OBSERVE CENTENNIAL

Harmony Lodge of Masons Have Celebration

An observance which many of the Antrim people were interested in was the 100th anniversary of Harmony Lodge of Masons, in Hillsboro, on Monday of this week. For all work in the blue lodge, Antrim goes to Hillsboro, about twenty-five members residing in this town, many of these with their wives attending the centennial exercises either in the afternoon or in the evening. Antrim enjoys the distinction of having the oldest member of Harmony Lodge in the person of William H. Hill, who has been a Mason nearly 62 years.

In the afternoon the Master Mason degree was conferred in Masonic hall and three candidates were raised in due and ancient form, the work being done before the Most Worshipful Grand Master and other officers of the Grand Lodge in a highly commendable manner. More than one hundred were present to witness the work.

While this part of the program was being staged, the members of Portia Chapter, O. E. S., which was assisting in entertaining, had arranged for their entertainment in Child's opera house where they furnished a program of readings and music to the ladies of the party who had accompanied their husbands and gentleman friends for the witnessing of the degree work.

In the evening at Child's opera house the real program of the day was given. The hall was filled to capacity and everyone who gained admission had to show a card of invitation. The Schubert Quartet of Boston rendered a number of selections in their very pleasing manner, and the Wahnetah orchestra, of Hillsboro, furnished splendid music for the evening, including dancing. This program was the order of the evening's exercises:

Selection, Wahnetah Orchestra
Schubert Quartet of Boston
Selection, Orchestra
Welcome, Henry J. Willgeroth, W. M.
Selection, Quartet
Address, Walter G. Africa, W. G. M.
Selection, Quartet
Address, Harry M. Cheney, G. S.
Selection, Quartet
History of Harmony Lodge, Leon B. Proctor, P. M.
Selection, Quartet
Reception to Grand Officers
Dancing
Buffet lunch was served during the reception and dancing.

The addresses were listened to with marked attention and were very interesting, as was also the history of Harmony Lodge.

Bro. Proctor, past master, had prepared a very interesting article of a historical nature, endeavoring to make it entertaining as well,—had entwined the brief happenings as they occurred in the early years, in a modern way which provoked many a smile. The early way of keeping records was somewhat crude compared with the present detailed way of doing things, however the speaker was able to get together much material which gave his hearers a very fair idea of the good Masonry had accomplished in the past one hundred years in Hillsboro and vicinity.

Shipment for Near East Relief

It will be of interest to many to know that a shipment of five large barrels of clothing was sent by express last week by citizens of Antrim to the Near East Relief Warehouse in New York. Some of the garments were new, but most of them had been used but were in good condition. Many warm coats for men, women and children were included in the shipment and will give much comfort to the destitute people in Armenia during the coming winter. The barrels were packed by Mrs. W. C. Hills, Mrs. Chas. F. Carter and Mrs. Geo. E. Hastings, representing the three churches in the village. The express charges were paid by the women's societies connected with the churches, and the barrels were donated by Mr. Cram.

A FEW THOUGHTS

Suggested by What Is Happening Around

JUNE—the month of sweet girls, graduates, brides and roses! Every one of them lovely as they are beautiful and needful.

N. H. motorists understand the state laws to allow one lamp or no lamp to be lighted on all motor vehicles when parked and engine not running. When they go into Massachusetts where another law is in operation it will be well for them to know that Atty. Gen. Allen has pointed out that the Supreme Court decisions have interpreted the Massachusetts statute as requiring that the two headlights shall be lighted whether the car is in motion or at a standstill.

There seems to be very little gained by keeping open the state road that is under construction on the Hillsboro road. It is now closed; the work will progress more easily and without interruption, and the traveling public will take the "detour" road which is much better than the one now under construction. This piece of the Conntocook Valley road could not be traveled last year and it looks now as if it will be a number of weeks before the traveling over it will be very good.

The dollar earned and spent by the average family now will buy approximately 25 percent more today than a year ago. Reports to the Labor department show that millions have been added in the aggregate to the buying power of American families. The dollar now is worth approximately 65 cents as compared with the pre-war dollar. In May a year ago, when prices were highest, the dollar was worth relatively only 87 cents. The increase is approximately 27 percent in value on the basis of one year ago.

A recent edition of the Malden, Mass., Evening News contained the following item. Supt. Carr was an Antrim boy and everybody here is pleased to learn of the continued popularity of William M. Carr:

Forest Dale cemetery with its vast expanse never looked more beautiful than on this Memorial Day. Supt. Carr was the recipient of many congratulations over the week end for its beautiful appearance. His arm is reported as very lame from handshaking. The cemetery is always kept in a condition second to none in New England. There were over 3000 autos within the gates on Sunday.

New Hampshire Conference Districts Changed

Announcement has been made by the New Hampshire Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church that it has divided into two districts, to be known as the Northern and Southern, instead of the traditional division into three, called the Concord, Dover and Manchester districts, respectively.

The Northern district will include the churches in Manchester, Goffstown, Lenniker, Charlestown, and all of the Manchester district north of the churches named and all of the former Concord district.

The Southern district will include all of the former Dover district and the southern part of the old Manchester district.

Rev. T. Ross Hicks of Haverhill, Mass., is appointed superintendent of the Southern district, and Rev. T. E. Cramer of Manchester, is superintendent of the Northern district.

There are 71 churches in each of the two districts under the new division.

Safety First

Albert H. Laidlaw in National Republican

This talk about disarmament is alright, I suppose; The world has had enough of arms and armaments, goodness knows. But just the same, if we don't want in world affairs the worst, Some other nations we should watch Do their disarming first.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Antrim Man Surprised on 82nd Anniversary

The eighty second birthday of Squires Forsaith was uniquely celebrated last Thursday afternoon in the vestry of the Presbyterian church. The occasion was the June supper of the Mission Circle. The members of the circle knowing the date, the ninth, was the anniversary of Mr. Forsaith's birth, decided to give him a surprise. When the committee announced the supper was ready Mr. Forsaith was asked to take a certain chair at the central table, before which was set a great bouquet of pansies. Mrs. Nims was chosen to take the seat on the left of the guest of honor, and Mrs. Cameron on the right. As far as could be arranged the older members of the circle were seated at the same table. These members had worked many years with the late Mrs. Forsaith, whose faithful years of service in the circle were recalled.

When the supper was well underway a large birthday cake was brought in and placed before Mr. Forsaith. Mrs. Nims performed the honor of cutting the cake and gave to all a share. The occasion was a happy one, recalling the many years of splendid service which Mr. Forsaith gave the church, and also the work of his late lamented partner.

Sermon Before Senior Class

Rev. J. D. Cameron, D. D., preached the baccalaureate sermon before the senior class of the Antrim High School at the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening last, with a large audience present. He delivered a nice address, very interesting, and well fitted to the occasion. His words of advice and encouragement to the class, the school and the younger people present, were sound, practical and well received by all who heard them. A quartet composed of Mrs. Nims, Miss Jameson, Mr. Boyd and Mr. Prentiss sang. The service in every way was an unusually pleasing affair and well arranged.

LOOK ON WALKING AS JOKE

People seem to regard primitive method of locomotion as altogether out of date.

Charles Hanson Towne writes in the Century: When I refer to the difficulties of walking, I do not refer to the infirmities of age, to flat feet, or to avoldupos. Not at all. I mean that it is hard indeed in these rushing times to go afoot, even on the most distant by-roads, without being considered eccentric. People stare at you as though you were some kind of freak or criminal. They cast suspicious glances your way, never dreaming that perhaps you prefer your own feet as a means of pleasant locomotion.

I asked a certain friend if he would not accompany me. My friend turned to me and instantly said:

"My car is out of order."

"But I did not mean to go in a car," I said quickly.

"Why," he replied, looking at me as though I had gone quite mad, "how else would we go?"

"On foot," I bravely made answer, yet realizing that this confirmed New Yorker would never think the same of me again. And it was so. I shall not forget, if I live a hundred years, his final disgusted glance. If anything further was needed to crush me utterly, I do not know what it could be.

Adult Illiteracy in Mexico.

Instruction for illiterates in the territories of the republic of Mexico is provided by a law promulgated recently. The law authorizes the employment of persons in every locality who will undertake the instruction of one or more illiterates. Children under fifteen years of age who live in districts provided with schools are not included in the application of the law. The American consul at Mexicali, Mexico, who reports the promulgation of the law, states that it will not only tend to uplift the peon classes, but it will also create a better feeling on our border. Under the American immigration law illiterates are not allowed to enter the United States, although their more fortunate fellow countrymen may cross and recross the border at will.

He Had the Proofs All Right.

High School John's three spinster sisters were all sentimental. They treasured all the relics of their early romances—"trash" that John would joyfully have discarded so that he could have more room for trophies, etc.

One night he scornfully called the family's attention to a gayly decorated clock on the mantel: "It's no earthly good," he said. "It won't run and it's out of style, too. Let's get one of those mushogony ones like the Browns have."

One night the sisters looked at the relic. "Oh, let's don't," she simpered. "Let's keep it for memory's sake. It has ticked so many happy hours for all of us girls."

"Yes, I'll say it has," John agreed scornfully, "and according to present evidences it has sounded a good many alarms, too."

Hope for Us Yet.

Gold Discovered in Litchfield by Walter McQueen.

Walter E. McQueen of Litchfield, while plowing in his field discovered gold, in the form of a set of false teeth in perfect condition, constructed on a gold plate. ### Celebrates Semi-Centennial

The semi-centennial of the New Hampshire Orphans' Home, Franklin, was celebrated last week in a very auspicious manner. One of the largest gatherings ever assembled at Webster place was present. Included in the gathering were many philanthropic workers from various parts of the state, state and county officials and several men were present who attended the first meeting held a half century ago.

N. H. Farmers Not in Coal Buying Plan

The New Hampshire Federation of Farm Bureaus will take no action at present toward co-operative purchase of coal, as reported planned in several states from Morgantown, W. Va. Farmers of Ohio, Virginia, North Carolina, Kentucky, Georgia, Alabama, Maryland, New York, Michigan, Wisconsin, Indiana, Illinois, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri and some New England states through their farm bureau organizations, are ready to buy West Virginia coal direct from the mines, according to J. B. McLaughlin, secretary to the West Virginia Farm Bureau Federation.

Prof. Goodhue to Fill Chair of Economics.

The president's office announces the election of Everett Watson Goodhue, Dartmouth 1900, as professor of economics at Dartmouth for the coming year. He has been connected with Colgate University since 1903; first as instructor in sociology and economics, then as assistant professor and as professor. This last academic year he has been professor of economics at Cornell.

Prof. Harold J. Lockwood, assistant professor of electrical engineering at Lafayette University has been elected professor of electrical engineering of the Thayer School of Civil Engineering.

Catholic Prep. School Planned For Hudson.

Lowell, Mass., parties have practically completed arrangements for the purchase of the F. A. Wilson 90-acre farm in Hudson for the establishment of a large preparatory school for Catholic boys, for Catholic college institutions in Montreal later.

713 Gain Made In Last Quarter
An evidence of the splendid condition of the Order of Patrons of Husbandry in the Granite State are the facts that a net gain was made last quarter in the membership of the subordinate granges of 713 and, with a single exception, the offices of treasurer and secretary in every Pomona and subordinate grange are bonded.

Game Wardens as Fire Guards
With the passing at least for the time being of the danger of extensive forest fires in the North Country, the state fish and game wardens, all of whom were called upon to assist in maintaining the closest vigil over the valuable timberlands in the vicinity of Colebrook, have been released from duty, and are back at their regular posts again.

An appeal from timberland owners sent to Governor Brown left him to enlist the support of Fish and Game Commissioner Mott L. Bertlett, with the result that the wardens were called in and sent north for duty.

N. H. Quarry Products Increasing In Value

The 1920 census bureau of mines and quarrying shows that New Hampshire has a decreased number of such enterprises although the value of products has advanced from $1,303,308 to $1,568,509 or an increase of 19.8, since the census of 1909.

The last census gives the number of mining and quarrying establishments in New Hampshire as 30; with capital of $1,568,509.

An interesting feature of the report shows the great increase in taxation to which those establishments were subjected in the past ten years. In 1909 their taxes amounted to $6,251, while in 1919 they had risen to $24,718 or an increase of 370.7 per cent.

Durin and others, comprising the Cooks', Waiters', and Culinary Workers' union, Local No. 407, by Daniel D. Grimes and George Grimes, doing business as the Grimes Lunch company. This case has been pending in the courts of the state since February 1920, when an injunction was sought and granted to the lunch company to restrain the union cooks and waiters from placing pickets in front of their restaurants in Manchester during the progress of a strike on the grounds that such action was detrimental to the company's trade.

First American Train Robbery.

Train robbery, a pastime which was for some years very popular in the West, was inaugurated 48 years ago at Verdi, Nevada, when the Overland express was held up and despoiled of about $50,000. This robbery marked a new departure in the field of crime, for previously only stage coaches and travelers had fallen prey to holdup men. When western outlaws are discussed, the name of Jesse James is usually the first brought up, but he was not the pioneer train robber. That dubious distinction belongs to one Buck Taylor, who, with four companions, pulled off the train holdup which was the first of a long string of similar crimes.

Mrs. McCoy and Mrs. Gordon were in Peterboro on Thursday last.

The Intermediate school had their exercises on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rose and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Griswold were in Nashua one day last week.

Mrs. Myhaver and sons, from Peterboro, called on friends on Sunday. Richard Myhaver is with his parents.

The missionary meeting was held at the home of Miss C. E. Rogers on Wednesday afternoon. Topic: China.

The graduating exercises of the primary school were held on Wednesday afternoon. The first grade promptly met all the state requirements, and Miss Cashion has a method of finding out what the little ones know. All the class but two passed into a higher grade.

The Sunday School concert given by the pupils of the Congregational Sunday School, on Sunday evening was very good; both the exercises and the singing were greatly enjoyed by all present. The little beginners were exceptionally fine, as was the song by Miss Mildred Foote. The church deacons were very attractive.

The Junior High School held their graduation exercises in the town hall on Friday evening. The hall was prettily decorated for the occasion, and well filled by an appreciative audience. The class motto was "Strive for Success;" class colors, pink and white; and class flower, pink carnation. The names of the graduates follow: Christine Bell, Valedictorian; Reginald Bell, Salutatorian; Warren Eaton, Class Prophecy; Rachel Hanse, Class History; Mae McGrath, Class Will; Donald Collins; Marion Griswold; William Harrington; Dorothy Marsh; Louise Traxler. The essay showed thoughtful work on the part of students and teacher, and the musical numbers were also very pleasing. All are deserving of well earned praise. This being Miss Towle's last term, she was presented a gold piece by the pupils, Mr. Osborne making the presentation speech, to which Miss Towle feelingly responded. Geo. E. Edwards, in a few fitting words, presented the diplomas.

The recital given by Miss Lawrence's pupils, on the 7th inst., in Grange hall, was pleasantly listened to by a crowded house and the applause was well deserved. The program follows:

Duet, Alexander March, by Morris, Muriel Bell and Leah Eaton; Playing in the Sunshine, Silbro, Nellie French; Children's Festival, Williams, Warren Eaton; On the Go March, Parnella, Georgiana French; Duet, Gitana, by Heins, Christine Bell and Marion Griswold; Amber Tresses, Lawson, Dorothy Shea; Robin's Lullaby, Leah Eaton; Phyllis, Brown, Florence Holmes; Spring, Lechner, Bernice Robertson; Soldiers' March, Goomod, William Harrington; Little Bo Peep, Englemann, Westley Sheldon; A Merry Dance, Heins, Muriel Bell; Reflections, Reeg, Mary Fielding; Yuletide Bells, Goedeler, Marion Griswold; The Hammock, Heins, Christine Bell; The Silver Nymph, Heins, William Harrington; Spring, Spaulding, Dorothy Hart.

"Whatcher figuring out, Jimmie?"

"I'm thinking what a fortune it would be for someone if I could figure out how to harness the energy that is wasted in shimmy dances!"

Cigarette Smoking.

Cigarette smoking is on the increase all over the world, according to a census of the industry. In 1919 39,000,000 "cigar" heads were smoked in the United States and more than 18,000,000 were exported.

Over the Earth's Shoulder.

Ocean voyages are sometimes shortened considerably by going "over the shoulder of the earth," as the navigators say. The Nebraska State Journal observes: "The same thing is true, of course, of air travel. When an attempt is made to fly over the Pacific ocean from San Francisco the shortest way will not be directly across, as a study of the map would indicate. Instead, the fliers will go hundreds of miles northward, skirting the Aleutian Islands and in this way saving a great distance as well as securing the advantage of more numerous landing places."

The earth will soon be charted for air travel and the lines for long distance flights will be circular more often than direct.
