Antrim Reporter

VOLUME XXXII NO. 26

ANTRIM, NEW HAMPSHIRE, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 16, 1915

8 CENTS A COPY

Reep the Kidndys Well

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Antrim People Know How to Save It.

amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer or to remain in danger. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—a cluded Mrs. Mary Reed from the remedy that has helped thousands of W. R. C. Mrs. I. S. Proven and

C. M. Patterson, shoemaker, 51 Main St., Peterboro, N. H., says: "Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pilis relieved me of a or Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me of a dull pain across the small of my back and other distressing symptoms of kidney complaint. Others of my family have also used Doan's Kidney Pills with H. Robb from the W. C. T. U.

the best of results."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply son had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props. Buffalo, N. Y. adv.

The Antrim Fruit Company

A Question that is Easily Answered is what to offer your lady friend in the way of refreshments. Just bring her here and treat her to some of our delicitious ice cream. That she will like it goes without saying. Besides she will appreciate your thoughtfulness and generality.

Strawberries

Received Fresh Every Day

About Advertising

It costs money to advertise in a paper of circulation and influence and Hand in-Hand Rebekah lodge. in the community. Every busi ness man who seeks to enlarge him trade, recognizes the fact that ad vertising is a legitimate expense It is not the cheapest advertising that pays the best. Sometimes i' is the highest priced newspape: that brings the largest net profi to the advertiser.

Try the RÉPORTER.

Church and Lodge Directory

Presbyterian Church. Sunday morning sevice at 10.45. Week-may meetings Thursday evenings.

Saptist Church. Sunday morning service a 10.45. Week-day meetings Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Methodist Church. Sunday morning service at 10.45. Week-day meetings Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Congregational Church, at Centre. Sunda morning service at 10.45. Sunday School at each of the above church, at 12 o'clock, noon.

Mt. Crotched Encampment, No. 89, I.O.O.F. meets in Odd Fellows Hall 1st and 3rd Mon day evenings of each month.

Hand in Hand Rebekah Lodge meets second and fourth Wednesday evenings of each month, in above hall. Antrim Lodge, No. 1488, L. O. O. Moose, meets at G. A. R. bali, 1st and 3d Monday evenings of each month.

antrim Grange, P. of H., meets in their hall at the Centre, on the first and third Wednes day evenings in each month.

Sphraim Weston Post, No. 87, G. A. R., in their hall in Jameson Block, secon fourth Friday evenings of each menta Woman's Helief Corps meets in G. A. E. hall dirst and third Friday evenings of each month.

ANTRIM, N. H.

LIVERY Feed and Sale Stable Good Rigs for all occasions.

A FORD Car

At A-F-F-O-R-D Prices er REO Auto at rea

Flag Day Observed

The Woman's Relief Corps, assisted by the Antrim Woman's Club, the Molly - Aiken chapter, D. A. R., and the W. C. T. U., ob-Many Antrim people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Weak kidneys are responsible for a vast exercises in the town hall, Friday afternoon. The committees in-W. R. C., Mrs. L. S. Brown and kidney sufferers.

W. R. C., Mrs. L. S. Brown and Mrs. Msrietta Lang from the ground for doubt. Woman's Club, Mrs. William A. Nichols and Mrs. William Kil-

The exercises included several sk for a kidney remedy—get Doan's selections by the school children Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Patter in charge of L. S. Brown, principles of L. S. Bro selections by the school children pal of the Antrim High school. The following department officers of the New Hampshire W. R. C., participated in the observances: Mrs. Anna Carter, dept. president; Mrs. Mary Reed, dept. treasurer; Miss Mary E. Barrett, dept. secretary, and Mrs. Bertha Colby, senior aide.

Class of 1915, A. H. S.

the Senicr class of the Antrim door may inflict injury upon one who High school was delivered Sun- happens to be sufficiently near it. No day evening in the Presbyterian doubt the plaintiff has been the victim church by Rev. W. J. B. Cannell, of a lamentable accident, but it is attributable, as it seems to me, not to any fault of the defendants, but rather to the hasty carelessness of a third school pupils and the town's peo. person over whose movements and ple. The class marshall was Miss conduct they had no control." Susie Maxwell, and the class INTRODUCE A NOVEL SPORT members were escorted by the under graduates of the High Society Girls Sit in Chairs and Cast school.

The graduating exercises of the school will be held at town hall for batt, form the basis of a novel on Friday afternoon, and in the indoor sport introduced at an excluevening there will be the annual sive Pasadena hotel by two fun-loving society girls. The goldfish in the reception.

I. O. O. F. Memorial Service

The annual Odd Fellows' Me morial services were held last and at the same time enjoy all the Sunday afternoon in the Odd Fel delights dear to the followers of Izaak Walton is quite a novelty, declare the lows hall, and attended by mem girls, who make a great sport of lurbers of Waverley lodge, I. O. O. ing the fish to near-capture. F., Mt. Crotched Encampment

The graves of deceased members of the orders were decorated by the committee in charge, consisting of Charles L. Eaton, Milan D. Cooper and A. A. Gerrard.

The address of the afternoon was given by Rev. C. E. Clough. pastor of the Methodist church. There were vocal selections by a mixed quartet and a duet by Miss Ethel Ellinwood and Miss Vera McClure.

An annoying, aithough not at all serious disease of the skin, which often attack persons in the late autumn just after they have put on woollen underclothes or sweaters, is now believed to be caused by some unknown fungus in the wool. The garments doubtless become contaminated by the fungus while laid away for the summer. It is urged that no woolen garment should be put on until it has been thoroughly sterilized, using ordinary soap and hot water and carefully drying.

Russians' Coppers of Soup. Prince Oldenburg, head of the Russian Red Cross service, has perfected an invention based on the thermos flask principle that has saved many lives on the battlefield. Each field hospital has two huge coppers of a joint capacity of 200 gallons, and a gargantuan vessel on the thermos principle, all mounted on wheels. The soup prepared in the coppers fills the thermos vessel, and then the coppers prepare another supply-and hot nourishment can be provided for 1,500 men the moment they are brought in from the field.

For Lovers of Birds. Start at once to make some bird houses. Try scattering a few about the premises and enjoy the neighbors that will move into them. One of the most pleasing songeters that may easily be attracted to a home near the house, is the wren. A very small opening should be made in its house to prevent other birds from using it.

JUDGMENT ON LEGAL POINTS

Recent Decisions Handed Down That The right of a person injured in a swinging door to recover for the negligence of another customer against the proprietor of a store has just been passed on by the supreme judicial court of Massachusetts in Smith vs. Johnson. The court held that where plaintiff, in entering defendants' store through a swinging door, put out her hand to guard her face from the door, which was swinging in her direction, and it was crushed between the door and the jamb, defendants were not liable, such door being in good condition and similar to those generally used, and there being no such crowd as would require the keeping of a door-A similar ruling has been made in New York state by the appellate division, second department, by a majority vote, in Pardington vs. Abraham where the prevailing opinion said:

Are of More or Less General importance.

"The proof showed that similar doors, with springs of the same or greater strength, are in use at numerous like establishments in the borough of Manhattan. There does not appear to be anything about their construction or operation to make them dangerous to the customers of a department store, provided ordinary and reasonable care is exercised in their use. That it is possible to use them so as to injure others is dem-The baccalaureate sermon to onstrated by this very accident; but

Their Hooks for Goldfish in Hotel Fountain.

A cane, a piece of thread and a fountain which graces the big lobby of the hotel form the prey, although to date there have been no serious casualties among the finny beauties.

To sit comfortably in a big Morris chair in the lobby of a palatial hotel

"Goldfish are fun to angle for," says Miss Marion Landers, who, with Miss Edna Walsh, introduced the odd sport. "We don't care to eat them, though, so any we catch we put back. It's great fun, don't you think?"

It certainly is, declare the prominent eastern guests, who were interested spectators of the novel fishing.

The Ridiculous Part of it. "Do you know," he said, "I had a most ridiculous dream last night? It was about you."

The beautiful heiress did not attempt to conceal the fact that she was interested.

"What right have you to dream about me?" she demanded with mock indignation.

"I know it was terribly bold of me, and I would not have the courage to mention it now-only it was so ridiculous. You and I, it seemed, were on the deck of a great steamship, crossing the ocean. We stood by the rail alone, everybody else having gone in on account of the roughness of the weather. As we gazed down into the greenish waves I suddenly turned to you and-and-'

"And what?" "It was most ridiculous, I assure you.

"Yes. You said it was." "There we stood all alone by the rail, the great ship going up and down with a regularity that had made all the other passengers seek their berths, and suddenly turning to you I-I-"

"No. It wasn't that. I asked you to be my wife." "Oh! And that was perfectly ridi-

"Dear me, I hope you didn't get sick, culous, was it?" "No. The ridiculous part of it was that you said yes and permitted me to clasp you in my arms and kiss you, right there on the deck of the ship."

"Ah, you bad, bad boy! We-we are just as much alone now as we could possibly be on the deck of a ship, aren't we?"

FITTED FOR IT.

"What ye reading about there. Hiram ?"

"A snail farm." "Gosh, my hired man oughter do well in that line of work."

Mexican Maiden Has Become Famous for the Dainty Quality of Her Handiwork.

This is the story of Isabel Belaunsaran, maker of the smallest dolls in the world, who is the quaintest figure in Mexico's quaintest town, Cuernavaca, as told by Russell Hastings Millward in a communication to Washington, D. C.

"This little girl is called 'Queen of the Needle," writes Millward.
"The natives of the village will tell you that no cleverer Mexican Indian maiden has ever been known. The diminutive dolls she makes, both in point of construction and design, are the most remarkable in the world.

"The operation of making consists in forming a tiny framework of wire barely three-fourths of an inch in length and winding it with silk thread. The clothing is cut according to the character of the doll and fitted carefully about the small figure. With a needle that can scarcely be held in the fingers and the finest of silk threads various designs are actually embroidered on the clothing, and so cleverly is the work executed that even through a powerful magnifying glass the details of the design appear to be per-

"What is undoubtedly an example of the tiniest and most marvelous hair dressing known is then performed on each doll. Even to the details of the braids and ribbons the work is completely carried out. The eyes, nose, mouth, hands and feet are then formed and the doll is ready to be sold."

KING HER CHAUFFEUR.

The king of the Belgians, one of the most democratic of European monarchs, tells the following story: At Territet the king and queen were motoring. His majesty was driving and there were no attendants. The queen went into a shop to make some purchases. The king was standing by the car reading a newspaper when an American woman came out of the shop, jumped into the car, which she mistook for a public conveyance, and bade the monarch to drive her quickly to her hotel. "Certainly, madam," said the king, and deposited the woman at the hotel.

Accounts vary as to whether the king accepted or did not accept any

In the meantime the queen had come out of the store and was surprised to find that her husband and the car was absent. However, they speedily returned and their majesties laughed over the story together.

RABBIT TRAPS TWO DOGS.

Several large cisterns were dug on the new fair grounds and boarded over. Workmen preparing to fix connections with the cisterns and the water pipes were surprised to find two dogs and a dead rabbit in one of

The dogs had evidently chased poor bunny into what he thought was a place of safety and had been trapped themselves when they sought to follow him. As there was no water in the cistern they landed at the

How long they were in the hole is not known, but the rabbit had kept them from starving and was partially consumed. When released they made tracks for home.—Janesville (Wis.) Dispatch to New York World.

The discovery of the X-ray by Professor Roentgen may be fairly considered one of the most wonderful achievements of the nineteenth century. It is today, as it was found by him in 1895, the same mysterious. unseen, but positive force, a species of electrical energy without a domicile and needing no conductor, a form of light passing through closed doors, invisible itself, and yet lighting up certain substances with a halo of glory and radically changing and decomposing others. Rivaling the sun in actinic power, and writing its autograph with an unseen hand, it is truly called the X-, or unknown the.

MAKES SMALLEST OF DOLLS INCREASES HEAT OF COAL

Bound Reasons Why the Addition of a Little Water Should Produce Good Requite.

When the blacksmith desires the intensest heat his forge is capable of he invariably throws a little water upon the coal. The same course is pursued by the stoker who would get the utmost from his bollers.

And the poorer the quality of the the National Geographic society at coal the more imperative the necessity for wetting it.

It seems paradoxical, for from the beginning all people everywhere have regarded water as the one reliable agency for extinguishing fire. Such indeed, it really is, if used in proper quantity, as experience has amply demonstrated.

Chemistry explains the paradox very simply, however, when it informs us that water is composed of oxygen and hydrogen in the proportion of two to one. That is to say, in every molecule of the fluid there are two atoms of the former and one of the latter. Now oxygen is the chief agent in combustion. Oxydization is a synonym for burning. The rusting of iron, the corrosion of silver and the burning of wood are identical processes, all due to the agency of this powerful element which is so widely distributed through all nature. To feed oxygen to flames is greatly to intensify them, therefore. This is exactly what is done, in fact, when they are fanned.

gas which burns readily and with the most intense heat. Very evidently, if water is separated into its constituent elements, the oxygen and the hydrogen, no longer bound together, are able each to per-

Hydrogen, on the other hand, is a form its natural functions. The former adds greatly to combustion, and the latter not only burns readily, but materially intensifies the heat. This is precisely what occurs when

s small quantity of water is added to the coal fed to the flames. There is not enough of the fluid to extinguish the fire. Instead the fire acts upon the water, dissolving the bonds which unite its component gases, thus setting the oxygen free to accelerate combustion and converting the hydrogen into fuel of tremendous heating

In throwing a little water upon the coal therefore, the blacksmith attains the same results as if he added materially to the draft produced by the bellows, and at the same time poured a little hydrogen upon the flames. The resultant heat is not to be produced from coal alone under ordinary conditions.

Icebergs and Sea Water.

rises slightly near an iceberg, as one man of science has asserted, is a con clusion not borne out by the investiga tions of the bureau of standards. Dur ing the summer patrol of the United States steamships Chester and Bir mingham in the North Atlantic, mem bers of the staff of the bureau took automatic records of the temperature of the water. The records show that changes of temperature in the sea far from icebergs are at least as great and sudden as the changes near them and that they do not point to the presence of icebergs. They find also that an iceberg more often lowers than raises the temperature of the water near it. These conclusions are identical with those arrived at by the ob servers on the Scotia, which was sent out to the Newfoundland banks by the British Board of Trade in the summer of 1913, except that they more often observed small rises of temperature is the neighborhood of icebergs.-Youth's Companion.

A Horse's Medal.

A Russian artillery horse won bronze medal at Plevna. Orders were given for some ammunition wagons to be hurried to a spot that meant cross ing the enemy's zone of fire. All the time shells were crashing among the horses, bringing them down in heaps and frightening such as escaped Times without number did the Rus sian drivers, sparing neither whip nor spur, attempt to urge the horses forward, but they stood cowed and shivering with fright. Some were blind folded; but the effect was the same, and only one horse showed any willing ness to go.

Thereupon the driver jumped down and, cutting the traces of the other horses, drove the willing one at full gallop through the fire. The wagon passed through without exploding, and after the war the horse was decorated in the manner described and the driver promoted.

Leave Boots in Trench Mud. A private of the Weish Fusiliers who is among the wounded who reached Cardiff recently, said:

"I have seen men in the trenches pulling at their boots for over twenty minutes in an effort to get out of the mud, and finally going without their boots, which are doubtless there now." Another man said he himself had been in the trenches barefooted. London Globe.

GRADUATION SPECIALS

Long, White Silk Gloves 50c. and $1.00

White Silk Hose

50c. and $1.00

Old Rose, Green and White Ribbon in All Widths

We are showing a very complete line of Shirt Waists, Petticoats, Combinations, Night Robes, White Skirts, House Dresses, etc. A lot of new things in this line at Right Prices. Ladies', Misses' and Children's Jersey Underwear Union Suits, Vests, etc.

For Men's Wear-Porosknit, B. V. D. and Jersey Union Suits in all styles. Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers at 25c. and 50c. A new and up-to-date stock of Straw Hats and Caps. Kahki Pants are cool and durable. We have them at $1 to 2.25.

W. E. CRAM

Odd Fellows Block Store, ANTRIM, New Hamp.

Departure & Arrival of Mails

POST OFFICE, ANTRIM, N. H. In effect September 28, 1914 DEPARTURE

All points south of Elmwood, including Southern and Western states. 51. All points North: Mass., Southern and Western states, Benning-ton, Peterboro, and north of Elmwood via. Hillsboro.

10.14. All points south and north excepting between Antrim and Concord, and Antrim and Jaffrey 11.42 Hillsboro, N. H., Massachusetts, Western and Southern

All points south of Elmwood, Western and Southern States. 3.29. Hillsboro, all points north of utes earlier than departure of trains. Concord; Mass., Southern and Western states. 4.02. Bennington, all points north of Elmwood; Mass., Southern and Jameson Block. Western states.

Passengers fo

8.21, 10.44, 12.08

P.M. 4.82, 7.05

Tuesday and Thursday evenings the office will close fifteen minutes after the arrival of the last mail. Leander Patterson, Postmaster.

WANTED!

I will buy Poultry, if the raisers will let me know when they have any to

F. Butterfield Antrim, N. H.

ACCOMMODATION

To and From Antrim Railroad Station.

Trains leave Antrim Depot as fol-

7.19 8.06 10.29 11.57 1.53 3.44 4.17 6.50

Sunday: 6.38 a.m.; 4.15, 4.52, 8.46 p. m. Stage leaves Express Office 15 min-

Stage will call for passengers if word is left at the Express Office in Passengers for the early morning train should leave word at Express

Office the night before. REMNANTS!

86 to 40 in. Crepe de Chine 39¢ yd 42 in. White Serges......59¢ yd 40 in. White Batiste....91/2¢ yd

Everything in a Remnant

98c Children's Dresses.. 49¢ each For Anniversary Week Only

New Remnant Store 10 Warren St. CONCORD. N. H.

J. E. Perkins & Son

LIVERY

Feed and Sale Stable. Good Rigs for all occasions. 5-passenger REO Auto at reasonable rates.

John R. Putney Estate Undertaker

First Class, Experienced Director and Embalmer, For Every Case.

Lady Assistant. Full Line Funeral Supplies.
Flowers Furnished for All Occasions, Calls day or night promptly attended to
New England Relephone, 10-3, at Residence, Corner High and Pleasant Sts., Antrim, N. H.

W. E. Cram, AUCTIONEER

I wish to announce to the public that I will sell goods at auction for any parties who wish, at reasonable rates. Apply to

> W. E. CRAM, Antrim, N. H.

FARMS

Listed with me are quickly

SOLD.

No charge unless sale is made.

LESTER H. LATHAM.

P. O. Box 408,. Hillsboro Bridge, N. H. Telephone connection

SELECTMEN'S NOTICE.

The Selectmen will meet at their Rooms, in Town hall block, the First Saturday in each month, from two till five o'clock in the afternoon, to transact town business. The Tax Collector will meet with the Selectmen. WARREN W. MERRILL

CHARLES F. BUTTERFIELD CARL H. ROBINSON

Selectmen of Antrim.

TOWN OF ANTRIM. SCHOOL DISTRICT.

GEORGE E. HASTINGS, JOHN D. HUTCHINSON

HARRY B. DRAKE

School Board.

Meets regularly in Town Clerk's Room, in Town hall building, the Last Saturday afternoon in each month, at 2 o'clock, to transact School District business, and to hear all parties regarding school mat-

BLACKSMITH -and-Wheelwright

Having purchased the business of Mr. D. P. Bryer, am prepared to do All Kinds of Blacksmithing and Wheelwright work. Horseshoeing A Specialty.

JOSEPH HERITAGE. Antrim, N. H.

Agency.

M. E. Wheeler Phosphate.

ICE!

Rates for Family Ice 30c per 100 lbs. Long Distance Telephone. 19-3

G. H. HUTCHINSON, Depot St., Antrim, N. H.

> S. S. SAWYER Antrim, N. H.

REAL ESTATE

For Sale or Exchange

Farms, Village and Lake Property For Sale.

No charge unless sale is made

F. Grimes & Co.,

Undertaker

License No 135

Large Display of Goods on hand at all times. Bodies Received at Station for Burial. Prompt answers to all calls, day Burial. Prompt answers to all calls, day or night. N. E. Telephone 6-5 Hillsboro. Telephone at our expense. Residence at Hillsboro, N. H.

EDMUND G. DEARBORN, M.D.,

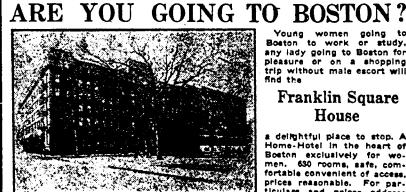

(Successor to Dr. F. G. Warner)

Main street, Antrim Office Hours: 1 to 3 and 7 to 8 p. n Telephone 9-2

Civil Engineer,

Land Surveying, Levels, etc. ANTRIM, N. H.

TELEPHONE CONNECTION

Young women going to Boston to work or study. any lady going to Boston for pleasure or on a shopping trip without male escort will

Franklin Square House

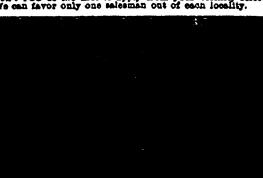

Home-Hotel in the heart of Boston exclusively for we fortable convenient of access prices reasonable. For par-ticulars and prices address

Miss Castine C. Swanson, Supt., 11 E. Newton St., Boston, Mass.

WHY NOT MAKE $200.00 A MONTH - - That's $50.00 a Week, almost $10.00 a Day

Selling Victor Safes and fire-proof boxes to merchants, doctors, lawyers, dentists and well-to-dofarmers, all of whom realize the need of a safe, but do not know how easy i is to own one. Salesmen declare our proposition one of the best, clean-out money-making opportunities ever received. Without previous experience YOU can duplicate the success of others. Our handsomely illustrated 900-page catalog will enable you to present the subject to customers in as interesting a manner as though will enable you to present the subject to customers in as interesting a manner as though salesmen receive advice and instructions for selling safes, giving convincing talking points which it is impossible for a prospective customer to dany. Why don't YOU be the first to apply from your vicinity before someone else gets the territory? We can favor only one salesman out of each locality.

The 25th anniversary of our company was celebrated by erecting the most modern safe factory in the world. Wide-swake men who received our special selling inducement, rendered it necessary to double our output. We are spending many thousands of dollars enlarging our sales organisation, but to learn all particulars, it will cost you only the price of a postal card.

Ack for Catalogue 18 T. SAFE & LOCK CO.

NEWS OF THE

HAD LOST HIS BALANCE

at Jefferson Burns-Too Much Beer For a Jitney-Missing Man Found in Boston Hospital.

Belmont-Edgar Sanborn, aged 43, left the home of his mother in this town Thursday morning to go to his farm in Northfield to set out some tomato plants. He told his mother he would be back in time for dinner. He did not return, and his continued absence at supper time so alarmed her that she notified Deputy Sheriff John Lyford of his absence. The sheriff, in company with Charles Judkins, started for the farm and found the team on the road, the horses headed for home and one rein missing. Arriving at the farm they found the tomato plants had not been set out, and Sanborn's pipe was found at the edge of a well from which the cover had been removed. It was too late to make an examination of the well that night, but at daylight next. morning an examination of the well revealed Sanborn's dead body in the water, which was 15 feet deep. It appeared that he had taken the rein to draw a pail of water from the well. and losing his balance, plunged to the Church Burns at Jefferson. Jefferson-The explosion of a gasohas no regular fire department, and flames. Before the drug store was a publication of the facts is called for. half consumed the Episcopal church nearby had caught, and the two structures were soon in ruins. The Waumbeck Hotel, a school building and other structures were in eminent danaided the fire fighters so that they were saved. The loss on the drug! store is about $5000, and on the church $10,000. There was some insurance on both,

Missing Man is Found.

Epsom-The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Richard Emerson, who has been missing for seven he returned from Boston in company with his son-in-law. Mr. Emerson started to visit friends in Lynn, and was accompanied to the train by a member of his family. He did not He was sent to the City hospital in Boston where he has remained without sufficiently recovering his memory to be able to communicate with his friends.

Too Much Beer For a Nickel. Manchester-It will be a surprise to many to learn that in addition to the numerous duties imposed on the license commission, it has decided to regulate the amount of beer sold for a nickel. Complaint was made to the commission some time ago that some of the saloon keepers were serving extra large schooners of beer. Nothing more was thought of it until one of the number from this city was called before the commission and informed if he did not keep the quantity of beer dispensed for a nickel down to the limit prescribed, which appears to be 12 ounces, he would hear something to his disadvantage. It is said he left the presence of the commission a chastened man.

A Motor Cycle This Time. Portsmouth- Henry Wallingford, aged 21, and Lindley Morrow, 18, were riding a motorcycle Thursday when Wallingford, who was driving. lost control of the machine. It struck a guy wire of a telegraph pole at 15 miles an hour, and both boys were badly injured. Wallingford got a broken jaw and many severe bruises, while Morrow had a badly injured knee, being taken up unconscious.

President Coming to Cornish Soon. Cornish-Members of President Wilson's family are expected here about June 25, and the president will probably be here for the Fourth of July. This will be his first vacation since the foreign situation became acute.

Truck Burns With Loss of $3350. Milford-A Boston firm started a large motor truck loaded with mattresses one day last week to be deivered in this town. At South Merrimack tire trouble developed and the driver decided to lay over for the night. Thursday morning when he attempted to crank the truck it back-fired, igniting the gasoline. Nothing could be done but to let it burn, and truck and contents were entirely destroyed. The loss is $3850, which is covered by meurance.

Man Surprised With Pardon. Lebanon-Frederick A. Davis of this town, who has been an inmate of the State prison at Concord for 14 years, was the most surprised man in that city Friday afternoon when he was informed that he had been Edgar Sanborn, Drowns in His pardoned and was at liberty to go to his home. He was serving a 20-year centence for criminal assault, and the pardon was procured through the efforts of Representative Thomas P. Waterman, who was present at the prison when Davis was notified of his pardon. Davis has been a model prisoner and a "trustie" for several years.

> To Encourage State Fairs. Concord-Commissioner Andrew L Felker has apportioned the Appropriation of $2,500 for the encouragement of state fairs which was appropriated by the last legislature. The money will be divided equally among five fairs, $500 to Rockingham, Plymouth fair, Rochester fair, Oak Park fair at Greenfield and Coos and Essex at Lancaster. The money is to be awarded for best exhibits of farm products grown or raised by citizens of this state.

Ashland Man Victim of Hold-Up. Ashland-While on his way home Thursday evening Ray C. Harriman, former deputy sheriff, was held by three men, who took his pocketbook containing between $10 and $12. He grappled with the men, but they proved too much for him, and he was beaten and choked until he gave up the pocketbook. It was afterwards found empty a short distance from the scene of the robbery. Efforts of the police to locate the men have been fruitless.

To Probe Expenditures. Concord-During the closing hours of the late session a resolution was introduced into the house which required railroads doing business in line heater in the basement of the this state to furnish a statement of drug store of Chester A. Bates Friday all moneys expended by them to perevening set fire to the building, a sons as legislative agents or to inwooden structure, and the flames fluence legislation, since and includwere soon beyond control. Jefferson ing 1912. The public service commission announce that hearing upon though volunteers worked desperately the matter will be begun next month, they were unable to cope with the In case illegal expenditures are shown

Engineer Dies Suddenly. Rochester-Daniel King, an engineer on a shifter in the railroad yard here, was taken suddenly ill while on ger, but a heavy rainfall which set, his engine Friday, and died in a few minutes after being taken into the baggage room. He was 50 years of age, and heart disease is assigned as the cause of his death.

Celebrate their 60th Anniversary. Woodsville-Mr. and Mrs. Dexter L. lawkins celebrated the 60th anniversary of their marriage Friday. All the children, grandchildren and greatweeks, was cleared up Friday when grandchildren were present with the exception of three grandchildren. Mr.

Run Over by Auto Truck. Epsom-While attempting to board reach his destination, and apparently a large auto truck one day recently, a dropped from sight. It now appears son of Mrs. Charles Davis was run that he was taken with a fainting fit over, receiving many serious and on the train and did not recover suf- painful injuries. He was sent to a and employes of the Treasury Depart ficiently to give his name or address. | Concord hospital, where it is expected | ment at the flag day celebration. that he will recover.

> Struck by Train, Exeter-Mrs. Charles F. Glover was struck by a freight train at a crossing in this village late Thursday stamped at the San Francisco mint. night, receiving a broken leg and other injuries. She was taken to a hospital. She is 60 years of age

At the Zoo.

A very stout lade at the zoological gardens, says the Philadelphia Recfirst time, and was rather surprised by the limited amount of meat that the lion," she said to the attendant took effect. The man looked at her with a glimmer; of amusement in his eye. "It may at the Navy Department that the Atseem a small piece to you, mum," he said, "but it's heaps for the lion."

The Bilious Optimist. When a man with noticeable bilious eyes and liver spots on the projections of his face "lays himself out" to talk optimism to us, something seems to whisper to us that he is bluffing himself (or us) for some little purpose of his own. Because when a bilious person talks optimism, his conversation suggests a supercrescence of expository motivation, so to speak.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Art Unadorned.

and skill and the other strange quality imported from Germany will be manuthat is added thereto to make things | factured. beautiful-and nothing more. A farthe fire-well, it has gone like yesterday's sunset, and tomorrow there will be another .-- H. G. Wells.

Poor Opinion of Lawyer. assigned to me was ever called upon state's prison. to defend an innocent man."-Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Unhappy Indolence. Indolence is, methinks, an intermediate state between pleasure and pain, and very much unbecoming any part of our life after we are out of indiana legislatu the nurse's grma.—Sir Richard Stelle in Bluften, Indi

MEEK'S NEWS STORIES RETOLD

Events That Made a Stir Condensed to a Paragraph.

WHAT WASHINGTON IS DOING

News of Interest That Trickles From the White House and the Various Departments-Catalogue of Crimes and Casu ties

War bulletins

British torpedo boats Nos. 10 and 12, each with a complement of 35 men, were torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine off the east coast of England. Forty-one survivors reached the English shore. Russian forces north of Przemysl are preparing a new attack upon the army of Gen. von Mackensen. They abandoned their efforts to strike southward and turned toward the Wislok River. In spite of German denials it is insisted upon in Petrograd that one German torpedo boat and one transport were sunk and another torpedo boat damaged by a Russian submarine, in the recent naval engagement in the Baltic. The Allies resumed the offensive on the Gallipoli Peninsula, and the fighting continues. A squadron is protecting the landing of fresh troops near Seddul Bahr, while the rest of the fleet ceaselessly bombards the inner forts.

The last positions held by the Germans in the village of Neuville were captured and French troops are in entire possession. Elsewhere French successes are recorded. Further gains have been made in the Labyrinth, and the positions won around Hebuterne have been extended.

A British monoplane went into battle with and destroyed, a Zeppelin near Amansberg, in the neighborhood of Ghent, just as dawn was approaching. Six bombs were dropped from an altitude of 6,000 feet. One of them struck the huge aircraft squarely in the center and blew it to pieces. The wreckage fell in a mass of flame. The entire crew of 28 men was killed:

Forced from Przemysł fortress Berlin reports the Russian forces as in full retreat across Galicia, driven irresistibly by the Austro-German advance on Lemberg, the siege and investment of which is predicted.

Germany resumed the offensive in France and Belgium, indicating the withdrawal of large numbers of Teuton troops no longer needed in Galicia. Both Paris and Berlin reported Hawkins will be 80 years old in July, gains in fierce fighting on the western front.

washington

President Wilson addressed officials A coin bearing the face of a laborer will be placed in circulation by the United States Government when a special gold dollar, commemorating the Panama-Pacific Exposition, is Rumors rife in Washington that Secretary Daniels would resign were denied both at the Navy Department and White House. Simultaneously with the dispatch of the note to Germany by cable, the resignation of William Jennings Bryan, as Secretary of State, took ord, was seeing the lions fed for the effect. The new American note was signed by Robert Lansing, Counsellor of the State Department, who auwas given them. "That seems to me tomatically became Acting Secretary to be a very small piece of meat for of State when Mr. Bryan's withdrawal Informal announcement was made lantic fleet will engage in target practice early in the fall. The exercises probably will be held off the Virginia

General

Captain Thierichens, of the interned German cruiser Prince Eitel Fredrich. is aboard his ship at the Navy Yard, at Norfolk, Va. He had been reported captured in disguise from an Italian liner.

The Aetna Chemical Co. will build three new plants in the Pittsburgh district at a cost of $14,000,000. Ben I like my art unadorned; thought sol, toluol and other products formerly

The American tank steamer Gulthing's worth of paint and paper, and flight, torpedoed by a German subbehold! a thing of beauty!-as they marine off the Scilly Islands. May 1. do in Japan. And if it should fall into sailed from St. Mary's, England, for Rouen under her own steam. Five blocks of the waterfront at

Portland, Ore., were destroyed by fire at a loss of more than $300,000. The nine "deputies" convicted at New Brunswick, N. J., for taking part Prisoner, have you anything to in the slaying of two strikers at say?" "Only this, your honor. I'd be Roosevelt, were sentenced to not more mighty sorry if th' young lawyer you than ten, nor less than two years in

A Virginia delegation led by Gov Stuart visited President Wilson and asked him to appoint R. H. Gray of Lessbury, assistant registrar of the State Senator Elias M. Minear, who led the movement for state-wide prohibition in the 1915 session of the Indiana legislature, died at his bome

WATCH and CLOCK COMMONWEALTH HOTEL REPAIRING

OF ALL DESCRIPTIONS

Having fitted up rooms in the McIlvaine tenement on Summer street, I am ready to do all kinds of repair work. Give me a call

F. M. ALEXANDER. Antrim, N. H.

THE MANCHESTER UNION

The Manchester Union is New Hampshire's family newspaper. It furnishes the people of the state their only daily chronicles of New Hampshire events. It is alone in its field. Subscription rate $5.00 a year, 500 a month, payable in advance.

Union-Leader Pub. Co MANCHESTER, M. E.

B. D. PEASLEE, M. D.

HILLSBORO, N. H. Office Over National Bank

Diseases of Eye and Ear. Latest instruments for the detection of errors of vision and correct fitting of Glasses.

Hours 1 to 3, and 7 to 8 p.m.

Sundays and holidays by appointment

MONADNOCK Seeds, Plants & Shrubs.

Reliable Vegetable and Flower Seeds, Ornamental Vines, Shrubs and Trees for the lawn. Currants, Raspberries, Strawberries, Grapes, Asparagus Roots, Bedding and Greenhouse Plants, and in fact, nearly everything in the way of Shrubs, Plants and Seeds for the garden.

Mar Send for a Catalogue. Free for a postal. The We are always glad to answer enquiries. Send us a list of what you need for Spring planting and we will gladly quote prices. Choice Cut Flowers and Floral Designs are also

L. P. BUTLER & CO., KEENE, N. H.

Monadnock Greenhouses RHEUMATIC SUFFERERS

Pain leaves almost as if by magic when you begin using "5-Drops," the famous old remedy for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Gout, Sciatica, Neuralgia and kindred troubles. It goes right to the spot, stops the aches and pains and makes life worth living. Get a bottle of "5-Drops" today. A booklet with each bottle gives full directions for use. Don't delay. Demand "5-Drops." Don't accept anything else in gist can supply you. If you live too far from a drug store send One Dollar to Swanson Rheumatic Cure Co., Newark, Ohio, and a bottle of "5-Drops" will be sent prepaid.

Scientific American. MUNN & CO. 36 1 Broadway, New York Branch Office, Fab F St., Washington, D. C.

Your Chimneys Clean?

All orders for cleaning chimneys by Driscoll, the chimney sweep, a man of experience, should be left at the Reporter office.

Batteries For Sale!

Can be had at "Central" office, Antrim, N. H. April, 1915.

THE STATE OF THE S

BTATE HOUSE Boston, Mass. Storer F. Crafts, Gen. Mgr.

Nothing to Equal This in New England Rooms with private baths $1.50 per day and up-nices of two rooms and bath $4.00 per day and up. ABSOLUTELY FIREPROOF

> STRICTLY A TEMPERANCE HOTEL SEXD FOR BOOKLET

SHERMAN G. BROWN AUCTIONEER

Auction Sales Conducted on Reasonable Terms HILLSBORO, N. Hamp.

MUSSON, M.D.,

Hours: 8 A.M., 1 and 7 P.M.

DR. E. M. BOWERS. DENTIST.

TEL. CONNECTION.

ANTRIM, N. H. Telephone 21-8

C. H. DUTTON. AUCTIONEER.

Hancock. N. H. Property advertised and sold on reasonable terms.

Pulling Yourship up By Your Boolstraps

JUST that is west you're trying to do if you are trying to business attempting business without advertising in these

No man was ever satisfied with well enough. You are no exceptionyou want more business. Push hard-advertise in this paper.
Tell people what you've show you how.

got to sell-tell them often tell it well. Visit our office—we'll (Copyright, 1909, by W. N. UJ

Farm Machinery, and Vacuum Cleaners

Insurance.

The Regina Vacuum Cleaner For Rent at 75 cents per day. Insure your time, Insure your life, Improve your farm and Please the

Lady of the House. W. E. CIBNEY

AGENT ANTRIM, N. H.

ORANGE MASS. FOR SALE BY

C. W. TRUBSTON, BENNINGTON, N.E.

--11--

In the New York home of James Brood, his son, Frederic, tells Lydia Desmond, his fiancee, of a message announcing his father's marriage. Brood and his bride arrive. She wins Frederic's liking at first meeting.' Brood shows dislike and veiled hostility to his son, Lydia and Mrs. Brood met in the jade-room, where Lydia works as Brood's secretary. Mrs. Brood makes changes in the household and gains her husband's consent to send Mrs. Desmond and Lydia away. She fascinates Frederic. She begins to fear Ranjab, Brood's Hindu servant, in his uncanny appearances and disappearances, and Frederic, remembering his father's East Indian stories and firm belief in magic, fears unknown evil. Brood tells the story of Ranjab's life to his guests. "He killed a woman," who was unfaithful to him. Yvonne plays with Brood. Frederic and Lydia as with figures on a chess board. Brood madly jealous, tells Lydia that Frederic is not his son, and that he has brought him up to kill his happiness at the proper time with this knowledge. Lydia goes to beg Brood not to tell Frederic of his unhappy parentage, but is turned from her purpose. Frederic, at dinner, with Dawes and Riggs, is selzed with an impulse of filial duty, and under a queer impression that he is influenced by Ranjab's will. filial duty, and under a queer impression that he is influenced by Ranjab's will, hunts up his father, who gives him the cut direct. Brood tells Frederic the story of his dead wife and the music master.

CHAPTER XVI-Continued.

"It was made in Vienna," interrupted Frederick, not without a strange thrill of satisfaction in his soul, "and before you were married. I'd say. On the back of it is written: 'To my own aweetheart'-in Hungarian, Yvonne says. There! Look at her. She was like that when you married her. God, how adorable she must have been. 'To my own sweetheart!" Ho ho!"

A hoarse cry of rage and pain bust from Brood's lips. The world went red

'To my own sweetheart!' " he cried out. He sprang forward and struck Matilde-God pity your poor soul! For the photograph from Frederic's hand, no more than I have done you drove It fell to the floor at his feet. Before her out of your house. You accuse me the young man could recover from his in your heart when you vent your rage surprise, Brood's foot was upon the on that poor boy. Oh, I know! You bit of cardboard. "Don't raise your suspect me! And you suspected the hand to me! Don't you dare to strike other one. Before God, I swear to me! Now I shall tell you who that you that you have more cause to sussweetheart was!"

Half an hour later James Brood descended the stairs alone. He went loved anyone else but you. I knowstraight to the library where he knew God help me, I know! Don't come that he could find Yvonne. Ranjab, near me! Not now! I tell you that Ranjab and the latter, as imperturbstanding in the hall, peered into his Frederic is your son. I tell you that able as a rock, bowed low and moved white, drawn face as he passed, and Matilde loved no one but you. You off in an opposite direction to that started forward as if to speak to him. drove her out. You drove Frederic But Brood did not see him. He did out. And you will drive me out." not lift his gaze from the floor. The Hindu went swiftly up the stairs, a deep dread in his soul.

The shades were down. Brood stopped inside the door and looked dully about the library. He was on the point of retiring when Yvonne spoke to him out of the shadowy corner beyond the fireplace.

'Close the door," she said huskily. Then she emerged slowly, almost like a specter, from the dark background formed by the huge mahogany bookcases that lined the walls, from floor to ceiling. "You were a long time up there," she went on.

"Why is it so dark in here, Yvonne?" he asked lifelessly.

"So that it would not be possible for me to see the shame in your eyes, He leaned heavily against the long table. She came up and stood across the table from him, and he felt that her eyes were searching his very soul. "I have hurt him beyond all chance for recovery," he said hoarsely.

"Oh, you coward!" she cried, leaning over the table, her eyes blazing. "I can understand it in you. You have no soul of your own. What have you done to your son, James Brood?"

He drew back as if from the impact of a blow. "Coward? If I have crushed his soul, it was done in time, Yvonne, to deprive you of the glory of doing it." "What did he say to you about me?"

"You have had your fears for nothing. He did not put you in jeopardy," he said scornfully.

"I know. He is not a coward," she said calmly.

'in your heart you are reviling me. You judge me as one guilty soul judges another. Suppose that I were to confess to you that I left him up there with all the hope, all the life blasted out of his eyes-with a wound in his heart that will never stop bleeding-that I left him because I was sorry for what I had done and could not stand by and look upon the wreck I had created. Suppose-"

"I am still thinking of you as a coward. What is it to me that you are a question. What did Frederic say sorry now? What have you done to when you told him his mother was-that wretched, unhappy boy?" "He will tell you soon enough. Then you will despise me even more than I | that I was a cowardly liar." despise myself. God! He — he looked at me with his mother's eyes to feel that you loved him. Ah, I see when I kept on striking blows at his You are a great, strong man—a wonvery soul. Her eyes-eyes that were derful man in spite of all this. You them-always scoffing at me! For a breaking before you can ever hope to moment I faltered. There was a wave be happy." as I saw him go down before the already been broken," he groaned. words I hurled at him. It was as if I "Your head has been hurt, that's all. had hurt the only thing in all the There is a vast difference. Are you world that I love. Then it passed. He | going out?" was not meant for me to love. He was | He looked at her in dull amazement. born for me to despise. He was born Slowly he began to pull himself toto torture me as I have tortured him." gether. "You poor fool!" she cried, her eyes

"Sometimes I have doubted my own mon." he went on as if he had not heard her scathing remark. "Some times I have felt a queer gripping of the heart when I was harshest toward him. Sometimes his eyes-her eyeshave melted the steel that was driven into my heart long ago, his voice and you listening?" "You ask what I have done to him. It is nothing in comparison to what he would have done to me. It isn't necessary to explain. You know the thing he has had in his heart to do. I have known it from the beginning. It is the treacherous heart of his mother craven way. She was an evil thingas evil as God ever put life into."

the touch of his hand gently have checked my bitterest thoughts. Are

"Go on.' "I loved her as no woman ever was loved before—or since. I thought she loved me-God. I believe she did. He-Frederic had her portrait up there to flash in my face. She was beautifulshe was as lovely as- But no more! I was not the man. She loved another. Her lover was that boy's father."

Dead silence reigned in the room. save for the heavy breathing of the man. Yvonne was as still as death itself. Her hands were clenched against her breast.

"That was years ago," resumed the man, hoarsely. "You-you told him this?" she cried.

aghast. "He said she must have loathed me as no man was ever loathed before.

Then I told him."

"You told him because you knew she did not loathe you! And you loved pect me than Matilde. She was not untrue to you. She could not have

She stood over him like an accusing rapidly mounted the stairs to the top angel, her arms extended. He shrank back, glaring. "Why do you say these things to me? You cannot know—you have no right to say—"

"I am sorry for you, James Brood," she murmured, suddenly relaxing. Her body swaved against the table, and then she sank limply into the chair alongside. "You will never forget that you struck a man who was asleep. absolutely asleep. That's why I am knees he watched her movements in a don'tsorry for you."

He Sprang Forward and Struck the Photograph From Frederic's Hand.

hand to his eyes. "Yes, yes—he was Buddha, whose placid, smirking coun- hands. "I do know! I know that he for the slaughter, by the blood—" asleep! Yvonne, I-I have never been so near to loving him as I am now.

"I am going up to him. Don't try to stop me. But first let me ask you was what you claim?"

Brood lowered his head. "He said

"And it was then that you began

"Yes. I think you should go to him. I—I gave him an hour to—to—"

"To get out?" "Yes. He must go, you see. him, if you will, I shall not oppose closed, smoldering eyes. "But he will Find out what he expects to

She passed swiftly by him as he started toward the door. In the hall, which was bright with the sunlight from the upper windows, she turned to face him. To his astonishment, her cheeks were aglow and her eyes bright with eagerness. She seemed almost radiant.

"Yes; it needs breaking, James," she said, and went up the stairs, leaving him standing there dumfounded. Near Yvonne!" the top she began to hum a blithe tune. It came down to him distinctlythe weird little air that had haunted him for years--- Feverelli's!

CHAPTER XVII.

Foul Weather.

To Brood's surprise, she came halfway down the steps again, and, leaning over the railing, spoke to him with a voice full of irony.

"Will you be good enough to call off your spy, James?"

"What do you mean?" He had started to put on his light overcoat.

"I think you know," she said, briefly. "Do you consider me so mean, so infamous as-" he began hotly.

"Nevertheless, I feel happier when that propels that boy's blood along its I know he is out of the house. Call off your dog. James."

He smothered an execration and then called out harshly to Jones. "Ask Ranjab to attend me here. Jones. He is to go out with me," he said to the butler a moment later. Yvonne was still leaning over the banister, a scornful smile on her lips.

"I shall wait until you are gone. intend to see Frederic alone," he said, with marked emphasis on the final

"As you like," said he, coldly.

She crossed the upper hall and disappeared from view down the corridor leading to her own room. Her lips were set with decision; a wild, reck less light filled her eyes, and the smile of scorn had given way to one of exaltation. Her breath came fast and tremulously through quivering nos trils as she closed her door and hur ried across to the little vine-covered balcony.

"The time has come—the time has as straight and fearless as a soldier, herself, over and over again. She turned her attention to the win dow across the court and two floors above her-the heavily curtained window in Brood's "retreat." There was no sign of life there, so she hurried to the front of the house to wait for the departure of James Brood and his man. The two were going down the front steps. At the bottom Brood spoke to taken by his master. She watched until both were out of sight. Then she floor. Frederic was lying on the couch near the jade-room door. She was able to distinguish his long, dark figure after peering intently about the shadowy interior in what seemed at first to be a vain search for him. She shrank back, her eyes fixed in horror upon the prostrate shadow. Suddenly he stirred and then half raised himself has killed everyon one elbow to stare at the figure in the doorway.

"Is it von? and dropped back with a great sigh on | head. his lips.

back to her face. Quickly closing the what he has done to me? Listen to door, she advanced into the room, her this: he boasts of having reared me tread as swift and as soft as a cat's, to manhood, as one might bring up a alone," she said, stopping to lean pay for the wrong that my poor against the table, suddenly faint with mother did a quarter of a century excitement.

He laughed, a bitter, mirthless, snarling laugh.

know what has happened. Get up! an hour ago. I have suffered all these I want to talk it over with you. We years in ignorance of—" must plan. We must decide now-at once-before he returns." The words alarmed by the vehemence of his rebroke from her lips with sharp, stac- awakened fury. catolike emphasis.

He came to a sitting posture slowly, all the while staring at her with a dull more diabolical than the scheme he wonder in his heavy eyes.

hurriedly. "We cannot talk here. I and still loves—yes, by heaven, he still am afraid in this room. It has ears, loves her!—he works to this beastly to take you away from the man who here, even though he may seem to be of the damned up to the day of her would not have become your mistress elsewhere. We will go down to my death by refusing her the right to boudoir."

allowed his chin to sink dejectedly into story—you don't know the kind of have struck James Brood that blow. his hands. With his elbows on his man you have for a husband—you He would have gone to his grave bestate of increasing interest and bewil-"Asleep!" he murmured, putting his derment. She turned abruptly to the lently, beating her breast with clinched degraded, by the boy he had reared tenance seemed to be alive to the situ- still loves the poor girl who went out ation in all of its aspects. Standing of this house with his curses ringing this you are saying? What have you close, her hands behind her back, her in her ears a score of years ago, and against my-against him?" figure very erect and theatric, she pro- who died still hearing them. And I ceeded to address the image in a voice had almost come to the point of pity-full of mockery. "Well, my chatterbox friend, I have ing. He is a wonderful man. I-I pierced his armor, haven't I? He will was losing myself. But that is all creep up here and ask you, his won- over. Three months ago I could have ing else but triumph over James derful god, to tell him what to do left him without a pang-yesterday I Brood. To gain my end it was necesabout it, ai-e? His wits are tangled. was afraid that it would never be pos-He doubts his senses. And when he sible. Today he makes it easy for me. comes to you, my friend, and whines He has hurt you beyond all reason, not his secret doubts into your excellent because he hates you but because he always pleading with me! But, curse have a heart -a heart that still needs and trustworthy ear, do me the kind- loved your mother." ness to keep the secret I shall now whisper to you, for I trust you, too, eric, in stark wonder. "You don't care of love—yes, love, not pity, for him— He gasped. "As if my heart hasn't you amiable fraud." Standing on tip the snap of your finger for me. What toe, she put her lips to the idol's ear is all this you are saying, Tyonne? and whispered. Frederic, across the You must be mad, Think! Think a single thought of the cost to myself. room, roused from his lethargy by the what you are saying." strange words and still stranger ac- "I have thought-I am always thinktion, rose to his feet and took several ing. I know my own mind well enough. steps toward her. "There! Now you It is settled; I am going away and I go away with me? Will you take me?" know everything. You know more am going with you." than James Brood knows, for you "I cannot listen to you, Yvonne,

"What are you doing, Yvonne?" de manded Frederic, unsteadily. She whirled about and came toward him, her hands still clasped behind her

"Come with me," she said, ignoring his question.

know-before long-before long."

"He he thinks I am in love with you," said he, shaking his head. "And are you not in love with me?" He was startled. "Good Lord

She came quite close to him. He could feel the warmth that traveled from her body across the short space that separated them. The intoxicating perfume filled his nostrils; he drew a deep breath, his eyes closing slowly as his senses prepared to succumb to the delicious spell that came over him. When he opened them an instant later, she was still facing him.

She Watched Until Both Were Out of Sight.

ome, thank God," she was saying to and the light of victory was in her dark, compelling eyes.

"Well," she said, deliberately, "I am ready to go away with you." He fell back stunned beyond the power of speech. His brain was filled with a thousand clattering noises. "He has turned you out." she went on rapidly. "He disowns you. Very well; the time has come for me to exact payment from him for that and for all that has gone before. I shall go away with you. I—" "Impossible!" he cried, finding his tongue and drawing still farther away from her.

"Are you not in love with me?" she whispered softly. He put his hands to his eyes to shut out the alluring vision. "For God's sake. Yvonne-leave me Let me go my way. Let me—'

"He cursed your mother! He curses you! He damns you—as he damned her. You can pay him up for everything. You owe nothing to him. He

Frederic straightened up suddenly. and with a loud cry of exultation grovel in misery for the rest of his aised his clenched hands above his

"By heaven, I will break him! Her heart leaped. The blood rushed will make him pay! Do you know "He has gone out. We are quite prize beast, that he might make me ago. All these years he has had in mind this thing that he has done today. All my life has been spent in "Get up Frederic. Be a man! I preparation for the sacrifice that came

"Not so loud!" she whispered,

"Oh, I'm not afraid!" he cried. savagely. "Can you imagine anything such that you resisted only because has had in mind all these years? To "Pull yourself together," she cried, pay out my mother-whom he loved know. That awful Hindu is always end. He made her suffer the agonies have the child that he swears is no I would have enticed you away, be-He slowly shook his head and then child of his. Oh, you don't know the lieving myself to be justified. I would

> "Yes, yes, I do know," she cried, vioing him-I was failing-I was weaken-

"But you do love him." cried Fred-

"We go tomorrow," she eried out, aware of her intention, ciutched in an ecstant of triumph. She was hand and present it to her lips. convinced that he would go! "Le was shocked to find that a sed dropping anddenly into a chair and burying his face in his shaking hands What will this mean to Lydia what will she do-what will become of her?" A quiver of pain crossed the woman's face, her eyelids fell as if to skut out something that shamed her in ized that the appeal was to his spirit spite of all her vainglorious protestations. Then the spirit of exaltation resumed its sway.

"You cannot marry Lydia now," she said, affecting a sharpness of tone that caused him to skrink involuntarily. "It Prederic. You are spi is your duty to write her a letter tonight, explaining all that has happened today. She would sacrifice herelf for you today, but there is tomorrow! A thousand tomorrows, Frederic. Don't forget them, my dear. They would be ugly after all, and she is too good, too fine to be dragged

"You are right!" he exclaimed, leaping to his feet. "It would be the vilest act that a man could perpetrate Why-why it would be proof of what he says of me—it would stamp me never lift my head again if I were to him." do this utterly vile thing to Lydia. He said to me here—not an hour ago— tion," she eried, straightening up in that hesexpected me to go ahead and an effort to revive her waning purblight that loyal girl's life, that I pose. "Yes, I skall go. I cannot stay would consider it a noble means of here now. I-" She passed and shudself-justification! What do you think dered. of that? He- But wait! What is can't take you away from him him to-Yvonne! God in heaven, what am I thinking of? Have I no sense of is! Hate! There should be a worl honor? Am I—significantly.

stoop to a foul trick like this. Do- much to tell and there will be consolado you know what you are suggest- tion-ay, triumph for you in the story ing?" He drew back from her with a I shall tell. Pirst, let me say this to look of disgust in his eyes. "No! I'm you: When I came here I did not know not that vile! I—" "Frederic, you must let me-" more, Yvonne. What manner of wom- In my plans, after I came to know ber, an are you? He is your husband, he there grew a beautiful alternative loves you, he trusts you—oh, yes, he through which she should know great does! this? You would-"

"Hush! Not so loud!" she cried, in great agitation.

the end of my life. I will not betray that love. To the end of time she shall know that my love for her is real and true and-"

"Wait! Give me time to think," she Intely. "Do not judge me too harshly, gone on with the game. Even as I Hear what I have to say before you ture you think, Frederic. Wait! Let urged, but the thing that was having me think!'

He stared at her for a moment in deep perplexity, and then slowly drew stop? near. "I do not believe you mean to do wrong-I do not believe it of you. You have been carried away by some horrible—'

"Listen to me," she broke in, fiercely. "I would have sacrificed you—ay, sacrificed you, poor boy-for the joy Oh! She nttered a gross despair and self-loathing so deep and full of pain that his heart was chilled. "Good Lord, Yvonne!" he gasped dumfounded. "Do not come near me," she cried out, covering her face with her bands. For a full minute she stood before him, straight and rigid as a statue, a tragic figure he was never to forget. Suddenly she lowered her hands. To his surprise, a smile was on her lips. "You would never have gone away with me. I know it now. All these months I have been counting on you for this very hour-this culminating hour-and now I realize how little hope I have really had, even from the beginning You are honorable. There have been times when my influence over you was you were loyal to yourself—not to Lydia, not to my husband-but to vourself. I came to this house with but one purpose in mind. I came here has always stood as your father. I -pah! how loathsome it sounds! But lieving himself to have been paid in full by the son of the woman he had

"In God's name, Yvonne, what is "What! I shall come to that. did not stop to consider all that I should have to overcome. Pirst, there was your soul, your honor, your integrity to consider. I could see nothsary that I should be his wife. I became his wife-I deliberately took that step in order to make complete my triumph over him. I became the wife of the man I hated with all my soul. Frederic. So you can see how far I was willing to go to-ah, it was a hard one and peering out through the other. thing to do! But I did not shrink. I went into it without faltering, without I shall have to go. But we shall not He was to pay for all that, too, in the end. Look into my eyes, Frederic. I want to ask you a question. Will you He returned her look stendily, "No!"

"That is all I want to hear you say. know what his charming wife is about cried Frederic, aghast. His heart was It means the end. I have done all to do next." She drew back and pounding so flercely that the blood that could be done and I have falled. See regarded the image through half surged to life head in great waves, al Thank God, I have falled!" She came swiftly to him and before he his He gush of tears was wetting his hand.

"Oh, Yvonne!" he exied minerally. She was sobbling convulsively. de looked down upon her dark, howel head and again felt the mastering do sire to crush her slender, beautiful body in his arms. The spell of her was upon him again, but now he realand not to his flesh-as it had been all along, he was beginning to suspe

"Don't pity me," she choked out. This will pass, as everything elechas passed. I am proud of you now, men could have resisted in this hour of despair. You have been cast off, despised, degraded, humiliated. You were offered the means to retaliate.

"And I was tempted!" he cried hitterly. "For the moment I was-"And now what is to become of ne?" she walled.

His heart went cold. "You you will leave him? You will so back to Paris? Good Lord, Yvonne, it will be a blow to him. He has had one fearforever the bastard he—No, no, I could ful slash in the back. This will break

"At least, I may have that consola-

"What, in beaven's name, have you this that we are proposing to do? against my-against him? What does Give me time to think! Why-why, it all mean? How you must have hated

Hated him? Oh, how feeble the word that strikes more terror to the soul "You are not his son," she said than that one. But wait! You shall know everything. You shall have the "But that is no reason why I should story from the beginning. There is that there was a Lydia Desmond. I would have hurt that poor girl, but it "I don't want to hear anything would not have been a lesting pain. And you would leave him like happiness. Oh, I have planned well and carefully, but I was ruthless. I would have crashed her with him rather than to have failed. But it is all a "And let me tell you something dream that has passed and I am awake. more. Although I can never marry It was the most cruel but the most Lydia, by heaven, I shall love her to magnificent dream-ah, but I dare not think of it. As I stand here before you now. Prederic, I am shorn of all my power. I could not strike him as I might have done a month ago. Even as I was cursing him but a moment pleaded. He shook his head reso ago I realized that I could not have begged you to take your revenge, I condemn me. I am not the vile creatines that it was not myself who > its death struggle within me." "Go on. Tell me. Why do you

She was glancing fearfully toward Constination the Hindu's door. "There is one man Vanishes Forever my every thought. He does not know Prompt Relief-Permanent Cure all, but he knows me. He has known CARTER'S LITTLE from the beginning that I was not to LIVER PILLS never it would give me to see James Brood be trusted. That man is never out of my thoughts. I fear him, Prederic—I hie — act surely fear him as I fear death. If he had not but gently on you away with me, months ago. But he worked his spell and I was afraid. I faltered. He knew that I was afraid, for he spoke to me one day of the were cowards in spite of the desti they could deal with one flash of their fangs. You were intoxicated. I am a thing of beauty. I can charm as "God knows that is true," he said hournely.

with my own poison. Go to the door!

"No one is neat." said he, after strick ing swiftly to both doors, fistening a "You will have to go away, Prederic so together. In my room I have ken lars, waiting for the day to co have no maney of your own. I was preserved even for that. Look again See if sayone is these? I fed ne is near to. Look, I the.

KILLS THE GERMS

have been testing vinegar as a destroyer of the germs of typhoid fever: That they are killed by a mixture of wine and water in equal parts has long been known. These investigators prove now that twenty germs of vinegar to a liter of water kill the typhoid bacilles in an hour and five

"From this," writes the Paris correspondent of the Lancet, "a practical inference may be drawn concerning salads. After washing the salad as usual, detaching each leaf, it should be put into water acidulated with ten grams of vinegar to the liter and reimmersed in this liquid for about an hour and a quarter. All vegetables ordinarily eaten uncooked may be subjected without any inconrenience to the same process."

A liter is equivalent to about a mart and ten grams are equivalent to about a third of an ounce. So, if lettrace or other greens for salad be placed in water to which about onethird of an ounce of vinegar has been added and be left for about an hour and a quarter, all danger of typhoid fever will be removed.

Fig Pudding

Chop one-half pound of suct and work with the hands until creamy, then add one-half pound of figs finely chopped. Scak 21/2 cupfuls of stale bread crumbs in one-half cupful of milk half an hour. Add two eggs well beaten, one cupful sugar and threefourths teaspoonful of sods. Combine mixtures, turn into a battered mold and steam three hours. Serve with yellow sauce made by beating two eggs until very light, add gradually one cupful sugar and continue beating: then fiavor with one teaspoonful of brands and one-half teaspoonful of vanilla

Never Fails to give beautiful color to GRAY HAIR

More than a half century of success. If your dealer hasn't it, send $1.00 and a large bottle will be sent you by parcel post. MRS.S. A. ALLEX, 55 Bereier St., New York digestion," ~~ sorove the complesion, brighten the eyes. MALL PILL, SMALL DOSE, SMALL PRICE. Gennine must bear Signature

Renews Your Youthful Appearance CARTERS

Second Week of Our June Clearance Sale

While we have had a very successful Sale so far, we have plenty of goods left. These prices will help out on the High Cost of Living.

Baby Shoes at 15c a pair. Children's Shoes $1.10 value, Sale Price 89c. Misses' Shoes $2.00 value, Sale Price $1.49. Boys' Shoes $1.75 value, Sale Price $1.87. Women's Gun Metal and Tan Oxfords, $3.50 value for $2.49. Men's Patent " " $4.00 " $3 29. About 10 per cent off on nearly all Shoes from $1.50 to $5 pair. Five per cent off on all Rubber goods and Tennis.

Twenty per cent off on all Umbrellas. Big Discount on Underwear, Gents' Furnishings, etc.

PAYS TO PAY CASH

GOODWIN. The Shoeman

Goodell Block,

Antrim.

FLOOR COVERINGS

We have in stock a full line, suitable for your Parlor, Living room, Dining room, and Chambers.

35 SAMPLE

6 ft. x 9 ft., 7.6 ft. x 9 ft., 8.3 ft. x 10.6 ft., 9 ft. x 12 ft., $7 to $25 Look at our 9 ft. x 12 ft. Tapestry Rug $10.00 Also at our 9 ft. x 12 ft. Velvet Rug at $13.00 Small Sizes from $1.00 to $4.00

Grass, Crex, Wool and Fiber Rugs, 25c. to $8.00

China, Japanese, Chikugo, Crex, Colorfast and Sunfast Mattings from $12\frac{1}{2}$ c. to 40c.

Linoleums, Congoleum, Neponsit and Oilcloth Flooring from 25c. to 50c.

If we cannot sell you the same articles for less money than you can purchase elsewhere we do not ask or expect your patronage,

The Hillsboro Furniture Rooms

Baker's Block.

HILLSBORO, N. H.

Fred J. Gibson

Groceries, Flour, Grain, Hardware, Dry Goods, Paints and Oils, Seeds of All Kinds, Shoes, Rubbers, Carriages, Flooring, and Everything from a Pin to an Automobile.

Timothy, Clover, Shingles

Timothy for June delivery, per bushel $3.50 All other Seeds in proportion Japanese Millet, per pound......8¢ Shingles, per thousand.....$2.50 to $4.00 Special prices in large quantities Clapboards, per thousand......$15.00

I also have a lot of Second Hand Lumber at a Very Low Price.

Q Our Stores are Cash and we make very low prices

¶ When in need of anything Telephone or call and we can satisfy you. Remember we sell Everything.

Fred J. Gibson Hillsboro Upper & Lower Villages

Fire, Life and Liability INSURANCE

Let Us Insure Your Auto

Can write Liability, Fire, Explosion and property damage on that New Motor Car at the lowest rate.

Surety Bonds or anything else in this line.

Sound Companies

Equitable Adjustments

The Autrim Reporter Published Every Wednesday Afternoon

Subscription Price, $1.00 per year Advertising Rates on Application

H. W. ELDREDGE, PUBLISHER H. B. KLDBEDGE, Assistant

Wednesday, June 16, 1915

Long Distance Telephone Notices of Concerts, Lectures, Entertainments, etc. o which an admission fee is charged, or from which a fevenue is derived, must be paid for as advertisements y the line.

Cards of Thanks are inserted at yoc. each.

Oblituary poetry and lists of flowers charged advertising rates: also will be charged at this sat list of presents at a wedding. Entered at the Post-office at Antrim, N. H., as Resolutions of ordinary length $1.00.

Antrim Locals

Auto Passenger Service. Beginning Monday, June 14th, we shall meet the morning train from Boston at Elmwood. Return to afternoon train upon notice. J. E. Perkins & Son, Antrim. Tel. 3-4.

Miss C. E. Fadisch has been in Keene for a few days.

P. D. Jameson was in Boston Friday on a business trip.

Notice change in adv. of J. E. Perkins & Son in this issue.

Carl Robinson was in Boston last Thursday on a business trip. Miss Marion Paine of New York

s at the Paine summer home. G. Henry Hutchinson attended the two days' convention of Congregationalists at Greeniseld last week. E. E. Cummings and wife and daughter, Miss Mildred, were in South Lyndeboro Sunday visiting his Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Sawyer, from Dorchester, Mass., spent the weekend with his parents, S. S. Sawyer and wife. B. F. Tenney was in Milford last Thursday, accompanied by Fred C. Thompson, and returned with Mr.

Tenney's new Ford. Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Clough entertained a party of friends from Winchester, Mass., Thursday, at the Methodist parsonage. Big Mark down Sale of Millinery. As I shall close my store for the summer about June 26, take advantage of the many bargains. New onting hats in sand and white at 98c Miss Fadisch.

A party of school children from Hillsboro were in town last Wednes day night on a straw ride, accompanied by their teacher.

ter of Charles Fitts and wife, has been quite ill with diphtheria. A physician from Keene was called one day last week to assist Dr. Dearborn

HOW WOMEN AVOID OPERATIONS

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio - "My left wide expected to have to andergo an operation, but the first bottle I took of Lydia E. Pinkham's egetable Comoound relieved me of the pains in my side and I continued its use until I became regular and free from pains. I had asked several doctors if there was anything I could take to help me and they said there was nothing that they know of. I am thankful for such a good medicine and will always give it the highest praise."

-- Mrs. C. H. GRIPPITH, 1568 Constant St., Cleveland, Ohio.

Hanover, Pa.-"I suffered from female trouble and the pains were so bad at times that I could not sit down. The doctor advised a severe operation but my husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I experienced great relief in a short time. Now I feel like a new person and can do a hard day's work and not mind it. What joy and happiness it is to be well once more I am always ready and willing to speak a good word for the Compound."—Mrs.

ADA WILT, 803 Walnut St., Hanover, Pa. If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Redicins Co. (confidential) Lynn, Hass. Your letter will be opened, reed, and answered by a woman and

Antrim Locals

House Painting

Paper Hanging, Kalsomining, etc., done in the right way at right prices. Apply to

H. W. ELLIOTT, Antrim, N. H.

Frank Boyd has been on a business trip to various parts of Connecticut. Mrs. Albert Lapoint and daughter, Miss Ophelia, are in New York for a brief stay. Miss Lela Young, of Bradford, is in town for a season, visiting with Mrs Alby Hatch, of Athol, Mass. is a guest of Mrs. J. P. Curtis and family for a week. Mrs. Homer E. Kilburn and son, Frederick, of Andover, are visiting Warren Merrill and wife

Mrs. Edith Muzzey is enjoying a visit with relatives in Nashua and Hudson for a few weeks. William Nichols and Bartlet Brooks were in Concord a couple days last week, making the trip by sato. Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Clough are entertaining their daughter, Mrs. Allen Battley, and family of Laucas-Mrs. Hattie Myers has returned from a few weeks' visit with relatives in Shelburne Falls and Springfield.

Patrick Burke has moved his family from Manchester, and they are occupying a tenement in one of M. D. Poor's houses

Miss Anna Hollis and friends, from Boston, have been enjoying a few days at the Hollis cottage, Fairmont, at Gregg lake.

Martin Haefeli and wife are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, born recently at St. Joseph's hospital in Nashua.

The June Clearance Sale at Goodwin's certainly brought results in the line of sale. The goods are right and prices very low. Goodwin's. adv.

Miss Hazel I. Burnham was in Watertown, Mass., for the week end, visiting Miss Miriam Perkins, and at. tending Miss Perkins' graduation Saturday from a teachers' training me right yere as he cums along. He'll was accompanied by her brother, and befo' I'm through with that var-Thomas Shea and family, who are decashun in this state will git so tanspending a few weeks at the Shea gled up and pulverized and tied into homestead in Hancock.

Mrs. Anna E Carter, De Miss Esther Fitts, youngest daugh- President of the N. H. State W. R. C., was in Tilton Monday night, attending a celebration at the Soldiers Home, guest of E. E Sturtevant Doctor Sandwith's Chadwick lecture Corps, at their annual Flag Day ex-

> Haefeli and wife will be glad to know that George Parker, their infant son, is the prize baby of St. Joseph's bospital, having won the twenty-five doliar baby carriage, given by A. A. Jennotte, of Nashua, to the finest and largest child born in that hospital between April 9th and June 9th.

> been appointed Vice Admiral, and he is the brother of Miss Susan Mayo and Miss Lucy Mayo, and uncle of Miss Bessie Mayo, who have for several summers past been gnests of the Alfords. Vice Admiral Mayo is fourth of the American navy, being preceded by Glasgow, Farragut, Por ter and Rowan.

Last Wednesday night, while attempting to cross Main atreet near the meat market, Miss Gladys Brooks, the Chinese. We misread them as a aged about 4 years, was struck by a horse driven by Mrs. Frank Hutchinson, and thrown to the ground. The little girl started to cross the road and then turned to retrace her steps The fell on the Chinaman's head. accident occurred in the dusk of the evening, and she could not be seen from the wagon. She fortunately es caped any serious injuries, sustaining next?"-Washington Star. only braises.

HELEN M. COLE Solo Violinist and Teacher HENNIKER, N. H.

At a Bargain

Latest Improved, new, never used, Adriance Backeye Mower, 5 feet cut-F. I. Graves, Antrim.

HAD NO USE FOR EDUCATION

Old Gentleman Deeply Resented the Deception of Which He Had Been a Victim

There was a man about forty years old seated on the fence in front of the house and swinging his legs as he smoked, and as I halted and saluted him and inquired about the road ahead, he asked:

"Stranger, be you what is called an eddecated man?"

"I have something of an education, replied, as I noticed how grim he

"Then I don't want nuthin' to say to you," he continued, as he settled "Perhaps you are down on educa-

"Perhaps I am, sah. Yes, sah, I don't want nuthin' to do with them kind o' their hands?" "Hev I? Wall, now, you climb up yere and take a look over that field. It's bekase of eddecashun that I've broken my back and hain't got no mo ambishun left."

"Have you suffered any injury at

I climbed up beside him and saw that the field had been dug up in a hundred different places, as if some one had been digging graves.

"That's what I've bin at fur the last y'ar," growled the man, as he kicked the fence with his heels to prove his feelings. "Yes, sah, I've put in ten hours a day right yere with pick and shovel for the last twelve months, and mebbe you don't wonder that I'm down on eddecashun.' "What have you been doing?" "Diggin' fur gold, sah."

"And you haven't found any?" "How could I when it wasn't thar to be found? I jest feel myself gittin' dangerous when I think of it. Better pass on, stranger, befo' I break loose!

"But tell me why you dug all those holes in this field," I persisted. "Who told you there was gold there?"

"Wall, sah, it's all a-owin' to my son, Sam. He wanted eddecashun and couldn't be denied, and I finally sent him down to Rosedale to skule. Jest as soon as he could read he cum home and told me about Captain Kidd. the pirate, and we figgered that the ole critter buried his treasure right yere. I went to diggin' fur it and kent at it till last week."

"But Captain Kidd was an ocean rover."

"Of co'se." "And he couldn't have buried any reasure hundreds of miles inland." "Of co'se not. That's what a critter told me as he cum along last week. He made it so mighty plain that I quit diggin' and went to waitin'."

"You-you are waitin' for some one "I ar', sah—waitin' fur my son Sam, who'll be home this day! He'll find ax how the diggin' cums on, and if I've found the gold yit, and then sunthin' Miss Marion Shea has returned will utter a war whoop and light down from Shelburne Falls, Mass., and on him. That sunthin will be me, mint of an offspring the cause of edknots that it will take twenty y'ars fur it to go ahead and deceive an honman!"—Washington Herald

Success of Typhoid inoculation. Sir Frederick Treves, presiding at the Society of Arts on the occasion of on "War and Disease." was able to bear witness to the remarkable sanitary conditions under which the pres-The many friends of Martin ent war is being waged. Particularly did he indorse the value of inoculation for typhoid, by which means that great danger to armies in the field has been practically eliminated. Sir Frederick was, in fact, able to state that not a single inoculated man had died of typhoid in the British expeditionary force, and that there had only been 212 cases of typhoid, with 22 deaths. When we remember the extent to which typhoid prevailed in our Rear Admiral Henry T Mayo has armies during the Boer war, when the conditions were probably infinitely less provocative of that disease than those which must necessarily prevail in prolonged trench fighting, it will be recognized that Sir Frederick's claim that the existing sanitary arrangements are unprecedented is justified.— London Outlook.

> Misplaced Admiration. The late W. W. Rockhill, who died in Honolulu, had a deep and intelligent knowledge of the Chinese. "We Americans," Mr. Rockhill once said in New York, "don't understand visiting Chinaman once misread an accident in Broadway. "As the Chinaman was passing beneath a huge electric sign, on which a man was at work, the man slipped and

"'Well, well,' said the Chinaman to himself, admiringly, as he rose from the pavement; 'well, well, how will these wonderful Americans advertise

Huge Sugar Industry. When it is stated that more than one hundred million dollars is invested in the beet sugar industry in the United States, it may be understood that the effect of the war on this industry in Germany is of considerable importance. The first beet sugar factory in America was built in Philadelphia in 1830, but it did not prove a success. The first successful factory was started in 1870 at Alvarado, Cal. It was in continuous operation until

EATEN WITH A RELISH

BECAUSE

THE FOOD WAS FROM

The Store of Good Taste

AND TASTED GOOD

ALMOND and RHUBARB JELLY. To one quart of hot sweetened rhubarb sauce add a heaping tablespoorful of gelatine dissolved in a little cold water; stir well; put in a handful of chopped almonds and pour into small moulds. When cold serve with cream or boiled custard.

These Taste Good

Cereals and Fresh Berries Macaroni and Cheese Campbell's Pork & Beans Amoskeag Catsup

Visit Our Jewelry Counter

W. H. ROBINSON, Antrim. N. H.

The Proof is Up to Us

If Your Liver Troubles are not Relieved by

Rexall Liver Salts

We will refund your money. They contain the medicinal salts best known and most used for Liver affections. Pleasant to take and gently laxative, they help restore the Liver and thereby the whole system

25 and 45 Cents

E. M. LANE

The Rexall Store

Motion Pictures!

Town Hall, Antrim

Saturday Evening,

FILM JOHNNY

Featuring CHARLIE CHAPLIN Did you ever measure your laughter? If not, then we want you to come and see this 1000 feet of reel Comedy and you will enjoy 1000 feet of real humor. The hero, CHARLIE, does his best (or worst) to break into the moving pacture business and of course has ridiculous experiences. It's a winner!

THE LUCKY SHOT

Western Drama. A young married man goes West to make a fortune and after thrilling adventures attains success.

THE CONSERVATORY

Society mystery, involving the theft and recovery of several valuable jewels. This Comedy Drama contains a genuine surprise feature and is very good.

The Fortunes of War TWO-REEL FEATURE

War Drama by the Kay Bee players.

15c and 10c Admission

After Intermission. 10c

H. Burr Bidredge, Prop'r

Hillsbord Dry Goods Company

The Satisfactory Cash Store

Is Not Complaining of Poor Trade

We keep business up by keeping prices down. There is no place on earth where your bard-earned dollar will bring better results than right here. Every day is the same with us. No special fake sales r gulli ble propositions to offer you. If you are not a customer of onrs, ask some one who is. We are well supplied with new spring merchandise, every-day necessities, that will do you good. Come and see us. One price, cash, and money back if you want it.

Other Stores:-THE LADIES' DRY GOODS EXCHANGE, Keene, N. H. E. A. PALMER'S 25c STORE, Fitchburg, Mass.

E. A. PALMER, Prop'r

No Extra Charge for "REGAL" STYLE

HEN you buy Regals you pay only for the leather and labor used in the making of them.

The exquisite style, and what woman does not treasure that all-important feature, does not add one cent to the price!

So-when you decide on your shoes remember that you can secure not only supreme quality and perfect fit in Regals, but also the newest fashions.

We carry a large assortment of styles for men and women.

We are showing some very nobby styles in Colonials, Pumps and Oxfords.

BROWNS' SHOE STORE

Baker's Block

HILLSBORO

"Lakehaven" For Rent For the Month of July

We have a Cottage at the lake which it is our wish to let for the month of July,---the best time in the whole season to be at such a delightful spot.

> It is beautifully located on the above of Gregg Lake; all furnished; with boat; and everything ready to enjoy vacation, R. F. D. and Public Telephone handy. Address, for further information,

> > H. W. ELDREDGE, Antrim, N. H.

Antrim Locals

Frank E. Bass is in Wor Mass., on a business trip.

Mrs. Harriet Hunt is getting her house ready to entertain summer

See our display adv. on page 4 Prices that will belp out on the high cost of living. Goodwin.

The regular meeting of the Board of Trade will be held at the Selectmen's room on Monday evening next. A chance to buy Shoes and Oxfords at very low prices, and at the beginning of the season. Goodwin. adv spent the week-end at their cottage-Lakehaven-on the shores of Gregg

Ralph G. Winslow and wife, from mother, Mrs. E. Smith, at Alabama week.

Lucius Parker and wife are in Dur ham, attending the graduation of their sou, Walter F. Parker, from the State college.

been enjoying a few days' fishing trip to Gregg lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Nason Congingham and Lawrence Talcot, of West Med ford, Mass, have been guests at the Bass farm the past week.

The public are cordially invited to attend the movies here Saturday night. A much better show than usual has been planued.

man Tenney are in Keene to attend the graduation of Miss Jessie Tenney from the State Normal school.

James F. Eldredge and wife left town last Thursday morning for their home in Orleans, Mass., after spending nearly two weeks in the family of H. W Eldredge.

"Are you going to the movies at Antrim town hall Saturday night?" "Sure! I never miss a chance to see Boston. Charlie Chaplin-the man with the mnny feet."

The 21st annual commencement exercises of the Antrim High school will be held in the Town hall Friday beth and Lee Barker, from Damarisafternoon, and the annual class reception will be given in the evening.

Mrs. Betsy Ann (Butler) Barrett died in Greenfield, Saturday, aged 77 years; funeral Monday. Rev. O. M. Lord officiated. She was born in Antrim, on the Keene road, near the Jackson Boutelle place.

Wallace George, Archie Perkins, Carl Hansle and Henry A. George enjoyed an auto trip to South Lyndeboro last night to visit Phil Whittemore. They report Phil as improved in health.

At a special meeting of Mt. Crotched Eccampment, I. O. O. F., held Monday night, the G. R. degree was conferred on one candidate. There were several visiting members present from Union Encampment, of Peterboro. Ice cream and fancy cookies were served.

Neuralgia Pains Stopped

You don't need to suffer those agonizing nerve pains in the face, a: m. head, shoulders, chest and back. Just apply a few drops of soothing Sloan's Liniment; lie quietly a few moments. You will get such relief and comfort! Life and the world will look brighter. Get a bottle today. 3 ounces for 25c, at all drug gists. Penetrates without rubbing.

Spraying Notice

their own spraying or will do spray-F. K. BLACK,

Clinton Road, Antrim. 22-adv.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional reatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Address: F.J. Chenes & Co., Tolede, O. There is more Catarrh in this section of rem: F J. CHENET & CO., Tolede, O.

EAST ANTRIM

A Company to the second

Miss Lels Young, of Bradford, is visiting with her sister at Mrs. Perry's.

Mrs. Marie Wells and family, of Hillsboro, visited over the week end at Hazelburst farm.

George Caughey and family of the Branch were visiting at the Hubleys on Sunday. A. D. White & Son have purchased

Fred White and wife, of Tilton, visited over the week end with the Rokes at Belleview farm.

120 more head cattle for their pas-

W. G. Richardson and wife, who The family of H. W. Eldredge have been visiting at Mt. Campbell farm, returned to Winchester, Mass.,

The Blake family, who have been living in the Benton Tuttle house, left Des Moines, Iowa, are guests of her for Hancock rather suddenly last

Thirty-six for 25 Cents

Dr. King's New Life Pills are now supplied in well-corked glass bottles, Howard Descon and a party of containing 86 sugar coated white friends, from Putnam. Conc., have pills for 25c. One pill with a glass of water before retiring is an average dose. Easy and pleasant to take. Effective and positive in results. Cheap and economical to use. Get a bottle today, take a dose tonightyour constipation will be relieved in the morning. 36 for 25 cents, at all

For Sale

George Hastings and wife and Ly. At D. W. Cooley's Greenhouse: Cucumbers and Lettuce; Plants-Toma to, Pansy, Geraniums, Asters, Salvia, Coleus, Stock, Cauliflower and Cab

CLINTON VILLAGE

Charles F. Butterfield attended the celebration in Concord last Tuesday.

Ernest Wheeler has been entertaining his mother, Mrs. Hill, from New Miss Jessie Butterfield is at home for a two weeks' vacation, from her work in Lebanon.

Mrs. Alice B. Gamage and Elizacotta, Maine, sister and children of W. L. Barker, have joined him at his home in the Elbridge Tenney house, Richard Brooks and Howard Psige returned Saturday from a week at sonville, were here first of the week, moving their furniture to the cars to go to Fitchburg, Mass. William Woodward and wife, from Malden, Mass., have been visiting her parents, O. W. Brownell and wife. Joseph Brooks and wife are entertaining their daughter, Mrs. Leland

Russell, of Salem, Mass. The new house of E. T. Munhall is up and boarded in; it will be a nice roomy house, and an improvement to the surroundings when completed.

Last Sunday was observed by the churches as Children's Day .. At the Presbyterian and Baptist there were concerts by the children and at the A Full Program in this paper Methodist an appropriate sermon by the pastor.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought

ADMINISTRATBIX' NOTICE

Spraying Notice

The subscriber gives notice that she has been duly appointed Administratrix of the Retate of John W. Sizemore, late of Antrim, in the County of Hillsborrough, deceased. All persons having claims against the estate of said deceased are requested to exhibit the for adjustment, and all indebted to make payment.

Dated June 7th, 1915.

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

NETTIE WHITE.

To the heirs at law of the estate of Anthons Whitmore, laie of Antrim, in said County deceased, intestate, and to all others interest ed therein:

Whereas Clark B. Cochrane administra Whereas Clark B. Cochrane administrator of the estate of said deceased, has filed in the Probate Office for said County, the account of his administration of said estate:
You are hereby cited to appear at a Court of Probate to be holden at Hillsborough in said County, on the 30th day of July next, to show cause, if any yon have, why the same should not be allowed.
Said administrator is ordered to serve this citation by causing the same to be published once each week for three successive weeks in the Antrim Exporter a newspaper printed at Antrim in said County, the last publication to be at least seven days before said Court.

Given at Nauhua in said County, this 25th lay of May, A. D. 1915.

The Fashion Shop

49 Hanover St. Opposite The Auditorium

Agnes R. Hughes Anna M. Howe

THIS IS BARGAIN WEEK AT THE FASHION SHOP

We are offering the balance of our Spring and Summer Suits, Coats and Dresses at 1-2 less than original price. The most fashionable materials will be included in this beautiful assortment of garments.

Palm Beach Suits in tailored models with belted coats and full gored skirts.

Colored Linen and Ratine Suits, braided, belted and Norfolk coats and plain circular skirts with patch pockets.

Coats, Linen, Palm Beach and Mohair in loose and belted models, some full lengths, others in the three-quarter lengths.

Golfine and Chinchilla Sport Coats in white, coral, Belgian blue, emerald and American beauty shades.

Silk Dresses in crepe de chine, charmeuse, taffeta and crepe meteor, every gown handsomely trimmed and correctly made.

Cotton Dresses in smart, snappy models. Materials are plain and embroidered voiles, linens, muslins, flowered crepes and striped lawns.

THE FASHION SHOP MANCHESTER, N. H.

Eagle "Mikado" Pencil No. 174

174 EAGLE MYKADOSNO2 & EAGLE THOUSE

Packed One Dozen in an attractive pull-off Box and Half Gross in a Carton

For Sale at Your Dealer for Five Cents Each or for Fifty Cents per Dozen Hexagon Shape, Highly Polished in Yellow Finish, with Gilt Tip and Red Ring, fitted with best Red Erasive Rubber.

The Mikado is a Superior Quality of Pencil and contains the very finest specially prepared lead, which is exceedingly smooth and durable.

ACCURATELY GRADED IN FIVE DEGREES No. 1 Soft

No. 21/2 Medium Hard

No. 3 Hard No. 4 Extra Hard for Bookkeepers

CONCEDED TO BE THE FINEST PENCIL MADE FOR GENERAL USE

EAGLE PENCIL COMPANY,

377 BROADWAY

NEW YORK

Louis Ordway and wife, from Mun Fourth of July W

You can celebrate July 4th

AT

OAK PARK FAIR GROUNDS

GREENFIELD, N. H. Trotting Race, best 3 in 5; Ball

Games, Foot Races, etc. SOOD

PLAN TO GO!

Keep Posted

All former residents of Antrim ask in letters home "What's the news?"

An Easy Way

To tell your absent friends the news is to subscribe for The Antrim Reporter and have the paper mailed to them regularly every week

Us Items

About former town's. people and we will gladly publish the facts.

Keep In Touch

With your old home by reading the locals in this paper. Only $1.00 for . year,-52 weekly visite

Specials for Graduation

WHITE RIBBONS STOCKINGS FANS GLOVES AND

DAINTY UNDERWEAR

Miss S. E. Lane & Co., ANTRIM, N. H.

ARTESIAN WELI

Write for Circulars and References.

Long Experience in Water Supply.

The Way of Salvation *

By REV. B. B. SUTCLIFFE

TEXT-Look unto me and be ve saved all the ends of the earth, for I am God and there is none else.—Isa, 54:22.

The late Rev. Chas. H. Spurgeon, one of the greatest preachers of England, said that for a number of weeks prior to his conversion he was under great conviction of sin. He attended many services, seeking relief, but it so happened that none of the preaching he heard was directed to unthe services did pigs. him little good. Finally, he hap-Primitive Methododist chapel where. a gray-haired servant of God was about to preach, choosing for his text the passage we have before us. Mr. Spurgeon says that this was the time and this the text from which he dated his conversion. Some ten years afterwards he had the pleasure of standing in this Methodist chapel and preaching from the same text, the words of which tell us two things concerning

God's way of salvation.

A Simple Way. I. The simplicity of the way-"Look unto me and be saved." The way of salvation has been made so simple that the wayfaring man though a fool need not err therein. Could anything be simpler than just to look away from one object to another? From the time when man first was lost from God it has been a simple thing to be saved. Think of God's treatment of Adam after the fall. He did not demand that Adam do some great thing to save himself, but, coming down, he larger breeds up to 12 feet by 8 feet, made for the man a coat in which he might appear before him. It did the young pigs from being crushed not require much reasoning power to against the wall it is a good plan to the prodigal son returned to the father, the father ordered the best robe from seven to nine inches from the to be brought and placed upon him, floor and a similar distance from the and soon the boy was clothed and fit wall. to go into the father's house again. ceived him (Jesus), to them gave he the projection. power to become the sons of God." It is a great mistake to provide the Think of Noah being invited into the farrowing sow with a large quantity ark. It was not a difficult thing for of bedding. Under ordinary circumhim to step across the threshold and stances there is no better bedding mabe saved, but it was that step that terial for pigs than good wheat straw, settled his destiny. Today the Lord but for the farrowing sow a moderate says "I am the door, by me if any man | quantity of short stuff is preferable to | ons. It was invented by an Alabama enter in, he shall be saved." How the long materials, in which the pigs man, and the patent office has recenteasy a matter to cross the Difficulties to Be Overcome. II. The difficulty of the way-"Look at me." Put the emphasis on the time the sow should be left to her and when the bottom of the incline is word "me." The great difficulty in own devices, or assisted in any way reached and the forward movement of being saved is to really look away in taking charge of the pigs until the the wagon without hitch pull stops, from everything else to him alone. The birth is complete, is much debated by the brake automatically releases again. people to whom Issiah was writing pig breeders. She should certainly be Note the slot in the tongue of the wagwere looking to their idols, and he watched. was attempting to draw their trust away from them to God, in whom alone salvation could be found. The same trouble exists today because of idols in the land. There are two great idols in America today to which many of the people are looking for salvation. One of them might be termed the good man's idol and one the bad man's idol. The one the good man trusts in is sincerity, and it has many devotees. It says if a man follows his conscience and does what he thinks he ought to do that he will be saved of a certainty. The apostle Paul worshiped the same idol, bemyself that I ought to do many things contrary to the way." What Paul thought he ought to do he attempted to do. He was a sincere man, willing to go to any expense to do what he thought he should do.

and be safe!

Reformation Inadequate. The other great idol, the bad man's, might be called reformation. This says that the man is to turn over a new leaf and begin again, to put away the things which are known to be wrong, to quit this or that evil thing and to change his way of living generally. It would be a good thing if some men would change their way of life, but merely changing the outside would never secure salvation from God. We do what we do because we are what we are. This is why Nicodemus must be turned from his religious ceremonies, and Nathaniel from his prayers, although all these are good things in their place. Some years ago the U.S.S. Oregon went aground on the coast of China near the port of Shanghai and comparatively near Canton. It was discovered that a dry dock would be necessary to make the needed repairs, and neither of these ports had such. It became essential for the salvation of the vessel that she be taken to Nagasaki, in Japan. She could be cleaned or coaled, and even Victualed in the nearer ports, but all would be valueless unless the boat could be pisced in a dry dock. The damage must be repaired if the ship

SUCCESS WITH SWINE TO INCREASE TOMATO YIELD

Hog Is by Himself as Economical Producer of Meat.

First Nocessity, is Sultable Buildings or Pens-Animal Should Be Treated With Common Sense-Allow Sufficient Space.

Special farrowing pens are provided only when many breeding sows are kept, but where there is to be a removal from the ordinary quarters to a special place it should be done in good time so that the sow may become thoroughly accustomed to her new surroundings.

There is considerable difference of opinion as to why sows kill and eat inches and most of the side shoots betheir young, and no doubt the causes are as diverse as the theories advanced to account for it. One of them. however, and not the least common, is insufficient space. A sow when she lies down in close quarters is apt to catch an unfortunate voungster between her carcass and the wall, against which she generally saved persons and places her back when suckling her

The farrowing pen should, of course, be regulated to some extent by the pened to enter a size of the breed kept, but generally

Front and Side View of Substantia Hog House. It Has a Ventilating Window, 12 Inches by 18 Inches, in the Rear Near the Top, Which May Be Opened or Closed as Desired.

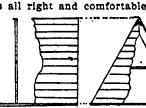

the space allowed is too limited and we frequently see big, heavy sows with hardly room to turn around in the diminutive apartment that, previous to farrowing, served them as sleeping

Small breeds should be allowed a space of not less than 8 feet by 8 feet, increasing in the case of the or 12 feet by 10 feet, and to prevent wear a coat already provided. When fix a strong rail around each side of the farrowing place, at a height of

This will prevent the sow flounder-It required no great understanding to ing down with her back against the allow the robe to be placed upon him. side of the pen and provides a refuge The word is that "to as many as re- for the youngsters who can get under are apt to get tangled and unable to escape quickly out of the way of a clumsy mother.

In many cases the sow farrows during the night and is found with her once becomes clear to one studying pigs all right and comfortable in the the sketch.

Side and End View of a Durable and Warm Hog House Covered With Drop Siding.

morning, but it is not always so and cause he says, "I verily thought within hundreds of young pigs are lost annually and not a few sacrificed sows are the result of the want of a capable attendant. It is certainly an advantage to have an experienced man at hand while the sow is farrowing, but there are many evils associated with untimely or undue interference.

POULTRY AND GARDEN STUDY

Some Essential Points Necessary to Raising and Keeping Chickens Given by Student

At one of the agricultural normal schools short courses in agriculture, a student gave the following answers to the question: What objects are to be obtained in the study of poultry and garden? Some of the most essential points necessary to raising and keeping chickens are:

1. Have good healthy fowls to be gin with.

2. Of a suitable age, not too old. 8. Keep the coops clean and free of vermin.

4. Give plenty of dust for dust 5. Have good food and measured rations.

6. Dry mash must be given. 7. Have two-thirds of the food green vegetables or grass.

8. Have plenty of room for 9. Keep coops free of cold drafts.

Maine Station Reports Gain of 50 Per Cent by Practice-Others Report Fruit Rotted.

(By S. M. CLINTON.) 'We have never been able to increase the yield of tomatoes or improve the quality by trimming, although some experimenters, among them the Maine station, assert that trimming is an improvement.

The Maine station reports that the increase in the yield due to trimming reached as high as 50 per cent and the gain in weight was very marked. The plants were started in the field June 1, headed back July 24. August 8 and September 5. This work should be done earlier in the milder climates.

At each trimming the leading branches were shortened about six low the first clusters were removed.

The other clusters were shortened and by training the vines on wires to run from five to ten feet high, the sunlight was admitted to all parts of the plants.

in our own experiments we have found that when the vines were freely trimmed the fruit rotted to a considerable extent and did not ripen as quickly nor as evenly as when the vines were untrimmed in the same garden. In fact, three years ago we trimmed every other hill, training them on stakes with cross pieces, and allowed the other vines to go untrimmed, held in place only by a single frame, inclosing the plants on all sides. about eighteen inches high.

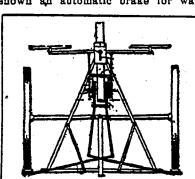

That year we found the ripest and best fruit on the untrimmed vines. while that on the trimmed vines ripened unevenly and showed a decided tendency to rot.

That was a dry season with us, and it may be that the trimmed vines received too much hot sun. Another thing noticeable was that the flavor of the tomatoes on the untrimmed vines was better and the fruit firmer than that on the trimmed vines.

AUTOMATIC BRAKE ON WAGON

Device is Applied When Vehicle Starts to Move Forward Without Dfaft From Team Ahead.

Meditative drivers sometimes forget to put on the brake, or their wagons may be so loaded that they cannot get to the brake rod to throw it into place, says the Farming Business. Here is shown an automatic brake for wag

Automatic Wagon Brake.

granted a patent for it. The brake is automatically applied when the wagon starts to move forward without The question whether at farrowing draft from the team that is hitched, on where the double-trees are pinned and the automatic arrangement at

IMPORTANCE OF CULTIVATION

When Work in Garden is to Be Done By Horse Rows Should Be Long and Narrow.

An important consideration in planning the garden is the kind of cultivation to be given. Horse cultivation is recommended whenever possible. and where the work is to be done mainly by means of horse tools the garden should be long and narrow with the rows running the long way. The garden should have no paths across the rows, but turning spaces should be left at the ends. For hand cultivation the rows can be much closer together, and may run across the garden. In the suggested plan, where the distance between the rows is less than two feet, hand cultivation with a wheel hoe is contemplated. If a hand cultivator or wheel hoe is not available, the rows should be at least two feet apart to give sufficient space for the horse cultivator. Straight lines should be followed, no matter what method of cultrue is used.

HOGS NEED CLEAN QUARTERS

Many Ailments of Animals Due to Sleeping in Warm Houses, Then Feeding in Cold Places.

(By WALTER B. LEUTZ)

Cough among the hogs may be due to very dusty quarters. With young hogs it is frequently due to minute threadlike worms in the bronchial tubes. A soft, hacking cough is a very common symptom of hog cholers. Hogs also have the common forms of bronchitis and pneumonia, just like other animals, and people. With hogs, coughs and lung troubles. aside from cholers are frequently due to sleeping in warm quarters, possibly piled up, and then going out into cold-

A Worker All the Day

By Grace Benedict Meserve

(Copyright, 1915, by W. G. Chapman.)

"I want the house put in complete order," said Mr. Arnold Rayner; "you can attend to that?" "Rather," returned John Griggs, with a smile. "I've just the party in view," and he smiled again. "Everything will be done as you order, Mr. Rayner. We're too glad to have a good neighbor back with us again to neglect making the house just as homelike as possible."

"Thank you," bowed Mr. Rayner, in his grave, sedate way. "I am glad to be back among friends. You think you understand everything?"

"Perfectly," assured Griggs. "The to attic, the things moved in when they come, some energetic girl or children in case you send them on in their most tasteful positions. ahead. Very good, sir. I will hire a last detail. Good-day, sir, and welcome when you come back for good."

John Griggs stood looking speculaent, Mr. Rayner. He had not seen sister. him for eight years, and he speculated on the change in the brisk, amvillage to marry a city girl, and concerning whom he had heard little untill he appeared that day. It was to Nellie's arms, the other seated on a announce that he had decided to set. stool at her feet, while Nellie told her tle down in Blairsville again. He had a pretty fairy story. taken a lease of a house for some time vacant.

"Four of them-self, wife and two children. They can make a ple home of the old Trevor place."

"Happy as

Then the speaker smiled again, recalling the direction regarding the renovation of the house and the rest of the program. He had spoken of a "lieutenant." He left his office to see that individual forthwith.

"My! It will be just the kind of work Nellie Rogers likes," he soliloquized. "If ever there was a worker. it's Nellie. She'll be glad, too, for Mr. Rayner will pay liberally, he said."

Griggs walked down the street till he came to an old-fashioned house with an old-fashioned porch to it, and the quaintest looking old-fashioned woman seated knitting on its top step -Miss Matilda Rogers, spinster.

"Howdy," bobbed Griggs, at familiar ease with a person he had known for forty years. "I want to see your niece. "Oh, you do?" retorted Miss Matida. snappily. "Well, you won't find her

"Out somewhere tendin' children, suppose?"

"No." answered the lady tartly. "Shopping, then?"

"Her-Nellie? H'm! Not her. She's been a sore thorn in my flesh, John, and I'm nigh pestered to death about her.

"Why, I thought Nellie was the nicest, most willing little home-body ever was?"

"Too much so, and that's the matter!" declared Miss Matilda. "It's all home: it's all work hustle, bustle! That girl says that Providence has put her in the world an orphan, poor and homeless. I'm good enough to give her a shelter, she says. But she's independent, and won't be beholden to anybody. So, to show her gratitude of a well-known attorney, "I accomand willingness, from morning till panied my husband on a business trip night, she's at it. Work-work-work! | to Cleveland. As we ate our luncheon When there's nothing else to do, she'll I chanced to overhear several travelhas already scrabbed that very morp. waiter. ing. Why, she's wearing out the fire they had yesterday." "She's a jewel, that's what Nellie biscuit." is!" observed Griggs heartily. "Pity the world. Well, I've got some well- swered: paying work for her to do. You relive bere?". "Why, surely, John."

"He's come back, and has reuted the old Travor place. He's to bring his wife and family with him, and wants the house in order by Tuesday. Tell Nellie to make the palace of it she knows so well how to do, and the pay will be extra liberal." "She'll just delight in the task," said Miss Matilda. "Poor child! What a housewife she would make! Butno! no! . Work has come to me as my portion, she says, the Lord knows best, and I'm thankful I know how to keep my hands busy. As to the beaux I'm only a poor, hard-working girl, she says. 'They are after the dainty ones that wear gloves."

"How are you getting on, Nellie?" inquired Griggs, two days later, invading the domain over which Neille was queen for the time being.

"Happy as a lark, and right in my element!" chirped the dear little creature, amid her tubs, dust, rags and brooms. "My! but it was dirty. How does it look?" "You may well be proud," complimented Griggs. Floors, walls, ceilings and windows were spotless. The windows shone like the finest plate. The next day when Griggs dropped in, the garden and yard had been put in trim. The house to be cleaned up from ground next, when the furniture arrived, Nellie seemed in a state of mad bliss. She worked till midnight, never tiring of woman on hand to take charge of the getting draperies and wall ornaments

The following morning the children most trusty lieutenant to assist me arrived in an automobile. The chaufin carrying out all your orders to the feur explained that Mr. Rayner had been delayed, and would arrive that evening. Long before then, well fed, well amused, the little ones had come tively after his acquaintance and cli- to love Nellie as if she was some older

The lights were on, the supper table set when Arnold Rayner went up the bitious young man who had left the steps. He paused to peer beyond the screen door into the room where one golden-haired cherub lay asleep in

> A great tide of feeling overcame the lonely-hearted man. He seemed to stand on the threshold of comfort, peace and rest, denied his sad soul for many a year. The tears came to his eyes, but through them he saw as though in a dream, the sweet, bright face of the neatly attired girl who took as her motto, "Laborare est

"Oh, sir, you startled us!" said Nellie with embarrassment, as he suddenly opened the door. Then she glanced past him wonderingly. "Did not Mrs. Rayner come?"

"There is no Mrs. Rayner," was the subdued reply. "My wife died six years since.' When Nellie left after the evening meal, Mr. Rayner sat for a long time, gravely reflective. A cheering light seemed to have departed. Griggs came in. It was to describe his admiration of the bustling Nellie, her keen enjoyment of setting the house in order.

"She has certainly made things nomelike," said Mr. Rayner. Then ne sighed but his face expressed pleasure as Griggs praised the sterling usefulness and intelligence of the little toiler.

He came across Nellie a few days later, and lifted his hat to her as though she were the highest lady in the land. Miss Matilda got to running over to see that the children were comfortable. They cried for Nellie's company, and she, too, had to come. They were clinging to Nellie, rollicking like happy elves, one afternoon as Mr. Rayner appeared. She started to cross lots homewards. He halted her. "Nellie," he said gravely but earnestly. "you fill my home with gladness every time you come here. Won't you fill my heart as well? I need you. I want you, and—I love you." And, with a fluttering sob of great joy. Nellie nestled into his arms, feeling that heaven had been very, very kind.

A Bloodless Battle. The occasion was the regimental ball. The band was there, and tho paims and the refreshment buffet and everything was lovely. But in one corner, behind a beautiful green rampart of palms, the voung lieutenant and the colonel's daughter were trying to occupy the same chair, and were giving other evidence of the fact that their hearts had been pierced by some of Cupid's darts. Suddenly an intruder appeared-a fierce intruder in the uniformed personage of the young lady's father. Instantly the chair was abandoned, and the youthful swain stood at attention. "Sir," he said, in sharp, staccato tones, "I have the honor to report an engagement, in which I have been entirely victorious. Now, sir, it merely remains for you to give your official sanction to the terms of surrender."

Singular Gender.

"Some years ago," relates the wife scrub over the kitchen floor that she ing men jesting with the colored

"'George,' (traveling men always say Besides—the wicked waste of 'George to a colored waiter)—'this Now, having put the house in bill of fare has an item, chicken giborder, she's off to help those poor lets with biscuit.' We would like to Wharton people get in shape after the have some of that, but we want to know whether there is more than one

"George examined the menu card, there weren't a few more like her in scratched his poll, and finally an-

"'No, sub-yo' don' git only one. member Arnold Rayner, who used to De wo'd "biscuit" is singular gender, as de good book traches. So vo' all

SAVE WILLIAM PENN'S CHAIRS I

National Heirlooms, About to Fall Apart, Have Been Repaired by Blind Women,

Two quaint and graceful chairs that once belonged to William Penn have just been repaired by two women who have never seen the chairs, says the Philadelphia Ledger. The two women are inmates of the Pennsylvania Industrial Home for Blind Women. The chairs are preserved in the east room of Independence hall, on the second floor. Year by year the cane bottoms of the famous old relics have been gradually cracking and falling out. The committee in charge decided that unless the cane was replaced the woodwork might soon collapse. But they did not dare to let the chairs be taken out of Congress hall.

So they sent for Miss Ira Frost, mis tress of handicraft at the Industrial Home for Blind Women, and she brought with her to the room two of the blind women who understood chair repairing. The work was peculiarly difficult, for it was impossible to erect in Congress hall the caning table needed to hold the chairs firmly in place, and, moreover, their woodwork was soft with age. But the deft "seeing fingers" of the bling women did the work in spite of all the difficulties, and now the precious William Penn chairs are safe.

How It Happened. "It was this way," said the tattoged man to his circle of interested listeners. "I was marooned on an island in the South Pacific and captured by a band of savages. They demanded a thousand dollars for my release. I was in a terrible predicament-all my money was in a New York bank, and I hadn't a cent with me."

"What did you do?" asked one of the listeners as the tattooed man paused for breath. "I told them to draw on me, and they did.'

The Look in French Faces. Almost all the faces about these crowded tables (in the cafe at Chalons)-young or old, plain or handsome, distinguished or average-have the same look of quiet authority; it is as though all "nervosity," fussiness, little personal oddities, meanness and vulgarities, had been burned away in a great flame of self-dedication. It is a wonderful example of the rapidity with which purpose models the human countenance.—Edith Wharton in Scribner's Magazine.

Homely. "Can you give me any ideas about self." making my yard more beautiful?" "Yes. Remain in the house?"

Here is another inviolable rule: The comforts of the humblest home are

No bother to get summer

meals with these on hand Vienna Style

Sausage and Potted Meats Just open and serve. Excellent for sandwiches. Insist on Libby's at

Libby, McNeill & Libby, Chicago

ACT WAS NOT TO HIS LIKING

American Soldier Properly Resented Filipino's Insult to a Spanish Officer.

The story is told by an English naval officer who witnessed the occurrence in Manila: "As I was crossing one of the numerous bridges across the Pasig river, I saw a native Filipino spit in the face of a Spanish officer, and then run for protection to the American sentinel, who was pacing the bridge. It was some time before the Filipino could make himself understood, but when the sentry comprehended his action was very prompt indeed. He handed his gun to the Spanish officer, caught the native by the name of the neck and the seat of his trousers, and nitched him off the bridge into the Pasig river. Then he calmly took his gun from the officer, and began pacing his beat, as if notbing had happened."—Unidentified.

We Don't Believe It. "So you've moved to the country.

How do you like it?" "Great! Beats a stuffy old flat all hollow. And the best of it is, we get fresh eggs and vegetables almost as cheap as we could get them in the Nay, Nayi "I hear you are in business for your-

"No; I have a wife."

Her Objection. She-I don't mind late callers. He-Oh, thank you.

superior to those of camp life. She-It's late stayers I object to.

The Empty Bowl Tells the Story

The highest compliment that can be paid any food is to eat it heartily to the last portion.

Every day there are hundreds of thousands of such compliments paid to Post Toasties.

This wide appreciation encouraged the bettering of this delightful food. And the result is

New Post Toasties

Crisper, more appetizing and better than ever before.

The inner sweet meats of choicest Indian Corn are skilfully cooked, daintily seasoned, and toasted by a new process that brings out a wonderful "toastie" corn flavour.

These flakes do not mush down when cream or milk is added, but retain their body and crispness. They come to you ready to eat from the FRESH-SEALER, dust-proof, germ-proof package—as sweet and delicious as when they leave the ovens.

New Post Toasties

—the Superior Corn Flakes

Your groces has them now.

PRESIDENT'S NOTE AGAIN INSISTS ON SAFETY FOR AMERICANS ON SEA; STANDS FOR "HUMANITY AND LAW"

TEXT OF THE UNITED STATES NOTE IN FULL TO GERMANY

STATE DEPARTMENT

WASHINGTON, June 9, 1915. American Ambassador, Berlin:

You are instructed to deliver textually the following note to the Minister of Foreign Affairs:

in compliance with Your Excellency's request, ! did not fail to transmit to my Government immediately upon their receipt your note of May 28 in reply quick to recognize and acknowledge, out of the class to my note of May 15, and your supplementary note of June 1, setting forth the conclusions so far as reached by the Imperial German Government concerning the attacks on the American steamers Cushing and Gulflight. I am now instructed by my Government to communicate the following in reply:

The Government of the United States notes with gratification the full recognition by the imperial Ger- as a challenge or a warning, and that men, women man Government, in discussing the cases of the Cushing and Guiflight, of the principle of the freedom of all parts of the open sea to neutral ships and the frank willingness of the Imperial German Government to acknowledge adn meet its liability where the fact of attack upon neutral ships "which have not been guilty of any hostile act" by German aircraft or vessels of war is satisfactorily established; and the Government of the United States will, in due course, lay before the imperial German Government, as it requests, full information concerning the attack on the steamer Cushing.

SURPRISE AT GERMANY'S CONTENTION AS TO FALABA.

With regard to the sinking of the steamer Falaba, by which an American citizen lost his life, the Government of the United States is surprised to find the Imperial German Government contending that an effort on the part of a merchantman to escape capture and secure assistance alters the obligation of the officer seeking to make the capture in respect of the safety of the lives of those on board the merchantman, although the vessel had ceased her attempt to escape when torpedoed. These are not new circumstances. They have been in the minds of statesmen and of international jurists throughout the development of naval warfare, and the Government of the United States does not understand that they have ever been held to alter the principles of humanity upon which it has insisted. Nothing but actual forcible resistance or continued efforts to escape by flight when ordered to stop for the purpose of visit on the part of the merchantman has ever been held to forfeit the lives of her passengers or crew. The Government of the United States, however, does not understand that the Imperial German Government is seeking in this case to relieve itself of liability, but only intends to set forth the circumstances which led the commander of the submarine to allow himself to be hurried into the course which he took.

Your Excellency's note, in discussing the loss of American lives resulting from the sinking of the steamship Lusitania, adverts at some length to certain information which the Imperial German Government has received with regard to the character and outfit of that vessel, and Your Excellency expresses the fear that this information may not have been brought to the attention of the Government of the United States. It is stated in the note that the Lusitania was undoubtedly equipped with masked guns, supplied with trained gunners and special ammunition, transporting troops from Canada, carrying a cargo not permitted under the laws of the United States to a vessel also carrying passengers, and serving, in virtual effect, as an auxiliary to the naval forces of Great Britain. Fortunately these are matters concerning which the Government of the United States is in a position to give the Imperial German Government official information. Of the facts alleged in Your Excellency's note, if true, the Government of the United States would have been bound to take official cognizance in performing its recognized duty as a neutral power and in enforcing its national laws. It was its duty to see to it that the Lusitania was not armed for offensive action that she was not serving as a transport; that she did not carry a cargo prohibited by the statutes of the United States, and that. if in fact she was a naval vessel of Great Britain, she should not receive clearance as a merchantman; and it performed that duty and enforced its statutes with scrupulous vigilance through its regularly constituted officials. It is able, therefore, to assure the Imperial German Government that it has been misinformed. WILLING TO HEAR GERMANY'S EVIDENCE AS TO LUSITANIA. If the Imperial German Government should deem itself to be in possession of convincing evidence that the officials of the Government of the United States did not perform these duties with thoroughness, the Government of the United States sincerely hopes that it will submit that evidence for consideration.

Whatever may be the contentions of the Imperial German Government regarding the carriage of contraband of war on board the Lusitania, or regarding the explosion of that material by the torpedo, it need only be said that in the view of this Government these contentions are irrelevant to the question of the legality of the methods used by the German naval authorities in sinking the vessel.

But the sinking of passenger ships involves principles of humanity which throw into the background any special circumstances of detail that may be thought to affect the cases, principles which lift it, as the Imperial German Government will no doubt be of ordinary subjects of diplomatic discussion or of international controversy. Whatever be the other facts regarding the Lusitania, the principal fact is that a great steamer, primarily and chiefly a conveyance for passengers, and carrying more than a thousand souls who had no part or lot in the conduct of the war, was torpedoed and sunk without so much and children were sent to their death in circumstances unparalleled in modern warfare.

U. S. STANDS FOR THE SACRED RIGHTS OF HUMANITY.

The fact that more than one hundred American citizens were among those who perished made it the duty of the Government of the United States to speak of these things and once more, with solemn emphasis, to call the attention of the Imperial German Government to the grave responsibility which the Government of the United States conceives that it has incurred in this tragic occurrence, and to the indisputable principle upon which that responsibility rests. The Government of the United States is contending for something much greater than mere rights of property or privileges of commerce. It is contending for nothing less high and sacred than the rights of humanity, which every Government honors itself in respecting and which no Government is justified in resigning on behalf of those under its care and authority. Only her actual resistance to capture or refusal to stop when ordered to do so for the purpose visit could have afforded the commander of the submarine any justification for so much as putting the lives of those on board the ship in jeopardy. This principle the Government of the United States understands the explicit instructions issued on August 3, 1914, by the Imperial German Admiralty to its commanders at sea to have recognized and embodied, as do the naval codes of all other nations, and upon it every traveler and seaman had a right to depend. It is upon this principle of humanity, as well as upon the law founded upon this principle, that the United

WILLING TO CONVEY ANY NOTE FROM GER-MANY TO ENGLAND.

The Government of the United States is happy to observe that Your Excellency's note closes with the intimation that the Imperial German Government is willing now, as before, to accept the good offices of the United States in an attempt to come to an understanding with the Government of Great Britain by which the character and conditions of the war upon the sea may be changed. The Government of the United States would consider it a privilege thus to serve its friends and the world. It stands ready at any time to convey to either Government any intimation or suggestion the other may be willing to have it convey and cordially invites the Imperial German Government to make use of its services in this way at its convenience. The whole world is concerned in anything that may bring about even a partial accommodation of interest or in any way mitigate the terrors of the present distressing conflict.

In the meantime, whatever arrangement may happily be made between the parties to the war, and whatever may in the opinion of the Imperial German Government have been the provocation or the circumstantial justification for the past acts of its commanders at sea, the Government of the United States confidently looks to see the justice and humanity of the Government of Germany vindicated in all cases where Americans have been wronged or their rights as neutrals invaded.

The Government of the United States, therefore, very earnestly and very solemnly renews the presentations of its note transmitted to the Imperial German Government on the fifteenth of May, and relies in these representations upon the principles of humanity, the universally recognized understandings of international law, and the ancient friendship of the German nation.

STANDS ON RIGHTS OF U. S. LIVES AND PROP.

ERTY IN THE WAR ZONE. Government of the United States cannot admit that the proclamation of a war zone from which neutral ships have been warned to keep away may be made to operate as in any degree an abbreviation of the rights either of American shipmasters or of American citizens bound on lawful errands as passengers on merchant ships of belligerent nationality. It does not understand the imperial German Government to question those rights. It understands it, also, to accept as established beyond question the principle that the lives of non-combatants can not lawfully or rightfully be put in Jeopardy by the capture or destruction of an unresisting mearchantman, and to recognize the obligation to take sufficient precautions to ascertain whether a suspected merchantman is in fact of belilgerent nationality or is in fact carrying contraband of war under a neutral flag. The Government of the United States therefore deems it reasonable to expect that the Imperial German Government will adopt the measures necessary to put these principles into practise in respect of the eafequarding of American lives and American ships, and asks for assurances that this will be done.

ROBERT LANSING. Secretary of State ad Intenim.

LUSITANIA NOT ARMED

Our Own Official Reports Cited, and Germany Invited to Disprove Them if She Can

AS TO ENGLAND'S ATTITUDE

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IS ALWAYS GLAD TO SERVE ITS FRIENDS BY FACILITATING COMMUNICATION.

POLITE, PACIFIC, BUT FIRM party."

Dismisses Germany's Contentions as irrelevancies, but is Even More Conciliatory in Tone Than Note Bryan Signed.

Washington.—President Wilson has again called upon Germany for an exends to abide by the principles of international law as regards American lives and American ships.

He has asked in effect for a prompt response, and on the reply to this question will probably depend whether or not the cordial relations between the two Governments are to continue.

This demand is regarded by official Washington as the crux of the note. All other points of communication were intended to be subordinate and incidental to this.

Two Doors Left Open. Two features of the note, while in nowise modifying the demand for assurances as to the future, hold the door open to Germany for a possible alteration of her submarine pro-

One of these is the President's invitation to Germany to submit any "convincing evidence" in its possession that the United States officials failed to perfform their duties in examining the Lusitania before she sail-

The other is the President's offer to convey to Great Britain or Germany any intimation or suggestion back her skirt in acceptance of his either Government may be willing to attention. make to the other and his invitation to the Imperial German Government to make use of the services of the fat, too," he explained.—The Inde-United States in this way.

The latter proposal is in answer to the reference in the German note to the efforts already made by the United States to bring about a modification of Germany's submarine programme through obtaining Great Britain's consent to importations of food cargoes into Germany for the civilian population.

Placing of Responsibility. This effort on the part of the United States came to naught and instead of acting upon Germany's intimation that it might be renewed the President now lays upon the Kaiser and his advisers the responsibility of making any proposal to Great Britain.

Such an interchange between Great Britain and Germany has been regarded by many persons as a possible prelude to peace, but as Great Britain has already flatly rejected the efforts of the United States in this ous prostration for four years. direction no substantial results are expected here from this phase of the President's note.

The kernel of the note to Germany is found in this concluding sen-

"The Government of the United States therefore deems it reasonable to expect that the Imperial German Government will adopt the measures necessary to put these principles (those of international law) into practice in respect of the safeguarding of American lives and American ships and asks for assurances that this will Renewal of Demands.

In addition to this demand the President in effect reiterates all of cause I now like Postum better than those contained in his previous note. These included a demand for a disavowal of any intention to attack American life, reparation in so far as | nerves steady, heart all right and the reparation is possible and immediate pain all gone. Never have any more steps to prevent the recurrence of nervous chills, don't take any medisuch attacks as that on the Lusita-

These demands are not restated specifically, but they are included through this general reference to the previous note.

Not the Slightest Concession. There is not the slighest concession to Germany on the principles of law, ages. humanity and justice which this Government has invoked in all its utterances on the subject.

No communication could be more friendly in tone than this note to Germany, yet it is regarded by many here as the strongest, the most impressive of all the admittedly, remarkable papers which have come from Mr. Wilson's hand during the war.

SOLDIERS WHO WEAR VEILS

British Troops in Southwest Africa Have to Conduct Campaign Under Difficulties.

One of the hottest places where the British are fighting is in German Southwest Africa, where General Botha is in command of an expedition against the enemy. The habitable part of German Southwest Africa lies in the center of a sun-scorched, waterless, shadeless desert of shifting sand, and General Botha's men have to carry everything they need, for nothing whatever can be obtained from the country, not even fodder for the ani-

The sand penetrates everywhere, and the heat of the sun is so terrific that all the troops fighting with General Botha have been served out with veils and "goggles." Without them, indeed, it would be impossible to get along at all, and, as it is, hundreds of the Boer burghers, though hardened campaigners, have been so blistered by the sun that they are in h spital.

The heat at midday is 122 degrees in the shade and the "shade" is a sweltering tent. Many of the troops pass that time of the day with nothing on but a sun helmet and a pair of boots.

He'il Get It. "How about going to a show tonight,

"Not for me. I'm going to Jiggins'

"Oh. come on with me. The Jigginses are dead slow. You never have any fun at their house."

"I know, but I need a new hat." Substitution.

"Got a nickel cigar?" "No, but here's something just as good at a dime."—Philadelphia Public Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 80 years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trille with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Pare-Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Marcetic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Werms and allays Feverishness. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic, all Teething Troubles and Diarrhosa. It regulates the Stomach and Bowels, assimilates the Food, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

In Use For Over 30 Years

The Kind You Have Always Bought

TNAM FADELESS DYES

Color more goods brighter and faster colors than any other dye. One 10c package colors all fibers. They dye in cold water better than any other dye You can dye any garment without ripping apart. WRITE FOR FREE booklet, calendar, blotters, etc., MONROE DRUG COMPANY, Quincy, (11)

Some of Those Who Need Reforming. "How nice it would be," mordacious ly remarked J. Fuller Gloom of Snif fies, Mo., "if the village drunkard, the oldest inhabitant, the town gossip, the life of the party, the glee club, the woman who comes of a fine old family, the political wheelhorse, the natural-born humorist, the local poet, the dramatic reciter, the preacher who tries to get down to the masses, the lady who is greatly troubled over our lack of culture, and several others whom I could name, would experience a change of heart and reform!"-Kansas City Star.

Reason for His Politeness. "Shoestring's untied, ma'am," small boy called out to the stout woman who moved majestically up the street. "I'll tie it for you."

Even a less haughty woman would have found it difficult to treat with disdain so kind an offer, and she drew

The little boy pulled the string tight and smiled up at her. "My mother's pendent.

Delays Are Dangerous. "How is it that Jones always acts | Eagle. before he thinks?" "If he thought first he'd never act."

Eph Wiley says the most inharmonious combination is a street car conductor and his necktie.

> SHE QUIT But it Was a Hard Pull.

It is hard to believe that coffee will put a person in such a condition as it did an Ohio: woman. She tells her own story:

"I did not believe coffee caused my belong to the poultry union. trouble, and frequently said I liked it so well I would not, and could not quit drinking it, but I was a miserable sufferer from heart trouble and nerv-"I was scarcely able to be around had no energy and did not care for anything. Was emaciated and had a constant pain around my heart until l thought I could not endure it. "Frequently I had nervous chills and the least excitement would drive sleep away, and any little noise would upset me terribly. I was gradually getting worse until finally I asked myself what's the use of being sick all the time and buying medicine so that I could indulge myself in coffee? "So I got some Postum to help me quit. I made it strictly according to directions and I want to tell you that change was the greatest step in my life. It was easy to quit coffee be the coffee.

"One by one the old troubles left until now I am in splendid health, cine, can do all my house work and have done a great deal besides." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Wellville," in pkgs. Postum comes in two forms: Postum Cereal—the original form must be well boiled. 15c and 25c pack-

Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to

Instant Postum-a soluble powderdissolves quickly in a cup of hot water and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 20c and 50b tins. Both kinds are equally delicious and cost about the same per cup.

There's a Reason" for Postum. -sold by Grocers

Qualified. Lawyer-Have you formed any opin-

Jury Talesman-No, sir; I was or the case at the previous trial.

ECZEMAS AND RASHES

tching and Burning Soothed by Cuticura. Trial Free.

The Soap to cleanse and purify, the Ointment to soothe and heal. Relief, rest and sleep follow the use of these supercreamy emollients and indicate speedy and complete healment in most cases of young and old, even when the usual remedies have utterly failed. Sample each free by mail with Book.

Address postcard, Cuticura, Dept. XY, Boston. Sold everywhere.-Adv. Not to Blame.

A large map was spread upon the wall and the teacher was instructing the class in geography.

"Horace," she said to a small pupil, when you stand in Europe facing the north you have on your right hand the great continent of Asia. What have you on your left hand?"

'A wart replied Hor can't help it, teacher."—Brooklyn

Oh, That Lash!

Tommy had watched the high-hatted and frock-coated ringmaster for some time. He was particularly interested in the way he handled the whip with the long lash.

"Well, Tommy," said his father, what do you think of that fellow?" The whip cracked again as Tommy eplied: "I'm glad he isn't my father."

An Ohio hen recently hatched ten chicks from nine eggs. She doesn't tions when the happy couple have been married more than a week.

YOUR OWN DRUGGIST WILL TELL YOU

At sixty a man knows that he didn't know what he thought he knew at twenty.

The General says "'Cut Price' Roofing means 'Cut Price' Trying to Quality." save money by purchasing cheap roofing is pennywise foolishness.

Roofing

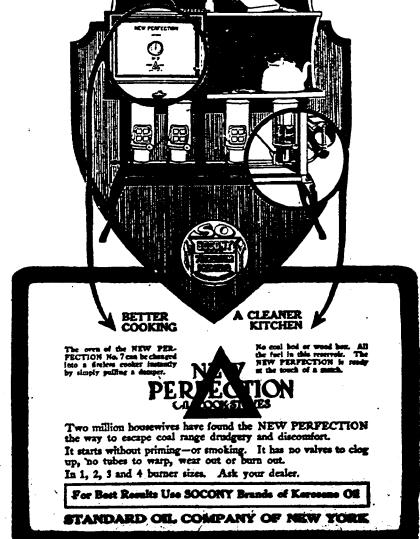

eed 5, 10 and 15 years for 1, 2 and 3 ply espectively, and this guarantee is backed the world's largest manufacturers of ro always least expensive in the end. Buy om your local dealers.

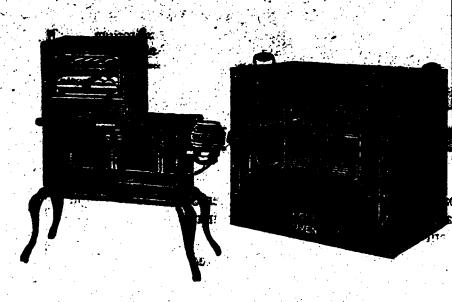

General Roofing Manufacturing Co.

Certain-teed Products

FOR SALE BY THE E. C. CHURCH CO., 3 Eddy St., Providence, P. L

W. N. U., BOSTON, NO. 25-1915.

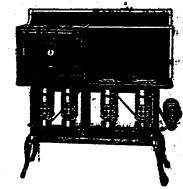

Peerless Kerosene Stove

George W. Hunt, ANTRIM, N. H.

With Fireless Cooker Oven

The last word in Oil Stoves, blue flame, combined with the most practical Fireless Cooker. Two burners for miscellaneous

Two burners under the oven, which by taking grates out of oven can be used for any desired purpose. Oven can be used as any oven if desired. Shelf over all.

New Perfection Stoves require less than half the care, bring instantly a blue flame without odor, and Do NOT Leak as do other stoves.

To Operate as Fireless—Place your roast, or other material to be cooked in the oven, light two burners, when the indicator shows sufficient heat turn both out, close slide in bottom of oven and the cooking continues till complete.

> Our Prices are Lowest Made Anywhere. We Pay Freight. Send to us for booklet and prices if you cannot call.

EMERSON & SON. MILFORD, N. H.

Unusual Sale of

House Dresses 75c and $1.00

These dresses are not the ordinary "Ready Made;" they are good full dresses made from striped and plain percale and plain chambray, attractively trimmed and worth $1.25 and $1.50. While they last, your choice for

75c and $1.00

White Dresses

For Ladies and Misses

Just opened, a handsome line of embroidered Voile Dresses and lace trimmed Voile at $3.50, $3.98, $5.00

They are such Dresses as city stores ask at least one third more for.

For Graduation

We are showing a fine line of Graduation Dresses; also materials if you prefer to have them made.

In THE REPORTER And Get Your Share of the Trade.

BENNINGTON

A Weekly News Letter of Interest

Auto to Let

For pleasure or business trips at any hour of day or night; fivepassenger Car; comfortable and eaky riding; reasonable rates.

Telephone Connection.

BERT LOWE, BENNINGTON, : : N. H.

Robert Wilson was called to Peter boro Saturday. Miss Amy Bailey and Mrs. Hattie Smith were in Hillsboro Tuesday.

Charles Burnham and wife have been visiting in Franklin and vicioity. A new monument was placed on the Carkin lot in the cemetery the

The Paper Mills are closed a week while repairs are being made in the

The Companious of the F. of A.

held a food sale yesterday afternoon in the town hall. Henry W. Wilson, Esq., bas been appointed by the State Board as the Board of Health for this town. The Antrim band gave a concert here Saturday night which was much enjoyed by a large number of our

Born in Sanford, Me., June 8, a son, John Harvey, to Mr. and Mrs. and united with Bulgaria, and it was Frank E. Fleming, and grandson to John L Fleming. Fred Mallett had the misfortune to fall out of a tree while at his work in Stoddard the past week and sustained several painful injuries although no bones were broken; he is at home the Bulgarians are daring to dream now recovering from his fall.

A surprise party was given Charles Burnham and wife last night at the ner of difficulties. Grange hall, the occasion taking the nature of a farewell party as they are soon to leave for Walden, N. Y. A good attendance of neighbors and friends gathered to assist in making the affair a success. Refreshments were served. The best wishes of a host of friends are extended to the with the sore throat plays the piano." couple whom we are sorry to have leave us.

An Effective Cough Treatment

One fourth to one teaspoonful of Dr. King's New Discovery taken as is one of the most common weeds in the Philippines. It grows from five needed will soothe and chech coughs, to eight feet high, with a stem almost colds and more dangerous bronchial woody in texture, and has long been and lung troubles. You can't afford used by the natives of the Philippines to take the risk of serious illness, when so chesp and simple a remedy parts of Kwangtung and Kwangsi as Dr. King's New Discovery is ob- provinces already distill considerable tainable. Go to your druggists today camphor from the plant, the chief get a bottle of Dr King's New Discovery and start tre treatment at once. You will be gratified for the relief and cure obtained. adv.

Subscribe for the Reporter!

Will Self

60 gal. Kerosene Tank. Wood-burning Store.

Will be sold at your own price, if aken away at once.

Apply at

REPORTER OFFICE, Aptrim. N. H.

Administratrix' Notice.

The subscriber gives notice that she has been duly appointed Administratrix of the Estate of Ann Augusta Lakin, late of Greenfield in the County of Hillsborough, deceased. All persons indebted to said Estate are requested to make payment, and all having claims to present them for adjustment.

Dated June 1st, 1915.

ANNA M. FOOTE.

ANNA M. FOOTE.

Administrator's Notice

The subscriber gives notice that he has been duly appointed Administrator of the Estate of Lizzie G. St. Sauveur, late of Antrim, in the county of Hillsborough, deceased.

All persons indebted to said Estate are requested to make payment, and all having claims to present them for adjustment.

Dated May 20, 1915.

NELSON ST. SAUVEUR

Administrator's Notice

The subscriber has been duly appointed by the Judge of Probate for the County of Hills. borough, Administrator of the estate of Jorace F. Perry, isse of Abtrim, in said lounty, deceased, intestate.

All persons having claims against the estate of said deceased are requested to uxhibit hem for adjustment, and all indebted to sake payment.

JAMES E PERKINA

Frank Kerser is employed by Chas. Thurston painting, and we understand that he has decided not to return to Walden, N. Y, at present.

James Rors has received a new car of the popular Ford make, and with Charles Taylor and Herbert Putnam is on a fi-biog trip to the Connecticut lakes, making the journey by auto.

At a meeting Tuesday evening of the Lady Anne Circle, Companions of the F of A, newly elected officers were chosen as follows:

Deputy Grand P.C C.C-Robert R.

P.C.C.C .- Mrs. Edward T. Mai-Chief Companion - Mrs. Maude

Wissel. S.C.C.-Mrs. Elizabeth Ongley. Fin. Sec - Mrs. Mary Sullivan. Rec. Sec .- Mrs. Florence Evans. Treas. - Mrs. Grace E. Knight. R. G .-- Miss Louisa Simonette. L. G.-Mrs. Etta Newhall.

Inner G .- Mrs. Sadie Sawyer. Outer G .- Mrs. Nellie French. Trustee for one year-Mrs. Nellie McGrath.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Unhappy Bulgaria. It was not until 1885 that eastern Roumelia revolted from Turkish rule not until October, 1908, that Prince Ferdinand proclaimed Bulgaria an independent kingdom. Thirty years passed after the Bulgarian war for independence before their freedom was officially recognized in Europe. Virile, laborious, thrifty, persevering, courageous, and anxious for progress, great dreams for their little country, and today, as ever, their immediate future seems to be beset by all man-

Fate's Perversity.

"One of my daughters has tonsilitis," exclaimed Mr. Growcher, "and the other sprained her wrist!' "That's hard luck."

"Yes. Nothing seems to work out the way it ought to. The girl who sprained her wrist sings and the one Camphor in the Philippines.

The bureau of science of the Philippine government is making a study of the plant known as Blumea balsamifera, known by the natives in the Philippines as "sambon" or "gabuen," which produces camphor. The shrub as well as by natives of China for medical purposes. The Chinese in drawback to the more extensive use of it being the amount of labor required to secure the gum. The bureau of forestry at Manila is introducing the ordinary camphor tree of China and Japan into the mountain districts of Luzon in large numbers for the purpose of building up future camphor production in the islands.

Mr. Museum's Office.

A senate page was whiling away the time in the statehouse corridors when he was approached by a sightseer who asked where the museum was. The accommodating page said he didn't know, but he would find out, and he led the sightseer in to a nearby office.

"Where's Mr. Museum's office?" the page asked.

The attache of the office finally got the matter straightened out and the sightseer was put on the right track.-Indianapolis News.

Pop's Understanding of It. "Say, pop," remarked little Heiny Henpeck on his return from Sunday school, "our teacher says there is no marrying or giving in marriage in heaven."

"I guess your teacher has the dope right," replied old man Henpeck with a deep sigh. "As I understand it, all is peace and quiet there."

Frank J. Boyd Antrim, N. H.

RealEstate

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE

Ng Charge Uniess Sale is Made Telephone 18-2

NORTH BRANCH

Col. B. F. Drake and wife, of Laconia, are visiting at Mrs. A. B. Cromble's for a

Mrs. S. A. Brown, of Franklin, spent the week-end at her brother's, M. P. Mollvin.

The North Branch Sunday school beld a business meeting at Mis. G. F. Lowe's. The important discussion being the forming of a Boy Scout order in the Sunday

Silas Taft's brother, of Richmond, visited with him the past week.

The regular pastor being unable to conduct the Sunday service at the chapel his place-was very kindly and ably taken by Walter Atwood, who gave a very iuteresting discourse. He very kindly gate his services for the occasion for which the Circle ladies were very grate-

Rev. W. J. B. Cannell will conduct the services next Sunday. Mrs. Richardson, who has been working for Mrs. Hiram Peabody, has re turned to her home at Clinton. Miss Stella Smith is at George Barrett's for the summer. G. W. Horne was on the sick list for several days the past week. Charles Wheeler is visiting at Hillsboro for a season. Bert Caughey and men have com-

Ernest McClure brought up the helpers for the Flint farm last week; the menced work on the state road at Clin family coming later. The Hillside has a few boarders, with more expected the middle of the week. The Sunday school was well attended, 51 being present. Much interest is being taken by the members. Mrs. W. K. Flint and children are a their home for the summer.

Warren Wheeler had a surprise party the other evening.

Most Children Have Worms

And neither parent or child know it, yet it explains why your child is nervous, pale, teverish, backward. Often children have thousands of worms Think of how dangerous this is to your child Don't take any risk. Get an original 25c box of Kickapoo Worm Killer, a candy lozenge. Kickapoo Worm Killer will postively kill and remove the Worms. Relieves constipation, regulates the stomach and bowels. Your child will grow and learn so much better.

Get a box today.

Children Cry for Flatcher's

JASTORIA

in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy.
Allow no one to deceive you in this.
All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil. Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constitution. Flatulency, Wind Colic, all Teething Troubles and Diarrhea. It regulates the Stomach and Bowels, Diarrhea. It regulates the Stomach and Bowels, assimilates the Food, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

In Use For Over 30 Years

The Kind You Have Always Bought THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY,

VE YOUR CALVES

Why throw away money by knocking them in the head or selling them for a dollar or two at birth when they can be raised or vealed WITHOUT MILK at a fraction of the cost of feeding milk. You profit both ways selling the milk and still have the calves. The Best Milk Substitute to Use is Lydes Cream Calf Meal

Raise Them Without Milk

erfection Thousands of farmers are using it and cannot say ugh for it. It is NOT a stock food—it's a complete food that experience has proved to be right for rearing calves. It long experience has proved to be right for rearing calves. It contains all the nutrition of milk prepared in the most digestible form and is sold on a money back guarantee to give results.

SOOKET MILKLESS CALVES FREE

100 lbs. equal to 100 gallens milk—Try it on your calves.

The Clinton Store

SHERWIN-WILLIAMS Pure Paint

AMILIARITY ofttimes breeds contempt, but not for

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS CO'S PURE COLORED PAINT.

Painters swear by it because it goes farther and is cheaper than any other Paste Paint in the market. Fine line of tints that are sure to please.

AINT that covers the best and wears the longest is the kind you are looking for and that is the kind we sell. We have a large variety of colors and tints and feel sure we can fill your requirements in regard to quality, quantity and price.

Give us a chance to quote you a price on your next purchase of Paint. Satisfaction guaranteed.

GEORGE O. JOSLIN BENNINGTON:: CLINTON