Hillsboro's Wild Animal Makes Annual Appearance

HILLSBORO, Aug. 11—A strange looking wild animal is on the rampage again in this section with reports from the hills of Washington village of tracks being seen and cries of a wild animal heard, but Charles Cleveland, a summer resident on the East Washington road, Hillsboro, has first hand information regarding the beast.

Mr. Cleveland was sitting on his front piazza one night recently with a big maltese cat dozing, close by. Suddenly the cat yowled, stood up and seemed to stare out into the fast gathering gloom of night, attracting the attention of his master who saw lurking in the shadows not 60 feet away a large animal with a long tail, standing perfectly still. He took a second look and then ran through the front door to get a gun.

Returning in less than a minute he still saw the animal crouching, fired a shot point blank between the eyes, but evidently missed for the beast suddenly turned and sulked away in the woods nearby before Mr. Cleveland could reload.

It may be the black panther or a near relative or it maybe the bear seen last fall, but just now everybody is having the annual animal story jitters, except Mr. Cleveland who is anxiously awaiting the return of the beast to prove to the city folks back home that he really shot the thing. Walter Shanley has already set traps in this section hoping to catch the animal so vacationists may rest easier at night and come back next summer for more.

Lisabel Gay's Column

JUST MY OPINION

Old Home Day meant only a parade and seeing old friends to me.

I thought it was a very fine parade especially the beginning and the end. I never saw so many veterans together before. The little auxiliary float that followed them with its red poppies and rows of white crosses brought a lump to my throat. I am glad it received first prize. The parade was unusually well spaced until the halt came to let through traffic on Main St.

Gay's and Gould's Wild Minstrels made a hit with their singing as well as their looks, which were decidedly black. Frank's face isn't clean yet. Perhaps that was the reason Frank was so disconcerted that for once he found it difficult to talk when suddenly

Install Officers of Myers-Prescott Post

ANTRIM, Aug. 12—Officers of Myers-Prescott Post No. 50 were installed August 3 by District Vice-Commander, Richard White. Members of the Auxiliary were invited guests.

The new officers are: Commander, Benjamin Griswold; 1st. Vice-Commander, Philip E. Lang; 2nd. Vice-Commander, Robert F. Lang; Adjutant, Harvey Black; Asst. Adj., Stanely Ordway; Finance Officer, Charles Pratt; Sgt. at Arms, Carl Dunlap; Chaplain, Rev. Donald Perron. Arthur English was installed as acting Chaplain as Rev. Mr. Perron is not yet well enough to take up the Chaplain's duties. Historian elect, Harold Miner, was unable to be present and will be installed at a later date.

New Hampshire Ballot May Be Largest Ever

By Enoch Shenton

It's a little premature to comment about the November election while the primary campaign is just getting started. But it already looks as though New Hampshire would have the biggest election ballot in its history. In making up the November ballot, Secretary of State Enoch D. Fuller will award the prized left-hand column to the GOP, because it captured the largest proportion of votes in the 1946 election—that's according to law. The second column, of course, will go to the Democrat.

From there on, it's anybody's guess how long and how wide the November ballot will be. Other parties can get on the ballot by getting 1,000 individual petitions for the nominations of their candidates for President, Governor, senator and so on down the list. Norman Thomas, who has been Socialist candidate for President for many a year, will be back on the N. H. ballot again, probably in the third column. His party is now gathering the necessary signatures for his nomination by petition.

The Socialist-Labor party, which hasn't been on the ballot here since 1898, plans to place before the voters the name of its presidential nominee, Edward A. Teichert. They secured their blank petitions from Deputy Secretary of State Harry E. Jackson the other day. Henry Wallace's Progressives got their petition campaign started a month ago, and are practically assured of a place on the November ticket. Ralph E. Meras of Exeter is reported to have obtained blank petitions to get the Prohibition party's nominees on the ballot.

That makes six parties Secretary Fuller probably will have to shuffle around on the November ballot. And somewhere he'll have to find space for five questions dealing with amendments to the state constitution, approved at the May convention.

The 3 per cent Requirement

The Republicans and Democrats, as "regular" parties, nominate their candidates at the primary in September. Other parties don't have this privilege, because the statute requires a party to get three per cent of the entire vote for governor at an election to qualify for a primary at the following election. No party except the Republican and Democratic ever gets more than three per cent of the vote for governor.

Open Lower Village Chimney Corner Gift House

HILLSBORO, Aug. 12—Chimney Corner Gift and Guest House in Hillsboro Lower Village is now open. It is the former Mathews' homestead, located on Route 9, between the 1830 House and Oski's Blacksmith Shop.

Miss Gertrude L. Davis, of Winchester, Mass., the proprietor and her father have purchased the properity and plan later to make this their permanent home.

In the Gift House you will find unusual gifts; handmade jewelry, hand carved animals, imported china miniatures for collectors, art supplies, cards, stationary, games and the View Master with four hundred reels.

Although Miss Davis specalizes in the making of gold and silver jewelry she also makes articles of pewter and copper.

In Winchester, Mass., Miss Davis is also conducting a business which she calls The Hobby and Crafts Nook. Here she carries about the same line of jewelry and gifs. In her studio connected with her shop she teaches jewelry and other crafts.

You are cordially invited to come to Chimney Corner to see the Gift House and meet Miss Davis and her father.

Messenger To Sponsor Baby Picture Contest

HILLSBORO, Aug. 12—The publishers of the Hillsborough Messenger announce a contest to select the most photogenic baby in Hillsboroland. The winner and runner-ups will receive a $25 Savings Bond and other prizes given by the contest sponsors.

Each week our readers will choose from a panel of Hillsboroland youngsters the picture which they think the most photogenic.

Edmund Benoit, proprietor of Edmund's Studio in the Upper Village, who has recently moved with his family to our town will take the pictures for the contest. Mr. Benoit is a World War II vet, is an experienced photographer of children and has been employed in his chosen field in Boston, Mass., and in Berlin, N. H., where he aided the Berlin newspaper in the sponsoring of a baby contest.

Mr. Benoit said that the winner need not necessarily be the most beautiful baby but only the most photogenic. The readers of this paper will determine who this will be in their weekly votes. Each week, beginning next week, a panel of eight youngsters will be pictured in the paper. From each week's group a winner will be selected and during the final week of the contest, the weekly winners will be published. From this final group the winner and runner-ups of the contest will be chosen.

In addition to Hillsboro youngsters, the contest will also feature Henniker and Antrim younsters. All wishing to enter the contest may do so by making arrangements with Mr. Benoit, Hillsboro Upper Village 10-21.

Church Home Day In Antrim Center

ANTRIM, August 12—Church Home Day will be observed next Sunday, August 15, at the Antrim Center Congregational Church. Preceding the preaching service there will be a social hour. The church is fortunate in securing Rev. F. W. Alden, Conference Minister for the service which will be at 10:30. There will be special music.

At 12:00 a basket lunch will be enjoyed, the ladies of the church will furnish coffee. Following this there will be greetings from friends and former members.

All are welcome.

BENNINGTON

Don't forget the Grange Fair August 14 at Mrs. Josephine Wallace's on Greenfield Rd. Food, fancy work, aprons, grabs, beano, turtles, etc. Good attractions. Come and see.

Old Home Sunday in the Congregational Church August 29. Special music, everything special, especially the welcome home.

Mrs. Frances Harrington was a visitor in town from Massachusetts recently.

Steve Yakovakis, who sustained a bad cut on his foot is reported as gaining. It was a bad one. Steve, nevertheless, still presided in the barber shop.

The news from James McLaughlin is of slow improvement.

Thousands Enjoy Old Home Day In Hillsboro

HILLSBORO, Aug. 12—Not the longest parade ever in Hillsboro but a parade with top-notch floats delighted townspeople and their friends Saturday.

What the parade lacked in participation it made up for in the quality of its floats and the performances of three bands and the marching groups.

Leading the parade as marshall was Donald Dumais, son of William Dumais, genial Hillsboro promoter. Following were the Legion and V.F.W. color guards and representatives of the Veterans organizations, town departments and their equipment, and the Hillsboro Military band. Groups that participated in the parade, not listed in order of their appearance were as follows:

Hillsboro Feed Co. float, Merrimack Farmers Exchange float, Telephone Co. truck, Hillsboro Cleaners truck, Camp Morgan float, the P.X. float, the Legion Auxiliay float, the Grange float, the Anti-Progressive Party float, Insecticide Co. truck, Moose Marching corps, Women of the Moose float, George Edwards' horse drawn carriage, Herb Yeaton's Antique float, Well Sweep float, Georgianna Gile's float, Utility Gas Service float, small float by Cy Phelps, Hillsboro Lumber Co. float, Hillsboro Hosiery Mill float, Hillsboro Woolen Mill float, Gray's Farm float, E. C. and W. L. Hopkins Co. float, Boynton's float, Square Mkt. float, Proctor's float, N. H. Forestry and Recreation Commission float, Boardman's float, Gerini's Ice Cream Parlor float, Hillsboro Fire Department trucks, the town grader, Forest Fire truck, four Woodbury and Son ambulances and hearse, Blanche's Remnant Shop float, Ellsworth's Pepsi-Cola and Fuel Oil trucks, Tasker's float, Maxine's Beauty Shop float, Horses from Lower Village, etc.

Float Lambasts Progressives

Other delegations and floats were from the Manchester Girl Scouts, Contoocook Valley Paper Co., International Brotherhood of Paper Makers, Union A F of L, Tetley Tea truck and the V.F.W. float.

The float entitled "If the Progressive Party Wins" caused much favorable comment as did the V.F.W. float lambasting the 80th. Congress and its record for housing. The horribles proved to be hilarious, especially the baby sitting series.

The Hillsboro, Peterborough and Weare Bands and the Keene Girls' Drum and Bugle Corps led sections of the parade.

After it was all over Col. S. J. Sutherland, Walter Eccles, Valley Hotel proprietor, and F. L. Putnam of Melrose, float judges declared the winners to be the Legion Auxiliary float with the Gay and Gould Minstrels and Boardman's store as runners-up.

Following the big parade there was a concert by the Weare band at Grimes Field. Paul S. Scruton, master of ceremonies, introduced former U. S. Rep. Sherman Adams of Lincoln, who spoke.

The Peterborough town band gave a concert following the speaking and a sports program for children was given with Louis

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Bubbins who have been visiting at George Dodge's for a week, are on a trip to Lebanon, N. H., and Old Orchard, Me.

Several from here attended the Old Home Day celebration in Hillsboro Saturday. Weare Band played in the parade and for the concert in the afternoon.

Plans are all set for Old Home Day August 14, all day and evening. A beautiful new Welcome to Weare banner is now displayed near Stubbe's store. Hope Mr. Weatherman sends good weather. Programs are ready for distribution in several parts of the town to all.

The Weare W.C.T.U. met at Nellie Flanders' last Wednesday P. M. The regular routine of business was attended to and the devotionals led by Vice-Pres. Nellie Flanders. Lunch was served by the hostess. The next regular meeting will be held September 1st. at Julia Reade's.

Weare Community Club met at Ruby Sargent's last Thursday for the day. The regular meeting was led by the President and they sewed on crepe paper for the float for Old Home Day and future plans for the day completed. The next meeting will be at Mrs. John Whittaker's September 1, for the day.

Weare Grange held its regular meeting Friday night at the Town Hall. In the absence of the Lecturer, the agricultural program was in charge of the Secretary, Gladys Waterman that included vocal solos by Marietta Purington, reading by Blanch Gunn and Edith Turner, and accordian music by Fred Drury, and songs by the Grange, also a quiz by worthy Sec. A box lunch followed with Reg Hollis as auctioneer.

Last Thursday night the Sr. Girl Scouts held a successful whist party in Grange Hall. There were 10 tables in play and a fine lunch served. Dancing followed in the Town Hall until 11:30. Another whist party will be held next Thursday, August 12, and every Thursday night until further notice with lunch, prizes, and dancing, sponsored by Weare Grange.

Last Sunday night several friends met at Rev. and Mrs. Kamp's for a song service. There were several guests present and a fine lunch served by the Misses Kamp. Another sing next Sunday night at 8 o'clock.

Harold Horne, Progressive Candidate To Speak Here

HILLSBORO, Aug. 12—Harold Horne, University of New Hampshire student of Berlin, N. H. Progressive Party candidate for Congress, 2nd district will address a gathering on Hillsboro's Main Street on the evening of August 19 at seven o'clock.

Announcement of Mr. Horne's campaign plans made by the Progressive Party of N. H., revealed that Horne plans to address gatherings in 66 cities and towns within the next three months. His campaign will be made in the open air, in a car equipped with a public address system and will extend, not only over the State's main highways, but also over the back roads.

"Our aim in planning this tour", Horne said, "is to bring the peace—prosperity—abundance program of the Progressive Party before every voter. We don't have the money for expensive newspaper ads or radio time. What we do have is a principled program that will win the support of all citizens. We aim to take our program out to the factory gates, into the village squares, onto the neighborhood street corners—wherever the people are. The old parties limit their campaign to a few major cities and a few major speeches. We're going into all the small towns as well, and explain to everyone what we stand for."

Horne, who is the youngest Progressive Party candidate for national office in the '48 elections, reached the legal minimum age only 13 days before the N. H. Progressive Party Convention, which nominated him. He served as an infantry lieutenant during World War II, receiving the Bronze Star, Silver Star, Purple Heart with cluster, and European Theater Ribbon with 5 campaign stars. He was born in Berlin, N. H., graduated from High School there, and recently became a member of its local 70, Pulp, Sulphite and Paper Mill Workers, AF of L. Horne studied at the University of Chicago and at the School of Foreign Service of Georgetown University, Washington, D. C. He is at present attending the University of New Hampshire, where he is active in the A. V. A. and the Liberal Club.

BANDED APRON IS SIMPLE TO SEW

YOUR best dress is safe from spots behind this pretty apron. You can make it without a pattern from straight pieces of pastel cotton and bands of polka dot material. If you have enough aprons for yourself on hand, make some for gifts. Directions for cutting and sewing this BIB APRON may be obtained by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Department of this paper, requesting Leaflet No. E 990.

Stuffed Horse Makes Inexpensive Toy

THIS calico colt makes a gentle and inexpensive pet for your youngster. His flowered coat requires only twelve inches of fabric and for stuffing, some cotton batting or kapok. A wool tail and mane and legs that really move are the features that will delight the small fry. A cutting pattern and directions for making STUFFED HORSE may be obtained by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Department of this paper requesting Leaflet No. S 14-3.

About 10 per cent more nitrogenous fertilizers will be available to farmers in the coming year than last year.

asked to announce that Miss Ellen Baldwin had been elected Miss Hillsboro, at the street dance.

The following item about a former Hillsboro boy was taken from the Masonic News-Letter on an article entitled "To Whom we Owe Much."

"Ill. Ralph Haywood Sleeper, 33 degree, is the Dean of the Staff with a record of 27 years. He was private Secretary to Ill. Leon M. Abbott, 33 degree during his 11 years as Sovereign Grand Commander, worked with Ill. Frederick B. Stevens 33, degree Acting Grand Commander for one year, and has been with Ill. Melvin M. Johnson, 33 dgeree for 15 years.

In one sense, the "front office" is a world of its own. The Masonic contacts of the Sovereign Grand Commander are worldwide, plus his responsibilities to the Supreme Council and his own personal affairs. The service rendered by Ill. Bro. Sleeper is highly confidential but his coleagues realize that he carries an unusually heavy load of detail.

Fortunately, he is endowed with his native New Hampshire poise, maintains an attractive bachelor apartment on Commonwealth Avenue, and enjoys his avocations of cooking, art, and music."

Mrs. Bessie Whitcomb returned on Saturday to her teaching at the Daniel Webster School.

Miss Mildred Moore of Woburn, Mass., was a week-end guest of Mrs. James Leach.

A few of the former residents and friends of Hillsboro in town for Old Home Day who called on me were Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Reed and his sister from Warner, he was formerly manager of Valley Hotel; Mr. and Mrs. George Farwell of Nashua, Mrs. Lillie Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman of Woodsville, Mr. and Mrs. John McGreevy of Providence, R. I., Mr. and Mrs. Elburton Farrar of Henniker. Others I know who were in town were the LaFlamme family of Woonsocket, R. I., Miss Bernice Derby of New York City, Mrs. Wallace Gaddas and son of Whitingsville, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Callahan of Boothbay, Me., Mrs. Ethel Huntoon Carpenter of Henniker.

Miss Margaret Cauley of Boston was the guest of Ellen McClintock for a week, then Ellen went home with her for a brief visit.

Mrs. Charles Reekie returned to Billerica, Mass., on Sunday, accompanied by Mrs. Ernest Marcy, Miss Lora Craig, Frank Gay and Mr. Hilliard as chauffeur.

Miss Julia Honeywell arrived in Brattleboro, Vt., from Washington, D. C. at 2 A. M. on Saturday. Her father drove through the fog to meet her and after a sketchy night's sleep in the cabin in the well piece, they came to see the parade. Mosquitoes and flies are less friendly now they have a screened-in porch.

Mrs. Ethel Peaslee, Laura Craig, Angie Marcy and Mrs. Ernest Marcy attended the New London Hospital day and parade Tuesday with Frank Gay as chauffeur.

The Gay and Gould Minstrels, winners of the second prize in the float competition gave their winnings of $15.00 to young "Bonnie" Meade, mascot of the group, for her future education.

"FROSTY FOODNOTES"

Is your garden sprouting tender young ears of corn? If not, it probably will soon. Be sure you use only those tender ears which are perfect when you put some in your locker. Your care in selection now will pay off in luscious corn next winter. And remember it's wise to pack just enough for one meal in each box, so it can be cooked and eaten immediately.

The State House Journal

by Ruth Stanton

Parties that fall short of the three per cent requirement can get on the final ballot by petition only—they must file 1,000 signatures from legal voters before Sept. 23. The Wallace Progressive party is reported to be shooting for this three per cent figure in 1948 in order to be elegible to hold a primary in 1950. As the vote for Governor in November isn't likely to exceed 250,000, the Progressives have their sights set on a 7,500-vote mark this year. Even if they don't elect anybody this year, they'll be satisfied to get enough votes to qualify as a "regular" party in future primaries, party workers indicate.

Young GOP Goes Social

Their serious campaigning necessarily deferred until after Sept. 14, the Young Republicans will have an informal get-together Saturday at The Weirs. About 500 of the under-35 party aides will observe V-J Day with a moonlight sail on Lake Winnipesaukee. The party is expected to mark the first public appearance in New Hampshire of the new Mrs. Charles W. Tobey. She and the senator are listed among the invited guests. Also in the party will be Senator and Mrs. Styles Bridges, the latter also a comparative newcomer to the state's social and political circles.

Miss Christine Perry of Somersworth is chairman for the moonlight sail. Her aides includes Ned Pearson of Hanover, John S. Stebbins of Lebanon, William Maynard of Plymouth, Mrs. Walter Sterling of Hillsboro, Avis Cross of Durham, George Manuel of Kearsarge, Alvah Sulloway and Philip Dunlap of Concord, James P. Lynch of Exeter, Wesley Powell of Portsmouth, Mrs. Arnold Shea of Keene, Warren Brewster of Laconia, William Plummer and Charles Constantine of Dover, Ann Lonergan of Portsmouth and Robert Allard of Manchester.

About New Hampshire

Rockingham racetrack opens its 16th season next Monday, as the New England racing war gets under way. "Old Rock" will compete for the cash customers with Narragansett and Lincoln Downs in Rhode Island, which have scheduled racing to conflict with the New Hampshire track. The Rockinham meet will last 84 days, making it the longest in New Hampshire history. The experts figure state revenue from the pari-mutuel tax will drop as a result of the racing war, may net the state treasury only $2,250,000 this year.

Commissioners appointed by Governor Dale to lay out a new highway from the Massachusetts state line to Salem, to serve patrons of Rockingham Park, don't like the looks of the project. It is reported they will recommend abandonment of the proposal, because land damages and construction costs are more than the job is worth. The road was designed to relieve traffic congestion at the highway "bottleneck" in Salem.

The new seacoast superhighway, biggest construction project of the Dale administration, probably will be started next spring. Linking the interstate toll bridge at Portsmouth with the turnpike at the Bay State line, it is expected to cost the state about $7,000,000. The commission to lay out the highway and settle land damages is reported to have nearly finished buying all the land needed for the superhighway right-of-way.

The N. E. Telephone company apparently is satisfied with the rate increase granted by the state Public Service commission Aug. 1. At least it has made no move yet to apply for rehearing of its rate request which originally asked for $1,540,000 a year in additional income. The PSC went halfway, have the company $730,000. Unless the company filed for a rehearing before the Aug. 20 deadline set by law, it cannot appeal to the courts as it did a year ago when it was dissatisfied with the PSC ruling on a previous rate increase. At present, New Hampshire phone users are paying $2,330,000 a year more for their service than they did in 1946.

Ansel N. Sanborn of Wakefield, Oren V. Henderson of Durham and Fred A. Jones of Lebanon, all former speakers of the House and Republicans, are among the 210 veteran members of the General Court seeking re-election this year. Two Berlin women who both outrank others of their sex in seniority of service, are running for re-election to the House. They are Mrs. Elizabeth Mason, a Democrat and Mrs. Hilda C. F. Brungot, a Republican. Both seek their eighth term. Dr. George H. Nash of Concord, dean of the House, seeks his 13th term this year.

Revenue from liquor sales and beer taxes continues to be a mainstay of state finances. The Liquor Commission reported net income of $3,592,000 in the fiscal year ending June 30. That's $333,000 less than the state's profit on liquor sales and beer taxes last year, but still is $242,000 more than the Legislature figures in drawing up the 1948 budget.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To The Editor:

With reference to your article re the No Trespass-signs on blueberry pastures, I think it might interest many people to hear the other side of the picture. I quote from your article:—"Hundreds of quarts of blueberries go to waste because some new owner reserves the right to a few quarts and lets hundreds go to waste on the bushes, say old-timers who eat what they can and can what they don't eat, to cut the cost of living."

If there were no "No Trespassing" signs on our own blueberry patch, I can assure you that no old-timers would be able to cut the cost of living either by eating or canning. Until the No Trespassing signs were put up, out of state cars came at the rate of six or seven a day, more on Sundays: that amounts to approximately thirty-five pickers, since the more people you bring, the more blueberries you get. Without the signs, there is no legal way to get rid of these people. Besides this, there are a few local peole who pick to sell, leaving little for other people.

The people of this neighborhood who are accustomed to pick blueberries here, go in and pick their blueberries and are not charged for them, the only limitation imposed being that the picking is fairly distributed among all.

Allowing a blueberry patch to go to waste through entirely restricting it, is obviously wasteful and selfish. To restrict it in the interests of the neighbors as well as oneself is a different matter. And there is another item. The neighborhood is more concerned about preserving its forests than the out-of-stater, who has nothing to lose from the results of careless smoking. When you have seen a lighted cigarette thrown into the underbrush by a "foreigner", you feel that a No Trespassing sign might be rather a good idea,— — particularly after last summer.

Yours truly,
Edith S. Baker

TIME — PLACE — FACT

by Jeanne Eccles

Summer is a season of comings and goings, just two weeks ago Alice Olson and Miriam O'Keefe were welcomed and now they are on their way home again. Joyce Guild and Francis Rigney, Jr., are also back in the fold and this week Wednesday we hope to have talented young Richard Annis with us, along with his operatic studies he finds time to play a bit with painting.

Last Saturday Evening the block in front of the Valley Hotel was the scene of the final colorful event of Hillsboro's Old Home Week, soft music, clear weather, a special moon, and a grand crowd made the outdoor dance just a perfect ending to an exciting week.

The Permanent Committee on Arts-Crafts- and Hobbies of the Monadnock Region has arranged for the First Annual Monadnock Region Art Exhibit in Marlboro, N. H., in the Community House there. It will be open to the public, Saturday, August 13 through 19th, every day from 10 to 12 A. M., 2 to 6 P. M. and 7 to 10 P. M. More than 100 paintings will be hung and no more than three by any one artist. Lets have as many as possible attend the exhibit from Hillsboro—Plan now to take an afternoon's drive and drop in at the Community House in Marlboro and look over the work done by artists in our particular section of N. H., and Remember the Hillsboro Art Club Meets every Wednesday Evening in the Cellar Studio of the Valley Hotel, 8 to 10 P. M., with Mr. Stuart Bruce as instructor. Come and work with us or come and watch us work.

Old Home Week Carnival

This paper has been hesitant to criticize the type of Carnival that performed at Grimes Field during Old Home Week. First of all we did not want to harm the plans of the parade committee and the other committee endeavors by adverse comment. Secondly, the Carnival revealed itself in all its nakedness, only after it got here.

However, from what we have been able to learn, the type of shows given were indecent to say the least. As for the noise from the blaring loud-speakers, we wonder if the proceeds to the local committee were worth the punishment inflicted on nearby residents.

We would suggest that henceforth only one carnival be allowed in town each year and that it be first inspected by the clergy, the town officials and other civic groups.

If Hillsboro people want to throw their money away, the state already provides a method for doing so at Rockingham.

Somehow we prefer the type of Old Home Day that our Deering neighbors are planning.

No Less Than Six

No less than six (three for the Messenger and three for the Reporter) long statements for the Progressive Party arrived in the mail this week. In addition, two people made the editor a personal visit with a release regarding the street campaign meeting Harold Horne, Progressive candidate is having in Hillsboro, August 19.

We understand that Mr. Horne has been given permission by the selectmen to hold this meeting and it is only fair that he be allowed to do so. It must take a bushel basket of money to send emissaries to 66 N. H. cities and towns, to hire a sound system, hillbillies and a group of mimeograph operators. Certainly Uncle Sam isn't donating the postage stamps. At the same time Mr. Horne condemns the old parties for the use of radio and advertisements.

Mr. Horne also announced that his speech will be of short duration to allow for a long question period. One of the questions he should be asked is whether he approves of Henry Wallace's silence about Russian militarism while condeming United States expenditures.

SPORTSMEN'S COLUMN

by GEORGE S. PROCTOR

NEW HAMPSHIRE CONSERVATION OFFICER

Phone 104 Wilton, N. H.

Up in Newport, Vt., the bear are very plentiful and are doing a lot of damage. One man lost a cow, another farmer lost five young stock the same week. If they are acting that bad keep them there. We don't want 'em.

The other day I took a nice long ride with Daniels. We visited the sporting goods shop of Zimmerman Bros. in Keene. I was much impressed with the sign over the door. Zimmerman Emporium, The House of Jumbled-Up-Genius. The fellow that printed that sign was 100 per cent correct. I never have seen such a collection of supplies for Fishermen and Hunters. Why they even sell live bait, Motorcycles, Outboards. If you live 10 miles from Keene you want to visit this place. You would get a big thrill if you like to fish and hunt. Bill was out but we did meet John. A young fellow fixed my Outboard in about ten minutes and it went off like a house afire. Those fellows in that outfit sure know their stuff.

Did you ever visit the Fresh Air camp at Greenfield where 200 girls spend two weeks and then 200 boys spend two weeks from Nashua. Daniels and I went up the other day and Miss Margaret Q. Doyle of Nashua was the perfect hostess. She showed up the outfit and even invited us to supper. They have a fine layout and this year the improvement over last year is very noticeable. Better run up and see for yourself.

Listen to this one. Up in Fitzwilliam lives William Lynch and under his house lives a big woodchuck. The other day three baby woodchucks were playing on the front lawn. Suddenly two neighbor dogs came into the yard to call. The small chucks hustled for the house. Just then Mother Chuck appeared on the scene and she gave those two dogs the Bum Rush and they made a fast trip home. She chased them out of sight of Mr. Lynch. He says he never saw such a sight before. The neighbor's dogs give Mr. Lynch's front yard a wide berth now.

The other day I got an SOS from my side kick, Daniels, that a friend of his was opening up an eating place in a nearby town. He had skunk trouble. I felt bad for the fellow as a cat was stirring up things. Well, I went down with a box trap. Nothing doing. Then I took down a Have-a-heart trap. Open wire. Well, I got the baby the first night. Then the question was Who will take her out? No one dared to as the wire was open and she could see you. Well she'd dug so much dirt into the trap that she could not scent if she wanted to so it was a case of taking her (50 pounds of dirt and all) and giving her a ride. No bad effects. A family of three survive her. O yes, she is still alive but many miles away from the new Cafe.

Are you a skeet shooter? Well, over 400 of them did attend the big Championship shoot held June 16 at Lordship, Conn. If you are interested in Skeet better send for their little booklet at 1600 Rhode Island Ave., N. W., Washington (6) D. C.

Believe it or not but we, Daniels and I planted 8,000 horn pout in lakes in this neck of the woods. They were fry but will grow.

Sunday I watched a man sitting in a boat near an island. I watched him for some time and found out he was not fishing but picking berries from the boat. The best berries grow out over the water. I did the same thing years ago at Burton Pond. Nicest berries I ever saw.

We are not the only ones who have deer damage this year. George Stobie of Maine reports the damage in his State is heavy this year.

Two hundred Hungarian Partridge eggs were received from Denmark by the Ohio State University the other day to be hatched and used in propagation work. They arrived in fine condition via Air Express.

Michigan has distribution to Sportsmen's clubs. Farmers and 4 "H" workers. 87,000 ring neck pheasant eggs for hatching, rearing and release. Why not this state?

The white heron better known as egret invaded the Federal Hatchery at Nashua to the number of 19. At Milford a pair were seen at the Don Holt Farm. At Wilton a pair were seen at Proctor's pond and Harland Holt of Milford saw several at Hancock on the Contoocook river while fishing. Supt. Mitchell of the Federal Hatchery said he never knew them to come as far North as this. Several years ago I saw seven on the Contoocook river opposite the farm of William Curtis at Hancock.

Some one writes me to know what kind of a paper to get to tell about fancy preasant raising. As no name was signed I will have to tell him here. Go to your News Agent and buy a copy of Modern Game Breeding, edited at Doylestown, Pa., by the Gardy Print. This magazine gives you all the dope you want to know.

One farmer told me the other day that he cleaned up a mile by his residence and he reports that if it was not for the drinkers and the smokers our highways would be much cleaner. A bushel of beer cans at one cleaning. He says it's too bad they don't have a law to make them return the bottles and cans. But then he added there are too many laws now.

A camper on one of our larger lakes reports that one Sunday he counted 21 small and large Out-Board motors on his lake and only one showed a license plate. He wanted to know why we Wardens did not enforce that law. It's up to the inspectors of the Public Service Commission to enforce that law.

In Pennsylvania there were 3751 wild turkeys bagged in 1947, a big gain over 1946 which was 2518. Mississippi purchased 600 pen raised quail at a cost of $4,200 and released in sections where badly needed. N. Y. state took 4328 beaver pelts worth $200,000.

Have you paid your dog tax for

PROCTOR'S COLUMN

1948? After July 1 the Selectmen notify the County Solicitor and he sends the Sheriff over and Boy, these men don't work for their health.

Judge Cheever of Wilton had a little encounter with a mad ruffed grouse. She had a bunch of babies and she just did not like to have the Judge around. She flew at his car giving the family a chance to get under cover. She did not feign lameness just was plum mad.

John Burke of the home town gets home from work at midnight. The other night his wife told him that a black and white woods pussy had a glass bottle on its head. John took his hoe and very carefully broke the bottle and Mr. Skunk went down over the bank in a hurry and forgot to reward John with a single (S)cent. John was well satisfied.

Got a call some time ago to take a bottle off a skunk on the Intervale road. It was in the wee hours. Just as I approached the animal he lifted his head and with a mighty jump brought the glass jar down on the tarvia road and smashed it in a million pieces. He walked off leaving me to pick up the broken glass. I was well satisfied to do it and not get peppered. There is not much danger if you work them very carefully. No swift motion, no loud talk, if you can sing it helps—but very quietly.

They are having a wonderful time down at Martha's Vineyard catching Striped Bass. When you can catch a bass that goes over 40 pounds that's fishing. Valuable prizes are to be awarded later in the season.

Are you a Bowman? Archery is having a great run just now in this State. The N. H. Bowman has taken in a large number of new members in the past month. Most of these from Lone Pine Hunters' Club Inc., of Nashua. Dave Mason of Manchester is Secy-Treas. and a live wire in the organization.

I witnessed a fine parade at Greenville the other night. Over a hundred young people were in the parade which showed the wild man, the wild animals and after they put on a real circus at the Playground. They have an expert teacher and several times a week he takes them to Caswell pond in Temple where he teaches them to swim. Other towns should take a tip from Greenfield. Chief Bossiee led the parade to give that official touch.

Sunapee Chair Lift To Operate In November

Albert S. Carlson, Executive Secretary, of the Dartmouth Lake Sunapee Region Association said this week that the Sunapee ski development will be ready for operation November 15th, according to information given by the New Hampshire Highway Department.

"This seems like a conservative statement b he Highway Department, because at the present time the trails are practically all clear of trees, the two-lane access road from Route 103 will be finished this week, the parking area has most of the loam striped off and will be in good condition in another ten days, the bids are out for the beautiful modern base station and several of the towers are already embedded in their concrete foundations", Carlson said.

Impetus was given to the development of operational policies during the last two weeks, when the Dartmouth-Lake Sunapee Region directors appointed a Sunapee Committe to work with the Forestry and Recreation Commission and the new management. The committee has already made out a long list of recommendations and met with the Forestry and Recreation Commission. These meetings will continue in the future. The Forestry and Recreation Commission are accepting applications for manager of the project, and will select him in the near future.

Many lodging and hotel operators have decided to stay open for the new winter business, and others are in the process of conversion.

In Lieu Of Flowers

Instead of sending flowers upon the death of a relative or close friend, more and more people are following the thoughtful custom of making a contribution to some favorite charity in the name of the deceased, as a living tribute to his or her memory.

Friends of Children's Aid may be glad to know that we are prepared to handle and make suitable notification of such gifts. The formal card we send to the bereaved family reads: "In tribute to the memory of (name of the deceased) a contribution dedicated to the service of children has been given by (name of donor) to the New Hampshire Children's Aid Society."

In making memorial gifts to Children's Aid, please be sure you indicate the name (s) to which the card should be addressed, as well as the name in whose memory the gift is made and the name (s) of the donor (s).

The Flying Red Horse

SPANS U.S.A.

Known to Millions of Motorists from Coast-to-Coast— the Famous Flying Red Horse is the Nation's Symbol of Petroleum Quality and Friendly Service!

IT ALL STARTED HERE!

17 years ago, the Flying Red Horse stood for "SOCONY"—Standard Oil Company of New York—and New York and New England were known as "SOCONYLAND"

Then SOCONY merged with VACUUM and the Flying Red Horse grew to span the nation.

Socony-Vacuum is an independent company not affiliated with any Standard Oil Company operating in the U. S. A., and is in direct and vigorous competition with them!

Seventeen years ago, we were the Standard Oil Company of New York (Socony) and the Vacuum Oil Company. The trade name "SOCONY" appeared on service stations, pumps, trucks, throughout New York and New England.

With the union in 1931 of SOCONY and VACUUM a far greater oil company emerged—united the famous products of both companies under the Flying Red Horse trade-mark—rapidly expanded from Coast-to-Coast.

Today, in order to eliminate any possible confusion in the public's mind with other users of the name "Standard", Socony-Vacuum has dropped the name from the few remaining products which have carried it.

The main point is this: Today the Flying Red Horse has outgrown its "Native Socony-land" and the name "Standard".

Today, our trade-mark stands for Socony-Vacuum—the Mobil line of Automotive Products, Mobilgas, Mobiloil, Mobilubes, Mobil Specialties, Mobil Tires, Mobil Batteries and Accessories—for Tavern Candles—for Mobilheat and Mobil-flame—for Process Products and the world-famous line of Gargoyle Industrial and Marine Lubricants!

The Flying Red Horse is your guarantee of a leading petroleum product from a leader in the progressive petroleum industry!

Mrs. A. C. A. Perk has returned from a visit to Dexter, Maine.

Dr. Daniel A. Poling is writing a column entitled "Americans All" for the Manchester Union. Dr. Poling is at present at his summer home in Deering.

Mr. Roger Anderson driver of a Chevrolet pickup truck from Londonderry left the road at West Main St., at the embankment near the River House about 9:30 Sunday night. The car was a complete smashup and was removed from the river's edge by Dude Kemp's derrick. It was reported that the driver was only slightly injured, as was Mrs. Johnson who was also in the truck.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hall and children were the week-end guests of Mr. Hall's mother, Mrs. George S. Hall.

Mrs. Lillian Garafoli and family from Concord, visited a few days last week, with Mr. Joseph Garafoli.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wheeler and family of Milford, were in town "Old Home Day", as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Yeaton, Sr.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Morrill Parmenter over Old Home Day were Mr. and Mrs. Edward O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Greene and daughter, Carolyn, all of Providence, R. I.

Misses Barbara and Hazel Groves of Somerville, Mass., visited their mother, Mrs. Gertrude Groves, the past week-end.

Richard W. Withington is in Rutland, Vt., this week arranging for an auction for Jim Hall.

Fred H. Mathews and family of Auburn, Mass., former Lower Village residents, were in town for Old Home Day.

Bernard Dickinson, former Chevrolet dealer in Hillsboro, now of Newport, was in town for Old Home Day. Mr. Dickinson is custodian of the Newport Lodge of the Moose Club Room.

Noel Raoush, proprietor of the Harris Barber Shop in Concord visited in town recently and called on Elton Matthews.

Mrs. Joseph Leazott is working at Crosby's Restaurant.

Eighty year old Arthur M. Burnham of Hopkinton was in town for Old Home Day. At one time he owned a furniture store where the E. F. Devlin store is now located. He also had the Western Union office. Interested in newspapers, Mr. Burnham knew several Messenger Editors of that day. Charles Hutchins, Flanders and Chadwick, and Lewis P. Lincoln were some of the early owners remembered by Mr. Burnham.

A moment of excitement was caused in town Monday afternoon when Red Cross instructors rushed a young lad to Dr. Olson's office for treatment to his injured finger. The boy had been hurt dueling with tonic bottles at Beard Brook pool. It was reported that his finger was severed at the first joint.

The Legion Clubrooms opened Saturday night. Gordon Skinner is custodian.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton L. Matthews and son, Richard, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elton R. Matthews, over the Old Home Day week-end. On Sunday night Mr. and Mrs. Matthews and Barber Matthews enjoyed the midget auto races at Manchester.
