Don't Live Another Winter in a "Refrigerator"

A Round Oak Pipeless Furnace will keep your house as warm as toast for a season of winter. Only one register to put in the floor—only one fire to tend—only one day's work to install. Burns any kind of fuel.

ROUND OAK PIPELESS FURNACE

But you had better look into it at once, though winter seems months away. The demand exceeds the supply of these quality furnaces and they are hard to get. The few we have left will be gone in a short while—better see us at once, don't you think?

Waverley Lodge Attends in Goodly Numbers

Our readers all know from announcements in these columns from week to week for some time past, that Waverley Lodge of Odd Fellows, together with Valley Lodge, of Hillsboro, and the Rebekah lodges of each town, had accepted an invitation from Bethesda Lodge of South Boston to be their guests on the occasion of the ninety-sixth annual session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge in Boston, on September 29, on what was known as the big day of the week, the day when the largest number of Odd Fellows would be in the city and when the grand parade of the Order would be pulled off. This was also the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in the state of Massachusetts, and many of the lodges in the vicinity of Boston entertained in royal manner.

But when it came to being entertained, the lodges above referred to were among the most fortunate of all, for Bethesda Lodge far and away surpassed all former efforts along this line and we know somewhat of its record as a host. Perhaps here it is well to say that not one single thing was left undone that would in any way enhance the pleasure of their guests. From their arrival in Boston and even before the party had entered North Station, committees had joined them and were looking after their every desire, and all the needs of the party had been anticipated and were met hours in advance.

There were around fifty from Antrim and nearly as many more from Hillsboro, who were joined by others awaiting them at North Station, making a company of more than a hundred to receive real Bethesda hospitality. And the members of our party were greatly impressed with the variety of hospitality that was passed out to us every moment of the day and evening till the special train left North Station at 10.20 in the evening for the return trip up into the granite hills of New Hampshire.

It would not do the South Boston boys justice if we stopped right here and said no more about the day's program, so we go a little more into detail, yet we can't put on paper the splendid way they carried out every number planned for the occasion—words fail to express what deserves to be said.

At North Station electric cars were in waiting to convey our party to South Boston to Bethesda hall; on arrival there a box lunch was served to everyone, together with coffee, tonics, and cigars. All had plenty of chance for rest, social intercourse, to look over the splendid apartments owned and controlled by Bethesda lodge, and amuse themselves in any way they desired. At about 1 o'clock march was started for Commonwealth avenue to take our position in the parade, headed by the Boston Letter Carriers' Band and escorted by the boys whose guests we were. At Dartmouth street our party had the unavoidable wait that always goes with a parade, but it was not of a tiresome nature because of the opportunity to watch the moving of other divisions of the parade and the chance to visit members of other lodges as well as among ourselves. In time our division was in line and passed the reviewing stands, and soon we were on our way back to the starting point, having been a part of the 40,000 Odd Fellows in one of the largest and grandest parades ever held in the city of Boston. During the parade some had, taken side trips by auto and electric cars to a few of the many points of interest nearby, this little attention further showing the thoughtfulness of our hosts in caring for their guests. At 6.30 came the banquet and naturally after a busy day all had their appetites with them, but this condition had been anticipated and the quantity and quality of the menu was such that there was plenty and to spare after all had been filled—and we had in our party some very good feeders ordinarily.

During the banquet an orchestra discoursed fine music and the violinist being also a soloist rendered pleasing selections. A feature of this part of the program was chorus singing of popular songs, led by L. H. Carpen-

FROM WASHINGTON

The Reporter's Correspondent Writes Again

PLENTY OF MONEY CREDITS IN COUNTRY

The United States Treasury has been having something to say about the extension of credit by the Government. Now that the Federal Reserve Banks operate like clock-work, the finances of the country are regulated in Washington, and the old bogie of the private "banking power" is dead. The Treasury statements explain that there is plenty of money for every legitimate purpose in all parts of the country. Much of the popular clamor for more credit comes from speculators and persons desiring to hold their goods for higher prices. Secretary Houston says that the Government could hardly aid in withholding commodities from the markets by extension of credit, "without being a party to a conspiracy in restraint of trade and making more secure high price levels." Credit expansion recently has been ample, the Secretary said, to provide for the movement of crops, and the general tendency has been more toward expansion than restriction.

MINING AND MOVING COAL

The group of irresponsibles among mine workers who thought they would defy the United States government, and go on "vacations," as a means of defeating the Government wage award, have found out the error of their way, and have returned to work.

The uneasiness concerning coal for the coming winter has been general. Several weeks ago the Interstate Commerce Commission issued an order giving preference for the shipment of 1,250,000 tons of coal monthly to New England through tidewater ports from Hampton Roads to New York. The situation has improved sufficiently so that the present continuance of this emergency order is regarded as unnecessary. According to the Railway Age the latest statistics regarding the amount of freight being moved by the railroads demonstrate that there has been as yet no decline of general business activity in the United States. This is evidenced by the fact that the demand for cars is greater than the railroads can supply. However, it has also been made plain by the statistics that the efficiency with which the railroads are being operated is still increasing. For instance, 273,755 more carloads of freight were handled in August, 1920, than for the same period last year.

Railway management under private ownership of the roads has succeeded in speeding up the handling of transportation far beyond anything shown in the days of the Railroad Administration, when "emergency orders" were an everyday occurrence. When the railroad executives set a mark for an average of thirty miles per day per car several weeks ago, supercilious politicians around Washington who "adn't been able to get anywhere near that goal under public operation, said "it can't be done." But the railroad managers and operators have gone ahead and made good on their promises, very much to the delight of the shippers of the country.

GERMANY IS "BEATING BACK"

Brokerage houses are specializing on German marks, and German city bonds are being offered and accepted by American investors. The "thrift" of the Germans is printed in financial pamphlets, and a good deal of bragging is done by our late enemy. On top of this the United States Shipping Board is using its vigorous efforts to establish a joint arrangement between American and German steamship companies that will cause a resumption of the passenger and freight service between Germany and the American Atlantic ports.

Settled Out of Court

The three suits of Harry S. Eldredge, formerly of Antrim, against James B. Healy, of Nashua, and Mrs. Catherine Healy against Mr. Eldredge, were settled out of court Monday afternoon, after a jury had been drawn and several witnesses heard. The suits resulted from an auto accident on the Milford road July 8, 1917. Both automobiles were badly smashed, counter suits resulted.

MR. AND MRS. BENNETT

Well Known to Antrim People, Die in Manchester

The death of Mrs. Augusta S. Bennett occurred at her home in Manchester early Friday morning, closely following that of her husband, Andrew J. Bennett, which occurred early Thursday evening.

Mrs. Bennett was the daughter of Moody B. McIlvin and Mary W. (Stickney) McIlvin, and born at Antrim July 31, 1837.

She was educated in the schools at Antrim and at Hopkinton academy, and in the high school at Belknap Falls, Vt. After leaving school she was a teacher for seven years.

She was a member of Louis Bell Relief Corps, No. 17, of Manchester, and past department president of the Woman's Relief Corps of the State of New Hampshire. Mrs. Bennett was chaplain of Ruth Chapter, Eastern Star, of Manchester, and for many years grand chaplain of the Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star for New Hampshire.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett are survived by a son, Moodybell S. Bennett, and two grandchildren, Frances A. Bennett and Barbara L. Bennett, all of Manchester, and a sister, Mrs. Louise H. Crombie, of Antrim.

A double funeral was held for the couple from the Christian Community church at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

The Late W. H. Allen

The sudden death of Mr. W. H. Allen, which occurred on Monday came as a great shock to his many relatives and friends. Mr. Allen, who had suffered for some time from heart trouble, was taken with a sudden attack of the disease on Monday last on his return from a business trip by car, and was later found leaning forward in his car with one hand on the emergency brake, where he must have died almost instantly.

The funeral service was held at his home on Pine St. on Thursday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Fray, pastor of the Baptist Church, officiating, assisted by Rev. Mr. Terry and Rev. Mr. Hunter, of Sherbrooke.

The bearers were Chas. Baldwin, Wm. Wallace and Eugene Young, three of his other deacons, and Wm. Davis, Sr., John May, Marshal Hill.

Interment was made in Mt. Forest Cemetery.

Mr. Allen, who was 58 years of age, was the son of the late Hiram Allen, who fell in the Civil War and the late Lucy A. Woodworth; he was born in Fairfield, Maine, February 2, 1862, from which place he came to make his home in Coaticook, when he was sixteen years of age. He met Miss Edwina Richardson in 1878, who became his wife in 1883. In 1884 he built the house on Pine St., where his family now resides. For several years he carried on a farm in town, but for the past 22 years he has had charge of the cemetery, which for several years has required all his time.

In 1898 both Mr. and Mrs. Allen became members, by baptism, of the Baptist Church, and from that time until his death Mr. Allen occupied various responsible offices in the church, being Treasurer 21 years, Superintendent of the Sunday School, and at the time of his death was one of its deacons.

In 1884 he joined the I. O. O. F., and was one of the oldest members here. He was also a member of the Masonic Lodge.

He leaves to mourn his passing, his wife, Mrs. Edwina Allen, and three children, Rev. G. W. Allen, of Maxville, Harold Allen and Miss Bertha Allen, a brother, Hiram Allen of Antrim, N. H., besides many nieces and nephews, 2 brothers-in-law, 2 sisters-in-law, 1 daughter-in-law, and 6 grandchildren.

The sympathy of the townspeople is extended to the bereaved family in their sudden loss, which also deprives the town of one of its most respected and esteemed citizens, and his church of one of its most enthusiastic and willing workers.

The many floral tributes showed the esteem in which he was held.

Among those from out of town who attended the funeral were: Hiram L. Allen, Miss Wilma Allen, Mrs. Vester Cleveland, of Antrim, N. H.; Fred Luce of Compton; Mrs. Julia Horne, Norway, Me.; Mrs. Carrie Johnson of Lancaster, N. H.; Rev. G. W. Allen, Mrs. Allen and family, of Maxville, Ont.; Rev. Mr. Terry and Rev. J. H. Hunter, of Sherbrooke; and Nelson Stevens.—Coaticook, Que., Observer.

A FEW THOUGHTS

Suggested by What Is Happening Around

Among the Presidential Electors chosen by the Democrats is Mrs. Marion D. Jameson, of Antrim, wife of Hon. J. E. Jameson.

It is not the province of the Editor of a newspaper to enter into family, or neighborhood, or community differences by inserting items reflecting on those between whom there is ill feeling.

We note in an exchange an advertisement which reads: "Wanted—Young man over 18 years to drive Ford truck in grocery store." That's a new stunt for a "Henry." They can go most anywhere 'tis true, but one would think in a grocery they would be like the proverbial bull in a china store.

It is apparent that the Republicans are making a very serious campaign in the hope, aided by their women voters, of recapturing Hillsboro County from the Democrats, said the Boston Sunday Globe. Two years ago Sheriff John T. O'Dowd, who is the Democratic candidate again, won his election by a plurality of 2101 over his Republican opponent. For the other county offices the Democrats had a much smaller lead. For county solicitor, Hon. Timothy F. O'Conner, Democrat, won the election by a lead of 224 over Irving G. Haselton, and these two candidates are pitted against each other again. The Democrats elected their candidate for treasurer by 203, their candidate for register of deeds by 22, lost the office of register of probate by 83, elected two County Commissioners by a slender majority and lost the third commissioner.

Both political parties at their State conventions of last week took note of the fact that at the November election the voters are to express themselves in regard to some important proposed changes in the constitution of New Hampshire.

The platform adopted by the Republicans "earnestly recommends careful consideration of the faithful work of the constitutional convention to the end that changes in the organic law of our State may be made through the intelligence and deliberate judgment of all the people." In view of the fact that the president of the convention, Hon. Albert O. Brown, of Manchester, candidate for Governor, and the further fact that the floor leader of the convention, Bank Commissioner James O. Lyford, was a member of the Republican platform committee, some surprise is manifested at the failure of the party to give more specific indorsement to the work of the convention.

Don't Waste Time

It's a waste of time to experiment with liniments and plasters when you have a dull, throbbing headache or sharp, stabbing twinges. Get after the cause! Help the kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor! Read this.

C. H. Hinds, 119 E. Bow St., Franklin, N. H., gave the following account of his experience with Doan's Kidney Pills in September, 1908: "Being on my feet long hours was a strain on my back and kidneys and I suffered a long time from kidney trouble. I had dull, nagging pains across my kidneys. My kidneys acted too frequently and caused me a great deal of annoyance. I tried a number of medicines, but nothing seemed to give me relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. In a short time the dull, nagging headaches and pains left me and my kidneys were regulated."

THE RESULTS LASTED
Seven years later Mr. Hinds said: "I am always glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. They made a permanent cure for me and I have nothing but praise for them."

The Democrats, in their platform gave specific approval to the proposed amendment allowing the Governor to veto items in appropriation bills, and specific disapproval to the amendment which would change the basis of representation in the lower branch of the Legislature.

In pursuance of a recommendation from the President of the United States Governor Bartlett has proclaimed Saturday, October 9, 1920, as Fire Prevention Day in the state of New Hampshire.

Much thought and attention has been given the matter of how best to open up and widen a breach between what is known as the regular Republican faction and the "irreconcilables" so called, by those who think that by the presence of such a split there will be less chance for a change at the November election. But this class of agitators are "out of luck" for the leaders of every faction are working together harmoniously for a grand old time Republican victory at the polls in just twenty-seven days from today.

Ex President Taft is known as being favorable to the League of Nations, and after the Maine election here is what he said:

"It is a decision on Mr. Wilson's referendum, 'the League with Article X or no League.' That was the definite issue finally put forward by the Democrats, and it certainly did not carry the state for them. But was that the real issue? Certainly not. The real issue was: Shall the Wilson administration be approved and continued under Cox? The voters were not greatly concerned with the League. It is not a subject that in its nature grips great masses of the people."

that go down through generations

WE are frankly proud of this store's reputation as Headquarters for time-pieces.

We have literally timed the community. Our watches are ticking merrily away in homes everywhere. And what is more important still, these watches have kept correct time. They have been something more than looks.

It is just as well to keep in mind that the purchase of a watch should be made with the greatest possible care. Watches are bought for a lifetime but for many. A time-piece should be handed down from one generation to another—from father to son—indefinitely. And a good watch will give this service uncompromisingly. We have in stock all standard makes and all in all types and designs, from the highly specialized railroad time-piece to the delicate mechanism of the wrist watch for my lady of fashion.

We take more than ordinary care in showing you these watches. We too, realize that a watch is an investment for the future. Rings are very much the same—they must last. If rings fall from gem-set fingers the investment can scarcely be called a wise one. We therefore call to your attention the remarkably fine Guaranteed line from the house of W.W.W.—White, Wile and Warner, of Buffalo. They have a reputation that years of honest merchandising has built up.

NEW PIECE OF MACHINERY
Has Been Added the Past Week to the Reporter's Printing Office Equipment

For a while past we have had a little more work in our printing office than we could comfortably do in the nine hour day that prevails, and extra time has been and is a common thing for at least one of our force. It became necessary to make some sort of an arrangement whereby we could produce more results in the same length of time, and help being hard to get and very expensive, it seemed best to procure a press feeder of some mechanical sort. We have looked up the claims of the several automatic feeders and taken the time to see some of them working, and decided to purchase one of the best we could find anywhere on the market today. It is known as the Miller Automatic Press Feeder, and called by some users "The Iron Man." It is the last thing in platen press feeders; is fitted up to our 10 x 15 Chandler & Price Gordon press (which is practically new) and makes a combination for the prompt execution of a nice grade of commercial printing which cannot be excelled by any country office and equalled by but few city places. In the installation of this improved machinery we have had in mind the needs and demands of our patrons and now we are able to announce that we are in a position to serve them better than ever before.
The illustration presented herewith gives some idea of the feeder attachment, although but few who are not familiar with job printing presses could get much idea from it. A better way will be to come into our office when it is working and watch its perfectly accurate motions, its tireless and continuous attention to business, the way it has of producing results. While we as an operator are a long distance from being an expert, we are learning the ways of the new employee and will soon know all its requirements in order to get the best results from it. We should be pleased to show everyone interested in machinery just how this new employee performs his work.
There is very much more we might say regarding this new piece of machinery, but think we have said quite enough to convince our patrons that we are constantly alive to the idea of giving them service and doing it in a satisfactory manner.

ter, well known by all the members of our party as he formerly resided in Antrim; this was an enjoyable part of the program. In connection with the banquet our party was privileged to listen to speeches from the highest men in the order: Grand Sirs Borst, Grand Sir Elect Oliver, Past Grand Sir Pinkerton, Grand Representative Potter, Grand Master Reed of Massachusetts, and others. The toastmaster was George A. Gray, who formerly resided in Bennington and took his degrees in Waverley lodge; he made a very pleasing presiding officer.
Following the speaking by the Order's leading men, an entertainer, Herbert A. Clark, occupied the stage for an hour and gave some very amusing character sketches, told funny stories and sang catchy songs.
The hour now had arrived when the guests must all depart for their respective homes, and electricians conveyed the New Hampshire boys back to the North Station where the special train was awaiting them.
It has been the Reporter's thought to give as good a description of the day's trip as space would allow, and we wish we might say more regarding the manner in which our party was received and entertained by the members of Bethesda Lodge. We have tried to make it plain that our entertainment was the best that could be given without a single exception, and also it should be stated that every member of the party, including the small number of Rebekahs, enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent and appreciated very much all that was done for them.
In this connection it might be well to state that in addition to George A. Gray having been a member of Waverley Lodge at one time and now of Bethesda, William M. Buchanan, formerly of Antrim, is also a member of this lodge, as well as George W. Symes, son of Mrs. Huldah Wing, the latter being a member of Bernice Rebekah Lodge of that place. Another nice thing that Bethesda Lodge did was to send an auto from Boston to Antrim and take Mrs. Wing to the city to be their special guest for the day, and to say she enjoyed it greatly is putting it in a mild form.

The funeral of Orlando Fogg, who was the oldest man in town, took place at the Congregational church here Saturday afternoon, Rev. Frank Pearson officiating. There was a solo by Mrs. Annie Lindsay Putnam. The bearers were G. W. Goodhue, Almon Hill, Frank Wood and E. K. Upton.
Mr. Fogg was born in Hancock 88 years ago. For several years he was a successful farmer in Harrisville, and for many years one here.
A One-Funnel Gunarder.
The new Cunarder Scythia, according to an English newspaper, is to have only one funnel, for all her 20,000 tons. Time was when a liner's standing was in direct ratio with the number of her funnels. Four funnels indicated A1 rank. One famous steamship was, it is said, equipped with an unnecessary fourth funnel simply for appearance's sake. But now, it seems, the funnels are to go, for only one is really necessary.—From the Outlook.
Seals Migrate Early.
The protective measure adopted by the government for the benefit of the seals in American waters has been entirely successful, as indicated by the great number of animals seen to be migrating to the Arctic seas. The migration was three weeks earlier than usual, and an unusually large number of animals were noted on their way to the north.

NEW HAMPSHIRE STATE NEWS

The New Hampshire State Firemen's association at its 23rd annual convention held in Parish hall, Concord, elected Fred M. Dodge of Penacook, president.

At the annual convence of the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar, of the state of New Hampshire held in Concord, John Kimball Bates, of Portsmouth, was elected Grand Commander.

A one-ton block of marble fell off the top of the Manchester bank building, narrowly missing several pedestrians. The block was being adjusted to form the ornamental coping on the building, when the fastening parted.

The triple play made by the Manchester police in capturing Uldoro, Hamel, Arthur Leason, and Bruno Beaulieu, for violation of the liquor laws, resulted in the men being found guilty. The one quart of "moonshine" which the three men handled caused them to pay $36.64 in fines.

H. E. Cutler, of Keene, was elected state vice-president for New Hampshire at the twenty-second annual convention held in Springfield, Mass., of the New England Photographers' Association. He will succeed Ira F. Lindsey of Manchester.

Public Works Head Quits Chairman Arthur L. Franks of the Manchester board of public works resigned when he failed to bring about an amicable understanding between his department and the administration, headed by Mayor Moise Verrette.

Fines 15 Liquor Law Violators $300 Twenty-two offenders faced Judge Perkins in Manchester police court in the biggest police docket since prohibition became effective. Fifteen of those arraigned were liquor law violators, and paid fines amounting to 300.

Trucks Break Bridge, Keene Brings Suit Twelve stringers in the bridge on Island street, over the Ashuelot river, Keene, were broken and the bridge strained by two New York trucks owned by the Triborough Auto Service company. Suit for $1,000 damages has been brought by Solicitor Joseph Madden.

"E. E. Reed" Consistent Winner The trapshooting championship of New Hampshire has been won year in and year out for about a score of years by E. E. Reed. This gives you an idea that the New Hampshire championship is a monopoly on the part of E. E. Reed. It is a monopoly on the part of two men, brothers, with the same initials.

Long Missing Boy of 13 Returns Home Raymond Spencer, 13, on his arrival in Alexandria, N. H., said he had been wandering without knowledge of his whereabouts, since he left his home at Anson, Me., in August. When he ran away he took his bicycle and had only 5 cents in his pocket. The boy did not explain how he had been subsisting. He said his parents moved from Roxbury, Mass., to Maine five months ago.

Figures Show Record Growth Registration of students though not yet completed at New Hampshire college, shows all previous records for enrollment surpassed. The total will yet be increased because many of those in the agricultural department have not yet returned and will not until heavy frost ends the growing season. The total enrollment is over 823 with a freshmen class of 349, thirty more than at this time a year ago. In all previous years, the registration at the opening of the second and third terms has added to the total so that this year the final total will in all probability pass the 850 mark and perhaps reach 900.

Many Hunting Licenses Issued Thirty-seven hundred licenses to hunt wild game and game birds have been issued this year in Manchester, more than 20 women have taken out licenses. With the exception of deer, all wild game found in New Hampshire, on which there is an open season, may be killed. This means that the sportsmen of the state, and others outside of it, holding a license to hunt, may go bravely forth with wlog and gun to seek raccoon, fox, rabbit, ruffed grouse, woodcock and quail. There is a big limit on each species of five in one day, and a total of not more than 52 ruffed grouse and 25 woodcock in an open season. The limit on hares and rabbits is five in one day. Rabbits may be sold in the open season, from Oct. 1 to March 1. No open season exists on pheasants, upland plover and wood duck. Grey squirrels are protected until Oct. 1, 1921.

Claremont Faces Big Ice Shortage For the first time in history the town of Claremont is facing an ice shortage. In fact, not a pound of ice in town is now available. Ahan Paddock, manager of the Claremont ice company, attributes the shortage to several reasons, the poor housing waste by the help, besides 30 per cent more ice which has been used at wholesale and at least 10 per cent more need by domestic consumers.

Take Up Revision of Sunday Laws The committee appointed by Governor John H. Barrett under the provisions of a statute of the last legislature to report to the next General court on the revision of the Sunday laws, met at the Eagle hotel, Concord. The meeting was called by Principal Lewis Perry of Phillips Exeter academy. Rev. Samuel S. Drury, D. D., rector of St. Paul's school was elected chairman of the committee.

Armed Masked Thugs Flee As Perce Swears At Them George Perce reported to the Somersworth police that two masked men, each armed with a revolver, attempted to hold him up as he stepped into the hallway from his apartment. Both covered him with their guns and ordered "Hands up." Instead, he swore at them, and darted back into his room to get his revolver and started on a hot pursuit. The men ran down the stairs and disappeared.

May Seek To Hold Up Manchester Contract Injunction proceedings against the city of Manchester being allowed to start work on the three new school buildings on the grounds that the contracts which call for expenditures of nearly $2,000,000 were illegally awarded, are likely to be started by the George Dose Engineering Company of New York as the result of the Mayor signing the contract for the superstructures awarded to the L. F. Woodbury Company of Boston.

Dartmouth Night At Hanover Set For Oct. 15 Secretary Eugene F. Clark of Dartmouth College announces that Friday evening, Oct. 15, will be celebrated as Dartmouth night. He will direct arrangements.

The exercises will be held in a large tent on the campus. The reorganized Dartmouth band will play, and the customary parade around the dormitories will precede the speaking. The Dartmouth-Holy Cross football game will be played Oct. 16, affording the alumni an opportunity to see Coach Spear's charges in action on the home field.

Jail Man Who Accused Rich Edward C. Boynton, a selectman of the town of Jeffrey, was arrested and lodged in jail in connection with the suit for $10,000, damage brought by Charles L. Rich on the allegation that the selectman at various times said that "Rich killed Dr. William K. Dean," or that "if he did not do it, he knows who did."

Boynton was released on bail. Dr. Dean was killed on Aug. 13, 1918, and the identity of his murderer still remains a mystery. The writ is returnable at the civil session of the court that opens on Oct. 19.

100 Men answer Call for Cross Country. Over 100 men have answered the call for candidates for the varsity and freshmen-cross country teams of Dartmouth College, and are working out daily under the direction of Coach H. C. Avery. A long, difficult schedule has been arranged for the team including at least two occasions where the stiffest competition in the east may be expected; these are the meets at Syracuse and the Intercollegiate at New Haven.

The availability of several good men from last year's freshmen squad, coupled with the return of many veterans of the 1919 team gives Coach Avery a nucleus around which to build this year's combination, and it is expected that a much improved showing will be made over last year's record.

Health Fight in Schools First—Attack Tuberculosis in the Susceptible Stages, Says Dr. C. H. Keene Dr. Charles H. Keene of Boston, speaking at the opening session in Manchester of the New England Tuberculosis Conference, argued that tuberculosis must be attacked through the schools and that school physicians should be paid more money, that there may be secured better men who will be more interested professionally. He said that physical examinations should be given school children annually and that such examinations should include janitors and teachers.

Noted physicians of New England gathered to attend the conference, which held a two-day session. Dr. Charles Duncan of Concord, N. H., of the State Board of Health, president of the conference, opened the meeting. "Experts in tuberculosis tell us that the disease is usually acquired in childhood," said Dr. Keene, who represents the New England division of the American Red Cross. "They declare that bovine tuberculosis is almost always acquired at that time. This is necessarily so, as it is them that the diet is wholly of milk. When he your town, your city, your health officer doing to educate mothers regarding the essential need of nursing their own babies rather than feeding them from the bottle? What are you doing to bring about the elimination of tuberculosis cattle, or even to require the pasteurization of milk?"

Joseph Mitchell, a well-known Portsmouth man, who has been suffering from nervous trouble, was rescued from the Piscataqua by Bert Blake, an employe of the Standard Oil company, after he had plunged into the stream from a dock off Water st. Blake saw his act and put out in a boat in time to save him.

New Meaning of "Intrigue." The latest verbal importation from France that I have had occasion to remark is no more than the conferring of a new meaning upon an old word. In English "to intrigue" has always meant to plot surreptitiously, whereas in French it was always used (by extension) to indicate the state of puzzled doubt in which we may find ourselves when we have reason to suspect a surreptitious plot; and this secondary French meaning is now passing over into English, so that we may read in the light stories that run through our magazines, "she intrigued me," meaning that she puzzled me, and not meaning that she involved me in an intrigue. This Gallic secondary meaning will probably force itself into our yielding Anglo-Saxon, and we shall have hereafter the privilege of employing "to intrigue" in either of two different intents: I doubt if this will be to the profit of the language; but protest is idle, since the fate of a novelty always depends upon its ultimate usefulness.—Brander Matthews in Harper's Magazine.

LONG PUZZLE TO SCIENTISTS Strange Work Left by Mound Builders Never Has Had Anything Like Satisfactory Explanation. The Serpent Effigy mound, near Chillicothe, Ohio, the strangest earthwork left by the Mound Builders, is one of the most striking and puzzling creations that is to be found in the Scioto River valley. Over all, the mound is more than 1,300 feet long, and depicts a serpent of several convolutions, jaws extended, and an oval within the grasp of the huge jaws. The groundwork is from two to four feet in height, and from three or four to 20 feet in thickness. Within the oval, beyond the extended jaws, archeologists have found an altar of stones and copper ornaments.

An old Indian fighter who died in the West several years ago, nearly 100 years old, declared he had heard a story in his younger days of a tribe of strange Indians in the Scioto valley who each year held a fall festival and gave a great powwow on a snake's back. He said he never could understand the meaning of the story until later in life when he heard of the Mound Builders. His recollection of the story, had it been given to students of the mounds, might have served to give them new theories on which to base their research work. He said the strange race were supposed to sacrifice a certain number of children born under the first full moon of spring. For this the Mound Builders might have used the stone altar which has been found.

Japanese Arts Being Forgotten. A Japanese contributor to the Japan Advertiser has the following note on the forgotten arts of his country: "All the polite arts and accomplishments are in a bad way. How many middle school boys of today know how to drink tea in the forms of the tea ceremony? Flower arrangement is being fast forgotten. Versification, which once was one of the commonest accomplishments of youths, is a hopeless mystery to the people of Taisho. The word politeness is not to be found in their lexicon. When at home they read cheap story magazines, and when going out they put themselves at the tender mercies of jammed trams. So they wax ever more dwarfed and penguin-footed, both physically and mentally. And the love of nature, of art and poetry, which was such a distinguished characteristic of the Yama-to race is being quickly replaced by the love of money and accumulation."

East Antrim Mrs. Mary Combs, who has been in poor health for weeks, is somewhat improved. Mrs. E. G. Rakes and two youngest children, Ralph and Nina, visited with her mother recently. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hill and son, of Hillsboro, have been visiting at W. F. Knapp's. Harriet Collins and mother have returned to Lexington, after a two weeks' vacation at G. F. Frank's. An automobile party of friends from Franconstown and Mont Vernon visited at H. W. Harvey's recently.

North Branch Miss Florence Charter was a Dearling visitor Saturday. Miss Alice Weisman entertained a party of friends from Massachusetts for the week end. Mrs. A. L. Cunningham entertained a friend from Manchester for several days this week. Warren Wheeler, accompanied by Charles Abbott and Ethel Brown, attended Hopkinton Fair Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Simonds and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Cunningham were at Hopkinton Fair, making the trip by auto. Mr. and Mrs. James Rogers, of East Dedham, Mass., are stopping at the George Rogers place for a few days on business. Mrs. Louise Bishop is in town to attend the annual Harvest Supper and Fair of the Ladies' Circle, and stopping with Mrs. Taft.

Oct. 12, in the evening, is the time; the chapel, at North Branch, the place. What is it? Come and find out. All are welcome. Mrs. Huldah Wing and Mrs. Edith Richardson were in Boston the past week, attending the meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge held there. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hotch entertained Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cate at dinner Sunday, Sept. 26, it being the anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Cate. Friday morning, Oct. 1, the town was shocked to hear of the passing to the Great Beyond Sept. 30 of both Mr. and Mrs. A. Jackson Bennett, of Manchester. Mr. Bennett preceding Mrs. Bennett by a few hours. A more detailed account will be found in another column.

Woman's Club Meeting The Woman's Club held their first meeting of the year in the town hall Tuesday afternoon, with thirty five members present. Following the business meeting Mrs. I. C. Hanson, from Orange, New Jersey, gave a very delightful talk about Student Government, what it is, and what it is accomplishing, more particularly in the schools in Newark, N. J. The report of the membership committee of thirty-two new members was very encouraging. This brings the Club nearly to the limited one hundred members. Other ladies who are desirous of joining will need to do so at once; otherwise their names will have to be on the waiting list.

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Robertson, of Antrim, known to many of our people here, where she formerly resided, has won her suit for damages against the town of Hillsboro. It was the third trial since the suit was entered four years ago. The verdict was for $700. Mrs. Robertson claimed to have been severely injured while driving out of the premises of Judge Holman, the town having cut down the grade of the street, leaving an 18 inch drop. The Grange Fair was well attended and the exhibits, though not great in quantity, certainly went over the top in quality. There was about everything in the vegetable line, from potatoes to peanuts. The canned goods certainly looked good enough to eat, and the flowers were beautiful, especially the dahlias. There were many beautiful pieces of hand work in lace, fllet crochet and embroidery. The sports and food were soon disposed of. In the evening the play, "Anita's Trial" was given, with Doris Wilson as Anita. The part was exceptionally well taken, as were all the rest. Mrs. Pippin's dance deserved the encore it got. A dance closed the evening's entertainment.

About Advertising It costs money to advertise in a paper of circulation and influence in the community. Every business man who seeks to enlarge his trade, recognizes the fact that advertising is a legitimate expense. It is not the cheapest advertising that pays the best. Sometimes it is the highest priced newspaper that brings the largest net profit to the advertiser. Try the REPORTER.

Morris Wilson, the second son of Ernest Wilson, was run into by an auto driven by Ray Locke, of Antrim, and his arm was broken. It was purely an accident, but too bad for the little fellow. The S. of V. Auxiliary held their inspection on Monday evening. Mrs. Enola Leighton being their inspecting officer. Visitors were present from Jeffrey and Hillsboro, and refreshments were served. Mrs. Elizabeth A. Robertson, of Antrim, known to many of our people here, where she formerly resided, has won her suit for damages against the town of Hillsboro. It was the third trial since the suit was entered four years ago. The verdict was for $700. Mrs. Robertson claimed to have been severely injured while driving out of the premises of Judge Holman, the town having cut down the grade of the street, leaving an 18 inch drop. The Grange Fair was well attended and the exhibits, though not great in quantity, certainly went over the top in quality. There was about everything in the vegetable line, from potatoes to peanuts. The canned goods certainly looked good enough to eat, and the flowers were beautiful, especially the dahlias. There were many beautiful pieces of hand work in lace, fllet crochet and embroidery. The sports and food were soon disposed of. In the evening the play, "Anita's Trial" was given, with Doris Wilson as Anita. The part was exceptionally well taken, as were all the rest. Mrs. Pippin's dance deserved the encore it got. A dance closed the evening's entertainment.
