COMING EVENTS

The Eunice Baldwin Chapter, D.A.R., has accepted an invitation to meet with the Molly Alken Chapter in Library Hall, Antrim on Friday, May 2nd at 2:30 p. m. instead of date previously given.

BIRD AND GARDEN CLUB

The Caroline A. Fox Bird and Garden Club held a very interesting and well attended post-poned meeting at the home of Helen G. Whittle, Church street, on Saturday, April 19 with Ethel Peaslee, Ader Williams, Matilda Van Dornelle and Eleanor Jackson assisting hostesses.

An instructive paper on the signs of the Zodiac read by Charlotte Harvey was enjoyed by the club and she said she had enjoyed writing it. Ethel Peaslee read a short article "Make Friends With a Brook". Miss Susan Pierce showed how easily "The Balance of Nature" may be upset by reading Longfellow's "Birds of Killingworth". Let's hope the story of birds versus caterpillars always remains fiction and never comes true here. Everyone responded to roll call by giving a spring poem or quotation.

Nature walks or rides are a new venture this year. They will occur between regular meetings. An appointed leader making all plans and leading in reports to club at next meeting. Isabel Bowers, the first leader, asked that all able to take a short walk to meet at her home Saturday, April 26 at 3 p. m. Refreshments of assorted sandwiches, coffee and mints were served. There were three guests present, Mrs. Nora Jones, Mrs. Farmer and Mrs. Laura Nichols.

JUVENILE GRANGE

The Juvenile Grange held its regular meeting on Friday evening, April 18. The children sang lustily two songs of their choice and Catherine Kulbacki sang a solo. Most of the time was spent in learning what to do and how to do it. They are learning fast.

BENNINGTON — The Sugar Foote Minstrel Show presented last week on Wednesday evening was a huge success with the Town Hall crowded to the doors. The general opinion of all those present was that it was an excellent show, well presented, well arranged and well planned.

The jokes were spontaneously given, everything moved smoothly and swiftly. There were a good variety of songs and dance numbers.

The program was in two parts and consisted of the following:

Part 1: Selection by the orchestra; grades one and two — Grand March; Songs — Neighborhood Parade, Froggie Jill and Froggie Jack, A Rabbit to Buy.

Part 2: Sugar Foote Minstrel, Grades 3-8. Interlocutor, Barbara French; End Men, Oliver Tacy, Richard Whitney, Stephen Chase and Lawrence Dutton; Soloists, Edna Paige, Margery Traxler, Dorothy Chase, Phyllis Whypott, Shirley Griswold, Loretta Sullivan, Marie Cashion, Jean Russell, Barbara Blaha and Priscilla Reed; Dance Chorus, Annette Levesque, Gertrude Parker, Margaret Powers, Alice Powers, Jane Braid and Kate Cody.

There were about sixty pupils seated on the stage at one time, a feat accomplished by the help of Steve Chase, Sr., who built a platform of seats for the chorus. The orchestra was under the direction of Herman Hill, musical director of the school and consisted of the following: Piano, Shirley Merchant; Violins, Dorothy Chase, Frances Holland and Stephen Chase, Jr.; Saxophone, Harry Clough; Drums, Oliver Tacey.

Mrs. Black played the piano for the Minstrel songs. Of course you can guess who directed this Minstrel Show and attended to the many details, Mrs. Paul Cody. She has a great many school plays and school entertainments to her credit and this Minstrel Show topped them all. Around $120 was taken in, to be used for a screen for the picture machine and film.

JUVENILE GRANGE

Bennington Juvenile Grange No. 85 held their meeting last Friday night with Master William Taylor presiding. Juvenile Deputy Dorothy McLain of Bedford was present for spring instruction.

Women of New Hampshire may now serve on the jury. Gov. Charles M. Dale signed the bill on Monday. If a woman wants to be a juror she must register with city or town officials for the next jury drawings in December to sit on cases at the annual spring Superior Court sessions next year.

Once a woman registers for service and if drawn as a juror she must serve on all types of cases including criminal, and may be excused only for the same reasons as men.

Vermont and Maine are among more than 30 other states that already have women jury service.

Representative Joseph H. Giesel a Manchester laundryman and bank director introduced a bill in the legislature for a state lottery in which 60% of the take would revert to the numbers customers, the state keeping the remainder for tax purposes.

The bill, however, was defeated Tuesday by a vote of 192-125 despite an offer of the sponsor to loan the state $100,000 to get the lottery underway.

According to the proponents, New Hampshire citizens spend

The degree was conferred on a class of candidates, Carol Swett, Barbara and Lenora Whynot, Ralph and Robert Smith. A lunch was served after the meeting. The next meeting will be May 2nd.

There will be a food sale on the veranda of the Post Office building on Main Street on Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m. This food sale will benefit the March of Dimes. This project needs more funds to complete our quota. Come and buy and help our children.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson and Mr. Rockwell and Mrs. Maurice Newton attended the Congregational Christian Annual Conference at Amherst. Owing to the bad storm the evening meeting of the Conference was postponed. Cars were in the ditch and all over the road on the Main Road in Amherst and after a delay of about an hour we were re-routed and reached home without incident.

Harry Dunbar is still seriously ill at his home on Main Street, this week.

Vacation week for the schools. The rent of the halls of the Grange has been raised from $2.50 each to $3.50 each hall.

PTA Force For Good Says Henniker Speaker

HENNIKER — "I was hampered in my work as a teacher because I did not know the parents of my pupils, and later I was hampered as a parent because I did not know the teachers of my children", said Mrs. Arthur Olson, stressing the value of PTA work in her speech before the Henniker Parent-Teacher's Association April 14. Mrs. Olson, president of the New Hampshire Congress of Parents and Teachers, traced the growth of the association from a relatively humble position to its present national recognition as a powerful force for the welfare of children. She urged members of the newly-formed Henniker group to work for the health of their children through aiding hot lunch and recreation programs of the school, for the solution of the present shortage of teachers through supporting legislation and other movements that will secure them an adequate wage, for world peace through discussion and speeches on world problems and for betterment of American homes through PTA programs of educational value in that field.

Marie Robertson and LeRoy Cleveland furnished a delightful musical program, Miss Robertson singing "Ciri, Ciri Bin", "L'Amour, Toujours Amour", and "Italian Street Song", and Mr. Cleveland giving two violin solos, "Shadows on the Moon", and "An Old Love Song".

At a business meeting proposed by-laws were read and accepted and Philip Chase suggested that

POPPY DAY

May 24th, the Saturday before Memorial Day, has been observed as Poppy Day for years. On that day everyone should wear a memorial poppy in honor of the dead of the two world wars, and to make a contribution for the welfare of disabled veterans and families, and the dependents of the war heroes who died for us. Volunteers from the members of the American Legion Auxiliary will distribute flowers and contributions will be accepted through May 24 in Antrim. Mrs. Betty Amiot is Poppy chairman of the Auxiliary and will be in charge. Hundreds of flowers have been ordered. It is hoped the public will generously support this sale of the Poppies which are replicas of the wild flowers which grow on the battle fields of France and Belgium, fought over in both wars. These Poppies have come to symbolize the memory of those who died all over the world in both conflicts.

Disabled veterans make these flowers in hospitals and convalescent workshops throughout the country and it is a source of pride to honor their comrades in this way, as well as bringing them much needed earnings and beneficial occupational therapy.

and enjoyed a pleasant social afternoon. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ada Williams, Mrs. Maria Bell, Mrs. Eva Rickard, Mrs. Sadie Carter, Mrs. Abbie Downing, although she was not present.

Misses Helen Carter, Bessie and Frances MacDonald of Brookline, Mass., were week-end guests at Valley Hotel. They brought home Mrs. Alice Dennison who had been with Mrs. Fuller ever since she left her School street home last fall.

Mrs. Mildred Colman, who lives with her daughter, Mrs. Maurice Boynton of School street, has accepted a secretarial position at New England College, Henniker and began work on Monday.

Miss Marilyn Colby and fiance of Boston, spent the week-end with her parents, the George B. Colby's.

This Monday morning with the ground covered with snow, the Senior Class of Hillsboro High School left on their trip to New York City. We are all exceedingly sorry that Mary Ellinwood was left behind because her reaction to her vaccination was that of one in a thousand or more. One person said Mary was responsible for two-thirds of the fun for the class. Mary is quite ill but we hope she grows better by the hour and at least be able to welcome the travellers home and hear their stories of their journey.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Woodhead were in town on Saturday morning for about an hour with Mr. Warner Allen who was here on business. Since leaving Hillsboro the Woodheads have lived with Mr. Allen in Fitchburg, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burbank of Bellows Falls, Vt., were at the Centre on Saturday to do some work on Centre family lot. Then they visited Walter and me, the members of the family who stay at home.

Miss Bernice Derby, R. N., of the Presbyterian Hospital, New York City, is home this week-end recovering from an illness.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Grimes and daughter, Joyce, of Portland, Me., were week-end guests of his grandmother, Mrs. John Grimes.

James Thayer, having enlisted in the Navy, went to Boston with his parents on Friday and passed all his examinations. After visiting some of Boston's interesting places he went to the Great Lakes Naval Station at Chicago. Jimmie has been employed for some time at the local drug store.

Ten Grangers went to Sunapee Lake Grange on Thursday night. Paul Porter, Frank Gay, Julia Sleeper, Mrs. Wing, Nettie Yeaton, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Newman, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Crosby and Edith Daniels.

Frank attended Merrimack Pomona Grange in Boscawen Monday night.

Neil Fullerton of Boston spent the week-end with his wife and baby at the home of her father, Alton Colby.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Reece were in town on Saturday and Mrs. Grace Perry went home with them to Melrose, Mass.

Cyrus Phelps and family visited his father in Danbury on Sunday.

Misses Lois Powell and Patricia Phelps attended the Youth Fellowship Conference in Lawrence, Mass., on Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Milo Farmer.

Fast Day seems to be just an excuse for an extra holiday nowadays. Long, long ago it was a day of fasting and prayer. The only thing it meant to me in childhood was having Aunt Ann and Uncle Orlando Huse come up to the farm for dinner. I even remember what we had to eat one time before Ethel was talking plainly. Told to call the family to dinner she used her own language in describing part of the menu, jammed or mashed potatoes, and custard pie. She ran to the guests calling, "Dinner's weady. We dot 'dam' tato' and 'cus pie'."

Usually about this time people are going to the woods to pick arbutus but snow fell all day Sunday. Plenty was left on Monday and small boys of the neighborhood worked long and energetically making a snow-man which the sun and their own energy caused to collapse.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL NEWS

GRADE I

In a vocabulary test of fifty words, Walter had 100, Jack Evans and John Martin 96, Judy and David 98, Catherine and Roberta 94.

We are glad Eddie is back at school again.

Our gold fish, Winky and Blinky, died this week. DeWitt buried them.

GRADE II

Jack La Montagne has brought in some frogs eggs for us to study. George Cote brought in some Mayflowers, April 14.

Malcolm Cote and Chester Jordan visited our grade.

We write news for our class paper every Friday.

Joan Devlin, David Sterling and Robert Ayers received one hundred every day in arithmetic.

GRADE III

Karen and Marie stood up the longest in a spelling match we had this week.

Here is the story we wrote after we visited Merritt's farm.

A Visit To Merritt's Farm
Merritt's dog, Tiny, came to greet us with loud barks. We went into the barn and the first thing we saw was April, the kid, with her mother. Many of us held April in our arms. In one pen we saw sixteen baby pigs. They were squealing and playing. We saw six lambs with their mothers. The sheep and lambs said, "baa, baa, baa", all the time we were there. There were some cows and steers in the barn. One horse was out in the field.

We went outdoors and had a good time running around. We saw two big pigs under the barn. We were glad the gander was locked up as Merritt said he was cross and would bite.

Everyone had a nice time. We hope we will be able to go visiting again.

GRADE IV

A few in our class are writing essays on birds.
We are making a geography booklet.

$3,000,000 a year on the "treasury balance" and other numbers rackets and get but little back in the form of prizes.

Our legislators would do better to tax the resources of the citizens through the fairest tax yet devised, the state income tax, and not through sales taxes or lotteries which fall most heavily on the poorest citizenry.

As presently conducted this numbers racket is plainly illegal and unadulterated robbery of the New Hampshire public.

It would be better if the young men locally who sell and buy these tickets would use their salesmanship, organizations liability and intelligence for the advancement of their fellow beings and not their continued degradation.

You may like or dislike former Vice-President Wallace's opinions, but the attempt of our representatives in Congress, including Senator Styles Bridges, to adopt a code of totalitarian ethics as to what people can say, smacks more of Hitlerism or Communism than of Democracy.

Americans should say what they believe, whether it be London, England, Washington, D. C., or Main street, Hillsboro. What grips the totalitarian minded in Washington, D. C., is the effrontery of anyone daring to ask embarrassing questions or voice different opinions.

GRADE V

After we had finished performing with our finger puppets with the potato heads, we laid them away until we were ready to act out another story. We went to get them this week. They had grown hair and beards. The potatoes had sprouted. Now we shall have to choose stories to fit the personalities.

Bruce, who has been absent five weeks, has come back to visit us this afternoon. He will be back for good after vacation.

New Lunch Cart
May Open May 1st

HILLSBORO — Late Spring (probably May), will see the opening of George Little's lunch cart next to the Yeaton block on Heniker street. Much of the exterior construction has been completed in the form of a kitchen which was added to the diner proper, hauled here from Keene.

The establishment occupies the position of the first "beanery" in Hillsboro, back in the days of hot dogs, mulligan stew and "Adam and Eve on a raft." Back in 1910, Louis Prince of Goffstown opened the first hot dog stand and beanery in the community on this same location and for 9 years the little cart was open 24 hours of each day, with the night business always best from midnight to dawn.

The quick lunch lingo of the early days is still recalled with chuckles by the old timers who asked for "mystery" to the cook in the back room. Doughnuts and coffee were "sinkers and mud" although coffee was sometimes referred to as "Java"; scrambled eggs were always "wreckers"; eggs fried one way were always "sunny side up" and a soft drink was called "fizz". Hot mince pie was always "Christmas pie".

Mottoes that hung about the diner read "In God we trust" and "Watch your hat and coat." "Not responsible for Umbrellas", "Blessed are the Meek for they shall inherit the Earth" and "Count Your Change".

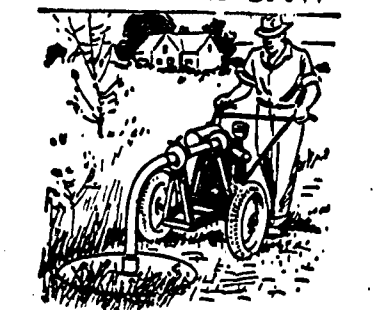

"Men always eat as though a train was due and they had to check a trunk", said the owner of the "passe" lunch cart, but women take half an hour to eat a chicken sandwich and sip a cup of coffee.

About a year after Louis Prince went out of business here the late Charles Boutelle took over in a new location and was a cobbler on the side, repairing shoes in the rear of his establishment and serving hamburgers and hot dogs on the side.

Diner: "Do you serve crabs here?"
Waiter: "We serve anyone; sit down."

IT'S REALLY SPRING...
Ice-Out Days
Lure The Fishermen

LAKE SUNAPEE — Natural openings in Lake Sunapee are open to legal fishing for salmon, golden trout and brook trout (squaretails) on April 1st, as a result of a new bill signed yesterday by Governor Charles M. Dale, which applies to all of New Hampshire as well. This new bill moves the opening of the lake trout and salmon season from April 15th to April 1st, and permits the legal taking of these fish by means such as trolling, fly fishing and still fishing.

The alert fisherman is watching the ice in the salmon lakes of the Dartmouth-Lake Sunapee Region these days, such as Lake Sunapee and Pleasant Lake. Fishing for salmon will be good when the ice goes out. A guide to the boat fishing days is the "Ice-Out" Dates compiled for Lake Sunapee, N. H., by Tony Russell of Georges Mills. This lake is famous for the Aureolus Golden Trout, too. According to Tony the dates are as follows:

1930	April 17
1931	April 16
1932	April 26
1933	April 30
1934	April 24
1935	April 25
1936	April 14
1937	May 2
1938	April 18
1939	May 7
1940	May 7
1941	April 18
1942	April 19
1943	May 3
1944	May 1
1945	April 1
1946	March 20

Weare Community Club met at Grange Hall last Thursday for the day. Mrs. Margaret Shay of Manchester was present and gave a demonstration of Sterling Products, which was very interesting. Each lady was presented a souvenir by Mrs. Shay. Elsie String, Esther Hollis and Edith Turner were hostesses. There were 17 ladies present and 3 guests. During the dinner hour a pretty birthday cake with candles was presented the Secretary, Mrs. May Hadlock, who cut and gave each a portion.

Weare Grange met at Town Hall Friday night, April 16 at which time the 1st and 2nd degrees were conferred by regular officers on a class of candidates. A musical and literary program was presented by the lecturer and a discussion by several members and visitors. Several invitations were read to visit neighboring Granges and accepted. A social hour followed.

By Paul S. Scruton

Send cards and letters to "Uncle Cy" Leon Dennison at the Margaret Pillsbury Hospital, Concord, for the genial poet who always remembers his friends with poetry and a smile now needs that added touch of friendliness that all of us experience in life sooner or later. Uncle Cy only recently showed us a poem that had all the sunshine and personal touch he so perfectly is gifted with, yet we had no idea he would soon be ill.

I will never forget where the "Town House" once stood for so many people have showed me actual photographs of the fine old building and have told me about the Center. Now I would like to know more about the first fire house in Bridge Village. How about it old timers?

So, in five years 90 percent of us will be missing from this sphere and will have joined the great majority? The atom bomb will get us, so they claim. Well, we live today and most of us will let tomorrow take care of itself. The end of the world has been predicted for so many years that somehow we do not worry too much. Kindly old nature goes right on bringing us sunshine, shadows and showers and the seasons roll around all too quickly.

Eventually when the final curtain of life rolls down on this mundane sphere for most of us we can look back to the joys and sorrows of the final act and in the drama of life and say, "We did the best we could with what we had", and trust that the Master will not be too severe with our efforts, and will understand better than our critics of the earthly existence.

A Town Hall is to be desired in this community more than any single achievement and its good to know that we do not stand alone on this issue which promises to someday be a reality. The need is real and vital and has been for many years. The only way to get one is to start now.

Most of the tax money or at least the larger percent goes for the support and maintenance of our schools, which is a healthy condition and a worthy cause and nobody who is interested in children has any real regrets, but if we are to ever build a Town Hall we believe most of us will have to purchase shares, rather than increase taxation beyond the limits of a frayed and tattered purse.

Years ago this community raised $40,000 by public subscription to build the Woolen Mill, at least history so relates and many of us today would be willing to purchase shares in a Town Hall. If the Town could raise $40,000 back before the gay nineties as a citizen's enterprise, where is the interest in a Town Hall to start and stop?

It's spring clean-up time and lawns are being raked and back yards put in condition but the swill and garbage condition remains as one of the irritating messes most of us do not enjoy. With fly time just around the corner what a delightful treat is in store for every flying insect and parasite in this Garden of Eden. Germs will thrive unknown in this world or the next and all that we are waiting for is an epidemic if some kind that will cause us to awaken too late to an unhealthy condition born of neglect and wanton selfishness. If our hides are too thick for germs to multiply let's think of our children and give them a healthful atmosphere in which to live.

There ought to be a law so that those Sunday drivers who honk their horns on the main streets and listen for the echo could be in padded cells week-ends.

— SEND IN YOUR NEWS

"Momma... gimme a penny!"

How long since you've heard that one?

The answer is—it was back in 1924, when a youngster with a penny at a candy counter was the envy of his mates. Today, as you too well know it's "Please, Ma, can I have a nickel," or, more likely, "Daddy, gimme a dime."

In 1924 pork chops were 31c a pound; roast beef was 30c; butter was 48c per pound; gasoline cost around 16c a gallon; and you could get a good cigar for 5c. No need for us to recite the prices you have to pay for everything today—they're all UP—AWAY UP! Increased costs of wages, materials and taxes have long since driven all prices away above their 1924 levels.

That is everything's up—except what you pay for railroad fares.

We can almost hear a shriek of "WHAT?" after we tell you that you are paying less today for railroad fares than you paid in 1924. That's true, however, for railroad coach fares back in 1924 were 3.6c per mile. Today they are generally 2.2c per mile.

For your commuting ticket you are now paying exactly the same rates which you paid in 1924, 23 years ago.

Since 1924 the average wage of train crews (engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen) has increased 78.5%. Everything which we have to buy to keep the trains running has increased in cost—in fact, since 1941 these prices have gone up 50% or more. It is a matter of simple arithmetic to figure that we cannot keep on paying increased wages, increased taxes and increased material costs and yet keep our fares at 1924 levels.

ONE INCOME SOURCE

For some unexplainable reason (at least we have not heard a lucid explanation) there are those who shout "Railroad fares must not (or should not) be increased!" Then there are those who insist, "We cannot pay more for our transportation to and from our daily work."

A railroad has no mysterious sources of income nor any unlimited supplies of cash. Its only source of income is from the sale of passenger and freight transportation.

"MAKING MILLIONS"?

There are those who apparently believe that railroads have been enjoying some lush years, with profits rolling in. We'd like to state the facts. Last year the Boston and Maine Railroad earned only 1.8% on the investment in the road's property—not even enough to pay anything to its owners, the stockholders.

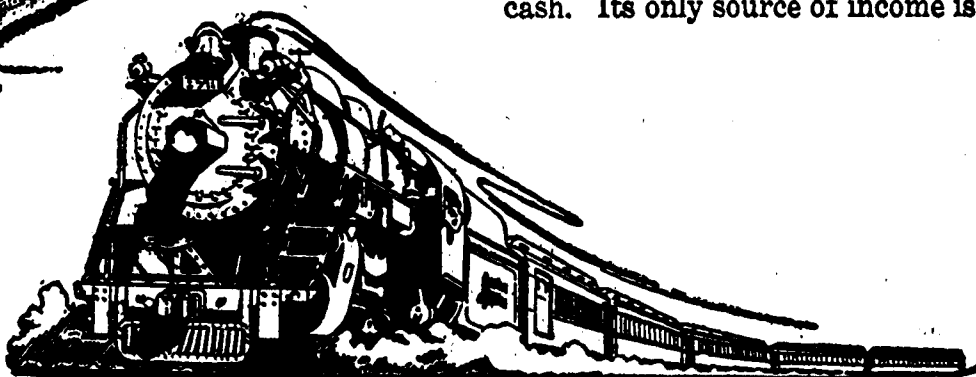

The railroad industry of the country as a whole in 1946 earned only about 2.75% on its property investment. The largest rate of return which the railroad industry has been able to earn in any one year since 1935 was only 5.50% in 1942 and that rate of return has been dropping every year since then. Hardly "making millions" is it? We must have a return of 6% on investment to maintain a sound railroad and to keep service at a proper standard.

STILL A BARGAIN!

With the small advance in fares which we are seeking, railroad transportation will still be the best buy in travel. We want to continue to improve and modernize our service. A modern deluxe passenger coach today costs $90,000. A modern commuter coach (without air conditioning) today costs between $50,000 and $60,000. In 1924 we could buy a deluxe coach for about $22,000 and a commuter coach for around $18,000.

We cannot hope to even continue our present amount or standard of service at present rates of fare. Need for an immediate increase has been forced on us by mounting costs over which we have no control.

We believe that all fair-minded patrons will agree we have no alternative than to seek a fare increase.
