13 NEW HAMPSHIRE AIRPORTS TO GET GOVERNMENT FUNDS THIS YEAR

Projects at Conway, Claremont, Keene, Hillsboro, Lebanon, Concord, Newport Among Those Approved by CAA

WASHINGTON — The federal government announced Jan. 10, a $71,591,865 airport construction and improvement program, for which Uncle Sam will put up $33,899,265.

The plan is the initial portion of a seven-year program calling for expenditures by the federal government of $500,000,000. Local sponsors of projects will be called upon to put up as much or more.

Allocated to Smaller Airports Construction on the projects announced Jan. 10, is not expected to start on any considerable scale before spring.

All the federal money comes out of a $450,000,000 fund appropriated by the last Congress. Five per cent of which was earmarked for administration. States, cities and counties will provide the remaining $37,692,600.

Civil Aeronautics Administrator T. P. Wright said all federal funds this year will be allocated to smaller airports, those up to a size suitable for small commercial transport planes.

The federal airport act requires that Congress approve a list of proposed larger airports at least two months in advance of the fiscal year in which they are to receive funds. It was not possible to comply with this requirement for the current year because the act did not become a law in time.

Wright said that because of this a proportionately larger share of next year's funds will be spent on larger airports.

The projects for which the Civil Aeronautics Administration has allocated funds in New Hampshire are: (The list includes, in order, the location and name of the airport, the class of airport when the project is completed; total cost and government share; division of expenditures, and work proposed to be done.)

CONWAY, Conway Valley or White Mt. Airport, Class 2 (now Class 2): $56,470 and $24,625; $15,000 for land, $41,750 for other items. Work: acquisition of site and start of construction of Class 2 airport.

CLAREMONT Municipal, Class 2 (now Class 2): $76,650 and $37,825; $2,000 for land, $74,650 for other items. Work: Extension of east-west landing area from 2,750 by 500 feet to 3,300 by 500 feet, with 100-foot paved strip, construction of paved apron.

HILLSBORO, Class 1: $11,750 and $5,875; all to be spent for items other than land and buildings. Work: Acquisition of site and start of construction of Class 1 field.

Install Contact Lights KEENE, Dillant-Hopkins airport, Class 3 (now Class 3): $29,000 and $14,500.

LEBANON, Class 3 (now Class 3): $50,000 and $25,000.

CONCORD Municipal, Class 3 (now Class 3): $28,000 and $14,000. Other airport grants were at: Hinsdale-Brattleboro, Plymouth, Whitefield, Haverhill, Lancaster, Newport and Farmington.

HILLSBORO ITEMS — Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Denny of West Main Street announce the birth of William Robert Denny, Saturday morning, January 11, 1947, weight at birth 5 lbs 12 ounces.

On the day after the fire part of the brick structure from the Crosby block fell on the roof of the Garafoli building to the south causing damage to the roof. Contrary to rumors the bricks did not land in the LeRoy Diamond bedroom, and did not hit LeRoy Diamond on the head. Mr. Diamond is still working at the P. X. and not his twin brother.

ANTRIM VOLUNTEERS PREPARE FOR CONCORD HOSPITAL FUND DRIVE, JANUARY 27

Hiram W. Johnson Heads Antrim Drive

Volunteer workers in Antrim and six neighboring communities will take a prominent part in the public campaign to complete Concord Hospital's $1,000,000 building fund during the three-week period beginning January 27, it was said today by Hiram W. Johnson of Antrim community chairman for this town and of the public campaign.

Mr. Johnson pointed out that the name selection meeting held in Hillsboro Community Hall, Monday night, was well attended by the volunteer fund workers of Hillsboro, Antrim, Bennington, Bradford, Henniker, Washington and Weare. At this meeting, he said, the workers selected names of fellow townspeople upon whom they will call to secure contributions for the construction of the new seven-story medical center which is to replace the Margaret Pillsbury and New Hampshire Memorial units of Concord Hospital. Name selection meetings for workers in a score of other communities are being held this week and next.

Mr. Johnson said that 40 men and women of Hillsboro and Washington have been organized in five teams of eight members each. Team captains are in Hillsboro Roger Connor, Harold Newman, Philip J. Woodbury, Mrs. Carlotta O'Connor and Mrs. Grace Sterling. Lieutenants include Ronald Buttrick, Mrs. Betty Olson, Mrs. Mildred Chamberlin, and Mrs. Nerine Quarte. Campaign leaders in the five other town from ywhch representatives attended Monday night's meeting are: Antrim, Hiram W. Johnson, chairman; Archie M. Swett and Mrs. Guy D. Tibbetts, captains, and Albert E. Thornton and Mrs. A. Wallace George, lieutenants; Bennington, Arthur T. Bell, chairman; Bradford, Mrs. Frank P. Felton, chairman; J. Charles Williams, captain and Carl F. Cressy, lieutenant; Henniker, Harry L. Holmes, chairman; Fred T. Connor, Max Israel, Mrs. Mary N. Cox and Mrs. Barbara Hazen, captains, James W. Doon, Wayne F. Holmes, J. Albert Norton, and Mrs. Helen Doon, lieutenants; Weare, Fred C. Jones, chairman; Harold Thomson, captain and Gordon A. Russell, lieutenant.

Mr. Johnson explained that during the period of the public campaign, January 27 to February 13, the workers in Hillsboro and neighboring towns will form an important part of the army of more than 800 volunteers who will present the opportunity to share in the creation of the new Concord Hospital to all residents of the 32 communities the hospital serves.

Before a candlelit table decorated with the Legion symbols, three members, Mrs. Dorothy Proctor, Mrs. Gwendolyn Cutter and Mrs. Dorothy Lang, were initiated by the officers following a new ritual which has recently been published in the manual. During the business meeting it was voted to send $2 to the Salvation Army, and bulletins were read from all the National Chairmen. Miss Josie Coughlin, a former member was re-installed, and another member, Mrs. Doris Perham, asked for a transfer to another unit, which was approved. Two former active members, Mrs. Louise Auger and daughter, Helen, sent greetings from Florida and several other letters of thanks were read by secretary, Mrs. Nina Fuglestad. Refreshments were served after the meeting by Mrs. Katherine English, Mrs. Ethel Worth, Mrs. Doris Bryer and Mrs. Irene Dunlap. The February meeting will be held at the Legion Hall.

The Girl Scouts were the special guests, and the Brownies, who held a regular business meeting for the benefit of the Woman's Club members. With their leader, Miss Jane Pratt, the Brownies sang a song, also, Mrs. John Thornton, as hostess chairman, with her committee, served refreshments after the social period.

Thermometer Drops to 12 Below in Town, Thursday

HENNIKER — We had the coldest morning of the season on Thursday when it was about 18 below zero in the village. By Sunday morning it had warmed up so that it was 32 when we got up and it was warm until late afternoon when it began to grow colder. Two December weather records were broken in Concord and probably here as our weather is about the same as Concord. The snowstorm that started about 9:30 on the night of Dec. 27, and continued until 8:30 the next morning brought 14.6 inches of snow, the heaviest snowfall in any 24 hour period in December since the weather bureau was established in 1903. The same storm made a new record for the amount of snow in any December storm since 1903. Total snowfall for December was 23.4 inches, double the normal amount of 11.9 inches. The greatest amount of snow on the ground at one time was 16.8 on Dec. 28. The alltime record was 18.2 in (Continued on Page 7)

Antrim. His subject was "Home in the Philippines," of which he was well able to speak having lived there for several years. He told of many interesting habits and customs of the natives. Their marriage laws allow for child marriages. Some of the teen-age girls would be beautiful, but for their treatment of their teeth. They chew a mixture of things making their teeth black, then they are filed to a point.

Refreshments of sandwiches, pickles, and coffee were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Pearl Clark, Mrs. Julia Sleeper, and Mrs. Charlotte Harvey.

Miss Regina Wescott of School St., began the course at Margaret's Beauty School last week.

Walter Colby shot a deer in season on Bible Hill. He sent the skin away and is now wearing some long-wristed ski mittens made of deer skin, and some other heavy cloth.

Mrs. Porter was in Boston on Saturday, and lunched with Mrs. Perry and Mrs. Reece. Fred Porter called his mother by telephone Saturday night and she also spoke to his wife and daughter at their home in Atlanta, Ga.

Since the coming of the new druggist, Donald Baker, who purchased the Wallace Drug Store, we have discovered that his wife is our cousin. Our father and her grandfather, Newton Hartshorn, were own cousins. About the only facts I ever heard about Mr. Hartshorn was that he was an artist and friends of U. S. Grant and had painted his portrait.

Mrs. Lois Day and Mrs. Nellie Mellen were in Boston on Saturday and attended the Ice Capades.

Misses Velina Smith and Regina Westcott, George Colby and Eddie McClintock were among those who attended the Tufts College ski contest in Peterboro on Sunday.

James McClintock of Pleasant St., had his tonsils out at the Elliott Hospital, Manchester, on Jan. 7, and came home the next day. When recovered from his operation, it is hoped and expected that his health will be much better.

Miss Beryl Black, who has been ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Bernice Childs, in Henniker, returned the last of the week to the hospital for x-ray treatments. Before leaving, she had been enjoying a Sunshine Basket, beautifully trimmed and filled with gifts from her mill associates and other friends in Hillsboro.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank everyone for the cards, letters and gifts sent to me at home and in the hospital. Also for the transportation I wish everyone the best of luck.

In sun and rain and snow the doctor's horse stood patiently before the mansion and the cottage. The doctor's horse! O knowing steed that understood the meaning of his master's moods, and sensed through tone of voice and touch upon the rein the urgency of speed or ease of jogging pace. True and well earned comradeship existed between the country physician and his dumb faithful servant, each so dependent on the other. In times when blinding snow storms blocked the road or a cloud burst turned the familiar way into a raging torrent it was the wise and trusty animal that brought his master safely home.

Going for the doctor in years gone by was an event in many a young boy's life, his just experience with responsibility that never was forgotten. The hurried hitching of the family horse to a two wheeled gig in the stillness of the night, the anxious ride through Stygian darkness to the doctor's house, the silent homeward journey with the boy's heart filled with fear and apprehension, the doctor pondering the nature of the call.

Dr. Reuben Hatch was the first physician in our village. For fifty years he practiced medicine and lived in a Colonial house, long since destroyed by fire. During the early years of his calling he made his professional visits on horseback, with his medicine case strapped to the saddle. Skillful of hand and with observing eyes, he rode up and down the countryside giving aid where it was needed. For half a century he eased the pains of young and old and after battling winter storms and summer tempests, "full of years and wisdom," passed on to his reward.

Young Dr. John Goodell took his place and for another fifty years brought confidence and comfort into many homes. He lived in Dr. Hatch's fine old house and traveled far and wide over the path first trod by Dr. Reuben. With the passing of Dr. John, no other physician came into our village.

It was very much of a pleasure to welcome Mrs. Edna Perk, who made neighborly calls last Thursday. Mrs. Perk is spending the winter at the "Ark" in Jaffrey, and had as companions three guests of that hospitable inn.

Mrs. William D. Wheelright of Portland, Oregon, was charmed with a New England winter. Mrs. Wheelright is a direct descendant of Gen. Stephen Hoyte of Bradford, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas de Rosset Haigh, Jr. of New York City, were pleased to find so much snow in New Hampshire as Mr. Haigh is an expert on skis and snowshoes.

Miss Theresa Murphy, who has been ill, has returned to her work in Moulton's Store.

The Ladies' Aid met last Wednesday with Mrs. John Moulton.

Our village extends sympathy to Mrs. Bessie Bradlee in the death of her mother, Mrs. Anderson, who lived in Antrim. The funeral was on Sunday, (Jan. 12), afternoon from the Baptist church in Antrim. Rev. Perron was the officiating clergyman. Mrs. Anderson leaves a husband, two sons and one daughter, four grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Mrs. Duncan Carmichael visited the optician in Concord during the last week.

What person living in the country has not walked the winter roads? Who has not followed the beckoning shadows of forest pines and wandered in the dim, light shrouded area? Who has not touched the dark evergreen needles, frosted with particles of ice and snow? Within the woods is warmth and a stillness, that indescribable quality of air, that pervades the shadowy realm and imparts a questioning freshness to the heart. It is a place to linger. Reluctantly one leaves this peaceful sanctuary to go out into the open fields and feel against his face the cold and stinging air, made more acute by the sharp, metallic cry of winter jays.

ON THE STREET By Paul S. Scruton

We have seen many fires in Hillsboro over a period of some 40 long years but never a hotter fire than the one which ruined the Crosby block so very recently. If we recall correctly the date was the anniversary of the big fire in Henniker some few years ago.

We arrived at the scene early and smoke was pouring from the roof and flames could be distinctly seen on the second floor of the building and other observers standing nearby also mentioned the fact. Therefore under the circumstances it is apparent that the blaze originated somewhere near the second floor and not in the top of the building. It is natural that the Legion should be blamed for the cause of the disaster, but we very much doubt that it originated in the rooms of the 3rd story, not because we are a member of that worthy cause but in fairness and judgment to all concerned.

By this time the younger vets are realizing that hands play and people cheer when a war has begun or there is a threat of trouble, and soon forget until the next war comes along. If I am wrong in making this statement at least I am not a hypocrite in making the assertion.

Funny how the water supply seems to be getting lower and lower in this modern era when only a few years ago we had an ample supply for any need winter and summer from the same source. Perhaps it might be well to give more thought and a little effort to use larger and better pipe lines. Maybe more people are drinking water instead of cold tea. Do we need a larger reservoir or is Loon Pond letting us down the seasons around? To have more water is one of the essential issues.

Said one man to Henry Martin just after the fire, "Do I get my milk this morning or will I have to go somewhere else to get it? I should have told the man where to go pronto, but Henry in his usual polite manner always delivers.

Ever notice the difference in temperatures when your pet thermometer registers 20 below zero and you ask a neighbor, How cold was it? He replies, "Just 2 below at my house," then another friend a mile away says 28 below at my house and so on down the line. It's a well known fact that on The Flat near the river the old mercury often goes down several clipboards below zero but we do recall a day one winter when it went down to 50 below and in our own vicinity. That morning was a rip tail snorter for chill in any language.

Hillsboro untangled the mess and gave us the right of way in jig time. We travel back roads where even angels fear to tread and hand it to Deering for doing a swell job in its many miles of rural area.

Looks to us as if the town of Henniker is on the college map to stay and that the town knew a good thing when they saw it. Congratulations to the men with an eye to the future and we predict a bright future for the New England College. Some towns just drift along waiting for the pot of gold at the foot of the rainbow.

SEND IN YOUR NEWS

To America's Producers, America's Thanks!

As this new year begins, America's ranchers and farmers are busy with their winter work—feeding and caring for their livestock. And all America is again properly grateful to you who produce the food to keep us the world's best fed people.

To you who ride the range from Montana to Texas... whose teams and tractors till the nation's fertile acres... who have labored hard, long hours... who, with soil and seed, sunshine and rain, grass and grain, have achieved miracle after miracle of food production—to you America gives thanks! Thanks for the part you have had in all-time record crops of wheat and corn... for bumper yields of small grains... for livestock numbers at high levels... for soaring dairy and poultry production. This abundance of food which you have produced means better nutrition for millions of families—because good nutrition is just good food that's good for you. Vital as it is, production is only part of the nutritional job. Food must be processed. It has to be transported from surplus-producing areas to the markets where there are great numbers of people to eat it. Here is where Swift & Company comes into the picture. It's our job to provide many of the services required in bringing the foods which you produce to the dinner tables of the nation. Together we are in a vitally important industry. Because nutrition is our business and yours, together we can help build a stronger, healthier America.

Things are NOT always as they seem

But this big country consumes about 50,000,000 pounds of meat every day. So when you figure it out, this reserve supply in commercial storage is only enough to last 12 days. Yes, some meat is frozen during months of peak production and stored until months of low production. But practically all of the beef, veal and lamb that is in storage is the kind preferred for meat loaves, sausage, prepared meats—not the kind that goes over the butcher's block as steaks, roasts, chops, etc. Also, the amount frozen is relatively small, as it has never exceeded 1.9% of the annual beef production, 9/10 of 1% of the lamb, less than 6% of the pork.

Meat Packers' Risks

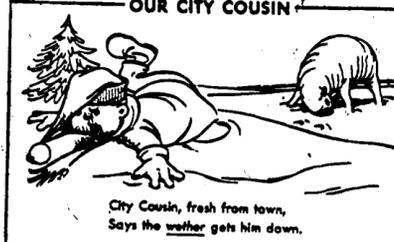

Meat is perishable. It cannot be held for prices to go up. Like all meat packers, Swift & Company must sell, within a few days, this perishable product for what it will bring—no matter what price we paid for it. We take risks in both buying and selling. In buying livestock the meat packer must pay the price established by competitive bidding of over 26,000 slaughterers. If the meat packer overestimates the quality of an animal, or the amount of meat the animal will produce, or the market demand for the meat, he will lose money. Hidden bruises, wounds, or other defects can create losses on any animal. In selling, the meat packer must also follow the market trends established by those who buy the meats. He stands the risk that meat demand will fall off and prices decline between the day he buys the livestock and the day he sells the meat—also the risk of accidents and delays in transit which can wash out his profit. An average profit of less than 2% on sales is a small return for taking these substantial business risks.

F.M. Simpson, Agricultural Research Department

Soda Bill Sex: ... that labor saved is money made. ... speak well of your enemies—you made them.

He Puts the NEW in Nutrition

We'd like you to meet a Swift scientist, Dr. H. W. Schultz. He is head of the nutrition division of our research laboratories. The work of Dr. Schultz and his associates is mighty important to all of us in the livestock-meat industry. They develop new products which open new markets for meats. This widens outlets for your livestock. Dr. Schultz is the father of three children. As a scientist he knew growing children needed the body-building proteins of meat. As a father he knew the trouble of scraping and straining meats for the baby and dining meat for the older children. An idea was born: perhaps Swift & Company could discover a way to prepare canned meats suitable for babies. A research project was undertaken. The scientists went to work! The research took more than two years. The Swift people consulted with leading doctors, child specialists. They agreed that special meats for babies would be a good thing. Many methods of preparing various kinds of meats were tried. Hundreds of feeding tests were made by families with small children. Finally, six kinds of meat were approved by the doctors, nutritionists, mothers, and the babies themselves. Placed on the market in test cities, these products won immediate acceptance. They are now being sold in many cities, and facilities for their manufacture are being expanded. These new products—strained and diced meats for babies—create a big new market for meats. There are millions of baby appetites to satisfy.

- 1 pint dried navy beans, 2 quarts water, 1 cup sliced onion, 1 cup diced celery, 3 tablespoons butter, 1/2 tablespoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard, 2 tablespoons flour, 4 frankfurters. Know—Don't guess—in 1947 by Tyrus R. Timm Texas A. & M. College

An adequate record book is an extremely useful and valuable tool. It usually pays good dividends for the few minutes it takes out of the day's work to keep it up to date. Specifically, a record book helps a farmer or rancher: Operate in a businesslike way. Learn more about the details of his business than ever before. Know exactly how much he is making from his land and his work. Find out the weak spots in his enterprises. Tell whether or not his operations are working out as planned. Prepare a plan for future operations. Itemize investments, receipts, and expenses. Figure the efficiency of his production methods. Provide a record of all business transactions. Keep track of bills owed by or to the farm or ranch. Establish a sound basis for credit. Comply with government programs. Prepare income tax returns. There are farm and ranch record books especially prepared for each state which can help you save time and money. Write to your state agricultural college and obtain one. Properly used, it will give you a better understanding of your business and may open the way to increased profits.

The literary prize for the Subordinate Grange was a book on New Hampshire. The literary prize for the Juvenile Grange, was a leather brief case, and the degree prize for the Juveniles, was a Bible. The Juveniles also received a merit award from the National Grange. This is rather unusual for a Grange to be organized and win both prizes in one year. Let's get behind the new Patron, Bernie Pierce, and help to bring those prizes to Wolf Hill Juvenile next year also. The installation of Juvenile officers will be held on Friday night, Jan. 24, with Mrs. Marjorie Emery, State Juvenile Superintendent as installing officer. All members, Juvenile and honorary are urged to attend. A lunch will be served after the meeting. Remarks were heard by Scott Eastman and all visiting masters. Also Worthy Master Leonard Gray spoke of the increase in membership and work accomplished in the past year through co-operation of the members, and spoke briefly of his plans for the new year and thanked all officers who worked so faithfully with him to make the Grange such a success. At the close of the meeting a very delicious supper was served by the supper committee consisting of Janice Pierce, Louise Dumais, Carroll Greene, and Richard Griffith. It consisted of oyster stew, bread and butter, pickles, coffee, ice-cream and cookies. There were seven Granges represented, Hillsboro 4, Wyoming 6, Halestown 2, Wears 2, Purling Beck 1, Bear Hill 1, and Wolf Hill 29.

ported in one of my towns. Leg shot off the past open season. Even with a leg missing she can still make good time.

Much talk over this shotgun and rifle towns. As one man said, "Let's have all towns and cities wide open, shotguns or rifles, and then there will be no arguments as to the town lines. Another man wants a deer law for the whole state for one month. No, he wants it for sixty days now while there is snow on the ground."

A man coming over Temple mountain after the big snow, saw a big racoon running down the center of the highway. Why was he out?

Do you own a pair of skis? If not, why not? Last Saturday and Sunday we never saw so many people out enjoying this pastime. The heavy crust brought out a record number of young people on sleds and toboggans.

Got a nice letter from a man in Iowa who wants to know how I caught my turtles last summer. He no doubt saw the article in Outdoors magazine for January. Bob Elliott of the Maine Publicity Dept., wrote up an article on the "Pin-up Game Warden," with an article on snapping turtles.

Another lot of snow owls landed in this section right after the big storm last week. They hunt in

Whenever I am in trouble it seems Patrolman Shinn of Lyndeboro is always ready to help me out. This time he phoned to me that one of my AWOL ducks was on the river. We went down and got her.

One of the tragedies of the hunting season — the other day Dr. Rice, one of my neighbors, phoned that there was a male pheasant in her door yard, with only one leg. Miss Nancy went down with a net and caught the bird. We put him down cellar to thaw out and now he is back to normal. Some one shot his foot off and now he is walking around on the bone of the lost foot. Believe me, he is doing a good job of walking. Nice big bird.

Never have we seen such a bad time for the wild birds. Every branch and twig is covered with a thick coating of ice and the woods are deep with snow and ice and all their food is covered up. They have come to my feeding station in large numbers.

A gray squirrel and a large hen pheasant came to me after the big storm and asked for eats. They are still with me enjoying life.

We are indebted to Mr. and Mrs. A. Wallace Wilkins of Milford for the loan of a wire trap. A party in town was bothered with a big gray squirrel that was doing damage. Now the squirrel is in a new free home and everyone is happy. This trap is the most wonderful one I have ever seen.

Now is the time to check on your dog. If he is away from home for hours at a time the chances are that he is in bad company and it is liable to cost you a lot of money. With the heavy crust and all the waters frozen over, the poor deer have not got a chance. The dogs run along on the crust and the deer goes through the crust. If your dog kills a deer it's the same as if you killed the deer yourself—$100. Better check on the dog.

The Bennington club had a swell supper the other night at their Grange hall, but I was unable to attend. This is a swell bunch of fellows and when I had that town I had 100 percent co-operation.

Last week I asked for an old-fashioned squirrel cage for a man in Hillsboro. Well, now I know where there are two available. It pays to spread a little printer's ink!

not merely by their skill but by their substance as well."

Mr. Langley also praised the work of the doctors' committee, of which Dr. Robert J. Graves and Dr. James W. Jameson are co-chairmen, for making such a successful approach to the medical profession.

While most contributing doctors have requested that their gifts be used for general building purposes, 13 have subscribed specific units in the new medical center, including an operating room, $15,000; a recovery room, $3,000; a delivery room and two labor rooms in the obstetrical department, $12,000 and $10,000, respectively; the x-ray director's office, $4,500; two private rooms, $5,100 and $3,900; an information office on a private floor, 1,800; the office in the nurses' residence, $1,500; two individual beds in two-bed rooms, $2,100 and $2,400; the records library, $9,000; and two four-bed rooms, $6,000 each.

Names of the 38 staff members subscribing to the fund are: Henry H. Amsden, M. D., Donald G. Barton, M. D., Robert O. Blood, M. D., Pierre A. Boucher, M. D., John H. Branson, M. D., Francis Brown, M. NEW INDUSTRIES ARE LOCATING IN NEW HAMPSHIRE

CONCORD — The location of a new furniture concern, The Kerns Company of New Hampshire, Inc., at Fitzwilliam, and the announcement that a new textile concern plans to build a plant at Claremont, are typical of the industrial trend in New Hampshire, according to the State Planning and Development Commission.

"The importance of inducing small and medium-sized industries to locate in our smaller communities, and the establishment of new and diversified industries throughout the state can not be over emphasized.

"The Planning and Development Commission has consistently worked to establish new and diversified industries which will best lend themselves to strengthening the industrial economy of our various communities and consequently the state as a whole. In this connection, at the recommendation of Governor Dale, who has always given strong support to the promotion of industry in this state, a program of industrial advertising designed to attract certain types of industries considered to be essential to our economy was instituted for the first time last year when $25,000 per year for the fiscal years 1945-46 and 1946-47 was appropriated by the last legislature. It is gratifying to note that in the period July 1, 1945, to November 1, 1946, 71 new industries, with a total payroll of over $3,500,000 annually, and manufacturing 54 different products, were established in 33 communities of the state. In addition, 312 acres of former non-industrial land has been purchased by five new concerns which plan to construct new plants, three of which are now under construction. It is estimated that these five concerns will have a minimum payroll of $2,000,000 annually", Mr. Ellingwood, the Industrial Director, stated.

ESTABLISH PLANT IN PETERBOROUGH

CONCORD — A new plant that will make ball bearings in smaller than standard sizes has located in New Hampshire, it was announced today by the Industrial Division of the state Planning and Development Commission, who recently assisted the New Hampshire Ball Bearings, Inc., originators and manufacturers of the micro ball bearing, to establish a plant at Peterboro.

Founders of this unusual business are Arthur N. Daniels, president and chief engineer, prominent in the development of small ball bearings in the United States, one of whose earlier designs was a part of the Norden bomb sight; and Pierre LeM. Wentworth, vice president and treasurer, with a background of many years of business and manufacturing experience. Both are veterans with active service in World War II.

Deering

Mrs. Marie H. Wells
Correspondent

Hugh Barndollar, Hillsboro County chairman of the Infantile Paralysis Drive of Manchester, was a caller at Pinehurst farm, last Friday, leaving material for Deering, as the drive opens this week. During the past year $40,000 was spent in Hillsboro County and Mr. Barndollar hopes people will be as generous with their dimes as they were last year. Residents of Deering have always been generous in all drives, and it is hoped the County will not have an epidemic of this dread disease, like last year. Deering has had two cases of infantile paralysis, Leyi Putnam passed away at a Boston hospital, and a young man who was stricken while attending a conference at Deering Community Center. Let's hope it never strikes in Deering
