The Benevolent Society of Smith Memorial church will serve its annual Harvest Supper in the vestry on Wednesday, November 1st, at 6:30. Mrs. Niles Stevens, chairman of Supper committee; Mrs. George Colby, dining room hostess; and Mrs. Fred Gile has charge of the tickets.

Benevolent Society Guest Night

On Wednesday evening, October 18, the Benevolent Society of Smith Memorial church entertained the members of the Fortnight club, the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church, the Deborahs, and the Ladies Aid of Lower Village in the church vestry.

Nearly a hundred women attended and enjoyed not only the program and social hour, but the especially lovely decorations of red oak leaves and other bright-hued foliage, combined with button chrysanthemums and the colorful bittersweet which lends itself so artistically with autumn arrangements. Harvest-time in all its abundance and color was beautifully expressed in the huge silver epergne which graced one of the tables with its over-flowing piles of fruit, gourds, and giant grape clusters.

Mrs. Hilda Bruynel of Weare, who is becoming more and more the favorite reader in this locality, delighted her hearers with four well-chosen selections, and Mrs. Ross Robertson, soloist, with Mrs. John Hollis, accompanist, both of Henniker, gave much pleasure to her listeners with two groups of songs.

Cake and coffee were served by the hostesses from a beautifully appointed table presided over by Mrs. Donald Annis, President of the Society and Mrs. George Hall, treasurer and chairman of the program committee.

Decorations and refreshments were in charge of Mrs. Paul Kuhn and assisting hostesses, Mrs. Leon Fitch, Mrs. Raymond Davis, Mrs. James Leach and Mrs. Ira Roach.

Gift to Hillsboro Nurses' Association

The Hillsboro Center Congregational Benevolent Society has a very small membership but its achievements are far from small. A few years ago the Society gave an audiometer to the District Nurses' Association to be used in testing the hearing of all school children in Hillsboro. Mrs. Bailey has just finished testing the children for this year. She did it in less time than in previous years because the same Benevolent Society gave an extra set of ten earphones a few weeks ago, so now she can test twenty children instead of just ten at a time. Not so many children are found to be hard of hearing in Hillsboro, but if only one were found and helped, it would be worthwhile. We should all be grateful for the recent gift. Just a short time ago the Deborah club paid for the servicing of the audiometer and new records.

Miss Gilmore, Prize Winner

Miss Madeline Gilmore has just finished the first two years of a four-year course in commercial art by correspondence with Art Instruction, Incorporated, of Minneapolis, Minn., one of the largest commercial art schools in the United States. Miss Gilmore entered the 1950 competition sponsored by the school, with students from all over the United States and some foreign countries. She submitted a stylized iris and a decorative design in yellow and black, yellow buttercups on a solid black background. For the latter she was awarded first prize of $35.00. She hopes to continue with her course in commercial art.

Present United Nations Flag to Students

The fifth anniversary of the United Nations was observed in Hillsboro by the presentation of the United Nations flag to the students of Hillsboro High school. Mrs. Edith Phelps made the presentation at the assembly Monday and Headmaster extension bureau sewing group at the home of Rev. Russell Perry. The flag has a blue field with a polar map of the world surrounded by olive branches in white in the center.

Sergius Bernard accepted the flag for the school. Shown above displaying the flag is Mrs. Clara Richardson, Mrs. Edith Phelps and Alvin Taylor, president of the student council. The flag was made recently by the Hillsboro home

New Road to By-Pass Lower Village Community

CONCORD—Public Works Commissioner Frank D. Merrill announced this week that contracts for $1,700,000 of improvements of Route 9, from Concord to the Vermont border will be let within a short time.

Much of the improvement will be in the Hillsboro, Antrim area. According to a report in the Concord Monitor the work to be done in Hillsboro will be a new bridge and one and one-half miles of new road, running from the utility station west to the intersection of Routes 9 and 31. This road will come out near the 1830 house and will isolate the Lower Village from heavy through traffic. Seven miles of road improvement work will be done in Antrim, some of it near the Antrim Lakeside Cabins where it was rumored that a bridge would be built at Steele Pond.

The work will entail four projects covering 15 miles of the 65-mile highway. On all four jobs 24-foot lanes with 4-foot shoulders on each side, will replace 20-foot pavements.

Commissioner Merrill revealed that survey work is being completed this week on all projects and will be advertised for bids as soon as the details have been given formal approval of the federal Public Works Administration, which is scheduled to finance about one-half of the expenditures.

Actual work on some of the projects is expected to begin early in the winter preparatory to full swing work in the spring.

Mrs. Irene Flanders, North Weare Tel. 500

Messengers For Sale at Colburn Bros. Store, Lowe & Johnson, Corner Grocery Store, A. D. Eastman Store and Sawyer's Weare Center Store.

Since the start of school this fall, the number of books being taken out of the Library has jumped, with 20 new names added to the list of readers. An all time high, of 164 books taken out in one day, was reached last week.

School lunches started Monday of this week, with Mrs. Edith Purington "Chefess", as the children called her, assisted by Mrs. Charles Stafford. Monday's lunch was the ever favorite chop suey. Turkey is also on the week's menu.

House guests of the Edwin Flanders recently were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Perkins and Mrs. Grace Perkins of Larchmont, N. Y.

Mary Flanders, daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. Franklin Flanders, called her parents by phone Sunday evening, to congratulate them on their 21st anniversary. Miss Flanders also was happy to tell them that at the school dance at Duke, Vaughn Monroe's orchestra furnished the music, and that she had a pleasant talk with Mr. Monroe, who inquired for his Weare friends, and the Morgan family. Perhaps not too well known is the fact that the orchestra leader at one time owned a summer home in Weare, where he enjoyed summers.

Last week was a busy week in Weare. Thursday night an interesting Republican rally was held in Osborne Memorial hall, at South

Weare, with speakers, including auxiliary in the absence of Mrs. Sen. Charles Tobey, and Con. Nor-Esther Hight, pres. Routine business for Sen. Bridges, who had planned for the Community Halloween parties for the children. Apple pie, cheese and coffee were served by Mrs. Rita Farmer, and Mrs. Beatrice Bockus.

The new officers of Star Rebekah lodge were installed Tuesday evening, by Mrs. Hilda Bruyneel and suite. Mrs. Marion Welch is the new Noble Grand, Mrs. Rose Dodge the new Vice-Grand. Other officers were Mrs. Minnie Peaslee, sec.; Mrs. Edith Purington, treas.; Mrs. Althea Lahey, warden; Mrs. Sylvia Paige, conductress; Mrs. Hilda Bruyneel, chaplain; Mrs. Mabel Tremblay, R.S.N.G.; Mrs. Katherine Travor, L.S.N.G.; Mrs. Henrietta Fisher, inside guardian; Mrs. Marian Russell, R.S.V.G.; Mrs. Muriel Fuller, L.S.V.G.; outside guardian, Mrs. Thelma Farwell; Mrs. Doris Hadlay, musician. The buffet lunch following was served by Mrs. Barbara Osborne, Miss Leona Bachelder, Mrs. Gladys Hutchins, and Mrs. Lena Crosby.

Dinner guests Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Nichols were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Coville, of Bedford, and Mr. and Mrs. William Wheldon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wheldon, Sr., had as Sunday guests several of their family, including Mr. and Mrs. Walter Asprey, of Orange, N. J., Major and Mrs. Elmer Wheeler, of Milford, and Mr. and Mrs. William Wheldon, and children, Dorothy, Lois and Frank.

Charles Chagrosulis is driving the Clinton Grove school bus, recently driven by Chester French, Jr., who soon enters the U. S. service. News has been received here of the death in Framingham, Mass., of Joseph Esterbrooks, former Weare resident. He was a member of Mt. William lodge, I.O.O.F., of Weare, and at the time of his death he and his wife were the oldest living grange members in New England. Funeral services were held in Hopkinton, Mass., and burial in Bedford cemetery. Attending from Weare were Noble Grand George Farwell, Frank Davis and Frank Downing.

A very pretty wedding and reception took place Saturday when Mirilyn Banker became the bride of Donald Thomson. The marriage was at North Weare church and the reception was at Halestown grange hall, and was well filled with friends, and then the get away was in order, with plenty of cars and all blowing horns they left for their honeymoon to New York City and then Niagara Falls and other places of interest to them. Mr. Thomson is with the Public Service Co. of N. H.

Services for Edgar Taylor Retired Sea Captain

WEARE—Funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon for Edgar Taylor, at the South Weare church, Rev. Edward McGlennen, the minister. Mr. Taylor, a resident of South Weare for 20 years, was 86 years old, and was born in Newfoundland, coming to Massachusetts, and 20 years ago moved to the old Grant place, near the South Weare church. He was a retired sea captain and boat builder, and had many interesting sea stories to tell. While active he worked as a carpenter. He had been ill only a short time in the Concord hospital.

Part of the funeral service was the reading of some of Mr. Taylor's favorite poems, from his scrapbook, including "Crossing the Bar". Many beautiful floral tributes came from relatives and friends.

Bearers were Peter Hooper, Leon Grant, Guy Thorpe, Charles Wood, Thomas Eastman, and Don Putnam. Coming from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Ashton McLeod and son, Robert, Milton, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bonfilio, and Frank and Susette, Waltham, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Keeler, Bedford, Mass.; Mrs. Cecil Taylor, and Mrs. Jennie Natoli, and the Misses Lena and Rose Benfilio, Belmont, Mass.

Time-Place-Fact

by Jeanne Eccles

"While the cat's away, the mice will play," and that is just what we did last Wednesday evening. Stuart was up in Unity and couldn't get here in time so he will have a lot to talk over this week when he sees what we did in his absence.

Joe Rowen of Boston stopped an hour or so on his way into Hillsboro last week and painted a small landscape - a small white cottage in the foreground, gaily colored trees in the middle ground and several ranges of hills in the background with Kearsarge Mt., in the far distance. During the evening he worked on a painting of his young daughter taken from an enlarged snapshot. We all took turns at giving advice and really got a lot of it off our chests!

Miriam and Cy both finished their harvest still lifes and are ready to frame them. Priscilla attended the annual meeting of the Keene Creative Artists Group in Keene and although I haven't seen her since would judge that she completed arrangements for getting the large Nativity scene over here, and extended thanks from the Town of Hillsboro for the opportunity of having it here. Let's do our best when it does get here and get set up to tell everyone possible about it and protect it to the best of our ability.

Edward Comiskey visited us last Sunday and is going to try to bring the Art Professor from St. Anselms over some Wednesday night. Eddie is looking fine, has a new car, and has been doing a number of watercolor paintings this summer. He has that certain touch with watercolors that makes his work quite lucrative.

Mrs. Harriet Grimes, one of our charter Associate members, helped out our treasury once again last week, which will probably go towards our membership in the Keene Creative Arts Group this coming year. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clafin, Jr., of Boston have also joined our associate member group again, showing their interest in so many ways.

Louis Ordway will be back with us this Wednesday evening so am welcoming him before hand. He started using oils in the spring, (you may remember his "Modern Caveman" in the show) and it won't take long for him to get his hand back in.

Now that the days are darkening earlier, hope to see the youngsters gathering at the "Round Table", too, and with easels and drawing boards propped up all over the Cellar, and the smell of turpentine in the air, Wednesday evenings are looked forward to from week to week by everyone of us. Let's really reap a harvest in November and get a lot of work done. Paint that small picture to give away for Christmas or make those Christmas cards you have always wanted to.

Window shades from Eaton's Furniture Store and one great big one from Walter Sterling's renovated Ezzo Station are in our storage case ready for our oil painting group. You see everybody in town is interested, "the butcher, the baker, even down to the candlestick maker".

TIME: Every Wednesday evening, 8 to 10 p.m.
PLACE: Cellar Studio, Valley Hotel.

FACTS: You are welcome as a worker or a visitor and Stuart Bruce is our instructor.

N. H. Lawyers Begin Reference Plan

New Hampshire this month became the first State in the nation to have a state-wide Lawyer Reference Plan, when the New Hampshire Bar Association put into operation a Reference office in every county of the state. Staffed by competent attorneys, the Reference Plan is designed to make available to all persons, regardless of their wealth, legal services at a cost all can afford to pay.

Legal counsel is a right guaranteed to all under our constitution, and the members of the New Hampshire Bar Association recognize that it is their duty to see that all who need such counsel can have it, if they so desire. Surveys conducted by the American Bar Association show that many people are deprived of their rights because they fail to seek legal counsel, either because they do not realize that they need it, or do not know how to secure a lawyer's services. The new service is expected to correct this situation.

Under the New Hampshire Lawyers Reference Plan, anyone in trouble who does not have a lawyer and wants to secure legal services, merely calls the Reference Attorney in his county. The Reference Attorney makes an appointment for the client, with a lawyer on his list of participating attorneys under the Plan. The client discusses his problems with the attorney to whom he is referred privately, exactly as if he had selected the lawyer personally. The charge for the consultation, which may last as long as an hour, is only five dollars.

If that consultation shows that the client needs additional legal services the client may, but need not, retain the attorney to do the additional work, and if he does, they agree between themselves on the fees to be charged. If any disputes arise, the Bar Association's Grievance Committee is available to adjust them.

All lawyers participating in the Plan are members of the New Hampshire Bar Association, and all are in active practice. No person will be refused the services of the Plan, if he does not already have a lawyer.

Old Time Carpenters

Recently someone asked me if I knew who built the Woodbury house. It has been there ever since I can remember but Walter supplied the answer. After the house and little barn, which stood on that site was moved across the field to Central street, now occupied by the Boyd family, Ephraim Hoyt, contractor and builder, of Loon pond, with his sons, Will and Fred, and Alonzo Robbins, built the present house. The Hoyts lived in a big house a bit southwest of the lake and the Robbins lived very close to the Hoyt house. The house was built for Mr. and Mrs. Morrill and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Merrill. Belle Morrill married Frank Merrill. There were no children, just the two couples, each living in a big half of the house. Morrill and Merrill were first proprietors of the grocery and hardware store where Hillsboro General Store is now.

State Sunday School Teachers' Convention

State Sunday School Teachers' Convention held in Concord on Friday and Saturday was attended by several Hillsboro people. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Buttrick, Mrs. Donald Baker, Mrs. Donald Matthews, and Miss Virginia Johnson attended the banquet and meeting Friday night. Saturday meetings were attended by Mrs. John Tasker, Mrs. Donald Baker, Miss Virginia Johnson, Miss Ruth Ryley, Rev. Russell E. Perry and Mrs. Cyrus Phelps.

Last Saturday was Home Coming Day at the University of New Hampshire so Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Rumrill and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Buttrick were there and attended the football game.

The leaves are really all off the trees now except for a few small trees we can see up Walnut street. It has been a beautiful autumn with wonderful weather for the most part, but Monday the rain was beautiful in its own way. Winter is not far off but who cares.

Cards have been received from Miss Mollie Hearty while on her pilgrimage to Rome. After a pleasant voyage she landed at Le Havre, visited Paris and other cities in France and Switzerland, and was on her way to Rome when heard from.

Miss Priscilla Cody began working for the Guernsey Cattle club in Peterboro on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Clark spent the weekend visiting her brother and sister in Rhode Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weaver of Manchester visited us on Sunday. Charlie worked for Walter on the farm in his youth and went to school at the Center. Later he attended an automobile school in Manchester and came back to work for Frank and teach him to run his new car, which he had acquired in the meantime. The Weavers are parents of a daughter and four sons, all more than six feet tall. The oldest one is in Germany at present, the youngest one is home, and the other two in the United States. There are six grandchildren.

Miss Ellen McClintock, like all students in New Hampshire, was on vacation last Thursday and Friday, as well as the weekend. Of course she was at home and on three succeeding days she went out hunting for partridges. Each day she came home with a bird. Afterwards the story is much like "little fishy in the brook" only Ellen did her own hunting but mummy did the "frying in the pan".

Frank Gay stayed home all last week, but was taken sick Sunday night and has been in bed all of the time since.

Miss Catherine Phelps and Miss Jean Murdough went to Boston with Mrs. Russell Perry on Friday and spent the weekend with Beverly Phelps at Peabody Home.

Hillsboro neighbors of Alfred Dodd, who recently moved to South Lancaster, Mass., often hear from him. He is near his daughter and five grandchildren and sees them frequently.

Relatives from out of town to attend the funeral of W. Oscar Story were Rev. and Mrs. Lloyd Davis of Cotuit, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Story, Natalie Story, William Story and Alfred Stanley; Winthrop, Mass. Dr. and Mrs. David Parker of Manchester; Mrs. Vm J. Story and Miss Edith Story, of Meredith, N. H., and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Woodbury, Jr., of Peterboro.

WHO RUNS AMERICA?

Recently the American Medical Association sponsored in this paper and most every paper in the country an advertisement titled "Who Runs America?"

The advertisement extolled the medical version of Voluntary Health Insurance its sponsors expressing themselves as being grateful that the people "refused to be wooed by the fantastic promises of this un-American excursion into State Socialism," meaning the administration proposed National Health Insurance program, which Congress failed to approve.

Who runs America? If big business does, there will be no health insurance for the American people.

But the people's voice has already been heard, even by the AMA, which only a few years ago was fighting voluntary and co-operative health and hospital plans, yet is today forced to offer them as an alternative to health insurance that would cover all.

Why is voluntary insurance not enough?

After two decades of operation, Blue Cross covers less than one out of four families for hospital care and only 3 percent of our rural population. After ten years, Blue Shield covers less than one out of ten for surgical service and is non-existent in seven states of the union.

In contrast, national health insurance would cover 85 percent of the people. Under it, if you were a participant in the social security program or receiving old-age assistance, you and your family would be covered. This would cover all states and territories of the nation, both rural and urban sections.

Under voluntary plans, when you reach sixty-five and need medical assistance the most, you are cut off. They also exclude victims of the chronic diseases: arthritis, diabetes, and diseases of the heart. These people are the persons in greatest need of medical service and the greatest drain on their families under the present voluntary set-ups.

In addition, voluntary plans are haphazard and varied. They do not give equal protection to all regardless of their economic status or their residence. National health insurance has no age limits or exemptions for diseases and therefore is universal and equal which is the first principle of democracy.

Voluntary plans are based upon a fixed rate. To some people, that rate may represent only a small percentage of their income, but another family may have to set aside as much as 10 percent of their income in order to be covered as inadequately as voluntary plans do.

National health insurance is based upon your ability to pay because it is a fixed percentage payroll tax. The most anyone could pay would be $72 a year if his income were $4,800, and he would still be covered if he earned as little as $150 a year.

Thus complete medical coverage including preventative medicine, all surgical costs and specialist fees and laboratory and X-ray services, special appliance and eye glasses, dental care and home nursing and prescribed drugs which are unusually expensive are available to you under national health insurance and the cost is based upon ability to pay rather than flat fee.

The cost of operating voluntary plans is high. Commercial plans pay you about seventy cents on the dollar while non-profit plans pay you eighty-five to ninety cents on the dollar. National health insurance would have a top administrative cost of seven and a half cents which would give you over ninety cents for your dollar. This is accomplished by operating through the already existent social security set-up and the fact that the plan needs no advertising or selling expense budget.

Blue Cross is controlled by the hospitals while Blue Shield is controlled by organized medicine. Both of them have shown themselves in the past and in the present fight particularly to be opposed to the public interest and too eager to protect their right to make a profit on people's misery.

National health insurance will be locally administered by state civil service administrators responsible to doctors and citizens in each locality. The public which foots the bill would have majority voice on non-medical matters. Doctors and professionals would retain full control over purely medical matters and would be represented on non-medical matters.

What is freedom anyway? Some people believe that the right to make profits—even out of health of the people—is the supreme freedom. Most of us believe that in order to defend freedom, you have to defend the people, and a part of the Constitution that the Committee for Constitutional Government has yet to discover—the people's general welfare.

Let the Committee, the Medical Association, the drug monopolists and their insurance allies cry "socialism." The people who can really run America, whenever they vote to, may decide that, if this be socialism, what they need is more of it.

TAXPAYERS' LIST

This week the Messenger publishes a listing of some of the larger businesses and individuals who pay taxes to the Town of Hillsborough. Only those that are over $300. are listed.

We do not publish this list to "get" anyone but for the following reasons:

1. A list of prominent taxpayers makes news (we could not publish the list at the time the tax bills went out, which would have been more timely).

2. It is hoped that the publication will encourage the Selectmen to publish in booklet form the complete list of taxpayers such as is done in Antrim and other towns periodically.

3. The publication once again emphasizes the need for a re-assessment of the complete town. This year the Concord newspaper will publish a list of this year's assessments as against the previous year before Concord was re-assessed. These figures will be watched.

Communities that have had re-assessments have found them worth while.

NUISANCE CANDIDATE

It now appears that the Loeb papers are backhandedly supporting a write-in vote for Wesley Powell. It is quite possible that a large write-in vote could defeat Tobey.

Mr. Loeb will have the satisfaction that his papers have a large nuisance value. Wesley Powell will get his vengeance.

In my opinion the ballot commission ruled out Mr. Powell on a technicality in that they followed the letter of the law and not the laws intent. It would have been better had they disqualified Powell for being a nuisance candidate having already lost in the primary as a candidate.

This is not to condemn anyone running for office as an independent. If Mr. Powell wants to be independent, let him first repudiate the Republican party and refrain from entering the Republican party elections.

Can the nuisance candidate do the dirty work of the nuisance papers?

The Clothes Line

When you buy for Christmas and have to exchange afterwards for wrong fit, etc., you may then realize how convenient it is to call at the home town store.

Take for instance the case of the parent who bought skis last year for his kiddo. Here's the story. . . Driving 54 miles he bought skis which were found on Xmas morn to be too long. To exchange them he drove another 54 miles but after working a half day to fit the binding found that they wouldn't fit either. So, back another 54 miles to learn his time that they did not have the size required. He then returned the entire outfit and came in to see us where we completely cured his troubles in a very few minutes.

We give our customers "fits" . . . but not the kind that make them froth at the mouth.

Surprising how many folks are getting a head start on Christmas shopping. Particularly are they picking up items made of Nylon such as ladies' hosiery, blouses, men's dress shirts, nylon snow suits, jackets, etc.

"Loafer Sox" are now made in infants' and youngsters' sizes in attractive pastels. It's an all wool knitted sock with leather sewed on bottom, used as a slipper. $1.95. Makes a good gift.

"Buy" of the week. . . men's flannel pajamas $2.95. Boys' and children's 2-piece pajamas in either regular flannel or knitted ski type $2.25. Dr. Denton's $1.95.

(Guest reporter this week is according to my check. Conservation Officer Donald Daniels of Milford. George Proctor is vacationing in Virginia, and we asked Don Daniels to keep Messenger and Reporter readers posted on the fish and game picture.)

Pheasant season opened Oct. 15 with every semblance of "D" Day. Many citizens noticed the heavy cloud of gun powder smoke which hung over the Souhegan Valley between Milford and Wilton. Although the turn-out of pheasant hunters was a record breaker, comparatively few birds were bagged for the amount of lead and powder expended.

About 80 per cent of the hunters that I checked had seen birds. This gives a good outlook for the rest of the season.

Of the hunters in this vicinity Sunday, it appeared that 40 per cent were from Massachusetts, ac-
