COMING EVENTS

The Caroline A. Fox Bird and Garden Club meets with Mrs. Grace Stevens at Windsor Mt. Camp on Saturday, Oct. 4.

The Juvenile Beach Club will hold its first regular meeting of the season in the Music Room on Sunday, Oct. 5, at 2:00 P. M.

The Ladies Aid will meet in the church parlors of the Methodist Church, Monday evening, Oct. 6.

JUVENILE BEACH CLUB

A special meeting of the Juvenile Beach Club was held on Sunday afternoon when the following officers were elected: Pres.—David Vosburg-re-elected; Vice Pres.—Mary Louise Mordough; Sec.—Barbara Towle; Treas.—Harrison Baldwin; Program chairman, Charlotte Cutter.

It was voted to hold a meeting on the first Sunday of each month at 2 P. M., starting next Sunday.

An unusual, but very happy occasion took place in my room on Sunday afternoon. In a simple impressive ceremony the four months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sears Baker was christened Bruce Allan by Rev. W. S. K. Yeaple. Bruce wore one of his father's baby dresses and was quite on his good behavior. Of course he wondered what it was all about and looked questionably from one to the other in silence until the very end.

A LIFE OF SERVICE

The Center has boasted of only one of her kind, but certainly "Aunt Ruth" will go down in local history as the Saint of the hilltop. She must have had visions of a paradise for children and old people for she devoted her whole long life to their welfare and happiness with real understanding.

She came to the Brick House as the bride of Clinton Gammell after caring for an uncle and aunt until they passed away. Already Aunt Ruth's sister, the wife of Samuel Gammell, was living there with him and their two children, his aged parents and invalid sister, Lucy, who had taken to her bed when her sweetheart had died. As time passed, Lucy was persuaded she need not be an invalid anymore and so got well. The old people died and Sam's family moved over to Concord End.

At this point Aunt Ruth went to Canada and returned with two small orphan cousins, Jennie and Mary Hastings. The Brick House was their home until they were married and went away.

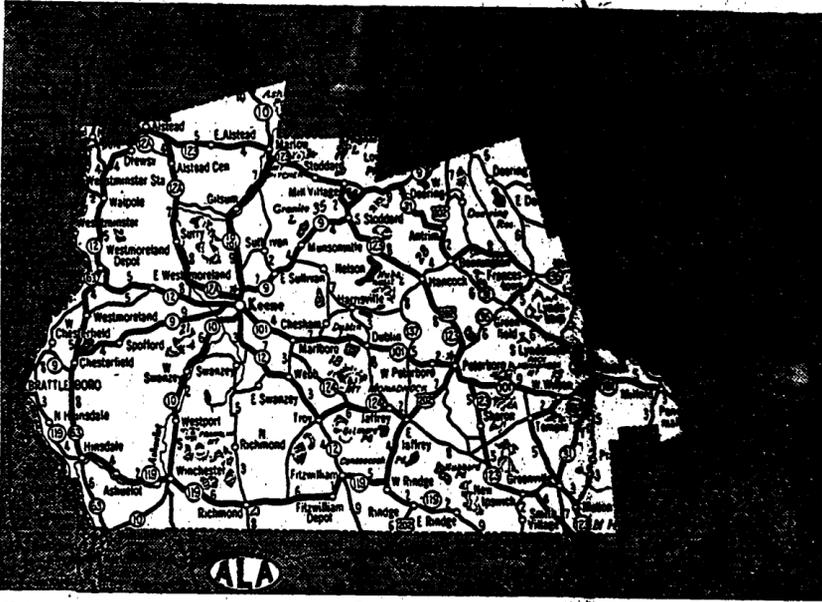

The next child, Welcome Burbank, came from Canada when about two years old. These first three were like their own children. In the next few years, Welcome's sisters, Ethel, Lula and Luna, twins, and Lucia, came at different times. Other children, not relatives, were boarded there like Alfred Houston, Scott Curtis and Arthur Gardner. Thru the years several old people were cared for by Mrs. Gammell: Mrs. Martha Quimby, Grandma Morris, Aunt Ruth's own mother, Mrs. Mahala Burbank. When the town was called upon to find a home for Willard Dinsmore, old and ill, Mrs. Gammell wanted to refuse, but nobody wanted him, so she took him in. After the Hastings and Burbank children were grown up and gone away, Aunt Ruth began over again with some of Elwin Gammell's children, Evelyn, Freada, Antoinette, and Helen were there at different times. After the death of his wife, Gilbert Burbank made his home with Aunt Ruth.

Mrs. Gammell worked very hard. She always looked weary when she came to church. She often went to sleep. Her tired blue eyes closed so easily and the flowers on her small bonnet fluttered as she nodded in slumber.

The Gammells lived to celebrate their Golden Wedding in the Brick House and several of the 14 children they had helped to bring up came to do them honor, bringing

THE MONADNOCK REGION OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Unique maple leaf signs dot the entire Monadnock region of Southern New Hampshire as fall foliage tours, famous in the area for 14 years, get under way. Sponsored by the Monadnock Region Association, six different routes have been plotted. Ranging from 49 to 157 miles in length, they cover practically every community in the area.

Special maps, prepared for free distribution, show how the visitor may pick up a tour of his choice at most any point, follow the numbered leaves around through villages and scenic countryside and be directed back to the place from which he started.

The second annual Monadnock Region Square Dance Festival is another feature of this section's Autumn program. Scheduled for Saturday, October 4 at the town hall in the colonial village of Walpole, the festival will feature dance groups from several of the regional towns as well as the direction of Ralph Page, the region's nationally known square dance caller.

Chart of United Nations at Fuller Public Library

HILLSBORO, Sept. 30—Of especial interest now that the General Assembly of the United Nations is in session, is the chart depicting the set-up of United Nations which is on display in the Public Library. This is a gift of the League of Women Voters of Hillsboro.

Since enactment of the Taft-Hartley Labor Bill public interest has been directed more closely to Labor-Management Relations, and during the summer months the League has been conducting a study workshop on this subject. The material they used is now available in the Library Reading Room for all who are interested to read it as follows:

Report of the Governor's Labor-Management Committee, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, A Guide to the National Labor Relations Act, Strikes and Democratic Government, The Case of Labor, by Philip Murray, The Truth About CIO, Collective Bargaining—How to Make it More Effective.

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sippelle of Maine street, Hillsboro, announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathleen E., to Edward J. Murphy of Woburn, Mass.

Miss Sippelle is employed as a stenographer for the William Schraft Company of Boston. Mr. Murphy served four years in the Navy in the European Theatre of War.

An early spring wedding is planned.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to sincerely thank everyone who so kindly remembered me with cards, flowers, and friendly deeds during my illness; at home and at the hospital. To all the organizations—my sincere thanks, as your thoughtfulness will long be remembered.

Mrs. Alvin A. Yeaton

Henniker Truck Crash Injures Two Wednesday

HENNIKER, Oct. 1—Two Manchester men were injured here tonight when their truck went out of control on the Hillsboro road smashed into a ledge and rolled over, State Police reported.

Injured were John B. Conway, 38, of 222 Conant street, identified as the operator of the truck, and Peter Doumas, 34, of 72 Peabody street.

Conway sustained severe lacerations of the face, while Doumas received possible concussions. They were taken to the New London Hospital for treatment.

The truck is owned by the Schuler's Foods, Inc., of Manchester, police said. The accident occurred about 8:45 P. M.

The boys 4-H club met Saturday at the parish house and elected the following officers: pres.—Linwood Huntington, Jr.; first vice pres.—Billy Hazen; second vice pres.—Marshall Connor; sec. and treas.—Richard Edwards; reporter—Robert Flanders. Other members present were Danny Daniels, Wayne Patenaude and Ray Fisher. Linwood Huntington was present as the leader. Achievement Night will be observed Friday evening in the parish house and everyone is invited to attend.

Community Association Plans Dinner Meeting October 14

Cards are being sent out to the members of the Community Association this week for the dinner which is to be held at the Valley Hotel at 7 o'clock, Tuesday, October 14. All members are asked to bring a new member. A very excellent speaker will be here for the evening and the Association promises a very excellent dinner.

Let's all make this a big turnout. So round up one of your town business associates and bring him along. Please let Henry Martin know as soon as possible if you are attending the dinner.

Thief Enters Summer Homes on Stowe Mt. Road

HILLSBORO, Sept. 29—Reports from the outlying districts indicate that summer homes have been broken into during the past week and state police are investigating.

When the Charles Cleavelands returned to their home on Wednesday, from Wellesley, they found that someone had entered the house and a radio and other items were found missing.

It was said that the Cleavelands, in driving up to the yard, noticed a shade pulled up and later found

by Enoch Shenton

Gov. Charles M. Dale is leaving behind him a long trail of trod-on toes as he grinds belligerently through his third year in office. He meets again with his Executive Council today (Oct. 2) and is expected at this time to nominate a new state Commissioner of Agriculture. Whether or not this precipitates another head-on clash with the Council depends on whom the Governor nominates.

Dale is expected to put up the name of Dr. Robinson W. Smith of Laconia for the important agriculture post. Dr. Smith, former mayor of the Lake City and now acting commissioner of the department, would be a happy choice from the Governor's point of view, because the Council probably would confirm him promptly.

But the Governor is reported to have "sounded out" the Council last week on the possibility of appointing E. W. Holden of Chichester, Merrimack county agent, to the job. The name of Holden came out of another of Dale's famous secret meetings with the Council, held Sept. 22, and reportedly met flat refusal from the councillors.

The job of commissioner of agriculture became va-

Final Game in "Little World Series" Sunday

HILLSBORO, Oct. 2—The final game, in the Tri-Mountain League "Little World Series" between Hillsboro and New Boston will be played at Contoocook this Sunday.

Both teams won their home games necessitating the play-off on a neutral field.

In last Sunday's game the New Boston nine copped a 10 inning victory from Hillsboro, 5-4.

Many local fans plan to travel with the team to Contoocook.

Mrs. Lucy Trotter, Dies

HILLSBORO, Sept. 30 — Mrs. Lucy A. Trotter, 71, widow of Theophile J. Trotter, died Monday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lydia O'Brien, in Wheelwright, Mass.

She was a native of Three Rivers, Can., the daughter of Joseph Bellemore and Lena Paquen. She was a member of St. Mary's parish here and was a Gold Star mother. A son, Arthur T. Trotter, was killed in action in France during World War I.

Survivors include three sons, Henry, Alfred and Medric Trotter; four daughters, Mrs. Ernestine McKay, Mrs. Bertha Gould of Claremont, Mrs. Victoria Aldrich of Litchfield and Mrs. Lydia O'Brien of Wheelwright, Mass.; two sisters, Mrs. Ernestine Lalberte of Tewksbury, Mass., and Mrs. Matilda Drapeau of Haverhill, Mass.; 12 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

The body is at her home on Jackson street from where the funeral took place at 8 o'clock Thursday morning. A solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated at St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock by Rev. Lancelot Quinn, pastor. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery. The Woodbury Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Conciliation Board Favors Local Union in Ruling

HILLSBORO, Sept. 2—The New Hampshire Board of Conciliation and Arbitration has ruled that Norman Cote and John Alves were unjustly discharged by the Hillsboro Woolen Mill as a result of hearings conducted in Hillsboro last September 16, at the Community Hall.

In its findings the board stated that the two men had no notice when hired or during their employment with the company that they would be required to wash windows as an incidence to their employment and that their refusal to perform the duty of washing windows was in good faith.

The Board ruled that both be reinstated and there be no discrimination because of their discharge; that there be no loss of seniority or benefit, and that they shall be paid back pay from July 30, 1947 to date of their re-employment which must be within a period of seven days.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to extend my sincere thanks to the many friends who sent me cards, candy, and magazines and for the many expressions of sympathy while I was ill.

I also want to thank the Hillsboro High School for the benefit dance they gave for me.

Charles Marshall

News Items From Bennington

Mrs. Maurice C. Newton
Correspondent

The Woodin family entertainment that was presented at the Grange Hall on Friday night of last week was worth much more than the forty-two cents charged. The music alone was worth the price of admission and "Chalk Talk" by Rev. Wayne Haskell of Milford was amusing and extremely entertaining. The music consisted of the Gerase Ensemble led by Maestro Gerase with his violin and three of his pupils also with violins. Madame Gerase presided at the piano. The music was what Mr. Haskell described as "Sweet Music." It is many a day since the town of Bennington has had the privilege of listening to such music. Those who did not attend certainly missed a wonderful evening. Mr. Haskell is always good. How the children loved those pictures! This is the second time the Woodins have presented one of their programs here. Mr. Haskell presented his "magic" before and there were singers.

On Sunday afternoon an accident occurred on our Main street when William H. Clark of Wilton was negotiating the turn of the road from the Greenfield road on his motor scooter and failed to make the turn, landing upon the Library lawn and thence onto the drug store grounds owned by Donald Powers. Mr. Clark was injured and unconscious when he was taken to the Monadnock Community Hospital. Mr. Clark is around seventy years old.

Arnold Cossette has been moved from the City Hospital in Boston to the Hillsboro General Hospital in Grafton. He stood the trip very well although he was very tired. He was transferred by ambulance. His sister, Mrs. Elmer Parker, was with him on the trip. Mrs. George Sargent has gone to Springfield, Mass., to be with her husband, George Sargent.

Mrs. G. Bliss has been in town for several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cashion have moved to their new residence, the home formerly owned by the late Mrs. Emma Joslin.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Newton, Edward Newton, Arnold Logan and Mrs. Lena Taylor visited relatives of the Newtons in Alexandria, N. H.

THE STATE HOUSE JOURNAL

cant a year ago, when beloved Andrew L. Felker of Laconia, the Democrat who had held the office since 1911 under governors of both political parties, died of grief shortly after the sudden death of his only son, Walter, from polio. Dr. Smith, who has served as New Hampshire state veterinary for 27 years, was named acting commissioner.

The 1947 Legislature created a special Agricultural Advisory Board which was given power to select eligible candidates for the office and present their names to the Governor. Dr. Smith was appointed board chairman, so when deliberations began he stepped aside and informed the board he could not serve because he was himself interested in becoming Felker's successor. Charles Eastman of Weare presided over the board in his place.

In all, the advisory committee interviewed seven top candidates for the commissioner appointment. They were Smith, Holden, James Colby of Litchfield, vegetable expert and New Hampshire's uncrowned "squash king"; Perley Fitts, Durham poultry farmer; Edward Baker of Marlboro, member of the state Milk Control board; and Sen. Jason D. Sawyer of Jaffrey.

The board was unable to make an outright choice for the Governor's consideration, due to a 6-4 split between Dr. Smith and Holden. So both names were submitted to Dale. Both men have large followings among the farm interests of the state, but the "edge" is distinctly in Dr. Smith's favor. As organizer and for many years secretary-treasurer of the powerful N. H. Fairs association, he has the endorsement of that large group.

The state Farm Bureau Federation has taken no official stand on the matter, but individual leaders in the organization also are known to lean towards Dr. Smith. He also has the tacit support of the N. H. Poultry Growers association, the state Grange and the N. H. Cattle Dealers' association.

So State House observers expect Governor Dale will bow to the inevitable and switch his nomination to Dr. Smith, rather than antagonize the most powerful and literate pressure group in New Hampshire.

THUMBNAIL PORTRAIT

Dr. Smith, who tops the list of likely appointees for the agriculture department, is a roly-poly man whose disposition belies his figure. One of the pioneers in the campaign to stamp out Bangs' Disease, he minces no words in his dealings with cattle men whose herds are infected. Despite this, they like him, and respect him for the missionary work which is fast eliminating the disease which causes the dreaded undulant fever in humans.

who are drawing jobless benefit checks is diminishing weekly.

STATE DEBT RISES

State Comptroller Stephen B. Story is now preparing a detailed report to Governor Dale on the condition of the state debt. On the basis of preliminary figures, it appears that the 1947 General Court made the biggest inroad on the bonded debt of any legislature of the past decade. Several millions in new bonds were authorized for various projects, which puts the state's net debt back to about the level of prewar times.

Not all the bonds which were authorized have been issued yet, but when they are it is likely that all the ground gained during the war years will have been lost. During the past five years, the state government has been paying out its debt rapidly. As of June 30,

Burly, blunt and red-faced, Dr. Smith has a thorough command of his subject and his administrative ability is widely recognized. Possessed of a deep voice and hearty chuckle, he is an impressive personality. His outstanding personal characteristic is a beet-red face, hall-mark of his easily aroused temper.

N. H. EMPLOYMENT STABLE

New Hampshire economic experts now feel that the amount of unemployment in the state is about what it should be for "normal times." During July and August, when employment in industry generally is at its low ebb, the state Unemployment Compensation division paid out $642,000 in regular claims from unemployed workers, and $413,000 in claims to jobless veterans under the G. I. Bill of Rights.

The state had 4,800 civilian unemployed and 2,400 jobless veterans in August. New claims are now numbered in the hundreds each week, but enough men and women are going back to work so that the total state owed only $2,635,000, all of which is retireable by the end of 1953.

To balance this debt, the sinking fund had a balance of $3,925,000 at the start of the new fiscal year July 1. The sinking fund gets its income from horse racing, liquor store profits, beer taxes, levies on gas and electric utilities, and inheritance taxes, which are expected to produce about $6,000,000 in the current fiscal year. Out of this must be paid all bonds, interest and an estimated $6,650,000 for running expenses of the state government, needed to keep the budget balanced.

PLAN FOLIAGE TOURS

An attractive map outlining recommended foliage tours in the Monadnock Region is being printed again this year by the Monadnock Region association. Tourists will be aided by roadside markers during the height of the foliage season, which begins this week and will reach its climax in about ten days. Copies of the foliage tour maps may be secured from the office of the Region association at Peterborough.

FREEDOM TRAIN

American industry and labor has invested millions in the Freedom Train, which will come to New Hampshire this month carrying the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution and other original documents and treaties which were the milestones of American history. The Declaration and Constitution have been on display in the Library of Congress for more than a century, and the only people who could see them were those who could get to Washington. Now they are being brought around for a closer view by the American people, as part of the spine-stiffening program the nation's leaders feel is necessary in the present clash of ideologies that is being given a public airing in the UN. The train will be in Concord October 17 for its northernmost stop in New Hampshire. Other stops will be made at Nashua and Dover.

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Bing Crosby, Irving Berlin, and the Andrews Sisters are shown with the original manuscript of "The Freedom Train," Berlin's theme song for the American Heritage Freedom Train which leaves Washington this month for a year's tour of the nation. The song will be made into a special recording for national release. Decca President Jack Kapp announced. The original manuscript and original recording were presented to Attorney General Tom Clark. The train will carry 150 documents which represent the American heritage.

TRUTH WILL OUT

The truth will out. Senator Flanders, Republican Senator from Vermont, has finally expressed the only solution that the free enterprizers offer to the runaway inflation that is engulfing the nation. After a Republican-Democratic coalition in Congress removed the few brakes to the price spiral and the greed of the profiteers, this Republican pundit offered a way for the United States to avoid "percipitate and deep depression."

The solution offered by this senator is to create deliberately a small reservoir of unemployment so that full employment would not keep tightening the spiral of inflation.

Gone are the pious protestations that capitalism can provide a stable, full employment economy. Gone are the promises that "free enterprize" can prevent the perennial "boom and bust" of the economy. Now that big business has gorged itself with fantastically high profits at the expense of the wage and salaried worker and the pickings are beginning to run dry because high prices have eaten into the purchasing power of the masses of people, the elected representatives of big business come out with the old standby solution.

Let's have a "little" unemployment to stabilize the economy. It's a good solution. For if workers go hungry and can't buy the necessities of life, prices will "stabilize." God forbid that business lower prices by cutting their profits.

JURY SERVICE FOR WOMEN

In January 1948, for the first time in New Hampshire history, our Courts of Justice will meet with a sprinkling of women in the jury box. During December the Selectmen of each town make out their lists, from which a drawing will be made, of persons available to serve in this capacity, and as jury service for women is optional, women should register before December 1st if they wish to serve.

The Selectmen of Hillsboro meet every Tuesday and Saturday evenings in the Selectmen's Office from 7 to 9 P. M., and will be glad to have you register with them during these hours. In Deering the Selectmen meet at the Town Hall on the last Saturday of every month at 2 P. M. You may register then, or they will be pleased to take your name by letter or telephone.

The Hillsboro League of Women Voters is to be commended for this interest in getting women to participate in jury service and for making local arrangements.

Granite State Gardener

by J. R. Hepler

A friend of mine has just brought me a sweet potato plant with five rather good sized potatoes and several smaller ones. His crop this year amounted to around five bushels. Sweet potatoes are more or less of a rarity in northern New England and although there are a few people who grow them and say that they like them, most prefer to buy sweet potatoes grown in the South.

Since this plant has been in my office a number of people have looked at it and rather marveled that sweet potatoes grow on vines rather than on plants like ordinary potatoes and have wondered how to grow them.

My grower friend said that he could really do quite a job of growing sweet potatoes at Durham, provided he had a southern slope rather gravelly, sandy soil that would absorb a lot of heat during the day, perhaps even in a gravel bank or a sand bank with enough fertility in it.

The propagation of sweet potatoes is different than that of ordinary potatoes. You set out slips which are taken from the mother sweet potato raised in a hot bed with considerable bottom heat. These little plants which are about five or six inches high are then set out as soon as the ground warms up and after all danger of frost is over, perhaps not before June 1 or 10. In many places they plow up a ridge a foot and a half high and set the sweet potato slips on this ridge. In fact, that was the method we used in Pennsylvania on my father's farm. They are then kept weeded and kept growing. The first frost will kill them and they should be harvested as soon after the first frost as possible. The sweet potatoes themselves must go through a ripening process before they are good to eat.

Usually they are kept in a temperature of around 85 degrees for a week or ten days during which they go through a sweating process which changes considerable of the starch into sugar and gives them their characteristic flavor and food value.

If you would like to try this vegetable, set out a dozen or two plants in the warmest part of your garden away from trees and bushes, give them a chance to grow and you may be surprised with the sweet potatoes that you get.

The other night at the home of Earl Nagles, the Peterboro Sportsmen's Club held a corn roast which was well attended by members. A short business meeting and a general good time.

It's the same old story, oft repeated. "Won't Buy a License in 1948, for I can't take but 25 punt." Now you can take 40, but next year the limit is 25. We have heard the same old gag year after year. Dollars to doughnuts they are the first in line to buy a license in 1948. I never knew it to fail. Caught a fellow one year and he lost his license for several months. NEVER again will I buy a license in N. H. Will sell my guns and break up my fishing outfit. The next fishing season he was the first man I found fishing. I said: "How come," and he answered he just could not resist, so there he was with the new license.

Azalea Rebekah Lodge met Thursday with the noble grand, Mrs. Norman Greenly, presiding. The following officers were elected for the new year: noble grand, Miss Betty Thomas; vice grand, Miss Louise Knapp; secretary, Mrs. Hira mTwiss; treasurer, Mrs. Walter French; trustees, Mrs. Edward Fisher, Mrs. J. Albert Norton, Mrs. Gerald Beane. The officers will be installed at the next meeting.

Isn't it funny—the children and grandchildren will not let me forget that I have a birthday, and did we have a swell time on the lawn and was I soaked, tied and remembered with cards from all over the country!

Townsend Rod and Gun Club held a field day on their ground just off route 119, in the edge of Groton and Townsend. Big crowd and a nice time. The Wachusett Hound Club are to have a big fall outing at Eckfret's, Pepperell road, in West Townsend, Sept. 25. Bench show of dogs and field trials. Better go, as this club puts on a swell show. This neck of the woods has received quite a few ring neck pheasants. Last week I released 300 in my towns. In the other districts: Cole, Manchester, 500; Martin of Keene, 650; Barnard of Nashua, 500. Birds were 14 weeks old and very strong on the wing. Came from the Mont Vernon station. Todd, the well known pheasant man of Milford was in charge of the distribution. By the looks of large loads of logs, mostly pine, and the large lot of sawed lumber we meet on the roads, what's to become of our forests? That's a question which every red-blooded citizen should consider.

Miss Margaret O'Brien, Nathan Martin, Cedric Derby, and Harold Ayer, Jr., left last week for Freshmen week at the University of New Hampshire. They were also accompanied by Miss Carolyn Beane, who has transferred from Keene Teachers' College to the Sophomore class at the University. Students who returned to their studies this week were Miss Joan Coombs, Miss Ruth Garland, Miss Lorna Doon, Miss Mary Maxwell, Miss Amy Clapp, Norman and Irving Clapp, George Hatch, Henry Cunningham, 3rd, Kenneth and Durwood French.

The other day, believe it or not, I had a letter from England asking the Mrs. and myself to run over in the spring and spend a few weeks with my wife's relatives. I am thinking of accepting the offer and I will go by Air and the Mrs. says she will go by Boat! She may change her mind and I might too. Never heard of a town like Lyndeboro. When there is trouble they all turn out to help the ones in trouble and when there is a silver or a golden, they all turn out to do justice. The other night was no exception when Mr. and Mrs. Sewell Brackett of Jamaica Plain, new residents of Lyndeboro, celebrated their 50th anniversary at the town hall. There was standing room only when we appeared on the scene. A fine radio, over $100 in cold cash and plenty of flowers. Yes, there was a three-layer wedding cake. A fine program and a dainty lunch in the hall above. As both my parents and older brother were born in Lyndeboro, I have always had a soft place in my heart for it. We wish there were more Lyndeboros in the world and more of that friendly cooperation among its people. That's a question which every red-blooded citizen should consider. The porcupine damage in this neck of the woods is going to reach a record for this year. On every hand we hear of the destruction of corn fields, gardens, shrubbery. Arthur Hayes of Greenfield got 20 of them in a ten-day period. He sat out in his garden at night and got them as they came from the highway. One man from New Boston reports an acre of corn spoiled and ruined. That 50c bounty doesn't seem to control them. Had a man the other day report heavy damage to his corn by deer. Tracks showed it was quillpigs instead of deer. One out of the state man was warning about being able to get

HILLSBORO Grammar School

SECOND GRADE

We made a visit to the Hillsboro Dairy and have been working on a unit on "Milk." Last Friday we invited our parents to visit us and presented a "Milk Program." This included oral readings, poems, songs and talks. At the conclusion milk and sandwiches were served. Our visitors included Mrs. Wilbur Beaupre, Mrs. Bert Lane, Mrs. Walter Poulchov and daughter, Sherry, Mrs. J. B. Tasker and Carol Ann, Mrs. William Sharby, Mrs. Harry McClintock, Mrs. Sadie Hancock, Mrs. John Evans, Mrs. Harrison Baldwin, Mrs. John Martin, Mrs. Roscoe Putnam, and Mrs. Ellsworth Frye.

THIRD GRADE

We went for a walk to see how many different kinds of seeds we could find.

We are studying about the Indians. Mrs. Day, our drawing teacher, showed us how to draw an Indian girl.

FOURTH GRADE

Mrs. Day gave us a lesson in drawing shapes of different trees. Joseph Sferlazza is drawing a blackboard border of an Indian design.

Our class went with the Third Grade on a nature walk this week. We collected different kinds of seeds.

FIFTH GRADE

There are twenty-eight pupils registered in the fifth grade. We expect Sandra Bonnette back soon. She has been detained at home because of illness.

The fifth grade had a very instructive trip through the Woolen Mill last Tuesday through the courtesy of Mr. Wood.

On Thursday, Mrs. Sterling, Mrs. Fogg, Mr. Cooper and Mrs. Pouliet loaned their cars to take the children in the fifth grade to visit the "President Pierce Homestead." Miss Mary Pierce, grand niece of the late President Pierce, told interesting facts about President Pierce which will help us much in making our stories of New Hampshire.

The following people had 100 per cent in spelling for the week ending September 26, John Olson, Cynthia Cooper, Eleanor Flanders, Sandra Holdner, Harrison Baldwin, Marshall Bennett, Ann Broadley, Barbara Mills, Jane Seymour, Mildred Powell, Barbara Dumais, Dellene Develin, Walter Sterling and Martha Marchard.

We have had three visitors this year, Mrs. John B. Tasker, Dr. Harrison Baldwin and Mrs. Walter Sterling.

The fifth grade cordially invites parents and friends to visit us often.

SIXTH GRADE

In our History class we have been studying all about the primitive ways of making cloth. Tuesday morning we all visited the Hillsboro Woolen Mill and Mr. Woods took us through and explained every step of making cloth. Now we are comparing our modern way of making cloth with the primitive.

Thursday Mr. Bonnette, Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Murdough took the sixth grade up to the Franklin Pierce Mansion where Miss Mary Pierce took us through the house told us many interesting historical facts and stories about the house and President Pierce.

We are sorry to have one member of our class, Mary Lee Stillings, in the hospital.

The Grammar School Traffic Officers are Robert Thomas, Bruce Bonnette, Maurice Cote, Maurice Randall, George Auclair, Donald Dumais, and Roger Phelps.

Grammar School baseball at Grimes Field, Wednesday, September 24.

CENTER SCHOOL

Rosalie Smith has whooping cough. Her brother, Billie Smith, is staying home from school at present.

We visited Rosewald Farm last week. Mr. Paul Porter showed us the barns and milkroom. In the grainroom a mouse ran up Billie Smith's leg, causing great excitement.

Ned Baldwin was elected treasurer of the Book Club at the meeting Friday, September 26. Sylvia Cornwell gave a book review of "Jane Eyre." Katherine Kulbacki reported on "The Necklace" by Guy de Maupassant.

"Mamma, what's a second-story man."

"Your father is one, dear. If I don't believe his first story, he always has another one ready."

 (Parent's or Homeowner's Name) (Address)
 (Student's Name) (School) (Grade)

Parents and householders are requested to fill in this questionnaire after they have inspected their homes with the help of the entire family. When the completed questionnaire is returned to the school by the student, the record of inspection at the bottom is detached so that information concerning conditions in a particular school district may be studied without identifying any individual person or home.

Uncle Sam Says

"What's in it for me?" Any time you buy something or invest money in something you should ask this question and get a gilt-edge answer. Supposing a U. S. Savings Bond could talk—it would say: "Here's what's in it for you. When you exchange your money for me you get for yourself these things: future security, safety of your investment, profit ($4 for $3 in 10 years), the means to take advantage of opportunities, a nestegg to handle any emergencies." to town every day. Atty. and Mrs. Jeremiah J. Doyle, who have been staying at the summer cottage in Nelson and commuting daily, spent the week-end at their home at the Lower Village.

Warren Fisher, Jr., of Keene, a former Jackson street resident, is a student at Keene Teachers' College this year.

Herbert Verry and William Scruton, students at the University of New Hampshire, spent the week-end at their respective homes in Hillsboro.

District Commissioner Guy O. Hollis of the Souhegan District and Wm. D. Dyer, of Hudson, Field Executive of Southern New Hampshire District were in town in the interests of current state wide campaigning for $50,000 for the State Boy Scout movement and to develop interest in a local scout troop and cub pack.

New Hampshire is to have its second yearly inspection of motor vehicles starting October 1st.

Hillsboro Art Club

Gets N. H. Art Ass'n Bid

To the members of the Hillsboro Art Club last week there came welcome news. Mr. Omer Lassande, Secretary of the N. H. Arts Association, had heard of the club's existence and had come to Hillsboro to extend an invitation to its instructor, Mr. Stuart Bruce and club members to join the association. The New England group has about 75 members. They exhibit not only in New Hampshire, but also in other states. The Art Club is always pleased to have visitors. Last week's guests brought handwork to do while they watched the club paint and draw the head of a young girl model.
