FEW COMMENTS

Concerning the General News Far and Near

The ice is still in Gregg like,—not a bit broken up to date, and probably a foot or more of the clogged stuff in tact. Some warm days are needed before very long.

Of course there was nothing to prevent Richard P. Hobson from an attempt to get Oscar Underwood's job away from him, but the task was a larger one than any he had before "tackled."

Hon. Robert M. Wallace, one of New Hampshire's able men, and a former chief justice, died at his home in Milford last Sunday, aged 67 years. He had been in failing health for a number of years.

A few good signs of spring have come to our notice during the past week: A scissors grinder upon our street, a dead woodchuck hanging from a cart body, geese flying north, budding of the apple trees; all of this with much snow and ice in contiguous territory.

It is little wonder "money is tight;" the bankers have their eyes upon it, and probably will till the new reserve banks are well in operation. Any such reorganization of the country's banking system will have a tendency to upset things somewhat, even if nothing else enters into it.

Secretary Daniels must be a temperance man of conviction and one who believes in doing something while in office. The order prohibiting intoxicating liquors on vessels of the American navy has been signed by him, to become effective July 1. It applies also to navy yards and naval stations.

Governor Felker's announcement that he does not care to again be the chief executive of the old Granite State shows more and better judgment than one would naturally expect at this season of the year; but when he lets it be known that the U. S. Senate looks good to him, a sort of smile is passed on down the line.

Special Attractions Appreciated

The famous photo dramas—"Quo Vadis" and the "Last Days of Pompeii"—were given at the town hall the past week, and both have been highly spoken of by many. They are productions of much merit and our people were fortunate in being privileged to see them.

Direct Vote for Senators

Thirty-three United States senators are to be elected this year by direct vote of the people in the first general test of the 17th amendment to the constitution.

Terms of 31 present members of the senate expire March 3 next, and in addition to these, successors must be chosen to the late Senator Johnston of Alabama and the late Senator Bacon of Georgia. In each state two senators will be elected. In Georgia, besides a successor to Senator Bacon, there will be a contest over the seat of Senator Hoke Smith. Mr. Smith will not seek to retain his seat. In Alabama besides the election of a successor to Senator Johnston for the regular term beginning March 4 next, there will be a senator chosen to fill his unexpired term, which will sit until March 3, 1915, only.

Most of the Republicans whose terms expire are candidates to succeed themselves, although there have been rumors that Senators Bradley of Kentucky, Gallinger of New Hampshire and Root of New York might retire. No definite announcements have been made, however, in these cases.

"The country editor with 500 circulation is to the business man a clerk able to sell exclusively to 500 customers. And a good customer ought to be worth $10 a year to the publisher who can reach him and sell to him."—From Brisbane's speech at Chicago before the meeting of prominent advertising men.

Governor Felker's Proclamation for Fast Day

Reverence for the memory of the Pilgrim Fathers is not only a distinct American privilege, but it is equally a duty. The pious purpose, the persevering courage, and deep religious faith of these good people challenge the admiration of the world. To some, in this more enlightened age, their religious zeal may seem to have been confined within narrow bounds, but they believed in a personal God, to whom they attributed all successes, and from whom they besought temporal blessings. In the plentiful bounties of the present age, we can scarcely realize the hardships they endured, nor appreciate their continued self-denial. "They that sow in tears shall reap in joy." In the midst of their trials and afflictions, they turned to Him from whom all blessings flow, and as the seed-time approached, appointed a day for humiliation, fasting and prayer, that the autumn should bring forth its fruits. Let us emulate their noble example.

And in accordance with that custom, I do hereby designate Thursday, the 10th day of April, current, as Fast Day.

Upon that day, wherever we may be, let us remember that in their hearts was hidden the power which by perseverance and faith has produced the freedom of today, and may we seek the guidance of Almighty God for the preservation of that freedom, and invoke His blessing upon all mankind.

Given at the Council Chamber in Concord this 27th day of March, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and thirty-eighth.

SAMUEL D. FELKER,
Governor.

By His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Council.

EDWARD N. PEARSON,
Secretary of State.

Check Your April Cough

Thawing frosts and April rains chill you to the very marrow, you catch cold, head and lungs stuffed, you are feverish, cough continually and feel miserable, you need Dr. King's New Discovery. It soothes inflamed and irritated throat and lungs, stops cough, your head clears up, fever leaves, and you feel fine. Mr. J. T. Davis, of Stickney Corner, Me., "Was cured of a dreadful cough after doctor's treatment and all other remedies failed. Relief or money back. Pleasant—children like it. The Antrim Woman's Club Held its regular meeting on Monday afternoon at town hall, with a good attendance. The customary hour of business was in order.

The feature of the meeting was an address by Miss Edith B. Hunt, on "A Well Balanced Meal." Miss Hunt is a teacher of domestic science in the Springvale, Maine, schools and was therefore able to present her subject in a very intelligent manner and make it particularly interesting to all present.

Refreshments were served by certain of the youngest members of the club.

A Very Nice Gift

An announcement was read from the Presbyterian pulpit Sunday by the pastor, Rev. F. Albert Arbuckle, stating that Mrs. Nathan C. Jameson and family and George Walker of Philadelphia, presented the society with a house and lot situated on Waverley and Concord streets, for use as a parsonage. The session unanimously voted to accept the gift, which is made as a memorial to the late Mrs. Isabelle Burnham Jameson Walker, who was prominent in the society here.

Returns West

Mrs. G. B. VanBuskirk and Miss Charlotte VanBuskirk spent a portion of the past week in Portsmouth, where they joined Rev. VanBuskirk, pastor of the Methodist church, in attending the Methodist conference. Mrs. Charlotte VanBuskirk is now visiting in Boston a few days, and will then return to her home in Kansas, having spent the winter in Antrim in her brother's family at the Methodist parsonage.

For Sale

I have three Bulls which I will sell. One 5 1/2 months old, subject to papers, and a fine one; Two yearling Bulls, well mated and as fine Grade specimens as usually seen.

MERRILL-KILBURN

One of Antrim's Young Ladies Married Saturday

Miss Emma May Merrill and Mr. Homer Eastman Kilburn of Andover were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at "Fairview Farm," Antrim Centre, home of the bride, the ceremony being performed by Rev. F. Albert Arbuckle, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

The bride was given away by her father, Warren W. Merrill, chairman of the board of Selectmen. The bridesmaid was her only sister, Miss Bertha Merrill. The best man was Frank Kilburn of Boston, cousin of the groom.

Following the ceremony, the couple left town for a short wedding trip. The happy couple will reside in Andover.

Mrs. Kilburn is the elder daughter of Warren W. Merrill and wife. She is a graduate of the Antrim high school, class of 1912; is active in Antrim Grange and Congregational church. Since graduation she has been teaching school. Mr. Kilburn is the only son of Fred Kilburn and wife of Andover, and by occupation is a farmer. He is a graduate of New Hampton academy.

A reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Kilburn on Tuesday evening at the Congregational church, and a most pleasant time was enjoyed. In the receiving line with Mr. and Mrs. Kilburn were W. W. Merrill and wife, Antrim, and Abner Osgood and wife of Lowell. The ushers were Bertha Merrill, Jessie Butterfield, Amy Butterfield, Ellen Nelson, Vera McClure, Hazel Burnham. Refreshments were in charge of Mrs. H. P. Warden.

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

By the Antrim Woman's Club--Beneficial to Young People

The public service committee of the Woman's Club is quite busy in preparing to observe Flag Day in an appropriate manner; and in addition to this, and what is important and will doubtless prove very interesting and beneficial to all who participate, is the vegetable and flower garden proposition.

The plan is to offer six cash prizes—$5.00, $3.00 and $1.00—to the boy or girl between the ages of ten and seventeen years who shall have the best ordered vegetable garden in every particular; like prizes will be offered to the boy or girl of the same age who shall have the best flower garden. Seeds may be had by applying to either member of the committee: Mrs. Larrabee, Mrs. Eldredge, Miss Swett.

This is the first time anything of the kind has been attempted here, and beyond the novelty of the thing should prove inspiring to our young people of both sexes to do something worth while. A cash prize looks good to most people, and surely the youth among us will consider its attractiveness and get into the game.

Rewiring the Town Hall

The Selectmen are having the electric wiring in the town hall changed to conform with certain requirements made by the board of underwriters. The electricians are enclosing the electric wires in galvanized iron pipes. This method is supposed to be a protection against fire. Three exit signs are being installed, one over the door in the balcony, one near the double doors on the floor, and one over the exit to the stairs which lead by the office of E. W. Baker. These exits will be plainly indicated by a red light, and will be constantly illuminated whenever the hall is in use. Since the hall has been used for motion pictures these needed improvements have been required.

JUST A LITTLE SMILE

It Might Have Been Worse.
Harry Lauder told an amusing story the other day of two Glasgow women who met in the street and began to discuss the domestic affairs of a newly married couple.
"Aye, Mrs. McTavish," said one, "so Jeanny's got marriet?"
"She has that, Mrs. McAlpine," replied the other.
"An' how's she gettin' on?" the first woman wanted to know.
"Oh, no sae bad at a," was the reply. "There's only one thing the matter. She thinks she could hae got a better man. But then there's aye something."

The Young Husband.
"You're an old married man. What do you do when your wife begins to scold?"
"Encourage her. I talk back—discreetly, of course. I say tantalizing things. I make foolish excuses. I stammer and get husky."
"But doesn't that make her a good deal madder?"
"Of course it does. That's the intention. I want her to get so mad that she won't have any voice left to ask me for money."
"Gee, I wonder if I'll ever get as hardened as that?"

Mistaken Identity.
Professor Beanbrough was jubilant. "Ah, ha!" he cried, as he rested on his shovel. "Look what we have unearthed! I believe we have discovered the remains of some herbivorous amphibian of the order prestosauri!"
Farmer Sodbuster took a good look. "Nope, you're wrong, prof," he said. "Them bones belonged to a hog I buried there two years ago last fall."

GOOD CHANCE.

Salesman—Your own husband wouldn't know you in that coat.
She—Oh! that's fine. I'll follow him today and see how he conducts himself.

Ready.
A woman's prepared for any old fate. If she's dressed in style and her hat is on straight.

Observing Popular Tendency.
"Is this play perfectly proper?"
"Yes, ma'am," replied the man in the box office. "What made you doubt it?"

"The string of automobiles in front of the theater. I never heard anything against the place, but it's getting terribly big audiences for a play."

Better Roads.
Good roads not only cheapens the cost of transporting farm produce to market but makes the country a desirable place to live in.

We hear much talk about federal aid for good roads, yet if we wait for this movement to crystallize into a reality the people of the country will be riding in mud for some time to come. The thing to do is to take off coats and buckle into a plan for local road improvement. Be a booster for the grading of roads and follow up the work with the King road drag for maintenance.

The principle of all good roads in all states is the same, viz., keeping the water out and off of the roadbeds. Ditch, drain and drag the roads. This is the tripod of good road building.

Important to all Women Readers of this Paper

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer a great deal with pain in the back, bearing-down feeling, headache and loss of ambition.

Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be despondent; it makes any one so.

But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

A good kidney medicine, possessing real healing and curative value, should be a blessing to thousands of nervous, over-worked women.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy will do for them. Every reader of this paper, who has not already tried it, by enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., may receive sample size bottle by Parcel Post. You can purchase the regular fifty cent and one-dollar size bottles at all drug stores.

WIT and HUMOR

No Chance.

"Brooks says he and his wife hardly ever engage in conversation."

"What is the matter?"

"The lady is generally so busy doing a monologue that conversation is out of the question."

A Sign of Progress.

"Do you think people are really making any progress? That we actually gain in knowledge and worthiness?"

"Certainly. Why, hardly any woman bleaches her hair now."

How Could She Help It?

"Do you ever think that your marriage was a mistake?"

"Yes, often. One of the men whom I refused is getting as large a salary as my husband is drawing."

"Macbeth" was the play, which had reached the thrilling point where Macbeth goes off to murder the king. On arriving behind the scenes the villain of the piece looked about for the blood in which to dip his hands. Not finding it, he summoned the stage manager, who had forgotten to prepare it. What was to be done? The time had come for him to reappear on the stage. Suddenly, with admirable presence of mind, he smote the manager's nose with all his force, and dipping his hands in the copious stream which flowed out, he dashed on the stage, followed by a roar from the smitten one, just in time with the words: "I have done the deed. Did you not hear a noise?"

The exports of pork in 1913 were well up with their average, but they have been exceeded a score of times in the last quarter century. In 1906, beef to the amount of 733,000,000 pounds was sent abroad, but last year we exported only 166,000,000 pounds. Of the leading export crops, cotton alone established a new high record last year. There are several inferences to be drawn from the falling off in export of farm products, taken in connection with the prevailing high prices. One is that the surplus yield is growing less and less and that it is not impossible we are approaching a day when all the food produced on American farms will be consumed in the country of its production. Another is that, unless production is increased enormously, there is little likelihood of a marked decrease in food prices, the countries which have been taking our surplus absorbing that of other countries which might otherwise help us at a time of need. Still a third inference may be of importance—that if the advantage of a high trade balance is to be maintained it must come before many years from the sale of manufactured goods and not from the sale of farm products.

The unhappiness of the world is caused by its wickedness. No doubt about that. No doubt that every violation of a law is followed by a penalty. When a person steals, or gets drunk, or hates his neighbor, or takes an undue advantage, or neglects his home, or does anything that he ought not to do, a punishment follows just as certain and as necessarily as when one puts his hand into a flame. And these aggregated penalties in human experience is what constitutes the unhappiness of the world, says the Ohio State Journal. And so all the effort of society and government should be to get rid of their sins. It is only the political economy that is worth a moment's thought. If we act upon the suggestion of the Bible, that "righteousness exalteth a nation," it will do more good than all the civil service reform, all the big canals and all the courts in the land, toward spreading happiness and contentment over the country. No one of any sense doubts it and yet we go on putting salve on pimples and continue the unworthy life that makes the pimples.

TWO WOMEN AVOID OPERATIONS

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Chicago, Ill.—"I must thank you with all my heart for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I used to go to my doctor for pills and remedies and they did not help me. I had headaches and could not eat, and the doctor claimed I had female trouble and must have an operation. I read in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have taken it and feel fine. A lady said one day, 'Oh, I feel so tired all the time and have headache.' I said, 'Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound,' and she did and feels fine now."—Mrs. M. R. KARSCHNICK, 1438 N. Paulina Street, Chicago, Illinois.

The Other Case. Dayton, Ohio.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound relieved me of pains in my side that I had for years and which doctors' medicines failed to relieve. It has certainly saved me from an operation. I will be glad to assist you by a personal letter to any woman in the same condition."—Mrs. J. W. SHERER, 126 Cass St., Dayton, Ohio.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

You Have Nasal Catarrh Not Very Bad, But— It Bothers You a Good Deal.

Some people have nasal catarrh and know it. Not only the patient knows it, but all of his friends know it. Many people know it that are not his friends. Just those people who happen to meet him in the street car or on the public square.

That sort of a nasal catarrh need not be described. Everybody knows the symptoms without their disgusting recital.

Peruna helps such cases every day. Thousands have attested to this fact unsolicited. Peruna benefits even the worst cases of old nasal catarrh.

But there are cases of nasal catarrh not so evident. One nostril is stopped today. The other nostril is stopped tomorrow. Cannot breathe freely through the nostrils. Easy to sneeze. Mucus in the nose too thick. Sometimes forms brownish lumps. Catch cold easily. Never quite free of a cold. These symptoms describe a case of subacute nasal catarrh. Many people have it, and some who would not admit they have nasal catarrh.

He knows he must blow his nose freely. He remembers that he does not breathe easily through the nose.

He recalls the fact that he sneezes some now, whereas he did not previously.

Subacute nasal catarrh! Or we might call it incipient nasal catarrh. Or, still better, nasal catarrh just beginning and becoming chronic.

Now is the time to take Peruna. A little Peruna will do wonders at this stage of the disease. Snuff a little weak salt water every morning (see "Ils of Life," sent free by Peruna Co., Columbus, Ohio), just enough to clear out the nose. Take a dose of Peruna before breakfast. Hold it in the mouth. Let it trickle down slowly and breathe the fumes of it out through the nose as you swallow it.

This will stop an incipient case of nasal catarrh in a few weeks. Stop it entirely. The nose becomes clear again. The breath is sweet. The breathing free. No more snoring, or snuffling, or sniffing, or catching cold easily. All of these things are in the past.

An army of men and women have been benefited by Peruna. You might as well become one of the benefited ones as to allow it to go on any further.

The
ONLOOKER
HENRY HOWLAND
My Creed

This is my creed: To do some good,
To bear my ills without complaining,
To press on as a brave man should
For honors that are worth the gaining;
To seek no profits where I may
By winning them bring grief to others,
To do some service day by day
In helping on my toiling brothers.

This is my creed: To close my eyes
To little faults of those around me;
To strive to be when each day dies
Some better than the morning found me;
To ask no unearned applause,
To cross no river till I reach it;
To always have a worthy cause,
To fearlessly and fairly preach it.

This is my creed: To wisely shun
The sloughs in which the foolish wallow.
To lead where I may be the one
Whom weaker men should choose to follow;
To keep my standards always high,
To find my task and bravely do it;
This is my creed—I wish that I
Could even live half way up to it.

Discouraging.
"What is the matter?" asked the aviator's friend. "Did your aeroplane break down?"
"Oh, no, it bore the strain all right. Gee, but I'm discouraged."
"I don't see why you should be. You've got back to earth without breaking any bones, which it seems to me is a good deal of a triumph. Wouldn't the thing buck against the wind?"

"It proved to be a very good wind jammer. I made twenty-seven miles in an hour against a stiff head wind."
"Perhaps some of the machinery didn't work just to suit you. Never mind, old man. You'll get that straightened out in time—if you live. You can't expect things to be perfect at the start."
"There isn't a thing the matter with the machinery. I worked perfectly in every way. But what's the use? Darn it, I never felt so discouraged in my life."

"It seems to me you ought to be jubilant."
"Jubilant? There wasn't a single record of any kind that I broke."

Failure.
That man has not succeeded who has not wisely learned.
How honor may be guarded, how sweet repose is earned.
That man is still a failure who, having wealth or fame,
Imparts no kind emotions to those who speak his name.

Renown may come and riches be industry's reward.
The world may look with envy or heartless praise accord.
But he has not succeeded who, proud or pitiless,
Has failed to learn while striving how to enjoy success.

Fine Sanitary Conditions.
"What are the sanitary conditions in this town?" asked the man who was looking for a factory site.
"First rate," replied the native. "Eb Stevens has a boy that ain't just right, and old Mrs. Webb has been out of her mind for some time, but the rest of the folks are all about as sanitary as you'll find 'em anywhere."

Their First Meeting.
"Do you remember our first meeting?" she asked.
"No," he replied. "I haven't the slightest recollection of it."
"Oh, yes! How stupid of me. I remember now that you were senseless under your car."

WHEN YOU THINK OF YOUR SPRING SUIT, DRESS OR COAT!

Think of the store of H. H. Barber. The store that suggests Spring on every hand. Wherever you turn Spring Styles greet you. From the recognized fashion centers we have carefully selected the most authentic Spring Styles. The Suits and Coats which we show are stylish and elegant. Many of them without sacrificing any style are made on more conservative lines for ladies who do not appreciate the very extremes of fashion. We are doing a big business with customers of refined tastes. In regard to prices you will find we mark our Suits, Coats and Dresses very much less than city stores. We believe in straightforward dealing with our trade, not marking an article unreasonably high for the purpose of advertising a big mark down later. We mark goods the first of the season as low as we can, in most instances less than city store prices after their so called mark downs.

We can make it an object for you to come to Milford. If you can not come let us send you our catalogue. No matter what you want, write for samples.
