

The Antrim Reporter

VOLUME XXXV. NO. 43

ANTRIM, NEW HAMPSHIRE, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1918

5 CENTS A COPY

THE SOLDIER IDEA

Of the Slacker Striker is Absolutely Correct

The writer of the following letter will be remembered as a resident of Antrim not long ago, residing on the Granville Duncan place in the east part of the town. His sentiments will be favorably subscribed to by all our readers:

Writing to his sister, Mrs. Katherine Forsyth of 45 Kingsbury avenue, Bradford district, in Haverhill, Private Clarence H. Bradshaw, one of the survivors of the Tuscanis torpedoed off the coast of Ireland several months ago scorns the labor agitators who create strikes during the war and says they should be sent to the front line trenches.

Private Bradshaw is a member of the Headquarters detachment 6th battalion, 20th engineers, and has been in service in France since his sensational experience on the Tuscanis. In his letter dated France, Sept. 1, Private Bradshaw says in part:

"Tomorrow is Labor Day and I suppose it will be quite a day back there. There ought to be a lot of those labor agitators in the Boche front line trenches. That is about the only place fit for them and then they would get handed to them what they deserve.

"The last bundle of papers I received got my goat for fair. I'll bet a little later there won't be so many clamoring for strikes, when things are in full working order. These so-called patriots will find that they will either have to keep on working or put on the olive drab, with a little come down in wages and living conditions.

"I wonder how some of them would like to work 10 or 10½ hours a day at manual labor with all the military restrictions thrown in, sometimes with a nice day's work on Sunday and holiday. In some branches there is no let up at all on Sunday. In our outfit one crew is ready to take over the work when the other shift is through. The machinery is to be kept running 20 hours a day unless it is out of order. The two crews work overtime on each shift to make up time so as to have Saturday afternoon off and I think that nine out of ten are willing to call it a week's work.

"This battalion has the record for this kind of work. Fritz tried his best to keep us from getting here but we are here and are going strong. Had some pie a while ago. Maybe I didn't roll my eyes and smack my chops. Would like to be around a stove for a while. I'd bet a whole lot I'd get feeding on pies. I also had some ice cream. I didn't know but what I would be sick for a while, but I wasn't. Had the first dish on July 28. The freezer only held three quarts and there were twenty of us, so we had another freezer of lemon ice cream immediately afterwards. Some day, if I live long enough, I'm going to have a whole freezer of some kind of ice cream and one of the largest sponge cakes that can be made."

"Backward, Turn Backward"

The time to shift your clock back will be at 2 o'clock in the morning on October 27. However, it isn't necessary to wait up until that early in the morning hour to get even with time again. It is permissible to turn the clock hands at your regular retiring time because by the time you wake up in the morning they will point to the same hour they would if you stayed up until 2 a. m. There is consolation also in the thought that if you lost an hour's refreshing sleep when you pushed the hands of your clock ahead in the last day of March, you will get it back again on the 27th of this month if you are a sound sleeper.

Since the approach of October there has been much speculation as to this change and many have conceived the idea that the daylight saving period ran from March 31 to Sept. 30, although there was no such provision in the bill as passed.

The "daylight saving bill" became a law on March 16, 1918, following several months of discussion, when the house accepted the amended bill and it was signed forthwith by President Wilson, who had thoroughly believed in the measure from the outset and was simply awaiting congressional action to affix his signature and make the bill a law.

CHRISTMAS PARCELS

For Overseas Men to be Sent Before Nov. 20

Regulations governing the shipment of Christmas parcels to Army men in service overseas by relatives in this country have just been completed. Under the plan worked out every American soldier in a foreign land will be permitted to receive one package containing Christmas gifts from the United States.

The Navy Department has a separate arrangement to enable men in that branch of the service on duty abroad to obtain holiday boxes from loved ones at home.

Relatives and friends, who are planning to make Christmas for the soldiers in the war zones as merry as conditions will permit, should bear in mind that each soldier is entitled to but one of these packages. The War Department will not accept more than one parcel for each man. It is expected that approximately 2,000,000 of these packages will be sent abroad and the amount of shipping space provided for their transportation will not permit of any deviation from the "One parcel-a-man rule."

The men themselves will decide who is to send these parcels. They are now receiving Christmas parcel labels, with instructions to mail these labels to the person in this country from whom they wish to receive the holiday box. To avoid any chance of duplication, each soldier gets but one of these labels. Packages that do not bear these labels will not be accepted. In the event of this label being lost it cannot be replaced. No Christmas parcels will be accepted for shipment after Nov. 20. The cardboard boxes, or cartons, to be provided for these parcels are 8x4x9 inches in size. When packed, wrapped and ready for mailing these boxes must not weigh more than three pounds.

The American Red Cross has agreed to provide these cardboard boxes and to supervise their distribution to relatives of the soldiers who present the proper Christmas parcel label credential. The distribution of the cartons will be made by Red Cross branches throughout the country. It will be incumbent upon the person receiving one of these boxes to return it when filled, but unwrapped, to the collection point designated by the Red Cross. Here it will be inspected by Red Cross inspectors authorized to exclude any articles barred by the postal authorities, after which the box will be shipped.

On receiving one of these Christmas parcel labels it should be presented at the nearest chapter, branch or auxiliary headquarters of the Red Cross, where the holder will receive a carton. These labels are not expected to reach this country before Nov. 1, but by that time each Red Cross branch will have its allotment of boxes based on the number of soldiers in service overseas from that community.

These boxes may be filled with any combination of articles, except those on the list barred by the postal officials. The articles prohibited are all intoxicating liquors, all inflammable material, including friction matches and any composition likely to ignite or explode (cigarette lighters come under this classification), liquids and fragile articles improperly packed. Under the postal regulations no note or message or written matter of any kind will be permitted to remain in the boxes.

Do not put anything in the package which will not keep fresh until Christmas.

Pack dried fruits and other food products in small tin or wooden boxes.

Give preference to hard candy over chocolates, unless the latter are enclosed in heavy wrappers. Soft chocolates are easily crushed and may spoil the other contents.

Do not put articles packed in glass in the package.

Gifts should be wrapped in khaki-colored handkerchiefs 27 inches square.

When the package has been packed it should be taken, unwrapped and unsealed, together with the label and sufficient stamps, to the nearest collection center designated by the Red Cross. After the package has passed the inspection of the Red Cross representatives, as to contents and weight, and been wrapped in stout paper, the Christmas label bearing the address of the man for whom it is intended, is

N. H. COLLEGE OPEN

Dates Announced After an Enforced Delay

New Hampshire College, Durham, N. H., New Hampshire College will open its doors to male students the first of this week. Monday, October 7 and Tuesday, October 8 have been set as registration days for men. The women probably will be called for registration Tuesday, October 15.

This decision has been reached after careful consideration of the health conditions in the Military Camp. Reports reaching President Hetzel today indicate that the infirmaries will release practically all of the men by the end of the present week. In receiving the new men every precaution will be taken to isolate, immediately upon arrival, any who show symptoms of grippe. In this way the medical authorities believe that they can prevent any further serious outbreak.

The first three days of the week will be given over to registration, physical examinations and the preparation of applicants for induction into the Students' Army Training Corps. Formal induction ceremonies will be held at noon, Thursday, October 10. The men will be placed under military regulations upon arriving at Durham. Military officers will meet incoming trains and pilot the recruits to the barracks where they will be assigned quarters and given further instructions. The new mess hall has been completed so that the college is ready to feed a thousand men at a time.

The New Hampshire College Training Camp will have a regular Y. M. C. A. Hut. Assurance to this effect from the officials of the Y. M. C. A. War Organization reached President Hetzel this morning. The Hut will be the regular cantonment type with provision for class rooms, offices and an assembly hall. It will cost in the neighborhood of $8,000.00 and will be located near the Men's Gymnasium.

What the Y. W. C. A. Does

The grange, churches, women's clubs, and the press are rallying to the assistance of the Y. W. C. A. and helping to "carry thru" pioneer work undertaken in an educational way in New Hampshire. In many cities and towns meetings are being arranged and requests for speakers are filed daily with Mrs. F. L. V. Spaulding, of Manchester, Director of the Speakers Bureau.

Everything indicates that when the united war work campaign swings into line in November, that no one in the Old Granite State will be in the dark as to what the blue triangle stands for or will fail to know that the Y. W. C. A. slogan is "Serving at Our Country's Call".

The Y. W. C. A. is asking for $15,000,000 of the $170,500,000, the minimum budget which the seven organizations will drive for but whatever the amount raised through united effort 80 percent will be the Y. W. C. A. portion.

The work of the Y. W. C. A. is individual in that it looks after the interests of the women in this country and in Europe, especially those engaged in war industries. In other words it is doing for women what other organizations are doing for men.

A very special work undertaken since the beginning of the war was the opening of 30 centers where forlorn-tongued women find friends at all times. Multitudes of the foreign born women, ignorant not only of the language of this country but also of its laws and customs are left helpless when their men are summoned to service. To meet this situation the Y. W. C. A. has placed interpreters in the camps, sent others to visit women in their homes, and has translated into 23 languages bulletins on food and labor laws, insurance and the care of children.

placed on it. The person sending the package, in the presence of the Red Cross worker, is required to affix stamps sufficient to carry it to Hoboken, N. J. The postal charges are to be at the rate of fourth-class or parcel post zone rate. A label certifying that the inspection has been completed by the Red Cross is placed on the package, which is left in the custody of the Red Cross until delivered to the postal authorities.

DONALD M. PAIGE

Dies of the Dreaded Influenza-Pneumonia

The community was shocked when it learned Tuesday morning of the death of Donald M. Paige, in Springfield, Mass., of pneumonia following influenza. He had been in that city but a short time, being employed in the railway mail service. When his illness became known a few days ago his father, Morton Paige, went to him at once to render such aid as he might need. All who learned of his illness sincerely hoped for his quick recovery, for he was a general favorite among all our people, especially the younger portion of the place, where he had always resided; everybody knew him to be one of the best young men in town. His general health was always good, making this sad announcement very much more of a shock than it otherwise would have been.

Deceased was son of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Paige, born here 20 years ago last March, and leaves two sisters and two brothers.

Remains will be brought here and funeral on Thursday afternoon.

Strong Evidence

Is the Statement of this Keene Woman

Backache is often kidney ache; A common warning of serious kidney ills.

"A stitch in time saves nine"—Don't delay—use Doan's Kidney Pills.

Profit by this nearby resident's experience.

Mrs. W. D. Britton, 75 Davis St., Keene, N. H., says: "I suffered for a long time from kidney trouble and my back became painful and at times felt as though it were broken. My feet and ankles swelled and there were other distressing symptoms of kidney complaint. As others of my family had been helped by Doan's Kidney Pills, I decided to give them a trial. I felt relief after taking the first box. Since then, Doan's have helped me in every way and have done me more good than anything else I have ever used."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Britton had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

George Woodward has removed his family and household goods to Milford, where he has employment.

Forward!

With no thought of bursting shrapnel and poisonous gases into which they plunge—with every muscle tense, with every faculty of mind alert, with one thought only—TO FIGHT AND WIN.

That is the way our men are going into battle. When the shrill whistle sounds the advance, out they go—their whole heart in the task before them. No power on earth can hold them back.

Forward!

The same sharp challenge to battle is sounding for us. We must answer in the same proud way—the way of our fighting men—the American way. We must lend the way they fight.

We must show the war-maddened Hun a united American people moving forward shoulder to shoulder, irresistibly, to Victory.

Our task is to supply the money, the ships, the guns, the shells that we must have to win. It is a tremendous task. We must do it as our fighting men do theirs—with the indomitable spirit of Victory.

We must work, and save, and lend with one thought only—TO FIGHT AND WIN.

Get into the fight—with your whole heart. Buy Bonds—to the utmost!

This Space Contributed by Swift & Company

Cram's Store

To My Customers:

BEGINNING NOVEMBER 1st, 1918,

I shall discontinue all charge accounts. Anything purchased on and after that date must absolutely be paid for when purchased or delivered. There will be no exception to this rule.

All accounts due me November 1st, 1918, must be settled not later than November 20th, 1918. All accounts not settled by November 20, will positively be turned over to my attorney for collection.

The change in Wholesalers' Terms makes this action necessary.

WILLIAM E. CRAM.

W. E. CRAM

Odd Fellows Block Store,
ANTRIM, New Hamp.

HARNESSES

—AND—

Harness Repair Work

OF ALL KINDS

At the Harness Shop

S. M. TARBELL, Antrim

Telephone 18-21 North Main Street

Call and See Our

ROUND OAK

PARLOR STOVES

Glenwood Ranges and
Wood Parlor Stoves

George W. Hunt

ANTRIM N. H.

Carolyn of the Corners

BY RUTH BELMORE ENDICOTT

Copyright, 1914, by Duff, Wood & Company, Inc.

CAROLYN CANNOT FACE PROSPECT OF LOSING HER ONLY FRIEND AND COMPANION.

Synopsis.—Her father and mother reported lost at sea when the Dunraven, on which they had sailed for Europe, was sunk. Carolyn May Cameron—Hannah's Carolyn—is sent from New York to her bachelor uncle, Joseph Stagg, at the Corners. The reception given her by her uncle is not very enthusiastic. Carolyn is also chilled by the stern demeanor of Aunt Rose, Uncle Joe's housekeeper. Stagg is dismayed when he learns from a lawyer friend of his brother-in-law that Carolyn has been left practically penniless and consigned to his care as guardian. Carolyn learns of the estrangement between her uncle and his one-time sweetheart, Amanda Parlow, and the cause of the bitterness between the two families.

CHAPTER V.—Continued.

The mole in question lived under a piece of rock wall near the garden fence.

When Uncle Joe came home to dinner on one particular Saturday he walked down to the corner of the garden fence, and there saw the havoc Prince had wrought. In following the line of the mole's last tunnel he had worked his way under the picket fence and had torn up two currant bushes and done some damage in the strawberry patch.

"And the worst of it is," grumbled the hardware dealer, "he never caught the mole. That mongrel really isn't worth a bag of donkeys to sink him in the brook. But that's what he's going to get this very evening when I come home. I won't stand for him a day longer."

Carolyn May positively turned pale as she crouched beside the now chained-up Prince, both arms about his rough neck. He licked her cheek. Fortunately, he could not understand everything that was said to him, therefore the pronouncement of this terrible sentence did not agitate him an atom.

Carolyn May sat for a long time under the tree beside the sleeping dog and thought how different this life at The Corners was from that she had lived with her father and mother in the city home.

Only that big ship, the Dunraven, had not sailed away with her papa and her mamma!

Carolyn May had been very brave on that occasion. She had gone ashore with Mrs. Price and Edna after her mother's last clinging embrace and her father's husky "Good-by, daughter," with scarcely a tear.

Of course she had been brave! Mamma would return in a few weeks, and then, after a time, papa would likewise come back—and oh! so cosy and stout!

And then, in two weeks, came the fatal news of the sinking of the Dunraven and the loss of all but a small part of her crew and passengers.

Vaguely these facts had become known to Carolyn May. She never spoke of them. They did not seem real to the little girl.

But now, sitting beside the condemned Prince—her companion and only real comforter during these weeks of her orphanhood—the little girl felt bitterly her loneliness and grief.

The Little Girl Felt Bitterly Her Loneliness and Grief.

If Uncle Joe did as he had threatened, what should she do? There seemed to be no place for her and Prince to run away to.

"I'm quite sure I don't want to live," thought Carolyn May dimly. "If papa and mamma and Prince are all dead—why! there aren't enough other folks left in the world to make it worth while living in. I don't believe. If Prince isn't going to be alive, then I don't want to be alive, either."

By and by Prince began to get very uneasy. It was long past his dinner hour, and every time he heard the screen door slam he jumped up and gazed eagerly and with cocked ears and wagging tail in that direction.

"You poor thing, you," said Carolyn drowned—ed," Carolyn May sobbed. "I'd want to be drowned—ed myself, too."

"I know, dear. But do you really believe your Uncle Joseph would do such a thing? Would he drown your dog?"

"I—I saw him putting the stones in the bag," sobbed Carolyn May. "And he said he would."

"But he said it when he was angry, dear. We often say things when we are angry—more's the pity—which we do not mean, and for which we are bitterly sorry afterwards. I am sure, Carolyn May, that your Uncle Joe has no intention of drowning your dog."

"Oh, Miss Amanda! Are you positive?"

"Positive! I know Joseph Stagg. He was never yet cruel to any dumb creature. Go ask him yourself, Carolyn May. Whatever else he may be, he is not a hater of helpless and dumb animals."

"Miss Amanda," cried Carolyn May, with clasped hands, "you—you are just lifting an awful big lump off my heart! I'll run and ask him right away."

She raced with the barking Prince back to the Stagg premises. Mr. Stagg

With Her Arms About the Little Girl, Miss Amanda Snuggled Her Up Close.

had just finished filling in with the stones the trench Prince had dug under the garden fence.

"There," he grunted. "That datted dog won't dig this hole any bigger, I reckon. What's the matter with you, Carolyn?"

"Are—are you going to drown'd Princey, Uncle Joe? If—if you do, it just seems to me, I—I shall die!"

He looked up at her searchingly.

"Humph! Is that mongrel so all-important to your happiness that you want to die if he does?" demanded the man.

"Yes, Uncle Joe."

"Humph!" ejaculated the hardware dealer again. "I believe you think more of that dog than you do of me."

"Yes, Uncle Joe."

The frank answer hit Mr. Stagg harder than he would have cared to acknowledge.

"Why?" he queried.

"Because Prince never said a word to hurt me in his life!" said Carolyn May, sobbing.

The man was silenced. He felt in his inmost heart that he had been judged.

CHAPTER VI.

Prince Awakens The Corners. Camp-meeting time was over, and the church at The Corners was to open for its regular Sunday services.

"Both Satan and the parson have had a vacation," said Mr. Stagg, "and now they can tackle each other again and see which'll get the strange hold 'twixt now and revival time."

"You should not say such things, especially before the child, Joseph Stagg," admonished Aunt Rose.

Carolyn May, however, seemed not to have heard Uncle Joe's pessimistic remark; she was too greatly excited by the prospect of Sunday school. And the very next week-day school would begin!

By this first week in September the little girl was quite settled in her new home at The Corners. Prince was still a doubtful addition to the family, but Uncle Joe and Aunt Rose plainly harbored misgivings about him. But in regard to the little girl herself, the hardware merchant and the housekeeper were of one opinion, even though they did not admit it to each other.

Prince proves himself a real canine hero and makes himself "solid" with all the people at the Corners. His exploit is described in the next installment.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

An order for 240,000 pairs of knee-length rubber boots for the French army has been placed with American manufacturers.

SPREAD OF WEED SEED ON FARMS

Farmers Should Ever Be on the Alert for Appearance of New Pernicious Plants.

INTRODUCED IN MANY WAYS

Important Point Regarding Control is to Destroy All Weeds Before They Have Gained Headway and Prevent Spread.

From the United States Department of Agriculture.

No matter how careful a man may be in preventing weeds from growing on his land, most of his weeds will be brought to him from the outside. Another important point regarding weed control is to destroy pernicious weeds before they have gained sufficient headway to do serious damage. Farmers should ever be on the alert for the appearance of new weeds which are being introduced and for old weeds which are developing noxious tendencies. When a plant shows any tendency toward becoming a troublesome weed it should be called to the attention of someone in authority and every effort made to keep it under control.

Weeds may be brought to the farm in various ways. The principal source of introduction is through seeds.

Introducing Weed Seed in Crop Seeds.

Many of the purchased grain, clover and grass seeds contain weed seeds as impurities. How can the farmer purchase clean seed? In no permanent way will the quality of seed offered for sale be greatly improved except by greater knowledge and alertness on the part of the consumer. First, the farmer should know what constitutes good seed; second, he should know fairly closely what high-grade seed is worth; and, third, he should be willing to pay a fair price for it. Laziness on one or more of these points is responsible for most of the farmer's trouble over poor seeds. Seedsmen say that they are forced to carry poor seeds in stock because many farmers will not pay for the better grades. Cheap seeds are really the most expensive kind that can be purchased.

In improving his knowledge of what constitutes good seeds, the farmer will find the advice of the state agricultural experiment stations and the United States department of agriculture of great assistance. These institutions gladly test samples of seeds for farmers free of charge. That test will show whether there are any weed seeds or other impurities present and the percentage of germination of the crop seed. In purchasing seed of alfalfa and clover the most important point to consider is the presence of dodder seed. Clover seed should also be examined for seeds of the plantains.

Introducing Weed Seeds in Stock Feeds.

Some kinds of stock feed are free of weed seeds, while others are not. Cottonseed meal, oil meal, brewers' and distillers' grains, corn bran, middlings and the gluten feeds are practically free of weed seeds; but molasses feeds, oat chop, wheat bran and the mixed feeds are apt to contain more or less seeds of various weeds. This is especially true of that class of mixed feeds made from mill by-products, for the reason that such by-products are partly composed of screenings. These screenings contain weed seeds resulting from the cleaning of grain. Some firms grind or heat the screenings that go into mixed feeds, and in such cases the percentage of live weed seed is very low.

Characteristic Root Growth of Canada Thistle, a Permanent Weed.

Introducing Weed Seeds in Manure.

Nearly all purchased manure is full of weed seeds. If it is hauled to the farm when fresh many thousands of weed seeds are introduced, so that the farmer is storing up future trouble for himself. As this manure usually has to be removed from the town in the fresh state, the only chance to compost it in order to make the weed seeds rot is after it reaches the farm. It has been found that the weed seeds in manure piles rot quickly under ordinary conditions, so that practically all of them have lost their vitality in two months. Whether the farmer should compost city manure by leaving it in piles after he has drawn it to his farm is questionable.

Don't Starve the Bees. Those having bees are warned by the government against taking out too much of the honey.

PORK CAN BE GROWN AND CURED AT HOME

Custom of Farmers in Purchasing Meats Is on Increase.

Little Difficulty Experienced in Establishing Trade with Country Article—Good Flavor Is Most Desirable.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Too many farmers buy a part or all of their supply of meat from local stores and butchers. Meat, especially pork, can be grown and cured at home for much less than the cost of the purchased meat, to say nothing of a ready market for good country-cured hams, shoulders and sides. In spite of this the custom of farmers purchasing cured meats is increasing. It may not be practicable for every farmer to butcher and cure his own meat, but in nearly every community a few farmers could do this and make good profits. Farmers who sell country-cured meats have experienced very little difficulty in establishing a permanent trade. To accomplish this one must understand the kind of cured meat his trade demands, and also how it is made. Country-cured meat often carries too much fat and undesirable odors, and it is generally too salty. A well-marbled, juicy, savory piece of meat showing the proper admixture of fat and lean and possessing a good flavor is the kind the consumer desires.

In selecting hogs for butchering, health should have first consideration. Even though the hog has been properly fed and carries a prime finish, the best quality of meat cannot be obtained if the animal is unhealthy; there is always some danger that disease may be transmitted to the person who eats the meat. The keeping quality of the meat is always impaired by fever or other derangements.

Convenient Arrangement for Scalding.

A hog in medium condition, gaining rapidly in weight, yields the best quality of meat. Do not kill a hog that is losing flesh. A reasonable amount of fat gives juiciness and flavor to the meat, but large amounts of fat are not essential.

The breeding of animals plays an important part in producing a carcass of high quality. Selection, long continued care and intelligent feeding will produce meat of desirable quality. The smooth, even and deeply fleshed hogs will yield the nicely marbled meat.

The meat from very young hogs lacks flavor and is watery. Old meat is generally very tough. The meat of old hogs can be improved, however, if they are properly fattened before slaughter. Hogs can be killed for meat any time after eight weeks, but the most profitable age at which to slaughter is eight to twelve months.

Hogs intended for slaughter should remain unfed for at least 24 hours, or better, 30 hours. Give them all the clean, fresh water they will drink. This will help to clear the system of food and will facilitate bleeding. Do not excite or whip a hog before killing. An excited hog never makes a good carcass, and whipping causes bruised hams, which are not fit to cure. An injured hog may be used for food provided it is bled immediately.

It is essential to have the proper equipment for rapid and skillful work at killing time. An eight-inch straight sticking knife, a cutting knife, a 14-inch steel, a hog hook, a bell-shaped stick scraper, a gambrel and a meat saw. More than one of each of these tools may be necessary if many hogs are to be slaughtered and handled to best advantage. A barrel is a very convenient receptacle in which to scald hogs. The barrel should be placed at an angle of about 45 degrees at the end of a table or platform of proper height. The table and barrel should be securely fastened to prevent accident to the workmen due to slipping. A block and tackle will reduce labor. All the tools and apparatus should be in readiness before beginning.

Early Plowing Is Desirable. Every acre of land turned before the fall and winter rains will be an acre more for producing the bread and meat supply next year. Feed and food are in great demand. Deep and early plowing is highly desirable.

Have Your Cows Tested. If you haven't time to test your own cows, better get it done for you by joining a cow-testing association.

PERUNA

Made Me a Well Man

Mr. Louis Young, 205 Merriman St., Rochester, N. Y., writes: "I suffered for thirty years with chronic bowel trouble, constipation and hemorrhages of the bowels. I bought a bottle of Peruna and took it faithfully, and I began to feel better. My wife persuaded me to continue, and I took it the same time as directed. Now I am a well man."

Suffered thirty years with stomach trouble and hemorrhages of the bowels.

Liquid or Tablet Form

As Age Advances the Liver Requires

occasional slight stimulation. CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS correct CONSTIPATION

Small Pill, Small Dose, Small Price But Great in Good Work

Colorless or Pale Faces usually indicate the absence of iron in the blood, a condition which will be greatly helped by Carter's Iron Pills

Colorless or Pale Faces usually indicate the absence of iron in the blood, a condition which will be greatly helped by Carter's Iron Pills

Heartburn, Belching, Indigestion, Food Repeating and Nearly All Kinds of Bodily Miseries

The first sign of stomach misery usually comes after over-eating. The doctors call it "superacidity." The people say—"sour stomach."

Millions of people who have lost their ambition, energy, courage, vitality and strength—who are weak, pale and listless—who go through life just dragging one foot after another—tired and worn out nearly all the time—nervous, irritable, subject to severe headache, insomnia and a long train of physical ailments—would be surprised, yes, dumbfounded, to learn that it is just an acid-stomach that is causing them all their misery. Yet in nearly nine cases out of ten that is just where the trouble starts.

Now a sour, acid-stomach, or "superacidity", of course, simply means too much acid in the stomach. You can now quickly rid your stomach of its excess acid. A wonderful modern remedy called EATONIC literally wipes it out. It does the work easily, quickly and thoroughly. It makes the stomach pure, sweet, cool and comfortable. It restores your strength, and you get full strength from now on you cannot enjoy robust, vigorous health.

EATONIC is in tablet form. They are pleasant to take—just like a bit of candy—and are absolutely harmless. Take EATONIC and you will feel great. You will wonder how you ever got on without it. See how quickly EATONIC restores your health—your appetite, your energy, your strength, your vitality, your courage, your ambition, your strength, your vitality and courage. You will be surprised, yes, dumbfounded, to learn that it is just an acid-stomach that is causing them all their misery. Yet in nearly nine cases out of ten that is just where the trouble starts.

Now a sour, acid-stomach, or "superacidity", of course, simply means too much acid in the stomach. You can now quickly rid your stomach of its excess acid. A wonderful modern remedy called EATONIC literally wipes it out. It does the work easily, quickly and thoroughly. It makes the stomach pure, sweet, cool and comfortable. It restores your strength, and you get full strength from now on you cannot enjoy robust, vigorous health.

So get a big box of EATONIC from your drug store. He is authorized to guarantee EATONIC to give you and your family relief in any way, take it back. We will refund your money. If your druggist does not keep EATONIC write us direct and we will send you a big box and process and mail the return free. Address: E. L. K. Co., 1015 Wabash Ave., Chicago.

After the War. "Mr. Brown, there's a man I'd like to have you meet—Mr. Passbuck."

"H'm—Mr. Passbuck, glad to know ya! Let's see—Passbuck, Passbuck? Name's awfully familiar. Weren't you down at Jenesasippas in the spring of 1918?"

"Yes."

"And weren't you third assistant deputy quartermaster down there?"

"Yes; why? Were you there, too?"

"For a while. And I also remember some conversation with a young lieutenant who was trying to palm off a ton of condemned hardtack on my poor overworked and eatless outfit."

"He didn't know it was condemned at the time, sir, honestly, he didn't!"

"I remember I told that young squirt to go to hell."

"You did, sir, and with all the variations. But he hasn't gone yet!"

"So I see. Well, let's forget it. What is it you want to sell me now?"—Stars and Stripes.

Disappointed Artist. "Smell anything, grandmother?" asked the youngster who was lying on the floor drawing.

Grandmother assured him she did not.

The young artist gave a few finishing touches and repeated his question. Grandmother sniffed the air, and again declared she smelled nothing.

"Well," said the boy, "you ought to. I have just drawn a stunk!"

Didn't Understand. "Mr. Smith's boy got the croix de guerre." "I always knew that lad would come to grief."

Important to Mothers. Examine carefully every bottle of CASTORIA, that famous old remedy for infants and children, and see that it bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher. In Use for Over 30 Years. Children Cry for Fletcher's Castoria

The Fountain of Youth. Knicker—A man is as old as he looks. Bocker—As old as he looks in uniform.—New York Sun.

What this world needs isn't altogether better leaders. Better followers would help a lot.

Children should be seen and not heard, but the Kaiser's six should neither be seen nor heard.

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

Get under the Shower of Gold

coming to farmers from the rich wheat fields of Western Canada. Where you can buy good farms land at $15 to $20 per acre and raise from 20 to 45 bushels of wheat to the acre it's easy to make money. Canada offers in her provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta 160 Acre Homesteads Free to Settlers and other land at very low prices. Thousands of farmers from the U. S. or their sons are yearly taking advantage of this great opportunity. Wonderful yields also of oats, barley and flax. Good farming is fully as profitable an industry as grain raising. Good schools; markets convenient; climate excellent. Write for literature and particulars as to reduced railway rates to Supt. Immigration, Ottawa, Canada, or to

Miss A. Beatty, 75 Dundas St. West, Toronto, Ont. or J. E. L. Co., 1015 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill. Canadian Government Agents

RIDLON'S SHOE STORE
Baker's Block HILLSBORO

BUY
LIBERTY
BONDS!

A. G. RIDLON

RIDLON'S SHOE STORE

The Cash Shoe Store Hillsboro
Tel. 36-12

NEW SUMMER DRESS GOODS

Children's Ready-to-Wear
Dresses in Pretty Gingham and Plain White

HOUSE DRESSES BUTTERICK PATTERNS
ROMPERS THE DELINEATOR

Miss S. E. Lane & Co.
TOWN HALL BLOCK ANTRIM, N. H.

Information Wanted

I want to know the name of everybody who has goods in my line to dispose of for a CASH price.

Rags, Antiques, Rubbers, Metals and Automobiles.
Drop me a postal.

MAX ISREAL, Henniker, N. H.

FOR SALE!

BUSHEL BOXES

FOR APPLES. Have some in stock, or will make them on orders. Inquire of

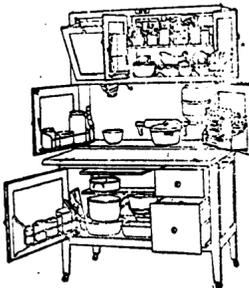

G. H. CAUGHEY, Antrim.

A Message to Women

OF ANTRIM AND VICINITY:

You housewives belong to America's biggest industry—20,000,000 kitchens with 24,000,000 women working in them to prepare the nation's meals each day. Yet most of you women have fewer labor saving conveniences than men. Why is it?

A KITCHEN CABINET
Saves Steps, Time, and
Prevents Waste Every
Day in the Year.

Easy Terms and Low
Prices Puts the Hoosier
Within Your Reach

EMERSON & SON, Milford

The Antrim Reporter

Published Every Wednesday
Subscription Price, $2.50 per year
Advertising Rates on Application
H. W. ELDRIDGE, Publisher
E. B. ELDRIDGE, Assistant
Wednesday, Oct. 9, 1918
Long Distance Telephone
Notices of Deaths, Lectures, Engagements, etc., to which an obituary fee is charged, or from which a fee is derived, must be paid for as advertisements by the lines.
Cards of Thanks are inserted at 50c each.
Resolutions of ordinary length $1.00.
Obituary poetry and lists of flowers charged for at advertising rates; also will be charged at this same rate list of presents at a wedding.
Entered at the Post-office at Antrim, N. H., as second-class matter.

"It Stands Between Humanity and Oppression!"

Antrim Locals

"FIGHTING FOURTH" LIBERTY LOAN

Begins SEPTEMBER 28th
Get ready; save to buy; buy early

LOST—Bunch of keys; please leave at Reporter office and receive reward.

Mrs. Lewis D. Hatch has been confined to her home for a few days with the prevailing distemper.

George Darrah and Ben Clement, from Manchester, were week end guests of Mrs. Isabelle Clement.

Beginning this week, N. J. Morse will close his barber shop every Thursday afternoon at 6 o'clock.

FOR SALE—Motor Cycle, with side car attachment. Apply to G. W. Lincoln, Hillsboro, N. H.

James Ashford has gone to Portsmouth to work in the Newington ship yards, where he has employment.

J. Morris Cutter was restricted to his home most of last week caring for one of those very hard grippe colds.

Miss Mildred Cram has been sick in bed for a week past with the influenza, but is improving slowly at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Davis and son, from Reading, Mass., have been spending a week at Kamp Kill Kare, at Gregg Lake.

Donald Cram and Donald Madden went to Durham Monday morning to report for studies at the New Hampshire State College.

Archie Perkins and Lieut. William H. Hurlin were at their homes here from Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass., a few hours on Sunday.

FOR SALE—20 acres wood land, situated about one mile from Elmwood Junction. For particulars inquire of Mrs. A. M. Pollard, Keene, N. H.

We are told that Ralph G. Hurlin has been made a captain in the statistical department at Washington, having been promoted from lieutenant.

Robert J. Abbott has entered Loomis Sanatorium, Loomis, Sullivan County, New York, for treatment; he was accompanied to New York State by his mother, Mrs. C. M. Abbott.

Mrs. O. E. Kendall, of Belth, Ontario, was a visitor in town last week among friends; she will be remembered as the wife of Rev. O. E. Kendall, a former pastor of the Antrim Baptist church.

E. V. Goodwin and family were on an auto trip to Claremont and Newport a portion of last week, visiting relatives and friends. Fred Raleigh attended store during Mr. Goodwin's absence.

Walter F. Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucius E. Parker of this place, has been commissioned 2d lieutenant in the machine gun company, at Camp Hancock, Georgia, and for the present will be retained there as instructor.

A few of our prominent Odd Fellows were planning on going to Manchester this week to attend the annual sessions of the Grand Lodge, but all these meetings have been postponed till some future date, due notice of which will be given.

News reached Antrim relatives Sunday that Mrs. A. M. Markey died that morning; she will be remembered as a resident of this town when her husband, Rev. A. M. Markey, was pastor of the Methodist church here. Mrs. Frank Poor is a daughter.

Antrim Locals

STOP THESE CASUALTY LISTS—QUICKLY.

The Men and Money of America will help do it.
Buy LIBERTY BONDS! Buy them EARLY—Buy often. Buy to the limit of your pocket money. Remember the history that will bring our boys home.
Don't think about the money—that will all come back to you with interest. Think about the brave young Americans who are fighting and suffering and dying "over there" for Liberty.

Mrs. E. D. Hatch is suffering from a severe case of bronchitis.

Col. R. C. Goodell has been on a business trip to Washington, D. C.

John B. Johnson, of Portsmouth, owner of Carter House, is in town today.

Miss Gladys Colby is confined to her home by illness—the prevailing distemper.

Mrs. Arthur Whipple has been sick with influenza at St. Joseph's Hospital in Nashua.

The D. A. R. entertainment advertised for Oct. 18 has been postponed for the present.

Frank Reed had been spending a few days of the past week with relatives in Boston and vicinity.

Paul F. Paige has been transferred to Princeton, N. J., where he will be given additional training.

Mrs. Vester Cleveland, from Irasburg, Vt., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Allen.

FOR RENT—Cottage on West street. For further information apply to Mrs. Nellie Munhall, Peterboro, N. H.

Mrs. W. Nelson Davis, of Falmouth, Mass., was the recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence, at Upland Terrace.

During the epidemic, all office work will be discontinued except emergency cases.

E. G. Dearborn.

Diamond A. Maxwell, a merchant marine, is stationed on a tug boat on the Cape Cod Canal. His address is Sandwich, Mass.

The Clinton Store has an interesting announcement to its patrons, and the public generally, in its advertising space in today's Reporter.

The regular Mission Circle meeting which was to have been held this week at the Presbyterian church has been postponed till next month, and the annual harvest supper, usually held, will not be given this year.

H. Burr Eldredge, who has spent the past fourteen months at Camp McClellan, in Anniston, Alabama, in the medical department connected with the base hospital, has been transferred to the Quartermaster's Corps and is now at Camp Joseph Johnston, Jacksonville, Florida, attending an officers training school.

Robert W. Jameson, former chairman of Antrim public safety committee, and a hard worker in all war activities, left town Tuesday for a voyage overseas; he has volunteered for Red Cross work, has been accepted, and already started on his journey to France. Mrs. Jameson and daughter, Isabel, will live at the Maplehurst for the winter, as their very pleasant home, the Highlands, is closed.

Save for Gas Masks

We want to remind everyone of the need of

- saving all
- Peach stones
- Apricot pits
- Prune pits
- Plum pits
- Olive pits
- Date pits
- Native Cherry pits
- Brazil nut shells
- Hickory nut shells
- Butternut shells
- Walnut shells

Even if you have only a few, save them and when possible, dry them before putting into the receptacles which are placed outside Cram's Store and the Fruit Store and Joslin's Store at Clinton. These shells and pits can be put in the same receptacle.

Fair Dates Cancelled

Owing to the presence of so much sickness throughout this section, as in every other section of the state, it was thought wise by the management to cancel the dates for the Hillsboro County Fair at Greenfield, which was advertised for this week Wednesday and Thursday.

Wall Paper Trimmed Free

A new wall paper trimming machine at our shop. We trim all wall paper you buy free of cost.

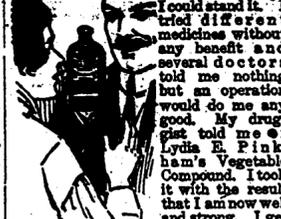

G. A. Hulet, Antrim

WOMAN WORKS 15 HOURS A DAY

Marvelous Story of Woman's Change from Weakness to Strength by Taking Druggist's Advice.

Paris, Ind.—"I suffered from a displacement with backache and dragging down pains so badly that at times I could not be on my feet and it did not seem as though I could stand it. I tried different medicines without any benefit and several doctors told me nothing but an operation would do me any good. My druggist told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it with the result that I am now well and strong. I get housework, then go to a factory and work all day, come home and get supper and feel good. I don't know how many of my friends I have told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. ANNA METERIANO, 86 West 10th St., Peru, Ind.

Women who suffer from any such ailments should not fail to try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

up in the morning at four o'clock, do my housework, then go to a factory and work all day, come home and get supper and feel good. I don't know how many of my friends I have told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. ANNA METERIANO, 86 West 10th St., Peru, Ind.

Be Patriotic! KEEP A PIG!

FEED

Greene's Grofast

HOG FEED. Cheapest and Best on Earth $2.50 per 100 lbs.

CHARLES F. CARTER, Agt., ANTRIM, N. H.

Terms Cash Tel. 22-12

To Patrons of Clinton Store:

On and after November 1st, 1918, all goods sold will be Cash at time of sale or when delivered.

We shall continue to solicit orders as heretofore and shall endeavor to give our customers prompt service, and try to make this change beneficial to our customers as well as ourselves.

All accounts due us must be paid by weekly payments, and everyone who fails to comply with this request by paying something each week, such accounts will be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection December 1, 1918.

Thanking you for your patronage and soliciting a continuance of same,

Very respectfully,

Clinton Store, Antrim

A. O. HARRINGTON, Mgr.

Keep your Ford running smoothly and so get the most possible value from it. An idle Ford is worse than waste. Let us look after your Ford. We have men who know how to make repairs; we use only the genuine Ford materials; we give the reasonable prices set by the Ford factory. Don't try to fix your car yourself nor trust it to inexperienced workmen, bring it here and be sure of satisfactory work.

FRANK J. BOYD

Authorized Agent for Ford Cars
Sales and Service

Tel. 34-2 ANTRIM, N. H.

How Much Would the KAISER Tax Your Business?

Think this thought twice over: "If we should fail to win this war what would happen to my business?" What is left of business in the invaded districts of France and Belgium? What will be left of business here, if we fail to crush the sinister power of Prussian militarism? How much would you have left after paying the taxes and levies imposed by a victorious Germany?

Defend Yourself With LIBERTY BONDS

This is not only a war for Democracy and Liberty, but a war of self-defense. Germany menaces our rights, our self-respect, our homes, and our means of livelihood.

Every citizen—every business man—has weapons of defense ready to his hand. These weapons are Liberty Bonds. We cannot all fight with guns and bayonets but we can all fight with Liberty Bonds.

Buy to Your Utmost

Of course you have bought Liberty Bonds. Every one has. But how many more will you buy? The success of the Fourth Loan and of the war itself depends on your answer to that question.

Buy all the bonds you can. Go to your bank and make your arrangements. Buy more than you ever thought you could buy.

Buy to Your Utmost

This Space Contributed to Winning the War By

J. M. CUTTER, Antrim, N. H.

They fight with their whole souls

You are reading every day of our boys over there—of Pershing's divisions charging into the blasting fire of the Boche trenches; of small detachments smashing their way from house to house through ruined villages; of single-handed deeds of sacrifice and valor.

One thought, one impulse only fills their souls—to fight and keep on fighting, until the war is won.

They know that all America is back of them; they know that they can count on us at home to send them all the guns and supplies they need to win.

There is only one way we can do it. All of us must work and save and buy Liberty Bonds, with our whole souls, the way our men are fighting over there!

No less will win. There is no other way to provide the money the Government must have. No other standard can make the Fourth Liberty Loan a Success.

Lend the way they fight—Buy Bonds to your utmost

This space contributed to winning the war by

GOODELL COMPANY, Antrim, N. H.

We Buy OLD FALSE TEETH

We pay from $2.00 to $15.00 per set (broken or not). We also pay actual value for 14-karat gold, silver and bridge-work. Send at once by parcel post and receive cash by return mail. Will return your goods if our price is unsatisfactory.

MAZER'S TOOTH SPECIALTY
Dept. X, 2007 So. 5th St. Philadelphia, Penn.

Do your Christmas shopping early.

Boar For Service

I have a thoroughbred O. I. C. Boar for service; an extra good producer. Fee $1.00.

Charles D. White.

Pigs! Pigs!

I have a number of pigs for sale; and a Registered O. I. C. Boar for service, price $2.00.

F. K. Black, Antrim, Clinton Road.

CALLS THESE MEN TO MILITARY SERVICE

Men called for examination Thursday, October 10.

Warren T. Wood	Antrim
Frederick S. Sheldon	Antrim
Arthur J. St. John	Bennington
Ellis Chase	Bennington
Walter O. Smith	Bennington
Vivyan S. Fournier	Bennington
Clarence E. Miller	Francestown

Men called for examination Friday, October 11.

William E. Weeks	Antrim
Robert A. Miner	Antrim
Herbert C. Bennis	Antrim
Lawrence J. Parker	Antrim
William D. Elliott	Antrim
Morris L. Underwood	Antrim
Donald M. Paige	Antrim
Albert E. Thornton	Antrim
Wesley D. Corliss	Antrim
Herbert A. Curtis	Antrim
John M. Cody	Bennington
Leon Messer	Bennington
Robert E. Jefferson	Francestown
Abner C. Wood	Francestown
Vernon E. Brunelle	Hancock

Men called for examination Saturday, October 12.

Robert J. Shea	Hancock
Dwight L. Warner	Hancock
Lester M. Johnson	Hancock
Gustave Blanchette	Hancock
Thomas M. Coughlan	Hancock

Men called for examination Monday, October 14.

Harvey J. Paige	Francestown
Elmo A. Rand	Francestown
William Nichols	Francestown
Ralph D. Carson	Francestown
Clayton F. Foot	Francestown
Walter E. Wilson	Francestown
Harold M. Cochran	Greenfield
Everett F. Magoon	Greenfield
Harold F. Lowe	Greenfield
Carroll H. Blanchard	Greenfield
Burton L. Preston	Antrim

Men called for examination Tuesday, October 15.

Henry F. D. Roberts	Bennington
---------------------	------------

Men called for examination Thursday, October 17.

Harrison L. Atwood	Antrim
Otis W. Pike	Antrim
Alfred J. Dion	Antrim
George P. Hildreth	Antrim
Walter D. Cleary	Bennington
Benjamin D. Baldwin	Francestown

Statement of Ownership, Management, Circulation, etc.

Of Antrim Reporter, published weekly at Antrim, New Hampshire, required by an act of August 24, 1912. State of New Hampshire, county of Hillsboro, s. s. (For October 1, '18.) Before me, a Notary Public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared H. W. Eldredge, who, having been duly sworn, according to law, deposes and says he is the editor and publisher and business manager of the Antrim Reporter, and that this statement is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, etc., of the aforesaid publication. Trustees of M. E. Church, mortgagee, Antrim, N. H. Sworn to and subscribed to before me this 17th day of April, 1918. F. L. BROWN, Notary Public.

NAMES OF MEN

Registering for the New 18 to 45 Draft

The serial numbers in Bennington are from 754 (Jesse Fred Miles), to 827 (John Thomas Day), inclusive:

Jesse Fred Miles
Frank Cushman Wyman
Wilford Jensen Newton
Charles Augustine Newhall
Herbert Ashley Curtis
John Prentiss Weston
John Dana Weston
Jeremiah Morgan Holt
John Albert Fleming
Harry John Clough
James Cuddihy
Fred Lewis Eaton
Peter Carson Wickham
George Edward Dumcklee
Ellerton Hoffmann Edwards
Michael Shea
Leon Nathan Clafin
John Michael Cody
William Ernest Call
Harry Hale Ross
Vivyan Skiffington Fournier
George Heath King
Charles Edward Cole
Richard Anthony Hartnoll
Albert Everett Holt
Harry Clark Clafin
James Harvey Balch
Andrew Guy Thatcher
Walter Orrison Smith
Charles Millar Taylor
More Maria Cookbunn King
Andrew Adam
Edlor Gouet
Harvey Joseph Lucier
Frank Paul Palermo
Salvatore Dimarco
Leonardo Piazza
Jack Lombard
Pasquale Palermo
Vincenzo Lombardo
Jack Piazza
Joseph Cuddemi
Stephanos Demetrios Zaebos
Christos Demos Karliyas
Arthur Voittios Kounelas
Nicholas Avangelos Marnouras
Costas Sotirios Zourbas
James Vasilios Korkounis
Zissos Costat Vlahos
Christos Apostolon Rizopoulos
Arthur John George
John Crist George
George Vasilios Balewtios
Christos Vaschos Kounelas
Petros Christ Adamos
Walter Dennis Cleary
Augustus Cassius Wisell
Henry James Scully
Ernest George Timme
Lodger Boivin
Maurice Kenneth McKay
Leon Messer
Ralph Emery Messer
William Peter Cosman
Guy M. Keyser
William Henry Harrison
Arthur Johnson Pierce
Arthur Francis Bell
Patrick Joseph Shea
Patrick Edward Cashion
George Friedrich Kilian
Andrew Maurice Cleary
John Albert Eaton
John Thomas Day

PAPER HANGING

Inside and Outside Painting and Wall Board

GUY A. HULETT, Antrim West Street

THE REPORTER'S HONOR ROLL

List of Soldiers and Sailors in Antrim and Vicinity in New Army and Navy

In addition to those listed below, entering the service since April, 1917, Antrim claims Lieut. Albert A. Baker, an Annapolis man, with U. S. Navy

This is The Reporter's Service Flag; it represents two from our office. We doubt if any other newspaper office in the country or city has a greater proportion of its employees in the service as volunteers; taking all the male help we employed, and they were also our only sons.

ANTRIM

☆ Harry J. Rogers, in the lumberman's unit at Vancouver Barracks, Washington, died April 4th.
Frank O. Bemis, in 103d Infantry, "Somewhere in France" was killed in action July 17.
William M. Myers, Machine Gun Battalion, was killed in action July 18, "Somewhere in France."
Orrin Herbert Edwards, 110th Inf., killed in action August 2, in France.
To keep a complete and correct list the assistance of our friends is solicited and will be greatly appreciated.
"Somewhere in France"
James W. Jameson, Major
Byron Butterfield, 2d Lieutenant
Charles Myers, Sergeant
Raymond Butterfield, Sergeant
Charles N. Robertson, Corporal
John W. Bryer, 1st class Private Winfield S. Hilton, 1st class Private
Henry E. Newhall, 1st class Private
John Newhall, 1st class Private
Howard E. Paige, Private
Leo E. Mulhall, Horseshoer
C. Harold Clough, Gunner
Nelson F. Cressy
Raymond A. Beece, Corporal
Waldo A. Robb, Medical Dept.
Oscar Hunt, with Canadian troops
William L. Mulhall, British Army
Frank E. Cutter

Miss Margaret Redmond, Registered Nurse, at a Rest Camp, in England.
Miss Helen Stowell, Registered Nurse, with Dr. Hugh Cabot's Harvard Unit, somewhere in France.
Miss Fannie Burnham, Registered Nurse, connected with Base Hospital, Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass.
Miss Grace Burnham, Registered Nurse, is at Ellis Island, N. Y., at the Army hospital; Red Cross service.

Ralph G. Hurlin, Captain, in Statistical Dept., Washington, D. C.
William H. Hurlin, 2d Lieutenant, Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass.
Paul F. Paige, Advance Training Camp in New York.
Will Congreave, Jr., Navy, located somewhere in France.
Francis A. Whittemore is in the Aviation Corps, at Morrisseton, Va.
Cranston D. Eldredge, Railroad Artillery, gone across to England.
A. Wallace George, Officers' Cook, Fort Foster, Kittery, Maine.
Henry B. Eldredge, 1st Class Private, Medical Dept., Camp McClellan, Alabama.
Clarence H. Bradshaw, Navy, in foreign water.
Ernest H. McClure, Machinist Mate, Naval Reserves, Rockland, Maine.
Louis Mallett, Coast Artillery, now across the water.
Roger Hinton, motor cycle branch of aviation corps, Ronoke, Ark.

Carlton Brooks, at Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass.
John S. Whitney, at Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass.
Robert H. Cleaves, at Charlotte, North Carolina.
Howard Gokey, Camp Dix, Wrightstown, N. J.
Arthur Fluri is in the Hospital Corps, and gone across.
Edson Tuttle, in the lumberman's unit, Yaquina, Oregon.
Robert Nylander, Cavalry, El Paso, Texas, in service on Mexican border.
Don H. Robinson, machinist, West-Point, Mississippi.
Delmar F. Newhall, stationed at a southern camp.
Harold Miner is now at Camp Hancock, Augusta, Georgia.
Walter F. Parker, 2d Lieut., instructor at Camp Hancock, Georgia.
Paul Prentiss is a Merchant Marine sailor in other waters.
Carl Crampton has been sent to Ayer from Durham.
Kasimir Fluri has been sent from Ayer, Mass., into foreign service.
Paul R. Colby, Merchant Marines, cruising in foreign waters.
Cecil H. Prentiss, Medical Dept., on the other side of the ocean.
David H. Hodges, reported arrived in England.
Burt Hodges, Camp Zachery Taylor at Louisville, Kentucky.
Lawrence Black, in training at Dartmouth college grounds.
A. J. Zabrickie is located at Camp Upton, New York.

James M. Hodges, at radio school, Cambridge, Mass.
Ira C. Hutchinson, Coast Artillery, Camp Greene, North Carolina.
Philip Butterfield, Corp., Coast Artillery, Camp Adams, Norman Thompson, at Fort Slocum, New York.
Bexford H. Madden, Ordnance Dept, Watervleit, N. Y.
John W. Thornton, Medical Dept., Charleston, S. C.
Andrew Fuglestad is now located at a camp in England.
Archie D. Perkins is at Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass.
Matthew Cuddihy is at Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass.
John W. Matson is at Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass.
George H. Kiblen, Jr., is at Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass.

Following these names are the places where they are now located or have been; some of them change on short notice, and if anyone discovers a wrong place opposite a name he will confer a favor by notifying the editor, leaving the information at the Reporter's office, or tell the town war historian, F. C. Parmenter. Also, if any have or receive commissions let us know, as we would like to add that too.

BENNINGTON

Somewhere in France
Phineas Adams
H. C. Barr, Sergeant
Albert Haas
William J. Knowles, Lieutenant
William A. Griswold, Sergeant
John McGrath
Harry J. Sawyer
Jeremiah W. Sullivan
Guy D. Tibbetts. Reported missing since May 27
Christos Cordatos, Camp Jackson, Columbia, S. C.
Morris E. Knight, Captain, aviation field, Mineola, Long Island, N. Y.
Maurice Fournier is at Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass.
Stefan Benjiti is at Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass.
Ethyms Kounelas is at Ayer, Mass., Camp Devens.
Vasil Ligatiscas is at Ayer, Mass., Camp Devens.

HANCOCK

☆ Ralph J. Loverin, Machine Gun Battalion, was killed in action July 18, "Somewhere in France."
Somewhere in France
Chas. E. Adams, Engineers
Elmer A. Andrews, Medical Dept.
Wm. J. Brunelle, Machine Gun Bn.
Andrew F. Dufraime, " " "
Ernest L. Dufraime, " " "
Edwin R. Goodenough, Medical Dept.
Atherton Griswold, Infantry
Llewellyn LePage, Artillery
Henry J. Leavitt, Brit. Royal Flying Corps. Recently reported missing
Edri C. Locklin, Medical Dept.
Thos. Bertram Manning, Artillery
Sidney W. Stearns, Machine Gun Bn.
Oliver St. Pierre.
Edw. M. Coughlan, Infantry
Edw. Ballentine, Forestry, Vancouver, Wash.
Peter Blanchette, Navy, Ship's Cook
Lawrence Dufraime, Forestry, Warrenton, Ore.
Ernest Olin, Camp Bliss, Texas
Ralph Perry, Navy, U. S. S. Terry
Wm. H. Robinson, 2d Lieut., Kelly Field, San Antonio, Texas.
Stanley R. Smith, Durham, N. H.
John A. Weston, Medical, Camp Greene, N. C.
Corp. Wm. Weston, Inf, Washington, D. C.

GREENFIELD

Somewhere in France
Geo. R. Blanchard, 103d Infantry
Philip Burnham, Motor Truck Co.
Lester H. Lowe, Heavy Artillery
Philip Magoon, Co. I, 103d Infantry
Jas. W. Austin, Co. B, Machine Gun Corps, station not known
Harry Dow, drafted in July 1917, served till Dec. 1917, when he was discharged on account of physical disability.
Fred Girard, Field Signal Bn., Sparta, N. H.
Donald Hopkins, Medical Corps, Walter Reed Hospital, Wash., D. C.
Geo. C. Wade, Cavalry, Ft. Ethan Allen, Vt.
Pearl Warren is at Camp Devens.

The First Bottle of PERUNA

Gave Relief so Writes

Mr. M. VanBuren, Engineer, G. R. & L. Ry., 17 Highland St., Grand Rapids, Mich.

Entirely Free from Catarrh of the Stomach

"Peruna has positively done for me what many doctors failed to do. I have been time and again compelled to take to my bed for days. The first bottle of Peruna gave relief and while I always keep it in the house for emergency, I consider myself entirely free from catarrh of the stomach, the trouble from which I suffered for so long before taking this remedy."

Liquid or Tablet Form Sold Everywhere Ask Your Dealer

NEW HAMPSHIRE STATE NEWS

Farmers Will Form Exchange.

Concord.—The groundwork for a Farmers' Co-operative exchange in Merrimack county was laid at a meeting in Union hall here when representatives from nineteen communities in the county voted unanimously in favor of it. The meeting was held by the advisory council of the County Farm Bureau, and the recommendation of the council will be presented at the annual meeting of the bureau to be held early in November.

The plan as proposed will involve the co-operative buying of grain and possibly other farm materials for the present, and will look forward to eventual co-operation in the selling of produce. Probable saving of at least $5 a ton upon grain was predicted but co-operation, where possible, with local grain dealers was advised.

The move is in the direction of remedying the present condition under which farmers are obliged to buy their materials at retail and sell their produce at wholesale. Stirring talks were made by Howard W. Selby, manager of the Eastern States Farmers' exchange at Springfield, and John A. Scheurle, manager of the Eastern States Agricultural and Industrial league, whose speeches before the state bankers at Pike, and before the Manufacturers' association in Manchester last night attracted state-wide attention.

Red Men Officers Chosen at Concord.

Concord.—At a meeting of the great council, Improved Order of Red Men for New Hampshire which held a session in this city the following officers were elected: Great sachem, Wallace H. Whitcomb, Charlestown; great senior sagamore, Archie B. Falconer, Manchester; great junior sagamore, Thomas J. Mullen, Peterborough; great prophet, Andrew M. Carleton, Conway; great chief of records, Harrie M. Young, Manchester; great keeper of wampum, Algie A. Holt, Peterborough; great trustee for three years, Ceylon Spinney, Portsmouth; great representative to great council of the United States for two sons, Andrew M. Carleton, Conway; for one son, John H. Elkins, Exeter.

Gene After Youthful Forger.

Lebanon.—Deputy Sheriff Alfred J. Denmore, who left here for Portland, Oregon, on receipt of information from the officers in that city that they had apprehended the 14-year old youth who inveigled his grandmother, Mrs. Peter McGillivard of Summer street, into signing a check of $650 and got away with the money who has no chances with this school boy who has thus far evaded the officers in the different places he has visited, and took along a former deputy sheriff of Grafton county in the person of George H. Stearns, to assist in landing the boy in Lebanon.

Bedford Man is Wounded Prisoner.

Bedford.—Mrs. Eunice S. Kinson, has received a letter from Private Francis Silva, who was reported missing in action July 15. Private Silva wrote Aug. 1, at that time he was in a hospital in a German prison camp having been wounded, he was not allowed to tell how seriously, but wrote cheerfully and told his friends not to worry. He expected after his recovery to be transferred to the northeastern part of Germany to an American prison camp.

Modification in Building Rule

Chairman John B. Jameson of the state committee on Public Safety has been notified by the War Industries board that a modification has been made in the plan to curtail construction, providing that new farm buildings costing not more than $1,000 may be constructed without a permit. No other construction other than repairs and extensions costing not more than $2,500 may be made without a permit.

Drilling at Phillips Exeter.

Exeter.—Military drilling is progressing rapidly at the Phillips Exeter academy, although the influenza has prevented the companies from enrolling their full quota. The school has been transformed into a veritable military institution for the duration of the war, and when the entire school is enrolled there will be four companies of four platoons each, and a small quartermaster's corps.

Prison Sentence For Disloyal Talk

Concord, N. H.—Fred Steadman of Jackson was sentenced to serve two years in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, in the United States court here under the espionage act. Steadman was convicted of disloyal utterances.

Richard H. Long of Framingham, Mass., has made a statement to the secretary of state that his expenses in his contest for the Democratic nomination for Governor aggregated $2,000. Edward P. Barry, who was one of Mr. Long's opponents, gives his total expenditures as $1961. Senator Weeks makes a return of $911 expended in his campaign for re-nomination. Guy A. Ham, who was the unsuccessful candidate for the Republican nomination for Lieutenant-Governor, reports an expenditure of $112.

PROPOSE TO BUILD UP BUSINESS OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

And to Give all Possible Assistance in Carrying on War Work and Producing Food.

Manchester.—Plans for one of the largest and most important meetings of New Hampshire bankers, manufacturers, financiers and farmers ever held in the state and possibly in New England, the possible results of which may be of country-wide significance, were formulated at a conference of officers of the New Hampshire Manufacturers' association. The meeting will be held in Manchester early in November probably on the second and is expected to be attended by from 3,000 to 4,000 of the state's most influential citizens.

The purpose of the meeting is to bring together finance, industry, labor and agriculture for the rejuvenation of the state, welding together these four great influences which are of the utmost importance in winning the war and building future America, and directing them towards the one great purpose that of building up the state of New Hampshire and its industry to a more efficient footing so that it may render all possible help to the country, to our soldiers in France and may eventually result in the crushing of German tyranny forever.

Tentative plans for the meeting have been under consideration for months and, backed by members of the manufacturers' association it is assured of complete success inasmuch as some of Washington's most prominent men are to be included in the list of speakers. Influential New Hampshire men will also deliver addresses. It is planned to have every state in New England represented by one of its most prominent men. The possible results of the meeting or conference, of New Hampshire's leading men, the very backbone of industry in the state, are great, and the week will be of the utmost importance not only to New Hampshire and New England, but to the country.

One of the latest and undoubtedly one of the most important things in which the association has interested itself is the great agricultural possibilities of New Hampshire. The making of this state self-supporting is one great problem in which the possibilities unthought of and fairly incomprehensible in their vastness.

Fire From Lightning Burns 9 Cottages.

Winchester.—Nine summer cottages on the shore of Forest lake were destroyed and two were badly damaged by a fire caused by lightning. The cottage owned by Alfred Kunney of Northampton, Mass., was hit by lightning and fire immediately started. Swept forward by the high wind, the flames burned all cottages in their path. Mr. and Mrs. Kunney were in their cottage at the time, but escaped unharmed. Only a few of the owners of the other cottages were here.

A penalty tax on the estate of Martin J. Sheldon, who died in Sufield, Conn., Sept. 22, 1917, amounting to $104,199, was paid to the state treasury. This will be a windfall for Sufield and will enable it to pay off its entire indebtedness, which now amounts to about $13,000, and give it a balance of about $70,000 to meet current expenses. Mr. Sheldon left an estate valued at $2,442,571, and the tax commissioner discovered that an investment tax had not been paid for at least five years, as required.

Concord Boy Cited for Bravery.

Concord.—Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Rannels of this city whose son, Pvt. Ernest E. Rannels, a member of the 101st ambulance company, 26th division, A. E. F., in a general order issued by Gen. Clarence R. Edwards has been cited for bravery in action. His relief of Americans who were wounded at a time when his action endangered his life won him the citation.

Mayor Peters of Boston has received a letter from the British-American Fellowship Society, London, England, organized to extend British hospitality to American soldiers, announcing that soldiers and sailors from Dorchester may be interested to learn that they have been adopted by the town of Dorchester, England, and any time they are on a furlough or invalided, they will find especially warm hospitality there.

Dwarf Trees in Small Gardens.

Dwarf trees are suited to small gardens, they occupy little space, are easily cared for, bear sooner than standard kinds, and they are easily shaped into bushes and pyramids, or can be used in espallier forms, trained on buildings, fences or trellises.

Devil and the Deep Sea.

The source of this expressive but rather cryptical proverb is not easily determined. It is usually held to have some connection with the miracle of the casting out of devils at Cadara and the rushing of the possessed wine into the waters. In Clark's Paræmiologia, published in 1689, it is quoted as "Between the devil and the Deep Sea." The meaning, of course, is that there is a choice only between two terrible alternatives, and the allusion may be to some long-forgotten incident of legend or fiction.

1.—Some of the Arabian troops of Hedjaz who have been helping General Allenby and are now recognized as belligerents by the allied governments. 2.—The most important section of Sofia, capital of Bulgaria, to which the Germans are said to have sent a large force. 3.—General Franchet d'Esperey, the French commander of the allied forces that conquered Bulgaria, and, at his right, General Joannis, commander of the Greeks in Serbia.

NEWS REVIEW OF THE GREAT WAR

Kaiser's Back Wall Has Fallen and His Front Wall is Crumbling Fast.

HINDENBURG LINE SMASHED

Bulgaria Surrenders Unconditionally and Turkey is Wobbling—St. Quentin and Damascus Captured—Huns Preparing to Get Out of Belgium.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

The Kaiser put his back to a wall in the vain effort to check the allies on the western front, and the wall collapsed. Bulgaria surrendered, practically unconditionally; Turkey at once put out peace feelers; Austria-Hungary cried for cessation of the war, and the Ukrainians rose in revolt against the Huns.

Meanwhile the allies kept up their ceaseless hammering at the Kaiser's front wall—the Hindenburg line—and by smashing through it at many points proved it was not the impregnable system of defense that the Germans had supposed it to be. From the sea to Verdun the battle blazed day and night, and the official reports showed an almost unbroken series of victories for the allies. The Belgian army, assisted by British troops and, unexpectedly, by a French army, jumped into the fray at the beginning of the week, and, taking Dixmude and the important Wytchaeete ridge, advanced swiftly as far as Roulers. Thereupon the Huns began making preparations that indicated complete withdrawal from Belgium. North and south of La Bassee canal they were in full flight, with the British close on their heels, and as Haig's men approached Lille the enemy began the evacuation of that city. The German commander requisitioning all means of transportation to remove his plunger. Investing Roulers, the allies gained control of the railroad to the German submarine bases at Ostend and Zeebrugge and it was reported the foe was removing his heavy guns from the Belgian coast and that the governor general of Belgium had instructed the provincial governors to send all their archives at once to Brussels.

Armentieres and Lens were abandoned by the Huns Tuesday night. In the attack on Cambrai the British, with whom an American contingent was fighting, met with desperate resistance and here and there suffered a local reverse, but they could not be long checked, and pushed ahead with dogged determination until they had the city at their mercy. The Huns burned vast quantities of stores in their preparations for withdrawal.

Next to the south comes the St. Quentin sector, and there the French under General Debeney won a great victory, capturing the city after tremendous fighting, which was fiercest in and about the St. Quentin canal. This place was one of the keystones of the Hindenburg line and its capture assured the retirement of the Germans on a wide front. Immediately north of St. Quentin the British were engaged by enemy reserves of storming troops and the fighting was furious. But the British succeeded in breaking through the German line on the Beauvoir-Wancourt front and created a salient that greatly helped in the capture of St. Quentin by the French.

Between the Oise at La Fere and the Aisne the French pushed on toward Laon and succeeded in passing beyond the elaborate system of waterways that comprised the chief defense of the enemy and reaching open country where the tanks could operate to advantage. North of Reims Foch's troops drove the Huns back to the Aisne and the Aisne-Marne canal, clearing the country north of the Vesle and releasing a number of towns. They also gained the entire St. Thierry massif.

In Champagne there was no marked change during the week, though both the French and the Americans continued to move forward. The Yankees were up against a hard proposition in the forest of Argonne, where the dense woods were full of machine gun nests and the fighting was almost like a battle in the dark. This style of warfare, however, seemed to suit the Americans and in broken groups they battled the retreating enemy. For miles they were hampered by the scarcity of roads, the mud and the innumerable and bravely defended fortified shell craters. They captured during the week great numbers of guns and quantities of material, including three big observation balloons. On the left flank of the Americans Gouraud's Frenchmen fought their way northward with the greatest intrepidity and cut off the Germans opposing them from communication with their comrades in the Argonne forest region. If they can keep up this advance the Huns in the salient pointing towards Reims will find themselves in an awkward pocket. The Germans in this sector were falling back to the so-called Kriemhild line, and captured documents showed they intended to try to hold that line through the winter. The fact is they have no organized line of defense between it and the French border. The Americans in Champagne as well as those in the St. Quentin sector displayed gallantry and dash that have not been surpassed.

The most spectacular exploit of the week was the raid on the Austrian naval base at Durazzo. American, British and Italian warships made their way through the mine fields and completely destroyed the base and all the Austrian vessels in the harbor except a hospital ship. The only damage to the attacking force was the slight injury of a British cruiser by a torpedo.

The Bulgarians in signing the armistice submitted to every demand of the allies, which included demobilizing their army and surrendering the control of all their means of transportation, besides breaking entirely with the other central powers. They even said they were willing to attack Turkey, in conjunction with the allies. Their troops at once began withdrawing from Serbia and all their military supplies were turned over to the forces of the entente. The internal situation in Bulgaria was somewhat confused, but the claims of Berlin that King Ferdinand would remain faithful to the central alliance seemed unfounded. However, he evidently feared for his own safety, for he was reported to have taken refuge in a royal castle near Vienna. Naturally, it will be some time before the allies can reap the full benefits of the Bulgarian surrender in the way of cutting across the "corridor to Bagdad" and isolating Turkey. Meanwhile they continued the task of driving the Austrians and Germans out of Serbia. It was said a large number of German troops were sent to Sofia to try to force Bulgaria to retract her action, but these, if there, more likely are to be used in defending the communication with Constantinople. When the French, Serbians, Greeks and Italians have advanced far enough to the northward they probably will be joined by great numbers of Southern Slavs and men of other races who have long waited for the chance to revolt against Austria. The way will then be open for an attack on the dual kingdom from the south.

Though not yet officially confirmed, there were various well authenticated reports last week that Turkey had informally sought for information as to the terms on which she could make peace. Her condition is desperate, for General Allenby continued his victorious progress in Palestine and on Tuesday occupied Damascus, the Turkish base in Syria, taking more than 7,000 prisoners. With the British was a portion of the army of Arabs of the Hedjaz, now recognized by the allied governments as co-belligerents.

Necessarily all this had great effect in the Teutonic nations. The excitement in Berlin approached panic and the newspapers made no attempt to conceal the gravity of the situation. The first concrete results were the res-

NEWS REVIEW OF THE GREAT WAR

Kaiser's Back Wall Has Fallen and His Front Wall is Crumbling Fast.

HINDENBURG LINE SMASHED

Bulgaria Surrenders Unconditionally and Turkey is Wobbling—St. Quentin and Damascus Captured—Huns Preparing to Get Out of Belgium.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

The Kaiser put his back to a wall in the vain effort to check the allies on the western front, and the wall collapsed. Bulgaria surrendered, practically unconditionally; Turkey at once put out peace feelers; Austria-Hungary cried for cessation of the war, and the Ukrainians rose in revolt against the Huns.

Meanwhile the allies kept up their ceaseless hammering at the Kaiser's front wall—the Hindenburg line—and by smashing through it at many points proved it was not the impregnable system of defense that the Germans had supposed it to be. From the sea to Verdun the battle blazed day and night, and the official reports showed an almost unbroken series of victories for the allies. The Belgian army, assisted by British troops and, unexpectedly, by a French army, jumped into the fray at the beginning of the week, and, taking Dixmude and the important Wytchaeete ridge, advanced swiftly as far as Roulers. Thereupon the Huns began making preparations that indicated complete withdrawal from Belgium. North and south of La Bassee canal they were in full flight, with the British close on their heels, and as Haig's men approached Lille the enemy began the evacuation of that city. The German commander requisitioning all means of transportation to remove his plunger. Investing Roulers, the allies gained control of the railroad to the German submarine bases at Ostend and Zeebrugge and it was reported the foe was removing his heavy guns from the Belgian coast and that the governor general of Belgium had instructed the provincial governors to send all their archives at once to Brussels.

Armentieres and Lens were abandoned by the Huns Tuesday night. In the attack on Cambrai the British, with whom an American contingent was fighting, met with desperate resistance and here and there suffered a local reverse, but they could not be long checked, and pushed ahead with dogged determination until they had the city at their mercy. The Huns burned vast quantities of stores in their preparations for withdrawal.

Next to the south comes the St. Quentin sector, and there the French under General Debeney won a great victory, capturing the city after tremendous fighting, which was fiercest in and about the St. Quentin canal. This place was one of the keystones of the Hindenburg line and its capture assured the retirement of the Germans on a wide front. Immediately north of St. Quentin the British were engaged by enemy reserves of storming troops and the fighting was furious. But the British succeeded in breaking through the German line on the Beauvoir-Wan-court front and created a salient that greatly helped in the capture of St. Quentin by the French.

Between the Oise at La Fere and the Aisne the French pushed on toward Laon and succeeded in passing beyond the elaborate system of waterways that comprised the chief defense of the enemy and reaching open country where the tanks could operate to advantage. North of Reims Foch's troops drove the Huns back to the Aisne and the Aisne-Marne canal, clearing the country north of the Vesle and releasing a number of towns. They also gained the entire St. Thierry massif.

In Champagne there was no marked change during the week, though both the French and the Americans continued to move forward. The Yankees were up against a hard proposition in the forest of Argonne, where the dense woods were full of machine gun nests and the fighting was almost like a battle in the dark. This style of warfare, however, seemed to suit the Americans and in broken groups they battled the retreating enemy. For miles they were hampered by the scarcity of roads, the mud and the innumerable and bravely defended fortified shell craters. They captured during the week great numbers of guns and quantities of material, including three big observation balloons. On the left flank of the Americans Gouraud's Frenchmen fought their way northward with the greatest intrepidity and cut off the Germans opposing them from communication with their comrades in the Argonne forest region. If they can keep up this advance the Huns in the salient pointing towards Reims will find themselves in an awkward pocket. The Germans in this sector were falling back to the so-called Kriemhild line, and captured documents showed they intended to try to hold that line through the winter. The fact is they have no organized line of defense between it and the French border. The Americans in Champagne as well as those in the St. Quentin sector displayed gallantry and dash that have not been surpassed.

The most spectacular exploit of the week was the raid on the Austrian naval base at Durazzo. American, British and Italian warships made their way through the mine fields and completely destroyed the base and all the Austrian vessels in the harbor except a hospital ship. The only damage to the attacking force was the slight injury of a British cruiser by a torpedo.

The Bulgarians in signing the armistice submitted to every demand of the allies, which included demobilizing their army and surrendering the control of all their means of transportation, besides breaking entirely with the other central powers. They even said they were willing to attack Turkey, in conjunction with the allies. Their troops at once began withdrawing from Serbia and all their military supplies were turned over to the forces of the entente. The internal situation in Bulgaria was somewhat confused, but the claims of Berlin that King Ferdinand would remain faithful to the central alliance seemed unfounded. However, he evidently feared for his own safety, for he was reported to have taken refuge in a royal castle near Vienna. Naturally, it will be some time before the allies can reap the full benefits of the Bulgarian surrender in the way of cutting across the "corridor to Bagdad" and isolating Turkey. Meanwhile they continued the task of driving the Austrians and Germans out of Serbia. It was said a large number of German troops were sent to Sofia to try to force Bulgaria to retract her action, but these, if there, more likely are to be used in defending the communication with Constantinople. When the French, Serbians, Greeks and Italians have advanced far enough to the northward they probably will be joined by great numbers of Southern Slavs and men of other races who have long waited for the chance to revolt against Austria. The way will then be open for an attack on the dual kingdom from the south.

Though not yet officially confirmed, there were various well authenticated reports last week that Turkey had informally sought for information as to the terms on which she could make peace. Her condition is desperate, for General Allenby continued his victorious progress in Palestine and on Tuesday occupied Damascus, the Turkish base in Syria, taking more than 7,000 prisoners. With the British was a portion of the army of Arabs of the Hedjaz, now recognized by the allied governments as co-belligerents.

Necessarily all this had great effect in the Teutonic nations. The excitement in Berlin approached panic and the newspapers made no attempt to conceal the gravity of the situation. The first concrete results were the res-

NEWS REVIEW OF THE GREAT WAR

Kaiser's Back Wall Has Fallen and His Front Wall is Crumbling Fast.

HINDENBURG LINE SMASHED

Bulgaria Surrenders Unconditionally and Turkey is Wobbling—St. Quentin and Damascus Captured—Huns Preparing to Get Out of Belgium.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

The Kaiser put his back to a wall in the vain effort to check the allies on the western front, and the wall collapsed. Bulgaria surrendered, practically unconditionally; Turkey at once put out peace feelers; Austria-Hungary cried for cessation of the war, and the Ukrainians rose in revolt against the Huns.

Meanwhile the allies kept up their ceaseless hammering at the Kaiser's front wall—the Hindenburg line—and by smashing through it at many points proved it was not the impregnable system of defense that the Germans had supposed it to be. From the sea to Verdun the battle blazed day and night, and the official reports showed an almost unbroken series of victories for the allies. The Belgian army, assisted by British troops and, unexpectedly, by a French army, jumped into the fray at the beginning of the week, and, taking Dixmude and the important Wytchaeete ridge, advanced swiftly as far as Roulers. Thereupon the Huns began making preparations that indicated complete withdrawal from Belgium. North and south of La Bassee canal they were in full flight, with the British close on their heels, and as Haig's men approached Lille the enemy began the evacuation of that city. The German commander requisitioning all means of transportation to remove his plunger. Investing Roulers, the allies gained control of the railroad to the German submarine bases at Ostend and Zeebrugge and it was reported the foe was removing his heavy guns from the Belgian coast and that the governor general of Belgium had instructed the provincial governors to send all their archives at once to Brussels.

Armentieres and Lens were abandoned by the Huns Tuesday night. In the attack on Cambrai the British, with whom an American contingent was fighting, met with desperate resistance and here and there suffered a local reverse, but they could not be long checked, and pushed ahead with dogged determination until they had the city at their mercy. The Huns burned vast quantities of stores in their preparations for withdrawal.

Next to the south comes the St. Quentin sector, and there the French under General Debeney won a great victory, capturing the city after tremendous fighting, which was fiercest in and about the St. Quentin canal. This place was one of the keystones of the Hindenburg line and its capture assured the retirement of the Germans on a wide front. Immediately north of St. Quentin the British were engaged by enemy reserves of storming troops and the fighting was furious. But the British succeeded in breaking through the German line on the Beauvoir-Wan-court front and created a salient that greatly helped in the capture of St. Quentin by the French.

Between the Oise at La Fere and the Aisne the French pushed on toward Laon and succeeded in passing beyond the elaborate system of waterways that comprised the chief defense of the enemy and reaching open country where the tanks could operate to advantage. North of Reims Foch's troops drove the Huns back to the Aisne and the Aisne-Marne canal, clearing the country north of the Vesle and releasing a number of towns. They also gained the entire St. Thierry massif.

In Champagne there was no marked change during the week, though both the French and the Americans continued to move forward. The Yankees were up against a hard proposition in the forest of Argonne, where the dense woods were full of machine gun nests and the fighting was almost like a battle in the dark. This style of warfare, however, seemed to suit the Americans and in broken groups they battled the retreating enemy. For miles they were hampered by the scarcity of roads, the mud and the innumerable and bravely defended fortified shell craters. They captured during the week great numbers of guns and quantities of material, including three big observation balloons. On the left flank of the Americans Gouraud's Frenchmen fought their way northward with the greatest intrepidity and cut off the Germans opposing them from communication with their comrades in the Argonne forest region. If they can keep up this advance the Huns in the salient pointing towards Reims will find themselves in an awkward pocket. The Germans in this sector were falling back to the so-called Kriemhild line, and captured documents showed they intended to try to hold that line through the winter. The fact is they have no organized line of defense between it and the French border. The Americans in Champagne as well as those in the St. Quentin sector displayed gallantry and dash that have not been surpassed.

The most spectacular exploit of the week was the raid on the Austrian naval base at Durazzo. American, British and Italian warships made their way through the mine fields and completely destroyed the base and all the Austrian vessels in the harbor except a hospital ship. The only damage to the attacking force was the slight injury of a British cruiser by a torpedo.

The Bulgarians in signing the armistice submitted to every demand of the allies, which included demobilizing their army and surrendering the control of all their means of transportation, besides breaking entirely with the other central powers. They even said they were willing to attack Turkey, in conjunction with the allies. Their troops at once began withdrawing from Serbia and all their military supplies were turned over to the forces of the entente. The internal situation in Bulgaria was somewhat confused, but the claims of Berlin that King Ferdinand would remain faithful to the central alliance seemed unfounded. However, he evidently feared for his own safety, for he was reported to have taken refuge in a royal castle near Vienna. Naturally, it will be some time before the allies can reap the full benefits of the Bulgarian surrender in the way of cutting across the "corridor to Bagdad" and isolating Turkey. Meanwhile they continued the task of driving the Austrians and Germans out of Serbia. It was said a large number of German troops were sent to Sofia to try to force Bulgaria to retract her action, but these, if there, more likely are to be used in defending the communication with Constantinople. When the French, Serbians, Greeks and Italians have advanced far enough to the northward they probably will be joined by great numbers of Southern Slavs and men of other races who have long waited for the chance to revolt against Austria. The way will then be open for an attack on the dual kingdom from the south.

Though not yet officially confirmed, there were various well authenticated reports last week that Turkey had informally sought for information as to the terms on which she could make peace. Her condition is desperate, for General Allenby continued his victorious progress in Palestine and on Tuesday occupied Damascus, the Turkish base in Syria, taking more than 7,000 prisoners. With the British was a portion of the army of Arabs of the Hedjaz, now recognized by the allied governments as co-belligerents.

Necessarily all this had great effect in the Teutonic nations. The excitement in Berlin approached panic and the newspapers made no attempt to conceal the gravity of the situation. The first concrete results were the res-

NEW ENGLAND NEWS IN TABLOID FORM

Items of Interest From All Sections of Yankeland

Proclaims Columbus Day.

Governor McCall, of Massachusetts, in a proclamation on Columbus Day, directs special attention to the observance of the day this year. In his proclamation the governor says in part: "In view of the striking significance of the holiday the present year I deem it most fitting to direct special attention to it by a proclamation. There are few anniversaries in human history which make a stronger appeal. It recalls the courage and faith of the great admiral who could not be deterred by the ridicule of his associates nor daunted by the terrors of unknown seas."

Establishment of Lafayette National Park on Mount Desert Island, Me., is provided for in a bill introduced by Senator Hale of Maine and adopted by the Senate.

The granite cutting industry of Vermont is virtually at a standstill as a result of the spread of Spanish influenza among the quarry and shed workers in Montpelier and Barre.

Charles F. Brooker, president of the American Brass Company, Ansonia, has announced to all employees of the company that beginning Saturday of last week the Saturday half holidays at the plant will be done away with.

Cost former Gov. David I. Walsh nothing to win the Democratic nomination for the Senate. Robert Luce expended $693 for his congressional nomination, and Horace A. Carter $1485 for his nomination to the executive council.

Rear Admiral John A. Rodgers, U. S. N. retired, 70 years old and with a notable record in two wars to his credit has returned to the navy for active service. He reported to Rear Admiral Wood, commanding the First naval district, Boston.

The Haskell Adams Company, wholesale grocers, of Boston has contributed $1000 to the Massachusetts Food Administrator, to be applied by him to some war charity, as a consequence of sales of flour without sufficient substitutes made by that firm last spring.

All physical examinations of draft registrants and all meetings of registrants with legal advisory boards in this state have been suspended by Adj. Gen. Jesse F. Stevens by authority of Provost Marshal General Crowder. The time for return of a questionnaire is extended.

Sixteen alleged moonshiners from Fall River and Dighton, practically all of whom federal officers assert were running stills in their homes, have been indicted by the federal grand jury on the charge of failing to "register distilling apparatus with the collector of internal revenue."

Connecticut was declared to be debt free at the close of the state's fiscal year, by the state treasurer's office, and the surplus of cash is enough to pay outstanding bonds and leave a substantial amount over. When Gov. Marcus H. Holcomb took office in 1914 the state had a debt of $11,920,002.

President Robert J. Aley of that University of Maine announces that because of the crowded state of the dormitories it would be impossible to enroll any more students, either old and new, for the present college year. All the dormitories and fraternity houses are filled, and the mess hall is crowded beyond its capacity.

Despite the fact that Governor McCall of Mass., withdrew as a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator before the time for filing nomination papers expired, he made a return to the secretary of state under the corrupt practices act showing that he expended $64 in the brief period of his candidacy.

The John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company Boston, has decided to add another $1,000,000 to its subscription of $5,000,000 already made to the Fourth Liberty Loan, making a total of $6,000,000 for this new loan. This added to its present holdings, will make an aggregate of $13,845,000 for the company's purchase of all issues of Liberty Bonds.

Joseph J. Dillas has resigned his position as New England representative of the International Typographical Union, to accept an appointment as New England representative of the Industrial Relations Group of the Emergency Fleet Corporation, United States shipping board. He has served as secretary of Boston Typographical Union and as president of the Boston Allied Printing Trades Council.

The cost of living in the Portland and Bath districts in the state of Maine jumped more than 60 per cent since 1914, according to figures given out by government investigators. Since December, 1914, there was an increase of 62.85 per cent in the cost of living in the Portland district and an increase of 68.02 per cent in the Bath district. Since March 1918, the cost advanced 20.15 per cent in the Bath district and 20.91 per cent in the Portland district.

At the close of a stormy session lasting more than two hours, the Democratic state committee at Boston by a vote of 15 to 3, refused to accept the resignation of Chairman Michael A. O'Leary. The committee then reaffirmed its vote of July 27 that the conduct of the campaign and the handling of all funds of all candidates should be left to the state committee.

Announcement was made in Boston by Katherine Lent Stevenson, president of the Massachusetts Woman's Christian Temperance union, of the postponement until Nov. 5 of the annual meeting scheduled to be held at Leominster beginning Oct. 15. This action was requested by Henry B. Endicott, chairman of the state emergency public health committee, because of the epidemic of influenza.

Robert Scoville, federal food administrator for Connecticut, threatened to break the first retailer in Connecticut who is fairly caught violating the new liberal wheat conservation regulations. He made this announcement because of increase in complaints to the effect that grocers are selling large amounts of wheat flour with less than 20 per cent of substitutes, and in some cases without substitutes at all.

Secretary of State Albert P. Langtry returned to Boston from Washington after being informed that the secretary of war will not permit any one to go overseas for the purpose of obtaining the votes of the soldiers for the November election. Mr. Langtry with Lewis Sullivan of the Governor's council and Charles S. Baxter had been appointed a committee by Gov. McCall to make the trip as the official representatives of the state.

Permits were granted by the Government and the charter issued to a group of Lynn and Woburn, Me., men for the Medomak Shipbuilding Company to be located at Wadboro, on the Medomak river in the old yards where the well known Palmer fleet of six masters was built and where the famous Governor Ames was launched. The yards have been owned by one family since 1798 and the present owner A. R. Reed is the last of the family.

Increased wages for employees of the Boston Elevated Railway Company, awarded by the War Labor Board will add to the cost of running the company $3,000,000 a year. The award is effective as of June 15 last and fixes the pay of surface line motormen and conductors at from 43 to 48 cents an hour and of motormen on elevated lines at from 45 to 50 cents an hour. Wages of elevated guards and brakemen were fixed at from 40 to 44 1/2 cents an hour.

Theatres, motion picture houses, dance halls and other amusement resorts in Boston, which have been closed for the past week because of the influenza epidemic were ordered to remain closed until Oct. 14 by the city emergency health committee. Under the original order they were to have been permitted to reopen last Monday. In order that their employees might not be obliged to travel during "rush" hours several business houses have put new working hours into effect.

Continuation of operation of the war industries of New England during the coming winter is assured, provided there is no interruption to the operation of mines, railroads or coastwise shipping supplying the district during October and November. With a continuation of efforts by the New England public to conserve coal, the fuel administration in a statement said that "not even a repetition of the unprecedented severity of last winter's weather will prevent the furnaces of New England from operating at full blast from the present time until the return of moderate weather next spring."

By an order of the Public Service Commission 10-cent local telephone calls of Boston and other cities of the State must be discontinued on and after December 1. The commission also ordered the Telephone Company to file before Nov. 1 a new schedule of rates to hotels. The decision is based on the fact that the telephone business is engaged in solely by the Telephone Company, under authority, in this State, and that "no other person or persons has any similar authority" and that hotels have no right to "retail or resell telephone service" to the public, making such charges as they see fit.

The deer hunting season in Maine began Oct. 1, and continues until Dec. 16, with no Sunday or night hunting allowed. Deer cannot be sold or taken out of the State except by the person killing it. There is no open season on cow moose, and the closed season of four years on bull moose ends Oct. 1, 1919. There is also a perpetual closed season on Caribou, now almost extinct in this State. Non-residents must have a license to hunt in this State, costing $15 for deer or $5 for birds only. It is not expected that the hunting season this year will bring anywhere near the number of hunters that have been in the habit of visiting Maine in previous years on account of various war-work activities. Reports from the big game country show that there is about the average amount of game, and that hunting conditions otherwise are about normal. The partridge and woodcock season begins Oct. 1 and ends Nov. 30. Hunters are allowed five partridges and ten woodcock, but cannot sell them either to markets or individuals.

PERFECTION Oil Heaters

Would you Breakfast in comfort these frosty mornings?
Would you like to read your paper in a warm den after a hard day's work?
Would you keep the family warm these damp chilly days, and ward off influenza and other illness?
Would you save coal and wood for the more extreme weather of our snow-bound winter?

Then be wise and buy a PERFECTION OIL HEATER now while we have them to sell. The shipment just opened is probably the last we shall be able to secure this season.

Be Sure It is a Perfection—They insure you against all the annoying troubles people often experience with other kinds.

Our Prices are the Factory Prices, ~~25%~~
$5.65, $6.70, $7.15, $8.50

H. H. Barber Co. Dept. Store
Special Attention given to Mail and Telephone Orders
MILFORD, New Hampshire

U.S.N. DECK PAINT

for porches, floors and walls
DRIES HARD OVERNIGHT

There's no danger of spoiling clothes with wet paint if the chairs, swings, or other articles are coated with U. S. N. Deck Paint. Under ordinary conditions it dries hard in twelve hours and remains so. Weather conditions do not affect it, so it never becomes soft and sticky. It can also be repeatedly scrubbed with hot water and soap without injuring its surface.

Thousands of chairs on the steel pier at Atlantic City, N. J., are painted with U. S. N. Deck Paint because no other paint has been found that will stand the wear and tear as well.

Many beautiful shades to select from.
FOR SALE BY

GUY A. HULETT
PAINTING AND PAPER HANGING
Antrim, N. H.

ACCOMMODATION!

To and From Antrim
Railroad Station.

Trains leave Antrim Depot as follows:

A. M.	7.08	7.44
P. M.	12.01	1.53
	4.09	7.24

Sunday: 6.22, 6.43, 11.40 a.m.; 4.53 p.m.
Stage leaves Express Office 15 minutes earlier than departure of train.

Stage will call for passengers if word is left at Express Office in Jameson Block.

Passengers for the early morning train should leave word at Express Office the night before.

SCHOOL BOARD'S NOTICE

The School Board meets regularly in Town Clerk's Room, in Town Hall block, the Last Saturday afternoon in each month, at 1 o'clock, to transact School District business and to hear all parties. Those wishing an interview should appear before 2 o'clock.

G. E. HASTINGS,
J. D. HUTCHINSON,
H. B. DRAKE,
Antrim School Board.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

ANTRIM'S LIBERTY BOND QUOTA

Has Been Subscribed, and the Total Sum Will Soon Be in the Hands of the Committee

Quota raised, with a number of our residents yet to be heard from.

Do not hesitate to put in your subscription just because we have our quota raised, for the government needs all the money it can possibly secure to down the peace drive by the Huns and secure the lasting peace the allies are fighting for.

Anyone of the committee will gladly receive your subscription and thank you for it.

Hillsborough county is well represented among the 39 honor towns of the state which have exceeded their quotas in the Fighting Fourth Liberty Loan campaign. Eleven communities in this county are over the mark, namely: Antrim, Peterboro, Bennington, Merrimack, Sharon, Deering, Greenville, Litchfield, Hancock, Greenfield and Hollis.

In Greenfield, Chairman Walter L. Hopkins' committee went to it with enthusiasm equal to that of Yankee doughboys facing a Hun machine-gun nest with the result that over $41,300 was subscribed in short order. In the same manner, Edson K. Upton, chairman of the Hancock committee, and his workers put his town over the $18,800 mark.

Of these quotas, the Women's Liberty Loan committee was responsible for good shares, the subscriptions directly traceable to their efforts representing much work and devotion. In Hancock, the women raised $7,350 and the women's committee of Greenfield brought in subscriptions amounting to $4,800.

Bennington's goal was $27,400 and Chairman Arthur F. Bell's corps of workers made short work of it as is evidenced by its place among the first 38.

Generally, state headquarters reports that 80 towns which have not yet oversubscribed their quotas report an average better than 60 percent of the amounts already raised.

HOW TO GET RID OF RHEUMATISM

"Fruit-a-Tives" Point the Way to Quick Relief

"I suffered for a number of years with Rheumatism and severe Pains in my Side and Back, caused by strains and heavy lifting.

When I had given up hope of ever being well again, a friend recommended 'Fruit-a-Tives' (or Fruit Liver Tablets) to me and after using the first box I felt so much better that I continued to take them; and now I am enjoying the best of health.

W. M. LAMPSON.
50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c.
At all dealers or sent on receipt of price, by FRUIT-A-TIVES Limited, OGDENSBURG, N. Y.

BAKERY AND ICE CREAM BUSINESS CLOSED

Violated Food Administration Regulations in Regard to Sugar—Output of Mill Feeds—Sugar Situation in Canada.

Concord, N. H., September 11: Baldwin A. Reich of Portsmouth appeared here today before Huntley N. Spaulding, Federal Food Administrator for New Hampshire, for violations of the Food Administration regulations as to his statement regarding the use of sugar for his bakery and ice cream business. Mr. Reich was ordered to close his establishment from the end of business Saturday night, September twenty-first to the opening of business Monday morning, September thirtieth and to post in a conspicuous place in his window during this time the following sign:

CLOSED
BY ORDER OF
HUNTLEY N. SPAULDING
FEDERAL FOOD ADMINISTRATOR
FOR NEW HAMPSHIRE
FOR VIOLATION OF
FOOD ADMINISTRATION
REGULATIONS

Mr. Reich was also deprived of sugar for his ice cream business for an indefinite time and allowed only 250 pounds of sugar per month beginning with the October allotment for his bakery.

MARGINS OF PROFIT ON SUGAR.

Many of the retail distributors of food commodities in the state are now receiving sugar at the higher prices. They have been informed that the Administration intends to enforce strictly the regulations which call for a margin of profit of one cent per pound. Several instances of unfair prices have been brought to the notice of the Food Administration and the offending dealers strictly dealt with. This policy will be carried out in the future in every case where dealers endeavor to obtain an unfair margin of profit on sugar.

GRINDING NEW HAMPSHIRE WHEAT.

As has been stated before in this column, millers are permitted under the present regulations to grind for farmers, out of wheat the farmers themselves have raised, an amount of white flour sufficient to provide the family of the grower until August 1, 1918. It is necessary, however, for the grower in order to secure delivery of this supply of white flour to sign one of two pledges. The first pledge is to be used where the farmer intends to use his own home grown substitutes and the other where he intends to purchase the substitutes. Millers of this state have been supplied with mimeographed copies of these pledges and they are expected to obtain the signature of every farmer bringing the wheat to the mill upon delivery of the flour to the farmer.

FLOUR COMPANY'S LICENSE REVOKED.

The license of the David Stott Flour Mills Incorporated, a Michigan Corporation, with storehouses at Manchester, Dover, Somersworth, Rochester, Nashua and Portsmouth, this state, has been revoked until further notice. The revocation to become effective October 5th next.

At a hearing at the office of David E. Heineman, County Food Administrator for Wayne, Michigan, on Friday, September thirteenth, it was proved that the company had failed to keep proper records and accounts and to render correct reports, reporting the actual business transactions of the company.

It was also found that the company's reporting jobbing department was so purely fictitious as to indicate an intentional evasion of the regulations for reports.

The company's representative in this state, L. F. Eaton, has been notified that such action as may be necessary for disposing of stocks, on and after the above date, shall be under the approval and supervision of the Federal Food Administrator for New Hampshire.

BENNINGTON

A Weekly News Letter of Interest

The paper mill opened up partially on Monday morning.

Ralph E. Messer is in Boston, where he has a position.

Arthur J. Pierce wishes to thank those that helped put out the fire on his farm Tuesday afternoon; but for their expeditious and capable work, more disastrous results would have been the outcome.

In the fire at the home farm of Major A. J. Pierce, on Tuesday afternoon, the piggy bank was burned to the ground. Nearly all the stock was saved, however, and the prompt work of neighbors prevented a larger loss.

A son, Walter Merle, Jr., was born on Sunday, October 6, to Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Smith, of Springfield, Mass. Mrs. Smith will be remembered as Miss Mildred Phelps who used to visit here with her aunt, Mrs. Morris Cheney.

Mrs. Guy Venio died at the home of James Venio, in Hillsboro, on Friday last. She was born Kate Curtis and lived in this town most of her life, marrying Mr. Venio early last spring; was the daughter of Mrs. Josiah Curtis, and of the several children this was the first break by death among them. She was about 28 years of age.

Geo. O. Joslin, who has operated a store here for the past 27 years, has given notice that beginning Nov. 1, he will make several changes in his business. He will discontinue his order teams, although goods will be delivered every afternoon, and all sales will be on a strictly cash basis. Also after his present stock of dry goods and merchandise is exhausted it will not be replenished, but he will still continue to carry a large line of groceries. See his advertisement on this page.

EAST ANTRIM

Seems strange not to knit; it had become a habit, and a pleasure too.

Wm. G. Richardson, of Winchester, Mass., is visiting with his son, Harry Richardson and family.

F. I. Graves is critically ill at his home. His children were summoned last week, and one is remaining here to assist in caring for him.

BREAD PRICES DETERMINED

Maximum Retail Price of Bread Fixed in This State—Also Maximum Margins on American and Cheddar Cheese—Margins of Profit on Sugar—Grinding New Hampshire Wheat—Flour Mill Company's License Revoked.

Concord, October 3, 1918—The Food Administration has learned that in some sections of the State the price of three-fourths pound, one pound and one and one-half pound loaves of bread was eight, twelve and sixteen cents. These prices are in excess of the prices which the Food Administration believes should be established as maximum retail prices for bread.

The Baking Division of the United States Food Administration has made a very thorough investigation of the manufacturing costs and wholesale and retail prices of bread and has found that the bread should not be retailed at more than eight, ten and fifteen cents for the three-fourths pound one pound and one and one-half pound loaves respectively.

These are maximum prices for either "cash and carry" or "credit and delivery" stores and they will be enforced in this state. Mr. Spaulding has called upon the administrators in eight towns and cities in New Hampshire to effect an immediate revision downward in the price of bread so that local prices will conform with the prices indicated by the United States Food Administration.

MAXIMUM MARGIN ON CHEESE.

All the retail grocers in the state have been informed that: maximum margins covering sales of American or Cheddar cheese have been set at six and seven cents per pound with fractional costs in the dealers' favor. Six cents is the maximum for "cash and carry" stores, and seven for the extra service stores.

Any New Hampshire dealer doing a large business in the above variety of cheese who cares to receive more specific information on this subject, may obtain the same by writing to the Federal Food Administrator, State House, Concord.

NORTH BRANCH

Miss Laura Kidder, of Franconstown, is visiting her sister, Mrs. G. F. Lowe for a season.

Mr. and Mrs. Toward have returned from their Maine trip.

The Branch was treated to an unusual sight the past week: a large band of gypsies passing through on their way to Keene.

Mrs. L. H. Bishop, of Charlestown, Mass., is a visitor at Mr. and Mrs. Taft's.

Clint Butterfield spent the week end at his home.

Miss NeSmith was a Branch caller Sunday.

Miss Frances Flint is home on an enforced vacation, owing to the epidemic in Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Worthley, of Derry, have been stopping at Ella Robinson's for a few days.

Mrs. Earl Sheldon and son, Wesley, and her brother, Floyd Livingston, were Branch callers recently.

We are wondering if the party that went up Buck Hill Sunday afternoon were prepared for the watery reception they received—"nuff ced."

Mr. Mathews, of Hillsboro, is sawing W. D. Wheeler's wood.

Children Cry for Mother's CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA
Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

Bears the Signature of
Chas. H. Fletcher
In Use For Over 30 Years
The Kind You Have Always Bought
THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

To the Public and Patrons of My Stores Both in Bennington and Antrim:

I have been in trade in Bennington 27 years and have tried to serve the public to the best of my ability; both in goods of good quality, and prices as low or even lower in many cases than they could be bought elsewhere.

I now find myself physically unfit to do the amount of work that I have been obliged to do in the past 27 years and as everyone knows help is hard to get at this time and wages very high, and I have not and cannot make my business pay under conditions we have had for the past two years, so I have decided to close out my large stock of merchandise as soon as possible. I shall replenish and keep a full line of Provisions and Groceries, but all of my dry goods, underwear, clothing, crockery, tin-ware, horsewear, and many other articles when sold out will not be replaced with new.

Now if you will watch and compare my prices with others in small towns, also much larger towns and cities, I feel sure that you will be convinced that this is the store in which to spend your money.

On and after Nov. 1, 1918 I shall discontinue sending out my order teams to solicit orders, but shall deliver goods every afternoon commencing at 2 o'clock; no orders to be delivered after 6 o'clock, and no orders taken after 2 o'clock will be delivered until 2 the next day.

All goods sold after Nov. 1, 1918 will be sold for SPOT CASH, either at the store or when delivered; no exceptions will be made in any case.

Financial and business conditions compel me to take this radical step. I shall have coupon books from $5.00 to $100.00 that I shall be glad to sell anyone who wants them. They are used quite extensively in many stores for convenience and a money saver. On every $1.00 in coupon book we will give you 2% off. I hope the cutting out of my extensive and long time credit business will not work anyone a hardship.

I feel sure that I can sell you goods for a much less profit, as the step I have taken will save a great expense and loss, and I will try to give my customers the benefit of it.

Watch for low prices on the largest stock of goods in any town of this size in New Hampshire.

Once more I will kindly ask you not to ask for one cent of credit for I mean business and no exception will be made.

I shall continue to be your faithful servant.

GEORGE O. JOSLIN,
Bennington, N. H.

GEORGE O. JOSLIN

BENNINGTON : : CLINTON

Expert Advice on Water Supply

Is to be our especial contribution of War Service. To Farm successfully, abundant Water is needed. We have drilled many successful wells in and about Antrim, as well as in other parts of New Hampshire, and can point to a long list of satisfied customers. Several of our machines are now at work in New Hampshire. Calls for advice on Individual or Community Artesian Wells will receive prompt attention.

BAY STATE ARTESIAN WELL COMY, INC.
42 No. Main St. CONCORD, N. H.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children
In Use For Over 30 Years
Always bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

Administrator's Notice
The subscriber gives notice that he has been duly appointed Administrator of the Estate of Ellen M. Condit, late of Hancock, in the county of Hillsboro, deceased. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make payment, and all having claims to present them for adjustment. Peterborough, N. H., Sept. 26, A. D. 1918. JAMES F. BRENNAN, Administrator.

W. L. Lawrence
ANTRIM, N. H.
Sole Agent for
Geo. E. Buxton
FLORIST

The Largest Greenhouses in Southern N. H.
FLOWERS for all OCCASIONS
Flowers by Telephone to All Parts of U. S.
Phone 811-W NASHUA, N. H.

400 TYPEWRITERS
All kinds and all grades, REMINGTONS $15 up
Illustration book with each machine.
EMPIRE TYPE FOUNDRY, Mrs. Type and Press Supply BUFFALO, N. Y.