Primaries

Primaries Tuesday! I can't go to the polls to vote, but I hope all other legal voters will avail themselves of the opportunity. Maybe our community turmoil will then get settled and we can enjoy a bit of peace until the November elections come and go.

What's In A Name?

The swallows would fly just as high if they were called penguins. Some of our common household utensils have very queer names. A frying pan speaks for itself, but why was it ever called a spider? It does fry pork chops and potatoes just as well as a frying pan as it is one and the same thing. A footstool is commonly called a cricket. Just why, I certainly do not know. My mother's slogan must have been "a cricket in every room," for she covered wooden boxes, usually the kind axe heads came in, with awning cloth or any durable material. They were convenient articles to have around.

A light stand also speaks for itself, but to me it is not "just anything upon which to place a light, but a small square table with one or two drawers, and sometimes none, which was usually placed beside the bed to hold a kerosene lamp or candle. We had several in our house, and I have one in my room now.

Just why we call a piece of plain or embroidered linen placed upon the back of a chair, a "tidy" I don't know either. My grandmother used to do in outline stitch a great many of these so-called "tidies," with Turkey red cotton thread or "Tambo." So, of course I did them too. We used them not only upon

ARCHITECTS CONFIDENT SCHOOL CAN BE BUILT WITHIN APPROPRIATION

HILLSBORO — At the regular meeting of the school board and building committee held Wednesday night the following business was transacted.

Upon unanimous recommendation of the building committee the members of the board signed a contract with the architects which had been drawn up by Atty. R. Wayne Crosby. Frank Kiernan, president of Perley F. Gilbert Associates, the architects, was present to add his signature thereto. Mr. Kiernan reported that the building specifications would be ready for final approval in about 10 days. If satisfactory, the construction would be put out to bids. He feels confident that it will still be possible to build at the figure appropriated.

Samuel Hadley was appointed to serve on the building committee to replace Wallace E. Richmond who recently became a board member.

Chairman of the board, Andrew Sargent, reported that there would have to be made some other arrangement for bringing drinking water to the Upper Village school. The family who usually supplied it could no longer do it on account of their own low water supply. He was delegated to find someone else with an adequate supply.

Mrs. George Edwards was granted a feeder line transportation route at the rate of $2. per day.

Board member Richard Withington was authorized to get bids on painting the upper trim on the High scholo and see that the job was completed.

He attended Central and Henniker High schools, and was graduated from Gardner High school, after which he spent over two years in the Navy. More recently he was the coach of the V.F.W., basketball team, Gardner's entry in the Central Mass. Basketball Assoc. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. Wins $10.00 in Spot Contest

Two pictures tell the story of this year's "Spot Contest," one above, when Ernest Stinson received the $10. donation from Morrell Parmenter, donated by the Eaton Furniture Co. The other picture which we didn't take but many saw, was Mr. Stinson leaning with one hand on the spot, the water hydrant in front of Crosby's Restaurant. In addition to the $10. (spent in Hillsboro for groceries), Mr. Stinson received $1. in cleaning service from Hillsboro Cleaners; a "Botany" tie from Tasker's; $1. in merchandise from Baldwin's, Feldblum's and Jabre's General Mart, a six month's subscription to the Messenger and theatre tickets from the Capitol Theatre.

GEORGE WEST, JR. WEDS MISS GERTRUDE READE

WEARE — The climax to a childhood friendship came Sunday with the wedding at the North Weare church of Gertrude Reade, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Reade, and George West, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George West of Philadelphia. At three o'clock Sunday afternoon, to the strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. Mable Tremblay, Miss Reade came down the aisle, escorted by her father, and preceded by her maids of honor and matron of honor.

She had a beautiful bride, gowned in white rayon sheer, designed with fitted bodice, full skirt and long train, with finger tip veil falling from a tiara of seed pearls. One of the bridesmaids was dressed in orchid, two in pale green, each carrying formal bouquets of orchid and white chrysanthemums.

Her matron of honor was dressed in orchid, with orchid hat, and formal bouquet of orchid and yellow mums. The bride carried a white prayer book with one white orchid, and a shower of roses and white ribbons.

She was given in marriage by her father, Rev. W. S. K. Yeaple officiated at a very impressive double ring service. Ushers were her brothers, Albert, and John and Herbert Duxbury.

After the wedding the young couple greeted each guest and a reception was held at the bride's home immediately. Plans had been made for an out-of-doors reception, but on account of rain it was held in the Reade home. In the receiving line in the living room were Mr. and Mrs. George West, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Leon Reade, Mr. and Mrs. George West, Jr., Mrs. John Reade, matron of honor, and the bridesmaids, the Misses Arlene Nichols, Marian Drew, Patricia Cosman and James Schaffel, the best man.

From the receiving line the guests were served with refreshments, buffet style, with Mrs. Mabel Tremblay serving the bride's cake, which was in several tiers, with small bride and groom added to the floral decorations. The many wedding gifts were on display. After everyone was served, the young couple, in a shower of rice, drove away on their wedding trip, Mrs. West wearing a black ensemble with dusty pink. About 200 guests were at the wedding. Mrs. Elsie Reade was in charge of the guest book.

Our friends in art "The Goffstown Art Club," now "The Merrimack Valley Region Arts and Crafts Ass'n" will hold their annual Exhibit at the Congregational parish house in Goffstown, September 11 to 18, daily 1 to 5:30 p.m., and Monday and Wednesday evenings 7 to 9:30 p.m. Admission is free and everyone is invited. Let's show our interest and go over some afternoon, the Goffstown group have certainly done their shore in supporting us when we have exhibitions.

In the mail just the other day came a complimentary copy of the 30th Anniversary Catalog of the Rockport Art Association at Rockport, Mass., and it was autographed by the curator of the gallery, Harriet Matson. The second part of their 30th Annual Exhibition is on through September 17th, hours daily 10-5:30 and Sundays 2:30-6. The catalog reproduces a cross-section of the works of their artist members, and anyone who wishes to can drop in anytime and look it over.

Send in your request now for your entry blank in ARTnews National Amateur Painters Competition, The Art Foundation, 136 East 57th st., N. Y. 22, N. Y. The response to last year's competition was enormous, a total of 1,866 actual entries were judged. Pictures came from every state in the union except South Dakota and Idaho. The largest group of entries were from housewives (546), next high school and college students, (149). Next in order were teachers, secretaries, librarians, physicians and surgeons, salesmen and women, engineers, dentists, publicity and advertising executives, nurses, and lawyers. The professions of the amateurs range from butlers, chiropractors, taxi drivers, mail carriers, physicians, prison guards, barbers, civil engineers, to poultry raisers. To each of these avocational painters painting means something different - relaxation or relief from everyday tension, release for self-expression, humorous outlet or remedy for boredom.

Last Wednesday evening vivacious Marguerite Jackson sat for us and through the class was small due to several meetings on that Wednesday eve it was a hard working class with hardly an interruption the whole two hours.

This is a pleasant time of year when we greet townfolks returning from vacations, camping trips, bringing their families back for the current school term, and all of them looking so brown and refreshed. Lots of us just took our vacation for two hours on Wednesday nights down in the Cellar Studio and we probably look sort of wishy-washy to the returners, but we had a lot of fun too. 'Tis hard to believe that next week will be our 3rd anniversary, a record to be proud of. Guess we'll have to celebrate.

TIME: Every Wednesday night 8 to 10 p.m.

PLACE: Cellar Studio, Valley Hotel.

FACTS: You are welcome as a worker or a visitor and Stuart Bruce is our instructor.

More answers to questionnaires from Candidates, and general information about the Candidates. Questions for Candidates seeking election to County offices: Question A: What suggestions have you toward more efficient and economical administration of County Government? Question B: What do you feel is our greatest County problem? Question C: How do you feel about all police, (state, county and town) under one central state authority?

Answers from Thomas F. O'Brien, Dem., Candidate for the office of Sheriff, Hillsborough: Answer A: "The Administration of County Government covers a large field, and I am obliged to limit that question to that pertaining to the position I now hold, namely, Sheriff of the County--I am frank to admit that I would not qualify as an expert in other fields,..." "I feel fully satisfied that it would be difficult to prove that a better or more efficient and economical method (than the one now in operation) could be introduced, and I feel equally satisfied that if a different method would be adopted, it would not be more efficient, yet would be much more expensive, to say the least. As Sheriff I have worked over a period of many years with the State Police in our County, and we have cooperated excellently. I, as Sheriff have been able to make contacts which in my opinion could not have been made by State Police, and my experience as Sheriff convinced me that usually when a person is charged with a crime he is more likely to confide in me than he would be with a member of the State Police. My deputies cover most of the County, and their duties are mostly limited to service of legal papers, and in no way do they conflict with the duties of the State Police. In major crimes, I am called by my deputies or the State Police, and my record over a period of many years will show that in all cases I responded and worked with the State Police. There is no duplication at least insofar as fees are involved."

Answer B: "Our greatest problem in my opinion is 'Child Delinquency.' Frankly, I am 'fed up' with that title. I would prefer to call it 'Parent Delinquency'--My experience proved to me that in the vast majority of cases the delinquency of children can be traced directly to the delinquency of their parents. I would surprise the average citizen if he would inquire as to the cost of disposing of cases involving crime of young people caused by improper supervision of their parents, plus laxity by allowing the children to accuse the parents of being old fashioned. As Sheriff, I have devoted a great deal of time and effort in a special way, without expense to the County, to save and keep the so-called bad boy or girl from becoming a criminal. I deem it my duty to protect the citizens of our County and State, but I feel that it is equally my duty to be merciful to the sinner, and strive to keep these young people from becoming criminals, rather than actually causing arrests on small misdemeanors, thereby creating a criminal record on these 'kids' who did not have a chance at home."

Answer C: "Again, I am limiting my suggestion to my office and Hillsborough County--frankly, I am convinced that the State, County and Town police should not be under one State authority." Answers from Frank T. Conway, Candidate, Dem., for Registrar of Probate Court: Answer A: "I do not believe that efficiency and economy can be achieved on any level of government, be it city, county, state or national, by enforced regulations clamped down from the top. Only when each and every official elected to office does his utmost to practice these two virtues in his own jurisdiction, can efficiency and economy be achieved on any level or government to any lasting degree. By cutting appropriations we may achieve economy, but we do not necessarily achieve efficiency in so doing. Although I myself believe it to be the bounden duty of officials elected to be economical, and not to run for the particular office he has in mind unless he feels that he can serve the people efficiently. I realize that all too often this is not the case. That those elected to office do not fill the bill. The voters of America must be made aware of their glorious responsibility as voters, and I believe that through the splendid work of organizations such as yours, they are becoming aware of that precious gift of liberty, the right to vote for those who govern them."

Answer B: "The greatest problem facing the county today, and the nation, for that matter, on the individual level, is to my mind taxes. The people bear a heavy burden of taxes and yet the legislators of the state are continually trying to find ways of getting more money out of the population. Suffice to say that to my mind a little more efficiency in the right places would eliminate the need for more taxes."

Answer C: "As to placing all police power in the state under one central authority I would say that were it a commission, yes, I would favor the action; were it one man I would be a little wary, as I am not now, and never have been in favor of placing too much power in the hands of one man. A state police commission, coordinating all local, county, and state police services would offer better protection to those towns not able to afford a regular police service and also offer better protection to the state by its increased efficiency. Actually, I do not feel this problem too pressing, although it is important. In the interest of efficiency however, I do not feel that such a commission should be allowed to become a 'political football.' Were it to become one, it would do so at the sacrifice of all its desirable factors."

The following Candidates for offices in County, State and National levels are expected to be present at the Non-Partisan Candidates' Meeting in conjunction with the Band Concert, Thursday, September 7, 1950, at Grimes Field--7:30 p.m., for the Band Concert, 8:30 p.m., for the Candidates' Meeting: For Representatives to the General Court: Russell V. Wadleigh, Henry Charles B. Sullivan, For Governor, Walter C. Sterling, For State Senator: Stanley M. Brown, George W. Boynton, Lester E. Connor, For Sheriff, John L. Putnam, For County Solicitor, John J. Broderick, Charles B. Sullivan, For Governor, Eugene S. Daniell, Jr., Robert P. Bingham, For Representative to Congress, 2nd district, Joseph Moore, George Brummer, For Registrar of Probate Court, Frank Conway.

Among the sources of those innumerable calamities which from age to age have overwhelmed mankind, may be reckoned as one of the principal, the abuse of words.

Letters To The Editor

TO THE EDITOR—

The primaries will be held next week, September 12. The importance of them cannot be over-emphasized. It is here that we choose the person for whom we will vote in November. There are two state wide contests between Tobey and Powell, and Adams and Daniell. And then we have our own smaller contest for state Senator between Lester Connor, George Boynton of Hillsboro and Stanley Brown of Bradford. We don't know if there ever was a State Senator from Henniker or not, but now is Henniker's chance to have one, if only all the voters get out and vote, sometime next Tuesday. For those who are eligible, but are not on the checklist, a final chance will be given on Monday evening from 7-8 o'clock in the evening when the supervisors will meet in the Selectmen's Office.

Mrs. Diamond Maxwell

To The Voters of Hillsboro:

I would like to take this opportunity to inform the voters of Hillsboro how I feel relative to the School Board action on certain matters, much in the limelight at the present time.

The question of salary seems to be a point of discussion and I will endeavor to give the facts pertaining to this issue. In March when the School Board of the Special District started to consider their budget requirements for the year 1950-51, the main industry in town was not in operation and, to our knowledge, there was no Korean war in sight. I therefore took the stand that I didn't see how it was possible to ask the taxpayers of Hillsboro for sufficient funds to give a general wage increase in our school system and the board went along with me on that item. Therefore, when the merger of the school districts was completed and we sent out contracts to the eight elementary teachers we did not offer any increase, but the same contract of $2,200 to all except the principal, who was to receive the usual $200. difference. These same teachers were then sent a form asking if they would agree to work for the $2,200 and also if they would agree to be assigned to any grade or school decided on by the superintendent and the board. Six signed forms were returned to us stating that they would agree to work for $2,200 and be willing to go by the board ruling concerning the school and grade. Two teachers returned their contracts unsigned and we were faced with the problem of filling the vacancies. This we tried to do but, with the situation changing as it has the past two months, we were unable to hire anyone under $2,400 whom we felt was up to the standard we had set for our school. After much deliberation it was decided that if we were to maintain this standard we would have to pay $2,400.

Much has been said about not sending the contracts out earlier. At the time of the usual contract period we were in the middle of one of the largest moves within the Town of Hillsboro in the last fifty years. We did not know whether we were going to have one school system or two. We did not know how many teachers we would need to take care of the combined districts. There was also a question of whether or not two teachers might be forced to retire under the retirement law going into effect. These are the reasons why no contracts were given out until after the merger.

Regarding our new school, it was voted at our recent school meeting to cut the budget by $1,600 which was to be the first six months interest payment on the bond issue if it was issued. At that time the people at the meeting were informed by a certain person that it was very probable that we would not be able to build at this time and consequently it was felt that we did not need the money for any bond issue. I am of the opinion that there isn't any one in Hillsboro at the present time who knows whether we are going to be able to build or not. Until such a time comes it is up to the board to ask for the money covering this fixed charge voted by the last special meeting. The removal of this amount from the budget gives to the taxpayers of Hillsboro for this year a very nice tax levy, but next year should the school bonds be issued and the building get under way you will have the $1,600 not voted this year plus $3,200 interest next year and the payment of $8,000 on the principal, making at least $12,800 more to be added as a fixed charge to be met by the taxpayers of Hillsboro in the year 1951.

Let us remember that the building committee has six members on

To The Editor:

An open letter to the Editor of the Hillsboro Messenger:

Since your paper is known for its attitude of fairness and a desire to print the truth I wish to submit the following statement in the interests of both fairness and truth and also because I believe your readers should be alerted to the dangers of subversive work here in our midst.

I feel that it is necessary to make this public statement in behalf of my family. The reason is this. My wife and I have been accused by persons in the Town of Washington of being Communists. In these days of Korean-war-inspired hysteria there will, I fear, be many loyal Americans so accused. A witch hunt is on. Unfortunately, Communism does not show on the skin as the actual disease that it is.

There is a definite and a very real danger to any or all of us Americans, or for that matter, any freedom-loving persons in any country under Communist attack. It is a known fact that one of the methods of attack used by the Communists is to discredit to damage the character of any one whom they think to be their enemy, or a potential enemy. It is a technique, very clever, subtle, and difficult to combat. I feel very strongly that any person who furthers, or passes on any such slanderous and unwarranted propaganda totally based upon falsehoods is a tool of the Communist party itself. Such a person is allowing himself to be used by that party. He is literally helping them to attain their goal. My wife and I are avowed enemies of Communism.

Mrs. Bruce, in an invited talk that she gave to the Washington grange shortly after her return from Japan, told of some of the Communist activities she had witnessed. She went on record as having combated the ideas of Communism as part of her assignment. Her written record is on file for anyone who may wish to refer to it. Mrs. Bruce has been invited to give several such talks. I doubt if the Communists like it. Mrs. Bruce has fought Communism for the past twenty-five years and intends to fight it. Any statement that implies that she is or has been sympathetic to Communism is an outright falsehood.

Personally, I have never had the occasion to make any such public declaration. I do so now! We, Dr. Lura S. Bruce, and I are not Communists. We are not, and we never have been, Communist Sympathizers. We do not agree with any of the teachings or the beliefs of the Communist party. On the contrary, we do affirm our belief in, and our unqualified loyalty to the United States of America, and to the rights and freedoms of all freedom-loving people of the world.

I believe that the American people must learn to recognize the tactics of our enemies and to oppose them violently wherever they exist. I believe that the peoples of the world are now faced by the opposing ideologies, Freedom or Enslavement under the Kremlin. I believe that we are engaged, now, in a clash between these two ideas that can end only in the complete destruction of one and the survival of the other.

We must fight with all of our separate and combined abilities, our very lives, to preserve our freedom and our way of life.

Signed:
STUART BRUCE

EDITORIAL COMMENT

THE MESSENGER PREFERS

Most of the weekly papers in N. H. have endorsed candidates in the Republican Primaries. One editor refused to have anything to do with endorsements because of the Korean War. He felt that this is no time for politics.

While this is somewhat true, it is also true that the war against the enemies of democracy is also being fought in N. H. and that one of the leaders in the democratic way of life, as opposed to the conservative reactionaries on the one hand and the Communist left on the other, is Senator Tobey.

Because Tobey has supported the best interests of the common man in Washington, at times actively supporting Democratic proposals, he is under fire from the conservative Republicans who would have him misrepresent the people and vote blindly for party partisan proposals whether they are of value or not. To defeat Tobey they have the support of the Loeb papers and the financial interests who are keeping Powell supplied with campaign funds.

Powell is definitely a controlled candidate and to have machine controlled politicians in Washington is not good.

Mr. Powell has made much of the charge that Tobey has a record of "absenteeism" disregarding the long length of time Tobey was continuously at the bedside of his wife, Francis, during her long and fatal illness; the times Tobey represented the Government at Bretton Woods, in California on committee assignments etc. To include these occasions along with unimportant quorum calls to make an average is stooping to a new low.

In reply to a questionnaire compiled by the Concord Monitor the editor said he would vote for Daniell in preference to Adams if for no other reason than to protect the present lack of state aid to the schools.

As for the State Senator most Hillsboro people would like again to see George Boynton as State Senator.

In the contest for Hillsboro representation in the General Court the editor will vote for two of the four candidates.

AN APPEAL FOR CHILDREN'S AID

If one were to enumerate the assets of the State of New Hampshire the New Hampshire Children's Aid Society would place very high. It is splendidly organized to do a most important work and has been doing that for many years. Every citizen may feel proud of it. The annual appeals for financing its work are now in the mails. I am sure every mother and father and any other person who holds a particular child in affection must feel grateful that, should misfortune befall, this Society exists. Misfortune did befall nearly 900 children and youths in New Hampshire last year. The Children's Aid cared for them not only efficiently and intelligently but with understanding and kindness. To carry on it needs only the dollars you can find for it.

upholstered chairs but also at the back of wash stands in bedrooms to protect wallpaper from being splattered, and in numerous other places.

Castors, not the kind used to move furniture more easily, but the table variety, may have some reason for the name, if you know what it is. We used to have some long ago, a small contraption which must have been pewter, which held 4 small bottles. When my father returned from one of his winter vacation trips to Boston, he brought home a very elegant castor. It was 12 or 14 inches high and bright shining silver, and held 6 good-sized bottles with salt, pepper, vinegar, mustard and pepper sauce. The other was usually empty. I think we used this for only a short time. It was too big. When standing in the middle of the table my father could not see my mother, and nobody else could reach the thing. It was soon given up for smaller salt and pepper shakers.

What is a "case knife"? When my mother made pies in the further pantry, she frequently asked me to get a case knife out of the cupboard, a short mile away. If nothing else, this shows poor management, but helped to keep me busy.

Center Road

The Center road might almost be called Murdough road. On the east side of the Center road from the Center down, the first thirteen houses are occupied by Murdoughs or some connection of this family. First, is Charlie Murdough and family. Next, Mrs. Mary Murdough has rented Florence Lincoln's little house. Clifford Murdough, Jr., and family live on the former Carl Colby place. Farther down, Clifford Murdough and wife and what are left of his children unmarried live in a house facing the cross road. Mrs. Wallace Murdough still occupies her house on School street. Then there is Mrs. Gerald Sweet (Frances Murdough) who lives in the house her father, Clifford Murdough, first built. Farther down, her cousin, Irene Murdough Parker, lives in her old home. Murdough is the name of one of our very early pioneers, for Thomas Murdough settled on the farm on the East Washington road once owned by John Davis. Most of us associate the name "Murdough" with County road, for years ago there were several by that name who lived or owned property there.

New Citizen

His name is Stephen Rice Colby. He arrived at the Rochester hospital on August 29. His mother's name is Betsy Foxcroft Colby, and his father's name is George Peel Colby. He and his mother left the hospital on Sunday and went to their new home in Ossipee, where his father is to be principal of the Consolidated Elementary school.

John Tasker took four boys with him to the Canaan Fair last Wednesday. — Jack Tasker, Donald Wood, Wayne Wilson and Frank Gay.

The Honeywells went to Vermont on Saturday. On Sunday morning Mr. Honeywell preached in the old church at Bennington, Vt., which I think is the oldest church in the state. Next Sunday he is preaching in the Hillsboro Methodist church. He left his wife in Brattleboro, where they visited their relatives a few days. They expect their daughter, Miss Julia Gay Honeywell, will be with them soon for her vacation from her work with the National Geographic.

Miss Gertrude Janowsky and Miss Ethel Farley have returned to Melrose for the opening of schools there on Wednesday.

The Misses Melita Whitcomb and Janet Tasker came home on Monday night from the Grand View Hotel, Hampton Beach, where they have been working this summer.

Norman Wilbur, son of Mrs. Gertrude Murphy Wilbur, of Keene returned home after spending the summer with the George Goulds.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Reese of Melrose, Mass., came up on Monday for the day. Mrs. Grace Perry returned home with them for a visit.

Walter Colby is now employed by the Whitney Bus Company.

Among the large number of holiday weekend people in town were several former residents. — Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson (Ardell Call) and her mother, Mrs. Esther Call, of Medford were guests of the James Ellsworths.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Aim and two sons of White Plains, N. Y., were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Mason.

Miss Janet Whitney of Boston, co-worker of Miss Phyllis Bond in a Boston dental office, was the guest of Phyllis.

Mr. and Mrs. Vallier (Dorothy Brown) stayed at Mrs. Nellie Melten's guest home.

Miss Rosemary Bridgen of Middletown, Conn., and Mrs. Blanche Coe of Durham, Conn., were guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Ernest Marcy.

Mrs. Charles Taylor of Center Harbor, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Gould.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stover (Mabel Mossia) of Hopdale, Mass., were guests of her brother, John Mosia, and Miss Nora Ashford.

Miss Marjorie Head, now of Manchester, who lived here on Church street, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Natt Head, some years ago, called on friends in town on Sunday.

Frank Gay attended the wedding reception of Charlotte Ann Colby and Ernest E. Barry on Sunday, September 3, at four o'clock. The couple were married in the Greek church in Franklin. The reception was held in the Town hall in Boscawen with about 600 guests present. The bride is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Colby of Boscawen.

Miss Ellen McClintock, senior at Plymouth Normal college, went to Newport on Monday, where she will teach General Business in the High school for the first 18 weeks of the school year.

We have all been wishing for three days of rainy weather, but would have been glad to have had them most anytime except over the long weekend. That is one thing we take as we get it and say nothing.

David Wood and Edwin Dutton of Deering, and Jack Tasker showed their Southdown sheep in the Open Class at the Hopkinton Fair. The Deering boys showed three sheep each and Jack, too. All the boys received prizes. They expect to go to Cheshire Fair next week.

REPORTER, PLAYERS DEPLORE CONDITION OF HILLSBORO DIAMOND

HILLSBORO — There was no activity on the local diamond this past weekend but there is an item of interest to sports fans and taxpayers alike which I would like to bring to your attention.

Grimes Field has been a center of controversy for the past two years. Our once-beautiful ball park is in a pitiful state of disrepair.

This year our Town team rejoined the Tri-Mountain League under new leadership. As the weeks went by the locals played better ball on a field that was rapidly decreasing in beauty.

The infield and outfield became filled with holes and rocks. Trash was littered all around the track. The grandstand was swept only when the Town team did it: Every Sunday morning Manager Page and some of his ball players were down at the ball park wetting down the field, sweeping the grandstand, raking the infield and smoothing out the mound and batters' boxes.

These men are not responsible for this job. They did it at no cost to the Town. They did it only because they wanted the field in condition for good baseball.

Go down and look at Grimes Field. The infield is overgrown with weeds as it has been all season. The outfield is pitted and rocky.

Even the softball diamond is in a sorry state. It is questionable whether or not anything has been done to it all year.

I have here a few statements from mball players and taxpayers concerning the situation.

Manager Howard Page -- "I feel that the way the Town's money has been used on the field this year that it was an absolute waste."

Outfielder Larry Stevens -- "The field is unsatisfactory to me. You can't be sure of ground balls to the outfield. A baseball acts more like a football when it hits those rocks and holes."

Vic Bondar has spoken, both publicly and to your writer, on the disgraceful condition of the field and the way things have been handled in regard to the ball park in particular.

Think it over. Do you want to continue pouring money into Grimes Field for nothing? Is this the way you want to spend your money? If it isn't why don't you do something about it next March at Town meeting?

The Town team is in the playoffs and will play next Sunday but the pairings and location of games has not yet been announced.
