Benevolent Society

Members of the Benevolent Society, and husbands of some of them, enjoyed a picnic supper and the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Derby at their camp on Sunset Lake, Greenfield, last Thursday evening. After the very bountiful supper a game of horse-shoes was played outside and a similar game was enjoyed indoors. Nearly every one went out in the canoes or were given a ride in the motor boat, and all enjoyed the beautiful sunset across the lake and watching the full moon rise.

The tables were crowded with many kinds of salads, cold meats, baked beans, hot rolls, pies and cakes, and the usual picnic fare. All in all it was a very pleasant occasion with about 35 in attendance.

D. A. R. Meeting

The Eunice Baldwin Chapter, D. A. R., held its combination annual meeting and picnic at the home of Mrs. Lottie Harvey on Saturday, June 11, at one o'clock.

A very delectable luncheon of many kinds of salads and all that goes with them was placed on the long table with its white paper covering decorated with the D. A. R. colors, blue and gold, and a centerpiece of small flags.

After the luncheon the meeting was called to order by the Regent, Mrs. Grace Perry. Annual reports were read, and again the question of Bible Hill Cemetery was discussed. It is hoped some work will be done there this summer.

The Chapter has plans for at least three events during the summer. Open House will be held at the Historical Rooms, and also a Card Party will be held at the Pierce Mansion, and Mrs. Harry Thornton will entertain at her home.

The following officers were elected: Regent, Berenice Maynard of Concord; Vice-regent, Grace Perry; Sec., Mildred Wallace; Treas., Lottie Harvey; Registrar, Harriette Grimes; Members of Board, Sta Stock, Ethel Peaslee.

Mrs. Mary Holden gave a most interesting talk on "Historical Churches of New England" naming first, St. John's Church at Portsmouth, and many others besides the Boston Churches.

The message of the President-General was read by Mrs. Mildred Wallace, and Mrs. Katherine Gregg read a short article about the flag of our country.

Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Katherine Gregg and Mrs. Mildred Wallace.

Improvement Club

The Improvement Club held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Sadie Carter last Tuesday evening. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Nora Dennison, Miss Kate Duseau, Mrs. Hazel Chadwick, Mrs. Bertha Elgar, Mrs. Hazel Murdo and Miss Emma Janowsky.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Ione Nelson, and members responded to roll call with a humorous poem or story. A quiz program followed consisting of "Conundrums" and "A Floral Love Story," after which a penny lunch was served, when members made their selection of refreshments from an attractively decorated table holding sandwiches, cakes, cookies, punch, pickles, candy and nuts.

Hillsboro Grange

The regular meeting of Hillsboro Grange was held June 8. Invitations were received from Hudson Grange for June 9; Oak Hill of Franconia for their 75th anniversary on June 15, and for Overseer's Night at Bear Hill of Henniker, July 19.

The devotions were led by Mrs. Poling, the founder of our Guild, who was gratified to hear that we were one of the four associations in Hillsboro County to have won the Achievement Award. Mrs. Poling led us in the desire for truer consecration in the Master's work, reminding us that never was there a time when there was so much need to love our neighbors as ourselves.

Mrs. Clark gave a most interesting survey of how Sunday School work is being carried on for the children in our state, especially in the scattered districts. Also she told of the work among the youth who are learning the true meaning of brotherhood, citing one case of a group so impressed by a colored speaker whose spirit shone through the darkness of his skin, that they felt all men are akin.

Mrs. Rigney served most delicious refreshments. Among them were the cookies, who lightness was due. Mrs. Rigney explained, to their having come through the air from New York. Before leaving we were much interested to see some of the treasures and curios the family had collected.

Weare

Mrs. Irene Flanders CORRESPONDENT

This item is especially for bird lovers. A flock of kill-deer, on their way north, stopped near the home of Joe Brennan, in Weare Center, and have made their home there. A great many people since then have noticed and commented on them. They are a very striking looking bird, with dark backs, black and white stripes around the neck. The birds run very fast, and are at least twice as large as a robin. The bird books say they have a harsh cry, from which they get their name, but when we stopped to see them, the radio in the car was playing soft music, and one bird ran towards the car, stopped, and sang a beautiful song, rivalling that of a canary. It almost seemed to be imitating the music on the radio. We are interested in knowing if anyone else has had this experience. Mrs. Brennan said she had heard only the "kill-deer" cry.

Sunday and the 12th, was Baccalaureate. Sunday, Dr. J. Duane Squires, of Colby Junior College, New London, was the speaker. His subject had to do with the "V's" - Victory and Values, Venturesomeness and Vision. The class of 1949 wore caps and gowns, in the class colors; the girls in gray, and the boys in wine. Class marshals were Diana Colburn and Glendon Drewry, the High and Junior students attended in a group, marching in after the graduates. The church was decorated with early summer flowers, iris predominating. Mrs. Julia Reade, Mrs. Lucille Waterman, and Mrs. Mabel Tremblay arranged them. Class Day is the next on the graduation program. Thursday afternoon followed by graduation Friday night. Miss Gertrude Reade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Reade, is taking a week's vacation from her duties Boston. She is going by Greyhound Bus to Delaware, Ohio, to visit friends, and writes home that it is a 25-hour trip. Ten singers braved the heat Sunday night, and went to Ruby Sargent's house. Mrs. Nettie Flanders was pianist, Oscar Straw, who is back in Weare again, was soloist for the evening, in addition to the group singing. Refreshments were served by the hostess. The Junior High and High School go to Canobie Lake Wednesday, with Mr. Travor, headmaster, and other chaperones. Sympathy is extended to the Flanders family, on the death of Myron Flanders, which occurred Saturday, at the Odd Fellows Home, in Concord. Mr. Flanders was the brother of Alfred Flanders, and the late Mrs. Jennie Hadley, both of Weare. Myron had made his home at times with his brother Alfred, in Cinton Grove, and had many friends in Weare and surrounding towns, as he was a former Grand Union salesman. He had made his home for the past few years in the Odd Fellows Home in Concord, and has been in very poor health. He leaves four children. The funeral was held in Concord, Monday afternoon, and interment was in Henniker.

Mrs. Marian Hodgman and son, Donald, have returned to their home in Weare. The Duxbury family, who have been living in Mrs. Hodgman's house, have moved to Rockland, near East Weare.

The announcement of the Commencement exercises at the Fresno State College, Fresno, Cal., has been received by friends of William Dawson, of Armona, Cal., better known as "Bill." Mr. Dawson is a former University of New Hampshire student, and has many friends in Weare.

The young folks in Weare are getting air-minded. Jane Flanders, who recently received her aviation badge in Girl Scouts, took her first plane ride Saturday at Lake Sunapee, in the seaplane at Davis landing. With her were her mother and Mrs. Muriel Fuller. It was Mrs. Fullers first trip in the air, also, and both she and Jane were very enthusiastic over the ride, which took them all over the Lake, with a wonderful view of the mountains. They were thrilled to hear that they were 1200 feet up in the air, traveling about 110 miles an hour. They got a birds-eye view of the Lake, the Sunapee Mountain and aerial tramway. Jane came home full of information for the school friends.

Weare town team played Penacook, on Sunday; score, Penacook 12, Weare 8. Several from town drove over to see the game.

Weare Community Club, which was to have met this Thursday, at the home of Mrs. Janet Johnson, of East Weare, is postponed until Thursday, June 23, at the same place and time, on account of Class Day.

Mrs. Gladys Hutchins, chairman of the committee of Troop 1 Girl Scouts, and her committee are making plans for the girls to attend the Girl Scout camp, the last two weeks in August. This camp is in Ludlow, Vermont, and at least four girls from Troop 1 will go. This has been made possible because of the interest in the troop and the proceeds from the recent Carnival.

A meeting of the officials of the Sunday School will be held at the home of Mrs. Mabel Tremblay, Thursday night to make plans for Children's Sunday program, June 26.

Rev. Sidney Willis of Andover, N. H., will be the speaker at the North Weare Federated Church, Sunday, June 19th.

The North Weare school will not have a school trip this year, as there are so many cases of measles around. Miriam Osborne has just recovered from them, and a great many other children have been exposed.

Large quantity buying and low country-store overhead enable Eaton's to undersell city stores.

Last summer we made large shipments to Ohio, New York, Pennsylvania and other states.

Summer visitors paid freight and crating, and still saved money at Eaton's.

Now we are scheduling a direct delivery run to New York City in July. We can deliver to your home in New York or on the way, without crating.

Summer visitors who order early will save money and avoid the inconvenience of uncrating.

Visit Eaton's in June.

Children's Day

Children's day was observed by the Methodist Sunday School on Sunday. Small potted geraniums were given to about 25 children. They were asked to tend them carefully during the summer, and bring them back on Rally Day this fall.

Smith Memorial Church observed Children's Day on the previous Sunday and each child present received the same gift of a potted geranium. I wonder how many plants I can report as being shown on Rally Day next fall. Don't forget to water them and we'll see who has the best-looking plant.

See Gerini Has Geriniums Says Uncle Cy Brisket

BY UNCLE CY

I was talking with Ben Brisket when a little boy on his way to school stopped and said, "Hello Mr. Brisket."
"Hello sonny, and what is your name?"
"Jonnie Jones."
"Jonnie Jones," said Ben, "I know three old maids by the name of Jones. Is either of them your mother?"

I went to the minstrel show the night they had it, and asked the usher if he could find me a seat? "He said, I'm sorry Uncle Cy—but the empty ones are all full."
I noticed your ad in the Messenger, wanting an organist and music teacher, either lady or gentleman. Having been both for several years, I offer you my services. Call 00-0.

Sue Smith had quite a brush with a salesman one day last week. I asked her what it was about? Said he was too full of ambition. See by the paper that Gerini, has some Geriniums set out.

After the furnace has stopped to eat That big supply of coal; After I have figured out How much I'm in the hole. 'Tis then I get my tackle out And test the line and reel; And grease the joints on the pole. The flavor, I can feel. And when the law is off on trout, You'll find me on a brook; Fishing here, and fishing there, Trying every nook. When a "Speckled" takes the bait, And reel begins to sing; The furnace is forgotten then. Oh Boy! Hurrah! It's spring. When I've landed "Mr. Trout" And have him by my side; My friends they tell me he's a beauty. 'Tis then I'm filled with pride. Mosquitoes, never bother me, Neither do black flies; I'm so intent on catching fish They do not tanalize. Head this way, if you like trout, Hillsboro's on the map; Be sure you have your license tag. In sight upon your cap.

He had two children, John Andrew, who was killed in World War II and Jean Mary, now Mrs. Raymond Zeltner of Newark, N. J.

Mr. McGreevy was paymaster at Geneva Mill of the Wansbuck Co., for over 25 years, from July 1923 until his death.

He is survived by his wife, Gertrude, his daughter, Jean, a grandson, Raymond John Zeltner of Newark, N. J.; his father-in-law, Mr. Andrew J. Van Dommele of Providence, R. I., an uncle, George C. Wilkins of Peterboro. Burial was in Swan Point Cemetery, Providence.

Relatives and friends from Hillsboro who attended the funeral service were Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Rumlill, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Rickard, and Mrs. George E. Van Dommele.

Weare

Today, Tuesday, two little boys of the North Weare school can hardly wait for the school bus. There's the thrill that comes only once in a life-time, of playing hooky, and no punishments. Mrs. Doris Morse, their far-sighted teacher, felt that with all the cases of measles, it was not practical to let them take the usual school trip so they are having a picnic on the school grounds, going to school as usual, but taking their basketballs and footballs instead of books. Safe to say, this school picnic will be remembered longer than the usual kind.

There will be an auction of household articles and farming implements of Mr. and Mrs. Ren Philbrick, at the home for Maurice Dwinells, at Weare Center, Wednesday, June 22. The Union Church Circle will furnish lunch.

Ten singers braved the heat Sunday night, and went to Rubv Sargent's house. Mrs. Nettie Flanders was pianist, Oscar Straw, who is back in Weare again, was soloist for the evening, in addition to the group singing. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

The Junior High and High School go to Canobie Lake Wednesday, with Mr. Travor, headmaster, and other chaperones.

National Association of Secondary School Principals. Congratulations to Antrim's first winner, Norman Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Wallace.

Members of the Antrim Garden Club attended the Flower Show in Milford Tuesday, afternoon, at the Community House. Through the courtesy of the Milford Club's president, Mrs. John E. Blanchard, they were able to visit four very attractive gardens. Enjoying the tour were Mrs. John Wood, Miss Alice Thompson, Mrs. H. B. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Davis, Miss Edna Ryder, Miss Elsa Lurek, Miss Ruby Allen, Mrs. Joseph Lincoln, Mrs. William Richardson, Mrs. Robert Munhall and Mrs. Alwin Young.

Beach Cape to Sew

THIS is a new and interesting watercolor painting by Priscilla Hartshorn Baker for her brilliant executed watercolor entitled "Next." Third cash award of $5.00 went to Louis Ordway of Antrim for his beautifully rendered pastel entitled "Golden Light." First honorable mention went to Jeanne Eccles for her watercolor entitled "One Aim in Life," and second honorable mention went to Miriam O'Keefe of Washington, for her charcoal rendering of "So Tired." All these winning pictures can be seen in John Tasker's window for the entire week starting June 20th.

First day of the exhibition was in charge of intown members, second day was in charge of the out of town members, and the refreshment table was in full swing with Mrs. Warren Grimes, Mrs. Wm. Story and Mrs. Mildred Porter in attendance. Stuart Bruce, whose helpfulness both in teaching and in advising cannot be measured, was on hand to present the cash awards.
Anyone interested in this year and a half old growing art center with its headquarters in the Cellar Studio in the Valley Hotel, in Hillsboro can get information from any one of the members previously named.

TIME-PLACE-FACT

by Jeanne Eccles

"It takes New England to give us a 'wholesome' Art Show," two visitors from Ann Arbor, Michigan were heard to say at the Second Annual Spring Member Show of the Hillsboro Art Club held in that town last week-end. Another "healthy" sign is that over 350 persons plus 200 children and their teachers from the first six grades attended the exhibition. The consensus of opinion by both professional jury and the general public is that this second exhibition is, practically, a one hundred percent improvement over last year's in both artistry and number of artists represented. The following twenty-one members were represented: Edward Comiskey, Priscilla Hartshorn Baker, Cyrus Phelps, Jeanne Eccles, Joyce Guild, Martin Lundberg, Bill Duggan, Sylvia Van Hazinga, Ann Broadley, and Harry McClintock of Hillsboro; Louis Ordway of Antrim; Leona Rowe, Eleanor Gould, and Ann Bernstein of Henniker; John Tweedy and Miriam O'Keefe of Washington; Harriet Bosworth and Mrs. P. Kunhardt of Franconia; Dr. Francis Rigney of Deering; John Rowen of Boston; and Richard Annis of Nashua.

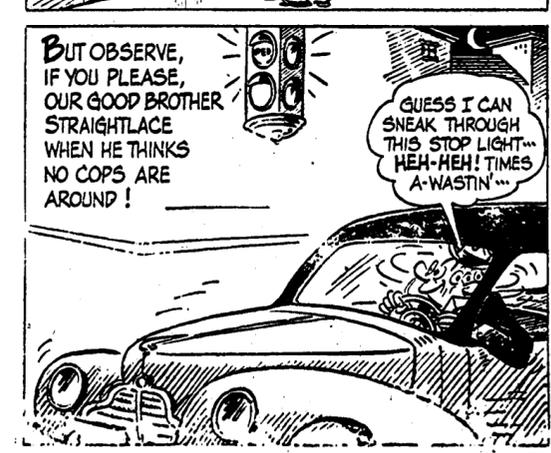

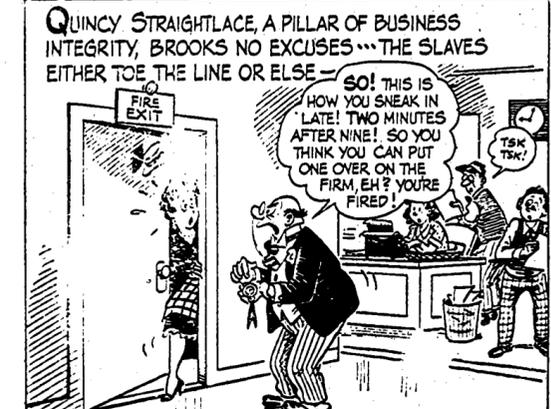

Enthusiastic balloting gave the popular vote and cash award to Joyce Guild of Hillsboro and Keene for her gay primitive oil painting of her small son, Elliott; second prize went to John Tweedy of Washington for his pastel portrait of Hillsboro's own "Blondie" Gay; and third place went to Cyrus Phelps, Hillsboro's well known photographer for his strong black and white portrait drawing of Ralph Farrar, entitled "Sitting on the Fence."

The jury composed of Omer Lassonde, president of the N. H. Art Association and C. R. Lyle, 2nd, executive vice-president of the Creative Arts Association of the Monadnock Region agreed that the first cash award of $10.00 should go to John Tweedy of Washington for his strong line drawing of a young man entitled "In the Dumps." This quickly done drawing is creative and shows a pure art expression. Second cash award of $7.50 was given to Priscilla Hartshorn Baker for her brilliant executed watercolor entitled "Next." Third cash award of $5.00 went to Louis Ordway of Antrim for his beautifully rendered pastel entitled "Golden Light." First honorable mention went to Jeanne Eccles for her watercolor entitled "One Aim in Life," and second honorable mention went to Miriam O'Keefe of Washington, for her charcoal rendering of "So Tired." All these winning pictures can be seen in John Tasker's window for the entire week starting June 20th.

SPORTSMEN'S COLUMN

by GEORGE S. PROCTOR

NEW HAMPSHIRE CONSERVATION OFFICER

Phone 104

Wilton, N. H.

We see where the state Senate has reduced the bounty on porcupines from 50 cents to 25 cents. This in my opinion was a mistake. The reason for this was the huge sum of money paid out for bounty last year. This bounty business was a big racket. Many selectmen don't know the law and are paying on a nose instead of a head. Now a real smart trapper or hunter can make five noses from one quillpig. He cuts of the knees and the elbows, makes two holes to look like nostrils, and takes them to the selectmen. Half the selectmen don't even count them. Now look and see what we have got. Instead of the 50 cents on one porcupine they collect $2.50 on each one. No wonder there was a big overdrawn account. If the selectmen of all the towns would collect on heads alone and not noses, the bounty account would not be so heavy. Half the selectmen call them hedgehogs, which is wrong. What we have is a porcupine or quillpig.

Woodchucks are good eating. Had some one night at New Boston. Thought I was eating chicken but the second helping showed a bone that never was in a chicken. How come? I asked the Reverend. He told me. Eating chuck and liked it. I agreed with him.

What kind of a moth looks and flies like a humming bird? Saw about a dozen the other night. They were busy on a lilac bush. Can't find them in my books. What are they? Neighbor says that are some kind of a moth. Never saw one before.

Remington says don't pick up a young wild animal unless you know the mother is dead. It's against the law and also against the laws of nature.

Ain't human nature funny. For instance, this column will run along for weeks and months and no comment. But let me make a small mistake in a date or a name misspelled and boy, what a racket. We know all about it in jig time. But that just shows that someone reads it.

The Farm-Game Habitat Improvement Program of the Phillips Wildlife Laboratory is to plant 60,000 berry bearing shrubs which will supply needed food for winter food and cover. This all over Massachusetts.

"Fishes of N. H.," a little booklet published by the Department of 87 pages, well illustrated by pictures. This booklet can be purchased by sending 30 cents to the Department at Concord.

Here is a party that wants to know if something cannot be done about their neighbors' dogs barking all night and most of the day. Sure, the local selectmen can muzzle 'em. That's a nuisance and there is plenty of law to cover it. These dogs must be hungry, lonesome, cold, too many fleas or ticks, or afraid to stay alone. Your selectmen will find out the cause.

Lady in one of the nearby towns wants to get a very large dog as a watch and to get rid of her woodchucks. What have you?

Did you ever see the parakeets at the home of Everett Bingham at East Jaffrey? Well, you have missed a sight you will never forget.

The mallard families have begun to show up on the Souhegan river and Stony Brook in the home town. Two families came out into the open one day last week, a family of six and one of seven.

Dana L. Twombly, the C. O. who has most of the big lake in his district, reports that Don Ingram, superintendent of the Laconia Hatchery, has a two-headed trout that he hopes to raise. Both heads are eating well and it's a question just how long that one stomach will stand for this treatment. Another freak at this station—brown (albino) trout with brownish eyes. He also reports that Propagation Superintendent Bill Haight of Warren got a bumper crop of smelt eggs to be planted in trout ponds. Good feed for the lake trout and salmon.

Thanks for the large amount of stale bread sent to me last week for my animals and trout. Came in just right.

It's almost time for the big female snapping turtles to come out of the swamps and lay their eggs in the nearest sandbank. Be sure to stop one of them from going back into the water. They are very destructive to fish and ducks and other wildlife.

The Granite Fish and Game club of Milford is buying a lot more of the Smith turtle traps and is to try and clean out several of the nearby ponds to make better fishing.

William "Bill" Green of Orford has added a pair of mule deer to his big collection of wild animals and birds.

They tell us that the fox is on his way back strong. Many 1949 litters have been seen the past week. One farmer tells me that he cannot raise any kittens to adult size. The minute they get outside the barn door they are picked up by a fox. Foxes are a great benefit to the fruit grower, as they clean up all the mice. The fruit growers want them protected.

No need of any more "R's" in a month as now you can buy and eat oysters any month in the year. Your nearest freezer locker tells the story. Heard a man say the other day. "What's this 'R' in a month got to do with it? I eat 'em when I can get 'em as my wife's name is Ma(r)y."

A friend of mine parked his car in my yard while he attended the auction on my street. When he came back he said, "How come you have no mail box? All your neighbors have one." Well, it's a long, sad story. I own a mile of property along two highways. Two mail men go by my back and front doors, but I am on the wrong side of the street. One man delivers mail within 20 feet of my front door to my neighbor. "Well," he said, "I noticed on route 101 when coming to town three boxes on the left side of the road. How come?" Ask the government. I'll pass.

Do you like striped bass fishing? Well, you will get your money's worth if you take a trip down to Martha's Vineyard, where they are catching them up to 41 pounds.

You rabbit hunters want to look over the recent litter of rabbit hound pups at the kennels of Charles Blood at Temple. Blood says they are the real thing.

The N. H. Sentinel of Keene printed a picture of a doe which was shot by some hunter, not a sportsman, at East Rindge. It was shot two weeks before her twins were born. The hunter took home the hind quarters. We hope the venison chokes him.

Someone is dumping dogs and cats in this section of the state. A lady in Lyndeboro reports a small female dog dumped in her yard. Five small kittens were found on a stone wall on route 101 a long ways from any house. If not wanted, take to the nearest Humane Society. One at Nashua. Keene, Goffstown. In some states there is quite a fine for this kind of business.

The Hillsboro Fish and Game Rifle and Pistol club announces the following dates of outdoor meetings at its club grounds at Deering, June 19, July 17, August 14. This club has a big membership and they sure do have a fine time at their outings.

Eating domestic rabbits has become a fad in this part of the world and I was surprised to find so many eating rabbits in this section.

The other day I heard of a man in Brookline who saw a black snake that was over seven feet long. The reason he knew it was that long was because it was across an eight foot road. Too bad he did not get him. Many people say don't kill a black snake as they do a lot of good. Others say kill 'em as they rob birds' nests. Saw one once 20 feet up a big tree after a bird's nest.

Ever see five lady's slippers in one bunch all on the same root? My son found them in my woods.

Had a funny experience the other day. A horseman asked me if I wanted to buy a nice saddle horse. Heard I was interested. He described the horse a most wonderful animal. Wanted to get him into the country and would sell real cheap, in fact he would almost give me the animal if I would promise a good home. Price, very low, $1,500.00. Nope, not interested.

But no guessing about BALLANTINE

...it always means PURITY

The trade mark everybody knows goes way back to 1840. Peter Ballantine, testing the first Ballantine over a century ago, took one drink to judge PURITY, a second for BODY, a third for FLAVOR. The three moisture rings left by his glass on the table became his now-famous trade mark. So always look for the 3 rings; then...
