A Happy and Prosperous New Year to Messenger readers all over the country. To Mrs. Grimes and Mrs. Smith and friends in California, Miss Abbie Wyman in Tucson, Arizona, John Clement in San Diego, Calif., the Arthur Whitney family and others in Florida, the Withingtons from the Centre who left on Monday for Dunedin, Fla., Mrs. William Neidner of Malden, Mass., Mrs. George Haslet in Boston, Mrs. Warren Grimes in Concord, and scores of other Hillsboro people in or far away from our perfectly good town.

CHRISTMAS EVE

Did you ever know a more perfect setting than that of 1947 for Christmas Eve? All our world was covered deep and white with snow of the previous night. It was clear and cold and way above the stratosphere the chorus of "Merry Christmas" rang out to the stars overhead. So many things were happening everywhere, as I sat and watched my red candle, given me by the Innkeeper's daughter, burning in my window and the cars dashing by to the Centre probably. Several went up from the village, the Warren Crosbys, Frank and Ethel, the families of school children living on Centre Road, and others. Reports came to me of a fine dinner served in a beautifully decorated hall and followed by Christmas tree and a very well prepared program presented without a hitch by the school children.

CHRISTMAS PARTIES

On Christmas Eve Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Woods entertained a party of friends in their home. All dressed up like a Christmas tree. Smorgasbord was served to their thirty guests. The long table was covered with 35 or more different kinds of food. Guests were given plates and told to help themselves. I don't know half the menu, but there were strangely concocted meat dishes and more of fish but all so tasty, Swedish breads, jellies, and many more good things including a rice pudding which contained one almond. According to custom the one getting this is the first to be married. But at this particular party it wasn't in evidence, I guess. Jokes were passed around and read during the evening.

ATTIC PARTY

Harrison had a party in the Baldwin attic early Christmas Eve for a few friends. He had a Christmas tree and made all the arrangements himself. His guests were his cousins and houseguests, David and Diane Wilder, Hank, De Witt and Jack Woods, John Olson, Barry Harlow and Brother Richard.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lambert entertained a family party on Christmas Day including Mr. and Mrs. William York, Mr. and Mrs. Olo York, Misses Edith York and Marjorie Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hammond of Keene, Mr. and Mrs. George Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gibson and daughter Donna, Mr. and Mrs. John Lambert, Jr. Donna is the only grandchild, and made four generations present to enjoy the turkey dinner and Christmas tree.

Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Baldwin entertained as houseguests over Christmas Dr. and Mrs. Baldwin of Manchester, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Wilder and children, David, Diane and Marsha of Peterboro. On Christmas Day they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sargent and grandson, Ronnie Roy.

Miss Laura Boyd of Boston spent Christmas and week-end with her brother, Frank Boyd and family and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Fullerton and son, David, Miss Leota Marshall of Boston and Miss Thelma Marshall of U. N. H., spent Christmas and the week-end at Alton Colby's. Only Leota had to go down to work on Friday and Saturday.

Let's hope 1948 does not try to surpass 1947's winter weather, for Monday was too blustery for com-

Home Burns Down Christmas Day

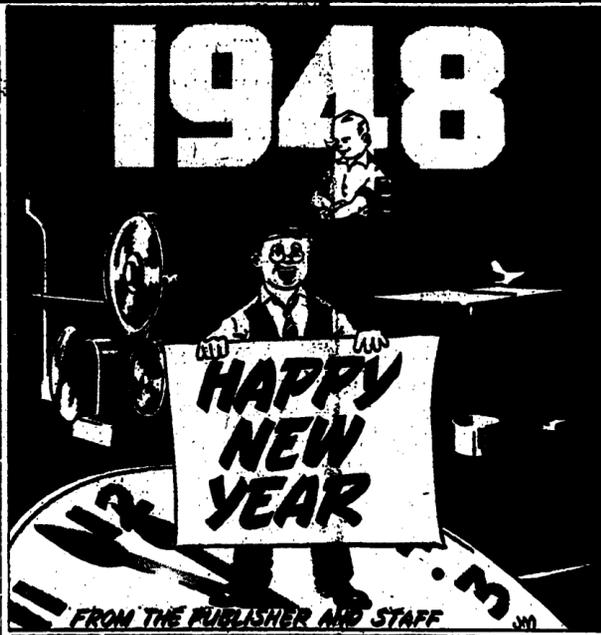

HILLSBORO, Dec. 25 — Mr. and Mrs. Paul Acorn, who were spending Christmas Day in Massachusetts with relatives, received the sad news from neighbors who phoned that their home in the Upper Village had burned down that afternoon.

They returned in the evening to find their home a total loss, losing all their personal property including a fine collection of guns.

The Acorns had left that morning at 9 A. M., and the fire must have begun at about 4 P. M. when it was first noticed. The Hillsboro fire department was called but could do nothing as the fire was too far advanced.

They are making a temporary home in the Brannigan hunting lodge nearby until they make further plans.

Mr. Acorn is employed in the Bennington Paper Mill.

THE OLD YEAR PASSES

Avis Turner French in Kansas City Poetry Magazine

The chapters of life are years, tonight one passes
Into the mist as others have gone before.
It seems like leaving a house one loved to live in
And softly closing the door.

A door that cannot ever, ever, open:
The last sunset has flamed within the west,
The last dear words been said, the last kiss given.
The old year sinks to rest.

Good bye, good bye, and let the heart remember
The hours like golden lights to treasure long,
And use like lanterns through the New Year coming,
For faith and love and song.

Anniversary Party For Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hill

HILLSBORO, Dec. 29 — Because they have been married for thirty-five years and because of their good neighborliness, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Hill of Whittemore street were honored with a party last Saturday at the home of their neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weber. By actual count sixty people were present to greet the happy couple.

Invited to the Webers' to see some slides to be shown by Niles Stevens, the small party soon found guests arriving by the score. They had assembled at the home of another neighbor, Mrs. Harry S. McClintock.

After the showing of slides those present were treated to music by Dr. Harrison Baldwin, Belle Weber, Leon Dennison, Leon Hill and Mrs. Harrison Baldwin, who played several appropriate pieces.

Leon Denison read a poem written for the occasion and afterwards a purse was given to the Hills.

A delicious lunch including a three-layer wedding cake was served.

Neighbors who planned the party were Elnora Jones, Belle Weber, Leona Cutler, Statira Barnes, Elsie Mosley and Flossie McClintock.

Seek Funds Locally for Salvation Army

HILLSBORO, Dec. 29 — The annual appeal for The Salvation Army begins here this week as letters of appeals are being mailed to all the old friends of The Salvation Army in Hillsboro.

The letters are signed by the Chairman of the appeal, George W. Boynton who feels that the $700 quota will be reached if all those who have expressed their admiration for the work of The Salvation Army during World War II will join with those who have always appreciated the many and varied activities of mercy and rehabilitation of this great organization.

Contributions are to be forwarded to Marshall A. Derby, Town Clerk, Treasurer for this appeal.

From the money raised here, a part remains to be used in The Hillsboro Salvation Army Service Unit Fund. Last year from this fund, almost $300 was used for aid to individuals or families here in Hillsboro. The types of aid furnished those in need demonstrates the versatility of this local unit. Money was used to supply groceries and clothing, to furnish medical care, optical service, emergency assistance to victims of disasters such as fires. The Service Unit is able to accomplish so much because it operates without overhead expense and is composed of a body of local citizens who comprise an active committee. There are no discriminations because of race, color or creed in the administration of this

It is said there are compensations to all things. Maybe, I don't know about everything, but because my eyes rebel at the strong light and demand shades be drawn, I never saw the snow storm. When told it had drifted in four feet deep in front of our shed door, it was hard to believe until I saw it piled up along the street, for the snow plows were busy most of the night it seemed to me.

The courageous spirit of the Vikings of old is still at large in our land for Mr. and Mrs. Donald Matthews, Miss Edna Johnson and Mrs. Anton Johnson started for Boston at 3 P. M., the day of the "big snow" where all but Mr. Johnson attended the Annual Ball of the Aquilo Club, the Junior League of the Swedish Charitable Society at the Sheraton Hotel. Several hundred were expected, only a few over one hundred were present. They all spent the night at the hotel, coming home late the next day.

Mr. and Mrs. Murrice Parker and son, Leon, spent Christmas with the Parker family in Henniker.

Mrs. Bessie Whitcomb of the Daniel Webster School, Franklin, was home for the holidays.

H.H.S. graduates now students at Keene Normal College, Barbara Michie, Mary Ellinwood, Irene McAlister and Harry McClintock all are home for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Colby of Strafford, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Staulis of Dorchester, Mass., spent the holidays at the George E. Col-Thompson, and Walter Colby they bys'. With Mr. and Mrs. Charles were all Christmas dinner guests of the Flints of Church street.

Mrs. George Bailey entertained her brother, Emile Le Plante and his namesake nephew of Montreal over the week-end.

Another old Centre friend, Mrs. Harrison Hadley, passed away at the Centennial House, Concord, the day before Christmas. I received a Christmas card on which she had asked an attendant to write us a note because she was too weak to do it herself. I cannot remember when I did not know Ella. She was schoolmate and friend of Julie and the boys, but she was always kind to me as a child and children do not forget, especially shy country children. Ella had been very happy and contented in the home from the time she entered.

Mrs. William France, well loved wife of a former Centre Congregational minister, passed away from the effects of a cerebral hemorrhage on Dec. 17, at the home of her daughter, Eunice, Mrs. Edward Rogers, 23 Baker st., Devon, Conn. Mrs. France lived in No. Brookfield, Mass., where her funeral was held and where she was buried.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Trip Through Zeeland

by Edna S. Perk

Back over the plank board we went, like the single files of people you see in the movies wandering off to nowhere on the dessert or other forgotten places. Into the bus and to the local hotel.

Hotels in this part of the country are not what they used to be either. This was a large story building. It looked like a shed, but was the noble beginning of the town's best hotel, after the bombing and devastation of the past years.

Here we had more speeches, and songs by the local Farm women's chorus led by a dapper young man, formally attired, who must have been watching the movements of some of our band leaders. Somehow you could not help thinking the songs would go on just as well without him, but everyone of the singers leaned heavily on his baton movements.

After the songs, we ate again, this time a specialty of the place, breads with sausages, something like a hot dog, only sausages instead of frankfurts. These were served hot with tea and were delicious.

We sat around at little tables, and I felt terribly important to be at the table with Mrs. Quarles van Ufford and the Burgomaster.

Countrywomen in costume waited on us.

All of this food was donated by the women in each place and they were so happy and proud to do it. The bread for the day was white something I had not seen since I arrived in Holland. They were giving their very best to their distinguished guests.

After this meal we went back to the buses and on to Goes. (Pronounced Goose).

One of the Canadian delegates (in the American bus), a very placid type of plump woman, forgot her notebook. She left it in the toilet. She left something everytime we stopped and the women in the bus had formed sort of a committee to look after her. This time it was a very important thing, the notebook covering her whole stay in Holland. We were quite a little on our way, but our very efficient director, a Miss Sikkers, also a former school teacher, stopped everything and called to the local policeman who was escorting us to the town limits on his bicycle and broke the sad news to him. He volunteered at once to go back and get the notebook, and we waited there on the road. From a plain stretch of land with nothing in sight within 5 minutes we were literally swarming with children, natives returning from work, and housewives on their bicycles.

We arrived at Goes in the dark, but we found it to be quite a little city. We parked in the center of the town, probably the market place and were herded into the basement of the town hall. Here we ran into our first hostess lottery.

There was a long table at one end of the hall and behind that stood our director, and several of the local heads of the Farm Women groups. Around the sides of the hall were nicely dressed people smiling but silent. Among them several men, looking extremely sheepish. We found out afterwards the men were there because they had been sent by their wives who were to act as our hostesses for the night, because as businessmen

Sewing Club Christmas Dinner Held at Capitol Cafe

HILLSBORO, Dec. 23 — The Sewing Club observed its annual Christmas dinner and tree on Dec. 23, 1947.

The delicious dinner was served at the Capitol Cafe, turkey complete from soup to nuts. The table was tastefully decorated with Christmas greens trimmed with red ribbon and red candles, a Santa's boot of candy at each plate, a centerpiece of fruits. Nothing was left undone by Mr. Sullivan and his helpers to make the occasion one long to be remembered.

Mrs. Maude Hoyt served the dessert of pie, candy, tea and nuts. The Christmas tree was well laden with gifts for all the members. Mrs. Sadie Hancock was unable to be present because of illness. Everyone enjoyed the afternoon typical of New England, a snow storm made this Christmas dinner very seasonable.

Much credit is due to our host, Mr. Sullivan, and the hostesses, Mrs. Maude Hoyt in making this party a decided success. They spoke a little English, something practically unknown to the wives.

Dutch people are very sensitive about their languages and it seemed to them a sort of shame that they were not able to speak English. It is also typical of the Dutch that they did not even expect us to be able to speak Dutch.

The director was handed a list and began to call out 1, or 2, or 3, and that meant that 1, 2 or 3 people were to go to a certain house for the night, depending on how many guest rooms our hostesses had.

My mother always told me that a lone horse runs faster so I decided to brave everything and go on a "1" call. It came almost immediately, and within a few seconds a smiling well dressed young man stood before me bowing. I almost thought he was going to offer me his arm.

We introduced ourselves, and I called myself Mevrouw Perk (Mrs. Perk), and his face lighted up like Easter morning and he said, "You speak Dutch!!!" I confessed to a slight knowledge with very bad grammar. His shoulders seemed to straighten, and he said, "Oh I am so glad. My wife speaks very badly English and she will be so very happy. She sent me to town because she was ashamed that she could not greet you."

We went outside and I had to come to Holland to have my first ride in a brand new Studebaker, bug windows and all. I could hardly believe my eyes but that is what we drove off in.

Textile Workers Submit to Willey Law Provisions

CONCORD, Dec. 26 — The Textile Workers Union of America, CIO, is ready to comply with the provisions of the state Willey Law, State Labor Commissioner William H. Riley was informed Friday.

Mr. Riley disclosed he had received official notification from J. Harold Daoust of Nashua, state director of the CIO textile union, that the locals were ready to carry out the election provision which will make it possible for some 10,000 textile workers to keep their present form of union security if a favorable vote is recorded.

The deadline for holding elections on the retention of union security clauses in contracts was December 14. Last Friday, Commissioner Riley issued a final warning to the unions which had failed to comply with the Willey Law, requiring an election to determine if union security was to be continued in their contracts.

The textile union had taken the attitude that the provisions of the Taft-Hartley law took precedence over the state Willey Law. Arrangements had been made for elections under the federal law through the National Labor Relations Board. Some of these elections already have been held. One such election was scheduled for Amory Worsted and Amoskeag Mill employees in Manchester on January 8.

As a result of a ruling handed down by Atty. Gen. Ernest R. D'Amours, Commissioner Riley holds that the state labor law takes precedence over the federal law.

Before proceeding to impose penalties, as provided by law, Commissioner Riley issued a final warning last Friday. Mr. Daoust's letter acquiescing to the state controlled elections will affect about 10,000 textile employees in Manchester, Nashua, Bristol, Claremont, Dover, Enfield, Hillsboro, Lebanon, Newport, Penacook, Suncook and Tilton.

Henniker Basketball Game in Wild and Woolly Finish

HENNIKER, Jan 1 — On Tuesday night, Dec. 23, the Henniker A. A. defeated the Henniker Legion, 50-49, in a wild and woolly finish at the Cogswell Memorial Auditorium in Henniker.

With one second to go in the game, Alan Gould of the Henniker A. A. was awarded two foul shots with the score dead-locked at 49-49. To add to the suspense Gould missed the first one, then taking careful aim, he shot again, and swish, right in. The Legion started to take the ball up-court as the horn sounded the end of the game and the crowd went wild.

The game started with the aspect of a high scoring game as the A. A. jumped into a 10-0 lead before the Legion could find the range. At the end of the first half the A. A. was in front 32-16 and it looked like an easy victory for them. However, the Legion came back in the second half and began to roll up the points and at the end of the third period, the A. A. was in front by only five points, leading 39-34. The Legion kept plugging along and mid-way through the last period took the lead and with one minute to go were still in front 49-45. Then the A. A. came through with two timely baskets to tie up and then Gould came through with the all important foul shot.

The A. A. outscored the Legion in the first half 32-16 with the Legion out in front in the second half 33-18. All in all it was one of the most exciting games played at the Gym. It was a rough and rugged game with a total of 48 fouls being called in the game, the A. A. making 21 fouls, and the Legion had 27 called against them.

AN APPRECIATION

We at the postoffice are deeply grateful for the pleasing editorial, cards, candy and kindly patronage we received at Christmas time just past. We were almost deluged with mail, at one time 50,000 letters passed thru the cancelling machine aside from those that were hand stamped, but Christmas Eve found all mail worked out, the floors swept, and all quite in order for the Friday business and the rush quite over.

We received a very unique calendar from our friend, Mrs. Hutton, who is sojourning in far away Scotland; it represented a herd of cattle coming down from the "Highlands" for water and was finished on a most colorful mat of a scotch plaid design; It was unlike our calendars in the way the numbers were applied.

With appreciation and thanks to all.

Sincerely yours,
Mary L. Doyle, Postmaster.

NOTICE — To Whom It May Concern

"In answer to the many inquiries I have had regarding the saving of oil with power burners in heating equipments I submit these figures that have been given me by Minneapolis Honeywell Company, Manufacturers of oil burner controls. Taking 70 degrees as a working temperature, it takes 4% more oil for 71 degrees — it takes 18½% more for 75 degrees and 36.7% more for 80 degrees. Lowering the night temperature 10 degrees for eight hours saves 12% of oil — for twelve hours, 17½%. This is important to know during the oil shortage and I hope this answers the inquiries."

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Parker of Concord, formerly of Deering, announce the engagement of their daughter, Edith M. Johnson, to Edward Joseph Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Brown of Corinth, New York.

Miss Johnson is the Girls' Physical Education teacher at Corinth High School and a graduate of Plymouth Teachers College '43.

Mr. Brown graduated from Corinth High School and a veteran of four years of service as an electrician in the Navy and now engaged by Cluett, Peabody of Corinth. No date has been set for the wedding.

Uncle Sam Says

Millions of my nieces and nephews are increasing their take-home pay by the simple, automatic Payroll Savings Plan. Let's take one example. Suppose you tell your employer that you want to take $6.25 of your weekly pay in Bonds. In three weeks the accumulation of $18.75 will buy one $25 Savings Bond. Merely by holding these bonds to maturity in 10 years you are raising your take-home income $2.08 every week. It is obvious that the so-called deduction for Savings Bonds is not a deduction but a way for you to store up and increase your earnings for your future use.

Reminiscing in Radio

Broadcasting 25 Years Old in November, 1945

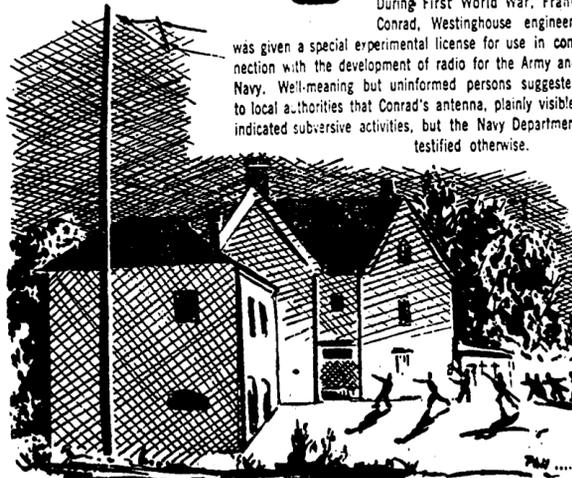

The first "radio wedding" was broadcast by KDKA on November 7, 1922, from a glass booth in Motor Square Garden, Pittsburgh.

In a microphone, sound waves vibrate a thin metal ribbon placed in a magnetic field, generating tiny electric currents which are then amplified.

During First World War, Frank Conrad, Westinghouse engineer, was given a special experimental license for use in connection with the development of radio for the Army and Navy. Well-meaning but uninformed persons suggested to local authorities that Conrad's antenna, plainly visible, indicated subversive activities, but the Navy Department testified otherwise.

bucks to you?
No need of getting lost in the town of Milford now. Someone has erected some signs that are real signs. Other towns take notice. Now you fox and rabbit hunters can take your dogs out without danger of getting them shot. It's a pretty poor sportsman that will shoot a dog, but I know of a few who might if the dogs turned the deer at a critical time. I have heard them tell what they would do but few do it.
Want a nice AKC springer spaniel? I know of two males and the price is right.
Harry A. Smith of Greenfield Road has some fine collie puppies to sell. Nice ones.
If you get your deer you cannot go the next day to dog for your friend. That's assisting and the law says any assistance means a trip to the courts. If you get your deer you can go hunting bob cats, rabbits, foxes, but don't take a rifle with a high powered shell.
Who said it was to be a hard winter? Up to date, my male raccoons come out every day for their feeds. The females have gone in for the winter but the males are still out. Johnny the skunk comes out every morning for his oatmeal and milk. One night last week, a very cold night, a black and white woods pussy came out and gave us a very strong send off. What the reason was for this, we know not. It was too cold for him to be out. Must have run into a big cat or dogs.

SPORTSMEN'S COLUMN

NEW HAMPSHIRE CONSERVATION OFFICER

Franklin Worcester of the home town found a beautiful cock pheasant in his back yard. Its bill had been shot off and how he lived we don't know. He had a band on his leg and was able to walk around. It was an old wound and must have been made in the last pheasant hunting season.
A local trapper had a funny experience. He had some traps set in the Souhegan river for mink. The chain was attached to a long pole and the high water washed the pole away. He went down the river a long way and saw the pole which he pulled in. In the trap was $22 worth of mink. Was that trapper surprised. The trappers this year have been up against it. High water did things to their sets.
Ever see the Angel's Prayer? Well, I got one the other day from the South Bend Tackle Co.
Sat in the other night with the Mrs. at a Christmas party given by the Purgatory Falls Fish and Game Club of Mont Vernon. There was a fine tree and everyone got a present. George Carlton acted as Santa and Rev. Maurice Barrett of Mont Vernon led the carol singing. President Arthur Hazen presided and told of his recent trip to Maine where he got a deer. There were refreshments. A fine time.
Were you ever kicked by a rabbit? Well, don't try it. I did one day last week with bad results. I am still carrying the results on the back of one hand.
How to get rid of worms in small puppies and adult dogs? Chop up an onion very fine and cook with the dog food. Sure cure, according to an old dog man.
Don't go fishing in a boat that's painted white on the bottom. Paint your boats green or brown but not white. An old fisherman told me that a boat painted white on the bottom scares the fish.
The Hopkins Grain people of Greenfield get out a nifty calendar.
The Horse Pond Fish and Game Club are to have a big time at their Club house in Nashua on the North Hollis Rd. They have a new club house.
The winter birds have begun to come around for a hand out and our feeding station was well patronized last week. This is the first time they have been around. Speaking of birds, I never saw so many different kinds as I did one day last week at the feeding stations of Bill Ferguson of Border St., Milford. He also had a nice bunch of Ring Necked feeding every day.
Ice fishing is now the thing. Deer hunting is all over for this season and now they are taking to the ice.
Don't forget that all permits expire with the old year. New permits to hunt, fish and trap. All licensed guides, and permits to keep wild birds and animals.
Would you be interested in a good sized female 3-months-old Labrador Irish setter cross? Should go to a farm home.
Sorry to miss the meeting of the Greenfield Sportsman's Club last week. The speaker was Supt. Mitchell of the Federal Hatchery at Nashua. This club is very active and is planning a huge program for the spring and summer months.
Is your dog a roamer? Do you know what he is up to during his absence from home? Better check on his habits. You never know when you will be called on to pay a big bill for livestock or poultry. Several dogs around town have been seen chasing deer the past week. Is your dog worth a hundred tell us what made that track.

In answer to many letters I will state that I have lost quite a few towns and now I have only the following: Wilton, Lyndeboro, Mont Vernon, Greenfield, Greenville, Mason and Temple. I have served these towns and the ones I lost for 22 years. When I first came back as a Warden I had 44 towns and I went to Bradford and most of the towns between. I wish at this time to thank the many clubs and towns that I have lost. I have had wonderful cooperation in the past and I hope you will give officer Daniels of Milford the same cooperation that you have given me in the past.
Boy, but do they use 'em rough in Vermont. Six hunters were fined $848 for having a small doe in the trunk of their car and transporting it over a state line. This bunch were from Conn.
Never have we seen so many large buck deer killed as this year. The does seem to be hiding up in the swamps and only the buck are traveling.
Looks like the southern part of the state would win out over the northern section in the number of deer shot in 1947. Of course the North run into the fire ban which hurt their kill.
The Wilton Fish and Game Club had a meeting at the banquet hall of the town hall last Wednesday evening. Douglas Chapman, the president, presided. Kenenth Pollock, the secretary, pushed the pen. Planning for the coming season was in order.
Ran into Harry Buttrick, a Mass., conservation officer, the other night. "Hare" has retired from his former position and now is tending to his prize winning beagles. He sure has a barrel full of ribbons and cups galore he has won with his famous string of dogs. Ever see him and his dogs at a bench or field trials? He wins in each class.
It's the biggest thing ever happened. What? The 100th annual Boston Poultry Show to be held January 20-24 at the Mechanics Building. The show has outgrown the Garden. Better run down.
The Peterborough Fly Fishing Club has elected as officers for the next year: C. M. Cummings, president; S. E. Emery, vice president; Howard Pierce, treasurer; W. H. (Bill) Holden, secretary. They hope to plant the pond with big trout in the spring. This club is a live wire club.
The Clinton Savings Bank of Clinton, Mass., and D. M. Eaves of East Jaffrey, sent me some calendars for 1948. Thanks. The Cross Tack Co. of East Jaffrey sent me a fine desk set, memo and calendar for 1948. Double thanks.

The big gun manufacturers come out with a warning. Don't fire up-to-date high power shells in an old gun. These shells are very powerful and these old time guns can't stand the pressure. Many have blown up with fatal results.
On Dec. 21, the U. S. Government declared war on rats and on that date 12,000 field workers all over the U. S. A., went to work. This project was started by the Fish and Wildlife Service and the Extension Service to save grain. Did you contact your county agent for the poison?
Remington has put out a little booklet on a hand trap for shooting sport. It's called "Scoop Shooting." Write for your copy to Bridgeport, Conn.
A new Piper Cub cruiser has been purchased to catch waterfowl trappers in the Chesapeake Bay area. This by the Wildlife Service of the Wildlife Management Institute. Many others are to be put into service to apprehend other game poachers and violators.
Never have we seen so many out of state hunters as this year. Of course, Mass., heads the list, but Conn., and R. I., are close up. Have seen a few from N. Y., and Pa.
If the government campaign works out as they plan, there will be no need of cats of any kind as this new rat exterminator will clean out the mice and rats and then there will be no work for the cats. County Agent Pierce reports a large amount has been used in this county.
By the looks I guess this part of the state will be well supplied with gloves and mittens. Every hunter who got a deer has sent his pelt to Saranac Glove Co. for a pair of gloves. Almost every hunter has sent his deer head and legs to me, also the tail for the disabled G. I.'s at Manchester to make trout flies.
Here is a story from Greenfield. A small girl returning home from school saw a very small fawn deer in the field. She walked out very slowly and patted the deer. Just then a big truck came up the road. The deer made for the woods.
Two dogs put a deer down through the Whiting woods a few nights ago. We are hot on the tail lights of those two deer dogs. Better check on your dogs.
President Douglas Chapman of the Wilton Sportsmen's Club, who lives just outside of the village, found a huge track in the fresh snow in his yard. He took some plaster of paris and made a perfect imprint of the big animal's foot. If you know your footprints I wish you would come to my house and

100 Attend United Dearing Christmas Party

DEERING, Dec. 26 — The first Christmas dinner and entertainment, sponsored by the three organizations, Community Club, Women's Guild and Wolf Hill Grange, was held at the Town Hall, Tuesday, Dec. 23rd, and in spite of the severe snow storm, was attended by over 100 of the townspeople. The dinner served by an efficient committee, consisted of roast turkey with all the fixings at seven o'clock. While the dishes were being done, Rev. Charles Reidt showed a reel of movies in the lower hall and Miss Charlotte K. Holmes told the children two Christmas stories. Then the committee in charge of the dish washing arrived and more movies were shown. Mrs. Norman Lilley presided at the piano with Christmas carols and the audience sang.

Then Santa Claus made his appearance and distributed gifts to all the children, and the adults exchanged gifts.

Mrs. Helen G. Taylor was given $5.00 by one of the men of the Community Club, and had the children guess the amount of money in the envelope. The following children guessed the correct amount, so it was divided between them, Miss Patricia Pierce, Miss Ann Liberty, Robert Lawson, Jr., and George Clark.

It was a very nice party in spite of the storm, and shows what can be accomplished when all work together.

Rocking Chair Tastes Smooth

as Whiskies Rocked in the Keg!

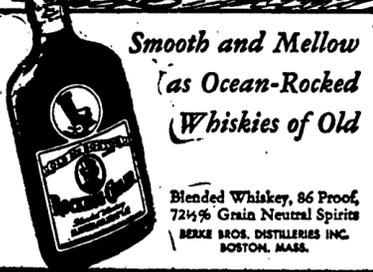

When clipper ships "rounded the Horn" bound for the Orient, barrels of whiskey were stowed aboard... the rolling motion of the waves gave it a deeper, finer flavor!

Shippers learned to achieve that same taste-perfection by rocking kegs beneath their rockers—a taste captured in Rocking Chair!

Not only expert blending, but controlled and even agitation in my special blending process... is the secret of Rocking Chair's famous flavor. You'll agree at first sip!
