Picture Story of the Hillsboro Old Home Day Parade

Early Saturday morning found Morrill Parmenter, Capitol Theatre manager, putting last minute decorations on the theatre marquee. In case you've forgotten they're yacht pennants, probably a souvenir of a past Nantucket vacation. Next, part of the crowd that waited and waited. Jim Dowlin and Henri Gerini didn't wait - they were in the parade. Here they are shown giving last minute touches to the Gerini float - which, by the way, bore no identification. Mr. Gerini said his float represented the State of New Hampshire.

Stopping for a moment to pose for the camera are Janet O'Connor, Priscilla Cody, Gretchen Davis, (Washington), Grace Bent, Hillsboro majorettes who did so much to "pep up" the Hillsboro Military Band, which followed in the line of march. The group standing before the Bedell Garage float are Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Bedell, her father, Martin McCabe, and four relatives from Massachusetts. Their float, a 1919 Lafayette, had the misfortune to blow a tire at the parade end.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Chapman made a fine couple as an old time spinner and weaver on the Hillsboro Woolen Mill float. The machines were actually used long ago at the local mill. Another of the many beautiful floats was that of Proctor's IGA store with Frank Proctor, Mary Jane Proctor, and Richard Johnson, smiling for the cameraman. Our last pictures are that of Bob Prentiss team at the horse pulling contest, and of the Ward Fivers The Day After. Prominent in the group were the Erskine-Broadley family and Ernest Poland, (carrying the sign). As he did the year previous, Erskine brought the house down as his group marched along the parade route.

Oh, yes, the remaining unidentified picture (the tiny narrow one), was of trombonist Roger Connor of the famous Hillsboro Military Band, in our opinion, one of the best small town bands hereabouts.

Coming Events
The Center Club is holding its annual meeting this Friday evening, September 2; election of officers and regular business meeting, followed by a social time.

The Hillsboro League of Women Voters is holding a food sale at Mrs. Casey's, West Main st., rain or shine, on Saturday, September 3, at 2 p.m.

My Old Home Day
Old Home Day is all over, and everybody seemed to enjoy the day. The next one should be four years hence, to celebrate Hillsboro's first Old Home Day. The first event in my day was the parade, one of the longest I have ever seen. The floats were many and varied. I agreed with the judges that the Hillsboro Lumber Company's load of lumber, so artistically piled, followed by the little house, was easily the first prize. When it appeared, I lost 65 years, and before it was out of sight, I began wondering how I could get possession of it for my own playhouse. Several others besides the prize winner deserved honorable mention. Priscilla Baker's car, with its garland of pink roses and overflowing with nine kiddies and Mrs. Johnson, blooms, and pink parasols, appealed to me, as did the Hillsboro Dairy float, with its mothers and two babies who wanted so much to sleep. John Tasker and his school of small boys looked very studious, but I doubt if they learned very much that morning. The big four-seated wagon, carrying some of Hillsboro's oldest citizens, was interesting. Some of them were octogenarians and some were on the very shady side of eighty. But no ten-

New England College to Open With Record Enrollment and Augmented Faculty

HENNIKER, Sept. 1 — A new high in enrollment is expected at New England College for the Fall Term, it was disclosed this week by the institution's president, Dr. Laurie D. Cox, who estimates that 327 students, including 130 incoming freshmen, will have registered by September 14, the first day of classes. This represents a gain of approximately six percent over the corresponding period a year ago.

While the freshman class is approximately the same size as in the fall of 1948, the aggregate enrollment will be higher due to the larger numbers returning from the two advanced classes than was the case last year. There are also num-

MacLeod-Fisher Nuptials Held at Henniker Church

HENNIKER, Aug. 27 — Catherine Claire Fisher became the bride of Richard Philip MacLeod Saturday morning at 11:30 o'clock at St. Theresa church. Rev. Francis Butler performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Thomas F. Fisher. Mrs. E. H. Jameson was organist. The church was decorated with baskets of mixed colors of gladioli.

The bride wore a white satin gown with fitted bodice, off the shoulder style, yoke of illusion lace, long pointed sleeves, and a full skirt falling in a long train trimmed with rows of deep lace. Her fingertip veil fell from a bonnet style headdress and she carried white gladioli with an orchid corsage in the center.

Mrs. Walter Murphy, as matron of honor, wore an orchid taffeta gown, in an off the shoulder effect, and a hoop skirt with a bustle. Catherine Boyle of Boston as bridesmaid wore a dress of similar style in yellow taffeta. Catherine Power of Boston as the junior bridesmaid wore a lime taffeta dress with a hoop skirt and bustle. All the attendants had matching picture hats and carried old fashioned bouquets of sweet peas and baby's breath.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue sheer print with white accessories and an orchid corsage and the bridegroom's mother wore a

Antrim Actors Present Operetta "Mikado" Tonight and Friday

ANTRIM, Sept. 1 — Thursday and Friday of this week the Glibbert and Sullivan Operetta "The Mikado," will be presented in the Town Hall. Proceeds will be used to carry out the budget recommendations of the Antrim Woman's Club.

Richard Winslow of New York City and Alabama Farm is directing. Mr. Winslow holds B. S. and M. S. Degrees from the Juilliard School of Music. He toured with the Wesleyan University Gilbert and Sullivan Company, and is a member of the faculty of this College.

Isabel Butterfield McLean, his assistant, is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music and has had much experience in radio work on Boston's NBC station WBZ.

Stage Director Albert Ullman, instructor at Tufts College, has been active in the Yale School of Drama. Gertrude Proctor Thornton, accompanist, is known throughout this section for her fine work.

Betty Winslow, the feminine lead, toured with the University Gilbert and Sullivan Company. She graduated from Smith College and majored in music.

Laura Aitken is a native of Panama. Her husband, Hugh Aitken, is a graduate of the Juilliard School of Music. Howard Chase of Hancock Edythe Fournier, Charles and Reece Henderson complete the list of soloists. A chorus of eighteen voices will assist.

Barbara Shea is in charge of costumes; Dorothy Proctor, dances; Priscilla Proctor and David Hurlin, scenery; and Guy Clark, lighting.

Much time and effort has been given to make this presentation worthwhile, and it is hoped a large attendance will be present both nights. Mrs. Herbert Gray, Mrs. Philip Lang, and Mrs. Andrew Fuglestad comprise the Club's committee in charge of the production.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT
Mr. and Mrs. George Scherger of Concord announce the engagement of their daughter, Marjorie Inice, to Mr. Joel L. Perham, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joel L. Perham, Sr., of this town.

A wedding is planned for Saturday, September 3, 7:30 p.m., at St. Mary's church.

The annual trip of the Weare Community club women to the Weirs was held last week. Contrary to weather announcements of the day before, it was a beautiful day. As usual, the Whitney bus left Stubbe's store at nine o'clock, but taking a new route, through Warner. Reaching the Weirs, there was time before dinner to look around a bit. The party separated, some having dinner in the hotel, others in the smaller dining places, according to the menu. Most of them were on the Mt. Washington when the whistle blew, ready for the four-hour trip around the lake. Stops were made at Center Harbor, Wolfboro, and Alton Bay. Making the trip more interesting, a group of Woburn Rotarians got on at one stop, as they went up to the Pilot house, and took pictures. Soon after six, the Mt. Washington docked, and shortly after the bus was on the way home. Some of the group went out on the Sophie C., a smaller boat, getting in a little earlier, which gave them time on shore before leaving. This is the last big trip for this year.

Mildred London is reporting on her recent three-day trip to Kingston, R. I. As Lecturer of Weare grange, she represented it at the New England conference of Lecturers. Scott Eatsman, State secretary, represented Wyoming grange. They were accompanied by Bess Hill of Manchester, and Mrs. Murchough of Oak Hill grange, Frankestown. The first evening, a get-acquainted party was held, at which Mrs. London was honored by dancing with the Lieut.-Gov. of Vermont. Both Mrs. London and Mr. Eastman were on the program, "Music in the Grange," on the New Hampshire Home hour, which was put on by Frank Kimball of Concord grange. Mrs. London was soloist, singing, "Love's Old Sweet Song," and "Home on the Range," with a reading given by Mabel Livermore. Mr. Eastman was in a skit, "Strolling Through the Park one Day," put on by Alice and Tom Dutton of Nashua, all in Gay Nineties costume. Mrs. London was also in the Kitchen Band, with a chorus which received a great deal of applause. The New Hampshire colors were purple, with purple lilacs, and pictures of the Old Man of the Mountain.

Mrs. London joined 23 other state officers in a lobster dinner, and also took a tour of Narragansett Bay and Judith Point. During her stay, she lived at East Hall at the Rhode Island State Agricultural College. Mrs. Eastman stayed at so-called Hut No. 2.

Mrs. Sylvia Page, and Mrs. Kit Kamp held a stork shower one evening last week for Mrs. Henry Osborne, at Mrs. Page's home. The shower gifts were placed under an umbrella trimmed with pink and blue, which was the color scheme.

Honor guest was Mrs. Marianna Eaton, Mrs. Osborne's grandmother, who celebrated her 92nd birthday last April with an At Home. Others present were Mrs. Clayton Simons, Mrs. Phebe Clark, Mrs. Margaret Wood, Mrs. Hilda Bruyneel, Mrs. Muriel Fuller, Mrs. Eunice Marshall, Mrs. Doris Hadley, Mrs. Betty Chase, Mrs. Elli Taffany, and the hostesses.

Red Cross classes are over for this year, and the Swimming Meet, at Lake Horace, which marks the close, was held last week. The judges were Christopher Karafotis and Daniel Morrisey, from the Manchester chapter. Members of this chapter, staged a water safety demonstration following the swimming events, and the smallest swimmer, Wendy Spurr, presented Mr. Theodore, the instructor, with a gift from the group.

Of general interest are those winning ribbons. Beginners wading race, Newton Spurr, Donald Purington, Craig Swanburg; Beverly Rice Mimi Osborne, Wendy Spurr; beginning prone glide, John Rice, Craig Swanburg, Frank Farmer; girl's prone glide, Susan Russell, Nancy Colburn, Priscilla Lahey; kick board boys, Gilly Bockus, Bruce Van Fleet, Peter Dodge; girl's kick board, Susan Russell, Sylvia Turner, Judy Fuller; free style, Dick Larson, Robie Farmer, Paul Hadley; girl's free style, Tessie Hight, Susan Russell, Judy Fuller; back stroke, Dick Larson, Robie Farmer, Paul Hadley; girl's back stroke, Tessie Hight, Susan Russell, Sylvia Turner; girl's wading race, Sylvia Turner, Nancy Colburn, Judy Fuller; boy's breast stroke, Warren Ward, Dick Larson, Fred Bockus; girl's side stroke, Sylvia Turner, Tessie Hight; boy's diving, Warren Ward, Dick Larson, Spencer Colburn; girl's diving, Sylvia Turner, Susan Russell, Tessie Hight.

Last week was "showers," but not the weather; Friday night there were two bridal showers, one for Raelene VanDebogart and Louis, Turner, at the Town Hall; Barbara Dobbs and Hazel Wood gave one for Mary Lou Taylor and Benjamin Stein, Jr., at Barbara's home at North Weare. Leaving town Monday, I was able to get account of only one. Mary Lou's party was a complete surprise; she was invited to a going-away party for Tom Dobbs, who is waiting a call from the Coast Guard. The room was decorated in pink and green, with a big wedding bell in the center. It was a miscellaneous shower, with all kinds of kitchen equipment, including a set of dishes, linen tablecloths, aluminumware, and the new plastics. Coffee and cakes were served for refreshments. Mary Lou's mother, Rose Taylor, her sister, Pauline, her grandmother, Jessie Grant, Mrs. Clara Stein, and Mrs.

Mildred Lorden, mother and sister of Mr. Stein, from Franklin, Mildred Grant, an aunt, Gertrude Wood, Edith Gunn, Mary Lou Freeman, Anna Putnam, Helen Boch, Sylvia Dearborn, Gladys Dow, Diana Colburn, and Georgia Ketchum were present, beside the hostesses.

Mrs. Henry Loveren is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Whitaker, at Clinton Grove.

Robie Farmer has taken his first train ride. He rode to Norwich, Vt., Friday to spend the weekend with his aunt, Lucy, Mrs. Verdon Hampson, and family. The Cannan wreck was still being cleared away, which he saw. He said he also met a minister on the train, which made the trip more interesting. Mr. and Mrs. Farmer drove to Norwich Sunday, to dinner, and to bring their son home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilder Tenney, Mary Jane and Wilder, Jr., went to Camp Plymouth at Ludlow, Vt.,

Sunday, where Nancy Tenney and three other girl scouts are spending their second week. They found the girls enjoying camp life, and doing very well in the various contests.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin, recently married, have moved to Portland, Me., where they will reside for the present. Mr. Martin had taken a position as manager in Portland.

Grand Opening of the Historical Rooms in the Community Building

To The Editor:
The committee wish to express their thanks and appreciation in the enthusiasm and interest shown, it was far beyond our expectations. 85 guests registered. To Miss Frances Barnes, assisted by Miss Florence Senecal in the interesting exhibit of the Miniature of the Centre, in the early days, made by Hammond Barnes, and the town of many interesting heirlooms; to Mr. Nelson, custodian of the building, for his loyalty and hours of work; to our past Regent, Mrs. Perry, in making the project a reality; and to all for their generous loans and gifts in making this most worthwhile new project a success, we are most grateful and appreciative. May the good work continue as our project is in its infancy, and all heirlooms and anything pertaining to the early history of Hillsboro are greatly needed.

We thank you one and all for your loyalty and support.

"The British Like It"—Say English Doctors Visiting Here

The interview didn't go the way the doctor-interviewer had expected.

The interviewer was Dr. Edward H. Skinner of Kansas City, Mo., who is a leader in the National Physicians' Committee, which is vigorously opposing national health insurance.

All set to get some good grist for this committee's mill, Dr. Skinner interviewed at a conference of the American Cancer Society at Memphis, Tenn., two doctors from England, where national health insurance has been in operation a little less than a year. The men were Sir Stanford Cade and Dr. Brian W. Windeyer. This is how the interview went, as reported by Conwell Carlson in the Kansas City Star:

"What is the effect on the income and social status of English doctors?"

"Fine," said Sir Stanford.
"Fine?" Dr. Skinner, said as if his ears heard wrong.

"Fine," repeated Sir Stanford, and he leaned forward, "More patients, more income."

This is not what Sir Stanford had predicted of the health scheme he had opposed so vigorously during Dr. Skinner's 1947 visit to England.
"Exactly," said Sir Stanford, "it hasn't worked out as I feared. I must tell you frankly the doctors of England are being disillusioned in a pleasant way."

More Work, More Pay
"We still have our essential freedom. We have more work, more pay. And the people, I am sure, are getting better medical care."

"But the cost, Sir Stanford, the cost," said the Kansas citizen, hitching up his chair, while Dr. Joseph L. Farrow of New York, his son-in-law, watched.

Sir Stanford shrugged.
"The cost," he said, "What did the atomic bomb cost? What did the last war cost? Destruction costs billions, so why not some billions for everybody's health, say the people."

Dr. Windeyer nodded at this and said the present government of England was not quaking at the health service cost, and was assuming the service would go on decade after decade, under Labor, Liberal or Conservative party governments.

"What are the results in terms of effectiveness of service to the patients, in office consultations and in hospitals?" was Dr. Skinner's next question.

"Good," said Dr. Windeyer. "The poor see they no longer have to depend on charity for medical care."
"Are the doctors still obligated to visit some patients in their homes?" Dr. Skinner continued.

"If the doctor has signed a contract to give such service -- yes," was the answer.

Choose Own Doctor
"Is a patient allowed to transfer from one doctor to another -- Has he a free choice of a physician?"

"The patient has this choice and the doctor, too, has the right not to continue to treat a patient if he feels results are not what they should be," Dr. Windeyer replied.

"How does it affect hospital morale, and nursing services?" Dr. Skinner went on.

"The pay of nurses has been doubled," Dr. Windeyer said.

No Lack of Enterprise
"Isn't there a lack of enterprise and initiative on the part of doctors? If they have a stipulated income from each patient, paid by the government, why should they seek to give improved service or seek out better ways?"

"Dr. Skinner," said Sir Stanford in response to these questions, "we are finding that the standard of care the doctor gives is as good as under the private enterprise method. A man is inherently honest and a seeker of better ways toward health, or he isn't. That applies to different doctors in either type of service."

"We assume that the people trust competent doctors, under a national medical service or otherwise, and are finding that the doctor more than the politician is the determining factor in the actual control of socialized medicine. So I say to you and other doctors of America -- when a national health service is wanted, go into it as leaders and planners of a comprehensive enterprise desired by the majority."

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Watt of Watertown, Mass., visited Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Mugar and family at Millen Pond last week.

When Waldo Farnsworth was suddenly taken ill a week or so ago, Marleah Graves took over his milk route for a day assisted by Joe Beckner, a young chap who has been staying with Waldo. Joe did the driving while Marleah delivered the milk. This isn't an ordinary job. It means picking up some twenty odd children at night along the pond road and loading them in the back of Waldo's truck and giving them a ride out of town. And another thing, you have to be a master mechanic, at least, in order to understand the running of Waldo's truck. I am told there are all kinds of contraptions and wires holding the parts together.

Dr. Minott Safford and his wife's parents from New Brunswick visited Mr. and Mrs. John Safford last week.

Mr. James Johnson of Nashua, who lives out beyond the Advent church in the summer, suffered a shock last week and was taken to the hospital by ambulance.

Mrs. Wm. D. Otterson, Sr., had the misfortune to fall and fracture her wrist Sunday night. She was treated at the Carrie F. Wright hospital in Newport Monday and returned home Tuesday.

The grange is right busy these days. A regular meeting was held last Friday night, at which 1st and 2nd degrees were worked on eight candidates. A special meeting will be held Monday night, and Pomona Tuesday night in conjunction with Purlingbeck grange of East Washington.

On Sept. 9, Lovell grange will celebrate its 75th anniversary and it is also State Officers' Night. The program and dancing following the meeting will be open to the public. Mr. Henry Deoss of Concord will furnish music for the dance.

The Toby Jug tearoom will close for the season on Monday night, Labor Day.

School will open next Wednesday.

Miss Hoyt will resume her duties as teacher and we are all very glad to have her back again. There will be six children to enter the first grade which is the largest group to start school here that we have had for years.

Six from Washington will attend Hillsboro High school this year, namely Theodore and Harry Drew, Joyce Bigwood, Anna Paro, Jean, and Donald Crane. Some will be transported by Preston Rolfe, who is to be on the teaching staff at Hillsboro High.

Fried corn, onions and green peppers, served with franks or hamburgers, is an excellent summer or autumn dish.

Gay and Gould made their farewell appearance in the Old Singing School with the organist, Mrs. Mildred Porter. Their costumes were antique, but their voices were young.

Open House at the Community Building received about one hundred or more visitors, many of whom had never seen some of the rooms before. The Young Farmers' 4-H Club built a barn-like setting for some of their prize-winning livestock, but unfortunately it wasn't shown in the parade, as George Edwards' horses elected to run away before it started.

Old Home Day visitors at the Pierce Mansion were over two hundred, including Mr. and Mrs. Foster Stearns, Exeter, who brought a big bunch of dahlias with them.

On Sunday, August 28, members of H. H. S. Class of 1924 met at 10:30 a. m., at the Grammar School (Old High School) for a general tour through the building and a class meeting. At this meeting it was voted to have another reunion in not more than five years, less if possible; and Donald Gove was appointed chairman of a committee for this purpose.

After the meeting the members and their wives and husbands went to the Fish and Game Clubhouse where pictures were taken and old friendships renewed. One member had a scrapbook containing records of all High School baseball games of this 1920-24 period. At that time the High School had a very good team, seven players of which belonged to the Class of '24.

At 2:00 p. m., everybody went back into town to Crosby's Restaurant where a wonderful hot turkey dinner was served; with all the fixin's. During dinner prizes were awarded to Lester Lardon for having come the greatest distance, also for having changed most; to the first class grandparents, Ralph and Jane Treadwell; and to Gladys Gould Barclay for having changed the least.

After dinner, back to the Clubhouse, where horseshoe games and a softball game took place. Several members had old pictures to show and before we knew it, it was 7:00 o'clock and time to go home.

Class members present were as follows: Gladys Gould Barclay, Dorothy Gordon Bean, Eveline Nelson Evans, Jane Otterson Treadwell, Charlotte Colburn Quimby, Eunice Colburn Drewry, Altheah Edwards Hutchinson, Marjorie Holden, Ronald Buttrick, Ralph Treadwell, Donald Gove, Lester Lardon, Jr., and Leroy Eaton. Others present were Robert Barclay and son; Myron Quimby with Frank, Marilyn, and Beverly Quimby; Leighton Drewry; Ernest Hutchinson; Lucy Buttrick; Alice Gove and Margaret Eaton.

Absent members were Lauretta Messer Summers, Mabel Bailey Meyer, Theodore Call, and Roger McClintock.

The regular meeting of Hillsboro grange 342 was held Wednesday, August 24. Mrs. Bessie Stoddard of Concord, a member of the State Home and Community Welfare Committee, was the special guest of the evening.

The program was as follows: song, by the grange; talk on Home and Community Welfare Committee Work by Mrs. Stoddard; special feature - relay race between three men and three women, with the men winning; vocal solo by Fern McNeal; reading by Edith Daniels; song by the grange.

Invitations were accepted for September 9 to Lovell grange of Washington; September 12, Presiding Overseers' Night at Wolf Hill grange of Deering; September 13 at Contoocook; September 15, Neighbors' Night at Capitol grange of Concord; and September 19, the return of the Home Bank to Batchelder grange at Manchester.

The grange voted to have Presiding Masters' Night on September 28, moving up the New Hampshire Night to the next meeting to be held September 14.

SPORTSMEN'S COLUMN

by GEORGE S. PROCTOR

NEW HAMPSHIRE CONSERVATION OFFICER
Phone 104 Wilton, N. H.

That two-headed trout with one stomach passed out at the Laconia hatchery. Guess the strain was too much for the one stomach.

Mrs. Ralph Adams of Hillsboro tells us that black snakes will steal milk from a cow. It happened on their farm a few years ago. They got the thief, which was seven feet long. She reports that yellow panthers were common in that town 30 years ago and it was not uncommon for a yellow one to have a black youngster in a litter.

Maurice Bowes of Windy Hill Greenhouses reports that he saw an animal the other night that he never saw before. He will not say he saw the black panther. This animal went across the road so fast all he saw was a streak of black. No dog ever traveled that fast he said. What was it?

I went up to see the old boat that Mr. Varnum pulled out of Zephyr lake. It was 17 feet long, 30 inches across and 30 inches deep. Made from one tree. It must have been in the lake years. Should be in some museum.

Philip Magoon of Greenfield is the only man in the state that runs a self-service boat livery. You just take the key, the oars, anchor, and go to it. When you come back you put the money in the tin can. Phil says it works out good. The only case was last Sunday when a party took a boat early in the day and fished. When Phil checked up in the afternoon he found the oars and the boat, but no cash. He got the number of the car, however, and things may happen. As a rule the fishermen are 100 percent O.K. Phil says.

Mrs. F. M. Oliver of Bristol has a record litter number. One of her rabbits had a family of 17. Too many.

The other day in the mail I got a copy of "Miss Hickory." This was from the author, Mrs. Carolyn Sherwin Bailey Hill of Temple. This was an autographed copy by the writer. It's a children's book and the author got a gold medal from the John Newberry Association for the most distinguished contribution to American literature for children. I sat right down and read the book and liked it. I feel highly honored by this gift.

Have you seen a copy of Cathedral of the Pines in Rindge? I got a copy in the mail a few days ago. It's a swell little booklet of 34 pages and very interesting. Thanks for my copy.

Have at hand a fine letter from Arthur R. Oronson of Milford, Conn. He reads my column and says he gets a kick from it. He is much interested in our black panther. Says he will call on me this fall from his return trip to Maine for deer hunting. Better try our deer hunting. We have plenty.

I have an unknown reader in Boston that keeps me informed about things in general. This week he says he thinks the snake sucking reptile is a myth. Well, I have had at least five good reliable people tell me it is so. Please sign your name.

A leaflet entitled "The Cooperative Wildlife Research Unit Program, 1935-1949," is now available without cost. Write to Wildlife Institute, 824 Investment Building, Washington, D. C. This booklet will be very helpful to some young fellow, who intends to make Wildlife his career.

The National Wildlife Federation, 3308 14th street, Washington, 19, D. C., has issued a number of children's books on wildlife. Write to above address for titles and other information. Should be in all schools and libraries.

Word comes up from Williamsburg, Mass., that mountain lions are roaming the fields of that place. A big posse of hunters is to make a clean up. These big animals, they claim, are coming down from N. H., and Vermont. Must be our black panthers. Many people have seen the big fellows and they answer to our late panthers.

Someone has sent to me a booklet on the raising of muskrats in pens. Very interesting booklet.

Here is a story that may be a world beater. Prof. Claiborne Young, a local man who teaches in Plymouth, Mass., in the winter and summer school at Rindge in the summer, has something that may help the world to get rid of a lot of rats. He has discovered a toothless rat. He breeds a toothless male to a real wild rat with teeth and half the litter comes toothless. This means the 50 percent toothless can't eat hard food and will soon die. He has the animals to show you. It can be done and he has done it in several generations. He is also experimenting on mice and has all colors breeding true to color. He is now trying to get a curly haired mouse. If the Professor is able to get rid of millions of rats that's something for the book.

On The Street

by PAUL S. SCRUTON

"Bill Dumais" has done it again, was heard on the street many times following the parade on Old Home Day, last Saturday and the years of experience which Bill has enjoyed certainly put across one of the best parades ever seen in Hillsboro.

It was a hot day, especially for the many folks who marched in the mile long parade. We say a mile because from the time the marshal arrived in Central Square and the last car in the parade arrived at the same spot the front end of the parade was waiting to turn down Depot street.

It was exactly 10:25 D.S.T., when Frank Gay and his singers started going to the old fair grounds and as usual the parade was something like an hour late in starting. We said 9 o'clock knowing that it would be 10 or after before it got going. The only parade we ever saw that started on time was back in 1923 and the starters watch had stopped on hour previous.

The King and Queen, Roswell Whitcomb, Jr., and Jean Nally were chosen by ballot, rode in the parade in regal splendor, received purses with money enclosed and were officially crowned by master of ceremonies, Thomas Hines, during the street dance in the evening, all this is past history to the many folks who were in town last Saturday, but fond memories will linger.

Some estimated that there were 5,000 people in town for Old Home Day, including perhaps the residents and visitors, but it's a safe bet there were more folks around than will be seen again for some time.

Having served on Old Home Day committees for the past two years we wonder just how many folks realize just how many headaches and sleepless nights are involved, yet somebody has to be the goat and of course there are a few happy moments in the course of events.

We maintain that an Old Home Day celebration such as we had last Saturday should be had about once every five years instead of making it an annual event, in fact it takes about 5 years to complete a program which is sweet music to everybody's ears and eliminates the curses and sour-puss expressions on the faces of those folks who refuse to speak to you for an indefinite period because for some reason or another the program lacks something or other you had dreamed about in the sweet innocence of your childhood.

It was a hot day folks, just as though somebody had set the thermostat at 90 on the old sun furnace and focused its rays on the good people who had assembled here for the happy day, and forgot to turn it down. The Hillsboro band certainly came in for some rare sort of punishment after parading and giving concerts, but they can take it. After all we appreciate it, all of us.

Now that it's over and we assume some degree of normalcy we realize just how many errors we made, and we mean personally, but we tried hard in the only way we knew to have things run smoothly, to avoid confusions, made 40 posters, some crude and some cruder, helped with a program that proved to be as accurate as the last years time schedule on the defunct Hillsboro to Elmwood railroad passenger service, but at least we tried, even if we failed rather miserably. By the beard of the prophet, never again. There are many capable folks in good old Hillsboro who can take my place and when good old Saint Peter meets me at the Golden Gate he may at least say, "It can't be any hotter where you are about to go than it was in the old home town during the month of August 1949, and particularly on Saturday, August 27, 1949, so on your way and you will be amongst friends."

MRS. ANNA ROBERTSON ANTRIM — Mrs. Anna Robertson, 72, widow of Colin Robertson, died in Worcester, after a long illness. She was a former local resident, having lived at North Branch in the present Smitholm. She is survived by three sons, Ross of Henniker, John of Manchester, and Bruce of Shrewsbury, Mass.; a sister, Mrs. Margaret Hammond of Antrim; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held at the home of her son, Bruce, in Shrewsbury. Burial was in Oxford, Mass. Attending from Antrim were Mrs. Margaret Hammond, her sons, David and Robert, and her daughter, Mrs. Dalton Brooks.

TIME-PLACE-FACT

by Jeanne Eccles

Last Wednesday evening despite the hurry and bustle and confusion of Old Home Day being almost upon us, we had a grand turn out and with the Rev. Roy Honeywell in the model's chair, the whole evening was an interesting one. It was the first time in quite a while that we had tried our hand at portraiture and the results were fairly good.

A the Currier Gallery of Art in Manchester there is an exhibition of brilliant water colors, pastels, ink and pencil drawings, and paintings in gouache by some of Cuba's foremost living artists. These will be on display through September 14.

On the front page of this week's Sunday Post is a headline "Painting a Good Way to Relax," and Grace Davidson goes on to say it is easy to learn enough technique to have the fun of putting what you see on canvas. America's noted painter, Carl Gaertner, says that even though you are a banker, a doctor, a businessman, or a housewife, in fact anyone with a normal IQ can learn to paint. You give your child piano lessons and if he learns to play a tune pleasingly you are satisfied, if he learns to write a literate hand and can describe an afternoon at camp in a letter, you are satisfied. It's the same way with art, you, too, can learn to put something you like on canvas and you can enjoy it for a long time to come. You can have lots of fun painting your first flower, your first tree, your first cloud, your first house or your first portrait. There is nothing like it.

It was interesting to listen in when Mr. Cobb and Mr. Rigney, Sr., met for the first time last Friday. Come to find out, when Mr. Cobb started making his first Indian costumes and headresses 20 years ago he used textbooks with illustration drawn by Mr. Rigney 25 years ago and both being in Boy Scout work over a long period of years they had a great many notes to compare.

Priscilla Baker had a beautifully trimmed car in the Old Home Day parade. So striking was it, that one of the Valley Hotel guests, Mr. Wood, asked to buy the trimmings right then and there to be used on a car in a coming parade in his home town. Cy Phelps was up at 5 a. m., Saturday morning putting up the policeman on the outside wall of Eaton's Furniture Store. You would certainly stop in your tracks on seeing that giant linoleum "cop" staring you in the face. Pictures of any of the floats, the bands, the horses, of the street dance, etc., can be bought from Cy. Get yours today.

Time: Every Wednesday evening from 8 to 10 p. m.

Place: The Cellar Studio in the Valley Hotel.

OLIVER A. ST. JOHN BENNINGTON Aug. 30—A high mass of requiem was celebrated Friday morning at 9 o'clock in St. Patrick's church for Oliver A. St. John, 58, of Frankestown, who died at Hillsboro County General hospital Tuesday after a long illness.

Rev. Michael Murtagh officiated and the church choir sang. Bearers were Clarence Farrar, Charles Murdough, Stanley Rainey and Andrew Clark.

Burial was in the family lot in Frankestown, under the direction of the French and Rising Funeral home.

"I remember a delightful visit to the West of America. After passing some weeks in a state-owned park and driving through fifty miles of state-owned forests, I crossed a river on a public ferry and after traveling some distance on a municipal tram, was conducted over to the civic electric works, and the tax-supported hospital and the public schools.

"I tried in vain to obtain refreshments at several saloons which had been closed without compensation by the state, and finally visited the state university, where I heard a professor of economics, whose salary was defrayed from public funds, deliver to a body of several hundred students whose fees were paid from the same source, a lecture on the importance of untrammelled private enterprise and the dangerous immorality of socialism." —R. H. Tawney in "The British Labor Movement."

Maurice Dreicer, millionaire radio man, reports on radio in Socialist-governed Sweden and Norway: "Swedish and Norwegian stations are modern in every way. Although under government control, there is complete freedom in the expression of views. Dramatic shows are specially well done. Radio actors and commentators are regarded as men of great distinction and given high respect." The above was printed in Ben Gross' radio column in the N. Y. Daily News, the paper that repeatedly insists that socialism must be totalitarian.

North Branch

CORRESPONDENT
Mrs. Warren Wheeler

Mr. and Mrs. Zygmunt Dziengowski and son, Alec, and his wife of Salem, Mass., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dziengowski. Miss Martha Dziengowski of Manchester was also a guest of her parents.

Mrs. E. M. Knapp and son, Philip, of Rutland, Vt., and wife recently visited Mr. and Mrs. (Dorothy Knapp) Chauncey in Boston.

Mrs. Harold Wells, Mrs. Helen Taylor of Deering and Mrs. Sarah Taylor of Medwetic, N. B., visited us last week.

A party of four ladies from Keene met with an accident near the so-called Loverens Mill house on Route 9 on their way to visit Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Bartlett. A New York car going the same way apparently drove them into the ditch. Two of the ladies received medical treatment. An ambulance and wrecker was needed and two of the ladies were taken to a hospital in Keene for observation.

We regret that Mrs. Thomas Smith is again a patient at Peterboro Hospital, but glad to hear she is improving.

Sympathy is extended to the family of Harvey Rogers who died last week. He is buried at North Branch Cemetery.

Mrs. V. J. Swett has returned to Brooklyn, N. Y., after two weeks spent in this neighborhood.

Mrs. Grace Woods, former Branch resident now of Milford; her sister, Mrs. Mabel Brooks, also a former Antrim resident, and Mr. and Mrs. Prince of New Boston, called on us the first of the week. Mrs. Prince is a sister of the two first named.

We have given Uncle Cy's plan on postage stamps etc., much thought and would say if he decides on the plan that though we have excellent mail service, we would consider giving some business, if he can deliver and give credit.

BENNINGTON

Mrs. Edith L. Lawrence spent several days at Townsend, Mass., this week. The Cody family took her down and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shields.

Mrs. Robert Knight is reported as much improved in health.

Mrs. James Dempsey was in New York for some days as her mother passed away recently.

The Congregational church service will start at 11:15 a. m. each Sunday morning in the future.

Mrs. Louis Sylvester had her feet operated on some days ago. She is as comfortable as is possible.

Lower Village Riders

Constance Loraine Pixler Weds Chicago Man Here

HENNIKER, Sept. 1 — Miss Constance Loraine Pixler of Medford, Mass., became the bride of Arne Edwin Slettebak of Chicago on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in a ceremony held on the lawn of Lake View Villa at Long Pond. The ceremony was performed by her father, Rev. Wellington C. Pixler, pastor of the First Methodist church of Medford, Mass., assisted by Rev. Albert C. Sundberg, pastor of the Congregational church in Everett, Mass.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her sister, Mrs. Philip Peter was matron of honor. Janet Sundberg, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Sundberg was the flower girl. Mr. Peter was best man.

A reception was held following the ceremony when several of Mr. Pixler's parishioners from communities in Massachusetts were present as well as local friends. The bride cut a wedding cake.

Dr. and Mrs. Slettebak, after a honeymoon will reside in Delaware, Ohio, where he is on the faculty of Ohio State University and Ohio Wesleyan in the department of astronomy.

Mrs. Slettebak is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Wellington C. Pixler of Medford, Mass. She is a graduate of the College of Wooster, Wooster, Ohio. She taught music in Zenia, Ohio, and was assistant and secretary to the dean of the school of music at Wooster. This past year she has had her own music studio in Wooster.

Dr. Slettebak is the son of Mrs. Walla Slettebak of Chicago, Ill. He is a graduate of the University of Chicago and this summer was awarded his Doctor of Philosophy degree from the Yerkes Observatory of the University of Chicago at Williams Bay, Wisconsin.

Following the wedding Rev. Pixler baptised two of his grandchildren; children of Mr. and Mrs. Peter, and the son of his cousin. He was assisted in the baptism by four other ministers: Rev. Sundberg, Rev. William Cox, Rev. Henry Helms and Rev. Earle Fellows.

Miss Charlotte Holmes is at the Concord Memorial Hospital for observation and treatment.

Millie Low Vogelein has returned to Albany, N. Y., with her parents after spending the summer with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Johnson.

Mr. Peter Gerrie visited his cousin, Peter Wood, one day last week. Mr. Gerrie is from Brookline, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Colburn and family spent the weekend with relatives at White River Jet, Vt.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Rich celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary at Greenfield with Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Rich, Mrs. Lloyd Tewksbury and Dennis and Mr. and Mrs. Leon MacAdams, Jr., Sandra and Roger.

BENNINGTON

The Bennington Schools will start their year's activities on Wednesday, September 7th.

Don't forget that the first of the Woman's Club meetings will be the 16th of September.

Mrs. Elmer Parker has been ill for quite a few days.

Mrs. Arthur Call and family of Connecticut are visiting her sister, Mrs. Paul Cashion, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Cashion.

Mrs. Jennie Church was operated on the latter part of last week and is reported as doing well.

News Items From Bennington

Mrs. Maurice C. Newton
CORRESPONDENT

The following proposal is the outcome of a meeting at Fireman's Hall, Wednesday evening, August 24, 1949:

Proposed: that there be formed in Bennington, N. H., a Recreation Association for the benefit of future recreational activity in this town, including baseball, basketball, swimming meets, tennis, horse shoe meets, skiing, track meets, etc.

Proposed Board of Directors, if they accept and are elected at a meeting of the townspeople to be held August 31, 1949, at 7:30 p. m., officers to be appointed by the duly elected Board of Directors.

Walter Cleary, Mrs. Ruth Cody, Harry Brown, Mrs. Eugene Brown, Lawrence Parker, Sr., Mrs. Robert Powers, Charles Lindsay, Mrs. William Taylor, Joseph LeBlanc, Sr., Anne Lindsay, Herman Skinner, and Frieda Edwards.

There is a great need for organized recreation activities in this town. There are many phases which would come under this list and of course would entail careful consideration. This notice did not come to my desk in time for last week's news but we feel sure a careful consideration of this matter must come to mean much to the citizens of Bennington and the welfare of our young folks.

Pierce School to Open Sept. 7 Supt. Announces

BENNINGTON, Sept. 1 — Pierce School in Bennington will open on Wednesday morning, September 7. Supt. Stewart McCormack announced this week.

Mrs. Ruth Cody, principal, will again have Miss Lulu Cilley and Mrs. Lois Black as members of the staff. All three teachers attended summer school together at Keene Teachers' College.

A new member of the Pierce School is Miss Louise Harrison of Concord. Miss Harrison is a recent graduate of Plymouth Teachers' College with teaching experience in Groveton. She will teach grades one and two in Bennington.

Mrs. Grace Perry went home with her granddaughter, Mrs. Louis Roche, for an extended visit with her in Burlington, Vt.

A great many people worked very hard to make Old Home Day the great success it was, and deserve all the credit that's given them. But I think some of the women who stayed home and answered the telephone a trillion times a day deserve some credit too.

Mrs. Marita Perry and Wesley Connolly, of Brattleboro, and Evelyn Perry of Hartford, Conn., called on the Honeywells last Friday while on their trip to the White Mountains.

The Misses Ruth and Barbara Dinglee will be leaving next Monday for a week at Cape Cod, after which they will return to their duties, at Fisher Secretarial School in Boston and Longy School of Music in Cambridge, respectively, neapolis, to visit their son Franklin and his wife.

Mrs. G. W. Hunt entertained Mr. and Mrs. Robert Folsom from Springvale, and Miss Jane Hastings of Fryeburg, Maine, Sunday.

Miss Edna Cram of Kittery, Me., called on local friends Saturday.

There will be a food sale Friday, Sept. 2, at 3 o'clock on the Baptist church lawn. Proceeds will be used to assist in paying for the recent repairs on the parsonage.

Wednesday, Sept. 7, Robert Breck, County Forester, will speak in Library Hall on Trees for New Hampshire. This profusely illustrated lecture is sponsored by the Antrim Garden Club, and is open to the public. It should be of special interest to wood-lot owners. Everyone interested is cordially invited. The first meeting for the season of the Antrim P.T.A., will be held in School Hall, Thursday, Sept. 15, 8:00 p.m. Members please the change of date. The public is cordially invited to attend an Old Home service in the Woodbury Memorial Methodist church, Sunday, Sept. 11, at 3:30 p.m. The service will be in charge of Rev. Ray H. Cowen, District Superintendent.

A quick way to cut beans is by placing them on a cutting board in stacks of 10 to 12, after the ends have been snapped off. The whole stack is then cut at the same time.

Hillsboro Town Team Wins Two To Celebrate Old Home Day

HILLSBORO, Sept. 1 — Hillsboro A. C. celebrated Old Home Day by defeating Suncook 2-1. This was one of the best pitched games that Hillsboro has seen.

Suncook took the lead in the 4th inning when Laffbore singled, moving to second on Campbell's sacrifice and scoring on a single by Parenteau.

In the fifth inning Hillsboro tied the score when Whitney doubled. Pierce singled advancing Whitney to third. Stamatelos was hit by a pitched ball. Suncook then dropped a squeeze play bunt and Whitney scored. In the seventh Page dropped another squeeze play bunt with Stamatelos scoring. This was the game. Hillsboro and Pierce could not be stopped after that.

In the second offering Old Home Day the Old Timers were defeated 8-6. Sullivan pitching for the '49ers. Gove and Andrews pitched for the Old Timers.

On Sunday Hillsboro lost to Wilton 11-2.

Next Sunday Hillsboro will play a home game at Grimes field, 2:30 p.m.

HILLSBORO

A flag bearing 31 stars, several of which have been added during the time that it was owned by the family of Mrs. Leon Dennison, is now in the possession of Mrs. Dennison and was displayed during the past week for the first time in many years. It is known that the flag is more than a century old but it is still in perfect condition and is remarkably well preserved.

While in town Old Home Day, Congressman Norris Cotton was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sterling.
