PUMPS

"Charge it to the town pump," was a rather senseless expression heard half a century ago and more. I guess it was a flippant remark sometimes made when unwelcome bills were presented. I don't know about any town pump in Hillsboro, but some towns had them.

In fact every family years ago had a pump in the house or outside except the very few who had ever running water inside and the less fortunate who always carried water into the house in buckets or pails. When I used to stay with my sister, Nellie Morgan, in the Brick House at Concord End, the water ran into a wooden bucket in the sink night and day, summer and winter. It came from a spring on the side of the hill. Others less fortunate carried all the water they used from outside wells or springs. In the early days houses were often built over the well, both for convenience and to conceal their movements from spying Indians. We used to have one at the farm. On very cold nights the pump had to be "run down" and "primed" in the morning by pouring down a dipper of water and pumping like mad until the water came, but this was less work than having to thaw it out when frozen.

What a lot of pumps must have been discarded when the city water system was installed, bringing water from Loon Lake. I was not familiar with many houses, outside the Centre Community, but I will remember several wooden pumps there and the inside one at the Brick House where we got our water for school use. The small room with its wheezy pump is now an inclosed porch with a stonewall around the top of the well. How we used to slop water on the floor when we were only supposed to fill the school pail with water to drink. All used the one, long

Harold Webster Cate Writes Tufts College Campaign Song

HILLSBORO — Harold Webster Cate, well known Hillsboro and Antrim composer, while visiting at Tufts College, wrote a song for the MacCarthy faction in the contest for "Mayor of Tufts."

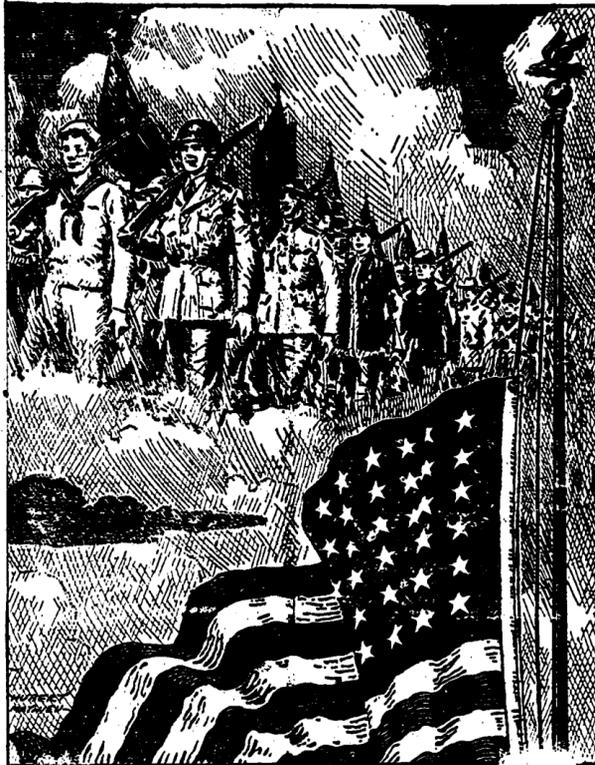

The song was recorded and used all over the campus by loud speaker. While at Tufts, Mr. Cate personally coached a group of boys in singing the song, playing for them in the recording. The title of the song is "All For MacCarthy."

The body of Forrest Smith, a former resident of Antrim, was brought here recently for burial in Maplewood Cemetery under supervision of the Woodbury Funeral Home of Hillsboro and Peterboro. Mr. Smith died last winter at the Mary Hunt Home in Nashua in his late 80's. He was a native of New London and lived at Potter Place there for many years. He worked as a carpenter in Nashua several years. He was a farmer in Antrim a long time until about a year and a half ago when he and his wife, who survives him, entered the Hunt Home in Nashua where she now resides. He was a member of Waverley Lodge, I.O.O.F., and a member of the Antrim Presbyterian church and later of a Nashua Methodist church.

A committal service for the body of Morris H. Woods, 71, which had been entombed at Hillsboro since the funeral last winter, was held at North Branch Cemetery here recently, under the supervision of the Woodbury Funeral Home of Hillsboro. Rev. Donald F. Perron, pastor of the Antrim Baptist church, officiated. Relatives were Miss Ellen Weston and Leslie Wright of Hancock. Mr. Woods was born in Hancock, the son of George O. and Ella (Weston) Woods, his father having been a descendant of early settlers of Hancock and his mother of early settlers of Mason. Spending most of his life as owner of a large farm in Antrim, Mr. Woods served two terms as Master of Antrim Grange. He was, for a while, superintendent of the Sunday School of the Antrim (Center) Congregational church. He was three times married, losing each wife by death. He died at the Hickey Nursing Home in Frances-town, where he had been taken after being cared for several years at the home of Mrs. William Nichols in Antrim. His nearest survivor is a niece Mrs. Emilio Calderera (Nina Woods) of Wilton, whose husband attended the funeral with his brother-in-law, Peter Simoneau of Milford. Relatives there included

News Items From Bennington

Mrs. Maurice C. Newton Correspondent

The Memorial exercises took place on Sunday in this town at 1:30. After the cemetery and monuments were decorated, the exercises took place in the Town Hall. Pierce School presented an extensive program covering the period from 1700 to 1941, with stories concerning the music famous at those periods. There were also appropriate poems, prose and the Gettysburg Address. It was a fine program. The smaller children did a fine job of marching to the tune of Yankee Doodle. The ladies auxiliary of the Sons of Union Veterans presented the "colors" which were saluted by the audience. Milan Parker, commander of the Sons of Union Veterans, was moderator for the day and presented the Rev. Donald F. Perron of Antrim speaker of the day, who gave a stirring speech with dramatic details of why we should be prepared for peace.

He was most forceful and convincing, painting in vivid colors the horrors of war as he had witnessed it. Mr. Perron spoke swiftly and distinctly, no one could doubt his sincerity! We were glad of this opportunity to hear the Rev. Perron in this town. The Peterboro band furnished music for the marching. A band concert started in the square and ended in the Town Hall because of the sudden

A distinct success this Memorial Celebration, our one regret that it did not take place on Memorial Day.

Friends of Mrs. Helen Young will be glad to know that she is gaining steadily. Last week, Mrs. M. E. Sargent, Mrs. Harry Ross, Miss Grace Taylor and Mrs. Maurice Newton visited her at her daughter's home in Gardner, Mass.

Mrs. Andrew MacDonald is improving slowly from her illness at the home of her daughter in Washington, D. C. Mr. MacDonald is in the Hillsboro General Hospital in Grasmere. His condition remains about the same.

Reports from Mrs. H. M. Whitney are that she is slightly improved but still far from well. She is at the home of her daughter.

The Pre-School Health Clinic will take place on June 13th in the Grange Hall. Booster shots will be administered, vaccinations given if requested and general health examinations.

HOME TOWN BUSINESS

Is The Backbone Of Hillsboro

By trading in Hillsboro, we not only benefit by lower prices and a minimum of trouble getting to and from the stores, we gain by building our own community. Retail stores, shops, factories and services are the features of our town that provide financial stability. In supporting them we support ourselves as members of the community.

Distant stores want to sell us supplies but they don't contribute to our school system, our town streets or our parks. Neither are they interested in the development of our town's recreational places. Local businessmen are interested and in addition they're interested in giving every customer the most for the money.

Hales town Grange held their regular meeting Friday evening, when the third and fourth degrees were conferred on a class of two. Regular Hales town officers did the third, and Capitol Grange of Concord did the fourth, which was done very interesting, and then followed a supper of baked beans, baked peas, pies and salads, which naturally was very interesting to all. Carrie Hodgman was supper chairman, and was assisted with plenty of help.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Hardy left Saturday morning for a few days vacation, during which time he will attend the Shrine Meeting at Atlantic City, N. J.

Douglas Parsons and family motored through the White Mts., Sunday.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL NEWS

GRADE ONE

In our first vocabulary test in the book, "Our New Friends," Darlene, Russell, Roscoe, Kathleen had 100 percent, Charles and Richard had 98 and Philip had 90 per cent.

GRADE TWO

We are having a poem "A Bird" by Emily Dickinson. "Bambi" is being read to us. We are making a little booklet on deer and other wild life and illustrating it. Our Nature Club held its meeting Friday afternoon and the president Leo Demag in charge. The program consisted of reading: "Mr. Owl's Advice" by Patricia Yeaton.

Story "Hunting Crows" by Roger Fisher.

Reading "A Joke on Cinder" by Richard Page.

Oral talk "The Bluebird" by David Sterling.

Song "My Kitty" by Fay Poland.

Song "Rain Drops" by all.

GRADE THREE

Everyone had one hundred in spelling this week.

We are sorry Constance is ill. The robin who built a nest in the tree outside our window must have met with an accident. We haven't seen her since last Friday.

We are studying our multiplication tables. Almost everyone knows them through the 6's.

GRADE FOUR

We are learning some Memorial Day songs.

Eva Day is drawing a butterfly border on the boards. Our Museum has been of much interest to us. Many curious things have been loaned.

GRADE FIVE

Roger Phelps has had perfect attendance up to May 19th. Now he has to stay home because of illness in the family. We think he's made a fine record just the same.

Jackie Blanchette brought us a nice bouquet of pansies this week. Shirley Grimes has drawn a basket of apple blossoms on the board with butterflies hovering near it. It is very pretty.

LISABEL GAY'S COLUMN

handled dipper, one after the other and strange enough nearly all of us are still living. Mrs. Clinton Gammell never scolded us for spilling the water on the floor, but she was a Saint anyway.

The wooden pump I remember best was at Uncle Edward Dunbar's house, now owned by the Misses Beveridge and Budlong. The well was covered by the usual square platform and there was a big wooden tub for Uncle Edward's two cows' benefit and a tin cup on top for the use of any thirsty passer-by. We were in the habit of stopping for a drink on the way home from school. One night I ran down the hill at breakneck speed, pumped up a brimming cup full of cool water. But when I drank I was so out of breath the water came through my nose and I thought my time had come. I couldn't swallow. It was awful! I never ran down the hill again when thirsty.

The wooden pump on the so-called "Vestry Lot" opposite the Methodist church played a good part when the churches burned one early morning in June, 1892. A bucket brigade helped save the parsonage, now the Grayson House. Another pump stood just south of the Nelson House. I used to see it when I came across lots from the school-house with Mabel Perry or to her house.

Most every house at the Centre now has its electric pump, the basis for modern conveniences the old pump days never dreamed of.

Although Hillsboro may never have had a town pump, one in front of Angle Marcy's house was used by the hotel and by the town in general for it never dried up, being fed by springs.

Mrs. Anna Farmer, who has spent the winter in town, left for her home last Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Milo Farmer and George Boynton. Mr. Farmer is taking a two weeks' vacation now. His mother will stay with her daughter in Wheeling, West Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Colby, who have been visiting relatives in Mississippi and Indiana, arrived home the middle of the week. Mrs. Erskine Broadley is improving after being quite ill with scarlet fever at her home on High street.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Townsend (Eleanor Gardner of Lowell) and Mr. and Mrs. Abram Flint of Billerica, Mass., called on Mr. Flint's cousin, Mrs. Chealey Favor on Sunday. The Gardners lived on Walnut Street many years ago. Misses Sella and Bessie Kendall came from Manchester, Vt., to spend the week-end with their sister, Mrs. James Leach.

Arthur McGregor, formerly of Hillsboro, now living in Manchester remembers my interest in birds and recently sent me some newspaper clippings about them.

Sherman Brown has sold his farm on Bear Hill to Morton Stafford of Hingham, Mass. He has a wife and a little girl, a son at Exeter and another at Dartmouth. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nichols moved into the little house on the place.

Mrs. George W. Haslet and her guests, Miss Abbie Wyman and Mrs. B. D. Peaslee, lunched in Peterboro on Thursday, then went to Fitchburg, Mass., where they were entertained at tea by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Woodward. They were much pleased to see their Hillsboro friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Derrick Hartshorn of Troy, New York, were in Concord on Saturday to see their very new grandson, Bruce Allan, born at the Margaret Pillsbury Hospital, May 21, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Baker of Myrtle street. The Hartshorns also visited their cousins, Ethel Peaslee and me, in the evening.

Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Baldwin, Sr., of Manchester, were week-end guests of their son, Dr. H. C. Baldwin, Jr., and family, over the week-end.

Miss Pearl Ray was in Boston to attend the Baccalaureate Service of Boston University on Sunday and the graduation of 1800 students on Monday. Miss Ethel Farley received the degree of Master in Education.

Mrs. Alfred Dodd has been ill for some time at her home on School street. Her granddaughter, Miss Eleanor Musick, R. N., of South Lancaster, Mass., came Monday to stay for a while. She has just come from Miami, Florida, where she spent the winter.

Deering Public Library Has New List of Books

DEERING — The Deering Public Library is having some additions this spring. Charlotte K. Holmes, librarian, has announced among the books are a number of attractive books for children, such as, "Puffy Goes To Sea;" and "Isabelle Elizabeth," the duck that lived alone.

For older children "Paji," and "Melindy's Medal," give vivid pictures of children of other races. Audubon's "Birds of America," with his beautiful illustrations in color is a treasured book. Mexico, Russia and Peru may be better known to us through three more authors.

Two biographies are of notable doctors. Among the fiction we find "Uncertain Glory," "Passage To

NEW HAMPSHIRE CONSERVATION OFFICER
Wilton, N. H.

Here is the best story of the week. One day last week I went to one of my towns and picked up a large Tom cat that the owner wanted to find a good home for. I took the cat home, placed it in a cage and not wanting to make a special trip to the farm I kept it for two days. The morning of the third day the cat was missing. He went right through the inch mesh wire and within a few hours he was scratching on the screen door to get into his former home six miles away. That cat had brains and used them.

Peter Casper of Hudson was the first man to show me his limit of trout Sunday morning. They were nice ones.

Ross Stevens formerly with the "Union" is now with the N. H. Sunday News and covers a whole page of sporting news. He is also plugging for the N. H. Sportsman's Show to be held at Spruce Park at Allenstown, Labor Day week. This week he tells about "Usage" Hulberth of Fairlee, Vt., who is an expert with the bow and arrow. He will be one of the features at this big Field Day.

One night last week the Mrs. and I dropped in at the new Clubhouse of the Lone Pine Hunters Club at Nashua. They have a wonderful layout and that fireplace is something to see. It's going to be one of the show places when they get it all completed. A fine skeet field and a fine place for a picnic. You have got to hand it to this club with over 600 members.

The past week we have stocked 7500 beautiful trout in my towns. All legal fish. These are from the New Hampton Hatchery.

They report wonderful trout fishing in Dublin Lake the past week. One man told us that 18 men from Jaffrey got their limit in a short time. Trout seem to be feeding off the shore.

The apple and peach trees are in bloom and what a sight in this the Monadnock Region. Don't fail to visit this Region if you want to get an eyeful.

Road Agent Stearns of Lyndeboro brings me in a fine specimen of a black snake, 5 ft., 3 in. He says he thinks he can get me one over 7 ft., long. I hope he can as I want to show those people at Harvard College that we grow 'em long and handsome. Some expert told us last year that no black snake ever grew to be over 5 feet in this state. I had a fine snake skin last year from the Styles farm in Wilton that now measures 6 feet 3 inches. This man told us the skins grow after the snake leaves them.

It won't be long now to the time that the old barb wire fences will be taken down and multifoils will be planted to take the place of that pant ripper. Multifoils grow to a height of 6 to 8 feet. It's a native of Korea and temperate parts of China. It's thorny hedges will keep cattle and dogs out. If you want to know more about this hedge see your local Conservation Service. Worth looking into.

Selectman Elmer Holt of Greenfield reports that some one turned in a pure white Porcupine for the four bits bounty. He would have been worth much more if taken alive. Every few years a white porky turns up in that town.

Mill people report that they see a number of deer every morning while coming to work in Wilton from Milford. The favorite seems to be opposite the Hayward Ice Cream Parlors. Many times the four plain ones and the white deer are seen together.

Down in Georgia the state 4-H Club leader William A. Sutton reports that clubs in his state completed a total of 10,875 projects last year. Fine work. How about New Hampshire. Guess we will have to contact our friend, Wadleigh of Durham.

The newest thing on a farm now is a home made pond. Raise your own fish. In one state alone, Missouri, over 10,000 ponds were made in 1946. If you are interested in a pond, how to build and maintain, get in touch with the Soil Conservation Service, Washington, D. C.

We have had complaints of fruit growers washing out their spraying tanks in a good trout brook. Thousands of fish were killed by the method. This is pollution and will be investigated by the proper officials. Plenty of law in this case. Never have we seen so many hawks as have been reported in this year. Most of them seem to be fish hawks as they hang around good trout streams.

The new Sportsman's Club at East Jaffrey, known as the Monadnock Sportsmen's Club, are to send three boys to the summer camp at Allenstown. They also are to purchase ringneck pheasants to be released in their town. The Club is young but not in membership. They are growing fast.

Tinfol this week: Mrs. Ernest Sweet and Viletta Pearson of Hillsboro; Violette Philibert, Henniker; Mrs. F. C. Dorr, Gardner, Mass.; Miss Irene Wilson, Franklin. For the crippled children.

The Peterboro Sportsmen's Club had a large consignment of legal sized trout from the Federal Hatchery at Nashua one day last week. The Peterboro Fly Casting Club stocked their private pond at North Peterboro from the Hatchery at Taunton, Mass., run by Richard Perry.

It's not always the small country newspapers that makes the mistakes. In one of the largest state papers one day last week was a small item and in that item was four mistakes. It said that the town had paid out for hedgehog noses. Now the law reads heads and not noses and there is no such thing as a hedgehog in the USA, only in Zoos. Hedgehogs are a native of Europe. Is someone's face red?

The Granite Fish and Game Sportsmen's Club at Milford are to have a turtle supper as soon as Ray Coutelle gets enough turtle for the event. Leave that to Ray. There is a big call for small Angora kittens. Mrs. Roland Austin sends me three which were snapped up in not time. Not much of a demand for common kittens.

CARD OF THANKS

In all sincerity I wish to thank all our friends and neighbors and also the American Legion, Gleason Young Post, No. 59, for the flowers, cards and many kindnesses to my family during my stay in the hospital.

This story is woven around the building of the candle at Hartford, Conn. While working in the general store young Titus Todd meets Deacon Dickinson's two daughters, astonishingly alike, but so unlike in temperament. How they, as well as the great dam, complicate his life, make's a good historical novel.

The project sponsored by the Fortnightly Club of the Lower Village in cleaning up Pine Hill Cemetery is a commendable one and those responsible for the idea should receive special recognition along with the men, women and children who did the work.

Pine Hill is not the only cemetery in town that needs attention for the older section of the Deering Cemetery is chaotic, to say the least. Stones are tipped over, many are broken off at the base and apparently the older settlers have long since been forgotten.

Contrasting sharply with the condition of this particular part of the burial ground is the beautiful well kept cemetery at Henniker, which is a credit to any community.

If we have any money to spare in the future years for any special project, it might be well to set aside something to make our own burial grounds more presentable.

At least most of the stones could be placed in position again without too much effort.

Wise guys who ride up and down the Main street without mufflers and make all the noise possible to attract attention to themselves and their vehicles along with the speed demons who ride motorcycles with a rush and a roar, should deserve special treatment for moronic tendencies and this also applies to the horn conscious individuals who listen for their echoes and have nothing better to make a noise with on holidays and week-ends. Mental tests should be given all motor vehicle drivers and particularly those with the weak ends.

Each Memorial Day means more vacant chairs in homes as family ties are again broken and loved ones join the vast majority, leaving behind precious memories.

Gone are the days when Memorial Day had the significance for which it was fully intended. Back in the days of long ago, a baseball game on Decoration Day was regarded with a frown and Sunday games were taboo.

In Hillsboro, veterans' graves were decorated in the morning by the Legion after World War I, and previously by the Sons of Union Veterans and the Grand Army members. This custom is now followed by the Sons of Veterans, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the Legion. There has been a parade in the early afternoon for as long as we can remember. The Legion always had a full day, for a detail went to Washington Village following exercises here.

Times change and today the veteran no longer cares to don a uniform again and march in a parade, at least many of the younger veterans have told me so, not that we blame them but we still do like to see them marching along.

We heard of one case a short time ago where a veteran seeking a job was asked by a 4-Ferrer, who was an employer, if he thought that just because he was a veteran he should have preference in employment? My answer would have been, "You're damned right I do."

We think the 4-Ferrers should have an organization all their own and think up good excuses, for they certainly have first hand information and are good joiners. We had 'em in World War I also, farmers in war and businessmen in peacetime. As we take a survey, these same excused citizens now

OUR REPORT TO YOU

To Our Customers:

The information given below is taken from Public Service Company's Annual Report, which has just been delivered to our stockholders and employees. We are submitting this information to you because we feel that the 108,000 customers for whom this Company is operated, have an active interest in the standing of the Company, and in the manner in which its affairs are conducted.

The broad objective of the Company is to give the best possible service at the lowest rates consistent with the interests of the employees and stockholders. As you read this report you will note that the year 1946 was one of progress and accomplishment toward this objective.

We will welcome any comment which you may have on our Company activities, or any request for further information.

W. DeHill
PRESIDENT

PROGRESS IN 1946

Among the many things which were done in the past year which will help to give better service to our customers, those which stand out particularly are: First, successful issues of preferred and common stock, assuring us of the money necessary for new plant construction; second, domestic and commercial rates for electricity were reduced; third, wages and salaries of our employees were increased; and fourth, a large construction program was started, including speeding up of our rural electrification program.

OUR NEEDS FOR THE BRIGHT FUTURE

Because we serve so much of the state, we are in a favored position to study the trend of events in many communities, and in the State of New Hampshire as a whole. Our conclusion, based on these studies, is that the future offers excellent prospects for growth and development—and our Company can and will assist in bringing this about. It appears that the electrical needs in 1950 of the area we serve will be approximately forty per cent greater than the actual use of the year 1946. And, as long as electricity continues to take over more and more tasks previously done by hand, its use in every field is bound to expand . . . and our plans for the future are based on this belief.

Almost one-half of the money to be spent for construction during the next two years, $6,405,000, will be for increases in our generating facilities. We expect to add 45,000 kilowatts of capacity in 1947, and an additional 40,000 kilowatts will be at work by 1950. The greater part of this increased capacity will be in very high efficiency steam plants of advanced design.

GENERATING FACILITIES

A limited quantity of the complete 1946 Annual Report is available for general distribution, and until the supply is exhausted, we would be glad to send you a copy at your request. Address:

AVERY R. SCHELLER, President

1946 ANNUAL REPORT AVAILABLE

PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

ELECTRIC STATION on Pemigewasset River, N. H. From watercolor sketch by Jean Tallman

OUR CONSTRUCTION PROGRAM

One of the activities of the Company to which much time and money is devoted is the extension of electric service to rural areas . . . since 1926 the Company has built approximately 1800 miles of rural lines to serve over 8000 rural customers. In 1946, 246 miles of rural lines were put in service; present plans for 1947 call for the construction of 350 miles. If this goal is accomplished, the two years of 1946 and 1947 alone will see more rural lines constructed than were built during any previous five year period. Our Rural Department, suspended during the war, is again fully in action, to assist farmers in applying electricity to their needs.

Big sums have been and will be needed to build the plant necessary to keep up with the ever-increasing demand for electricity.

In 1946, our Company spent $6,956,056 for additions to and replacement of equipment and other facilities (including jobs completed and still under construction). Looking ahead, our two-year construction program for 1947 and 1948, including increases in generating capacity, transmission and distribution, calls for a budget of $13,560,135.

RURAL ELECTRIFICATION

Our most pleasant accomplishment of the past year has been to again reduce our rates. Substantial increases in the use of electricity in the home have made it possible for us to put into effect two rate reductions for domestic electric service within a span of twelve months.

The first reduction became effective March 1, 1946, and the second on February 1, 1947. The total annual saving from the two reductions amounts to $557,000 from the amount previously paid. For stores, offices, filling stations, and similar activities, a reduction in rates was made in February 1, 1947, with an annual saving to the customers of $85,000.

USE INCREASED—RATES REDUCED

In the 17-year period from 1929 to 1946, the average annual use of electricity for domestic use has increased from 337 to 1099 kilowatt-hours; in the same interval the average rate charged has dropped from 8.78 cents to 4.02 cents per kilowatt-hour; or in other words, the average rate in 1946 is less than one-half the average rate in 1929.

In the diagram at the right below, we have piled up one hundred pennies, to show you how every dollar you paid us in 1946 was divided. For example, out of every dollar received from our customers, 23.3 cents was paid out in wages to our employees, 21.3 cents was paid out in taxes, and 21.0 cents for operation, maintenance and fuel. The three items of "interest" and "dividends" taken together, represent an average return of 4.2% on outstanding securities of the Company having a market value of approximately $53,700,000.

New Boston Ball Game

HILLSBORO — It seemed as though Jack Rafuse had the situation well in hand, until the 5th inning, when the boys from New Boston, aided by 2 walks, 2 errors, a long fly, 3 hits (one a timely bingle by "Kitty" Failes), scored 5 runs, and then the rains came—and with the rains went the game. Sunday's game was the second attempt of the locals to get going, the first game with Warner the previous week was cancelled because of rain.

With several new men in the livery this year, the team shows great promise and expects. Manager Bondar hopes, to start his victory parade Sunday, when the locals meet Warner at Grimes Field.
