HARRY W. HARVEY, 76 MANCHESTER NATIVE DIES

HILLSBORO—Funeral services for Harry W. Harvey, 76, who died last Friday morning at his home here, were held Sunday at the Woodbury Funeral Home with Rev. Whitney Yeaple conducting the services.

Mr. Harry W. Harvey was born in 1870 at Manchester, N. H., and attended the local schools, later on taking a business course. He spent the greater part of his early life in that city. He came to Antrim about forty years ago and lived there until three years ago he moved to Hillsboro.

He was a member of Harmony Lodge of Masons, The Royal Arch Chapter in Henniker, and The Elks in Manchester.

He leaves to mourn his loss besides the widow, Mrs. Charlotte M. Harvey, two sisters, Mrs. James Vaughan of Manchester and Mrs. George Currier of Newry, a brother, Vernon Harvey of Hampton and several nieces and nephews.

Burial was in the Merrill Cemetery in the Harvey District of Manchester, in the family lot under the direction of the Woodbury Funeral Home.

MRS. WALTER E. GAY

Mrs. Minnie Gay, wife of Walter E. Gay, passed away on Wednesday, Oct. 23, at their apartment on High St., where they had lived during the summer. She had not been very well for several years, but was critically ill only a short time.

Funeral services were held at the home of Frank and Lisabel Gay on School street on Sunday at 2 o'clock. Chaplain Doy Honeywell of Washington, D. C., officiating.

There was a profusion of beautiful flowers which Minnie was so fond, from relatives and friends in town and from many other places. The bearers were Scott Nelson, Dallas Cutler, William Cobb, Sr., Clinton Livingston, Harold Burbank and Edson Eastman.

BAPTIST CHURCH OBSERVES 75TH ANNIVERSARY

ANTRIM—A supper and a historical program marked the 75th year of the Antrim Baptist Church on October 25. A roll call supper for members of the church and parish and their families was served to 130 present. The 21 new members were given flowers to wear and the members answered roll call with a verse of scripture. Letters were read from absent members. Money was raised by pledges for the purchase of more than 100 new hymnals. At 8 p. m. in the auditorium, a fine program was given, speakers were Rev. C. Raymond Chappell D. D. of Manchester, who is state secretary of the United Baptist Convention, Mrs. D. H. Goodell, who reminisced about the churches past and Deacon George Hastings, who was the first to be baptized 75 years ago, the oldest living church member today. Rev. D. F. Perron gave the prayer and the closing address. Special music, in charge of Mrs. Elizabeth Tenney, included a choral anthem by a chorus of 20, with violin obligato by William Nay, and the organist was Mrs. Edith Muzzey. Songs were sung by the Antrim Male Quartet. All those participating in the musical program wore old fashioned costumes.

Since the dedication of the Antrim Baptist Church 75 years ago, the following pastors have served there:

Rev. William Hurlin; Rev. E. M. Shaw; Rev. H. L. Brown; Rev. George W. Rigler; Rev. B. H. Lane; Rev. S. G. Hastings; Rev. William E. Broisted; Rev. O. E. Kendall; Rev. J. B. Cannell; Rev. Ralph H. Tibbals; and the present minister, Rev. Donald F. Perron, who has been the pastor this last year. This Sunday marks his 1st Anniversary here in Antrim.

REPUBLICAN CLUB OF ANTRIM

DEMOCRAT

Mayor F. Clyde Keefe

REPUBLICAN

Gov. Charles M. Dale

Mayor Clyde F. Keefe of Dover, Democrat candidate and Governor Charles M. Dale have placed their political futures in the hands of New Hampshire voters who will vote Tuesday.

The Democratic candidate is relying on a huge vote in Manchester and Nashua with whatever scattered votes throughout the state he can get to pull him through.

Meanwhile the G.O.P. juggernaut has been racing up and down the state in an effort to secure every hamlet vote possible for Governor Dale and his fellow candidates.

In Hillsboro over 400 persons many of them young people packed the High School Gym Tuesday night in a pre-election dance and Republican Rally.

Said to be the most successful and largest of any Republican gathering this year the affair was attended by prominent Republican leaders and party candidates including Norris Cotton, Gov. Charles M. Dale, John P. H. Chandler, Mrs. Mabel Thompson Cooper, Mrs. Styles Bridges, and others.

Mrs. Grace Sterling was master of arrangements assisted by Frank Gay and George Gould.

On Tuesday afternoon the Republican women in Henniker held a meeting in the K & P Hall arranged by Mrs. Alice V. Flanders.

Also to be considered by voters:
"Is it expedient to call a convention to revise the Constitution of the State?" And the question of Beer sale in restaurants and stores and the operation of state liquor stores.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES

Sunday, Nov. 3, at 10:30 a. m. in the Presbyterian Church, morning service. Rev. Warren S. Reeve will preach on "How to Make Things Stretch".

At 7 p. m. a special service for all Presbyterians of Antrim will be held in the Presbyterian church. The speaker will be Rev. William J. Burger, Jr., of South Ryegate, Vermont. He is known as the "lumberjack — sky pilot" of New England. Special Music will be enjoyed and following the evening service a congregational meeting will be held.

Monday the Presbyterian Unity Guild met with Mrs. Ross Roberts with a good attendance enjoying a fine program.

MAY BEGIN SANITATION COMPANY IN HILLSBORO

HILLSBORO—It was learned this week that Hillsboro would soon have a sanitation department conducted as a private enterprise by Charles Carrier and George Barrett, Jr., both World War II veterans.

Details of the new company, its plans of operation and schedules will be announced later. A letter describing the service and questionnaire as to the need and desire of the contemplated services will be sent to all residents of the town, it was said.

Negotiate New Contract at Monadnock Paper Mills

BENNINGTON—The New Hampshire Labor News, state A. F. of L. publication in its October issue announces the new agreement between the Brotherhood of Paper Makers and the Monadnock Mills of Bennington.

The report made public by the union officers and A. V. Hilliard, president is as follows:

"The new agreement is a great improvement over the old contracts: several clauses were changed or clarified and much legal verbiage was eliminated. A request was made for two weeks' vacation with pay for five-year employees and one week's pay for one year employees but the management did not feel that they were in position to grant this request, at this time: nor any of the paid holidays that were requested.
"The new agreement allows forty hours' vacation pay for one year employees and forty-eight hours pay for employees of five years and over, an increase of pay of ten cents per hour for all employees, time and one-half for over time and double time for Sunday work.
"In return, the management re-

Fluorine Dental Tests On Children 50% Effective

HILLSBORO—Fluorine treatment tests on 116 children conducted by Dr. H. C. Baldwin, Hillsboro dentist, indicate that the treatment of teeth with a 2 per cent fluorine chloride solution reduced the incidence of new tooth cavities by about 50 per cent.

The results of the tests conducted over a period of a year as stated by Dr. Baldwin in his public announcement follows:

"Results of Fluorine treatment—116 children carried through a series of 3 treatments have a 2% fluorine chloride solution applied on the left side of the mouth only.

"A recent check shows that a total of 83 new cavities occurred on the untreated side as against 33 on the treated side.

"Allowing for errors in checking this would indicate that the treatment reduced the incidence of new cavities about 50%."

FIRE DESTROYS GRIMES' HOME ON PROSPECT STREET

HILLSBORO—Fire at noon today (Thursday) almost completely destroyed the Grimes' home on Prospect street, leaving only the skeleton of the house and part of the roof standing.

The alarm 75 was sounded about 10 minutes after 12 o'clock and so extreme was the heat that in 15 minutes the house was ruined together with all the families belongings.

Observers reported the heat so terrific that the windows crumpled. The fire was thought to have begun in the rear shed.

As this paper went to press at 2 p. m. the ruins were still smoldering.

NOTICE

After Nov. 15 my office in Hillsboro will be closed and I will be located in the Amoskeag Bank Building, in Manchester.

PHILIP LANG WEDS MISS DOROTHY COLEMAN

ANTRIM—Miss Dorothy Coleman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Coleman, Antrim was married, Oct. 27, to Philip Lang, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Lang, of Antrim. The ceremony at 2 p. m., was held at the Baptist Parsonage with Rev. D. F. Perron officiating at the quiet wedding. Mr. and Mrs. John Lang were best man and matron-of-honor. After a wedding trip to Boston, the newlyweds will return to reside in Antrim where they are both employed at the Abbott Co.

LUNCHROOM PLANNED

One of the towns War II veterans is now planning to start a lunchroom in Antrim in the near future. Everyone will be glad to have a chance to get "hamburgers" for an evening snack, also the "dinners" will appeal to those who have had to carry sandwiches so long to work.

All the veterans need encouragement when they start these new enterprises, so good luck to this new project, let's hope it is soon "open for business".

W. R. C. MEETING

Oct. 23, a special afternoon meeting, of the Antrim Woman's Relief Corps was held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Amiot. The session was honored by the presence of the Dept. President of the W.R.C. of N. H., Mrs. Irene Wentworth of New Durham. The meeting was a visitation from the Dept. Senior Vice President, Mrs. Gladys Weeks of Somersworth, who is the Inspection Officer. Mrs. Eliza Newell director of the Junior Club of Claremont, N. H. also was a guest of honor and several other out of town visitors attended.

The hostess served refreshments at a flower decorated table and Mrs. Mary Warner poured.

During the social period Mrs. Weeks played the piano for Mrs. Wentworth who sang several patriotic songs.

LEGION ANXILIARY MEETING

The October meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held at the home of Mrs. Cora Ordway with 12 members present. Mrs. Beverly Ordway assisted her in serving refreshments.

SCHOOL LUNCH PROGRAM

News of the Hillsboro Special School Board sponsorship of a school lunch program at the Grammar School has been well received by those interested in the welfare of our young people.

Of course any new proposal will be met with some opposition. Sandwiches and cold lunches were the rule in the days when we went to school. What was good enough for us may not be good enough for today.

A successful lunch program will continue to make the Hillsboro Schools increasingly attractive to tuition pupils with a resulting saving to town tax payers.

The food lunch program is operated on a non-profit basis and is now available in 26 states and in Hawaii, states which are matching federal funds in financing the program and is designed to safeguard the Health of the nation's children and to encourage local use of abundant farm crops.

WHAT IS THE ANSWER?

Last week a representative of the N. H. League for Moderation called at this office in the interests of that organization and the coming election.

We asked him what the answer to the liquor problem is. His answer was that prohibition was not the answer.

What then is the solution? We don't know, but we are convinced that the system of prohibition and the system now in force are equally not satisfactory.

We need only to cite the increasing use of alcoholic beverage in excessive amounts by more and more individuals, the flagrant violators of the law by some of those enjoying Class B licenses, the lost week-ends in Hillsboro, the parade of drunks on the streets Saturday night, etc.

If we are to be convinced that free and easy access to alcoholic beverages make for moderation it has not been demonstrated yet.

That our town may improve and not deteriorate in our opinion calls for judgement on the part of those holding Class B licenses and the town people as a whole to see that it is done.

REPUBLICANS TO WIN

This is not an endorsement of the Republican party, but this paper predicts that election night will reveal a clean sweep of the state by the Republican party.

Many people have already forgotten the failure of the Republican program and administration in the year 1929.

LISABEL GAY'S COLUMN

Among those who attended the service from out of town were, Frank C. Pundt, Detroit, Mich.; Chaplain and Mrs. Roy Honeywell of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burbank, Bellows Fall, Vt.; Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Livingston of Andover, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Edson Eastman, Concord; Mrs. Marita Perry and Mrs. Helen Blodgett of Brattleboro, Vt.; Miss Elsie Pease and Mrs. Elizabeth Gove of Foxboro, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weaver of Manchester; Mrs. Willis Bailey of Bradford; Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Dill of Cambridge Mass.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Richard Baldwin, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Baldwin, was six years old last Tuesday, Oct. 22. He had a party at his home and received birthday presents. He and his guests played outdoor games, then enjoyed a hunt for candy kisses inside. Favors were Halloween paper hats. Birthday cake, ice-cream and cake were served.

His guests were Eddie Tasker, DeWitt Woods, Walter Olson, Kenny Ryder, David Buttrick, Bobby Poluchov, Jack Woods, and Harrison Baldwin.

Miss Nerine Smith, who is to marry J. Richard Adams of Boscawen, Nov. 16, was given a miscellaneous shower by Alma Paro and Marjorie Lambert at the former's home on Sunday evening. About 25 former classmates, fellow mill workers and relatives completely surprising Miss Smith, getting her by a clever ruse to the Paro home. A prettily decorated umbrella suspended from the ceiling, sheltered the many gifts on a table filled to overflowing. Miss Smith opened her lovely and varied gifts assisted by other guests who carefully tied all ribbons together into a ball. The bride-elect grasped the end of the ribbon while the ball was passed around until the other end was reached and held by Edith York, who was declared to be the girl in the party to be married next. One of the guests, Maude Shutts, told an amusing story of Miss Smith's first ride in a baby carriage which was of brief duration and very noisy.

Refreshments were served and the rest of the evening spent on music and conversation. Mrs. James Adams, mother of Richard Adams, was present, also Marion Gauthier of Boston, sister of the bride-to-be.

One night last week, Ethel Peaslee went out on the back porch and was shocked to hear the sound in the distant woods of a child crying "Pop", "Pop" over and over again. She was rushing in to telephone the police about the child lost in the woods, when Frank came to listen. It was no lost child, but a lonely fox calling to his mate to come and share some food he may have found. Frank has lived longer and knows foxes better than the rest of us.

Small country towns best know the real worth of neighbors. Walter Gay thinks his are very wonderful. He and his wife lived on High street only six months but the thoughtful kindness shown them during her illness quite overwhelmed him. Former neighbors and other friends have stood by as always in times of trouble. He and his family truly appreciate everything done for him when he surely needed help.

Chaplain and Mrs. Roy Honeywell of Washington, D. C., our guests for a few days and Mrs. Peaslee's, visited Mrs. Inez Wheeler and Mrs. Kendricks in Nashua on Tuesday.

Misses Florence Meeham and Mary Louise Sullivan of Providence, and Ruth Kelly of Pawtucket, R. I. were week-end guests of Miss O'Neill at Mrs. Casey's.

Frank Gay and Arnold Bartlett went to Peterboro last Friday evening at a big Republican Rally in the Town Hall.

Miss Ethel Farley came home from Melrose this week-end with Miss Gertrude Janowsky who also teaches in Melrose.

Warren Buttrick of Rye spent the week-end with grandmother, Mrs. Mark Buttrick.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Buttrick and two children of Portland, Me., came Thursday and stayed over the week-end with her mother, Mrs. George Hall.

Frank Gay, Alvah Hilliard, Arthur Whitney and Gerald Sweet were in Salem on Monday to attend the races.

next spring. Many land owners are to post their land where beavers have been taken in years past. The beaver make wonderful duck and trout ponds. Let's protest, and not let the trappers get them all, just for the dollars and cents they make.

Did you know that the Outdoor-men are the only class that ask that they be taxed? They have demanded fishing and hunting licenses, federal duck stamps, also that funds would be available for stocking, management and protection of fish and game. Think that over!

Did you know that otter in China and India are trained to direct fish into nets. Also that the bloodhound is the only animal whose testimony is accepted in a court of law?

Did you know that when you visit a zoo and see a monkey digging into the hide of another, they are not picking fleas, as they hardly have any, but are finding small particles of salt, the result of evaporation, which they eat.

Bet you never heard this one — Spiders are not insects, they belong to the Arachnide family, which is composed of mites and scorpions.

Here is one for the books. Large carp go through the spawning gyration with so much gusto that they throw water six feet high and may be mistaken for a man in trouble.

An out of state man seeing the semi-wild ducks back of the bank building, went back to his car to get his gun. He was met by a local man who asked him what he was going to shoot. A big bunch of ducks just landed in the river he said. The local man said that if he shot those ducks and the men in the mill see you, your life won't be worth a plugged nickel. He went back to his car, sad but wiser.

A loaded gun in your car means just about a dozen things. A visit to the local court, lost gun, license and maybe your car. It don't pay. Shooting from a car is worse.

Louis Sylvester of Bennington shot a snowshoe hare one day last week near Hollywood Lodge, that had a tag in its ear. According to my records that hare was planted

6 years ago and had not moved over two miles in that time. Must be good feed there.

Dogs worried a deer so badly that the Chief of Police had to kill the deer. These dogs are being investigated by Warden Cole of Manchester.

Last week I had wonderful cooperation by Dist. Chief Floyd Cole of Manchester, ex-Senator and John Frain of Antrim. Worked together all one day to break a deer-jacking case. We did it.

Some time ago I saw something that gave me a good kick. A hare hunter with six small beagles was hunting over in Mason. It was late in the P.M. and two of the dogs had not returned. He had a dog house on the pickup truck. This for the LEGAL CONTROL of the sale of BEER in New Hampshire!

NEW HAMPSHIRE received $2,118,209 in taxes and fees from the sale of beer during the fiscal years from July 1, 1944, to June 30, 1946.

Loss of this revenue would mean increased taxes on heavily taxed farms, homes, industries and personal incomes.

A "Yes" Vote Is a Vote For Legal Control and Against The Evils of Prohibition.

YOUR DOLLAR . . .

No Matter How You Look At It — that part of your dollar spent for electricity is mighty small —

You know, folks, if you split up a dollar of your budget into expenditure percentages, it doesn't take long to see large chunks of it going for the usual items—food, housing, clothing, etc.—but gosh, it takes a magnifying glass to see the part of a dollar that goes for electricity—it's so small. And—you don't need to be told that your dollar is buying less and less of nearly everything EXCEPT ELECTRICITY—my rates have been going lower and lower for years, I'm happy to say.

The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Mae Perkins, at which time 7 new members will be initiated. Thanksgiving baskets will be trimmed and later filled with fruit and home-made delicacies and given out to the shut-ins in the community as it is the custom every year.

EUGENE E. AVERY WEDS MISS MARILYN E. MINER

of Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Miner of Antrim, and Eugene E. Avery, Jr., son of Mrs. Frank Boyd of Hillsboro, were united in marriage on October 24. The wedding was held at the home of the bride's parents with an evening candle-light ceremony officiated by Rev. Warren S. Reeve. About 28 relatives and close friends were present; the rooms were decorated with green and fall berries.

The maid-of-honor was Miss Shirley Miner, sister of the bride, and the best man was James Boyd, Hillsboro. The bride wore a gray suit, and her corsage was of sweet peas and carnations.

on a honeymoon trip through Vermont. After their return the groom will leave for duty with the Army which he has recently joined. As soon as he is located, his bride will join him at an early date.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

A "Spooky Party" was held at Firemen's Hall, Monday, for the Brownies by leader, Jane Pratt. The group all dressed in costume. About 25 attended, and Nancy Cutter told a realistic ghost story. Games were played, followed by the serving of cider, sandwiches, cookies, and decorated candy bags.

Tuesday the regular meeting of the Brownies was held after school, and they worked on a very thoughtful project, making 36 Halloween favors to be used on the trays of the patients at the Monadnock hospital. The Brownies are to be commended for the many little gifts they make for shut-ins.

DEN 1 — CUB SCOUT PARTY

Oct. 24, Thursday evening, a Halloween Party was enjoyed by a group of Cub Scouts and their guests. The party was held in the barn, at the home of Mrs. Arthur English, the Den Mother. Many stunts and games were enjoyed, prizes won, and later refreshments were served. The evening's activities were ended by the showing of several moving picture cartoons. Those who attended the Halloween Party were, Den 1 Cub Scouts, Richard Miner, Lawrence Attridge, Waino Olsen, Aden Ring, Donald English, David Chamberlain, Barry Clafin, and Thomas Murnane, a visitor, Robert Warren, Den Chief, was present and told two ghost stories. Arthur English was in charge of the games, and showed the movies. Other parents and guests attending were Mrs. Tracy Clafin and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Attridge, Everett Chamberlain, O. H. Robb, Mrs. Elizabeth Tenney, Rev. and Mrs. D. F. Perren and two sons.

Nov. 6, the Antrim Grange will meet at their hall for election of officers. $10.00 was voted to be donated to the Antrim High School Shop Course and at the last meeting, $125.00 was voted paid on the Grange mortgage.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leblanc and son, are moving to Bennington in November as he is now employed there.

ROBERT F. LOOMIS WEDS MISS HELEN HALE

ANTRIM—A wedding of unusual interest was solemnized on Saturday, October 26th at 12 o'clock, with Miss Helen Hale, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Worth Hale of Antrim, New Hampshire, exchanging vows with Mr. Robert Forbush Loomis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Loomis of Antrim and West Newton, Mass. The ceremony took place in the Union Chapel in North Branch, and was performed by the Reverend Dr. Herbert Hutchin, pastor of the First Unitarian Church of West Newton.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Dr. Worth Hale.

A program of organ music and the wedding march were played by Mrs. Mildred Porter of Hillsboro. The Chapel was artistically decorated with nature's wild branches, chrysanthemums, carnations - and white candles.

The bride wore a gown of white taffeta silk with a wedding veil of finger tip length caught to a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and chrysanthemums. Her maid-of-honor, Miss Margery Taylor of Washington, D. C., wore a gown of green taffeta silk, and carried a bouquet of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums.

The groom had as his best man, his brother, Mr. Richard S. Loomis of Wellesley, Massachusetts. The ushers were Mr. David B. Loomis of West Newton, brother of the groom, and Dr. Louis W. Hutchins, of Woods Hole, Massachusetts, cousin of the bride.

Immediately after the ceremony, the wedding party and their guests were entertained at a wedding breakfast in the old red brick school house near the Chapel. Among the out of town guests were the Reverend and Mrs. Raymond Calkins of Cambridge, Massachusetts. Dr. Calkins' grandfather, the Reverend John N. Whiton was pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Antrim for 45 years.

After December 1st Mr. and Mrs. Loomis will be at home in North Branch.

DAVID E. HAMMOND WEDS MISS HELEN MACKENZIE

ANTRIM—A pretty wedding was held Friday, Oct. 25th at noon in the Cottage at the Northeastern Farm, when David E. Hammond, and Miss Helen MacKenzie of Bridgewater, Nova Scotia, were united in marriage by Rev. Warren S. Reeve, pastor of the Presbyterian Church.

The double ring service was used, at the ceremony with only close relatives and friends present.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Harold MacFarland from Hingham, Massachusetts was her attendant, and the groom's brother, Robert I. Hammond from Deering was his best man. The bride was dressed in a lovely shade of rose with gold trimming, and her bouquet was pink roses. The matron-of-honor carried yellow carnations and sweet peas.

After the ceremony, held before the fire place, decorated with Fall foliage and white carnations, the happy couple received congratulations and a beautiful bride's cake was cut and served by the bride.

The groom is a World War II veteran and served three years in the Army, a year and a half overseas. Since his discharge last December, he has been employed at the Northeastern Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammond left for a trip to the White Mountains through Maine to New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

On Playing the Fiddle Badly

A favorite recreation in our town is getting together in one or another's home and making music. There's somebody at the piano; a guitar; a fiddle player; and Molly Birtles even has a harp!

What comes out isn't the best music in the whole world. In fact, a lot of it is downright bad. But nobody even thinks to question or to criticize.

Because the spirit of harmony is there—harmony between folks who like each other's company, who enjoy the simple, homey atmosphere —with nothing more exciting than old songs, and a glass of moderate beer or cider.

From where I sit, it's a heap more important to be a poor fiddle player, than not to play at all. More important to be a part of the American scene—with its community music, home entertainment, friendly glass of beer—than to hold out for professional perfection. (Besides, I like to play the fiddle—even badly!)

NEWS OF SCHOOL DISTRICT UNION NO. 24, AND THE HENNIKER SCHOOLS

HILLSBORO HIGH SCHOOL

On Friday, October 25, Hillsboro High School celebrated Navy Day. Clyde Robertson, Pat Boutelle, Leroy Gilbert and Frank Duval, all naval veterans, were aided and abetted by Mr. Arnold Bartlett, also a naval veteran, in a presentation depicting the way a vessel is brought into port—the port in this instance being Pearl Harbor. Ellen Baldwin of the Senior Class opened the program with a short explanation of the purpose and nature of the observance. The entire student body then sang "Anchors Aweigh". At the conclusion of the skit the audience joined in singing the National Anthem.

The High School gym will be the scene of a Hallowe'en Party on Thursday evening, October 31 from 8 to 12 p.m. The party is being sponsored by the Sophomore Class and attractive decorations are being planned. Wes Herrick and his four-piece orchestra will furnish the music for dancing. All young people of high school age are invited to attend the party, admission for which is free. Refreshments will be served.

UPPER VILLAGE SCHOOL

A Hallowe'en Party for grades six and seven is being planned for Friday evening when they will be host to other upper grades and high school students of the vicinity. The primary children have their own on Saturday afternoon.

The windows of the school are decorated with jack-o-lanterns and other Hallowe'en designs.

The whole school has new workbooks in language and the third grade has a new arithmetic workbook.

EAST DEERING SCHOOL

On Friday night last East Deering School vibrated with laughter and merriment at its annual Hallowe'en party. The schoolhouse was filled to over capacity with approximately ninety guests.

Much of the entertainment was provided by the parents themselves during a contest between Mr. Leonard Gray and Mrs. George Andrews, representatives of the paternal group, who recited nursery rhymes as they were recognized from the shadow pictures of 18 best-known nursery rhymes presented by the pupils. Mr. Gray won the 1st prize; the consolation prize went to Mrs. Andrews.

Joan Andrews, Laura May Johnson, and Nancy Loveren, as soloists sang a song, "Jack-o-Lantern", and were handsomely applauded.

A gay dance, "Take Your Partner Walking", was presented by three couples, Scott McLain with Laura May Johnson, Roy Bigwood with Kathleen Whitney, and Donald Fales with Violet Andrews.

Harold McLain, Albert Johnson, Ronald and Ralph Marshall created a grotesque bit of entertainment as they sang "If I were a Pumpkin", from behind gruesome pumpkin masks.

Those winning the prizes for pinning the patch on the scarecrow were: Kathleen Whitney, first, Roy Bigwood, first, Bruce York, consolation and Nancy Hammond, consolation.

The highlight of the evening as the auctioneering of "white elephants", some of which proved unusual interest and value with Joan Andrews, Scott McLain and Mill Milliken as auctioneers.

Gay and spirited bidding resulted in the tidy sum of $48.45 with which a radio for the school is expected to be purchased.

The program concluded with refreshments served by Mrs. Leonard Grany and Miss Milliken aided by the pupils.

Miss Milliken with her pupils wishes to express profound gratitude and sincere appreciation to all those whose generosity contributed to the success of the party and auction.

Mrs. Mark E. McClintock visited school this week. James M. McClintock is a patient at the Elliott hospital in Manchester.

Plans are all made for the Hallowe'en Party at the Chapel on Wednesday evening, October 30 at 7:30 p.m.

James Cutter, Dorothy Duefield and James McClintock are the contestants for the annual seventh grade prize speaking contest to be held on November 13.

HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL PLANS

Faculty Manager Arnold Bartlett and Student Manager Maurice Halliday are in the process of arranging an attractive basketball schedule for Hillsboro High School. Arrangements have been completed for games with the teams of Peterboro, Newport, Antrim, Goffstown, Pembroke, Penacook, and Henniker High Schools. Practice games are being arranged with Milford High School and St. Paul's School.

SCHOOL LUNCHES TO START LATE

Because of technical difficulties involved, school lunches for Antrim and Hillsboro will have to start a week late. Much progress has been made, but more needs to be made.

Superintendent McCormack was in Concord on Monday to have the necessary assistance forms processed.

HENNIKER HIGH SCHOOL

Vilas High School from Alstead came over Friday for a return engagement of touch football and they won 18-6. A representation from Hillsboro High School was down to watch the game to learn how it is played.

Another "vic" party was held Friday evening in the auditorium, but not many were present. The proceeds from these parties are to be used for a big Hallowe'en Party.

The play books for the senior class arrived last week and try-outs will soon be held. Every member of the class will try out for some part and assist in the production of the play as part of his English work.

Report cards were issued Friday for the first six weeks of school. Only five pupils were on the honor roll as follows: Cedric Derby, Nathan Martin, Seniors; John O'Brien, Lois Davis, Sophomores; and Frank Connor, Freshman.

GRANITE STATE GARDENER by J. R. HEPLER

When you buy a package of White Mountain water melon or Chatham Tomato seeds, you think very little about where the seed has come from or the labor that has gone into the growing of an extra-good product and into its preparation for market.

Not so long ago, a market gardener told me that he had done so well with the early Chatham tomatoes his year that he would like to plan his variety next year and wondered where he might get seed. I told him that if he brought me fifteen or sixteen bushels of tomatoes I would extract the seed on shares. With tomatoes selling at a price of almost $10.00 per bushel, the fifteen bushels, which yielded about two pounds of seed would make the seed worth $50.00 or more a pound and when compared with the wholesale price of $15.00 or less a pound, it seems very high. The procedure of removing this seed from the tomatoes is as follows:

First, they are crushed in big barrels, and allowed to ferment for four or five days. In this fermentation process the seed separates from the pulp and when the pulp is diluted about twenty times or more in water, the seed will settle to the bottom. Therefore, continuous washing of the seed will cause most of the pulp to flow away. The seed is then taken out, thoroughly rinsed and dried.

Seed of cool season crops like lettuce, radishes, carrots, beets, and cabbage, may be bought from the seedsman, since their strains are usually satisfactory even in northern New England. But the seeds of many strains of warm season crops, like lima beans, peppers, tomatoes, egg plant, water melon and muskmelon must be grown at home because the seedman cannot sell enough of these special varieties to grow and market them profitably. In fact, in many cases this will be your only way of getting these special strains. The fermentation method cannot be used with corn, beans, peas, or with peppers, but will do very nicely with melons, tomatoes, and even squash.

This is the year of large raccoons. My neighbor, Charles Meyer and his sons have taken some big ones. One 25 1/4 lbs., male, and a few nights ago in my back yard they took one that went 27 1/2 lbs., another big male. It's a big raccoon year.

Last Sunday night I picked up a snapping turtle that went just 25 pounds at the Frye Mill in Davisville. Whitney Frye caught the big fellow at his summer camp on the edge of Burton pond in Lyndeboro. This is an eye opener to me as I supposed those big fellows went to the bottom of the pond after these cold nights.

George Merchant of Greenfield, State Patrol Man for the Highway

Department, reports that his son who was overseas for many years and lives near Hollywood Lodge has seen the black panther four times; three times in daylight. He says the animal is about 3 ft. long, 2 ft. high and the color of a dirty black. The animal comes within 250 feet of the house.

Are you looking for a nice watch dog? Well I have in mind a very large German Shepherd 2 years old for a good home. Owner going west for the winter. Then we have a spayed female collie, wonderful watch dog for a good home.

Reports are in this week of dogs lost. Keep an eye out for a large white Great Dane female, a large 80 lb. Retriever, 3 Beagles, small, one German Shepherd male, one Irish setter, one English setter, two large fox hounds. Rewards for some of these dogs. So keep an eye out.

Yes, I am peeved and almost mad and I am gunning for the man who shot my pet owl last Sunday. This man was in a large green coupe and shot the owl sitting in his car. Will give a good deal to catch fellow. It was an out of state car. My neighbors saw the man but did not get the number.

Did you shoot a pheasant? If so send in the tag at once and you might get a prize of some kind.

I have seen some strange things in my life but I saw a new one the other day. I was at the Hopkins Elevators in Greenfield and saw a Hydraulic lift truck. That machine can lift a ton of grain 12 to 15 feet in the air and unload itself. I saw Manager Charles Hopkins operate the machine. You have to load it but it unloads itself. A wonderful saving of manpower.

A man in Franconstown was hunting with his dogs and all of a sudden the dog gave a loud cry and when the man found him he was in great pain and bleeding freely. The dog was rushed to Dr. Tenney of Peterboro and they are still wondering what sort of an animal bit the dog.

Last Sunday night I got another SOS to go to Temple, but this time the birds had flown. In checking over a cornfield we (my Son-in-Law Phillips) saw two large eyes across the field. We went towards the two eyes very carefully and when most up to the animal it sneaked off in the tall grass. I did not see anything but the eyes but my son-in-law said it was the black panther. He had a bigger flashlight and got a good look at the animal. Must be a large family of those animals around.

Last Sunday was Mass. and Ct. and R. I. day. I saw a great many from these three states and each one represented $15.15 each. You cannot hunt on Sunday in Massachusetts so that's why we get them. I know a great many of these men as they hunt here a lot and are a mighty nice bunch of fellows.

Some one over in North Weare send me a post card and no name. They tell me I am all wet when I speak of the wild pigeon. It's the mourning Dove. But it's a wild bird. Please sign your name. Thanks for the correction.

Did you know that big game animals have increased in the USA during the recent years to over seven million or one to every 19 humans in the nation according to Remington Arms Co.

Have you a gun that you are not using this season? I know of several young fellows who could use a gun for the hunting season. Guns are very hard to get. In the past I have had many guns given to me that I passed along to some young hunter who could use one. Shells are also hard to get. Be a good sport and help out some of these young fellows who like to hunt, but can't get a gun.

One night last week I sat in with 50 other men at the Greenfield town hall where we had a piping hot clam chowder, and all that went with it. The supper committee was Charles Laudier, Chet Russell, Harold Grant and Gunnar Peterson. Arthur Amiot of Antrim showed local moving pictures of fish planting and other hunting pictures and they were good. This club is growing fast and they have many worthwhile plans for the betterment of fishing and hunting. Supt. Mitchell of the federal hatchery, Nashua, was guest speaker.

I have several copies of the Federal laws pertaining to the hunting of waterfowl for 1946. Want a copy?

Lower Village

Miss Mary K. Pierce
Correspondent

In the whole year of the domestic life there is nothing that marks more definitely the transition of one season into another as the lighting of the evening fire. After the busy home of the day comes a brief period of quiet before the time for slumber. Warmth is now needed. The cheery flames in the fireplace invite one with their subtle charm to draw closer about the hearth.

The fire mounts high into the throat of the chimney, pine wood crackles and throws tiny sparks out upon the rug. It is the autumn of the year but the spring time of evening fires. From now on until the coming of warm sunny days the fireplace is the heart of the room, and here the family gathers to recount the happenings of the day.

As one dreams before the dying embers, the mind goes back to early years when the fireplace was a great yawning warmth for the small home. Here were cooked the family meals.

When living became easier and less filled with fear of Indian raids the fireplace was first to receive a bit of decoration. A broad pine board was placed above the huge hole in the wall. Later wooden sides were added, and so the fire frame came into being, a frame worthy of decoration.

Unskillful tools carved a crude design that satisfied the artistic longing to create. From this chiseled pattern executed with a clumsy knife was developed the intricate wood carving that made the fire frame a lasting thing of beauty. An old time fire frame carved in exquisite linen fold design is today so lovely that the room it graces needs no other ornament.

In our village these cool evenings there are many open fires. Mr. Franklin Dodge has quite recently built an outside chimney on his pretty Cape Cod Cottage, that he and his family may enjoy the companionship of a fireplace. Somehow these evening fires become companions to whose society one looks forward at close of day.

Mrs. Edna Perk's open fireplace beckons to those who enjoy discussion of the latest books, the theatre and the movies. Political conversation is sometimes indulged in, that is not only interesting but most illuminating, for election day is just around the corner.

There are fireplaces in Mrs. Gagnon's very charming home that occupies one of the prettiest sites in the village. From this slight raise of land the view is so enchanting that many a traveller pauses here to engrave upon his memory the grandeur of the hills and valleys. Within the pleasing house hospitality reigns about the burning fire.

Nearly every week more of our summer villagers return to the city for the fall and winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Jones have closed "Jonesmere" their home on the mountain road, and are living in their Boston apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Smith have returned to Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Murphy, their two young sons, Floyd and Jere, with Mr. Paul Taylor motored to Jacquet River, New Brunswick. They returned last Monday, having spent about a week with Mr. Murphy's father.

Mrs. Duncan Carmichael is now living in her home on the turnpike.

Our village learned with regret of the passing of Mr. Harry Harvey. Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Harvey. For many years Mr. and Mrs. Harvey and Mrs. Atwood were neighbors who lived on Cemetery Hill. Only a short time ago they moved to town to live. Several villagers attended the funeral on Sunday.

On these clear days the tripping feet of Judy Cate sound on the village street. "Judy" is very much of a personality. This sleek, brown horse with small head and pointed ears belongs to Mr. and Mrs. William Cate.

Animals have personality as well as people. This little horse has endeared herself to everyone, so much so, that when a day or two goes by and the rhythmic precision of her hoofs is not heard the question is surely to me asked—"Is it well with Judy Cate?" Few know her intimately, but she is so sprightly, so willing and so eager that each one in the village is interested in her welfare.

"Dickie" the small dog owned by the Durgin family enters almost every house in the lower part of the village, as an old friend. He is an appealing little beast. Very seriously he makes his brief call upon those who know him and is always given a most cordial welcome.

These two faithful friends and servants, the brown horse "Judy" and "Dickie" the small dog are so much a part of our village that one does not think of them as animals, but as neighbors and very dear ones too.

November is the month of meteors. These so-called "shooting stars" fall in glittering showers from the heavens, almost any clear night during this time of the year. Few have meteorites in their possession. Miss Lizzie Dowlin, who lives near Pierce Lake, has quite a collection that she has found on various parts of her farm. Miss Dowlin has witnessed many meteorite showers, more than any other villager. She describes in a realistic manner the sublime beauty of these sparks of light that plunge through the air to bury themselves in the earth.

The garden is waiting to receive its first white blanket of snow. No bloom is left. On the rose bushes the scarlet hips supply the only color, for the icy fingers of Jack Frost have made the flower beds sere and brown. Where once the gay flowers bloomed is now a lonesome spot. Very closely to the ground the hedges have been pruned, and the bird bath has been put away for the winter. The sun dial still counts sunny hours, but there is a lovely, melancholy beauty over all that foretells the advent of November's bleak and windy season.

And so it is that the evening fire takes the place of the departed glory of the garden. Before the ever reddening flames one reads and dreams until the little clock on the mantle chimes the slumber hour.

This is the year of large raccoons. My neighbor, Charles Meyer and his sons have taken some big ones. One 25 1/2 lbs., male, and a few nights ago in my back yard they took one that went 27 1/2 lbs., another big male. It's a big raccoon year.

Last Sunday night I picked up a snapping turtle that went just 25 pounds at the Frye Mill in Davisville. Whitney Frye caught the big fellow at his summer camp on the edge of Burton pond in Lyndeboro. This is an eye opener to me as I supposed those big fellows went to the bottom of the pond after these cold nights.

George Merchant of Greenfield, State Patrol Man for the Highway

Department, reports that his son who was overseas for many years and lives near Hollywood Lodge has seen the black panther four times, three times in daylight. He says the animal is about 3 ft. long, 2 ft. high and the color of a dirty black. The animal comes within 250 feet of the house.

Are you looking for a nice watch dog? Well I have in mind a very large German Shepherd 2 years old for a good home. Owner going west for the winter. Then we have a spayed female collie, wonderful watch dog for a good home.

Reports are in this week of dogs lost. Keep an eye out for a large white Great Dane female, a large 80 lb. Retriever, 3 Beagles, small, one German Shepherd male, one Irish setter, one English setter, two large fox hounds. Rewards for some of these dogs. So keep an eye out.

Yes, I am peeved and almost mad and I am gunning for the man who shot my pet owl last Sunday. This man was in a large green coupe and shot the owl sitting in his car. Will give a good deal to catch fellow. It was an out of state car. My neighbors saw the man but did not get the number.

Did you shoot a pheasant? If so send in the tag at once and you might get a prize of some kind. I have seen some strange things in my life but I saw a new one the other day. I was at the Hopkins Elevators in Greenfield and saw a Hydraulic lift truck. That machine can lift a ton of grain 12 to 15 feet in the air and unload itself. I saw Manager Charles Hopkins operate the machine. You have to load it but it unloads itself. A wonderful saving of manpower.

A man in Frankestown was hunting with his dogs and all of a sudden the dog gave a loud cry and when the man found him he was in great pain and bleeding freely. The dog was rushed to Dr. Tenney of Peterboro and they are still wondering what sort of an animal bit the dog.

Last Sunday night I got another SOS to go to Temple, but this time the birds had flown. In checking over a cornfield we (my Son-in-Law Phillips) saw two large eyes across the field. We went towards the two eyes very carefully and when most up to the animal it sneaked off in the tall grass. I did not see anything but the eyes but my son-in-law said it was the black panther. He had a bigger flashlight and got a good look at the animal. Must be a large family of those animals around.

Last Sunday was Mass. and Ct. and R. I. day. I saw a great many from these three states and each one represented $15.15 each. You cannot hunt on Sunday in Massachusetts so that's why we get them. I know a great many of these men as they hunt here a lot and are a mighty nice bunch of fellows.

Some one over in North Weare send me a post card and no name. They tell me I am all wet when I speak of the wild pigeon. It's the mourning Dove. But it's a wild bird. Please sign your name. Thanks for the correction.

Did you know that big game animals have increased in the USA during the recent years to over seven million or one to every 19 humans in the nation according to Remington Arms Co.

Have you a gun that you are not using this season? I know of several young fellows who could use a gun for the hunting season. Guns are very hard to get. In the past I have had many guns given to me that I passed along to some young hunter who could use one. Shells are also hard to get. Be a good sport and help out some of these young fellows who like to hunt, but can't get a gun.

One night last week I sat in with 50 other men at the Greenfield town hall where we had a piping hot clam chowder, and all that went with it. The supper committee was Charles Laudier, Chet Russell, Harold Grant and Gunnar Peterson. Arthur Amiott of Antrim showed local moving pictures of fish planting and other hunting pictures and they were good. This club is growing fast and they have many worthwhile plans for the betterment of fishing and hunting. Supt. Mitchell of the federal hatchery, Nashua, was guest speaker.

I have several copies of the Federal laws pertaining to the hunting of waterfowl for 1946. Want a copy?

There is going to be a big protest about the trapping of beaver (Continued on Page 7)

Lower Village

Miss Mary K. Pierce
Correspondent

In the whole year of the domestic life there is nothing that marks more definitely the transition of one season into another as the lighting of the evening fire. After the busy home of the day comes a brief period of quiet before the time for slumber. Warmth is now needed. The cheery flames in the fireplace invite one with their subtle charm to draw closer about the hearth.

The fire mounts high into the throat of the chimney, pine wood crackles and throws tiny sparks out upon the rug. It is the autumn of the year but the spring time of evening fires. From now on until the coming of warm sunny days the fireplace is the heart of the room, and here the family gathers to recount the happenings of the day.

As one dreams before the dying embers, the mind goes back to early years when the fireplace was a great yawning warmth for the small home. Here were cooked the family meals.

When living became easier and less filled with fear of Indian raids the fireplace was first to receive a bit of decoration. A broad pine board was placed above the huge hole in the wall. Later wooden sides were added, and so the fire frame came into being, a frame worthy of decoration.

Unskillful tools carved a crude design that satisfied the artistic longing to create. From this chiseled pattern executed with a clumsy knife was developed the intricate wood carving that made the fire frame a lasting thing of beauty. An old time fire frame carved in exquisite linen fold design is today so lovely that the room it graces needs no other ornament.

In our village these cool evenings there are many open fires. Mr. Franklin Dodge has quite recently built an outside chimney on his pretty Cape Cod Cottage, that he and his family may enjoy the companionship of a fireplace. Somehow these evening fires become companions to whose society one looks forward at close of day.

Mrs. Edna Perk's open fireplace beckons to those who enjoy discussion of the latest books, the theatre and the movies. Political conversation is sometimes indulged in, that is not only interesting but most illuminating, for election day is just around the corner.

There are fireplaces in Mrs. Gagnon's very charming home that occupies one of the prettiest sites in the village. From this slight raise of land the view is so enchanting that many a traveller pauses here to engrave upon his memory the grandeur of the hills and valleys. Within the pleasing house hospitality reigns about the burning fire.

Nearly every week more of our summer villagers return to the city for the fall and winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Jones have closed "Jonesmere" their home on the mountain road, and are living in their Boston apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Smith have returned to Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Murphy, their two young sons, Floyd and Jere, with Mr. Paul Taylor motored to Jacquet River, New Brunswick. They returned last Monday, having spent about a week with Mr. Murphy's father.

Mrs. Duncan Carmichael is now living in her home on the turnpike.

Our village learned with regret of the passing of Mr. Harry Harvey. Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Harvey. For many years Mr. and Mrs. Harvey and Mrs. Atwood were neighbors who lived on Cemetery Hill. Only a short time ago they moved to town to live. Several villagers attended the funeral on Sunday.

On these clear days the tripping feet of Judy Cate sound on the village street. "Judy" is very much of a personality. This sleek, brown horse with small head and pointed ears belongs to Mr. and Mrs. William Cate.

Animals have personality as well as people. This little horse has endeared herself to everyone, so much so, that when a day or two goes by and the rhythmic precision of her hoofs is not heard the question is surely to me asked—"Is it well with Judy Cate?"

"Dickie" the small dog owned by the Durgin family enters almost every house in the lower part of the village, as an old friend. He is an appealing little beast. Very seriously he makes his brief call upon those who know him and is always given a most cordial welcome.

These two faithful friends and servants, the brown horse "Judy" and "Dickie" the small dog are so much a part of our village that one does not think of them as animals, but as neighbors and very dear ones too.

November is the month of meteors. These so-called "shooting stars" fall in glittering showers from the heavens, almost any clear night during this time of the year. Few have meteorites in their possession. Miss Lizzie Dowlin, who lives near Pierce Lake, has quite a collection that she has found on various parts of her farm. Miss Dowlin has witnessed many meteorite showers, more than any other villager. She describes in a realistic manner the sublime beauty of these sparks of light that plunge through the air to bury themselves in the earth.

The garden is waiting to receive its first white blanket of snow. No bloom is left. On the rose bushes the scarlet hips supply the only color, for the icy fingers of Jack Frost have made the flower beds serene and brown. Where once the gay flowers bloomed is now a lonesome spot. Very closely to the ground the hedges have been pruned, and the bird bath has been put away for the winter. The sun dial still counts sunny hours, but there is a lovely, melancholy beauty over all that foretells the advent of November's bleak and windy season.

And so it is that the evening fire takes the place of the departed glory of the garden. Before the ever reddening flames one reads and dreams until the little clock on the mantle chimes the slumber hour.

overcoat or blanket for the dogs to sleep on till they return for them the next day.

Here is one for the book. Out in Necedah, Wis., 77 deer were bagged and not a shot fired. How come? you say. Well they were killed by bow and arrow. When the open season started 3500 archery hunters flocked into the 33,000 acres. Necedah, Wis., a town of 850, was crowded to the roofs. Hunters slept in cars and trailers. Judge Cheever sent me this clipping from a Wisconsin paper. Archery is the coming thing they tell me.
