Lisabel Gay's Column

One does not usually pay much attention to telephone poles unless directly in ones path or line of vision. Naturally with my limited power of locomotion, there is no path to offer obstacles, but I am far sighted enough to see two poles on Walnut St., that are very disturbing to my ideas of symmetry. I never tire of the pine tree, the big rock, with its sturdy young oak growing in its midst, but these two poles make me want to do things to them. One is dark and perpendicular and was planted there in the fall, I think. The other about two feet away, is gray and weathered and leans away from the other, under the weight of many wires. The dark one has no wires, no wonder it stands straight. I'd like to climb up and tie them together, but neither one would be right then. There are pleasanter things to gaze at, especially when the children are all home, but when several are away I can always have the divergent poles to wonder about, as if they were real people. How to get them together is something else.

School Street, has been very quiet this summer, with children and grownups off on vacation, but I've heard three sounds, new to me recently. A queer whistling noise kept me guessing for a day or two until I heard my neighbor was having his hardwood floors done over. A motor driven lawn mower puffs importantly as Mr. "Tyco" chases it around and up and down the lawn.

An old sound in new surroundings is that of a cement mixer at the Baldwins, where a double garage is being built, with cement floor and if I guess right, a new driveway, too.

WOMAN'S CLUB "POP" CONCERT HILARIOUS SUCCESS

The Antrim Woman's Club on Aug. 23, held a fair and Pop concert in the Town Hall, with a large attendance. At 7:00 p.m., a sale was held of food, flowers, and seedlings, white elephants, grabs, and fancy work, all the tables were gayly decorated with crepe paper, and refreshments were available during the evening. Over two hundred dollars ($200) was raised from the sale and concert.

Eighteen reserved tables were in the center of the hall for those wishing to enjoy refreshments and seven tables were taken by out of town visitors.

At 8:15 p.m., the director of the concert, Kenneth Jewett, of Sharon, introduced the characters and described the three separate scenes which expressed three important phases of a man's life. The musical review and novelty skits were presented by Antrim talent exclusively.

In the first scene, a school room was the setting for a humorous pantomime, with the script read by Mrs. Dorothy Proctor, who dressed in old fashioned clothes, gave an entertaining performance as an old madish school teacher. She blew a pitch pipe for her pupils to sing four old fashioned "rounds", sung by the Antrim Glee Club.

The second scene was very impressive, it depicted a church service complete with chorus, organ, and congregation dressed in old fashioned clothes.

The prelude was played by the organist, Mrs. Gertrude Thornton, and the congregation filed solemnly into the church pews. Several hymns were sung, conducted by Richard Winslow, and the closing song by the group was, "America the Beautiful," followed by the organ postlude. A trio sang an anthem; those singing were Mrs. Mae Pedkins, Mrs. Ethel Roeder, and Mrs. Vera Butterfield. A selection was sung by the quartet, composed of Carroll Johnson, Lester Putnam, Alwin Young, and Lester Hill. Mrs. Elizabeth Tenney sang a solo beautifully. The audience was asked to refrain from (Continued on Page 4)

He is a native of Smyrna, though for many years a citizen and resident of the U. S. He graduated from Williams College, and is now a member of the New York Bar.

On Labor Day, Dr. T. Christie Innes, of New York, will be a visitor at the Presbyterian Manse, a guest of Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Reeve. Dr. Innes was born in Nyasaland, Africa, and is now a member of the Royal Anthropological Institute, and the Royal Asiatic Society. He was educated in Edinburgh and Cambridge Universities, also at Bonn and Geneva in Europe.

News Items From Bennington

Mrs. Maurice C. Newton Correspondent

The Bennington Grange presented a most successful program on last Friday night and the children went wild to see cards disappear and come up somewhere else, to see torn paper napkins appear whole again, rabbits jump from place to place as presented by Rev. J. Wayne Haskell, who is traveling with the Woodin Show.

The Thompson twins were very sweet and they surely can play and sing. It takes very little work on the part of the Grange to sponsor these shows, and repays, not only in money, but in enjoyment. The Home and Community Welfare Committee are to be congratulated on securing these talented people.

Mrs. Harry Ross and Mrs. M. E. Sargent are traveling with Miss Anna Stevens of Florida, in Portland and other parts of Maine.

Mrs. Forrest Alcott of Lowell, is visiting Mrs. M. C. Newton this week.

Mrs. Frank Young is entertaining her granddaughter, Gretchen Van Iderstine, of Gardner.

Col. and Mrs. Howard Cheney, who are to be located in Alabama, were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Cheney, for a short time last week.

The Bennington Sportsman's Club sponsored a dance on Friday evening.

On Friday evening, our veterans are to be entertained all evening starting with a dinner at the Riverside Inn, and afterward there is to be singing by the Community Chorus and Miss Doris Doe; the Metropolitan Opera singer. The veterans will also be entertained with other features and then with a dance.

On Monday evening, one of the national officers of the VFW installed the new members of the branch of the VFW which was recently formed in this town.

The Bennington Grange is holding a Labor Day week-end sale at the stand on the property of Mrs. Josephine Wallace on the Greenfield road, of aprons, vegetables, and cooked foods. Look for it—on Labor Day.

Barbara and Deborah Boyle have been visiting their grandfather, George Edwards.

The Grange held their regular meeting on Thursday in their hall. Margaret Edmunds was home for the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Edmunds. Margaret is employed in Manchester.

Miss Marilyn Gammell of Claremont, was home for the week-end. Mrs. Earl Swett is in Frances-town for a week or so.

Mrs. Mabel Parker has been visiting in Henniker.

SALVATION ARMY WORKER CANVASSING ANTRIM AREA

At the request of Chairman, Mrs. Emma S. Goodell of the Salvation Army Annual Appeal for funds, which is now in progress, Mr. Neils T. Abilgaard has begun a systematic solicitation of funds in Antrim and surrounding towns.

A quota for $500 has been set in this area which includes Antrim Center, Clinton, Gregg lake, and North Branch.

Mr. Abildgaard said that "The Salvation Army served throughout World War II without making a nation-wide or special campaign for funds.

Now, with the war over, our needs are such that a special appeal is being made throughout the country for the sum of $6,000,000.00 to meet national as distinct from local and general operating requirements.

New England has been assigned its pre-rate amount, and each local Service Unit is asked to share this responsibility in a combined appeal for nation, regional and local needs.

"Our rural program of health and welfare services will continue. As in the past, part of your gift will be administered by your own local Service Unit Committee.

Members of the local committee are: Mrs. Emma Goodell, chairman; Archie M. Swett, treasurer; Mrs. George Caughey, Earl X. Cutter, Mrs. F. A. Dunlap, Rev. Donald F. Perron, Charles W. Prentiss, Rev. W. S. Reeve, Mrs. M. C. Smith, and Thomas Smith.

Mr. Abildgaard is an accredited member of the Salvation Army Public Relations Department, and for sometime has been engaged in this highly trustworthy occupation.

ANTRIM AUTHOR TO PUBLISH BOOK OF POEMS

Avis Turner French of Antrim, has been made an honorary member of the National Association of Authors and Journalists, commonly known as the Eugene Field Society. This recognition is given to authors who have made outstanding contributions to contemporary literature.

Mrs. French, often called "The New Hampshire Poet", is a native of Vermont, but since her marriage has lived in Antrim.

She began writing poems at the age of seven and has written about 300 since then.

In 1945, her poems were read every week over WHDH, and she appeared on one program for an interview.

Mrs. French is having a book of her poems printed, and now accepting orders at $1.00 per copy. It will be called "Songs Against The Dusk". One of her best received poems "The Dawn" won the editor's prize for the American Bard Magazine.

MERCER CO. AND DERBY'S DONATE TO HOSPITAL FUND

Additional support of the $325,000 building fund program for expansion of accommodations and facilities at the Monadnock Community Hospital was evidenced this week when eight subscriptions for a total of $17,000 were announced. Contributors included individuals and businesses in several towns served by the hospital.

The newly-organized business and mercantile committee under the chairmanship of Felix O'Neil of Jaffrey reports two contributions amounting to $5,700, of which one for $3,600 comes from F. C. Mercer and Company. The subscriber has selected the x-ray rest room on the ground floor of the Y-shaped addition as a memorial to six employees who served their country in the armed forces in both the first and second World Wars.

Another business and mercantile subscription of $2,100 is from the Derby Stores, Inc., which was founded in 1882 and is the largest mercantile establishment in this area. The contribution will create the superintendent's office, which will be designated as the gift of John W. Derby and Clarence J. Derby. The father retired in 1930, and his son is now active head of the business. Both the Derby and Mercer gifts were reported by Edward N. Larrabee, vice chairman of the business and mercantile committee.

IT-PAYS-TO-ADVERTISE

Many want ads of the past have had historical significance. Here is an innocent-looking little one that appeared in the Chicago Daily News in 1887: "Wanted—Watchmaker, with references, who can furnish tools; state age, experience and salary required."

The man who placed the ad was Richard W. Sears, and that it was answered by A. C. Roebuck. Six years later they became partners, forming Sears, Roebuck & Co., and launching their famous mail-order business.

It would be difficult to determine how many other great companies and outstanding careers have had their beginnings in a want ad.—Elizabeth Pope in the Redbook Magazine.

There are pleasanter things to gaze at, especially when the children are all home, but when several are away I can always have the divergent poles to wonder about, as if they were real people. How to get them together is something else.

School Street, has been very quiet this summer, with children and grownups off on vacation, but I've heard three sounds, new to me recently. A queer whistling noise kept me guessing for a day or two until I heard my neighbor was having his hardwood floors done over. A motor driven lawn mower puffs importantly as Mr. "Tyco" chases it around and up and down the lawn.

An old sound in new surroundings is that of a cement mixer at the Baldwins, where a double garage is being built, with cement floor and if I guess right, a new driveway, too.

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE

SALVATION ARMY WORKER CANVASSING ANTRIM AREA

At the request of Chairman, Mrs. Emma S. Goodell of the Salvation Army Annual Appeal for funds, which is now in progress, Mr. Neils T. Abilgaard has begun a systematic solicitation of funds in Antrim and surrounding towns.

A quota for $500 has been set in this area which includes Antrim Center, Clinton, Gregg lake, and North Branch.

Mr. Abilgaard said that "The Salvation Army served throughout World War II without making a nation-wide or special campaign for funds."

Now, with the war over, our needs are such that a special appeal is being made throughout the country for the sum of $6,000,000 to meet national as distinct from local and general operating requirements.

New England has been assigned its pre-arranged amount, and each local Service Unit is asked to share this responsibility in a combined appeal for nation, regional and local needs.

Our rural program of health and welfare services will continue. As in the past, part of your gift will be administered by your own local Service Unit Committee.

Members of the local committee are: Mrs. Emma Goodell, chairman; Archie M. Swett, treasurer; Mrs. George Caughey, Earl X. Cutter, Mrs. F. A. Dunlap, Rev. Donald F. Perron, Charles W. Prentiss, Rev. W. S. Reeve, Mrs. M. C. Smith, and Thomas Smith.

Mr. Abilgaard is an accredited member of the Salvation Army Public Relations Department, and for sometime has been engaged in this highly trustworthy occupation.

ANTRIM AUTHOR TO PUBLISH BOOK OF POEMS

Avis Turner French of Antrim, has been made an honorary member of the National Association of Authors and Journalists, commonly known as the Eugene Field Society.

This recognition is given to authors who have made outstanding contributions to contemporary literature.

Mrs. French, often called "The New Hampshire Poet", is a native of Vermont, but since her marriage has lived in Antrim.

She began writing poems at the age of seven and has written about 300 since then.

In 1945, her poems were read every week over WHDH, and she appeared on one program for an interview.

Mrs. French is having a book of her poems printed, and now accepting orders at $1.00 per copy. It will be called "Songs Against The Dusk". One of her best received poems "The Dawn" won the editor's prize for the American Bard Magazine.

News Items From Bennington

Mrs. Maurice C. Newton
Correspondent

The Bennington Grange presented a most successful program on last Friday night and the children went wild to see cards disappear and come up somewhere else, to see torn paper napkins appear whole again, rabbits jump from place to place as presented by Rev. J. Wayne Haskell, who is traveling with the Woodin Show.

The Thompson twins were very sweet and they surely can play and sing. It takes very little work on the part of the Grange to sponsor these shows, and repays, not only in money, but in enjoyment. The Home and Community Welfare Committee are to be congratulated on securing these talented people.

Mrs. Harry Ross and Mrs. M. E. Sargent are traveling with Miss Anna Stevens of Florida, in Portland and other parts of Maine.

Mrs. Forrest Alcott of Lowell, is visiting Mrs. M. C. Newton this week.

Mrs. Frank Young is entertaining her granddaughter, Gretchen Van Iderstine, of Gardner.

Col. and Mrs. Howard Cheney, who are to be located in Alabama, were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Cheney, for a short time last week.

The Bennington Sportsman's Club sponsored a dance on Friday evening.

On Friday evening, our veterans are to be entertained all evening starting with a dinner at the Riverside Inn, and afterward there is to be singing by the Community Chorus and Miss Doris Doe; the Metropolitan Opera singer. The veterans will also be entertained with other features and then with a dance.

On Monday evening, one of the national officers of the VFW installed the new members of the branch of the VFW which was recently formed in this town.

The Bennington Grange is holding a Labor Day week-end sale at the stand on the property of Mrs. Josephine Wallace on the Greenfield road, of aprons, vegetables, and cooked foods. Look for it—on Labor Day.

Barbara and Deborah Boyle have been visiting their grandfather, George Edwards.

The Grange held their regular meeting on Thursday in their hall. Margaret Edmunds was home for the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Edmunds. Margaret is employed in Manchester.

Miss Marilyn Gammell of Claremont, was home for the week-end.

Mrs. Earl Swett is in Frances-town for a week or so.

Mrs. Mabel Parker has been visiting in Henniker.

NORRIS COTTON SPEAKS AT DEERING OLD HOME DAY

Old Home Day, celebrated here Saturday, was featured by a program of events throughout the day, culminating in an evening dance which taxed the capacity of the Town Hall. A baseball game in the morning, between the single and the married men, was won by the former, 11-6.

GIVE TERMINAL PAY SERVICE AT HILLSBORO P. O.

In view of the large number of veterans' terminal pay applications now being received in the mails here, and because of the fact that many applications are being accompanied by records of importance, Postmaster Mary Doyle, yesterday urged that mailers use the postal registry service to provide maximum protection, though issuance of a receipt to the mailer and the fact that the post office secures a receipt for registered mail on delivery.

While applications must be sent by first-class mail, the postmaster said, it is wiser to make use of the registry service and it is being observed that many are availing themselves of it.

JOHN ZELUDANCZ WEDS MISS THERESA LANGLOIS

St. Mary's Church was the scene of a small but beautiful wedding service, Saturday morning, with Miss Theresa Veronica Langlois and John Zeludancz, exchanging wedding vows.

Following communion, the double ring ceremony was performed by Father Walter Blankenship, of Dover, with Father Lancelot Quinn at the Altar. Father Frederick Sweeney former curate at St. Mary's sang three solos for the occasion.

Attending the lovely gowned bride was her Maid of Honor, Melvina Zeludancz, and bridesmaids, Julia and Anne Zeludancz.

Mr. Zeludancz had Frank A. Langlois as best man. Ushers for the wedding were, William Bondar, Joseph Zoski, and Roland St. Pierre.

A largely attended reception, given by the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank X. Langlois, was held at the Community Hall.

At present, the young couple are on a honeymoon at Lake Massacum. They will make their home in Manchester.

WOMAN'S CLUB "POP" CONCERT HILARIOUS SUCCESS

applauding during the scenes, which made the characterization more realistic and solemn.

The last act representing a corner drug store in the gay nineties, gave selections from "Oklahoma" by the group on the stage, seated at small tables. Robert Whipple was the "soda jerker", assisted by a waitress, Thelma Zabriskie. The opening number was a violin solo by William Nay, who also played later in the program. Mrs. Mae Perkins sang, "Somebody Else is Taking My Place", and Mrs. Mary McNulty in an Irish costume, sang a lovely Irish ballad, Mrs. Vera Butterfield's solo was "Mon Homme", all of the singers were enthusiastically applauded and sang encores. One of the highlights of the show was the Male Quartet singing in the "Barbershop" style with false mustaches askew.

The grande finale was an unusual baton twirling stunt by Miss Dorothy Yawner. She performed difficult feats using two batons burning fire at each end. This was very effective on the darkened stage. Great credit is due Kenneth Jewett for his directing, and the concert displayed some of Antrim's fine talent. The stage settings were painted in the Art Colony in Sharon.

Board - Mr. Anton Johnson, Chairman, Mrs. Edna Powell and Mr. John Moulton.

Miss Susan Pierce will teach in the Flat School, Mrs. Georgianna Cole at the Lower Village School, Mrs. Grace Crane at the Upper Village, and Mrs. Louise Murdough at the Center.

It has been decided to open schools as scheduled after due consideration with local health authorities.

COMMUNIST CANDIDATE

Hillsboro High School Enrollment May Reach 175 This Year

Hillsboro High School will open on September as scheduled with a possible enrollment of over one hundred and seventy five pupils.

Serving with John H. Bell, Headmaster will be: Sergius Bernard, Director of Guidance and Athletics; Arnold Bartlett, English and Mathematics; Miss Mary Canning, French and English; Miss Mary Cassidy, Home Economics and Girls Recreation; Mrs. Eva Doble, English and Social Studies; Herbert Kyle, Practical Arts; Miss Margaret Schiel, Commerce Studies; and another one yet not announced. Mr. Herman Hill will teach music.

It has been found necessary to slightly lengthen the school day by half an hour. School will open at 8:10 A. M. this year and will be dismissed at 2:58. This will permit a conventional noon recess and allow recreational and guidance activities to be carried on during the school day. Hillsboro Grammar will operate as usual. Teachers in the Grammar school will be announced next week. Hillsboro Town Schools will have been thoroughly renovated under the supervision of the Town School

Care Food Gifts Bring Food and New Hope to People in Europe

New York, N. Y.—At long last there's sugar and spice and something nice for thousands of hungry European families who are receiving CARE gift food packages sent over by generous Americans.

But, definitely not just sugar and spice, but stews and meat, preserved butter, bacon, evaporated milk, coffee and cocoa powders, and many other items are found in the nutritious 30 pounds of food sent through CARE.

In fact, it is the same food which fed our armies in combat zones... the former "10-in-1" raten CARE food packages was distributed among them, how quickly they forgot!

"The only way in which the worker can hope to survive the battle of malnutrition is through outside help," Pierre Neumayer, National Treasurer of Confederation Generale du Travail of Paris, writes. "You have begun to give him help, and in so doing you have added fresh hope and new strength to the workers of France... from the point of view of vitamin content and wholesome, well balanced food, your '10-in-1' packages surpass in quality and quantions which were purchased by CARE from the WAR Assets Administration.

Proof of its effectiveness pours in daily at CARE headquarters. Receipts and letters from grateful recipients... individuals, families and institutions who have had their meager rations supplemented by things to eat they haven't tasted since before the war.

Take for example, the children in the Hospital des Enfants Malades in Paris. Most of them were ill from potash poisoning. But when President Truman's gift of any other food parcels I have ever seen."

CARE, a non-profit organization, is approved by the United States government. It is composed of twenty-five of the principal American agencies engaged in foreign relief work.

Individuals wishing to send a 49 pound CARE package overseas are required to mail a $15 check or money order to CARE, 50 Broad Street, New York, N. Y., with name and address of both recipient and donor clearly indicated.

GRANITE STATE GARDENER by J. R. HEPLER

This has been a good growing season for cool season crops but rather poor for peppers, tomatoes, and other vegetables which require considerable heat. Some of our larger growers seem to think that the soil temperatures were too low for rapid growth of peppers, tomatoes, lima beans, and egg plants. One grower seemed to think that the lack of warm rains during the growing season was responsible for the cold soils.

As a matter of fact, in a soil temperature experiment near the University greenhouses, the temperature in the first inch of soil was around 85 degrees F., while down six inches it was only 54 degrees F. Curiously enough, when the plot which was dry was watered, the top thermometer took the temperature of the water while the lower one rose to about 85 degrees F. In other words, the water drove the heat right down into the soil.

Most growers feel that they are about two weeks late on their first tomatoes, while peppers and egg plants have refused to set up to now. Watermelons and muskmelons are also late in growing and the squash are a week to 10 days behind schedule. On the other hand, the celery looks exceptionally good and onions are doing well. Carrots look good and beets are making an excellent crop. There is nothing that can be done now to hurry the maturity of these warm season crops.

It looks to me as if the small gardener could germinate lima beans of the large type in a rag doll in the house in May and transplant them into the garden early in June and gain two or three weeks by doing so. This method is simpler than starting melons and other vine crops under glass. No greenhouse or hotbed is necessary.

MRS. ZITELLA A. BUCK
Mrs. Zitella A. Buck, widow of Bradford Porter Buck, and daughter of the late Henry and Lucy Andrews of Hillsboro, N. H., passed away at her home in Plymouth, Mass., on Thursday, August 22nd. Last week I told about two Peke puppies for a good home. Well, I wished I had had a dozen as just that number wanted the puppies. They have got a good home and will be kept together.

One day the past week I got a photo of my granddaughter, Miss Barbara, in California, a young lady I have never met although she is 16 years of age. I did not realize I had such good looking relatives. Hope to see her next year.

More homing pigeons are being reported in as being lost or just tired out. I have the new A-U and the I-F booklets and can tell you the owners if the bird is not too old. Do not confine them unless they are injured. A few days rest and well fed and they will find their way back home.

The parade the other day at Milford to welcome the boys and girls back home was the best I ever saw. Milford should be proud of the way they welcomed the returning veterans back home.

The Greenville Sportsmen's Club are to hold a Carnival at Greenville, Aug. 21 to 24. When this outfit puts on a show it's a good one.

The sudden passing of Hon. Walter Felker of Concord was a great shock to his many friends all over the state. I was well acquainted with Walter and his father, Hon. Andrew L. Felker. Walter was Director of Bureau of Markets and issued a weekly market bulletin. This bulletin was a great help to the farmers of the state.

One day last week (my day off) I went on a family picnic down at Hampton Beach. It was a week day and I would hate to be there on a week-end. What a crowd. And what prices at beach stores.

If you see in your travels an 18-foot canoe painted light green, get in touch with us at once. This was stolen or borrowed from its berth, on the Souhegan river at Milford.

Six hundred pounds of snapping turtle out of one pond (Osgood) in the town of Milford. Mr. Foster who has been helping me in my turtle trappings says he has seen one that won't even go into one of my traps: he is too big. Hope I get him.

Last week was also a good pout week and I got just 600 that will be planted in other ponds to change the blood and make better pout fishing.

Selectman James E. Sheldon is an expert in the art of catching eels. He landed his eighth a few nights ago. This one Jim said was only 27 inches long and weighed only 3 lbs. Jim says if you want a good battle royal just hook onto a 5 lb. eel. He used baled hay wire as a leader. Common fishing tackle is no use with those babies.

About time that we had another Motor Vehicle inspection. The other night between Milford and Wilton, with one light. Too many accidents, just five miles. I passed 11 cars.

The other day I met a Police Inspector from a big out of state city. He was puzzled by the way our local policemen dress while on duty. He had been visiting in ten small towns in Southern N. H., and he said how long would a cop in the city last to go around with his coat unbuttoned. Either buttoned up or in shirt sleeves but no suspenders. He also got a big laugh when he saw a policeman in a town with a celebration going on smoking a pipe and directing traffic. In his city a cop would be laid off for 30 days for smoking while on duty in uniform. Well, he said, I suppose you don't have rules to cover such cases.

Sorry, but the State Dept., does not stock a brook or pond that has a No Fishing or No Trespassing sign. They also do not stock a brook or pond that has sawdust being blown into same. This will answer an unsigned letter received this week. Please sign your name and tell us where this brook is located.

I see where the University of N. H. is to start an ivy poison drive. Hope we can get in on it. We have plenty of the weed in this section.

Did you ever have a Barrett Tree man do a job on your trees? I had a big tree in my yard that was dangerous to passing cars. These men did a fine job on that big tree and now I can sleep better nights.

Please don't bother Rev. Harold Frye of Hampshire Kennels fame, Wilton. He has sold the last of his litter of ten cocker spaniel puppies. I sent a dozen people there last week for a puppy. He has the cream of cockers in his kennel.

The Profile Kennel Club are to stage an All Breed dog show Sept., 15th., at the Rockingham Park in Salem. Lots of prizes and good judges. Better take your dog over and see how they are.

Two weeks ago I went over to the Russell Farm in Mt. Vernon and picked up a small fawn deer that had been hit by a car and somewhat injured. I brought the deer home and placed in a box stall. He ate well but he was so wild you could never tame his so one night we turned him loose and I hope he is not so wild as when he last saw us. You must get a fawn very young to be sure they will be tame.

All the States are asking people to let wild animals alone unless you most cases and she can take better know that the mother has been killed. The mother is close by in care of them than you can. If you know the mother has been killed get in touch with the nearest Conservation Officer.

The first annual State Conservation camp starts this week, Aug. 25th., and runs to the 30th. This is sponsored by the Extension Service

University of N. H. State Dept., of Education, State Fish and Game Dept., Forestry Dept., Recreation, N. H. Society Protection of Forests, and the State Audubon Society. This is for high school and older youth. C. B. Wadleigh, State club leader, Durham, is the promoter of this movement.

The Wilton Gun Club are real active this season and are holding regular shoots at their out door range near the James Hoag farm. They are looking for matches with other clubs.

Very interesting letter from William R. Linton of Antrim. It seems that one morning lately he was on his way from Antrim to Mildford and when near the Lynde-boro-Greenfield line he saw this black animal cross the road just in front of his car. It was about 5.30 sure it was the black panther. This a. m. and with his lights on he had a good look at the animal. He feels is about the same locality that Guy Hollis of Antrim saw a black panther.

Are you interested in a 3 month old puppy, Collie-Belgian Police cross. Nice with children. Mother is a cow dog.

Party in East Jaffrey has some nice cockers to sell.

Tinfoil this week: John E. Barton, Winchendon, Mass., F. L. and Jerry Davis, North Sutton; A. E. Robbe, Peterboro; P. P. Thompson, Mont Vernon.

I know of a litter of real watch dog puppies. Are you interested? Believe it or not you have got to have a permit from the Director to keep any wild bird or animal whether protected or not. A fellow had a tame crow and he had to get a permit to keep it. This permit does not cost you more than a three-cent stamp. But you must have it to keep within the law.

One day last week I got a funny postcard signed by every member of Advance Grange and some from the Lynde-boro Grange who were at the last meeting. It's nice to be remembered by fellow Grangers. The Mrs. and myself joined New Hampton Grange No. 123, Feb. 18, 1921. On Oct. 20, 1932 we were transferred to the local Grange.

You know I have a friendly little toad that comes out every day from under a stone step and cleans up the ants. It's fun to see him with his tongue out and grabbing a bug. He is not at all afraid of the people and dogs using those steps. He is very dark brown.

Never saw so many blue heron in my life. Every pond you visit at least six to ten fly out only to come back as soon as you are out of sight.

Ten little painted turtles had quite an experience one day last week. They took part in a turtle race and netted the St. Patrick church. Wilton, a neat little sum. After the races they were returned to their native haunts none the worse.

Now it's the fall Fairs and then Labor Day and summer is gone. Just remember if you don't want that dog, cat, rabbit or other pet don't turn them loose. Be sure they are left in good homes. Get in touch with the nearest Humane Society or the nearest Game Warden or Police Dept. Don't let them feed on our small animals and bird life. We have already had a few kittens brought in to find homes for. Save the game by placing that pet in a good home.

The old Souhegan river produced again. Joe Gagnon and a friend from Manchester took out two beautiful rainbows one day last week that went well over a pound and a half each.

Man asked about ferrets. Nope, you can't have one in your possession and the fine is $50. Another man asks about snares. Snares are also on the black list and the fine is $50.

No you cannot dig out of the ground any animal protected by law.

Monday for Chester, Penn., to visit her daughter, Mrs. John Pilkington and new twin daughters, Diana Lee and Donna Lynn. Mr. and Mrs. Kerwin Ellsworth and two children are staying at the Ellsworth home while Mrs. Ellsworth is away.

Miss Phyllis Brown of Everett, Mass., was a guest last week at the home of Mrs. Mary Murdough. Her sister, Dorothy, came up from Concord, on Sunday afternoon and both girls returned to that city for a visit with friends there.

George Eddy of Hyde Park, Mass., has been spending his vacation at Valley Hotel. When a small boy, he boarded with his family at Maplewood Farm on the Centre Road.

Mrs. Harriet Dunsmoor of Boston, was the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Pearl Flint, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Peabody of Mt. Dora, Florida and Troy, called on Mrs. B. D. Peaslee, one day recently.

Misses Byrd and Cora Marshall of Peoria, Ill., cousins of Mrs. Niles Stevens, attended a family reunion in Sudbury, Mass., one day. They made me a call and we found we had taught under the same superintendent, but in different cities, and had several acquaintances in common.

Danold St. Pierre of Manchester, formerly of Hillsboro, spent the week-end with his friend, Donald Currier, after visiting Old Orchard Beach, and other places with his father.

Mrs. Warren Evans and two sons, Nelson and Bruce, of Nashua, returned home on Tuesday after visiting her sister, Mrs. Raymond Davis of Walnut St., for nearly a week.

Misses Pearl Ray and Ethel Farley enjoyed the trip and a real shore dinner at York Beach, Maine, last Wednesday.

Rudy Nally is taking a six weeks Refresher Course at the University of N. H.

Mrs. Thomas Cramer and Miss Martha Cramer of Nashua drove up Sunday morning, to hear Dr. Poling, who preached at the Deering Church. (Many Hillsboro people also attended the service). Rev. Thomas Cramer was the Methodist minister in Hillsboro for several years including 1896, when he officiated at the wedding of Frank Gay and Mabel Wyman.

Cards from Mrs. Charles F. Butler, Pinedale, Wyo., say that she and her son, Charles S. Butler, could see Teton and Saddle Mts., of the Grand Teton National Park from their stopping place.

ON THE STREET
 By Paul S. Scruton

It is interesting to recall that The Hillsboro Hosiery Mills have manufactured woolen hosiery and shirts and drawers for the soldiers and sailors and the marines of four wars dating back to the Civil Spanish-American War of 1898. War and continuing through the World Wars I and II, 1917 through 1941, while the Hillsboro Woolen Mill manufactured uniform cloth and blankets for all but the Civil War.

Both mills have been the backbone of this community for over half a century and have fine records. Some of the employees of the mills have a record of continuous service for 45 years and others from 25 to 35 years which proves definitely that Hillsboro as a mill town stands among the first throughout the country in the textile world of yesterday and today, to the direct benefit of the entire community.

World War II veterans are welcomed back to their former jobs and many have taken advantage of the opportunity during the past year.

With only a few Spanish-American War vets now living within a radius of 15 miles, World War I of yesterday and their ranks will vets are fast becoming the old men fast be depleted during the coming ten years. What World War I really accomplished is written in the closed book of those brave men of 1917, who were killed or died during or after the conflict ceased.

The V.F.W. organization now being formed here will include some of the World War I, veterans but only those who saw service overseas. It is a fine outfit and a power for good in any community and so far that matter is the American Legion which has done much for the vets in legislation and from the power of its strength and unity of purpose over a long period of some 27 years. Many vets will undoubtedly join both organizations.

How about giving the Legion baseball team a great big salute for its swell brand of baseball seen at home and abroad during the past season? No paid players, each man doing his best and playing to win, and the team sure deserves a banquet.

Saw a fine baseball game at Lebanon last Sunday afternoon, against a South Boston semi-pro nine. The park was filled with fans and they have a broadcasting system installed above the grandstand with a score board in deep center field that really shows everything that has happened within a wink after the play is made. On the fence encircling the park, each merchant in town has his special advertisement and we saw a home run hit over the fence that certainly looked like big league hitting from any angle. They also play night games in the park.

Hillsboro is a baseball town too, and night baseball would be a fine thing here. There are possibilities involving but little expense and would surrounding towns like it? Lets think about it during the months to come and plan on what we could do at Grimes' Field.

The Lebanon park had 16, 80 foot poles with six big arc lights to each section. The grandstand was about the size of ours but they had bleacher seats along the first and third base lines. The diamond and playing field was not any better than ours. They told us that the average attendance this year at every game was 800, and they play twice each week on Saturday and Sunday afternoons and on Monday and Friday nights. The Lebanon nine has won 31 and lost 2 games this season.

If we cannot dope out some way to have night baseball, we can at least provide a score board at small cost and give the fans plenty of added enthusiasm as a result.

How about some large signs at other end of the town telling visitors what we have to offer? We recall a couple at the close of World War I that vanished in the flood of later years. It's good plain advertising and readily attracts a stranger to our midst.

His Farm Fields Are Factories

U. S. FARMERS have made our fields into factories.

We live better than people in other countries because our farmers get more out of the soil.

The steel industry takes pride in the way it has helped bring about this improvement in farm practice. Tools of steel—from the plowshare to the giant combine—have multiplied in number and increased vastly in quality.

Fifty years ago the typical farm in America used about 3 tons of steel. Today the figure is nearer 17½ tons.

That is a measure of the modernization of agriculture and an indication of the interdependence of steel and farming.

We no longer have separate "farm production problems" or "industrial production problems." We have but one set of problems for everybody.

If strikes, for instance, restrict the supply of farm implements and supplies through work stoppages, or make their cost prohibitive, America is out of gear.

Anything which tends in this direction is bad for the farmer—and finally for everybody. Farmers know it. Everybody else should know it.

Steel mills need all the scrap iron and steel they can get. The shortage is serious. Farmers can get extra dollars and help increase steel output by sending worn-out machinery, etc., on its way to the furnaces. AMERICAN IRON AND STEEL INSTITUTE, 350 Fifth Avenue, New York 1, N. Y.

The Institute has printed a booklet STEEL SERVES THE FARMER.
 Write for a copy and it will be sent gladly.
