HAPPY NEW YEAR

Christmas is over and gone. Trees have maybe been set out in snow with a piece of suet on top for the birds. The Carolers came and sang the same ageless old songs and sang well, too, under the direction of Mr. Farmer. I can see in imagination, the brightly lighted windows and small Christmas trees in homes, but of course I have no mental picture of the Community Tree. The lack of the tree seems to be a case of "whose business is it anyway to provide one?" The Community Club had better start early next year and announce their plans for or against.

Santa Claus sets a good example by being considerate of his reindeer and allowing them to take a long rest on top of the roof of the house above us.

TAYLOR — FINNERTY

Miss Joan Patricia Finnerty, daughter of Mrs. John Clark, and Tech. Sgt. Charles Harold Taylor, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Taylor of Deering, were united in marriage by Rev. W. S. K. Yeaple in Smith Memorial church at 4 o'clock, Saturday, Dec. 28. The church was beautifully decorated, the altar being banked in a mass of greenery with big baskets of white chrysanthemums and gladioli, effectively placed. The church was lighted by candles.

When the Wedding March, played by Mrs. Porter, was heard, the ushers, Donald Matthews and Alvin Yeaton, Jr., led the bridal party up the aisle, followed by the maid-of-honor, Miss Katherine Jovin, alone, then the bride on the arm of her step-father, Mr. John Clark. They met the groom and his best man, Mr. Ernest Taylor, and Dr. Yeaple at the altar. The double ring service was used and the bride was given in marriage by her step-father. She was lovely in a gown of white satin and net with train, fingertip veil with orange blossom crown. Her colonial bouquet was of white carnations and marguerites. The maid-of-honor wore pink taffeta, crown of pink roses with shoulder length veil and carried a colonial bouquet of mixed flowers.

Following the service, a reception was held at the bride's home. Forty-five guests enjoyed the delicious buffet lunch. Several members of the immediate family were kept away by the storm, Albert Baker and family and Miss Dolores Baker among others. The couple left for a short honeymoon in New York after the reception. They will make their home at Central Hotel, Delray Beach, Florida, where Sgt. Taylor is stationed for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Murphy of Watertown, Mass., visited her mother from Monday to Wednesday. When Mrs. Gile went down for them, she took Mrs. Nellie Mellen, who stayed with the Murphy baby. Linda is still in Children's Hospital, Boston, a victim of polio, but her case is beginning to seem a little more hopeful.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Woods entertained a large dinner party on Christmas including her two brothers and their families from Keene. The Carl Harringtons and Amos Harrington were guests of the John Tasker family.

Mrs. Steve Brzozowski spent Christmas in Boston with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Reilly. Her son, Joseph, took her down and her son, John, stationed in Maryland, came to Boston to meet his family.

Max Webber came from Warren, Ohio, to spend Christmas holidays with his brother, Bernard and Mrs. Webber. He has been with the same company for 36 years.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Whitney of the Brick House spent Christmas holidays in Brookline. Miss Bird will return with them or come soon afterward.

MRS. MARY SAWYER DIES, NATIVE OF ANTRIM

ANTRIM — The death of Mrs. Mary Sawyer, which occurred Dec. 22nd., brought to an end the life of one of the town's oldest citizens. She was born March 10, 1856, the daughter of John and Maria Case. About sixty-four years ago she was married to Allen L. Sawyer and became a devoted step-mother to his three children, two of whom survive her.

After her husband's death in 1904, she operated for many years, a popular boarding house. About nine years ago failing health made it necessary for her to go to live with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Holt, where she has been tenderly cared for. She has been a great sufferer from arthritis and for several years has been unable to walk. She was one of the two surviving charter members of the Congregational church, and funeral services were held there Tuesday afternoon, with Rev. Donald Perron, pastor of the Baptist church, officiating. Bearers were four grandsons, Winslow Sawyer of Braintree, Mass., George Myhaver of Peterboro, Cecil Ayer of Manchester, and Albert Zabriskie of Antrim. NEW REQUESTS TOTALING $4,000,000 AT LEAST MAY FACE 1947 LEGISLATURE

Legislators Will Have Maximum of $2,000,000 to Meet These and Possible Other Demands Estimated at $17,000,000

(A discussion of the major issues expected to come before the 1947 Legislature at Concord, derived from the December "New Hampshire Taxpayer", appears below. This article, and one which appeared last week on State finances, are preliminary to a weekly column of Concord legislative news, including votes of local legislators.)

With a maximum of about $2,000,000 in "free" funds available to cover increased appropriations and other new requests placed before it this winter, the 1947 Legislature is faced with probable demands totaling over $4,000,000 annually, and possible requests for $16,000,000 of a non-recurring another $1,000,000 annually, and nature. These increases are based in the main on the fact that personnel and travel, both restricted during the war, are now back to normal; that salaries and prices for materials and supplies have risen; and increased popular demand for services and expansion of various kinds.

It will be the primary business of the new Legislature either to pare these new demands, or to increase taxes on these sources, or to find new sources of revenue or perhaps all three.

Major issues, including requests for money, which will probably be placed before the 1947 Legislature follow:

Education

1. The Department of Education is seeking $1,600,000 new money for state aid to schools. Previously, it has given equalization aid, to (Continued on Page 5)

MEMBER OF THE AMERICAN PRESS HALF CENTURY CLUB

ON THE STREET By Paul S. Scruton

Why not have a spruce tree set in Butler Park as a permanent Christmas tree, so that in years to come all that will be necessary is the stringing of lights? Just an idea but it seems worth thinking over before another year has rolled around.

The Hillsboro Community Association is composed of a number of leading citizens who have the good of Hillsboro at heart and hope to develop the town into a wide-awake community for the benefit of all and the detriment of none, but it needs cooperation.

While on the subject, from years of experience we have found that the men and women who try to start something are looked upon as scavengers or perhaps want to feather their own nests. It's a thankless job we have found filled with jealousy, frowned upon by scatter brains who have no initiative of their own and are satisfied to eat and sleep in their own environment and be comfortable as long as somebody else furnishes the fuel for their imagination. A leader in any town must be devoid of sentiment, be thick skinned and willing to be cursed for his endeavors from dawn to darkness and find no peace on earth from the cradle to the grave. It's mans inhumanity to man exemplified and not as nature intended. Like history it repeats again and again.

Our prediction for 1947 is that the local mills will enjoy one of the best in years, starting within a few days, that an improvement will be seen in traffic congestion, that business in general will boom, tenants will fill the vacant rooms in blocks in town, that the bandstand will be moved nearer the grandstand at Grimes Field and that the stand will be much improved as regards acoustic properties. Also, the High School basketball team will continue its winning stride as well as the Legion team, more people will go to church this year than since 1937, the new diner on Henniker street will have a good year in its first attempt. We predict work will be resumed on the ball grounds next spring and the team will be the best in years, that more interest will be shown in the youth of our town and last but not least something will be done about swill removal before the advent of next summer.

What we need this winter is less parking cars over night on the Main or side streets so that our hard working crews can plow the roads without the necessity of dodging around. If you have no place to shelter your car you should be denied insurance and be off the roads for keeps.

Watching Moody Currier and his faithful horse plowing our sidewalks brings to mind that the job is no child's play when some 15 inches of snow blocks the path. Some day, Moody, you may have a motorized plow of some sort that will give you a little more comfort and has anybody thought of a pension for town employes or like school teachers you work until old age cuts you down — and out...

A LOWER VILLAGE STORY—By Mary K. Pierce

Christmas! Once more the greatest feast of all the year, the Infant Christ touches the heart with the sweet innocence of Childhood. It is the time of kindnesses to every living creature in memory of Him who once was small and needed care and tenderness. To little ones as birds and squirrels and the wild things of the field are given generous share of food as well as to the family pets that doze before the fire.

Christmas! The very name brings peace and joy to a multitude of hearts.

On the hallowed Eve the gentle glow of lighted candles in the windows made tiny paths of radiance out upon the snow. Upon cold white earth the stars looked down in friendly wonderment, for there is something about Christmas Eve different than any other night in the year. There is an awareness, an expectancy of a great event about to happen that finds reflection in faces of little children and in those of guiltless heart.

Houses are gay this Yuletide week. Evergreen wreaths hang from doors and casements. Some with only the sunlight to brighten the glitter of tinsel ornaments, and others illuminated with electricity are light

Maine, Massachusetts and Connecticut.
In his forthcoming book on New Hampshire rural life during the latter part of the last century, the Penacook author describes the once-prosperous basket-making industry which flourished in this section of New England from the close of the Civil War until the close of the last century.
As a boy Kilpatrick watched Fred Barnes, a Henniker Civil War veteran and neighbor make hundreds of farm and laundry baskets for the local trade, using the growth layers of the brown or "swamp" ash trees. He has a large collection of these home-made and durable baskets of that period. Any technical information concerning this almost forgotten home industry will be welcomed by the author.

elementary schools only, of $400,000. The new plan, as discussed in this paper several weeks ago, would raise equalization aid to $1,110,000 yearly and would include secondary schools; and would give general aid to all schools, totaling $945,000.

2. The University of New Hampshire, which now receives about $600,000 from the milage tax (1/1000 of the equalized valuation of the state), wants an increase of 50 per cent, $300,000 yearly, to permit expansion.

3. School teachers may seek a change in tenure laws, and a state-wide minimum salary law.

Recreation

4. Recreation bills expected to come up in one form or another are: $375,000 for the development of Mt. Sunapee; $500,000 for a major development at The Weirs, sponsored by the Lakes Region Association; $300,000 from general funds for the Fish and Game Department (In this connection it is noted that this department had in the kitty $374,000 of its own restricted funds last June 30, $58,000 more than it spent in the entire preceding fiscal year); up to $10,000,000 for a long-range control program of lake, river and stream pollution; $150,000 to regularly develop the recreational assets of the state, sponsored by the Forestry and Recreation Department.

There may be another effort to legislate a dog track, and a move to clarify the authority of the State Racing Commission in this and other matters.

5. More money may be asked to improve Class five rural roads, now getting $550,000 yearly. Truckers may seek increase in weights allowed on roads.

Relief

6. New relief requests will probably include $600,000 or more to meet increased costs of living (a deficit of $600,000 is estimated for the current fiscal year); the Townsend Plan group may introduce a program costing $1,000,000; consolidation of relief handling may be recommended.

Financial Bills

7. Possible Revenue and finance bills are: A move to abolish the poll tax, which brings in $500,000 to cities and towns; moves to boost Highway Department revenues $1,000,000 by making the gasoline tax 5 cents instead of 4, or by transferring payment of $5-

Walter Parker of Milford and Officer Frain of Antrim sent me walnuts for my grey squirrels. Thanks.

This week we have three good watch dogs to find homes for. Two large ones and a small one. Just good homes and no strings attached.

Was up in Greenfield the other day on a back road and saw these signs attached to trees — "Hunters Look before you shoot. Deer have 4 legs. Damn fools Keep Out."

Are you in favor of the following which I understand will be brought before the next Legislature:

- To reduce the horn pout limit from 40 to 25.
- To license all cats and makethem wear a collar, license tag and bell.
- To reduce the time limit on grouse from Oct. 15 to Nov. 1st.
- To reduce the hare and rabbit season 15 days during February.
- To make Sunday a closed season.
- To register all guns and keep them in a central location.

If you don't like this layout get in touch with your town representative and senator and tell them your views. They are your agents. It's up to you.

Do you own a fully automatic firearm of any make? If you do you must register that gun with the Collector of Internal Revenue. Failure to do so means five years imprisonment in a Federal prison and a fine up to $2,000. Selling or transferring such firearms is also a violation of this act.

The fifty members of the Wilton high school have received their yellow insignia for being life members of the One-Was-Allowed-to-Get-Away-Club, sponsored by the Outdoor Writers of America.

Speaking of tinfoil—this weeks honor roll goes to Miss Irene Wilson of Franklin, Wollett's News Store of Derry, Jimmie and Lewis Butler of Jaffrey, Harry E. Riel of Franklin, Miss Bessie Merrill, USO, Boston. A fine lot for the crippled children.

Let me tell you folks about a rare treat I had one day last week. I just dropped in on my old friend, Everitt Bingham of East Jaffrey, and he put on a show, the likes of which I never have seen, and if I had not seen it, would never believe such an act possible. Now Mr. Bingham is retired after many years in a machine shop and to take up his time raised and trained many parakes. He has now 85 in his collection. I saw eggs in the nest and I saw babies hatching, and then I saw the show. His birds are very tame and they will go through all sorts of stunts. Walk ropes, climb the ladder and do other impossible things. It was an eye-opener to me to see what one with patience can do with birds. Better run over and see the exhibition. The color effect on some of his birds is wonderful. He wants to buy a couple of blacks, but the only ones are in England and the price is $1,500 a pair.

The 99th annual Boston Poultry show will be put on Jan 18, 19 in 1947. Next year the 100th will be a real show. This show also has 2500 pigeons and waterfowl. Better plan to see it.

The State Board of Health gets out a nifty little booklet every month and it is called New Hampshire Health News.

Does it pay to be accommodating? Several weeks ago I got a call to go get an old dog, 14 years, seven miles from home. I got the dog, notified the owner who lived 48 miles from where the dog was found. Poor old fellow was all in and slept for two days. When the owner came he was fit to be tied, the owner I mean. Mad as a wet hen. Told me if the dog had been left alone he would have been home the next day. Well, the world is made up of all kinds.

Some weeks ago I spoke about that wonderful dog food known as Kasco, complete dog ration. Well, I see by the paper, that this food has been taken with the Byrd outfit to the Antarctic to feed the dogs.

The other day a fellow said to me, "What do you want for Christmas, Proc? You did me a good turn some time ago and I want to return the compliment." Well, I said, shoot me down a sugar stamp. Have not had sugar in my coffee for a week, and I don't like substitutes. Let's see if he remembers.

If you intend to go to Canada with a dog, be sure you have a paper to show that the dog has been inoculated for rabies. They won't let you in without the papers.

You have got to hand it to the city of Nashua. The bright lights are certainly beautiful. I went down the other night on my day off. Sure got a big kick out of seeing those lights. The new parking meters and the swimming pools in the spring and a world's champ football team. More power to Nashua.

More tinfoil from Mr. and Mrs. Maurice E. Wells, Danbury, Everitt Bingham, Jaffrey, H. L. Cunningham, Antrim.

In all my experience, it is the first time I ever heard that deer liked pansies. SOS from Hillsboro said they had ruined one large bed.

A Milford hunter saw a white deer in North Lyndeboro, Sunday afternoon.

Heard a new one the other day. A man phoned another party in the same town that their dog had eaten 30 pounds of deer meat. He wanted them to come over and settle for it at the rate of 50 cents a pound. Both would have violated the game laws as you can't buy or sell venison. Heavy fine.

Tinfoil from Leona Ellinwood and Carol Sweet for the crippled children. No address given.

It is not safe to hunt foxes or rabbits in deer season. Nothing will make a hunter so mad as to have a dog show up in the woods to drive the deer away. Play it safe and hunt with dogs after the deer season. Some states do not allow a dog of any kind in the woods during deer open season.

Many trappers in my section have taken up their traps as the brooks are covered with ice. We heard of one trapper who sold his mink for $21, large and small alike. One trapper told me he had got over 100 rats and 28 mink. A good catch if you ask me. But a lot of hard work.

Now is the time to talk it over with your senators and representatives if you want some law changed. It won't be long now to the first of the year when they will be in session.

It's against the law to set a trap under a culvert and in a path where humans and cattle travel.

I am asking your cooperation. If you see men riding the bumpers of an auto get in touch with me at once. Don't wait till the next day. I have heard this rumor and I want to talk with these men.

The Granite Fish and Game Club of Milford put out some beautiful trout one day last week from the Federal Govt. hatchery at Nashua. I am also indebted to the Superintendent of the same Hatchery for some nice big trout received last week. As usual they are planted "over there."

A man from out of state hit a small deer and killed it. He wanted damages for the car. Sorry the state don't pay damages like that. Many large bucks have been seen traveling the highways at night. Too bad for both buck and your car if they meet.

Don't forget a loaded gun in your car means a trip to the local court and loss of license and a fine. This is one violation that we are to be hard boiled on. More fatal accidents have taken place with loaded guns in a car.

LOWER VILLAGE STORY

and sparkling after darkness has descended.

Christmas came to our village in many ways. It came to the school children through the kindness of the Ladies Aid, who gave candy and pop-corn to make more abundant the gift fruits of the big spruce tree.

It came to our neighbors, who are ill, in simple sincere expressions of friendship as a jar of jelly or a flower cut from a favorite house plant. Christmas, a day so eagerly anticipated that so quickly passeth by.

It came in cards and letters from those now living in other places, but whose hearts return to our village at Christmas. Mrs. Edna Perk, of "The Arc," East Jaffrey, N. H., sent Yuletide greetings as well as Mrs. Frank Cushing from Needham, Mass. From California, the Callahans (Sybil and Jerry) turned homeward their thoughts and, Mr. and Mrs. Bucklin, who live in the summer distant from the village sent messages of Yuletide cheer.

The exhibition of Christmas literature in Fuller Library in town was enjoyed by many. Mrs. Raymond Rickard, the librarian, arranged the books so attractively that one wished to dip into all, but contentment came with reading a few. "Christmas Legends and Stories," has a particular appeal. "Neighbors of the Christ Night," by Denis P. McCarthy, pictures in adoration the entire animal world.

Christmas Morn, the legends say Even the cattle kneel and pray, Even the beasts of wood and field Homage to Christ the Savior yield. Horse and cow and woolly sheep Wake themselves from their heavy sleep

Bending head and knees to Him Who came to earth in a stable dim. Christmas Morn, the legends say Even the cattle kneel to pray, Even the wildest beast afar Knows the light of the Savior's star.

And shall we for whom He came, Be by the cattle put to shame? Shall we not do so much at least As the patient ox or the forest beast?"

Christmas Day has come and gone but its fragrance lingers through the month as if to recapture and to preserve the wonder and the mystery of this most holy season. The last twelfth month is drawing to its close and a new year waits upon the threshold of the old. Our village wishes to all continuation of the Christmas joy.

On Christmas Day there were many family parties. The daughter and sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Moulton brought their families to the parental home, and much cheer and merriment reigned throughout the day. Melvin Moulton, Jr., of Georgia was also a guest.

Mr. and Mrs. James Oski extended hospitality to their children and grandchildren, who all came home for Christmas.

There was much happiness in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Davison, which sheltered a merry family group.

Mr. Virgil Houghton and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Perley Crane of East Washington, at a Yuletide dinner of twenty-six.

Mrs. F. J. Orser, Mrs. George Chapman and Mrs. Bonnett enjoyed a dinner at Crosby's restaurant during the holiday season. Later they went to the movies.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pearson entertained a family party during the Yuletide.

Miss Marion Gibson of Boston, spent the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Carrie Gibson.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris White and their son, Lewis, spent Christmas day in Dorchester, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leedham enjoyed Christmas Day with their son, Mr. Fred Leedham and his family at the Upper Village.

One evening quite recently, a car skidded from the road and plunged into the home of Mr. Virgil Houghton. No person was injured but the house was damaged. Mr. F. J. Orser was home for the holidays and returned to New York on Sunday, Dec. 29.

Winter has descended upon our village. It came in a storm that changed the dry, brown earth into a white and shining world. It came in flocks of geesebeaks that made crimson splashes in the trees and on the newly fallen snow. It came in the slow, undulating flight of the pileated woodpecker, that shy bird of cold weather, seldom seen, but whose scarlet crest and huge dark wings once glimpsed are a long remembered joy. The absent sound of rustling leaves proclaimed it, as well as the silence of the ice-bound brook. King Winter reigns, and in obedience all nature bends beneath his cold relentless rule.

No, it's no good to figure such things out after the crash. He should have known, for instance, that tests show tire chains reduce braking distance as much as 40 or 50 per cent on ice and snow. So use 'em! But remember—chains won't replace brains. They will help a careful driver to avoid winter mishaps.
