Lisabel Gay's Column

Coming Events

A vesper service at Smith Memorial church on Sunday, Dec. 17 at 5 o'clock will be in charge of the young people of the church. The Junior choir will sing. The Primary class will demonstrate one of its projects. Other Sunday school children will present a play "Waiting for the Carol Singers," written by Lisabel Gay.

After the service all are invited to attend the Christmas tree in the vestry.

Benevolent Society Bazaar

The Benevolent Society Bazaar, held in the vestry last Wednesday, was a success in every way. The vestry was festive with a Christmas tree, Santa Claus sitting at ease before the fireplace, and other Christmas decorations, all arranged by Mrs. Ira Roach. All the tables and other Christmas donations were very attractive. The chairman of the several tables were: Candy, Mrs. George Hall; aprons, Mrs. Irving Reed; food, Mrs. Paul Kuhn; grabs, Mrs. Cedric Gilchrist; and greens, Mrs. Shem Barnes; white elephant table, Mrs. Weldon Sterling. The snack bar with plenty of good things to eat, was in charge of Mrs. Hamilton Rumrill.

The pictures shown were under the direction of Walter Sterling and Dr. Yeaple and were pictures of different church activities - Easter Day, Children's Day, Christmas, etc. Also one film of very beautiful Maryland pictures.

D. A. R.

The Eunice Baldwin chapter, D. A. R., held its regular December meeting in Community hall last Saturday. A short business session was presided over by the Regent, Mrs. Bernice Maynard, of Concord. The subject for roll call was Christmas ideas. Two very pleasing solos were given by Miss Catherine Phelps and Miss Hazel Groves. The President General's message for December was read by Mrs. Ethel Peaslee. Mrs. Grace Perry gave a report on membership. Mrs. Maynard read excerpts from an amusing book, "The Leavitts' Christmas" by Lloyd Douglas. The Christmas tree was next enjoyed with exchange of gifts. Sandwiches, olives, tea and Christmas candies were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Cyrus Phelps, Mrs. Frank Nichols and Mrs. Maynard.

Club Custom Discontinued

The Hillsboro Center club is giving up a cherished custom of thirty-five years - that of members and their families eating Christmas dinner together at the clubhouse. The custom originated in December, 1924. The club was organized in January of that year. The clubhouse had not yet been finished, but the members were all young and enthusiastic with enough in

THE STATE HOUSE JOURNAL

The new formula for distribution of state aid to local schools was made public by the State Board of Education today. The state board will ask the Legislature next month to appropriate $1,400,000 a year for the school aid program in 1951 and 1952. That is $1,000,000 a year more than was granted to local school districts in 1949 and 1950, but $600,000 less than the 1947-48 figure.

The state board estimated a school district would spend $175 a year for every elementary pupil and $225 a year for high school pupils, to provide a minimum standard of education. That's the famous "Foundation Program." At the same time, the board figured the local "fair share" of this type of education should not result in a local tax rate of more than $18 per $1,000 of equalized valuation. The $1,400,000 is what the state will grant to districts in which a tax rate of $18 per $1,000 fails to produce enough money for the "Foundation Program." The state simply will make up the difference.

As far as a majority of the people of the state are concerned, state aid to education today became a purely academic question--no pun intended. The state board figures show 105 cities and towns will get no state aid under the new formula. These communities represent between 60 and 70 percent of the state's total population. The formula provides aid for 132 school districts only.

Of the 132 districts to get aid, 74 will get less under the new program than they were getting when the state handed out $2,000,000 a year. Some of these actually will get less than they got when the state subsidy was only $400,000 a year. And 56 districts will get more than they got under the $2,000,000-a-year subsidy plan.

No districts will be eligible for state aid unless it is spending at

Shovels First Snow in Hillsboro Since April

HILLSBORO—Bert Sweatt shoveled the first snow in this community in spite of the fact that but little snow has fallen in Hillsboro since last April.

Mr. Sweatt is employed at the Woolen mill and a carload of coal arrived on the track in the mill yard which was covered with several inches of snow, and before he could shovel the coal he first shoveled snow.

It is probable that the snow was transported several hundreds of miles to reach Hillsboro, but Mr. Sweatt is not stretching the truth when he said that he shoveled the first snow in town, this fall.

Ellinwoods Observe Fiftieth Anniversary

HILLSBORO—On Sunday, December 10th, Mr. and Mrs. Will E. Ellinwood observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home on Depot street, by holding an open house and reception from two to five o'clock in the afternoon. Mrs. Harold Doble and Miss Nora Ashford presided at the refreshment table and poured assisted by the grandchildren, who made the dainty sandwiches and passed them and the cakes to all who wished.

Mrs. Ellinwood wore a very pretty grey afternoon dress and corsage of yellow rosebuds, the daughters and granddaughters wore corsages of bronze and yellow mums. The male members of the family wore boutonnières of yellow carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellinwood were married in Antrim on December 12, 1900, by the Rev. Warren Cochrane, who, incidentally had been the officiating clergyman at the weddings of Mrs. Ellinwood's parents and grandparents.

The first few years of their married life was spent in Antrim, the Ellinwoods coming to Hillsboro 44 years ago. Mr. Ellinwood has been engaged in various lines of business during that time and for a number of years has had the rural mail route to East Washington and Hillsboro Center.

They are the parents of six children, two of which died early in life, one son, George E. and three daughters, Mrs. Doris M. Tucker, Mrs. Frances J. Hannah and Mrs. Ruth A. Peasley, were present with their families to help with the festivities.

During the afternoon nearly 200 relatives, neighbors and friends called, among them being Mrs. Ellinwood's only sister, Mrs. Clarence Elliott, of Hartford, Conn.,

MANCHESTER EDUCATOR CONGRATULATES ANTRIM

ANTRIM—Supt. Austin McCaffrey of Manchester addressed members of the PTA at their meeting Dec. 7, at the school on Socio-Metrics. Mr. McCaffrey believes this work has been very worth while among the shy, diffident and poorer scholars. "It has developed wholly unexpected resources in many of them," he said, "and will be continued on an even larger scale."

He complimented Antrim on its progressive school system and its endeavors to build a new school.

President Carroll Nichols presided and introduced Mr. McCaffrey. A complete report prepared by Lester Hill was read on the receipts and expenditures for the Work Day project. It was announced that the money left from the fund would be used to continue the improving of the school grounds. More fill is needed and seeding must be done early in the spring.

Mrs. John Lawson, program chairman reported she had been able to secure some excellent speakers for the coming meetings and urged those present to try to interest more of the members to attend the meetings.

Mr. Lawson, coach of the boys basketball team reported on their fine work and spoke of the opportunity which was being given them to play at the Boston Garden in February. He urged that parents make an effort to attend this game and encourage the team.

Antrim Music Club Has Hillsboro Guests

ANTRIM—The Antrim Music club entertained a group from the Hillsboro Music club at their December meeting in Library hall.

Mrs. Frank Orser, president of the visiting club, announced the very fine program given by her group. Mrs. Orser and Miss Hazel Groves sang duets; Mrs. Harrison Baldwin and Mrs. Margaret Eaton played piano duets; Miss Gove from the Beach club gave a clarinet solo; Miss Rasmussen from the Juvenile club a piano solo; Miss Madeline Gilmore sang two solos, and all these mentioned assisted by Mrs. Edith Phelps, Mrs. Clara Richardson and Mrs. Eli Landrie sang favorite Christmas carols. Mrs. Baldwin was accompanist for all the vocal numbers.

Mrs. Phelps read a Christmas message. A social hour followed and refreshments were served by a committee from the Antrim club, and her family, also Mr. Ellinwood's sister, Mrs. Ethel Roeder, of New London, Conn., and Antrim. There was a large number from Nashua, Boston and Antrim.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellinwood were the recipients of many beautiful gifts, consisting of flowers, electrical appliances, a large floor lamp, corsages, bouquets, and purses of money, also checks for considerable sums of money. This paper joins with all in wishing them many more years of a happy useful life.

Antrim High's boys basketball team has won 4 straight victories to date (Tuesday). Coach John Lawson is much pleased with this record, also the fact that the team will play at the Boston Garden in February. It is hoped the townspeople will attend to support the boys. Tickets must be purchased very soon, and those desiring them should contact Mr. Lawson without delay.

At the meeting of Waverley lodge I.O.O.F., Friday evening Noble Grand Charles Wood, announced that Mt. Crochod Encampment, Hand-in-Hand Rebekahs and Waverley lodge would hold a Christmas party for members and their families, Monday evening, Dec. 18, at 7:30 p.m., at the hall. A committee composed of members of each organization is making the arrangements. It was also announced by Mr. Wood that the lodge would observe Past Noble Grand's Night in March and Richard Devens andning.

John Lang were appointed to assist him in the arrangements for this special occasion.

Mrs. R. H. Tibbals and Miss Faye Benedict are leaving Friday to spend the winter. They will visit Mrs. Tibbal's daughter, Elizabeth, in Philadelphia, and Mrs. Charles Feazle and family in Silver Springs, Md.

Sunday, Dec. 17, Rev. Whitney S. K. Yeaple, Supt. of the N. H. Council of Churches will be the guest preacher at a union service in the Presbyterian church at 11 a.m. In the evening the Cantata, "The Lord's Anointed," will be presented at this church by the members of the choir and the Baptist church choir. Much hard work has been done to make this an outstanding event. It is hoped a large number will attend Sunday eve-

The body of Mrs. George E. Bou-telle of Milford, N. H., was brought to North Branch cemetery last week for burial.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coyle and daughter, Mrs. John Grover, and husband spent the weekend at the Coyle cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Knapp visited relatives and friends here last week. Mr. and Mrs. McGown were at their cottage for the weekend.

In addition to Lisabel Gay's item on Henry Colby's store, Yes, they did sell lamps—and I well remember a lamp my parents bought when I was real young (that's a long time ago). It was about 18 inches high-cost $1.00, and believe it or not—they paid for it in rags.

ASSIST KOREAN VETERANS ANTRIM SPEAKER SAYS

ANTRIM—Mrs. Katherine Gordon, of Canaan, State Department President of the American Legion auxiliary, was guest of honor at the meeting of Myers-Prescott unit held Monday evening, Dec. 11, in Library hall.

Mrs. Gordon was introduced by the unit president, Mrs. Gwendolyn S. Cutter, and spoke on the State and National projects for the year. She stressed increased membership-reminding her listeners that numbers create strength; also stressed was Rehabilitation work among the disabled veterans in hospitals. Mrs. Gordon said the Portsmouth Naval hospital and the new Veterans' hospital in Manchester are filled to capacity with casualties from the Korean campaign, and more help was needed than ever before. She complimented the unit on its fine work along this line. Mrs. Cutter presented Mrs. Gordon a gift from the unit.

During the business meeting Mrs. Mary George reported that 24 Thanksgiving baskets were packed and delivered by the committee. The secretary, Mrs. Andrew Fuglestad, read a number of thank you notes from recipients.

Mrs. Norma Bryer, Rehabilitation chairman, reported that a box valued approximately $50, had been shipped to a Veterans' hospital gift shop.

Miss Janice Hills was accepted as a junior member.

Everyone received a gift from the attractive Christmas tree.

Mrs. Miriam Roberts was chairman of the hostess committee. The refreshment table was most attractive with evergreens, tall red candles, and streamers. Tiny cup cakes decorated with Yule-tide motifs, sandwiches and coffee were served.

Church Women Hear President of Council

ANTRIM—Mrs. Vernon Phillips of Franctown, president of the N. H. Council of Church Women, was guest speaker at a meeting of church women from Franctown, Hillsboro, Bennington and Antrim held in the Baptist church Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Roger Floyd presided and introduced Mrs. Phillips whose subject "You and Your Council" proved very interesting. She spoke at some length on the recent conference she attended in Cincinnati.

Other program features were solos by Mrs. Benjamin Tenney, president of the Baptist Ladies Circle, with Mrs. Albert Thornton accompanist, a meditation with Mrs. Thornton at the organ, and responsive reading. Several hymns were sung.

A social hour followed in the vestry. Dainty refreshments, suggestive of the holiday season, were served by the hostesses under the direction of Mrs. William Hurlin, chairman of the social committee. About sixty ladies were present.

Antrim Woman's Club Has Christmas Program

ANTRIM—At the meeting of the Antrim Woman's club, Tuesday, Dec. 11, in Library hall, a Christmas program was enjoyed. Carol singing by the members was directed by Kenneth Jewett with Mrs. Albert Thornton at the piano. A message "Christmas" was read from Mrs. Dexter Arnold, State Federation President.

Richard Everts from Henniker played a group of violin solos accompanied by Mr. Jewett. Mrs. William Hurlin read two stories from "That Darned Minister's Son," by Hodyn Pearson. The program ending with the showing of four short films with Headmaster Charles Young of Antrim High school operating the movie camera.

Mrs. William A. Nichols, president, presided. It was voted to send Christmas gifts for patients at the State hospital. These should be left by Monday, Dec. 18, at the home of Mrs. Roger Floyd.

Plans for organizing a hospital aid group were discussed, but no action was taken.

A report was read by Mrs. Alwin Young on the proceeds of the Christmas sale held last week. Nearly $75 was realized from this project.

The usual social hour followed the meeting with refreshments served by the hostess committee, Mrs. Tracey Claffin, Miss Mabel Hulett, Mrs. Fred Proctor and Mrs. William Nay. Mrs. John Thornton and Mrs. George DeFoe poured.

The prime of life equally enthusiastic to do whatever they wished, so they decided to eat Christmas dinner together with their families at the clubhouse. The men and boys brought in evergreen trees and bushes, many of them fir balsam, and covered all the unfinished walls, with an extra tree to bear the gifts for the children. They had no kitchen, no stove excepting the heating stove and the big fireplace. They had no dishes and no utensils of any kind, but nothing daunted them. The club treasury paid for the turkeys. The capable efficient committee with plenty of willing workers roasted the turkeys and prepared all the rest of the dinner in their own homes. It was brought in and placed on the long tables at the last minute. Everyone present must have had a very happy time eating dinner together in that very Christmasy atmosphere, and the few who are living today must have happy memories of it.

Every year since, the Christmas dinner has been the outstanding club event. Regardless of wars and weather they have met for thirty-five years until this year. During this time the membership has changed and during the latter years the same few people have been obliged to do all the work. This year no one wanted the responsibility of taking charge of the dinner. Without a leader nothing can be done. Another reason is because there is no school in the Center. The children's program and the Christmas tree have been a feature part each Christmastime. Many people will regret its discontinuance but its reasons are perfectly understandable.

However, there will be a Christmas get-together in a smaller way. A Christmas tree for the children and refreshments will be served. The clubhouse now has everything to do with but not so many working members as in the beginning.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Webber observed their fifth wedding anniversary and Mr. Webber's birthday on Sunday. Mrs. Webber's brother, S. W. V. Cheever, and family of Hollis, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woods of Nashua came up to help them celebrate.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Eastman of Concord called on Walter Gay on Sunday. Their son, Paul, is a sophomore at Davidson's college in North Carolina. Bill graduated from Concord High school in June and is spending a year at Exeter before entering college.

Twenty women from the Smithes enjoyed the meeting of the Memorial and Methodist churches enjoyed the meeting of the Ladies Circle, Baptist church in Antrim on Monday.

So many people have told me about the nativity scene in Butler Park that I am wishing I might see it, but my imagination often works over-time and perhaps it will be as beautiful to me as to those who actually see it. The fact that the large number of people in the community worked together to get the creche ready for everyone else is a very happy thought. The Christmas spirit evidently came early to Hillsboro. Here's hoping it stays much later.

Recently I have been doing research on a special subject in local history, but conflicting authorities have put me in a state of confusion. However I think by next week I will be able to draw my own conclusions from what I have heard.

Last Sunday morning the Hillsboro Methodist Sunday school had a birthday party for Baby Jesus. At the opening of the morning worship service the youth came to the sanctuary, carrying their gifts of 99s. Following a story told them by Rev. Perry, the girls and boys left their gifts upon the altar and returned to their own rooms for their classes. These toys will be repaired and wrapped by members of the Senior Youth Fellowship, and then given Nurse Bailey for distribution to needy children.

Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Hilliard, Frank Gay, and Mrs. Ethel Peaslee went to Con-tocook. The Hilliards and Frank visited with Mr. Hilliard's sister and Ethel called on Miss Jessie Gould and her niece, Miss Alice Peaslee. On the way back through Henniker Ethel called for a minute on Miss Abbie Wyman at Mrs. Lougee's Rest Home. She found her sitting up and seemingly a bit better. They all called on Miss Jennie Prichard and her sister, Mrs. Emily Courser, former Hillsboro girls.

Mrs. Francis Foxcroft of Reading, Mass., has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Colby for a few days.

Mrs. Charles F. Butler and son, Charles S. Butler, of Waldeboro, Maine, have been spending several days at the home of Mrs. Anna Bailey.

Thorold Flint of Church st., was lucky enough to get an 11-point buck last week.

Mrs. A. C. A. Perk and Mrs. Ralph Smith and the Austin are having a very enjoyable south bound trip with "marvelous weather" and splendid roads. They spent three days in Washington where Mrs. Perk's son drove them to Mont Vernon and many other points of interest, especially the zoo, as the children were along. My card came from Williamsburg without comment. They are many miles to the south by this time.

Mrs. Amy Rowe has returned to Stoneham, Mass., after a visit with her brother, J. Frank Nichols, and wife.

Phyllis Bond was a weekend guest of Mrs. Harry McClintock.

HILLSBORO

Charles, Cleveland, a summer resident of the East Washington road, was one of the lucky deer hunters to kill a 10-point buck.

The regular meeting Portia chapter, O.E.S., will be held in the Masonic hall, Monday evening, Dec. 18th, at 7:45 o'clock. This will be the Christmas meeting with exchange of gifts. Mrs. Ira Roach is chairman for the evening.

Out Our Way-- by Uncle Cy

There isn't much going on out our way, so there is not much to write about. There have been a few deer shot and a lot of ammunition wasted on others.

Old man Brown came in Elmer Robbins store the other day and bought a red cap. (he's a little dried up old chap with a long nose). Fred Barlow asked him if he was going deer hunting?

"What is it to you if I do?"
"Oh nuthin'," said Fred, "but if you do, keep out in the open and don't go near a tree or someone will shoot you for a redheaded woodpecker."

Ned Turner said he'd be glad when the deer hunting is over, as his wife didn't dare wear her fur coat for fear someone would shoot her for a deer. Elmer said to tell his wife not to worry as there is a heavy fine on Bison and Caribou. (She is a little on the hefty side.)

Zeb, he's Ned's brother, said he got it rigged so he would be safe. He's got a big bullseye target sewed on the back of his pants, and if any of the Hillsboro or Henniker Gun club members were hunting, he knew he was well protected.

Old man Clancy, he will be 97 years old when the Messenger comes out this week (don't know just what day that will be.) He's had the mumps, chicken pox, whoopin' cough and now he's got the croup. I asked the Dr. why an old man like him should have all of those kid ailments?

He said, "it was because he's in his second childhood."

Trade in Hillsboro, and if you can't find what you want, come out our way and visit Elmer Robbins' store. He's got things on the shelf that were ancient when Grant was president. Free parking--you can leave your car all day as you do in the Square at home.

HILLSBORO

John Meara, caretaker at the Loon Lake cottage section, has left the hospital at Grasmere, and is now convalescing from several months' illness with relatives in Massachusetts. He plans to be back in Hillsboro again before many weeks have passed.

The Leedham store at the Lower Village is closed for the winter months. For many years the late Fred Gibson owned a store on the site and claimed to have everything for sale from a pin to an elephant. Mrs. Scott Nelson has returned from the Concord hospital.

EDWARD ORVILLE INGALLS WAS EARLY HENNIKER GRIST MILL OWNER

HENNIKER—We are indebted to Dr. Francis L. Childs for the following about Mr. Ingalls who died recently. Dr. Childs read our inquiry in the Courier and looked him up in his notes.

"Edward Orville Ingalls, who died in San Jacinto, Cal., on November 16, was born in Hanover, June 4, 1859, the youngest son of Osmyn Sylvester and Alice Swift (Huntington) Ingalls. On December 30, 1885, he married Kate M. Howland of Lyme, and they made their home in Hanover until the early spring of 1890, when they removed to Henniker. In partnership with his brother-in-law, John Howland, he purchased of Charles H. Courser the grist mill at the upper dam and the house across the road from the mill. In June 1892 the partnership was dissolved, and Mr. Howland moved to Warren. Mr. Ingalls continuing the business in Henniker alone until 1904, when he sold to Charles A. Burnham. The old mill which he had bought of Courser was burned at midnight on December 15, 1895, from unknown causes. Mr. Ingalls promptly bought a mill building in Canaan and engaged Willis N. Carnes as contractor to dismantle it, bring it to Henniker, and erect it on the site of the old mill. In a little over two months from the time of the fire, the new mill was in operation. This was the building afterward moved to become a grain store near the railroad station, and now used as a dormitory by New England college.

"Mr. Ingalls during his residence in Henniker was highly regarded by all who knew him as a man of the strictest honesty and integrity. He had a good business sense and prospered in all his activities, and his advice was often sought by his fellow citizens. Both he and his wife were deeply religious and were numbered among the most active members of the Congregational church here. He was the able superintendent of the Sunday school for almost the entire period of his residence here, and he was chosen to serve as a deacon in January, 1902, giving up that office on his removal from town. Mrs.

Ingalls had the distinction of being the first woman ever chosen to hold any sort of office in the Henniker church; she became a member of the advisory committee in 1897, breaking the entirely male rule of almost 120 years, in that organization. In 1901 she was elected clerk of the church, continuing in that position for three years. She was a gifted woman, interested in music and literature, and was one of the early members of the Woman's club. She died many years ago in Santa Monica, Cal. Upon their removal from Henniker in 1904, Mr. and Mrs. Ingalls and their only child, Earle H. Ingalls, went to St. Paul, Minn., where they remained for about ten years before settling in California. In St. Paul Mr. Ingalls was engaged in banking, as he was later in California."

HILLSBORO

The house committee of Young-Richardson Legion post has revealed that one of its members, a World War II veteran, has made it possible to purchase the Joseph Garafoli house on Depot street and the patriotic organization now firmly believes in Santa Claus. The necessary money to make a down payment was advanced by the overseas veteran.

A son, Adelbert Niles Potter, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert Potter at Margaret Pillsbury unit, Concord hospital. The Potters are residents of School street and own the former George Cote house.

The Atomic Bomb! How It Will Effect Antrim, Hillsboro, Bennington

BENNINGTON—There seems to be a feeling by New Hampshire citizens that if an Atomic War comes to the United States, we in this area will continue "business as usual" and have only remote concern with the effects.

Such is far from the truth as learned by the few who attended George W. Morrill's lecture on this subject in Bennington, on December 7, 1950. This talk is being delivered in seventy or more communities throughout the state, by direction of the New Hampshire Civilian Defense Director. The object is to inform everyone and to stimulate planning for an emergency.

Mr. Morrill gave an interesting talk and showed two motion picture reels illustrating the subject. The low attendance from Antrim and adjacent towns is regretted. It is believed that full knowledge of what to expect from an Atom Bomb attack, its limitations, and advance planning, will greatly minimize its effect.

The following brief resume of this lecture is presented in order that those who were unable to attend may be partly informed:

The Atom Bomb is a device for releasing an enormous amount of energy in a very short space of time. The Bomb is very expensive to construct. The number that can be assembled is restricted by the scarcity of materials.

The effect of an "A" Bomb explosion is three-way:

1. Percussion—estimated equal to the explosive force of 20,000 tons of T.N.T. or that of millions of sticks of dynamite. The percussion accounts for 70% of the Bomb's effectiveness. This is the effect most thought of by the militarists.

2. Gamma Rays—will penetrate over 9 feet of concrete. The X-ray machine produces gamma rays of much less intensity. The effect upon persons is similar to severe sun burn. Outside the effective range, (a mile or more from the explosion) a person is protected if behind almost any object. Even light colored clothing will be considerable protection. Gamma ray burns are very difficult to heal. The heat released by the Bomb is sufficient to cause fires within a one mile radius of an explosion.

3. Radiological Effect—much material at the scene of an "A" bomb explosion becomes activated, that is capable of giving off gamma rays and may retain this property for a long time, making it very dangerous for people to reenter a contaminated area. Incidentally Mr. Morrill has been trained to instruct teams to do decontamination work.

The Atom Bomb attack may be one of three types:

1. Explosion 2000 feet in the air. This is the most damaging, causes complete destruction over an area of one half mile radius, immediately below the explosion. From one half mile to one mile radius, there will be major damage but less severe than directly under the point of release. Outside the one mile radius, there will occur structural damage from the concussion and air blast. Fires will start in fallen buildings and exposed persons will suffer severe burns.

2. Explosion at ground level. The destructive effect over a smaller area, but there will occur greater contamination. The radioactive dust, earth, and construction materials will make the area uninhabitable for a long time and very dangerous for people to enter.

3. Explosion under water: The concussion not as great as in the case of the two previous types, but radioactive water drawn high in the air will be spread over a very wide area.

Radioactive material, if breathed into the lungs or taken with food may cause death. Even any contact with the body is dangerous. If skin or clothing is contaminated, persons should bathe and scrub with a grease cutting soap. Lava soap or powdered borax are suggested. Clothing should be buried not burned. Burning would spread radioactive particles. Contaminated buildings likewise must be thoroughly scrubbed. Special instruments are available for testing for radioactivity.

The Atom Bomb is a strategic weapon rather than a tactical one. The reasons are obvious: The small number that can be manufactured, the great cost, the difficulty in delivering an attack. It is not an object that can be carried in a man's pocket nor in a suitcase. Its exact weight is not generally known, but it is a matter of tons. The most feasible method of attack is by airplane. An effective Radar screen could not be expected to stop or enable our own planes to stop up to 75% of attacking planes. A Radar warning would probably allow up to 15 minutes. The public should then seek the nearest and deepest shelter. An attack without warning even after the explosion might allow up to three seconds for persons to get behind or under some object such as a desk or bed to protect against flying glass or other debris. The least to be done is to fall flat at the same time covering the eyes with an arm.

Some comfort may be taken from the fact that New Hampshire has no industries of sufficient importance (strategically) to become the target for an "A" Bomb attack. The state does lie in the so-called "fly-ways" and an enemy plane unable to complete its mission might be required to drop its load within the state.

Our primary mission, in case of an atomic war, would seem therefore to be caring for evacuated persons from the large industrial cities. These might number in the millions.

They would be a panic stricken mob, of men, women and children, many probably injured, and lacking proper clothing. They might be with us a long time, weeks or even months. To handle such a situation will require the services of every resident.

—Submitted by Capt. Roy Dudley (U. S. N. Ret.), Civilian Defense Director for Antrim. Other community defense directors in this area are Hillsboro-Philip J. Woodbury; Henniker-Diamond A. Maxwell; Bennington-Col. Edward J. Black.

News Items From Bennington

Mrs. Maurice C. Newton
Correspondent

Don't forget the Woman's club meeting this week Friday afternoon.

Also this week Friday evening is the Men's club and there will be a very interesting speaker.

George Holmes, who is in the Hillsboro County hospital is to be operated on this week Tuesday. He has been very ill for some time.

Mrs. Alice Frederick was in Brattleboro recently.

Mrs. Jennie Church had a bad fall last Thursday night on the sidewalk as she started for the Town hall. She has a broken shoulder and is badly bruised and shaken. Mrs. Church is home from the hospital.

J. Dana Weston is reported as doing very nicely following a recent operation.

There are a number of Christmas parties we are told. Childrens Sunday school party Dec. 20 in the vestry; Sons of Union Veterans at their hall, please check for correct date; the Bennington grange, Dec. 23. Doubtless there are more but dates and information not available at this writing.

The children of the Congregational Sunday school will take part in the regular Sunday service on Dec. 24th and the girls choir are preparing special music.

The Woman's Guild met last week Friday. There were childrens Christmas gifts which were sent to migrant workers. Mrs. Effie Black provided a very excellent program, giving the origin of Christmas carols and singing and playing a number of the carols.

The hospital aide met in the Library last Thursday and did quite a bit of sewing.

Do you know that Mrs. Fennerty has a number of aprons that the Guild has made which may be purchased by contacting Mrs. Fennerty. Nice Christmas gifts, big ones, little ones, childrens aprons.

The Hillsboro County Pomona grange met in grange hall last Friday night. They had a very fine program and also a Christmas tree. There was a good supper served by the following committee: Florence Newton, Frieda Edwards, Dorothy Traxler, Dorothy Martin, Nellie McGrath and Maurice Newton. Arnold Logan and Daisy Ross also helped after supper.

Wendell Spiller was in Ohio last week.

We forgot to report last week that Mr. and Mrs. Walter Parker of New Jersey were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Parker.

We have seen the Manger scene in Hillsboro park and think it is lovely.

Mr. and Mrs. James Boyle and children of Newton were visitors at the home of Miss Frieda Edwards this past weekend.

Because of the Pomona grange meeting your correspondent was unable to attend the children, young and old, loved it. It was sponsored by the Woman's club.

Because of some delay in the mails the invitation to attend service at the Presbyterian church in Antrim reached us this day (Monday) and could not be read in the Congregational church on Sunday. The invitation was for Dec. 17 at 11 a.m.

There was a chimney fire at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dory on Sunday night.

THE STATE HOUSE JOURNAL

By
BROOK SHANTON

least $14 per $1,000 of equalized

valuation for school purposes.

In arriving at the new formula, the state board abandoned completely the old Fuller program of general aid without regard to local need. The new system is based purely on local need, and even its severest critics are agreeing the formula is "honest."

One "gimmick" in the new policy laid down by Dr. Hilton C. Buley, state commissioner of education, is bound to be the core of the controversy over the state aid formula. It is the decision, to allow cities and towns 50 percent credit for pupils enrolled in parochial schools, when the local "fair share" of school costs is computed. This does not mean the parochial schools will get state money; merely that the city or town will get credit for parochial school children as though half of them were enrolled in the public schools.

To reach its local grant estimates, the state board used the equalized valuation figures compiled by the State Tax Commission in 1948. These will be changed during the 1951 Legislature, but are the best figures now available. The following comparison shows cities and towns will fare under the new $1,400,000 aid formula, in comparison with what they got under the $2,000,000 program in 1947-48:

	Actual 1948	Proposed 1951

The Henniker school aid would be: Actual, 1948-11,571; Proposed-6,318.

Grafton County towns, which got $287,742 in aid in 1948, will get only $119,069 for the next two years. Nine towns will get within a few hundred dollars of their 1948 aid figure, 22 will get nothing at all, 6 will take substantial cuts, and one—Lebanon—gets a big increase. In Hillsbrooke County, the total school aid drops from $319,454 in 1948 to $212,142 next year. 11 towns get nothing, 4 stay about the same as 1948, 7 take substantial cuts, 8 get big increases.

In Strafford County, state aid drops from a 1948 level of $158,953 to a 1951 figure of $111,574. 5 towns get nothing, 1 stays the same, 6 are cut sharply and Rochester alone gets a large increase. The State Tax Commission, however, thinks it made an error in Speaking of rugs, you should see them at the home of Dr. and Mrs. MacMurry on the back road to Milford. It's a Bengal tiger, ten feet long with head and teeth. It was made by Perkins of Barnstead and took four months in the making. The best thing of its kind I ever saw. This animal died at the Benson Animal Farm several months ago.

Talk about your easy way to get a deer. A man parked his car near the Bly Quick Lunch in Milford, got out, loaded his gun and shot a 175 pound 8 point buck. Did not walk a hundred feet to get him.

Secretary Dufresne of the Federated Sportsmen's clubs reports that a bill will be introduced in the coming session of the Legislature to have an all-state deer season starting November 15 and ending December 15. All over the state with the exception of the town of Pittsburg which is to remain as is. Talk over with your clubs and your senators and members of the house. Might work out. Never can tell.

It is rumored that the coming Legislature will be asked to jack up the non-resident hunting fee to $20.00. Do you like that one? The over the line boys bring in a lot of money during the year.

According to Dennis H. Gainty of the home town, the town of Milford, Conn., is having its 22 cided that a small fee should be rifle troubles. The Council has de-tacked onto all boys who own and use such a gun. Many narrow escapes have been reported and much damage done by a small boy with a .22 rifle. Other towns not so far away are having the same trouble, figuring Rochester's equalized valuation, so it probably won't get the $57,841 the state board is allowing. Dover, too, probably will be re-figured, so the $25,251 earmarked there will be cut sharply.

In Coos County the amount of state aid drops from $168,846 in 1948 to $178,674 in 1951. 14 towns get nothing, 3 remain in the 1948 level, 3 are cut and 3 are increased. Berlin, allowed nothing due to what the Tax Commission believes an error in its equalized valuation, may get some state aid. Carroll County's allotment drops from $79,123 in 1948 to $31,440 in the new formula. 14 towns get no state aid, Eaton gets a little more than in 1948, Bartlett takes a big cut, and Conway gets a big increase. This may be reduced by a new valuation figure, now in the works.

Merrimack County drops from $237,282 in 1948 to $142,495. Sullivan County aid is reduced from $134,572 in 1948 to $93,352. But the big shift is in Rockingham County, whose towns got only $355,625 under the 1948 formula. This jumps to $439,273 next year. 20 of the County's 38 towns get big increases over the 1948 subsidy. Only three are cut. But again the tax commission reports its doubts as to the validity of the County's equalized valuation, will revise it in 1951.

Lower Village

Mrs. Dorothy C. Orser
CORRESPONDENT

Mr. and Mrs. Hall Murphy of Springfield, Mass., were home for the weekend.

Morris White has been confined to his home the past week with a bad cold.

Donald Seaver was a lucky hunter last week.

Everyone is happy to see their wells filling before winter sets in. Brooks are running full and Pierce lake is going over the dam.

Mrs. Josephine Fuller hasn't been as well as usual for past two weeks, but is on the gain now.

Miss Gertrude Davis came up to Concord Tuesday to have her cast removed. She was the guest of Mrs. Orser at Four Square farm until Saturday p. m. Charles Davis is confined to his bed now most of the time.

Mrs. Charles Butler of Waldoboro, Maine, was a welcome visitor at Four Square farm last week.

Kenneth Knapton Weds Joanna Elizabeth Steele

HENNIKER — Miss Joanna Elizabeth Steele recently became the bride of Kenneth Stanley Knapton, Jr., when Rev. Albert E. Couch performed the double ring ceremony in Union Congregational Church in Richmond Hill, New York. The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather, Frank L. Steele. The church was decorated with white chrysanthemums.

The bride wore a white fitted satin gown with a wing collar, and long pointed sleeves. Her finger tip veil was edged in lace. She carried white roses and gladiolas.

Miss Phyllis Herbert of Richmond Hill, N. Y., was maid of honor and Miss Joan McKenzie and Miss Joanne MacDonald of Boston were bridesmaids. They were classmates of the bride at the Boston School of Occupational Therapy.

Miss Hilbert, her friend from childhood wore light blue and Miss MacDonald and Miss McKenzie wore gold. They carried light and dark rust arm bouquets of chrysanthemums and wore matching flowered tiaras.

Judy Tracy in light blue, carrying a nosegay of pom-pom chrysanthemums was a flower girl. Miss Marion Andrade, friend of the bride sang, "At Dawning" and "I love Thee" by Grieg.

The best man was Donald Knapton, brother of the groom and ushers were Herbert Foster of Syracuse, N. Y., and Edmund W. Schramm of Richmond Hill, N. Y. Mrs. Eugene E. Duehen, mother of the bride wore a royal blue net gown and pink accessories. They both wore talisman rose corsages.

8—A Messenger Publication
Thursday, December 14, 1950

A reception was held in the hall of Union Congregational church following the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Knapton spent the weekend in New York City and then traveled to New England. Mrs. Knapton wore a royal suit and gold accessories. Her corsage was of talisman roses.

They will make their home in Winchester, Mass.

Where were the deer hunters who live in West Henniker on Sunday morning? Miles away from home we bet, tramping many miles wondering where the deer were. Well, the deer was right in their front or back yard. Bob Harford reports that he first saw it coming from the yard of Mr. and Mrs. James Neagle. It crossed the road through Ernest Greenwood's property and into the woods out back. Bob was already to go out with his gun when he remembered he didn't have a license.

Time-Place-Fact

by Jeanne Eccles

In the Boston Sunday Herald of Dec. 10, the article by Myles Connolly entitled "The Greatest Art" expresses so perfectly a thought of mine it is uncanny. Mr. Connolly, quoting from Henry Thoreau, "It is something to be able to paint a particular picture, or to carve a statue, and so to make a few objects beautiful; but it is far more glorious to carve and paint the very atmosphere and medium through which we look--To affect the quality of the day--that is the highest of arts"--says that great art is not just painting, music, sculpture, or writing, it is the art of living too. Some persons through the nobility of their lives affect the "Quality of the day." We cannot all be a St. Francis of Assisi, a Florence

Nightingale but by being kind-generous, we can try to practice the highest of the arts, the art of life itself. Everyone who had a hand in putting up the Nativity scene surely affected the "Quality of the Day and Night" in Hillsboro this Christmas.

I have in mind too one person in particular who, without being aware of it, radiates that shining quality, and that is Bill Dumais, who, with his marvelous portrayal of Santa Claus, has given to almost every child in Hillsboro, at one time or another, the thrill of seeing and talking to a real Santa.

Have just realized what a wonderful subject he would make for us on a Wednesday evening. How about it Bill?

Veteran Builds 5-Room House in Spare Time

HILLSBORO — Peter Jordan, a World War II veteran, has completed the building of a five-room house at the Upper Village, doing all the work himself from digging the cellar to shingling the roof.

Mr. Jordan said the entire cost of material would be less than $200 for most of the lumber he salvaged himself from old houses and barns and the stone for the big fireplace and chimney were trucked by himself from distant Lempster mountain.

The outside walls are built of cement over steel screening with wooden framework. There is a big picture window in the living room too, and this was added to the cost of materials within the $200 expended.

The house is located at the Upper Village and was built on land owned by his father and given to the son. The young veteran built his home during spare time over a six months' period and he has moved in with his wife.

A house of this type and workmanship is valued at more than $5,000.

There is still much work to be done to the interior of the new home.

The stone fireplace which covers two-thirds of the living room west wall is patterned after the Texas and California fireplaces with their narrow flat rocks embedded in cement. Each stone was carefully selected by Mr. Jordan and brought down from the mountains.

Mrs. Whitney Yeaple was one of seventy-five women in the nation to qualify in the Pillsbury Mills, Inc., baking contest held at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York City. Each lady to qualify was given a check for $100. In the contest Monday Mrs. Yeaple baked a fruit pie but was unable to win the $25,000 grand prize.

Mrs. Aura Sterling and Mrs. Helen Andrews were visitors in Manchester and Concord on Tuesday.

Miss Virginia Lougee, cashier for the local office of the Public Service Company of New Hampshire, spent the weekend with friends in

PEACE ON EARTH

Our readers would do well to read the feature story by Capt. Roy Dudley (U.S.N. Ret.) of Antrim in this week's paper.

Mr. Dudley's condensation of N.H. C.D.D. Morrill's recent talk will give the layman a simple explanation of nuclear fission when applied to atomic destruction.

Since it is a fact that the human race is prone to slay one another in periodic wars it is probable rather than possible that nations may once again carry on their diplomatic arguments on the battlefield. To be forewarned is to be forearmed.

In the meantime it would do well if our representatives in Washington carry out a conciliatory policy towards China in the hopes that time may change men's ways. If worse comes to worse, we can always go to war.

We for one do not believe war will always be inevitable. Peace on Earth, Good Will To Men is still a slogan to live by in 1950.

GREENER GRASS

Recently we went to see the attractions in what is considered to be the shopping center of New Hampshire. Frankly the Hillsboro decorations including the creche far outshone a few puny strings of lights across the main stem of that town.

Being away for a few hours we had to partake of refreshments. The lady who waited on us seemed to think she was doing the customer a favor by her presence.

Contrast this with the ease in local shopping, our friendly businessmen, and our local restaurants.

The Friendship club of Star Rebekah lodge held the first of the Christmas parties Tuesday evening, at Odd Fellows hall. The different school parties will be held next week, school closing that week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fisher were guests of honor at a surprise party Saturday evening, on their 25th wedding anniversary, at the home of Mrs. Doris Hadley, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher were planning to spend the anniversary quietly, but a few friends gave them a small party, with a silver and white anniversary cake and remembrance. Mrs. Fisher is very active in the social life in Weare, with the Rebekahs, church circle and Community club.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dodge attended the Messiah at Concord Sunday evening.

Mrs. Hazel Avery and Mrs. Mildred London were co-hostesses at a combinatin party held at Mrs. Avery's home one evening this past week. Mrs. Avery plans to open her new shop, "Hazel's Beauty Shoppe" this month, and the party was held in the new room, which is nearly ready for business. Mrs. London has taken the agency for plastic goods, and held a demonstration during the evening, alternating with games. Prize winners were Mrs. Adriana Dodge, Mrs. Leila Buxton and Mrs. Esther Hight. Prizes donated by Mrs. Avery were finger waves, manicures, and other beauty treatments.

Weare Boat club met Monday evening, for a "Pancake Supper," with sausages and coffee, followed by a program of movies. About 75 members enjoyed pancakes and syrup.

Mrs. Georgia Ketchum, the new president, was hostess to Weare Union W.C.T.U., at the monthly meeting last week. The business meeting was taken up with plans for the Christmas party for the people at Grasmere, who this year number 276, with 190 men, 81 women and 5 children. Gifts and candy are given to each person, and a Christmas program, to which they look forward each year. The Hillsboro and Manchester Unions join with the Weare women.

Weare Community club met Thursday for their usual meeting. One quilt was tied, which was taken home by Mrs. Adriana Dodge to finish. Committees were appointed for the Christmas party, to be held at the next meeting, Dec. 21. Each member is to bring a gift for the tree, and "Secret Pals," will be drawn for the coming year. Election of officers is on the schedule, if plans are not changed.

Fifteen singers met at the home of Mrs. Ruby Sargent Sunday evening for the sing. Mrs. Clarence Still has joined the group as pianist; other new members of the group, were Mr. Still, and Mrs. Still's mother, Mrs. Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Gilman of Manchester. A quartet of ladies, Mrs. Still, Mrs. Lois Nichols, Mrs. Dolores Gilman and Mrs. Carol Wallenstein, sang, in addition to duets and a men's chorus. Mrs. pianist, Leon Reade closed the singing, as usual, with a short benediction. Sandwiches, cakes, and coffee were served, to end a pleasant evening. The group meet next week with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Flanders.

Mrs. Mildred London, who resigned as lecturer of Weare grange this fall, after 15 years service, was very much pleased to receive a certificate from State Master Charles R. Eastman, and State Lecturer, Frank M. Kimball, given by the State grange, for "Honor" Lecturers. On the certificate was a gold star, in "recognition of the lecturer who has complied with all requirements as designated by the State grange in the literary work." This certificate will be placed in the hall of Weare grange, Mrs. London's home grange.

Samuel Chase, who is a patient at the Concord hospital, is reported as gaining.

Mr. and Mrs. John Douhan, of Cambridge, Mass., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Flanders.

Mrs. Blanche Gove is spending the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Moses Clement.

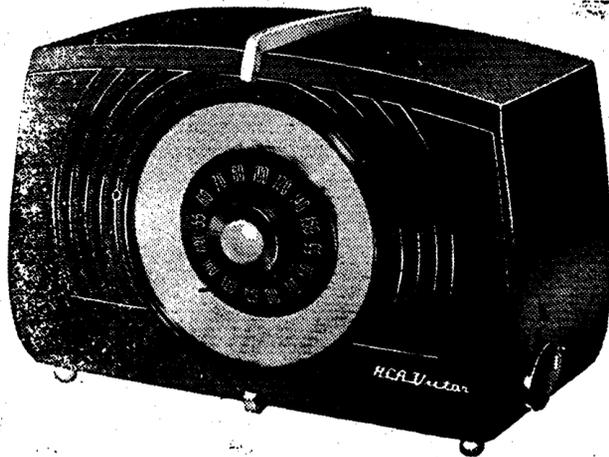

Peter Gelinhas been at home this past week, from his duties in the shop at Henniker.

Funeral Services for Mrs. Alice M. Woodbury

WEARE — Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the North Weare church for Mrs. Alice M. Woodbury, long time resident of Weare, and widow of Myron Fisher Woodbury. Mrs. Woodbury had made her home recently at the Odd Fellows Home in Concord, and was ill in the hospital about a month.

While living in Weare Mrs. Woodbury was an active member of Star Rebekah lodge, of which she was a past Noble Grand, and she and her husband were very loyal to the North Weare church. Born 82 years ago, Mrs. Woodbury was the daughter of Matilda and Josiah Nichols, of South Weare. She had made many friends during her lifetime in Weare, and was an ardent Rebekah.

Larry Moore officiated with Mrs. Mabel Tremblay organist. Star Rebekah lodge and Mt. William I.O.O.F., were represented at the funeral services. By Mrs. Woodbury's request, three members of Mt. William lodge acted as bearers with three relatives: Wendell Colburn, Richard Welch, Frank Downing, J. Peter Nichols, Guy Thorpe, and Frank Michaels. Interment was in the family lot at Pine Grove cemetery in Weare Center. Survivors are several cousins.

HENNIKER—The meeting of Davis-Woodman post, American Legion auxiliary was held with the president, Mrs. Arnold Ryan, presiding. The sunshine committee reported on Thanksgiving baskets. It was voted to send homemade candy to the service men for Christmas. A profit of $65. was reported from the novelty parties to divide with the Legion and the Christmas card committee reported a profit of $11.85. It was voted to give $10. for recreation at Veterans' hospitals and to give $5. for the tree at the Manchester hospital. Robert Sterling won the mystery package. A social was held with an exchange of gifts. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Herman Caldwell, Mrs. Duane Patenaude, Mrs. Albert Champagne and Mrs. Clayton Pike.

Henniker Woman's Club Plans Christmas Program

HENNIKER—The Woman's club will meet next Tuesday afternoon for a Christmas program in charge of Mrs. Ross Robertson of the music department. Richard Everts will play violin solos and Mrs. Robertson will sing as part of the program. Hostesses will be Mrs. Hannah Chase, Mrs. Joseph Cox, Mrs. Alice V. Flanders, Miss Nettie Patterson, Mrs. Wallace McRae and Mrs. Roy Everts.

Paul Raevsky, S 3/c spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wood and will be there again next weekend. He is stationed at Newport, R. I.

Alfred Wood is making quite a cellar under his house. There was only a small shallow cellar and he is widening it to be under the whole house as well as making it deeper. It will be some over seven feet deep. The work has been hampered by large rocks, some weighing over 1,000 pounds, which had to be taken out.

Tom Savage of Templeton, Mass., Paul Jacobson of Fitchburg, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Holman Loveren and Irving Preston of Newport spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Dowlin.

Another deer went across the road at West Henniker Monday morning. This time it swam the river and went off between Hooper's Cabins. A dog had been chasing the deer.

The second meeting of the 4-H club was held Dec. 11 at the parish house at 3:15 p.m. The meeting was called to order by president, Joyce Clement. There were 32 members present. There were nine new members.

The meeting was adjourned at 4:00 p.m. The next meeting will be held Monday, January 8, 1951, at 3:15 at the parish house.

Raymond Wood and Ted Merrill of Bennington are spending the winter in Stewart, Fla. Both are employed in the A. & P. store where George Fisher works. They have a small furnished apartment near where Mr. and Mrs. Fisher live.

Where were the deer hunters who live in West Henniker on Sunday morning? Miles away from home we bet, tramping many miles wondering where the deer were. Well, the deer was right in their front or back yard. Bob Harford reports that he first saw it coming from the yard of Mr. and Mrs. James Neagle. It crossed the road through Ernest Greenwood's property and into the woods out back. Bob was already to go out with his gun when he remembered he didn't have a license.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred French are attending the annual Farm Bureau meeting now being held in Dallas, Texas. They plan to be gone three weeks. They drove and were accompanied by Mrs. Levi French who stopped off in Fountain, Florida, to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Herman Barton while Mr. and Mrs. French continued on to Dallas. John Corrigan, meat cutter at Chase's Market has been ill the past week.

We were awakened at 3:25 a.m. on Friday by a loud crash. The next day we found that a car hit a no parking sign by the Library and then went across the road to crash into the face wall at the home of Vincent Gatto. The iron railing to the steps was badly bent and a hole gouged out of the wall. The car had a Massachusetts registration and contained four adults and a child. The wrecker from Rowe's Garage was called to take care of the car.

Albert Norton got his first deer this week. It was his 12th year of hunting and he got it on the 12th day of the 12th month.

The Parent Teachers Association met Monday evening at the Cogswell Memorial auditorium with a large attendance. The president, Robert LeClerc, presided. It was voted to give cup cakes and ice cream for the school Christmas party. The program in charge of Mrs. Gerald Beane featured carol singing by grades 4, 5, and 6. The trio was unable to sing as Bryce Hatch was ill. The program closed with several interesting movie shorts.

The American Legion auxiliary under the direction of the Rehabilitation chairman, Mrs. Beatrice Caldwell, packed and sent 26 boxes of homemade candy to boys in the service this week.

Mrs. Myron Hazen attend the secretaries' and presidents' conference, of the American Legion auxiliary at the State House last Friday.

Mrs. Rena Farrar will observe her 90th birthday on Wednesday, Dec. 20, at the home of her niece, Mrs. David Ames, 44 Wakefield St., Rochester, N. H.

The members of the Methodist Youth Fellowship and the pastor, Rev. Vernon French were guests of the Methodist Youth Fellowship in Contoocook on Sunday evening. Mr. French gave a talk on the Bible, and there was a social hour.

Miss Mary E. Maxwell, head technician at the laboratory of Beverly hospital, Beverly, Mass., has passed her national examination and is now a Registered Medical Technologist of the American Society of Clinical Pathologists and is now eligible to join the American Society of Medical Technolo-gists. Besides her Bachelor of Science degree from the University of New Hampshire she now has her M. T. degree.

There seems to be a great deal of sickness about town, mostly colds and 24 hour flu. We are out of bed, but still confined to the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Cedric Derby have announced the birth of a son, William Roger, on Dec. 4, at Memorial unit, Concord hospital. The baby weighed 7 1/4 pounds. Mr. and Mrs. Derby had only recently moved to Goffstown where Mr. Derby is employed.

Miss Margaret Wood has been visiting Mrs. Oscar Bailey of Ayer, Mass., for several days. T. Edward Fisher is working in Boston at a rubber plant.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grant of Greenfield are touring the West and the latest letter is dated at Hotel Como, Hot Springs National Park, Arkansas. Mr. Grant encloses a clipping of the black panther hunt at Des Moines, Iowa, where the hunters killed one fox and one hunter lost several teeth. The panther is still at large. Mr. Grant reports that over 10,000 deer hunters are now roaming the woods in that state for deer.

Bernard R. Smith of the Dover high school has a fishing team and this week he sends me a list of events for Group A, winter, and Group B for the next summer schedule. His motto Fish for fun not not food.

Edward Carter, Jr., brings in a woods gray fox. These foxes are getting more common as the years roll on. No value to their pelt and they catch as many hares and grouse as a red one.

Over four hundred acres of swell deer hunting have been closed to the deer hunters this past week in the town of Wilton. Too much careless hunting last year is the reason for the closing.

A lady in a nearby town wants to buy a daschund puppy for a Christmas present. Tell us where to get one. Not too high in price, just for a pet.

Here is a young fellow that wants a dog for Christmas. A small smooth male. Can't afford to pay much. What have you to make a boy happy?

Here is one for the book for you fisherman who want to try something new and strange. Do you want a real worm that will attract 'em? Well here is the dope. Take a common red brick, grind it up to red dust and mix with three times as much rich dirt. Transplant the worms into this mixture, keeping it slightly damp. About a week later the worms will turn a blood red color. Try one of these ice fishing this winter and watch results. You will be surprised and so will the pickerel.

Ever try to raise crickets for bait? Well the Polytechnic Institute in Alabama has raised them with good success. Raise them in garbage cans.

Henry P. Davis of the Remington Arms company tells the novice hunter what to do before he goes afield. Learn and observe the rules of safety. Try out your gun before going afield. Observe your state game laws. Ask the landowner for permission to hunt on his land. Get an experienced hunter to go with you. Take prompt and proper care of the game you shoot. Good dope.

Did you see the article in "Outdoor Life" for December? Engraving on shotguns. A nice article highly illustrated. Page 38. Worth reading. Then on page 46, How to Handle Rattlesnakes.

According to the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service the Alaska sea otter has been saved. This is a very valuable sea animal. These animals were slain so fast that they nearly went out of the picture. To show how scarce they were in London, a single pelt sold for $2500. The Government has protected them since 1911 and now they are on their way back.

Here is a party that wants to know how to keep strange dogs away from his lawn and hedge. Here is what an old dog man told me. He said go to your local drug store and buy some "Chaperone." That will keep 'em in their place. Use the same for cats to keep them from your favorite easy chair. You can't smell it, but they can.

Are you troubled with wild water plants in your pond or lake? Sometimes the water plants get so thick they stop all fishing. The state of Texas and several of the southern states have stocked their

Hillsboro Loses to Conant High School

JAFFREY—Tuesday night Hillsboro traveled to Jaffrey and were upset 41-38 by Conant High school in a hard-fought battle.

For the first half it was a fast, close, contest but a different story took place when the teams took the floor for the second half.

Conant started to make their shots while Hillsboro couldn't seem to find the range.

"Diz" Grimes proved to be the star for Hillsboro as he took nearly all the rebounds and still had time to drop in 7 points to tie Jim Duval for team honors.

Ponds and lakes with nuria. This is an animal between the muskrat and the beaver in size and has about the same habits. They are vegetarians and will not eat raw meat. In Texas they are reported as doing a fine job in saving ponds for good fishing. They are raised in large numbers in the west on game farms. These can be purchased in the western states. See your sporting magazines for advertisements.

Some people are interested in my family and they want to know how old the oldest "grand" is. Well, the oldest is Barbara Kraut, who is 19 and lives in Glendale, Cal., and is now a sophomore at Glendale college. The youngest is also a girl and is Susan T. Phillips and lives with her parents at Saint Paul, Va. Eighteen in all. A nice bunch of grands.

The grape farmers in California are using Z. I. P. to keep the deer from the vineyards. This zip has been tested from Maine to California and is doing a good job in saving the apple orchards. It is made by the B. F. Goodrich Chemical co., Cleveland, Ohio.

"Pathfinder" of November 29th tells us of the successful raising of wild turkeys in 18 states of the Union. Pennsylvania raises and liberates 5000 pen raised but "wild." Virginia claims she has 10,000 in the wild, while Texas beats them all in numbers. Massachusetts tried to raise them and they wintered well but someone got them all. Alabama, South Carolina, Mississippi and Florida are other states that propagate them. Never heard of N. H. trying the idea. Several years ago a man in Milford had a nice flock and one fall several of them vanished. He thought someone got them but two years later one tom came back where he was born.

Luman R. Nelson of Winchester sends me down his latest catalog on taxidermist work. He has a fine museum at Winchester and he did all the work for the state which you can see in the basement of the State House. It's worth a look see.

That big blow was a sad blow to me. It ripped off the roof of my peacock pen and I found my peacocks swimming. Been OK if it had been the duck pen. Rabbit pens also had the roofs ripped off. Compared to other damage in town mine was very slight.

Homing pigeons are coming in fast. Must be a big drive on from Albany, N. Y., to all points in Massachusetts. Had one brought in a few days ago from Weissport, Pa., picked up in New Ipswich. Hunters should remember that there is still a fine of $50. for shooting a homing pigeon. Several complaints the past week of these pigeons being killed.

Maroon and White Wallops Exeter

by GEORGE CHAPMAN

HILLSBORO—On Friday, Dec. 8, Hillsboro High school walloped their great rivals, the blue and white of Exeter, 58-33.

In the opening quarter it seemed that it might prove to be an exciting contest all the way but when the maroon and white found the range in the second period they hit with deadly accuracy.

With "Diz" Grimes and Ronnie Teixeira controlling the defensive boards and the forwards continually stealing the ball from the Exeter guards, Hillsboro looked like a great ball club.

The one sad incident was when Bud Gove got a finger in the eye in the first period and had to leave the game for treatment. Gove came back to start the last quarter.

Al Taylor was high scorer for the locals with 17 points and Jensen led the Exeter team with 12 points. The J. V.'s lost a stiff battle to the Exeter J. V.'s 54-33.

The main point was, although a person is classified as 1A he may still enlist in the National Guard but once he receives word to report for the physical there is no place to go to but in the Army. There are plenty of ratings open for the right men, so if you think you would like to be a Tanker contact anyone in the Tank Co. for information and go with a group of fellows you know.

Hillsboro Girls Defeat Conant Five 50-44

by Marjorie Jones

HILLSBORO—The Hillsboro girls won over Conant on their floor for the first time in three years. The score was 50-44.

The team played hard all through the game. Hillsboro can be very proud of the way the girls played on Conant's floor.

Ginny Bernard led the attack with 27 points, while Frances Rosenberg made 19. Ann Carew did a very good job of playing guard and forward.

Conant was a few points ahead of us until the second half when Hillsboro got warmed up then we began to score and there was nothing Conant could do about it. This victory made the third consecutive win for the Farmerettes.

Pat Perham's passing along with the fine zone guarding of Joyce Bigwood, Edith Wilton, and Elsie Edwards all helped toward the victory.
