeil, of Hillsboro, Russell Tubbs, of Deering, and Thatcher Bradford, of Hancock, Esquires.

Prior to 1830, the salary of the minister had been granted by the town in its corporate capacity; assessed and collected by the proper town officers. This year the town ceased to act as a religious organization, and the support of a Presbyterian minister was assumed by a society, not incorporated, yet effective to accomplish the object on the pure voluntary principle. So long as the town, as a corporation, sustained the ministry of the Gospel, it is believed that in no instance, where persons protested against paying a minister's tax, or declined to pay, was the payment ever enforced; at least no such instance is known to the writer. The thing was done under the forms of law; it was nevertheless, in the proper sense, a FREE-WILL OFFERING.

At this period town taxes were, and had been for two or three preceding years, excessively high. Two expensive roads and several minor roads had been built, a town farm for the support of the poor had been purchased, at a cost, including repairs and stock, well nigh $2,500. The amount of town indebtedness was at one time about $9,000. The citizens did not attempt to liquidate the debt at once, but resorted to a gradual process of extrication; a thing easily done, as on the credit of the town, money could be easily borrowed. Fortunately, the distribution of the surplus revenues of the United States, on

Kidney Disease Kills.

Thousands Never Suspect That They Have It.

It is now generally admitted that diseases of the kidneys and bladder constitute the greatest source of disease. Cure these and we remove the cause of nearly all ailments of the Liver, Blood, Stomach and Bowels. But the approach of Kidney disease is so slow and gradual that the first symptoms may not be noticed. Here are some of the most common symptoms of this dangerous disease:

- Discolored or dark urine, sometimes excessive and of pale color.
- Unusual desire to urinate, especially at night.
- "Brick Dust" deposits, sometimes containing albumen and blood.
- Swelling around eyes, ankles and abdomen.
- Drowsiness and a constant tired feeling.
- Pale, hot and dry skin.
- Pain in the back, headache, cramps in the legs.
- Bowels constipated, digestion impaired.
- Rheumatic pains in the joints and muscles.

If you have any of the above symptoms your kidneys need immediate attention, and Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy should be taken at once. Do you know what will happen if you neglect these symptoms? Bright's Disease, most terrible, is nearly always the outcome. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy has cured thousands of kidney disease, and we have the positive proof. It will cure you. Send to Dr. David Kennedy's Sons, Rondout, N. Y., for a free sample bottle and medical booklet. Large bottles $1.00, at all druggists.

The story is told of a well known Chicago criminal lawyer whose valuable services were retained by the wealthy relatives of a man accused of murder in a southwestern state.

The case was a hard one, for the evidence was overwhelmingly against the accused. Despite this fact the lawyer contrived by the skillful exercise of every trick and maneuver known to the profession to secure the disagreement of juries, delays, appeals, etc., till at last the case was brought before the supreme court of the United States.

One day in an inter-law between the prisoner and his counsel the former asked, "In case the supreme court should decide against me, what will be my next move?"

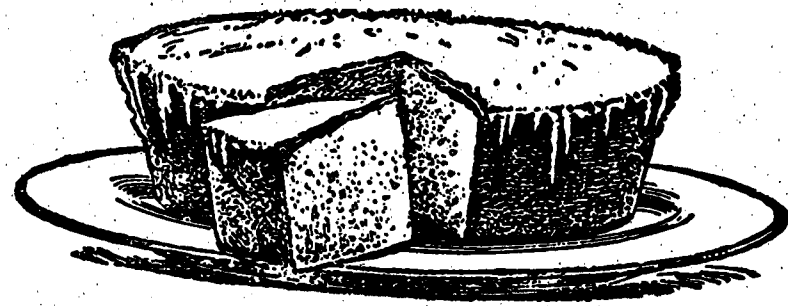

"To heaven, I hope," was the candid response of the lawyer.—St. Louis Republic.

ROYAL Baking Powder is indispensable to the preparation of the finest cake, hot-breads, rolls and muffins.

Housekeepers are sometimes importuned to buy other powders because they are "cheap." Housekeepers should stop and think. If such powders are lower priced, are they inferior? Is it economy to spoil your digestion?

Alum is used in some baking powders and in most of the so-called phosphate powders, because it is cheap, and makes a cheaper powder. But alum is a corrosive which, taken in food, acts injuriously upon the stomach, liver and kidneys.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood. It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle Home of Swamp-Root, by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

General Orders No 1, recently issued from the headquarters of the First brigade, N. H. N. G., Gen. Jason E. Tolles of Nashua commanding, contain the arrangements for the approaching tour of camp duty, beginning Monday, June 24. The tour of camp duty this year is some later than usual.

Mrs. Kate Cassidy, employed by the Great Falls Manufacturing company as a weaver, fell down stairs at the Allard boarding house, Somersworth, breaking her neck and dying instantly.

Joseph Boley, a 20 months old son of Joseph Boley a laborer, who lives at the north end of the city of Concord, swallowed a quantity of carbolic acid Thursday afternoon and died about 8 o'clock Thursday evening at the city hospital.

Mrs. Mary Scraggins, one of the oldest and most active persons of her age in Dover, left for the home of her daughter, Mrs. Albert Lyseth of Brockton, Mass., where she celebrated her 93d anniversary Sunday. She made the trip alone by train.

The ninth annual united service of the vested choirs of the Episcopal church of this state, which was held Thursday evening at Christ church in Portsmouth was one of the largest services that ever took place in this state. A chorus of 250 boys from the various cities of the state rendered the evening's music.

Agent Herman F. Straw of the Amoskeag Manufacturing company of Manchester has announced that the mills will close the last week of August in order to give the thousands of employees a vacation. It is also reported that the Stark mills will close one week during the summer for the same purpose.

The Laconia Home for the aged, which was incorporated at the recent session of the legislature has elected the following officers: President, Stanton Owen; vice president, Frank P. Webster; clerk, Hamlin Huntress; treasurer, George P. Munsey; auditor, Arthur W. Dinsmoor; corresponding secretary, W. A. Loyne. The corporation is given power to hold property to the amount of $100,000, erect suitable buildings, this property to be exempt from taxation, and is the realization of a charitable movement which had its inception soon after the close of the Civil War.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contains Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

HILLSBORO BRIDGE.

Members of the G. A. R., Woman's Relief corps and Sons of Veterans attended the morning services at the Congregational church Sunday.

The funeral of Newell R. Thurlow was held Friday afternoon at the Methodist church, in charge of Valley lodge, I. O. O. F., of which he is a member. Rev. John L. Cairns officiated. An appropriate solo was sung by George Boynton. There were many very beautiful floral offerings. Interment in Deering cemetery, where the burial service of the Odd Fellows was used.

Mr. Thurlow was born in Paris, Me., 28 years ago. He came to this town about 12 years ago, but returned to Maine and enlisted in Company D, First Maine Regiment for Spanish-American war. He returned to Hillsboro about seven years ago and later married Miss Cassie Richardson. He was a member of Valley lodge, I. O. O. F., North Star encampment, Hope Rebekah lodge, and also a member of the Methodist church. He died after an operation for appendicitis. He is survived by his widow; a sister, Mrs. W. C. Bosworth of this town, a mother and two brothers in Maine.

State and County News

The number of liquor licenses issued in the state to date by the board of license commissioners are 612.

During the first ten days of May the state treasury received under the inheritance tax law the sum of $32,000 from the Thayer estate at Keene.

One of the laws of 1907 is to the effect that a dealer in ice who on request of the purchaser refuses to weigh the ice, has a penalty fine of $50 staring him in the face, while the one who has charge of delivering the ice, not being the dealer, and refuses to weigh the frozen water, is liable to a punishment of a fine of $10.

David Sanborn of Chester, who died at that town May 4, after living the life of a hermit for many years, and denying himself every comfort and at times even the necessities of life, left over $60,000 which he kept locked up in a little wooden trunk and always near at hand. His daughter and son, both in poor circumstances with whom he had not been on good terms for many years, will come into the fortune as he left no will.

The Laconia Home for the aged, which was incorporated at the recent session of the legislature has elected the following officers: President, Stanton Owen; vice president, Frank P. Webster; clerk, Hamlin Huntress; treasurer, George P. Munsey; auditor, Arthur W. Dinsmoor; corresponding secretary, W. A. Loyne. The corporation is given power to hold property to the amount of $100,000, erect suitable buildings, this property to be exempt from taxation, and is the realization of a charitable movement which had its inception soon after the close of the Civil War.

Heart Weakness

The action of the heart depends upon the heart nerves and muscles. When from any cause they become weak or exhausted, and fail to furnish sufficient power, the heart flutters, palpitates, skips beats; and in its effort to keep up its work, causes pain and distress, such as smothering spells, short breath, fainting, pain around heart, arm and shoulders. The circulation is impeded, and the entire system suffers from lack of nourishment.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure makes a heart strong and vigorous by strengthening these nerves and muscles.

"I had palpitation and pain around my heart, and the doctors said it was incurable. I don't believe it now, for after taking six bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, three bottles of the Nerve and Liver Pills I am entirely cured, and feel better than I have for five years, and it is all due to these remedies. I want you to know that your medicines cured me. It relieved me from the first dose, and I kept right on till the pain in my chest was gone, and I kept on feeling better even after I quit taking it." JOHN H. SHERMAN, Belding, Mich.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the local. Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a special means to neutralize suppuratory tendency, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all flesh, and all blood ailments. The "Night Cure," as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative cures nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

The Value of Money Spent at Home.

The efforts of the merchants of Findlay, Ohio, to show the value of money spent at home are being demonstrated by a novel plan. One of the large dry goods firms has started a dollar bill on the rounds of the town with a tag tied to it. Everyone into whose hands it falls is asked to write his name and the time of its receipt on the tag. One day the dollar showed that it had been in the hands of nineteen persons. This was taken as conclusive evidence that money spent in the home town was capable of doing a great deal good, and at the same time as showing the loss to home merchants when money is spent out of town.

Just as the newspapers were beginning to drop out the notices about Mark Twain's white flannel suit, the space is taken by the news that he has a double. Evidently the happiness of Mark depends on the amount of advertising he can get for nothing.

The European who defiled water as something good to bath in had probably not heard of its other important use in the stock market.

Have You a Friend?

Then tell him about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Tell him how it cured your hard cough. Tell him why you always keep it in the house. Tell him to ask his doctor about it. Doctors use a great deal of it for throat and lung troubles.

"I had a terrible cold and cough and was threatened with pneumonia. I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and it gave me quick and perfect relief. It is certainly a most wonderful cough medicine."—RENA E. WEITMAN, Sioux Falls, S. Dak.

The new schedule for rural free delivery will take effect on July 1st. It will make a graded increase in the compensation of carriers based upon the number of miles carried as shown by the records of the postoffice department. The schedule is as follows: Routes of 24 or more miles, $900 per annum; 22 to 24, $864; 20 to 22 miles, $810; 18 to 20 miles, $720; 16 to 18 miles, $630; 14 to 16 miles, $540; 12 to 14 miles, $504; 10 to 12 miles, $468; 8 to 10 miles, $432; 6 to 8 miles, $396. The readjustment adopted, with the increase of upwards of $6,000,000 made in the appropriation by Congress, will involve an aggregate expenditure for rural service during the next fiscal year of nearly $35,000,000.

The eighty-first annual meeting of the Hillsboro County Conference of Congregational and Presbyterian Churches will be held with the Congregational Church, New Ipswich, N. H., Tuesday and Wednesday, June 11 and 12, 1907. A most interesting program has been prepared.

EAST ANTRIM.

A. D. White and son are building a yard 45 feet by 60 feet with a eight foot tight board fence which will be enjoyed by Golden Lancelot this summer.

Casimir Hafeli was cut badly by one of his heavy horses stepping on him, so he has been confined to the house for several days.

Oscar Hills, wife and son of Clinton visited at her father's on Sunday.

W. G. Richardson of Winchester, Mass., has been stopping with his son, Harry, at Mt. Campbell farm for a few days.

Mrs. Abi Perry, Mrs. Myra Trask and Miss Day attended an auction in Francestown, on Saturday.

Mrs. Warren Wheeler accompanied Mrs. Geo. Lowe on a visit to her parents in Francestown the first of the week.

SOUTH LYNDENBORO.

The fruit trees are blossoming very full, and here do not seem to be hurt by the cold.

Geo. Tirril has arrived safely in California and reports he is doing carpenter work.

Miss Seeley, from Middlebury, Vt., is stopping at A. W. Putnam's. Percy Putnam and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a 10 pound boy.

The G. A. R. were invited to attend church at the center of the town this year Memorial Sunday.

Mrs. Ira Brown, who lived near Mont Vernon, died last Saturday from the effects of a surgical operation. She never came out of the effects of the ether.

A steam mill is being moved on to Luther Cram's lot. He recently sold timber to Venio and Upson. Several of the men are boarding at David and A. W. Putnam's.

The True Editor's Business.

An irate citizen says that hereafter he wants the editors to mind their own business. Did he ever reflect in his contemplative moments, when the moon is beaming, when the whippoorwill sings in the tree, when the tired man snores in the loft, the yellow dog sleeps on the sea and the mosquito gets in his work—did he ever reflect in such times upon the idea that a paper containing only accounts of the editor's own private business would be apt to prove monotonous to the general public? They might stand it for a while, but in the end it would be a thorn in the side and a weariness to the flesh and all that sort of thing. No; the true editor's business is to make everybody's business his business. That's business. So there's no use in making the kick sludged to.—Reading (P.V.) Times.

BATTLE OF SAN JACINTO.

The Desperate Fight That Heralded the Dawn of Texan Freedom.

On the morning of the 21st of April, 1836, the day chosen for the battle which was to decide the fate of Texas, Houston's first words had been, "The sun of Austerlitz has risen again." He had then called a council of war and asked the opinion of his six field officers as to whether they should attack the enemy or wait for the attack to come from them.

The four senior officers strangely counseled delay, but their arguments did not convince Houston, who declared that the hour for action had arrived and plainly announced the intention on his own responsibility to risk a general engagement. He then dispatched Deaf Smith, his most trusted scout, to cut down the bridge which offered the only means of escape to either army.

"Make the best of your way," he had said in his habitual tone of kindly friendship, "to Vince's bridge, cut it down and burn it up and come back like eagles or you will be too late for the day." And just as the first charge was starting a horseman flecked with foam from his panting charger had dashed along the lines of the patriot army, as Houston had arranged that he should do, calling out clearly that all might hear, this death-knell to all hopes of possible escape: "I have cut down Vince's bridge! Now, fight for your lives and remember the Alamo!"

The Texan army, with Houston riding at the front of the center column, had then dashed forward against the Mexican breastworks, holding which stood the army of Santa Anna drawn up in perfect order and calmly reserving his fire for the range. Their first volley, however, by the grace of a divine Providence, the Texans declared shot and killed, Houston's leg was severely wounded, but his column still advanced undisturbed.

Then came the answering volley, "poured into the very bosom" of the astonished Mexicans—unable to retreat and without bayonets for the charge. The Texans had "reluctant" their muskets, and dealt desperate blows, and finally, when they had thus battered their way into the very center of the Mexican army, they had drawn their non-combatant knives and "literally cut their way through dense masses of living flesh."

This battle had lasted only twenty minutes, but in that time a new nation had been born into the world. "From the battle of San Jacinto," said Webster in 1842, "the war was at an end."—Metropolitan Magazine.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Too many of us consider an excuse a reason. Everything sounds like an encore to some men.

The philosophical person is apt not to be when considering troubles of his own.

Many a man who thinks he is getting into a peach orchard, really finds his way into a lemon grove.

There are lots of answers to the question, "What's the use?" but the man who asks it never wants one.

When an acquaintance says to you, "I am going to be honest with you," brace yourself to hear something disagreeable.

Most of us when we ride a free horse start off on a walk, quicken into a trot, then break into a wild gallop and are thrown.—Athens Globe.

Good For Twenty.

"Lawyers get stung as easily as other people," said one who practices in the criminal courts. "Here's what happened to me the other day: A friend of mine tipped me off that there was a case coming up in special sessions and it would be easy to get the defendant, a negro, free."

"There's a twenty in it for you," he added, "I've got another case on up stairs or I would take it myself."

"Sure enough, I got the fellow off, and when we reached the corridor I found my friend waiting for me."

"Some thing, boss," said the negro, diving into his pocket. "It contains an eight twenty, all right. Without a smile he handed over two dimes."—New York Sun.

"Deflection is the thing," declared the lawyer. "For instance, yonder in our yard is a pile of ashes. That is evidence that we have had fires this winter."

"And, by the way, John," broke in his father, "you might go out and sift that evidence."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Perfect Womanhood

The greatest menace to woman's permanent happiness in life is the suffering that comes from some derangement of the feminine organs.

Many thousands of women have realized this too late to save their health, barely in time to save their lives.

To be a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, should be a woman's constant study.

If a woman finds that her energies are flagging, that she gets easily tired, dark shadows appear under her eyes, she has backache, headache, bearing-down sensations, nervousness, irregularities or the "blues," she should start at once to build up her system by a tonic with specific powers, such as the great woman's remedy for woman's ills, made only of roots and herbs. It cures Female Complaints, such as Dragging Sensations, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration and all Organic Diseases, and is invaluable in the Change of Life. It dissolves and Expels Tumors at an early stage. Subdues Faintness, Nervous Prostration, Exhaustion, and strengthens and tones the Stomach. Cures Headache, General Debility, Indigestion, and invigorates the whole female system. It is an excellent remedy for derangements of the Kidneys in either sex.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

pay for admittance, and the old resident has no more right to a key than the ephemeral lodger.—London Graphic.

Birds' Wages.

In the garden there are a thousand small offenders that he who tills the soil for pleasure would willingly forgive. If it be granted that the thrush and the blackbird steal a certain amount of fruit, still their presence is so beautiful and their song so sweet that what they take may gladly be accorded as wages.—Country Life.

Colds and Bald Heads.

A baldheaded physician said: "I used to be dreadfully subject to colds even in the summer. I had to wear a black skullcap all the time. The minute I took it off I began to sneeze and wheeze. But now for a year I have not once worn a skullcap, and I have not once had a cold. Why, I could go and stand bareheaded in a snowstorm without any ill effect. My immunity to colds comes from this: Every morning I put my head under the cold water spigot and let the cold water run for a minute on my bald crown. This is a refreshing thing, and since I began to do it I have never had a cold."—Milwaukee Journal.

The Moorhen.

What could be more perfect defense than the device of the moorhen? She sinks herself in the water beneath an overhanging root or bank, leaving only her bill in sight. And that looks like a fallen leaf. You may stand within six feet of her, and she will not move, so sure is she that her ruse will succeed.—London Standard.

All by Accident Too.

George—Well, life is worth living after all. Jack—What's happened? George—I went to a railway station to see my sister off, and by some chance Harry Hanson was there to see his sister off, and in the rush and noise and confusion we got mixed, and I hugged his sister and he hugged mine.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Applied externally it affords almost instant relief from pain, while permanent results are being effected by taking it internally, purifying the blood, dissolving the poisonous substance and removing it from the system.

DR. S. D. BLAND Of Brewton, Ga., writes: "I had been a sufferer for a number of years with Lumbago and Rheumatism in my arms and legs, and tried all the remedies that I could gather from medical works, and also consulted with a number of the best physicians, but found nothing that gave the relief obtained from '5-DROPS.' I shall prescribe it in my practice for Rheumatism and Kindred Diseases."

DR. C. L. GATES Hancock, Minn., writes: "A little girl here had such a weak backbone by Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble that she could not stand on her feet. The moment they put her down on the floor she would scream with pain. I treated her with '5-DROPS' and today she runs around as well and happy as can be. I prescribe '5-DROPS' for my patients and use it in my practice."

MARK TWAIN'S STOGIES.

The Effect They Produced on the After Dinner Festivities.

One night at the Hartford Monday Evening club meeting George, our colored butler, came to me when the supper was nearly over, and I noticed that he was pale. Normally his complexion was a clear black and very handsome, but now it had modified to old amber. He said:

"Mr. Clemens, what are we going to do? There is not a cigar in the house but those old Wheeling long nines. Can't nobody smoke them but you! They kill at thirty yards. It is too late to telephone—we couldn't get any cigars out from town—what can we do? Ain't it best to say nothing and let on that we didn't think?"

"No," I said, "that would not be honest. Fetch out the long nines," which he did.

I had just come across those "long nines" a few days or a week before. I hadn't seen a long nine for years. When I was a cub pilot on the Mississippi in the late fifties I had had a great affection for them, because they were not only—to my mind—perfect, but you could get a basketful of them for a cent—or a dime. They didn't use cents out there in those days. So when I saw them advertised in Hartford I sent for a thousand at once. They came out to me in badly battered and disreputable looking old square paste board boxes, 200 in a box. George brought a box, which was caved in on all sides, looking the worst it could, and began to pass them around. The conversation had been brilliantly animated up to that moment, but now a frost fell upon the company—that is to say, not all of a sudden, but the frost fell upon each man as he took up a cigar and held it poised in the air—and there, in the middle, his sentence broke off. That kind of thing went on all around the table until when George had completed his crime the whole place was full of a thick solemnity and silence.

Those men began to light the cigars. Rev. Dr. Parker was the first man to light. He took three or four heroic whiffs, then gave it up. He got up with the remark that he had to go to the toilet of a sick parishioner. He started out. Rev. Dr. Burton was the next man. He took only one whiff and followed Parker. He furnished a pretext, and you could see by the sound of his voice that he didn't think much of the pretext and was vexed with Parker for getting in ahead with a fictitious ailing client. Rev. Mr. Twichell followed and said he had to go now because he must take the midnight train for Boston. Boston was the first place that occurred to him, I suppose.

It was only a quarter to 11 when they began to distribute pretexts. At ten minutes to 11 all those people were out of the house. When nobody was left but George and me, I was cheerful. I had no computations of conscience, no griefs of any kind. But George was beyond speech because he held the honor and credit of the family above his own, and he was ashamed that this smirch had been put upon it. I told him to go to bed and try to sleep it off. I went to bed myself. At breakfast in the morning when George was passing a cup of coffee I saw it trouble in his hand. I knew by that sign that there was something on his mind. He brought the cup to me and asked impressively:

"Mr. Clemens, how far is it from the front door to the upper gate?"

I said, "It is a hundred and twenty-five steps."

He said, "Mr. Clemens, you can start at the front door, and you can go plumb to the upper gate and tread on one of them cigars every time."

It wasn't true in detail, but in essentials it was.—Mark Twain's Autobiography in North American Review.

Peculiar Vienna Custom.

The Viennese take their pleasures as regularly as they do their meals, but they do not neglect business or keep late hours. One thing, perhaps which helps to keep the young Viennese of moderate means and economical mind regular in his evening hours is the fact that he must pay to get into his own rooms after 10 o'clock. Vienna is one vast system of apartment houses, and a house master is in charge of each one. At 10 o'clock he locks the front door, and any one desiring to get in after that hour must

Don't forget the Box Supper at the Town hall Friday evening.

Odell & Young will close their store at 9 o'clock A.M., Memorial Day.

Rev. and Mrs. Dunlap attended the convention at Laconia last week.

Henry Huntley, who has employment at New Durham, was visiting friends in town last week.

Morris Knight attended the May Festival of the Chorus Club at Keene Thursday of last week.

Mrs. Christie Knowlton of Leominster, Mass., visited her grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Cram, recently.

George Knight of Boston was home for a short visit last week, to see his father, Royal Knight, who is still quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sargent were called to Newbury Sunday to the funeral of Mr. Sargent's step-father, John Spaulding.

It was "Gentlemen's Night" at the Grange last Friday evening. A very pleasing program was presented; cake and ice cream were served.

Rev. G. H. Dunlap of the Congregational church preached a very interesting and impressive sermon to the Grand Army organizations Sunday morning.

Last Friday Hillsboro County Pomona Grange held a meeting at the Grange Hall. The day was fine, the attendance large. As we were favored with several excellent speakers it proved to be a very helpful and interesting meeting. Dinner was served to about ninety. The meeting opened at 10.30 o'clock with Worthy Master Henry Beard of Grasmere in the chair, and a most interesting program was delivered. There were visitors present from many of the surrounding towns.

RICHMOND RANGES

NEW PATTERNS!

The same arrangement of Flue that has made the "RICHMOND" so famous as a baker; the same style of Grate that has made the fire so easy to tend; the same Firebox that has proven so great a Fuel Saver, but with a New Dress.

Adding the swing top, which allows the Fire Box to be wholly uncovered at one motion, the new slow-cooking Cover, a place to set anything just to keep it warm and easily converted into a quick heating cover; the arrangement to draw whatever is in the oven to the front where it can be easily gotten at, together with the plain finish and lift off Nickel parts, makes the "RICHMOND" fully up-to-date and
