The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church is having a Harvest Supper at the Community Hall, Saturday night, October 15, 1949, from 5:30 to 7:30 P. M.

Benevolent Society

The Benevolent Society of Smith Memorial church held its first meeting of the fall season on Wednesday afternoon, October 5. with a large attendance. The incoming president, Mrs. Shem Barnes, welcomed the gathering and outlined plans for the coming months: The inauguration of "prayer cells" when interested members will meet for ten minutes preceding each meeting for united prayer; the formation of a mission study class; an occasional all-day sewing meeting when the group will make a layette to be used by a refugee or displaced person's family; Adventures in Reading, in charge of Mrs. W. Ellinwood and Mrs. Samuel Hadley. Family Night was announced for October 21, with a special invitation to Sunday School teachers and pupils.

The speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Daniel Poling, whose topic, "Japan Today," carried out the theme of the mission study work for this year, gave a very fine and informative talk on conditions in Japan, picturing the changes and trends in that nation and its people, since Dr. and Mrs. Poling visited it in 1935. She stressed the importance of America's influence in this crucial period of the country's history, and gave praise for the work of General MacArthur, urging that we do all in our power to see that this is not interrupted through political or other pressure. Mrs. W. S. K. Yeaple and Mrs.

Shem Barnes were in charge of refreshments served from a beautifully decorated table at which Mrs. Cornelia Currier and Mrs. John Grimes poured. Tea, rice cakes, and fruit, following the Japanese pattern, were served by the assisting hostesses, Mrs. Warren Grimes. and Mrs. Marguerite G. McCarthy. All were gowned in the flowing silken kimonos so long associated with the garb of Japanese women, which it is hoped will never be entirely discarded in favor of American fashions.

Founders of N.E.C. Fraternity Initiate Selves

HENNIKER, Oct. 13 - Since they were the founders of a New England college chapter of Sigma Alpha Beta and lacked anybody to initate them, a score of the fraternity brethren have just finished initiating themselves. -

Pajama clad they have picniced on the village green, fished off a bridge in the middle of the community and otherwise governed their actions to satisfy themselves they have been properly initiated.

The students, mostly seniors, voted the action so future pledges may never say "you are asking us to do things you never had to do."

Ministerial Association To Meet in Henniker

HENNIKER, Oct. 13 — The 121st meeting of the Merrimack Association of Congregational Ministers will be held Thursday afternoon and evening at the Congregational church. After the business meeting, and a report on New England college by Prof. Harry B. Preston, there will be a public tour of the college. This will be followed by a public supper in the parish house. Rev. J. T. Stanley of Greensboro, N. C., will be the speaker at the evening meeting, also open to the public.

Thursday Final Day of Antrim Blue Cross Plan

ANTRIM. Oct. 13 - Next Thursday, Oct. 20, is the final day for applications for membership in the Antrim community group in the with their leader, Miss Jane Pratt. Blue Cross and Blue Shield plans. Everett N. Davis said today.

Mr. Davis is serving as chairman for the enrollment in the nonprofit services prepaving hospitalization expenses and providing allowances toward physicians' fees. He said that anyone in Antrim who is retired, selfemployed or not working where there are five or more can join the services at this time. The chairman said that he has folders which describe benefits in detail. When the enrollment ends October 20, he said, the group will not be reopened again until next September for new members or for adding of services by those who are not enrolled.

Of interest to my Weare readers is the fact that "Jimmie" Wilson, of Deering, who is stationed at Camp Dix, has just earned for himself a sharpshooter's medal. Jimmie tells us that the farm boys seem to be the best shots, no doubt because of the "Boy, gun and a dog" trips so close to the hearts of so many of our country boys.

Already it seems as though the Whitney School Bus had always been with us. Two busses cover the town, and they really do. The red and white one goes to East Weare. The other is a cheery yellow, and promptly at 9:23 every school morning we can set our clocks, when it stops at Wheldon's corner, in Clinton Grove. As far as I hear, everyone is very well pleased with the new school bus system.

to the Dixie Minstrel Show on Wednesday evening, October 19, at the high school gymnasium and sincerely hope the entertainment is well patronized. According to all reports the show is worth going miles to see and to hear.

"Laff It Off" in our opinion was really something worth while. Some of the cast were missing while others failed to show up. Erskine Broadley did a nice job as "John Q. Public," and the old showman was true to form as always. Miss Ruth Farmer, in her usual charming manner, carried the show along to a successful conclusion. "Gene Autry," taken by Roswell Whitcomb, Jr., handled a difficult situation remarkably well. He did not see the script until the night before the first show but was very much at home on the stage. Gay, old "Judy Canova," impersonated by Martha Badlwin sort of stole the show in parts. She knew her stuff as usual and hit a new high on the laff meter.

D.A.R., held their first meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Harriet Grimes, School st., on October 8, 1949. The regent, Mrs. Bernice Maynard of Concord, presided. Following the business session, current events in answer to roll call were given. The speaker, Mrs. Mary Holden, gave a most interesting account of her September vacation. She and her daughter. Miss Marjorie, visited friends in York and Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, making several trips to the points of interest in the state. They visited Gettysburg, where they found monuments to Confederate soldiers as well as the Union soldiers. They also visited Valley Forge, where George Washington and wife lived. Martha must have Loverin of Deering in summer found work difficult with the very few conveniences she had to work stand. It would be hard to pick the with. They visited an old church in a section of Harrisburg. She group, because all of them were said it was the church in which good. Twins

Within a few years Hillsboro's school rooms will have to be stretched to accommodate the oncoming rush of twins, for already the town has quite a collection. The yougest are Lorna and Donna Parker, born on August 1, 1949 to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Parker. Doris and Elizabeth Wadleigh whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wadleigh, were born on March 28, 1949. Donna and Diane Jordan, one and a half, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Jordan. John Evans' twins Mary and Marworker or visitor and Stuart Bruce sha, were born on New Years day Lance and Susan, were three years old last June. Thomas and Theresa Duggan, eleven, who parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Duggan. David and Donald Wood, really of Deering ,but enrolled in Hillsboro school, are fourteen years of age.

Other twins in whom I am interested are the John Pilington twins of Chester, Pennsylvania. Donna and Diana, three years old whose mother was formerly Helen Ellsworth, Mortin Bailey twins, George and Joan, seventeen of Sawyer of Ludlow, Vermont, and Mrs. Helen Blodgett of Brattleboro, Vermont, and Helens twin granddaughters.

A few half twins living in Hillsboro are Mrs. Ilene Parker whose sister Erlene lives in Goffstown; Mrs. Kerwin Ellsworth whose twin brother lives in Newport, and Mrs. Mary Cregan Cochrane whose brother John passed away a few years ago. Their may be others but I don't know about them. Hillsboro never had triplets but Henniker boasted of triplets many years ago.

The Juvenile Beach Club held its regular meeting in the Music room on Sunday, October 9, 1949, with its president, Charlene Fletcher, presiding. It was voted to entertain the Juvenile Music pupils of Henniker and Antrim at some later date. Bruce Jordan was in charge No person shall between the of the program and the following children played the piano: Charlotte Reed, Janice Fletcher, Janet and Maxine Teixeira, Charlene Fletcher. NEW HAMPSHIRE CONSERVATION OFFICER Phone 104 Wilton, N. H.

The season on grouse, hares, squirrels, opened October 1. Hunters report that there are plenty of birds and game but the foliage is so thick that the hunting is no good. Raccoon hunters were out in full force the first night. Plenty of coons but hard to get with the leaves so thick.

Wild boars seen near Newport have got the hunters all riled up in this neck of the woods. Fourteen half-grown were seen by a woodchopper last week.

George Marden of the home town reports a race with a doe deer the other day.

From now on it's a case of lost dogs. Be sure your name and phone number is on the collar so we can return the dog to you at once.

Watch your step these dark nights on the back roads as well as the trunk lines. Deer and raccoons are now moving and to hit one means heavy expense to your car (which you have to stand yourself). Nope, don't pass a school bus while the lights are fluttering. The cops are checking on you.

There is a small beagle hound hanging around the Heald fruit farms in Wilton. Who has lost such a dog?

The other day I got set back on my heels when a lady in a nearby town informed me that she has 36 grandchildren and also some greats. I'm not in her class.

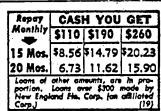

Yes, you can buy ruffed grouse from the Sandhill Game farm in Bagcock, Wis. The price is $40.00 a pair. They also sell deer, beavers and all kinds of wild game and Robert Foote of Bow celebrated birds.

Owls as rat killers? On my ranch have a peacock, in the next pen pigeons, the next a barn owl, the next pen a few ringnecks, and the next a horned owl. The rats make a mistake when they get into the owl pens.

Pilgrims Prep For Champlain

HENNIKER, Oct. 13 - From a squad of 52 hopefuls who reported at the season's outset, 36 now remain on Coach Ken Brown's grid machine at New England college. The Pilgrims' new mentor is responsible for most of this mortality, and the exacting training accounts for the balance.

The Royal Blue and Scarlet lads cal condition, and Brown has stepped up serimmage sessions in an attempt to keep his squad from any letdown until the opener against Champlain at Plattsburgh. N. Y., next week.

Practice sessions are being supplemented now with blackboard sessions in order to perfect the plays being readied. Three teams are being drilled by Brown, but it is doubtful if he will use the platoon system, due to lack of reserves. Approximately a third of the current candidates are freshmen, and while there is some promising talent among the newcomers, Brown will have to bank heavily on his veterans.

against Clarkson, Champlain has gained, even greater stature on the local campus. Despite this threetouchdown margin over Clarkson, the NEC squad has a reasonable hope of giving the New Yorkers a real battle.

Concentration this week will be on sharpening the running and passing game. Improvements are looked for in the kicking department, with "Doc" Richmond coaching in the punting, drop-kicking and place-kicking departments. THE STATE OF THE S
